Chapter Seven

The Chapter Concerning the Importance that the Sahabah Attached to Unity

This chapter highlights how the Sahabah attached great importance to unity in word and in deed and how they abstained from dissension and dispute in matters that had ramifications on Da'wah to Allaah and His Rasool and matters of Jihaad.

Statements of the Sahabah Concerning the Evil of Dissension

The Statement of Hadhrat Abu Bakr Concerning Dissension

Ibn Is’haaq reports the historic sermon that Hadhrat Abu Bakr delivered in the orchard of the Banu Sa’aidah. Hadhrat Abu Bakr said, "It is not permissible for the Muslim to have two leaders. As soon as this happens, dissension springs up in all their affairs and all the commands issued. Their unity is then fragmented and they start to fight amongst themselves. At this point, the Sunnah is forsaken, Bid’ah rears its ugly head and anarchy intensifies. No one can then set matters right." (1)

The Statement of Hadhrat Umar Concerning Dissension

In the narration discussing the scenario before the pledge of allegiance was taken at the hand of Hadhrat Abu Bakr, Hadhrat Saalim bin Ubayd states that someone from the Ansaar said, ".(Who do we not appoint) A leader from amongst us (Ansaar) and another from amongst you (Muhaajireen)." Hadhrat Umar responded to this by saying, "Two swords in one sheath! They will never fit." (2)

The Sermon of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood

in which he Warned about the Dangers of Dissension

Hadhraat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood  once said, "O people! You should hold fast to obedience to your leader and preserving your unity because unity is the rope of Allaah that Allaah has commanded you to hold fast to. What you dislike in staying united is much better than what you like in being divided. In everything that Allaah has created, He has also predetermined its end. Islaam is thriving right now and the time will soon come when it will also draw near to its end. It will then flourish and weaken until the Day of Qiyaamah. The sign of this is extreme poverty. Poverty will be so great that a poor man will not find anyone to give him anything and even a rich man will not regard what he has to be sufficient for him. In fact, a person will place his need before his blood brother and cousin, but none will give him anything. The situation will be so bad that a beggar will beg from Friday to Friday without anyone putting anything in his hand. When matters reach this ebb, a splitting sound will emerge from the earth, which will lead the people of every area to think that it is coming from the ground beneath them. There will then be silence for as long as Allaah wills, after which the earth will stir and start to vomit out all her prized possessions." When someone asked Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood  what the prized possessions of the earth are, he replied, "Pillars of gold and silver. From that day onwards, none shall benefit form gold and silver until the Day of Qiyaamah." \(^{(1)}\)

Another narration states that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood  said, "Family ties will be severed to the extent that the rich will only fear poverty and the poor will have none to show compassion towards him. In fact, even if a person has to place his need before his own brother or cousin, none would show a bit of sympathy to give him a thing." \(^{(2)}\)

The Statement of Hadhrat Abu Dharr

Concerning Dissension

A man related that they once took some things for Hadhrat Abu Dharr  However, when they reached Rabdha (the place where he lived) and asked for him, he was not available. Someone told them that Hadhrat Abu Dharr  had requested (the Ameerul Mu'mineen) to perform Hajj and had received permission. The men then left for Mina (where they found him). They were once sitting in his company when someone informed him that (the Ameerul Mu'mineen) Hadhrat Uthmaan  had performed four Rakaahs salaah (in Mina) \(^{(3)}\). This upset Hadhrat Abu Dharr  greatly and he had strong words to say. He also said, "When I performed salaah behind Rasulullaah  (in Mina), he performed only two Rakaahs salaah. I then performed salaah behind Abu Bakr and Umar (both of whom also performed two Rakaahs)."

(Despite saying this) Hadhrat Abu Dharr then stood up (when the salaah was performed) and performed four Rakaahs salaah (behind Hadhrat Uthmaan). Someone said to him, "You have just criticised the Ameerul Mu'mineen but you now do the same thing he did?" Hadhrat Abu Dharr replied, "Causing dissension (by opposing the Ameerul Mu'mineen) is even worse. I have heard Rasulullaah say, 'There shall be kings after me. Never disgrace them because whoever ventures to do so will have taken off the rope of Islaam from his neck and cast it away. The repentance of such a person will never be accepted until he fills the void he has created (by repairing the damage he has done to the Deen), which he will be unable to do and he then returns to the ranks of those who honour the king.' Rasulullaah has commanded us not to allow the kings to overpower us with regards to three factors (although we should honour them, this should not prevent us from three things): (1) that we enjoin people to do good, (2) that we prevent them from evil and (3) that we teach them the Sunnah."

The Statement of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood

Hadrat Qataadah narrates that Rasulullaah, Hadhrat Abu Bakr and Hadhrat Umar all performed two Rakaahs (Fardh) salaah in Makkah and in Mina. Hadhrat Uthmaan also used to do this during the initial years of his Khilaafah. However, he then started performing four Rakaahs. When this news reached Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood, he recited "Innaa Lillaahi wa Innaa Ilayhi Raaji'oon" but (when the salaah was performed), he then stood up and performed four Rakaahs salaah (behind Hadhrat Uthmaan). Someone said to him, "You have just recited 'Innaa Lillaahi wa Innaa Ilayhi Raaji'oon' but you have performed four Rakaahs salaah?" Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood replied, "Causing dissension (by opposing the Ameerul Mu'mineen) is even worse." (2)

The Statement of Hadhrat Ali Concerning Dissension, Bid'ah, Unity and Disunity

Hadrat Ali once said (to the people), "Continue doing as you have been doing (during the terms of the previous Khalifahs) because I hate disunity. Either people remain an undivided nation or I die (without seeing any disunity) as my companions (Hadrat Abu Bakr, Hadhrat Umar and Hadhrat Uthmaan) had passed away." For this reason Hadrat Ibn Sceereen was of the opinion that most of the narrations that some people of extreme viewpoints narrated from Hadrat Ali were false (they

(2) Abdur Razzaaq, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.242).
Hadrat Saleem bin Qais Aamiri narrates that IbnuI Kawwa once asked Hadrat Ali about the Sunnah, Bid'ah, unity and disunity. Hadrat Ali replied, "O IbnuI Kawwa! Just as you have memorised the question, so too should you remember the reply. By Allaah, the Sunnaah is the way of Rasulullaah while Bid'ah is everything that contradicts it. By Allaah, unity is the consensus of the people of truth even though they may be few while disunity is the consensus of the people of falsehood even though they may be many." (2)

The Standpoint of the Sahabah Concerning the Khilaafah after the demise of Rasulullaah

The Sahabah Unanimously Accept Hadrat Abu Bakr as Khalifah

The Demise of Rasulullaah and the Sermon of Hadrat Abu Bakr

Hadrat Urwa bin Zubayr says that (after hearing about the demise of Rasulullaah) Hadrat Abu Bakr came on his animal from the Sunh district of Madinah. He then dismounted at the door of the Masjid. He was filled with heartache and grief as he sought permission to enter the room of his daughter Hadrat Aa'isha. When she gave permission, he entered the room where Rasulullaah had passed away on the bed. Sitting around Rasulullaah were his wives who veiled their faces and concealed themselves from Hadrat Abu Bakr. Of course, there was no need for Hadrat Aa'isha to do so. Hadrat Abu Bakr opened the face of Rasulullaah and then knelt on his knees to kiss Rasulullaah. He wept as he said, "What the son of Khattaab says is not true." I swear by the Being Who controls my life that Rasulullaah has certainly passed away. May Allaah's mercy be showered on you, O Rasulullaah! You are so pure in life and in death!"

Hadrat Abu Bakr then covered the face of Rasulullaah and hastened to the Masjid, skipping over the shoulders of people sitting there until he reached the pulpit. When he saw Hadrat Abu Bakr approach, even Hadrat Umar sat down. Standing at the side of the pulpit, Hadrat Abu Bakr called the people and they all sat down and kept silent. He recited the Shahaadah as he knew it and said, "Allaah had given the news of the demise of His Nabi when he was still alive amongst you. He has also given you the news of your own deaths. Death is a reality and there will come a time when none but Allaah will be alive. Allaah has declared:

\text{"Allaah has also mentioned: }\text{"Everything shall perish but His Countenance. All decisions rest with Him and to Him shall you all be returned (after death)."} \tag{3}

\text{"Allaah also says: }\text{"Everything on earth shall perish (on the Day of Qiyaamah if not sooner). (When this happens,) Only the countenance of your Rabb the Possessor of majesty and benevolence shall remain (forever, without ever perishing)."} \tag{4}

\text{"Allaah says in another verse: }\text{"Everyone shall taste death and it is only on the Day of Qiyaamah that you will be given your rewards in full (although partial rewards are received in this world and in the grave)."} \tag{5}

Hadhrat Umar exclaimed, "Is this verse in the Qur'aan? By Allaah, to this day, I had never known that it was ever revealed (I had completely forgotten about it)" Hadhrat Abu Bakr continued, "Allaah has also mentioned the following about Muhammad:

Hadhrat Abu Bakr continued: "Allaah had given a lifetime to Rasulullah and kept him alive until he established the Deen of Allaah, made the commands of Allaah explicit, passed on the message of Allaah and exerted himself in the path of Allaah. In this condition, Allaah then took him away after he had left you on a path. Now whoever dies will die after being exposed to the clear proofs (of Imaan) and the great cure (to kufr, which is the Qur'aan). Therefore, whoever took Allaah as his Rabb should know that Allaah is Alive and shall never die. On the other hand, whoever worshipped Muhammad and took him as a god should know that their god is no more. Fear Allaah, O people! Hold fast to your Deen and rely on your Rabb because the Deen of Allaah has been established and the word of Allaah is complete. Allaah will assist whoever assists the Deen of Allaah and it is Allaah Who will strengthen His Deen. Indeed, the Book of Allaah that is amongst you is a light and a source of healing. It is through this Book that Allaah had guided Muhammad and it contains the details of the things that Allaah has made Halaal and what He has made Haraam. By Allaah! We have no concern for any of Allaah's creation that wishes to attack us because the swords of Allaah are drawn and we shall never put them down. We shall continue fighting those who oppose us just as we did with Rasulullaah. Whoever now seeks to oppress shall be oppressing only himself." The Muhaajireen then left together with Hadhrat Abu Bakr to (tend to the burial of) Rasulullaah. (1)

The Sermon of Hadhrat Umar when Most of the Sahabah pledge their allegiance to Hadhrat Abu Bakr

Hadhrat Anas reports that he heard the closing sermon of Hadhrat Umar as he sat on the pulpit the day after Rasulullaah passed away. Hadhrat Abu Bakr sat in silence without saying a word. Hadhrat Umar said, "I wished that Rasulullaah would remain alive until we had all passed away, so that he would be the last of us alive. (However, we have nothing to fear because) Even though Muhammad has passed away, Allaah has left in our midst a light (the Qur'aan) by which we are guided and which has also guided Muhammad. Abu Bakr is the close companion of Rasulullaah. He was 'the second of the two' (in the cave with Rasulullaah during the Hijrah) and he is the most worthy of administering the affairs of the Muslims. You should therefore stand up and pledge your allegiance to him." Although a large group had already pledged their allegiance to Hadhrat Abu Bakr in the orchard of the Banu Sa'adah, the general pledge of all the Muslims took place in the Masjid. (3) Imaam Zuhri narrates from Hadhrat Anas that on that day Hadhrat Umar  kept insisting that Hadhrat Abu Bakr  mount the pulpit until he was forced to do so. The general public then pledged their allegiance to him.

(2) This refers to verse 40 of Surah Taubah in which Allaah says, "If you do not assist him (Rasulullaah), then indeed Allaah had assisted him when the Kuffaar drove him out (of Makkah). He was the second of the two (the other being his bosom friend Abu Bakr) when they were hiding from the Kuffaar in the cave (outside Makkah) and he (Rasulullaah) told his companion (Abu Bakr) when the Kuffaar were on the verge of capturing them, "Do not grieve (do not fear for my safety). Verily Allaah is with us (and He will protect us from the Kuffaar)."

The Sahabah  pledge their allegiance to

Hadhrat Abu Bakr  in the Orchard

Imaam Zuhri narrates from Hadhrat Anas  that the day after the Sahabah had pledged their allegiance to Hadhrat Abu Bakr  in the orchard, Hadhrat Abu Bakr  sat on the pulpit (in the Masjid) as Hadhrat Umar stood by. Speaking before Hadhrat Abu Bakr , Hadhrat Umar duly praised Allaah and then said, "O people! What I told you yesterday (that Rasulullaah  had not passed away) was incorrect. Neither have I found this in the Book of Allaah nor has Rasulullaah  instructed me to say it. However, I always thought that Rasulullaah  would be the last of us (and found it difficult to accept that he had left the world before us). Nevertheless, Allaah has left with you His Book by which he guided Rasulullaah . Allaah has also united you under the leadership of the best amongst you, namely the close companion of Rasulullaah  who was 'the second of the two when they were in the cave'. So stand up and pledge your allegiance to Abu Bakr ."

The general public then pledged their allegiance to Hadhrat Abu Bakr  after some had already pledged their allegiance in the orchard.

Hadhrat Abu Bakr  then addressed the people. After duly praising Allaah, he said, "O people! Although I have been appointed as your leader, I am by no means the best of you. Should I do what is right, do assist me and should I do wrong, do correct me. To be truthful is a great trust while lying is a terrible misappropriation of trust. The weak amongst you are powerful in my eyes and I shall see that I remove the causes for his complaint. On the other hand, the powerful ones amongst you are weak in my eyes and I shall endeavour to take from them the dues (they owe to others), Inshaa Allaah. Whenever a nation forsakes Jihaaad, Allaah humiliates them and whenever immoral behaviour becomes widespread amongst them, Allaah surrounds them with calamities. Obey me as long as I obey Allaah and His Rasool . However, should I ever disobey Allaah and His Rasool , you are not obliged to obey me at all. You may now stand up for your salaah. May Allaah shower His mercies on you all." (1)

The Khilaafah of Hadhrat Abu Bakr  and the

and he was waiting for Hadrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf

one day in Mina during the final Hajj that Hadrat Umar bin Khattaab performed. When Hadrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf returned to the place where they were staying, he informed Hadrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas

that a man had approached Hadrat Umar and told him about someone else who had said, "When Umar passes away, I shall pledge my allegiance to a certain man (Hadrat Talha bin Ubaydullaah because the pledge of allegiance taken to Abu Bakr was a very sudden thing and came to a completion (I shall also do so all of a sudden and he will automatically become the Khalifah)." Hadrat Umar said, "Inshaa Allaah I shall deliver a lecture to the people tonight to warn them about this group that wishes to snatch away the Khilaafah." However, Hadrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf said, "Do not do that, 0 Ameerul Mu'mineen because Hajj brings together even the riff-raff and people of low understanding. When you stand up to address the people, it is these types of people who will dominate the gathering and when you speak, they will exaggerate your words without understanding them and give them interpretations they were never intended to mean. Wait until you reach Madinah because it is the place of Hijrah and the Sunnah. There you should gather the learned scholars and prominent people and address them at ease.

They will understand you and interpret your words as you intend them."
Hadrat Umar

then said, "If I reach Madinah, I shall definitely address the people about this at the first opportunity."

Hadrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas relates further, "When we returned to Madinah on a Friday during the end of Dhul Hijjah, I hastened to the Masjid at midday without bothering about the intense heat. There I saw that Sa'eed bin had preceded me and was sitting on the right hand side of the pulpit. I sat in front of him with my knees touching his. It was not long before arrived. I said, 'This afternoon he will say such things on this pulpit that were never said before.' Sa'eed bin Zaid refuted what I said by saying, 'It is unlikely that he will say anything that no other has mentioned before.' Umar sat down and after the Mu'adhin had finished, he stood up. After duly praising Allaah, he said, 'O people! What I wish to say today has been predestined for me to say for I know not whether death may be lurking before me. Therefore, whoever understands what I say and remembers it should take it as far as his conveyance can carry him. However, I do not give permission for anyone who does not understand it well to go and lie about me.'

Zaid

Umar

continued, "Allaah had sent Muhammad with the truth and revealed a Book to him. Amongst the verses revealed to him were the verses of Rajm (stoning to death of a married person found guilty of adultery).

We read the verse, memorised it and understood it. Rasulullaah therefore had people stoned and we did so after him. I fear that as lengthy periods of time pass by you, people would begin to say, 'We do not find the verse of Rajm in the Qur'aan.' They will therefore go astray by forsaking a compulsory injunction that Allaah has detailed. Rajm is therefore established in the Book of Allaah to be enforced on married males and females when either proven guilty beyond doubt, when pregnancy takes place or when the person confesses.

Take note that we also used to read, 'Do not turn away from your forefathers (by associating yourselves with others) because turning away from them is extreme ingratitude.' (just as it was with the verse of Rajm, the words of this verse were abrogated without the injunction being cancelled). Listen well! Verily Rasulullaah ﷺ said, 'Never be excessive in praising me as people were excessive in praising Isa the son of Maryam ﷺ. I am only a servant of Allaah, so refer to me as Allaah's servant and His Rasool ﷺ.' The news has also reached me that one of you has said, 'When Umar ﷺ passes away, I shall pledge my allegiance to so-and-so.' No person should ever be fooled into saying that the pledge of allegiance taken to Abu Bakr ﷺ was a very sudden thing and came to a completion. Although it did happen very quickly, Allaah had saved the entire Ummah from any evil (that would have been the result of it being delayed). In addition to this, you have no one today of the calibre of Abu Bakr ﷺ for whom people would sacrifice their very lives.

What happened on the day that Rasulullaah ﷺ passed away was that Ali ﷺ, Zubayr ﷺ and those with them stayed behind in the house of Faatima ﷺ the daughter of Rasulullaah ﷺ. On the other hand, every one of the Ansaar stayed behind in the orchard of the Banu Saa'idah while the Muhaajireen gathered around Abu Bakr ﷺ. I said, 'O Abu Bakr ﷺ! Let us go to our Ansaar brothers.' As we walked towards them, we met two righteous men (Hadhrat Uwaym Ansaari ﷺ and Hadhrat Ma'n ﷺ) who informed us about what the Ansaar were doing. They asked, 'Where are you off to, O assembly of Muhaajireen?' We are off to see our brothers from the Ansaar,' we replied. 'No!' they said, 'There is no need for you to do that. Why don't you Muhaajireen rather discuss your own affairs.' I said, 'By Allaah! We shall definitely go to them.' We then went to the orchard of the Banu Saa'idah where we found the Ansaar gathered together.' In their midst we saw someone wrapped in a blanket. 'Who is that?' I asked. 'Sa'd bin Ubaadah,' they replied. I asked further, 'What is wrong with him?' 'He is ill,' came the reply.

After we were seated, one of the Ansaar stood up to give a lecture. After duly praising Allaah, he said, 'We are the Ansaar (helpers) of Allaah's Deen and the army of Islaam. You, O assembly of Muhaajireen, are the group of our Nabi ﷺ and one of you has mentioned things that give us the impression that you wish to snub us and keep the Khilaafah away from us.' When he was silent, I intended to say something that I had prepared. It was an impressive speech that I intended saying before Abu Bakr ﷺ in which (my usual) harshness was well concealed. However, Abu Bakr ﷺ bade me to be quiet and I did not wish to oppose him since he was more knowledgeable and more composed than me (so I remained seated). By Allaah! (When he spoke) Abu Bakr ﷺ did not omit to say anything that impressed me from what I had prepared. Until he had completed, he either said exactly what I wanted to say or better than that.

He said, 'You (Ansaar) are most worthy of whatever good you have already mentioned. However, the Arabs associate leadership only with the Quraysh tribe because their lineage and their city is the best. I have selected two persons for you. You may pledge your allegiance to whichever one of them you choose.' Abu Bakr then took hold of my hand and the hand of Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah. Besides this, there was nothing of his speech that I disliked. By Allaah! I would prefer being led to be executed for committing no crime rather than being the leader of a community that includes Abu Bakr. This is what I felt at that time and I do not know whether this opinion would change at the time of my death.

Someone from the Ansaar then said, 'I have the perfect solution and the best medicine for this. O assembly of Quraysh! Let there be an Ameer from amongst us and another from amongst you.' Order was then lost and voices started being raised. This reached such a point that we feared serious dissension. I then said, 'Stretch out your hand, O Abu Bakr!' When he stretched out his hand, I pledged my allegiance to him and all the Muhajireen followed suit. The Ansaar then also pledged their allegiance to him. (In the furore) We happened to bump Sa'd bin Ubaadah over. When someone said, 'You have killed Sa'd,' I replied, 'Allaah has killed Sa'd.' By Allaah! From all matters that we have jointly participated in, there was no matter more timeously done than the pledge of allegiance taken at the hand of Abu Bakr. (We acted quickly because) We feared that if we left the Ansaar without any pledge of allegiance being taken, they would take the pledge of allegiance by themselves (at the hands of someone else). We would then either be forced to pledge our allegiance as they had done against our wishes or we would have to oppose them, the obvious result of which would have been anarchy and disorder. (The crux is that) Whoever pledges his allegiance to another without consulting the Muslims has not pledged any allegiance and neither has the other person any authority (as a leader). In fact, it is feared that they would both be killed.

A narration of Zuhri from Hadhrat Urwa states that the two men who met Hadhrat Abu Bakr and Hadhrat Umar were Hadhrat Uwaym bin Saa'idah and Hadhrat Ma'n bin Adi. A narration of Sa'eed bin Musayyib clarifies that the Sahabi who said, "I have the perfect solution and the best medicine for this" was Hadhrat Hubaab bin Mundhir.

The Narration of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas Concerning the Talk of Khilaafah that took Place in the Orchard of the Banu Saa'idad

Hadrat Umar narrates that what actually happened after Rasulullah passed away was that someone came and informed them that the Ansaar... had gathered with Hadhrat Sa’d bin Ubaadah  in the orchard of the Banu Saa’idah where they intended taking the pledge of allegiance. Hadhrat Umar  and Hadhrat Abu Bakr  and Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah stood up in alarm and hastened towards the Ansaar fearing that they may introduce something strange into Islaam. En route they happened to meet two truthful men; Hadhrat Uwaym bin Saa’idah and Hadhrat Ma’n bin Adi . When the two men asked where the others were off to, the others replied, "We are off to see your people (the Ansaar) concerning what we have heard about their activities." The two men said, "You may return because you can never be opposed and nothing can be done without your approval." Hadhrat Umar  says, "We refused to listen to them and continued. In the meantime, I was preparing a speech to say to them. When we eventually reached them, we found them all around Sa’d bin Ubaadah who was lying on a bed due to illness." When the Muhaajireen arrived, the Ansaar addressed them saying, "O assembly of the Quraysh! Let there be an Ameer from amongst us and another from amongst you." Hadhrat Hubaab bin Mundhir  added, "I have the perfect solution and the best medicine for this. By Allaah! If you agree, we could make this as pleasant as a young camel." "Take it easy," said Hadhrat Abu Bakr . As he started talking, he first bade Hadhrat Umar  to be silent. Thereafter, he praised Allaah and said, "O assembly of Ansaar! I swear by Allaah that we do not deny your virtues. We neither deny the high status that you have reached in Islaam nor the rights that we owe you. However, even you acknowledge that no other tribe enjoys the status that the Quraysh enjoys amongst all the Arabs. You also know well that the Arabs will unite only under the leadership of one of them. While we (from the Quraysh) shall be the leaders, you (Ansaar) shall be our ministers. Fear Allaah! Do not cause divisions in Islaam and do not be the first to introduce something strange into Islaam. I have selected two men (referring to Hadhrat Umar  and Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah ). Whichever of them you choose to pledge your allegiance, you may be rest assured that he is dependable."

Hadhrat Umar  says, "By Allaah! There was nothing that I wanted said which Abu Bakr  did not say except this part (where he named me as a potential candidate). I swear by Allaah that I would prefer being killed, then brought back to life and then being killed again for no crime on my part rather than being appointed leader of a community that includes Abu Bakr ."

Hadhrat Umar  then addressed the gathering saying, "O assembly of Ansaar! O assembly of Muslims! Indeed the person most worthy of leadership after Rasulullaah is 'the second of the two when they were in the cave'. He is Abu Bakr who was clearly the very first (to enter Islaam)."

Hadhrat Umar  then grabbed the hand of Hadhrat Abu Bakr  but before he could pledge his allegiance to Hadhrat Abu Bakr , an Ansaari beat him to it. All the other people followed suit and no attention was given to Hadhrat Sa’d bin Ubaadah .

The Narration of Hadhrat Ibn Seereen Concerning what Happened in the Hall of the Banu Saa'idah

Hadhrat Ibn Seereen narrates from a man from the Banu Zuraiq tribe that on that fateful day (when Rasulullaah passed away), Hadhrat Abu Bakr and Hadhrat Umar went to the Ansaar. Hadhrat Abu Bakr said, "O assembly of Ansaar! We certainly do not deny the rights owed to you. In fact, no Mu'min can deny these rights. By Allaah! You have always shared in any good that came to us. However, the Arabs will never accept and shall never be happy with any leader that does not belong to the Quraysh. This is because from all Arabs the Quraysh are the most eloquent of people, have the best lineage, have the best city and feed the most people. Come to Umar and pledge your allegiance to him." "No!" replied the Ansaar. "Why not?" asked Hadhrat Umar. The Ansaar replied, "Because we fear that he will give others preference over us." Hadhrat Umar said, "Never! I shall never do this as long as I live. Rather pledge your allegiance to Abu Bakr." Hadhrat Abu Bakr said to Hadhrat Umar, "You are stronger than me." "But you are more virtuous than me," responded Hadhrat Umar. Hadhrat Umar repeated this three times. On the third time, Hadhrat Umar added, "Together with your virtue, you shall have my strength with you." Addressing the people, he then said, "Pledge your allegiance to Abu Bakr." As people were pledging their allegiance to Hadhrat Abu Bakr, some people approached Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah (to pledge allegiance to him). Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah said to them, "How can you come to me when you have amongst you the second of the two?" (1)

The Sahabah Place Hadhrat Abu Bakr Ahead for Khilaafah, Are Pleased to Select him and Condemn Anyone who desires to Divide their Unity

A narration of Ibn Asaakir and the Statement of Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah Concerning the Khilaafah of Hadhrat Abu Bakr

Hadhrat Muslim narrates that Hadhrat Abu Bakr sent a message to Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah saying, "Come forward so that I may make you the Khalifah because I have heard Rasulullaah say that every nation has an Ameen (someone most trustworthy) and that you are the Ameen of this Ummah." Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah replied, "I can never step ahead of a person (yourself) whom Rasulullaah had instructed to lead us in salaah." (2)

A Hadith of Ahmad and the statements of Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah and Hadhrat Uthmaan Concerning the Khilaafah of Hadhrat Abu Bakr

Hadrat Abul Bakhtari narrates that Hadrat Umar said to Hadrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah, "Stretch out your hand so that I may pledge my allegiance to you because I have heard Rasulullaah say that you are the Ameen of this Ummah." Hadrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah replied, "I am not likely to step ahead of a person whom Rasulullaah had commanded to lead us in salaah and who then led us in salaah until Rasulullaah passed away." (1)

Another narration states that Hadrat Abu Ubaydah said, "Since accepting Islaam I have never seen you do something so ridiculous! How can you pledge allegiance to me when you have amongst you As Siddeeq who is 'the second of the two'?'" (2)

Hadrat Uthmaan bin Affaan said, "Abu Bakr is the most worthy of it (Khilaafah) because he was 'the second of the two' and the close companion of Rasulullaah."

Hadrat Abu Bakr declines to Accept the post of Khalifah and the statements of Hadrat Ali and Hadhrat Zubayr he is most Worthy of the Position

Hadrat Sa'd bin Ibraheem bin Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf narrates that Hadrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf was with Hadrat Umar when Hadrat Muhammad bin Masalama broke the sword of Hadrat Zubayr. Hadrat Abu Bakr then stood up to address the people and excused himself (from accepting the post as Khalifah). He said, "I swear by Allaah that there was not a single day or night in which I desired leadership. Neither was I inclined towards leadership nor have I ever prayed to Allaah for it in secret or in public. However, I accepted the post because I feared great anarchy (amongst the Muslims without a leader). I derive no peace in leadership. I have been burdened with a formidable task that I have no power to do without the strength provided by Allaah. I still wish that someone more powerful than me was in my position today."

Although the Muhaajireen accepted what Hadrat Abu Bakr had to say, Hadrat Ali and Hadrat Zubayr said, "The only grievance we have is that we were excluded from the consultations. However, we are also of the opinion that Abu Bakr is most worthy of the post after Rasulullah. He was the companion of Rasulullah in the cave and the 'second of the two'. We definitely acknowledge his status and his seniority. After all, Rasulullah did instruct him to lead the Muslims in salaah while Rasulullah was alive." (1)

The narration of Ibn Asaakir Concerning the Difference of Opinion between Hadhrat Ali and Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan

Hadhrat Suwayd bin Ghatala narrates that Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan once came to Hadhrat Ali and Hadhrat Abbaas and said, "O Ali and Abbaas! What is wrong that leadership is with the clan of the Quraysh that is the lowest in rank and the fewest in number? By Allaah! If you wish, I could fill Madinah with cavalry and infantry (to oppose Hadhrat Abu Bakr)."

Hadhrat Ali replied, "No, by Allaah! I have no desire for you to fill Madinah with cavalry and infantry. Had we not believed that Abu Bakr was worthy of the post, we would have never left it to him. O Abu Sufyaan! The Mu'mineen are a people who wish well for each other. They love each other even though their homes and bodies may be far apart. On the other hand, it is the Munaafiqeen who endeavour to deceive each other." (2)

Another similar narration adds about the Munaafiqeen, "Even though their homes and bodies are close by, they are people who deceive each other. We have pledged our allegiance to Abu Bakr and he is most worthy of the post." (3)

A Narration of Abdur Razzaaq and Haakim Concerning What Happened between Hadhrat Ali and Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan

Hadhrat Ibn Abjar reports that after the pledge of allegiance was taken at the hand of Hadhrat Abu Bakr, Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan went to Hadhrat Ali and said, "The smallest clan of the Quraysh has overpowered you with regards to leadership! Listen well! If you wish, I could fill Madinah with cavalry and infantry (to oppose Hadhrat Abu Bakr)." Hadhrat Ali said to him, "Even if you remain the enemy of Islaam and the Muslims forever, it will not affect Islaam and its people in the least. In our opinion, Abu Bakr is most worthy of the position." (4)

Hadhrat Murra bin Tayyib narrates that Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan bin Harb approached Hadhrat Ali to say, "How is it that leadership has gone to that clan of the Quraysh who are the smallest in number and the lowest in rank

The Differences between Hadhrat Umar and Hadhrat Khaalid bin Sa'eed Concerning the Khilaafah of Hadhrat Abu Bakr

Hadhrat Sakhar who was Rasulullaah's bodyguard narrates that Hadhrat Khaalid bin Sa'eed was in Yemen when Rasulullaah passed away. He arrived in Madinah a month after Rasulullaah's demise wearing a silken cloak. When he met Hadhrat Umar and Hadhrat Ali, Hadhrat Umar called out to the people, "Tear up his cloak! How can he wear silk when he is a Muslim man in times of peace?" After the people had torn his cloak up, Hadhrat Khaalid bin Sa'eed said, "O Abu Hasan (Hadhrat Ali)! O family of Abd Manaaf! Have you been overpowered in leadership?" Hadhrat Ali said to him, "Do you view this as a power struggle or Khilaafah?" Hadhrat Khaalid bin Sa'eed said, "O family of Abd Manaaf! No person better than you should overpower you in this matter (how could you allow Abu Bakr to do so when he does not belong to the family of Abd Manaaf?)." Hadhrat Umar then said to Hadhrat Khaalid, "May Allaah smash your mouth! By Allaah! If any liar contemplates on what you have mentioned, he will do harm only to himself." (3)

A Narration of Hadhrat Ummu Khaalid Concerning what Happened between Hadhrat Abu Bakr and Hadhrat Khaalid bin Sa'eed

Hadhrat Ummu Khaalid who was the daughter of Hadhrat Khaalid bin Sa'eed narrates that her father returned from Yemen only after the Muslims had already pledged their allegiance to Hadhrat Abu Bakr. Addressing Hadhrat Ali and Hadhrat Uthmaan, he said, "Do you people who are from the family of Abd Manaaf accept that a person who does not belong to your clan should be appointed as your leader?" When Hadhrat Umar reported this to Hadhrat Abu Bakr, Hadhrat Abu Bakr ignored it while it remained in the heart of Hadhrat Umar. Hadhrat Khaalid bin Sa'eed continued staying in Madinah for three months without pledging his allegiance to Hadhrat Abu Bakr.

Sa‘eed one afternoon, Hadhrat Abu Bakr greeted him. Hadhrat Khaalid said, "Do you want me to pledge my allegiance to you?" Hadhrat Abu Bakr replied, "All I want you to do is to enter into the agreement that all the Muslims have entered into." Hadhrat Khaalid then said, "Let us make an appointment for tonight when I shall pledge my allegiance to you." Hadhrat Khaalid arrived when Hadhrat Abu Bakr was seated on the pulpit and pledged his allegiance.

Hadhrat Abu Bakr always had a good opinion of Hadhrat Khaalid bin Sa‘eed and respected him. When Hadhrat Abu Bakr once dispatched an army to Shaam, he appointed Hadhrat Khaalid as the commander (and gave him the flag). When Hadhrat Khaalid took the flag home, Hadhrat Umar said to Hadhrat Abu Bakr, "How can you give command to Khaalid when he had made those statements in the past?" Hadhrat Umar insisted so much that Hadhrat Abu Bakr eventually sent Hadhrat Abu Arwa Dowisi to Hadhrat Khaalid with the message, "The Khalifah of Rasulullaah requests you to return the flag to us." Hadhrat Khaalid took out the flag and handed it over. He then said, "By Allaah! Just as the appointment to command did not please me, the dismissal does not grieve me. The one to be blamed is someone other than the Khalifah (i.e. Hadhrat Umar)."

Hadhrat Ummu Khaalid narrated further, "It was not long afterwards that Abu Bah came to apologise to my father and took a promise from him not to every speak ill of Umar. By Allaah! My father then always prayed for Umar until he passed away." (1)

Hadrat Abu Bakr Marches for Jihaad by Himself and the statement of Hadhrat Ali in this Regard

Hadhrat Aa‘isha narrates that Hadhrat Abu Bakr once drew his sword and rode his animal towards Dhu Qassah. Hadhrat Ali took hold of the animal's reins and said, "Where are you off to, O Khalifah of Rasulullaah? Today I shall say to you what Rasulullaah said to you during the Battle of Uhud; 'Sheath your sword and do not cause me grief (by getting yourself injured or martyred). I swear by Allaah that if we suffer any grief through you (coming to harm), Islaam shall never regain its form." Hadhrat Abu Bakr then returned and dispatched an army instead. (2) post as Khalifah because I had aspirations for it and because I desired to gain superiority over you. This is not true! I swear by the Being Who controls my life that I have never assumed the post because of any aspirations and neither to attain superiority over you people or over any Muslim. I have never desired the position for a single night or day and I have never prayed to Allaah for it either secretly or in public. However, I have been burdened with this extremely formidable task which I have no strength to carry out without the assistance of Allaah. I do wish that it be handed over to any other companion of Rasulullaah provided that he exercises justice. I am therefore returning the portfolio to you and acknowledge no pledge of allegiance from you. You may hand the post over to whoever you please for I am just an ordinary man amongst you.”

The Response of the Sahabah to Hadhrat Abu Bakr and their Statement Confirming that he was the Best Amongst them

Hadhrat Isa bin Atiyya reports that the day after the Sahabah had pledged their allegiance to Hadhrat Abu Bakr, he stood up to deliver a lecture. He said, "O people! I am cancelling your decision (to appoint me as Khalifah) for I am not the best of you. You should therefore pledge your allegiance to the person who is best amongst you." The Sahabah stood up and replied, "O Khalifah of Rasulullaah! We swear by Allaah that you are the best amongst us."

Hadhrat Abu Bakr then said, "O people! There are people who entered into Islaam willingly and those who entered unwillingly. However, they are now all in Allaah’s protection and His neighbours. Therefore, if it is possible that Allaah does not find you guilty of wronging anyone in His protection, then make sure that you do so. I also have a Shaytaan with me so when you see me angry, stay away from me so that I may not harm even your hair or your skin. O people! Keep watch over the income of your slaves because flesh nourished with Haraam cannot enter Jannah. Hear this well! Inspect me with your eyes and assist me when I do good. However should I deviate, then do correct me. Obey me as long as I obey Allaah and disobey me if I disobey Allaah.”

The Reply that Hadhrat Ali gave to Hadhrat Abu Bakr Emphasising that they would never Accept his Relinquishing the Khilaafah nor would they ever ask him to relinquish it

Hadhrat Abul Jahhaaf narrates that for three days after people pledged their allegiance to Hadhrat Abu Bakr, he kept his door locked and on each day he would come out to say to the people, "O people! I have cancelled the pledge of allegiance that you have given me. You may therefore pledge your allegiance to whoever you please." Each time that he said this, Hadhrat Ali bin Abi Taalib responded by saying, "Neither will we accept your relinquishing the Khilaafah nor will we ever ask you to relinquish it. When Rasulullaah had placed you ahead, who can ever pull you back?" (1)

Hadhrat Zaid bin Ali narrated from his seniors that on three occasions, Hadhrat Abu Bakr announced from the pulpit, "is there anyone who is displeased (with me being the Khalifah) so that I may relinquish the post?" Each time it was Hadhrat Ali bin Abi Taalib who replied, "Neither will we accept your relinquishing the Khilaafah nor will we ever ask you to relinquish it. When Rasulullaah had placed you ahead, who can ever pull you back?" (2)

What Happened between Hadhrat Abu Bakr and Hadhrat Ibn Abu Raafi

Hadhrat Raafi ibn Abu Raafi narrated, "After the people had appointed Hadhrat Abu Bakr as Khalifah, I said (to myself), 'This is the very man who told me never to assume leadership over even two persons (contrary to his own advice, he has now become the leader of all the Muslims).' I then left (home) and rode to Madinah. I then confronted Hadhrat Abu Bakr and said, 'O Abu Bakr! Do you recognise me?' 'I certainly do,' he replied. I asked further, 'Do you remember something that you once told me that I should not assume leadership over even two persons? However, you have assumed leadership over the entire Ummah.' He replied, 'When Rasulullaah left this world, the people were still new in Islaam. Although I disliked it, I then assumed the post because I feared that (without leadership) they would revert to kufr and dispute with each other. In addition to this, my companions also kept insisting.' Abu Bakr then continued giving me his reasons until my heart was content (that he assumed the post solely for the welfare of the Deen)." (3)

Being Grieved After Accessing the Post of Khilaafah

Hadrat Abu Bakr says to Hadhrat Umar, "It was you who forced me to assume this post"

A man from the family of Rabee'ah says that news reached him that Hadhrat Abu Bakr sat at home in grief after he was appointed as Khalifah. When Hadhrat Umar came to the house, Hadhrat Abu Bakr scolded him saying, "It was you who forced me to assume this post." When Hadhrat Abu Bakr complained to Hadhrat Umar \( \text{مكن} \) that he found passing judgement a worrisome task. Hadhrat Umar \( \text{مكن} \) said, "Don't you know that Rasulullaah \( \text{مكن} \) said, 'When a leader applies himself (and passes a ruling,) he will receive twice the reward if he is correct. On the other hand, if he errs (in his ruling) after applying himself, he will still receive a single reward.'" This statement seemed to ease matters for Hadhrat Abu Bakr \( \text{مكن} \). (1)

Hadhrat Abu Bakr \( \text{مكن} \)'s Last Words to Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf \( \text{مكن} \)

Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf \( \text{مكن} \) narrates that Hadhrat Abu Bakr \( \text{مكن} \) said the following to him on his deathbed, "I have no regrets about anything that I have done except for three things that I wish I had never done. There are also three things I have never done that I wish I had. There are three other things that I wished I had enquired from Rasulullaah \( \text{مكن} \)." Amongst the things that this narration contains is that Hadhrat Abu Bakr \( \text{مكن} \) said, "I wish that on the day that we were (selecting the Khalifah) in the orchard of Banu Saa'idah, I had forced the post on to one of two persons, either Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah or Umar. One of them would then have been the Ameer while I could have served as his minister." Another thing mentioned in the narration is that he said, "I wish that at the time I had dispatched Khaalid bin Waleed to Shaam, I had also dispatched Umar to Iraq. In that way, I would have spread my right and left arms out in the path of Allaah. As for the three things that I wished I had enquired from Rasulullaah \( \text{مكن} \), I wish that I had asked him to identify those amongst whom Khilaafah would be so that none would contest it from those who deserve it. I also wish that I had asked Rasulullaah \( \text{مكن} \) whether the Ansaar would have any part in the Khilaafah." (2)

A Leader Appointing his Successor

Hadhrat Abu Salama bin Abdur Rahmaan and others narrate that when Hadhrat Abu Bakr \( \text{مكن} \) grew extremely ill and was close to death, he called for Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf \( \text{مكن} \) and said, "Tell me about Umar bin Khattaab \( \text{مكن} \)." Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan \( \text{مكن} \) replied, "You are asking me about someone whom you know better than me." Hadhrat Abu Bakr \( \text{مكن} \) said, "I still want you to tell me." Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan \( \text{مكن} \) then said, "He is the best of all those whom you see fit as your successor."

Hadhrat Abu Bakr \( \text{مكن} \) then summoned Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Affaan \( \text{مكن} \) and asked him, "Tell me about Umar bin Khattaab." "You know him the best from all of us," responded Hadhrat Uthmaan. "Despite this, O Abu Abdullaah." Hadhrat Uthmaan then said, "I swear by Allaah that as far as I know, his inner self is even better than his (exemplary) outer appearance and there is none like him amongst us." Hadhrat Abu Bakr commented, "May Allaah shower His mercy on you. By Allaah! Should I leave him (as my successor), I would not be doing you any wrong."

Hadhrat Abu Bakr then also consulted with Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Zaid Abu A'war, Hadhrat Usayd bin Hudhayr and several other Sahabah from amongst the Muhaajireen and the Ansaar. Hadhrat Usayd had the following to say, "By Allaah! I rate him the best after you. He is pleased with that which pleases Allaah and angry with that which angers Allaah. His inner self is even better than his (excellent) outer appearance and there is none as capable for the post of Khilaafah as he is."

When some other Sahabah heard that Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf and Hadhrat Uthmaan had seen Hadhrat Abu Bakr privately, they went to Hadhrat Abu Bakr and one of them said, "What would you reply to your Rabb if He asked you about appointing Umar as your successor when you have already seen his harshness?" Hadhrat Abu Bakr asked someone to help him sit up and then said, "Do you wish to make me fear Allaah?! Ruined is the person who carries injustice as his provision to the Aakhirah! If I would tell my Rabb that I have appointed the best of Your creation as my successor. Convey what I have told you to everyone else." Hadhrat Abu Bakr then lay down, called for Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Affaan and told him to write the following:

The Letter of Hadhrat Abu Bakr Detailing the Appointment of Hadhrat Umar as his Successor, his Advice to him and to the Public

"In the name of Allaah the Most Kind, the Most Merciful. The following is the arrangement made by Abu Bakr bin Abu Quhaaafa during his last moments in the world, as he prepares to leave it and during the first moments of his life in the Aakhirah as he prepares to enter it. This is a point where even Kuffaar accept Imaan, wrong-doers become convinced and liars speak the truth. I have appointed Umar bin Khattaab as my successor over you. You should listen to him and obey his commands. (in doing this) I have not forfeited any good owing to Allaah, His Rasool, His Deen, myself nor owing to you people in any way. If he exercises justice, then this is exactly what I had expected from him. On the other hand, if he has changed, then every man is accountable (to Allaah) for the wrong he does. I have only intended good and have no knowledge of the unseen. (Allaah declares:)

Shortly (after death) the oppressors (wrongdoers) will come to know to which place they will return (Jahannam).
Peace be to you all together with the mercy of Allah.

According to the orders of Hadhrat Abu Bakr, Hadhrat Uthmaan then sealed the letter. Some narrators state that Hadhrat Abu Bakr had only dictated the beginning of the letter and had not yet made mention of Hadhrat Umar when he fell unconscious. Although he had not named anyone, Hadhrat Uthmaan wrote the words: "I have appointed Umar bin Khattab as my successor over you." When Hadhrat Abu Bakr regained consciousness, he asked Hadhrat Uthmaan to read what he had written. When Hadhrat Uthmaan read the part about Hadhrat Umar, Hadhrat Abu Bakr exclaimed, "Allahu Akbar! I see that you feared people would fall into dispute (concerning the Khilafah) if my soul had left during my state of unconsciousness. May Allah reward you with the most excellent rewards on behalf of Islam and the people of Islam. I swear by Allah that you are also worthy of Khilafah."

In compliance with the orders of Hadhrat Abu Bakr, Hadhrat Uthmaan then went out with the sealed letter. With him was Hadhrat Umar and Hadhrat Usayd bin Sa'eed Quradhi. Addressing the people, Hadhrat Uthmaan said, "Will you pledge your allegiance to the person mentioned in this letter?" All the people agreed. One of them even said, "We know who he is. He is Umar." Ibn Sa'd says that it was Hadhrat Ali who said this. All the people confirmed their approval and pledged their allegiance to Hadhrat Umar.

Hadhrat Abu Bakr then called Hadhrat Umar in private and gave him advice. When Hadhrat Umar had left, Hadhrat Abu Bakr raised his hands and prayed, "O Allah! I have done this only for their welfare and because I feared anarchy. You know best what I have done and I have truly applied my mind to the decision. I have appointed as their leader the one who is the best amongst them, who is the most capable and who has the greatest desire for their welfare. O Allah! The death that You have decreed for me has already arrived, so do succeed me amongst them because they are Your servants and their forelocks are in Your hands. Make their leader righteous for them and make him amongst the Khulafaa Raashideen who follow the way of the Nabi of mercy and the way of the pious ones after him. Also make his subjects righteous for him." [1]

Hadhrat Hasan narrates that when Hadhrat Abu Bakr fell ill and was certain that he would soon leave the world, he gathered the people and said, "You can all see my condition. I am quite certain that I am soon to die. Allah has freed you from your obligation towards the allegiance you have pledged to me. Allah has undone the hold I have over you and returned your self-determination to you. You may now appoint whoever you please as your leader. If you appoint someone during my lifetime, it will be more conducive to your unity after my death."

The people then left Hadhrat Abu Bakr alone and left (to consult with each other) but were unable to reach any decision. They then returned to Hadhrat Abu Bakr and said, "O Khalifah of Rasulullah! You choose someone on our behalf." "You people may perhaps disagree with my decision," remarked Hadhrat Abu Bakr. When they assured him that they would not, Hadhrat Abu Bakr reaffirmed their resolution by saying, "Will you promise in Allaah's name that you would be happy with my decision?" "We certainly will," they confirmed. Hadhrat Abu Bakr then said, "Then allow me some time to see what is in the best interests of Allaah, His Deen and His servants."

Hadhrat Abu Bakr later sent for Hadhrat Uthmaan and said, "Recommend someone to me. By Allaah! In my opinion, you are certainly most worthy of the post yourself." When Hadhrat Uthmaan recommended Hadhrat Umar, Hadhrat Abu Bakr instructed him to write the letter of appointment. When Hadhrat Uthmaan reached the point where the name (of the successor) was to be written, Hadhrat Abu Bakr passed out. When he regained consciousness, he told Hadhrat Uthmaan to write the name of Hadhrat Umar.

The Reply Hadhrat Abu Bakr gave to Hadhrat Talha Concerning the Appointment of Hadhrat Umar

Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Ubaydullaah bin Abdullah bin Umar narrates that when Hadhrat Abu Bakr was about to pass away, he summoned Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Affaan and dictated his last testament to him. However, he passed out before he could name his successor. Hadhrat Uthmaan then himself named Hadhrat Umar bin Khattaab. When Hadhrat Abu Bakr regained consciousness, he asked Hadhrat Uthmaan whether he had written anyone's name. Hadhrat Uthmaan replied, "I feared that you would not regain consciousness and that the people would then fall into dispute. I therefore wrote the name of Umar bin Khattaab." Hadhrat Abu Bakr said, "May Allaah shower His mercies on you. Had you written your name instead, you are certainly worthy of the post." Hadhrat Talha bin Ubaydullaah then entered and said, "I have been sent to represent those behind me. They are saying that knowing the harshness of Umar during your lifetime, how will he be after your death when you hand over our affairs to him? Allaah will certainly question you about this, so think well what reply you shall give." Hadhrat Abu Bakr asked someone to help him sit up and then said, "Do you wish to make me fear Allaah?! Ruined is the person who employs guesswork in deciding (who should take charge of) your affairs! If my Rabb questions me, I shall say, 'I have appointed the best of Your creation as my successor. Convey what I have told you (to all those who have sent you).”

The Narration of Ummul Mu'mineen Hadhrat Aa'isha in this Regard

Hadhrat Aa'isha narrates that when (her father) Hadhrat Abu Bakr was on his deathbed, he appointed Hadhrat Umar as his successor. Hadhrat Ali and Hadhrat Talha then came to Hadhrat Abu Bakr and asked him who he had appointed as his successor. When Hadhrat Abu Bakr informed them that he had appointed Hadhrat Umar, they said, "What reply will you then give to your Rabb?" Hadhrat Abu Bakr replied, "Do you wish to make me fear Allaah? I know Allaah and Umar better than the two of you. I shall say to Allaah that I have appointed over them the best of His creation as my successor." (2)

The narration of Hadhrat Zaid bin Haarith

Hadhrat Zaid bin Haarith reports that when Hadhrat Abu Bakr was on his deathbed, he sent for Hadhrat Umar to appoint him as his successor. Some people commented, "You wish to appoint Umar as your successor when he is harsh and ill-tempered? When he becomes our leader, he will be even more harsh and ill-tempered. What reply will you give to your Rabb when you meet Him after appointing Umar as your successor over us?" Hadhrat Abu Bakr replied, "Do you wish to make me fear Allaah?! I shall say, 'O Allaah! I have appointed the best of Your creation as my successor over the people'." (3)

Appointing a Consultative Assembly of Competent People to Decide who Should be the Khalifah

The Assassination of Hadhrat Umar and His Selecting Six Persons to Decide who Should be Khalifah

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar narrates that when Abu Lu'lu'ah attacked Hadhrat Umar, he stabbed him twice with his spear. Hadhrat Umar then thought that he had perhaps wronged the people in a manner that he was unaware of. He therefore sent for Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas, whom he was very fond of. Hadhrat Umar always kept Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas in close confidence and would listen to what he had to say. Hadhrat Umar said to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas, "I wish to know whether this attack was a conspiracy of the general public." When

(3) Ibn Abi Shaybah, as quoted in Kanzul Ummal (Vol.3 Pg.146).
Hadrat Abdullah bin Abbaas \(\text{\textreg{}}\) went out to investigate, he found that every group of people that he passed was weeping bitterly. He therefore returned to Hadrat Umar \(\text{\textreg{}}\) and reported, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! I saw every group of people that I passed weeping as if they had lost their first child."

"Who was responsible for the attack?" asked Hadrat Umar \(\text{\textreg{}}\). Hadrat Abdullah bin Abbaas \(\text{\textreg{}}\) replied, "It was the fire-worshipper Abu Lu'lu'ah who was the slave of Mughiera bin Shu'ba." The signs of happiness were then visible on the face of Hadrat Umar \(\text{\textreg{}}\) as he said, "All praises are due to Allaah Who has not made my assassin a reciter of 'La Ilaaha Illallaah' who could debate with me. Remember that I had prevented you people from bringing any foreign non-Muslim slaves here but you did not obey my instruction. Call my brothers here." When he was asked who his brothers were, Hadrat Umar \(\text{\textreg{}}\) named Hadrat Uthmaan \(\text{\textreg{}}\), Hadrat Ali \(\text{\textreg{}}\), Hadrat Talha \(\text{\textreg{}}\), Hadrat Zubayr \(\text{\textreg{}}\), Hadrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf \(\text{\textreg{}}\) and Hadrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqas \(\text{\textreg{}}\).

When these Sahabah \(\text{\textreg{}}\) were sent for, Hadrat Umar \(\text{\textreg{}}\) rested his head in the lap of his son Hadrat Abdullah \(\text{\textreg{}}\), who informed him when the men had arrived. Hadrat Umar \(\text{\textreg{}}\) then said to them, "When I pondered deeply about the affairs of the Muslims, I found that you six men are the leaders of the people and the most influential. Leadership can only be amongst you and the affairs of the people will always be properly managed as long as you men remain straight. Should there arise any disputes, it would be amongst you first."

Hadrat Abdullah bin Umar \(\text{\textreg{}}\) related further, "When I heard my father mention disputes and division, I knew that this would soon take place even though he used the words 'Should there arise'. This is because he seldom mentioned something that I did not see happen. He then started bleeding profusely and I noticed the six men enter into such urgent discussions that I feared they would already pledge their allegiance to one of them. I then said, The Ameerul Mu'mineen is still alive! There can never be two Khalifahs staring at the faces of each other."

Hadrat Umar \(\text{\textreg{}}\) then asked them to help him up, which they did. He then said, "You men should discuss for three days, during which period Suhayb \(\text{\textreg{}}\) should lead people in salaah. With whom should we consult?" the men asked. Hadrat Umar \(\text{\textreg{}}\) replied, "You should consult with the Muhaajireen, the Ansar and the commander of every army present here." Hadrat Umar \(\text{\textreg{}}\) then asked for some milk to drink but when he drank it, the milk emerged from his two wounds. When this happened, Hadrat Umar \(\text{\textreg{}}\) realised that his death was imminent. He then said, "If I possessed the entire world, I would offer it as ransom to be saved from the terror of what is to come after death. However, with the grace of Allaah, I envisage only good."

Hadrat Abdullah bin Abbaas \(\text{\textreg{}}\) commented, "May Allaah reward you with the best of rewards. Did Rasulullaah \(\text{\textreg{}}\) not pray that Allaah should strengthen the Deen and the Muslims through you when they were living in fear in Makkah?"
It was a tremendous reinforcement when you accepted Islaam, because of which Islaam, Rasulullaah (saw) and his Sahabah (sa) could come out in the open. When you migrated to Madinah, your migration was a great victory and since those very early days you did not miss a single military expedition that Rasulullaah (saw) fought against the Mushrikeen. Rasulullaah (saw) was pleased with you when he left the world, after which you advised his successor according to the pattern shown by Rasulullaah (saw). Using those who accepted, you struck those who were averse until people entered into Islaam willingly and unwillingly. The Khalifah of Rasulullaah (saw) was also happy with you when he left this world. You then assumed the role of Khalifah in the best manner that any person could do. Using you, Allaah has populated many cities, brought plenty of wealth (to the Muslims) and destroyed many enemies. In addition to this, Allaah has also used you to bring abundance into every home in terms of Deen and in terms of their sustenance. Allaah has now brought your life to an end with the great status of martyrdom. How fortunate are you not?"

Hadhrat Umar (ra) then said, "By Allaah! The one whom you manage to deceive is truly deceived. O Abdullaah! Will you testify on my behalf in front of Allaah on the Day of Qiyaamah?" "I certainly would," Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas (ra) assured him. Hadhrat Umar (ra) then praised Allaah (for having the cousin of Rasulullaah (saw) as a witness in his favour) and asked his son Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar (ra) to place his cheek on the ground. When Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar (ra) placed his father's cheek on his lap instead, Hadhrat Umar (ra) insisted that his cheek be placed directly on the ground. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar (ra) then left his father's beard and cheek, allowing it to touch the ground. Addressing himself, Hadhrat Umar (ra) said, "O Umar! Your mother and you would be destroyed if Allaah does not forgive you." He then passed away. May Allaah shower His mercy on him.

After Hadhrat Umar (ra) had passed away, the six appointed Sahabah (sa) summoned Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar (ra). However, he responded by saying that he would not come to them until they carried out the instruction of Hadhrat Umar (ra) to consult with the Muhaajireen, the Ansaar and the commanders of the armies present in Madinah. When someone mentioned to Hadhrat Hasan Basri (ra) the actions of Hadhrat Umar (ra) before his demise and his fear of Allaah, Hadhrat Hasan (ra) commented, "Such is a true Mu'min. He carries out good deeds in the proper manner together with having fear for Allaah. On the other hand, the Munaafiq combines evil deeds with the false hope of being forgiven. I swear by Allaah that in times past and present I have never seen a servant of Allaah who excels in doing good deeds without excelling in his fear of Allaah. In times past and present I have also not seen any person excel in evil deeds without excelling in the false hope of being forgiven." (1)

The Narration of Ibn Sa'd Concerning the Debts of Hadhrat Umar ﷺ, his Burial with his Two Companions and his Appointment of Six Men to Decide which of the Them Would be the Khalifah

In his narration concerning the assassination of Hadhrat Umar ﷺ, Hadhrat Amr bin Maymoon also says that Hadhrat Umar ﷺ told his son Hadhrat Abdullaah ﷺ to check on his debts and add them up. When Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ﷺ informed his father that the debts amounted to eighty six thousand, Hadhrat Umar ﷺ instructed, "If the amount can be paid from the wealth of Umar's family, then pay it from there on my behalf. If this is not possible, ask (my tribe) the Banu Adi bin Ka'b (to settle the debt). If their wealth is also not sufficient, then ask the Quraysh. However, you should not ask from anyone else besides them and (do your best to) settle my debts. I also want you to go to the mother of the Mu'mineen Hadhrat Aa'isha ﷺ. Greet her with Salaam and say to her that Umar bin Khattaab requests permission to be buried beside his two companions (Rasulullaah ﷺ and Hadhrat Abu Bakr ﷺ). However, do not say that the Ameerul Mu'mineen requests for permission because I am not the Ameerul Mu'mineen any more."

When Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ﷺ went to Hadhrat Aa'isha ﷺ, he found her sitting and weeping. He greeted her and then addressed her saying, "Umar bin Khattaab requests permission to be buried beside his two companions." Hadhrat Aa'isha ﷺ replied, "By Allaah! Although I had originally reserved the place for myself, I shall today give him preference over myself." When Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ﷺ came back to his father, Hadhrat Umar ﷺ asked, "What news do you have?" Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ﷺ informed Hadhrat Umar ﷺ that Hadhrat Aa'isha ﷺ had granted the permission. Hadhrat Umar ﷺ then commented, "There was nothing more important to me than this. When I die, I want you to carry me on my bed and (when you arrive at the door of Hadhrat Aa'isha ﷺ) then seek permission saying, 'Umar bin Khattaab requests permission to enter.' If she permits my entry, then take me in, otherwise take me to the graveyard of all the Muslims."

When the body of Hadhrat Umar ﷺ was taken (for burial), it appeared as if the Muslims had never before experienced any tragedy. (Upon arrival at the door of Hadhrat Aa'isha ﷺ) Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ﷺ greeted her with Salaam and said, "Umar bin Khattaab requests permission to enter." Hadhrat Aa'isha ﷺ granted permission and Hadhrat Umar ﷺ was honoured to be buried alongside Rasulullaah ﷺ and Hadhrat Abu Bakr ﷺ. May Allaah shower His mercies on him.

When Hadhrat Umar ﷺ was about to pass away, the people told him to appoint a successor. He said, "I find none more worthy of leadership than the six men with whom Rasulullaah ﷺ was pleased when he passed away. Whoever they appoint shall be the Khalifah after me." Hadhrat Umar  then named Hadhrat Uthmaan  , Hadhrat Ali  , Hadhrat Talha  , Hadhrat Zubayr  , Hadhrat Abdur Rahaman bin Auf  and Hadhrat Sa’d bin Abi Waqqas . He then added, "If Sa’d becomes the Khalifah, that will be fine. Otherwise, whichever of them becomes the Khalifah should request his assistance because I had not dismissed him (from his post as governor of Kufa) because of any inability or treachery on his part." Hadhrat Umar  then detailed the role of his son Abdullah  as someone with whom the six could consult, emphasising that he should not be allowed to assume the post as Khalifah.

When the six Sahabah got together (after the demise of Hadhrat Umar ), Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf proposed that three of them forfeit their entitlement to the other three. Hadhrat Zubayr then handed his over to Hadhrat Ali , Hadhrat Talha gave his to Hadhrat Uthmaan and Hadhrat Sa’d gave his to Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf . The three remaining nominees then consulted with each other when the decision was left to them entirely. Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf then said to the other two (Hadhrat Uthmaan and Hadhrat Ali ), "Which of you wishes to absolve himself (from making the decision) and hand over the decision to me. I pledge to Allaah that I shall not be negligent in selecting the one from amongst you who is the best and shall be best for the people." When the two Sahabah agreed, Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf spoke to Hadhrat Ali in confidence saying, "You are the close relative of Rasulullaah and amongst the earliest Muslims. I ask you to tell me in Allaah's name whether you would exercise justice if you were appointed Khalifah and that if I appointed Uthmaan as Khalifah, you would listen to him and obey him." When Hadhrat Ali attested that he would do so, Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf then said the same thing in confidence to Hadhrat Uthmaan . When Hadhrat Uthmaan agreed to do as asked, Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf asked Hadhrat Uthmaan to stretch out his hand. When Hadhrat Uthmaan did so, Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf pledged his allegiance to Hadhrat Uthmaan and was followed by Hadhrat Ali and the general public.

The Narration of Ibn Abi Shaybah and Ibn Sa'd in this Regard

Hadhrat Amr bin Maymoon reports that when Hadhrat Umar was on his death bed, he called for Hadhrat Uthmaan, Hadhrat Ali, Hadhrat Talha, Hadhrat Zubayr, Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf and Hadhrat Sa’d bin Abi Waqqas. (When they came) Hadhrat Umar then addressed only Hadhrat Ali and Hadhrat Uthmaan. He said to Hadhrat Ali, "O Ali! These people recognise your kinship to Rasulullah (that you are his cousin and son-in-law) and the tremendous knowledge and insight that Allaah has granted you (because of which they may select you to be the Khalifah). If you are nominated to be the Khalifah, you should fear Allaah and never lift that tribe (your tribe the Banu Haashim) on to the necks of people.

Hadhrat Umar then addressed Hadhrat Uthmaan saying, "O Uthmaan! These people know well that you were the son-in-law of Rasulullah and they recognise your age and your respectability. If you are nominated to be the Khalifah, you should fear Allaah and never lift that tribe (your tribe) on to the necks of people." Hadhrat Umar then asked the people to summon Hadhrat Suhayb. (When he arrived) Hadhrat Umar said to him, "Lead the people in salaah for three days during which period this group will gather in a room (to discuss which of them should be the Khalifah). When they agree on one person, any person who opposes them should be executed." (1)

Hadhrat Abu Ja'far reports that Hadhrat Umar said the following to the (six) members of the consultative assembly: "Consult with each other about who should be appointed as Khalifah. If your votes are tied at two, two and two (each pair nominating a different person of three candidates), then repeat the consultation. However, if the votes are four to two, accept the opinion of the majority." (2) A narration from Hadhrat Aslam quotes that Hadhrat Umar said, "If the opinions are tied at three to three, adopt the side of Abdur Rahmaan. Thereafter, you should listen to and obey (the new Khalifah)."

Another narration from Hadhrat Anas states that a short while before Hadhrat Umar passed away, he sent for Hadhrat Abu Talha and said, "O Abu Talha! Be the fifth of a group of your people from the Ansaar to be with the consultative assembly. I suppose that they will gather in a house belonging to one of them, so I want you and your group to stand at the door of that house. You should not allow anyone to enter with them and you should not allow the third day to pass by without them having appointed one of them (as Khalifah)." Hadhrat Umar then prayed, "O Allaah! You are my Successor over them." (3)

The Lecture that Hadhrat Abu Bakr Gave in this Regard

Hadhrat Aasim narrates that during his final illness, Hadhrat Abu Bakr had the people gathered together and then had some men carry him to the pulpit. This was the last lecture that he ever delivered. After praising Allaah, he said:

"O people! Beware of this world and never place your trust in it for it is extremely deceptive. Rather give preference to the Aakhirah over the world and inculcate great love for it. The love for any one of the two develops hatred for the other. It is by this matter of Khilaafah that all our affairs are governed and its end will be set right only by those factors that set right its initiation. Therefore, the only person worthy of assuming this office is the one who is most powerful amongst you, who can exercise the greatest control over his desires, who is most strict when the occasion demands austerity and most compassionate when the occasion demands leniency. He should be one who is most willing to act on the opinions of people with knowledge and insight and does not engross himself in futilities. He does not grieve over matters that do not present themselves to him, is not shy to learn and is not alarmed by emergencies. He is meticulous about managing finances and will neither embezzle any funds nor fail in his duty towards it in a fit of anger or enmity. He is prepared for things to come and his preparation consists of fear for Allaah and obedience to Him. Such a person is none other than Umar bin Khattaab."

After saying this, Hadhrat Abu Bakr ~ descended from the pulpit. (1)

The Qualities of a Khalifah as Described by Hadhrat Umar ~

Hadrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas ® says, "I served Umar ® in a manner that no other member of his family served him. I was also very informal with him in a manner that no member of his household was. He would sit with me and show me a lot of respect. We were sitting alone in his house one day when he heaved such a sigh that made me think he was about to die. I asked, 'Some grave matter of concern, 0 Ameerul Mu'mineen?' He replied, 'Some grave concern indeed.' 'What is it?' I asked. He then asked me to come closer to him. When I did so, he said, 'I can find no one worthy of this post of Khilaafah.' I then named certain individuals and asked him what he thought of them. These happened to be the six men whom he chose as the consultative assembly. Umar ® said something about each one of these men and then said, 'No person is suitable for the post of Khilaafah except someone who is strong without being harsh, who is lenient without being weak, who is generous without being extravagant and who is cautious about monetary affairs without being miserly.'(2)

Another narration also from Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas ® states, "I was sitting with Umar ® one day when he heaved such a sigh that I thought his ribs would crack. I said to him, 'O Ameerul Mu'mineen! It can only be a grave worry that would cause you to sigh like that.' He agreed by saying, 'It is indeed something grave. I do not know to whom I should hand the post of Khilaafah over to.' He then turned to me and said, 'Perhaps you deem your companion (Ali..."
to be worthy of the post?' 'I certainly do,' I replied, 'he was one of the first Muslims and he possesses great qualities.' Umar commented, 'He is indeed as you say, but he is a man who enjoys jest and humour.'
The narration then continues up to the point where Hadhrat Umar says,
'No person is suitable for the post of Khilaafah except someone who is strong without being harsh, who is lenient without being weak, who is generous without being extravagant and who is cautious about monetary affairs without being miserly.' Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas used to say, 'These traits were combined in no other person besides Umar.'
Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas mentioned, 'I used to serve Umar and always stood in awe of him. I went to his house one day as he sat there all alone. He then heaved such a heavy sigh that I thought he was about to die. He then raised his head to the sky and again breathed a heavy sigh. I then plucked up the courage and said to myself, 'By Allaah! I am certainly going to ask him about this.' I then said to him, 'By Allaah! It must have been a grave concern that has made you sigh like this O Ameerul Mu'mineen.' He replied, 'By Allaah! The concern is grave indeed! I cannot find anyone suitable to fill this post of Khilaafah. Perhaps you feel that your companion is worthy of the post.' I responded by saying, 'O Ameerul Mu'mineen! Is he not worthy of the post since he had made Hijrah? Is he not worthy of the post because of his close companionship with Rasulullaah? Is he not worthy of the post because of his family ties with Rasulullaah?' Umar commented, 'He is indeed as you say, but he is a man who enjoys jest and humour.'
The narration then continues up to the point where Hadhrat Umar says,
'No person can bear the post of Khilaafah except someone who is strong without being harsh, who is lenient without being weak, who is generous without being extravagant and who is cautious about monetary affairs without being miserly.'
Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas also adds that Hadhrat Umar said,
'None can shoulder this post of Khilaafah besides a person who does not compromise on principles, who does not behave ostentatiously (in a boastful manner) and who does not give in to vain desires. None can shoulder this responsibility from Allaah besides someone who never utters any word that forces him to contradict his resolve and who judges with fairness even against his own people.'

Hadhrat Umar once said, "It is improper for anyone to assume his post of Khilaafah except someone who possesses four qualities. Someone who is lenient without being weak, who is strong without being harsh, who is cautious about monetary affairs without being miserly and who is generous without being extravagant. If any one of these qualities is missing, the other three will become useless." Another narration quotes Hadhrat Umar as saying, "None can shoulder this responsibility from Allaah besides a person who does not compromise on principles, who does not behave ostentatiously who does not give in to vain desires, who is not concerned with developing his standing and who never conceals the truth even when angry." (1) Hadhrat Sufyaan bin Abi Awjaa narrates that Hadhrat Umar bin Khattaab \(\text{البّ} \) once said, "By Allaah! I know not whether I am a Khalifah or a king. If I am a king, then the matter is serious indeed." Someone from the audience said, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! There is a distinct difference between the two. A Khalifah only takes something rightfully and then uses it rightfully. By the grace of Allaah, you are exactly like this. On the other hand, a king oppresses people by usurping things from some and then giving them to others." Hadhrat Umar \(\text{البّ}

\) remained silent. (2)

Hadhrat Salmaan \(\text{البّ}
\) reports that Hadhrat Umar \(\text{البّ} \) once asked them,
"Am I a king or a Khalifah?" Hadhrat Salmaan \(\text{البّ} \) replied, "If you had ever (unlawfully) taken even a Dirham or less from the property of the Muslims and then used it illegally, you would be a king and not a Khalifah." Hadhrat Umar \(\text{البّ}
\) then began to weep bitterly. (3)

A man from the Banu Asad tribe narrates that he was present when Hadhrat Umar \(\text{البّ}
\) once addressed his companions. Amongst them was Hadhrat Talha \(\text{البّ}
\), Hadhrat Salamaan \(\text{البّ}
\), Hadhrat Zubayr \(\text{البّ}
\) and Hadhrat Ka'b \(\text{البّ}
\). He said to them, "I want to ask you something. However, you should beware not to lie to me because you would then destroy me as well as yourselves. I ask you to tell me in the name of Allaah whether I am a Khalifah or a king." Hadhrat Talha \(\text{البّ}
\) and Hadhrat Zubayr \(\text{البّ} ) said, "You are asking us something that we have no knowledge of. We are unable to distinguish a Khalifah from a king." Hadhrat Salmaan \(\text{البّ} \) then testified with full conviction that Hadhrat Umar \(\text{البّ}
\) was a Khalifah and not a king. Hadhrat Umar \(\text{البّ} \) responded by saying, "You have a right to comment because you had been frequenting the company of Rasulullaah \(\text{البّ}
\)." Hadhrat Salmaan \(\text{البّ}
\) then qualified his statement by saying, "I say this because you exercise justice amongst your subjects, you distribute between them with fairness, you treat them with the compassion that a man treats his own family and you pass judgement according to the Book of Allaah."

Hadhrat Ka'b \(\text{البّ} \) then said, "I was under the impression that none in this gathering besides me could differentiate between a king and a Khalifah.
However, it is evident that Allaah has filled Salmaan with wisdom and knowledge." Hadhrat Ka'b \(\text{البّ}
\) then addressed Hadhrat Umar \(\text{البّ} \) saying, "I testify that you are definitely a Khalifah and not a king." Hadhrat Umar \(\text{البّ}
\) then asked, "How is this?" Hadhrat Ka'b \(\text{البّ} \) (who had been scholar of the previous scriptures) replied, "I have found mention of you in Allaah's scriptures.
"Was mention made of me by my name?" enquired Hadhrat Umar \(\text{البّ} \). "No," replied Hadhrat Ka'b \(\text{البّ}
\), "but I have found mention of you by your qualities. I

Leniency and Firmness of a Khalifah

Hadhrat Saeed bin Musayyib reports that when Hadhrat Umar was appointed as Khalifah, he delivered a lecture to the people from the pulpit of Rasulullaah. After praising Allaah, he said:

"O people! I know well the feelings of you people that I am too harsh and stern. However, I was like that because I had been with Rasulullaah as his servant and attendant and Rasulullaah was as Allaah describes him in the Qur'aan: "extremely forgiving and merciful towards the Mu'mineen". I was therefore like a drawn sword for him unless he chose to sheath me or prevent me from doing something, in which case I would desist. Otherwise, I would be stern with people in place of the leniency that Rasulullaah showed. This was my behaviour alongside Rasulullaah until Allaah took him from this world in a condition that he was pleased with me. I thank Allaah tremendously for that extremely good fortune. I then adopted the same attitude with the Khalifah of Rasulullaah Abu Bakr. You people know well his respectability, his humility and his leniency. I was also at his service like a sword in his defence, combining my sternness with his leniency. If he took the initiative in any matter before I could, I would restrain myself. Otherwise, I would forge ahead. This was my behaviour alongside him until Allaah took him from this world in a condition that he was pleased with me. I thank Allaah tremendously for that extremely good fortune.

Now that the Khilaafah has been handed over to me, I know well that some of you would say, 'He was stern with us when someone else was the Khalifah, what will now happen once he is himself the Khalifah?' You people have no need to ask anyone about me because you know me and have had experiences with me. You know as much about the practices of your Nabi as I do. I have asked Rasulullaah everything that I needed to ask and I now have no regrets about not asking him anything that I had wanted to ask. Now that I am Khalifah, you should understand well that the sternness you have been seeing in me shall be multiplied against an oppressor and a criminal. It will also be employed to take back from the strong ones what they had taken from the weak. However, despite all of this sternness, I shall still place my cheek on the ground for people who abstain from immoral behaviour and evil and who are obedient. If there ever arises any differences between myself and any of you concerning any matter of judgement, I shall not refuse to walk with him to (a third party) whom you choose, who will look into the matter causing the conflict. So fear Allaah, O servants of Allaah and assist me against yourselves by restraining yourselves from carrying rumours and also assist me against myself by enjoining what is good and forbidding me from evil and presenting me with..."
good counsel in the task that Allaah has appointed me to." (1)

Hadhrat Muhammad bin Zaid  reports that Hadhrat Ali  , Hadhrat Uthmaan  , Hadhrat Zubayr  , Hadhrat Talha  , Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf  and Hadhrat Sa'd once got together. Because Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf was the most at ease with Hadhrat Umar , the others said to him, "O Abdur Rahmaan! Why don't you speak to the Ameerul Mu'mineen on behalf of all the people and tell him that it often happens that a person in need approaches him for his need but then returns without having his need tended to because his fear for the Ameerul Mu'mineen prevents him from presenting his case."

Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf then went to Hadhrat Umar and addressed him saying, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! Do be more lenient towards the people because it often happens that a person in need approaches you for his need but then returns without having his need tended to because his fear for you prevents him from presenting his case." Hadhrat Umar said, "O Abdur Rahmaan! I want you to swear in the name of Allaah whether or not it was Ali, Uthmaan, Talha, Zubayr and Sa'd who asked you to speak to me." Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf replied, "I swear by Allaah that it was certainly them."

Hadhrat Umar then said, "O Abdur Rahmaan! I swear by Allaah that I had been so lenient with the people that I began to fear (the wrath of) Allaah because of my leniency. Thereafter, I was so stern with the people that I began to fear (the wrath of) Allaah because of my sternness. What course is there now available for me?"

Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf stood up weeping and dragged along his shawl as he said, "Oh dear! What will become of the people after you have gone! Oh dear! What will become of the people after you have gone!" (2)

Hadhrat Sha’bi narrates that Hadhrat Umar once said, "I swear by Allaah that for the sake of Allaah my heart had become so soft that it was softer than butter and at times it had become so hard for Allaah’s sake that it was harder than a stone." (3)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas narrates that when Hadhrat Umar became the Khalifah, someone said to him, "Some people had made an effort to ensure that this post should be turned away from you." When Hadhrat Umar asked the reason for this, the person replied, "They felt that you were too harsh." To this, Hadhrat Umar commented, "All praise be to Allaah who has filled my heart with mercy for them and filled their hearts with awe for me." (4) members of the Quraysh had already become irritated by him. They were people whom Hadhrat Umar ﷺ had detained in Madinah (did not permit them to leave the city). However, Hadhrat Umar ﷺ still continued showering favours on them. Hadhrat Umar ﷺ used to say, "What I fear most for this Ummah is that you should disperse into the various cities (and neglect the seat of Khilafah)." Besides the few individuals from the Muhaajireen whom Hadhrat Umar ﷺ had confined to Madinah, Hadhrat Umar ﷺ did not impose the restriction to other people of Makkah.

Whenever one of these Muhaajireen who had been confined to Madinah would seek permission to fight in a battle, Hadhrat Umar ﷺ said to him, "Your expeditions with Rasulullaah ﷺ had been sufficient to enter you (to Jannah). Better for you than fighting in battles today, is for you not to see the world and for the world not to see you." (Hadhrat Umar ﷺ wanted these Sahabah ﷺ to remain in Madinah so that Muslims from other parts would come to Madinah to benefit from them. In this manner, Muslims would preserve their attachment with the seat of Khilafah, thereby strengthening their unity.)

When Hadhrat Uthmaan ﷺ became the Khalifah, he allowed them to go free and they dispersed in the various cities. Large numbers of people then started affiliating with them (and staying where they stayed). (Two of the narrators named) Hadhrat Muhammad ﷺ and Hadhrat Talha commented, "This was the first weakness that entered Islaam and was certainly the first tragedy to befall the Ummah (because instead of developing their affiliation with the seat of Khilafah, it caused Muslims to rather develop local ties, thus weakening the capital city)."(1)

Hadhrat Qais bin Abi Haazim reports that when Hadhrat Zubayr ﷺ sought permission from Hadhrat Umar ﷺ to march for a battle, Hadhrat Umar ﷺ said to him, "You should rather remain seated in your house because you have already fought by the side of Rasulullaah ﷺ." However, Hadhrat Zubayr ﷺ repeated the request and it was on the third or fourth occasion that Hadhrat Umar ﷺ said, "Rather remain seated at home because I swear by Allaah that if you and your companions leave the borders of Madinah, you may start insurrection against the companions of Muhammad ﷺ."(2)

Hadhrat Abu Bakr voiced his opinion (to march). Rasulullaah turned away from him. Thereafter, when Hadhrat Umar voiced his opinion, Rasulullaah turned away from him as well. Hadhrat Sa'd bin Ubaadah (from the Ansar) then said, "It is our opinion that Rasulullaah wants..." The complete narration has passed at the beginning of "The Chapter Concerning Jihaad".

In his narration describing the Battle of Badr, Hadhrat Umar says that when Rasulullaah consulted with Hadhrat Abu Bakr and Hadhrat Ali (about what to do with the prisoners of war captured at Badr), Hadhrat Abu Bakr said, "O Rasulullaah! These people are our cousins, our relatives and our brothers. My opinion is that we take ransoms for them, which would assist us against the Kuffaar. Perhaps Allaah would guide them and they would eventually become our allies."

Rasulullaah then asked Hadhrat Umar what his opinion was. He replied, "I swear by Allaah that I do not share the opinion of Abu Bakr. I strongly feel that you should hand so-and-so (a relative of Hadhrat Umar) over to me for execution, that you hand Ageel over to Ali for execution and that you hand over to Hamza his brother (Abbaas) so that he could execute him. In this manner, Allaah would know that we have no inclination towards the Mushrikeen in our hearts because these men are their leaders and the most influential people they have." Hadhrat Umar relates further, "Rasulullaah opted for the opinion of Abu Bakr and chose not to accept what I proposed. He therefore took ransom from the prisoners. The following day I found Rasulullaah and Abu Bakr weeping. 'O Rasulullaah?' I asked, 'Do inform me what makes you and your companion weep like this so that I may also weep with you if I am able to. If I am unable to weep, I shall pretend to do so to sympathise with your weeping.'"

Rasulullaah replied by saying, "I am weeping because of the opinion that your companions presented to me to accept ransom from the prisoners. I had been shown their punishment from as close as that tree (referring to a tree nearby). Allaah has also revealed a verse of the Qur'aan stating:

'It is not for a Nabi (not becoming of a Nabi) that he takes prisoners until he has thoroughly beaten (the enemy) in the land. However, since this was not yet achieved during the early days of Islaam after the Battle of Badr, it was not appropriate for the Muslims to release the enemy prisoners. You desire the things (wealth) of this world (for yourselves by accepting the ransom) while Allaah desires the Aakhirah (for you). Allaah is Mighty, the Wise (what He desires for you is

The Narration of Hadhrat Anas ﷺ About the Consultation Regarding the Prisoners of Badr

Hadhrat Anas ﷺ narrates that when Rasulullah ﷺ consulted with the Sahabah about what was to be done with the prisoners captured during the Battle of Badr, he said, "Allah has now granted you control over them." Hadhrat Umar ﷺ then said, "Execute them all O Rasulullah ﷺ!" However, Rasulullah ﷺ ignored his remark and said, "O people! Allah had now granted you control over them whereas they had been your brothers just yesterday." When Hadhrat Umar ﷺ repeated his remark, Rasulullah ﷺ again ignored it. When Rasulullah ﷺ once again repeated what he had said, Hadhrat Abu Bakr ﷺ said, "O Rasulullah ﷺ! I feel that we should forgive them and take ransoms from them." The worry on the face of Rasulullah ﷺ then disappeared and he subsequently forgave them and took the ransom. Allah then revealed the following verse of the Qur’aan:

> [Verse 68: If it were not for an order that Allah had already been preordained (that some of the prisoners were to become Muslims), a great punishment would have afflicted you on account of what (ransom) you took (in exchange for the freedom of the prisoners). {Surah Anfaal, verse 68}]

The Narration of Hadhrat Ibn Mas’ood ﷺ in this Regard

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas’ood ﷺ reports that after the Battle of Badr, Rasulullah ﷺ said, "What is your opinion concerning these prisoners?" Hadhrat Abu Bakr ﷺ responded by saying, "O Rasulullah ﷺ! They are your people and your family. Allow them to live and grant them respite. Perhaps Allah shall forgive them." Hadhrat Umar ﷺ then said, "O Rasulullah ﷺ! They exiled you and called you a liar. Bring them closer so that I may execute them all." Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Rawaaha ﷺ then spoke. He said, "O Rasulullah ﷺ! Look for a valley that had plenty of firewood. Put them all there and then set it alight upon them." Rasulullah ﷺ then entered his room without passing any decision. In the meanwhile some people said that Rasulullaah would adopt the opinion of Hadhrat Abu Bakr. Others felt that he would accept the opinion of Hadhrat Umar, while another group felt that it would be the opinion of Hadhrat Abdullah bin Rawaaha that would be accepted.

When Rasulullaah emerged, he said, "Verily Allaah has softened the hearts of some men so much that they have become softer than milk. Allaah has also hardened the hearts of other men so much that their hearts have become harder than stones. Your likeness, O Abu Bakr, is like that of Ibraheem who prayed:

Because you people are poverty-stricken, no prisoner shall be freed without either ransom or execution."

Narrating further, Hadhrat Abdullah bin Masood says, "I then said, 'O Rasulullaah! Do exclude Sahl bin Baydaa from this because I have heard him accept Islaam.' Rasulullaah then remained silent and there was not a day that I saw myself more fearful than that day when I thought that a rock from the sky would soon fall on me. Rasulullaah ﷺ then said, 'Sahl bin Baydaa is excluded.' It was after this incident that Allaah revealed the verses:

\text{ما كان ينبغي أن يكون لَهُ أن يَكونَ لَهُ أَسرى حتَّى يَنْحَنُ فِي الأَرضِ، فَيرْبِدُ عَرْضَ الْذِّنَبِ،}

It is not for a Nabi (not becoming of a Nabi) that he takes prisoners until he has thoroughly beaten (the enemy) in the land (However, since this was not yet achieved during the early days of Islaam after the Battle of Badr, it was not appropriate for the Muslims to release the enemy prisoners). Rasulullaah ﷺ Consults with Hadhrat Sa'd bin Ubaadah and Hadhrat Sa'd bin Mu'aadh Concerning the Produce of Madinah

Hadhrat Zuhri narrates that when the Muslims were suffering extreme hardship (during the Battle of Ahzaab), Rasulullaah ﷺ sent for Uyayna bin Hisn and Haarith bin Auf Murri who were the two leaders of the Banu Ghitaan tribes. He offered them a third of the produce of Madinah on condition that they withdraw their men from fighting the Muslims. The treaty was being concluded between Rasulullaah ﷺ and the two leaders and they were already in the process of writing the document. Verbal discussions were still underway and the treaty was not yet concluded. The witnesses had also not yet been called. However, when Rasulullaah ﷺ intended to conclude the agreement, he first summoned the two Sa'ds (Hadhrat Sa'd bin Mu'aadh and Hadhrat Sa'd bin Ubaadah). He presented the situation to them and asked them for their opinions.

The two men asked, "O Rasulullaah ﷺ: Is this something that you are doing because you wish to do it, or something that Allaah has commanded you to do, in which case we have no option but to carry it out? Or is it something that you are doing for our benefit?" Rasulullaah ﷺ replied, "I am doing this only for your benefit because I see that the Arabs are attacking you from a united platform and are ravaging you from all sides. By engaging in this treaty, I wish to dilute their strength somewhat."

Hadhrat Sa'd bin Mu'aadh then said, "O Rasulullaah! These people and us had been aspiring partners to Allaah and worshipping idols. Neither did we worship Allaah nor did we recognise who He was. (During those times) These people had never entertained hopes of eating a single date from Madinah unless it was offered to them as a token of hospitality or they bought it. How can we now give them any portion of our wealth once Allaah has honoured us with Islaam, guided us to it and accorded us tremendous respect because of it. By Allaah! We have no need for this treaty. By Allaah! All that we are willing to give them are the strokes of our swords until the time arrives when Allaah passes judgement between us and them." Rasulullaah said, "You know best what you want." Hadhrat Sa'd bin Mu'aadh then took hold of the script and erased whatever was written on it. He then said, "They may now do their best to try to harm us!"

The narration of Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah concerning this consultation

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah narrates that Haarith once approached Rasulullaah and said, "If you do not give us half the produce of Madinah, we shall fill her with cavalry and infantry." Rasulullaah replied by saying, "Wait until I consult with the Sa'ds (referring to Hadhrat Sa'd bin Mu'aadh and Hadhrat Sa'd bin Ubaadah)." (When Rasulullaah consulted with them,) They said, "By Allaah! Even during the Period of Ignorance we never gave in to such humiliation, why should we do so now when Allaah has blessed us with Islaam." Rasulullaah then got back to Haarith and informed him accordingly. Haarith responded by scowling, "You have betrayed me, O Muhammad!"

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah also reports that Haarith from the Banu Ghitaan tribe once approached Rasulullaah with the demand, "Give us half the produce of Madinah." Rasulullaah replied, "Not until I have consulted with the Sa'ds." Rasulullaah then sent for Hadhrat Sa'd bin Mu'aadh, Hadhrat Sa'd bin Ubaadah, Sa'd bin Rabee, Sa'd bin Khaythama and Sa'd bin Mas'ood. Rasulullaah then addressed them saying, "I know that the Arabs are attacking you from a united platform. However, Haarith has come with a request that they be given half the produce of Madinah (in exchange of making peace with you). If you wish, you may give him half of this year's crop and then see what you decide for the forthcoming years."

They responded by saying, "If it is revelation from the heavens, then we are prepared to accept the command of Allaah and if it is your wish and what you desire, then we are prepared to support your wishes. However, if you are doing this out of compassion for us, then by Allah, there was a time when they and us were on an equal footing. They were then unable to take a single date from us unless it was bought or given as a token of hospitality." Rasulullah ﷺ then said to them, "It is as you say (I am doing this out of compassion for you)."

Rasulullah ﷺ then addressed Haarith (and those with him) and said, "You have heard what they have to say." Haarith (and the others) glowered, "You have betrayed us, O Muhammad!" (1)

Hadhrat Musaddad reports from Hadhrat Umar ﷺ that he would also be present when Rasulullah ﷺ would spend nights discussing the affairs of the Muslims with Hadhrat Abu Bakr ﷺ. (2)

Hadrat Abu Bakr ﷺ Consults with Men of knowledge

Hadrat Abu Bakr ﷺ Consults with Men of Knowledge and Insight who Constituted the Consultative Assembly During his Period and the Period of Hadhrat Umar ﷺ

Hadrat Qasim narrates that whenever a matter arose and Hadrat Abu Bakr ﷺ needed to consult with men of knowledge and wisdom, he would summon certain men from the Muhajireen and the Ansar. They included Hadrat Umar ﷺ, Hadrat Uthmaan ﷺ, Hadrat Ali ﷺ, Hadrat Abdur Rahman bin Auf ﷺ, Hadrat Mu’adh bin Jabal ﷺ, Hadrat Ubay bin Ka'b ﷺ and Hadrat Zaid bin Thaabit ﷺ. These men used to issue Fataawaa (rulings) during his period and people would go to them for rulings. The period of Hadrat Abu Bakr ﷺ passed like this, and when Hadrat Umar ﷺ became the Khalifah afterwards, he also used to summon these men. When Hadrat Umar ﷺ was the Khalifah, the task of issuing Fataawaa was entrusted to Hadrat Uthmaan ﷺ, Hadrat Ubay ﷺ and Hadrat Zaid ﷺ. (3)

The Incident Between Hadrat Abu Bakr ﷺ and Hadrat Umar ﷺ Concerning the Demarcation of Land for Certain Sahabah

Hadrat Ubaydah reports that Uyayna bin Hisn and Aqra bin Haabis once approached Hadrat Abu Bakr ﷺ saying, "O successor of Rasulullah ﷺ! There is a barren piece of land in our area that bears no grass and is useless. If you see it fit, do make it over to us so that we may work on it and cultivate it." Hadrat Abu Bakr ﷺ decided to make it over to them and had the title deed written in their favour. He appointed Hadrat Umar ﷺ as witness to the deed, but because Hadhrat Umar was not present there, the two men had to take the deed to him so that he may be witness to it. When Hadhrat Umar heard what the deed contained, he took it from the two men, spat on it and thereby erased what was written on it. The two men were infuriated and addressed him with harsh words. Hadhrat Umar said, "Rasulullaah used to appease you (by granting you properties) at a time when Islaam was weak. Allaah has now strengthened Islaam (and there is no need to appease you), so you may go and do whatever you can against me. May Allaah offer you no protection even if you ask for it!” The two men stormed back to Hadhrat Abu Bakr in a fury and said, "By Allaah! We do not know whether the Khalifah is yourself or Umar!" Hadhrat Abu Bakr replied, "In fact he could have been the Khalifah if he chose to."

Hadhrat Umar then arrived in a rage and when he stood before Hadhrat Abu Bakr, he asked, "Tell me about this land that you handed over to these two men. Does it belong to you or is it the public property of the Muslims?" Hadhrat Abu Bakr replied, "It is the public property of the Muslims." "Then why did you give it to these two men rather than anyone else from amongst the Muslims?" Hadhrat Umar demanded to know. Hadhrat Abu Bakr replied, "I had consulted with these people around me and they indicated that I do so." Hadhrat Umar said, "Although you consulted with those around you, did you obtain the opinion and consent of every Muslim?" (Because it is not possible to seek the opinion of every person in every matter,) Hadhrat Abu Bakr (chose not to reply to Hadhrat Umar and rather) said, "I did tell you that you are more capable of Khilafah than I am, but you overpowered me (and forced me to assume the task instead)." The Question of the Kharaaj from Bahrain Hadhrat Atiyya bin Bilaal and Hadhrat Sahm bin Minjaab both narrate that Aqra and Zabarqaan approached Hadhrat Abu Bakr and said, "Hand over to us the Kharaaj from Bahrain and we shall give you the guarantee that no one from our tribe will ever leave Islaam." Hadhrat Abu Bakr acceded to the request and wrote a declaration to the effect. Amongst the witnesses appointed was Hadhrat Umar. Since the agreement was facilitated by Hadhrat Talha bin Ubaydullaah, it was he who brought the written agreement to Hadhrat Umar. When Hadhrat Umar looked at it, he refused to be a witness and exclaimed, "There is no need to honour (appease) people anymore!" He then erased the content and tore it up. Hadhrat Talha became extremely angry and returned to Hadhrat Abu Bakr, saying, "Are you the Ameer or Umar?" Hadhrat Abu Bakr replied, "He is the Ameer although it is me who has to be obeyed." Upon hearing this, Hadhrat Talha was silent (because while his remark was such that it would have led to disunity, the

Consultation with the Sahabah in Battle

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr reports that Hadhrat Abu Bakr once wrote to Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas saying, "Rasulullah used to consult in matters of war, so ensure that you do the same." (2)

A narration of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abi Awfa has already passed discussing the consultation of Hadhrat Abu Bakr with men of knowledge before engaging the Romans in battle. (3)

Hadhrat Umar Informs his Consultative Assembly about his Proposal to the Daughter of Hadhrat Ali

Hadhrat Abu Ja'far narrates that Hadhrat Umar requested Hadhrat Ali for his daughter Ummu Kulthoom's hand in marriage. Hadhrat Ali said, "I had intended to marry all my daughters only to the sons of Ja'far." To this, Hadhrat Umar said, "O Ali! Marry her to me because I swear by Allaah that there is no other person on earth who anticipates as much as I do by treating her well (this he explains later)." Hadhrat Ali then agreed to let Hadhrat Umar marry his daughter. Hadhrat Umar then approached the gathering of Muhaajireen who always sat in the Masjid between the grave of Rasulullah and the pulpit. They included Hadhrat Ali, Hadhrat Uthmaan, Hadhrat Zubayr, Talha and Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf. Whenever any matter presented itself to him from far off places, Hadhrat Umar would always inform the members of this gathering and then seek their opinions about the matter.

This time he came to them and said, "Congratulate me on my new marriage!" They all congratulated him and then asked, "Who did you marry, O Ameerul Mu'mineen?" "The daughter of Ali bin Abi Taalib," he replied. He then started to explain, "Indeed Rasulullah said, 'Every connection and relation shall be severed on the day of Qiyaamah except my connections and my relations.' I had been a companion of Rasulullah and now I wish to become his relative as well." (4)

Hadrat Umar ﷺ and Hadrat Uthmaan ﷺ Consult with Hadrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas ﷺ and the Good Comments that Hadrat Umar ﷺ and Hadrat Sa’d ﷺ made about him

Hadrat Ataa bin Yasaar reports that Hadrat Umar ﷺ and Hadrat Uthmaan ﷺ used to call for Hadrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas ﷺ and consult with him along with those Sahabah ﷺ who participated in the Battle of Badr (the senior Sahabah ﷺ). During the periods of Hadrat Umar ﷺ and Hadrat Uthmaan ﷺ, Hadrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas ﷺ used to issue Fataawa (rulings) and did so until he passed away.

Hadrat Ya’qoob bin Zaid narrates that Hadrat Umar bin Khattaab ﷺ used to consult with Hadrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas ﷺ about every matter of importance and would say to him, "Dive into the matter, dear diver (because he was capable of reaching the essence of the problem at hand)."

Hadrat Sa’d bin Abi Waqqaas ﷺ said, "I have not seen any person as quick-witted, as intelligent, as knowledgeable and as tolerant as Abdullaah bin Abbaas ﷺ. I have seen Umar ﷺ summon him to solve intricate problems and say, 'An intricate problem has presented itself to you.' Umar ﷺ would then do only what Abdullaah bin Abbaas ﷺ proposed even though he was surrounded by Muhaajireen and Ansaar who had participated in the Battle of Badr." (1)

Hadrat Ibn Shihaab reports that whenever an intricate problem presented itself before Hadrat Umar ﷺ, he would summon some young men to consult and choose to act according to the sharpness of their intellect. (2)

Another narration states that Hadrat Umar bin Khattaab ﷺ would engage in so much consultation that he would even consult women (when the need arose). In fact, there were several occasions when he liked the opinions that they expressed and acted on it. (3)

A Remarkable Lecture of Hadrat Umar ﷺ Concerning Consultation

Hadrat Muhammad, Talha and Ziyaad all report that Hadrat Umar ﷺ once left Madinah and dismounted at an oasis called Sirar (3 miles from Madinah) where he instructed that the army comes to a halt. The soldiers did not know whether he intended to camp there or proceed further. Whenever the Muslims intended to know something from Hadrat Umar ﷺ, they always sent either Hadrat Uthmaan ﷺ or Hadrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf ﷺ. In fact, during the period of Hadrat Umar ﷺ’s Khilaafah, Hadrat Uthmaan ﷺ Haakim has also reported the narration claiming that it is authentic, but Dhahabi has commented on the chain of narrators.

was known as "Radeet". According to the Arabs, a "Radeet" is a person who is regarded as the leader's second-in-command and the term is coined for the one whom the people popularly see as the leader's successor. However, whenever these two men were unable to extract from Hadhrat Umar the information the people required, they would then send Hadhrat Abbaas.

Hadhrat Uthmaan then asked Hadhrat Umar, "Has any intelligence reached you? What do you intend doing?" Hadhrat Umar then announced that the people should gather as they do for salaah and when they had assembled around him, he informed them of the latest intelligence. He then waited for their response. Majority of the people echoed that Hadhrat Umar should march ahead with them in tow. Hadhrat Umar commended this opinion for he did not like to disregard their opinion. He chose to rather dissuade them in a kind manner. He therefore said, "Prepare yourselves and prepare others. I shall continue with you unless I receive an opinion that is more appropriate."

Hadhrat Umar then sent for men of insight and the cream of Rasulullaah's companions and the most prominent Arab leaders gathered together. Hadhrat Umar said to them, "I feel that I should proceed with the army, but I wish you to give me your opinion on the matter." The men gathered for discussion and unanimously agreed that another companion of Rasulullaah should be sent (as commander of the army) while Hadhrat Umar stayed behind (in Madinah) to dispatch reinforcements. They felt that if victory is achieved, the result would be what everyone desired and if not, another commander and another army could always be sent. In this manner (they said), the Kuffaar would be further enraged, the Muslims would guard against making mistakes and Allaah's assistance would arrive according to His promise.

Hadhrat Umar then again announced that the people should gather as they do for salaah and they did. Hadhrat Umar also sent for Hadhrat Ali whom he had appointed as his deputy in Madinah and for Hadhrat Talha whom he had sent ahead with the scouting party. At the same time, he also sent for Hadhrat Zubayr and Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf, whom he had appointed as commanders of the two flanks of the army. (When everyone was present,) Hadhrat Umar then stood amongst the people and said:

"Verily Allaah has gathered the Muslims around Islaam, has created love between their hearts and made them brothers in Islaam. The Muslims are therefore like a single body in their relationship with each other. No part is free from pain when another part is suffering. It is therefore incumbent on the Muslims that their matters be decided by mutual consultation between their men of insight (the consultative assembly). The masses need to follow the one who is their leader and are also bound by the decision of the consultative assembly. The people will have to adopt the course that these men plan. In fact, even the Ameer is bound by the decision that the consultative assembly make. People are also bound to follow the battle strategies that these men outline and approve of. O people! I was also a man like the rest of you (marching in Jihaad) until the men of knowledge and insight amongst you stopped me from proceeding ahead. I am now also of the opinion that I should rather stay behind (in Madinah) and send someone else (as commander of the army). I have already presented this matter to all whom I have sent ahead and all who have been left behind.

Although Hadhrat Umar has appointed Hadhrat Ali as his deputy in Madinah and had made Hadhrat Talha the commander of the scouting group that had already reached a place called Ahwas, he ensured that even they were present to make the decision. (1)

Hadhrat Umar bin Abdul Azeez narrates that when Hadhrat Umar was informed about the martyrdom of Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Mas'ood and that the Persians had rallied around a common leader from the house of the Kisra, he summoned the Muhaajireen and the Ansaar and marched until they reached a place called Siraar. The rest of the narration is similar to the one mentioned above. (2)

The Letter that Hadhrat Umar wrote to Hadhrat Sa'd

Hadhrat Muhammad bin Sallaam Baykindi narrates that even during the Period of Ignorance Hadhrat Amr bin Ma'diyakrib had achieved many feats. He became a Muslim after arriving with a delegation to meet Rasulullaah. Hadhrat Umar bin Khattaab sent him to Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas (who was commanding the Muslim army) in Qaadisiyyah, where he (his military genius) was being put to the test. Hadhrat Umar wrote to Hadhrat Sa'd saying, "I am reinforcing you with two thousand men. They are Amr bin Ma'diyakrib and Tulayha bin Khuwaylid (asadi). Consult with them in military matters but do not appoint them to posts of command (because their daunting courage would place the lives of others at risk)." (3)

Appointing an Ameer

The First Commander Appointed in Islaam

Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas narrates, 'When Rasulullaah arrived in Madinah, the Juhayna tribe approached him with the request, 'Now that you have arrived in our midst, do make a treaty with us so that we may bring our people to you.' After Rasulullaah had made the treaty with them, they accepted Islaam. Rasulullaah then dispatched us during the month of Rajab with instructions to attack the Banu Kinaana tribe, who lived close to where the Juhayna tribe lived. We were not even a hundred men when we attacked them, whereas they were greater in number. When we sought assistance from the Juhayna tribe, they refused to render any saying, 'Why are you fighting during a sacred month.' we told them that we were only fighting people who had exiled us from a sacred place (Makkah) during a sacred month[1]."

"We then asked each other what to do. While some of us felt that we should report the matter to Rasulullah, others were of the opinion that we should remain where we were. Me and a few others opted to rather attack a caravan of the Quraysh. During those times, the practice was that whoever took anything as booty from the enemy, the possessions became his own property. So while we proceeded to attack the caravan, our companions went back to Rasulullah and reported the incident to him. Rasulullah's face became red with anger and he stood up saying, 'You left me as a united group and return separated! It was this very disunity that destroyed the nations before you. I shall now appoint as your commander a man who may not be the best of you but who is certainly the most enduring through hunger and thirst.' Rasulullah then appointed Abdullaah bin Jahash Asadi as our commander, who was the first commander appointed in Islaam." [2]

Appointing an Ameer over Ten Persons

Hadrat Shihaab Ambari narrates, "I was the first to set alight the gates of Tustar when Hadrat Ash'ari was struck down by an arrow. When the city was conquered, Hadrat Ash'ari appointed me as Ameer over ten members of my tribe." [3]

Appointing an Ameer for a Journey

Hadrat Umar once said, "When there are three person travelling, they should appoint one of them as Ameer. This appointment has been commanded by Rasulullah." [4]

Who Qualifies to be an Ameer?

Those who Know Most Qur'aan Qualify to be Ameer

Hadrat Abu Hurayrah narrates that Rasulullah once dispatched an exceptionally large expedition. Rasulullah made each one of them recite whatever portion of the Qur'aan he knew. When Rasulullah came to a man who was one of the youngest and asked him what portion of the Qur'aan he knew, he named several Surahs that he knew including Surah Baqara. "Do you know Surah Baqara?” Rasulullaah ﷺ enquired. When the man replied in the affirmative, Rasulullaah ﷺ said, "Go ahead! You are now their Ameer." One of the prominent persons amongst them said, "The only thing that prevented me from learning Surah Baqara was the fear that I would be unable to recite it in Tahajjud salaah." Rasulullaah ﷺ said, "Learn the Qur’aan and recite it because the example of a person who learns the Qur’aan and recites it is like a bag full of musk, from which fragrance emanates and spreads in every direction. On the other hand, the example of a person who learns the Qur’aan and then sleeps with it in his heart is like a bag of musk, the mouth of which has been sealed." (1)

The Narration of Hadhrat Uthmaan ﷺ about those Knowing the Most Qur’aan to be the Most qualified for the Post of Ameer

Hadhrat Uthmaan ﷺ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ once dispatched an expedition towards Yemen and appointed as their Ameer someone who was the youngest amongst them. However, a few days had passed and they had not yet left. Rasulullaah ﷺ met one of the men and addressing him by his name asked, "What is the matter? Why have you not yet left?" He replied, "O Rasulullaah ﷺ! Our Ameer has a problem with his leg." Rasulullaah ﷺ then went to the man and seven times recited:

"بِسْمِ اللَّهِ وَبِاللَّهِ أَعُوذُ بِاللَّهِ وَقُدرَيْرُهُ مِنْ شَيْءٍ فِيْهَا"

"I commence in the name of Allah, I seek refuge in Allah, in the power of the bad in all things (in it)"

Thereafter, Rasulullaah ﷺ blew on him and he was cured. An elderly person (belonging to the expedition) said, "O Rasulullaah ﷺ! How can you appoint him as our Ameer when he is the youngest of us all?" When Rasulullaah ﷺ mentioned the man’s knowledge of the Qur’aan, the elderly person said, "O Rasulullaah ﷺ! I would have certainly learnt the Qur’aan had I not feared that I would be complacent and not recite it in the Tahajjud salaah." Rasulullaah ﷺ then mentioned, "The example of the Qur’aan is like a bag that you fill with musk. Such is the example of the Qur’aan when the Qur’aan is in your heart and you recite it." (2)

Hadhrat Imraan bin Abdullaah reports that Hadhrat Ubay bin Ka'b (2) once asked Hadhrat Umar (3) , "What is it that you do not give me command?"

Hadhrat Umar replied, "I do not like to taint your Deen." (2)

The letter of Hadhrat Umar Concerning the Appointment of Commanders and his description of an Ameer

Hadhrat Haaritha bin Mudarrib narrates that Hadhrat Umar (4) wrote the following letter to them:

I have sent Ammaar bin Yaasir (5) as your Ameer and Abdullaah bin Mas'ood (6) as your teacher and minister. They are both amongst the chosen companions of Rasulullaah (7) and veterans of Badr. Learn from them and follow their example. By sending Abdullah to you, I have actually sacrificed my own need for him. I have also sent Uthmaan bin Hunayf (8) as to survey the rural areas of Iraq. I have stipulated that their wages should be a goat every day. Half the goat and its innards should be given to Ammaar (because as the Ameer, he would naturally have guests to feed) and the other half should be shared between the other three men (i.e. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood, Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Hunayf and Hadhrat Hudhayfa bin Yamaan, who was sent as an assistant surveyor)." (3)

Hadhrat Sha'bi narrates that Hadhrat Umar (9) once asked, "Tell me who I should appoint to take charge of a public matter that is of great concern to me?"

When the name of Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf (10) was suggested, Hadhrat Umar noted that he was not up to the task. When another name was suggested, Hadhrat Umar said, "I have no need for him." When Hadhrat Umar was asked who it was that he required, he replied, "Someone who will be like one of the people when he becomes the Ameer (because of his humility) and when he is not the Ameer, he appears to be the Ameer (because of his high sense of responsibility)." The people (with Hadhrat Umar) then said, "We know of none suitable besides Rabee bin Ziyaad Haarithi." "That is true," confirmed Hadhrat Umar. (4)

Who will be Successful as an Ameer

Hadhrat Abu Wa'ail Shaqeeq bin Salama reports that Hadhrat Umar (11) once appointed Hadhrat Bishr bin Aasim (12) to collect the Zakaah of the Hawaazin tribe. However, when Hadhrat Bishr failed to do so, Hadhrat Umar met him and asked, "What has kept you back? Is it not necessary to listen to me

"Of course," replied Hadhrat Bishr , "but I have heard Rasulullaah say, 'Whoever is appointed to carry out a public task shall be brought forward on the Day of Qiyaamah and made to stand on the bridge spanning Jahannam. If he carried out the task well, he will be saved, but if he did not fulfil the responsibility, the bridge will shatter and he will fall for seventy years into Jahannam.'"

Hadhrat Umar left in a very distressed and worried state. Hadhrat Abu Dharr then met him and asked, "Why do I see you so distressed and worried?" Hadhrat Umar replied, "Why should I not be distressed and worried when I have heard Bishr bin Aasim say, 'I have heard Rasulullaah say, 'Whoever is appointed to carry out a public task shall be brought forward on the Day of Qiyaamah and made to stand on the bridge spanning Jahannam. If he carried out the task well, he will be saved, but if he did not fulfil the responsibility, the bridge will shatter and he will fall for seventy years into Jahannam.'" Hadhrat Abu Dharr asked, "Did you not hear Rasulullaah say this?" When Hadhrat Umar said that he had not, Hadhrat Abu Dharr said, "I testify that I had certainly heard Rasulullaah state, 'Whoever is appointed to carry out any public task shall be brought forward on the Day of Qiyaamah and made to stand on the bridge spanning Jahannam. If he carried out the task well, he will be saved, but if he did not fulfil the responsibility, the bridge will shatter and he will fall for seventy years into Jahannam, and Jahannam is extremely black and dark.' Now which of these two narrations instils more fear in your heart?" Hadhrat Umar replied, "They have both instilled great fear in my heart. Who will then be able to accept the responsibility and do justice to it?"

Hadhrat Abu Dharr replied, "The person whose nose Allaah intends cutting and whose cheek Allaah wishes to bring to the ground (whom Allaah wishes to disgrace). However, we know only good of your Khilaafah. Then again, it is possible that if you hand over the post to someone who does not exercise justice, you will also not be saved from the sin (of his injustice)." (1) an Ameer. He replied, "I was helped to sit and to stand (the men gave me great honour) to the extent that I feel as if I am no longer myself (my humility has been diminished)." Rasulullah commented, "Leadership it like that (it does that to a person)." Hadhrat Miqdaad then said, "I swear by the Being Who has sent you with the truth that I shall never again assume any post of leadership." Thereafter, Hadhrat Miqdaad would even decline when people asked him to lead them in salaah. (1)

Another narration from Hadhrat Anas quotes that Hadhrat Miqdaad said, "I was helped on to my conveyance and helped to dismount until I felt as if I was superior to the others." Rasulullah then told him, "Such is leadership. You may therefore either accept it or reject it." Hadhrat Miqdaad then swore, "I swear by the Being Who has sent you with the truth that I shall never again assume command of even two persons." (2)

The Narration of Tabraani about the Incident of Hadhrat Miqdaad

Hadhrat Miqdaad bin Aswad says, "Rasulullah sent me on an expedition. When we returned, he asked me, 'How do you find yourself?' I replied, 'I gradually started to think that the others were my servants. I swear by Allaah that after this I shall never again take command of even two persons.'" (3)

It is reported that Rasulullah once appointed someone to lead an expedition. When the man had completed his duties and returned, Rasulullah asked him, "How was it to be the Ameer?" The man replied, "Although I behaved like one of them, they all mounted when I did and dismounted when I did." Rasulullah commented, "Leaders stand at the door of oppression (are prone to oppress) except for those whom Allaah saves (from committing oppression)." The man then said, "I swear by Allaah that I shall never again accept command from you or from anybody else." Rasulullah then smiled broadly until even his back teeth were visible. (4)

The Advice Hadhrat Abu Bakr gave to Hadhrat Raafi Taa'I About Being an Ameer

Hadh.rat Raafi Taa'I narrates that he accompanied Hadhrat Abu Bakr on an expedition and when they were returning, he asked Hadhrat Abu Bakr for some advice. Hadhrat Abu Bakr said, "Establish the Fardh salaah at its fixed hours, pay the Zakaah due on your wealth with the pleasure of your heart, fast during the month of Ramadhaan and perform pilgrimage to the House of Allaah (Hajj). Remember well that Hijrah in Islaam is an excellent virtue, and to make Jihaad in Hijrah is very good. Also remember that you should never become an Ameer. This post of leadership that appears to be so pleasurable today will soon become so widespread that people who are not fit for it will have it. The person who becomes an Ameer shall be amongst those to experience the longest reckoning (on the Day of Qiyaamah) and also the harshest of punishment (for failing in his duties). On the other hand, the person who does not become an Ameer will be amongst those to experience the shortest reckoning and the lightest of punishment. This is because leaders are most prone to oppress the Mu’mineen and whoever oppresses the Mu’mineen has breached his pledge with Allaah since the Mu’mineen are Allaah’s neighbours and His slaves. By Allaah! If even the goat or camel of your neighbour has to come to some harm, you would spend the night with swollen veins (in anger) repeatedly saying, 'My neighbour’s goat!' or 'My neighbour’s camel!' (More than this) Allaah has a greater right to get angry for the sake of His neighbours.”

The Incident that Occurred between Hadhrat Abu Bakr and Hadhrat Raafi Concerning Leadership

Hadhrat Raafi narrates that Rasulullaah dispatched Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas as commander of the army that marched to the Battle of Dhaatus Salaasil. Together with him in the army Rasulullaah also sent Hadhrat Abu Bakr, Hadhrat Umar and other leading Sahabah. The army proceeded until they set up camp at the two mountains of the Tay tribe. When Hadhrat Umar suggested that they find a guide to show them the road, the others said that the only guide can be Raafi bin Amr because he had been a ‘rabeel’. The narrator of the Hadith says that he asked his teacher Hadhrat Taariq what a ‘rabeel’ was and he was informed that a ‘rabeel’ was a robber who single-handedly tackles a group of people and robs them all.

Hadhrat Raafi narrates further, 'When we had completed the expedition and returned to the place from where we had left, I had already judged Abu Bakr to be an excellent man, so I approached him and said, 'O man of Halaal! From amongst all your companions, I have judged you to be the best, so tell me something that will make me part of your people and just like you if I remember it.' Abu Bakr said, 'Can you remember your five fingers?' When I replied in the affirmative he said, 'Testify that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah the One Who has no partner, that Muhammad is the Rasul of Allaah, establish salaah, pay Zakaah if you have wealth, perform the pilgrimage to the Kabah and fast during Ramadhaan. Can you remember this?' 'Of course,' I replied. He then added, 'And there is also something else, that you should never become the Ameer of even two persons.' I said, 'Can anyone be given command other than you veterans of Badr?' He replied, 'This post will soon spread until it reaches you and even people whose status is inferior to yours.'

started entering the fold of Islaam. Amongst them were those whom Allaah had guided and who (gladly) entered Islaam. Others were those whom the sword had compelled (to accept Islaam). All these people have sought Allaah's protection and are Allaah's neighbours in his custody. When a man becomes the Ameer and the people (under his command) oppress each other, Allaah will take revenge from him if he does not give back to the oppressed what the oppressors had taken from them. This is just like the case when your neighbour's goat is taken away and you spend the entire day with swollen veins out of feeling for your neighbour. In the same way, Allaah also lends his support to His neighbours.

Hadrath Raafi reports further, "It was a year later that Abu Bakr was made the Khalifah. I then rode off to meet him. I introduced myself as Raafi and reminded him where I had been his guide. When he confirmed that he remembered who I was, I said, 'You used to prevent me from becoming an Ameer and now you have mounted a much greater task as the Ameer of the entire Ummah of Muhammad.' He replied, 'Indeed, because the one who does not enforce the Book of Allaah amongst the people shall earn the curse of Allaah.'" (1)

The Sahabah Prefer Fighting Rather than Taking Command

Hadrath Sa'eed bin Amr bin Sa'eed bin Al Aas narrates that his uncles Hadrath Khaalid bin Sa'eed bin Al Aas, Hadrath Abaan bin Sa'eed bin Al Aas and Hadrath Amr bin Sa'eed bin Al Aas all returned to Madinah from their posts (as governors of various districts) when they heard about the demise of Rasulullaah. Hadrath Abu Bakr said to them, "None are more qualified to be governors than those whom Rasulullaah himself appointed (you should therefore return to your posts)." However, they replied, "We shall not command for anyone." They then returned to Shaam where all of them were martyred." (2)

The Incident that Occurred between Hadrath Umar and Hadrath Abaan bin Sa'eed Concerning an Appointment to Command and Hadrath Umar Dispatches Hadrath Alaa bin Hadhrami to Bahrain

Hadrath Abdur Rahmaan bin Sa'eed bin Yarboo narrates that when Hadrath Abaan bin Sa'eed returned to Madinah, Hadrath Umar said to him, "You have no right to come here and leave your post without the permission of your leader, especially under the present circumstances (when people are revolting and the enemy is ready to pounce on us). It however seems that you have no fear." Hadrath Abaan replied, "I swear by Allaah that I shall never accept command from anyone after Rasulullaah. If I were to accept command from anyone after Rasulullaah ﷺ, I would accept a post from Abu Bakr ﷺ because of his virtue and his early entry into Islaam. However, I would still not want to accept any post of command from anyone after Rasulullaah ﷺ.

When Hadhrat Abu Bakr ﷺ consulted with the Sahabah about whom to send to Bahrain, Hadhrat Uthmaan ﷺ said, "Send the person whom Rasulullaah ﷺ had sent to them (the people of Bahrain), the one who made them Muslims and subservient. Someone whom they will recognise, who recognises them and who knows their land." Hadhrat Uthmaan ﷺ was referring to Hadhrat Alaa bin Hadhrami ﷺ. Hadhrat Umar ﷺ however, refused to accept the proposal and said, "Force Aaaan bin Saleed bin Al Aas to return because he is a man who has been there several times." Hadhrat Abu Bakr ﷺ refused to force him saying, "I shall not do it. I cannot force a person who says that he will not accept a post of command from anyone after Rasulullaah ﷺ." Hadhrat Abu Bakr ﷺ then confirmed that Hadhrat Alaa bin Hadhrami ﷺ would be sent to Bahrain. (1)

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah ﷺ Refuses to Accept an Appointment as Ameer

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah ﷺ reports that Hadhrat Umar ﷺ once summoned him to accept a post as governor, but he refused to accept the post. Hadhrat Umar ﷺ said, "You dislike an appointment to a post when someone better than you actually asked for it." When Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah ﷺ asked who it was that asked for a post, Hadhrat Umar ﷺ replied, "Yusuf bin Ya'qoob ﷺ." Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah ﷺ then said, "Yusuf ﷺ was the Nabi of Allaah and the son of a Nabi, while I am merely Abu Hurayrah the son of Umayma. I fear three and two things (equaling five)." "Why don't you just say 'five things'?' enquired Hadhrat Umar ﷺ. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah ﷺ replied, "I fear that I should say anything without knowledge, pass wrong judgement (as a governor, because of which I would) have my back lashed, have my wealth taken away and my reputation insulted." (2)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ﷺ Refuses to be Appointed as judge

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mowhab reports that Hadhrat Uthmaan ﷺ once said to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ﷺ, "Go and pass judgement between the people." Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ﷺ requested, "Will you not excuse me, O Ameerul Mu'mineen?" Hadhrat Uthmaan ﷺ emphatically said, "Never! I have sworn that you must be the judge." "Do not be hasty," Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ﷺ spoke, "have you heard Rasulullaah ﷺ say. The person who seeks protection from Allaah has sought a great source of protection." When Hadhrat Uthmaan ﷺ confirmed that he had heard the Hadith, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ﷺ said, "I then seek Allaah's protection from being a judge.

Hadhrat Uthmaan ﷺ then asked, "What prevents you when your father was a judge?" Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ﷺ replied, "I have heard Rasulullaah ﷺ say, 'The person who is a judge and passes judgement in ignorance shall be one of the inmates of Jahannam. As for the one who is a knowledgeable judge and passes correct and just judgement, he will plead (before Allaah on the Day of Qiyaamah) for an acquittal (that he should neither receive any rewards nor any sin)." What have I to hope for after this?"1 A narration of Ahmad adds that after this, Hadhrat Uthmaan ﷺ excused Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ﷺ and told him not to inform anyone else about it. (otherwise none would be prepared to act as judge and society would suffer).

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ﷺ narrates that Hadhrat Uthmaan ﷺ wanted him to act as judge, but he refused saying, "I have heard Rasulullaah ﷺ say, 'Judges are of three types; one will attain salvation while two will end up in Jahannam. Those who pass judgement unjustly or by the dictates of their desires shall be destroyed while the one who passes judgement with the truth will attain salvation.'"2

The Incident that Occurred Between Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ﷺ and Ummul Mu'mineen Hadhrat Hafsah ﷺ Concerning Dowmatul Jandal

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ﷺ narrates, "It was on the day that Hadhrat Ali ﷺ and Hadhrat Mu'aawiyah ﷺ gathered at Dowmatul Jandal (to reconcile their differences) that (my sister) Ummul Mu'mineen Hafsa ﷺ said to me, 'It is really not nice that you refrain from participating in a reconciliation that Allaah has brought about between the Ummah of Muhammad ﷺ since you are the brother-in-law of Rasulullaah ﷺ and the son of Umar bin Khattaab ﷺ.' That day, Hadhrat Mu'aawiyah ﷺ arrived on a huge Bactrian camel and announced, "Who is desirous of Khilaafah? Who is willing to risk his neck for it?" Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ﷺ says, "Never before had my heart ever aspired for worldly things and I almost said, 'That person (myself) desires the Khilaafah who had hit your neck and the neck of your father to accept Islaam until he made you two enter its fold!' However, I thought of Jannah and its bounties and refrained from saying it." (1)

A narration of Abu Husayn states that Hadhrat Mu'aawiya said, "Who is more worthy than us of this post (of Khilaafah)?" Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar said, "I wanted to say, 'More worthy than you is the one who hit your neck and your father's neck (to bring you into Islaam).' However, I then thought about the bounties of Jannah and feared that I would be spoiling them (by saying this)." (2)

A narration of Imaam Zuhri states that when Hadhrat (Hasan bin) Ali and Hadhrat Mu'aawiya got together, Hadhrat Mu'aawiya announced, "Who is most worthy of the post of Khilaafah then me?" Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar said, "I wanted to say, 'More worthy than you is the one who hit your neck and your father's neck because of your Kufr (myself).’ However, I feared that (if I said this) thoughts would be entertained about me that are not true (people would think that I desired to be the Khalifah which was not true)."

Hadrat Abdullaah bin Saamit reports that when Ziyaad wanted to dispatch Hadhrat Imraan bin Husayn as governor of Khurasan, he refused to accept the post. His friends asked, "Are you forsaking the opportunity to be governor of Khurasan?" He replied, "It does not please me at all that should suffer the heat of Khurasan (do the hard work of governing) while they (Ziyaad and his followers) enjoy its coolness (by using the income from the region). I fear that if I am ever facing the enemy in battle and then a letter would come to me from Ziyaad, which if I obey will result in my destruction and if I ignore it, will result in my execution (at the hands of Ziyaad)."

Ziyaad then appointed Hadhrat Hakam bin Amr Ghifaari as governor of Khurasan and Hadhrat Hakam accepted the post. Hadhrat Imraan then asked someone to summon Hadhrat Hakam to him. A messenger went to Hadhrat Hakam and when he arrived, Hadhrat Imraan said to him, "Did you hear Rasulullaah say that no person should be obeyed when it (obedience to the person) entails disobedience to Allaah?" When Hadhrat Hakam confirmed that he had heard this from Rasulullaah, Hadhrat Imraan exclaimed, "Alhamdu Lillaah!" or "Allaahu Akbar!"

Another narration from Hadhrat Hasan states that when Ziyaad appointed Hadhrat (Hakam) Ghifaari as commander of the army, Hadhrat Imraan bin Husayn went to see him. Hadhrat Imraan met him in public and asked, "Do you know why I have come to you?" When Hadhrat Hakam asked why he had come, Hadhrat Imraan said, "Do you remember what Rasulullaah said to the person whose Ameer told him to throw himself into the fire and he was then stopped and prevented (by others from doing what he was commanded). When the incident was reported to Rasulullaah, he said to the person, 'Had he fallen into the fire, both of them would have entered Jahannam. There is no obedience (to anyone) when it entails disobeying Allaah.' Hadhrat Hakam confirmed that he remembered the Hadith. Hadhrat Imraan then said, "I only wished to remind you of this Hadith."(1)

Respecting the Khalifahs and Ameers and Obedying their Commands

The Incident that occurred between Hadhrat Khaalid and Hadhrat Ammaar During an Expedition

Hadrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas narrates that Rasulullaah once dispatched Hadrat Khaalid bin Waleed bin Mughiera Makhzoomi on expedition. With him was Hadrat Ammaar bin Yaasir. The expedition left and finally drew close to the people whom they intended to ambush early in the morning. They set up camp there late at night. However, someone warned the people (about the presence of the Sahabah) and they all fled to a place of safety. One of the men amongst them who had accepted Islaam together with his family stayed behind. He instructed his family to load their goods and then told them to wait until he returned.

He then proceeded to meet Hadrat Ammaar and said, "O Abu Yaqdhaan! My family and I have accepted Islaam. Will this help me if I stay behind (in the town) because all my people had fled when they heard about your arrival?" Hadrat Ammaar said to him, "You may stay behind, for you are safe." The man and his family then went back. When Hadrat Khaalid launched the attack the next morning, he found that the people had all fled. He then captured the man and his family. Hadrat Ammaar said, "You can do nothing to a man who has accepted Islaam." Hadrat Khaalid said, "What have you to do with this? When I am the Ameer, how could you grant a person amnesty without my permission?" Hadrat Ammaar replied, "I can indeed grant amnesty without your permission even though you are the Ameer. This man has accepted Imaan and if he wished to, he could have left with the others. Because he has Imaan, I instructed him to stay behind." The two Sahabah then argued until they started abusing each other.

When they returned to Madinah, they both went to Rasulullaah and Hadrat Anmaar told him about the man and what he had done. Rasulullaah then authorised the amnesty that Hadrat Ammaar had granted but at the same time also forbade people from granting amnesty to others without the permission of the Ameer. The two Sahabah then again started arguing in the presence of Rasulullaah ﷺ. To this, Hadhrat Khaalid ﷺ remarked, "O Rasulullaah ﷺ! This slave is insulting me in your presence! I swear by Allaah that had you not been here, he would have never used such terms for me." Rasulullaah ﷺ said, "O Khaalid! Do not harass Ammaar because Allaah dislikes anyone who dislikes Ammaar and Allaah curses anyone who curses Ammaar." Hadhrat Ammaar ﷺ then stood up and left. Hadhrat Khaalid ﷺ followed him, grabbed hold of his clothing and continuously made attempts to please Hadhrat Ammaar ﷺ until Hadhrat Ammaar ﷺ was pleased with him.

Another narration states that it was then that Allaah revealed the verse:

(اتَّبِعُوا اللَّهَ وَاتَّبِعُوا الرَّسُولَ وَأَوْلَى الْأَمْرِ مِنْهُ ﴿١﴾
اللَّهُ وَالَّيَمِينِ إِنَّكَ فَاتَّحَمْتُ في صَيْحَتِي فَزُودْتَ بأَمْيَةٍ
(سورة نساء آية 95)

Obey Allaah, obey the Rasool ﷺ and those in command among you (your military commanders). If you dispute regarding any matter, then refer it to Allaah and the Rasool ﷺ (so that Allaah and His Rasool may pass judgement in the matter i.e. find the solution in the Qur'aan or in the Ahaadeeth) if you believe in Allaah and the Last Day. This is best (for all) and gives the best result (because you will then not be basing your decisions on your personal opinions). (Surah Nisaa, verse 59)

The Incident that occurred Between Hadhrat Auf bin Maalik ﷺ and Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed ﷺ

Hadhrat Auf bin Maalik Ashja'ee ﷺ reports that he was amongst those Muslims who marched with Zaid bin Haaritha ﷺ for the Battle of Mu'ta. His companion was a man who had come with reinforcements from Yemen. He had nothing but his sword with him. When one of the Muslims slaughtered a camel, the man (from Yemen) asked him for a piece of the leather, which he gladly gave. The man made the piece of leather into a shield for himself and we then proceeded. When we faced the large Roman army there was a man amongst them riding a red horse. His saddle and his weapons were gold plated and he attacked the Muslims very fiercely. The man from Yemen waited for him behind a boulder and when the Roman passed by, the Yemeni hamstrung his horse. As the Roman fell, the Yemeni attacked and killed him. He then took possession of the Roman's

Abu Yalla, Ibn Asaakir, Nasa'ee, Tabraani and Haakim have reported the narration in detail from Hadhrat Khaalid ﷺ, while Ibn Abi Shaybah, Ahmad and Nasa'ee have also reported it briefly, as quoted in Kanzul Ummal (Vol.1 Pg.73). Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.396) has attested to its authenticity, as confirmed by Dhahabi. Heythami (Vol.9 Pg.294) mentions that Tabraani has also reported the narration both in detail and in brief, similar to the narration of Ahmad and with reliable chains of narrators.
belongings. After Allaah had granted victory to the Muslims, Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed \(\text{(Vol-2)}\) (who was made the commander after the other commanders had been martyred) sent for the Yemeni and took away the belongings he had taken from the Roman.

Hadhrat Auf bin Maalik \(\text{(Vol-2)}\) approached Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed \(\text{(Vol-2)}\) and said, "O Khaalid! Don't you know that Rasulullaah \(\text{(Vol-2)}\) has decreed that the one who kills an enemy soldier should take all his possessions?" Hadhrat Khaalid \(\text{(Vol-2)}\) replied, "Certainly, but I think that these possessions are too much."

Hadhrat Auf \(\text{(Vol-2)}\) objected by saying, "You must return it to him otherwise I shall definitely expose you before Rasulullaah \(\text{(Vol-2)}\)." Hadhrat Khaalid \(\text{(Vol-2)}\) still refused to return it.

Hadhrat Auf \(\text{(Vol-2)}\) narrated further that when they both got to Rasulullaah \(\text{(Vol-2)}\), he related to Rasulullaah \(\text{(Vol-2)}\) the entire story of the Yemeni and how Hadhrat Khaalid \(\text{(Vol-2)}\) had treated him. When Rasulullaah \(\text{(Vol-2)}\) asked Hadhrat Khaalid \(\text{(Vol-2)}\) the reason for his action, he replied, "O Rasulullaah \(\text{(Vol-2)}\)! I thought that the possessions were too much." Rasulullaah \(\text{(Vol-2)}\) then instructed Hadhrat Khaalid \(\text{(Vol-2)}\) to return the goods to the Yemeni. At this, Hadhrat Auf \(\text{(Vol-2)}\) commented, "So there! Did I not tell you that I would do this (complain about you to Rasulullaah \(\text{(Vol-2)}\) and have you punished)?" "What was that all about?" Rasulullaah \(\text{(Vol-2)}\) enquired. When Hadhrat Auf \(\text{(Vol-2)}\) informed Rasulullaah \(\text{(Vol-2)}\) (about his threat to Hadhrat Khaalid \(\text{(Vol-2)}\)), Rasulullaah \(\text{(Vol-2)}\) became extremely angry and said, "Do not return the goods Khaalid! Will you people not leave my commanders alone for my sake (will you not show them respect)?! You people (under their command) receive the benefit of the good they command while they suffer the consequences of their improper commands." \(\text{(1)}\)

The Incident Between Hadhrat Umar \(\text{(Vol-2)}\) and Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas \(\text{(Vol-2)}\) Concerning Respect for a Leader

Hadhrat Raashid bin Sa'd reports that some wealth once came to Hadhrat Umar \(\text{(Vol-2)}\) and he was distributing it amongst the people when they started crowding around him. Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas \(\text{(Vol-2)}\) arrived and forced his way through the crowd until he reached Hadhrat Umar \(\text{(Vol-2)}\). Hadhrat Umar \(\text{(Vol-2)}\) lifted up his whip over Hadhrat Sa'd \(\text{(Vol-2)}\) and said, "You came here as if you have no fear for Allaah's commander on earth! I wish to teach you that Allaah's commander on earth also has no fear for you." \(\text{(2)}\)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Yazeed narrates that Rasulullaah \(\text{(Vol-2)}\) once dispatched Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas \(\text{(Vol-2)}\) as commander of a military expedition that included Hadhrat Abu Bakr and Hadhrat Umar. When they reached the place where the battle was to be fought, Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas issued the command that no fires were to be lit. This angered Hadhrat Umar and he was about to object when Hadhrat Abu Bakr stopped him and said to him, "Rasulullaah has made him your commander because of his knowledge of warfare." Hadhrat Umar then simmered down. [1]

The Narration of Hadhrat Ayaad bin Ghanam Concerning Respect for the Ameer

Hadhrat Jubayr bin Nufayr reports that Hadhrat Ayaadh bin Ghanam Ash'ari severely punished the governor of Daaraa when the Muslims conquered the place. Hadhrat Hishaam bin Hakeem came to him and harshly reprimanded him (for this act). After a few days, Hadhrat Hishaam apologetically came back to Hadhrat Ayaadh and said, "Do you not know that Rasulullaah said, 'The people who will be most severely punished on the Day of Qiyaamah will be those who punished people most severely in this world'"?

Hadhrat Ayaadh responded by saying, "O Hishaam! We have heard what you heard, we have seen what you have seen and we have been in the company of Rasulullaah just as you have been. O Hishaam! Did you not hear Rasulullaah say, 'Whoever wishes to advise their leader should never address it to him in public. He should rather take him by the hand and address him in private. If the leader accepts it, he accepts it. Otherwise, the advisor has discharged the obligation and the right he owes to his leader.' However, O Hishaam, you have been very bold against Allaah's commander. Do you not fear that Allaah's commander would have you killed and you would be known as one whom the commander had executed?[2]

The Statement of Hadhrat Hudhayfah Concerning Drawing Weapons Against the Ameer

Hadhrat Zaid bin Wahab reports that during the time of Hadhrat Hudhayfah, some people complained to him about the Ameer. A man then entered the large (Jami) Masjid and weaved his way through the people until he reached Hadhrat Hudhayfah. He stood by the head of Hadhrat Hudhayfah and said, "O companion of Rasulullaah! Will you not enjoin good and forbid evil?" Knowing what the man meant (that Hadhrat Hudhayfah ought to

The rest of the report is the same. The chain of narrators are reliable, as confirmed by Imaam Dhahabi.

A narration of Ahmad states that when Daaraa was conquered, Hadhrat Ayaadh had its leader lashed, after which Hadhrat Hishaam harshly reprimanded him. The rest of the narration is similar as the above. Haythami (Vol.5 Pg.229) has commented on the chain of narrators.
oppose the Ameer), Hadhrat Hudhayfah looked up and said to him, "Undoubtedly, enjoining good and forbidding evil is an excellent deed. However, drawing weapons against your Ameer is certainly not a Sunnah practice." (1)

A Narration of Hadhrat Abu Bakrah Concerning Respect for an Ameer

Hadhrat Ziyaad bin Kusayb Adawi reports that Abdullaah bin Aamir used to deliver lectures to the people while wearing fine clothing and with well groomed hair. After leading the salaah one day and entering his room, Mirdaas Abu Bilaal commented, "Would you look at the people's Ameer and leader! He wears fine clothes and adopts the appearance of the sinners!" Hadhrat Abu Bakrah was sitting next to the pulpit. When he heard this, he told his son Usayli to call Abu Bilaal. When Abu Bilaal arrived, Hadhrat Abu Bakrah said to him, "I have heard the comment you have just made about the Ameer. I have heard Rasulullaah say, 'Allaah will honour the person who honours His Ameer and will disgrace the person who disgraces Allaah's Ameer." (2)

The Ameer is Obeyed only when he Instructs what is Right

Hadhrat Ali bin Abi Taalib reports that Rasulullaah once appointed a Sahabi from the Ansaar as commander of an expedition. Rasulullaah dispatched the expedition with instructions to listen to and to obey their commander. However, the others happened to aggravate their commander in some way and he ordered them to gather firewood. When they did as they were ordered, he instructed them to light a fire. After they had lit the fire, he said to them, "Did Rasulullaah not instruct you listen to me and to obey me?" When they acknowledged the instruction, he said, "Then enter this fire." The men started looking at each other saying, "It was the fire (of Jahannam) that we were escaping from when we went to Rasulullaah." In the meantime, the commander's anger abated and the fire died off.

When the men returned and reported the incident to Rasulullaah, he said, "Had they entered it, they would have never emerged from it (because after death they would have entered the fire of Jahannam). Obedience is only in matters of good." (3)

(2) Bayhaqi (Vol.8 Pg.163).
(3) Bukhari and Muslim. Bukhari and Muslim have also reported the narration from Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas while Ibn Abi Shaybah has also reported the narration from Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas while Ibn Abi Shaybah has reported it from Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed Khudri. According to a narration in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.179), Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed Khudri has named the Ansaari commander as Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Hudhaafa Sahmi. As quoted in A'saab (Vol.2 Pg.296), Bukhari has also given the same name in the narration of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas.
The Narration of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar Concerning Respecting the Ameer

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar narrates that Rasulullaah was once with a group of the Sahabah when he turned to them and said, "Do you not know that I am verily the Rasul of Allaah sent to you?" The Sahabah replied, "But of course. We testify that you are certainly the Rasul of Allaah." Rasulullaah then asked them, "Do you not know that whoever obeys me obeys Allaah and obedience to me is part of obedience to Allaah?" The Sahabah responded by saying, "But of course. We testify that whoever obeys you obeys Allaah and obedience to you is part of obedience to Allaah." Rasulullaah went on to say, "For you to obey me is part of obedience to Allaah and for you to obey your leaders is part of obedience to me. In fact, even if they perform salaah sitting down, you should also perform salaah sitting down." (1)

The Advice Rasulullaah gave to Hadhrat Abu Dharr Concerning Showing Respect to the Ameer

Hadhrat Asmaa bint Yazeed reports that Hadhrat Abu Dharr Ghifaari used to serve Rasulullaah and would return to the Masjid after he had completed. The Masjid was his home where he used to lie down (to sleep). Rasulullaah happened to enter the Masjid one night where he found Hadhrat Abu Dharr sleeping on the ground. Rasulullaah prodded him gently with his foot until Hadhrat Abu Dharr sat upright. Rasulullaah then said to him, "Did I not see you sleeping in the Masjid?" "Where should I sleep?" asked Hadhrat Abu Dharr, "I have no home besides this." Rasulullaah then sat with him and said, "What will you do when the people expel you from the Masjid?" Hadhrat Abu Dharr replied, "I shall then go to Shaam, which is the place of migration (of the previous Ambiyaa), the place where mankind will be resurrected and the land of many Ambiyaa. I shall then become one of its people." Rasulullaah asked further, "What will you then do if they exile you from Shaam?" "I shall then return (to Madinah), which will be my home and place of residence." Rasulullaah again enquired, "And what if they expel you from here for the second time?" Hadhrat Abu Dharr resolved, "I shall then take up my sword and fight until I die." Rasulullaah smiled at him and placed his hand on him saying, "Should I rather guide you to something that is better than that?" Hadhrat Abu Dharr exclaimed, "Why not, O Rasulullaah? May my parents be sacrificed for you!" Rasulullaah said, "Follow them wherever they lead you and go along to wherever they drive you until you eventually meet me in that condition." (2)

(1) Abu Ya'la and Ibn Asaakir, both narrating from reliable sources, as quoted in Kanzu’ Ummat (Vol. 3 Pg.168).
(2) Ibn Jarir, as quoted in Kanzu’ Ummat (Vol. 3 Pg.168). Ahmad has also reported the narration but Haythami (Vol. 5 Pg.223) has commented on the chain of narrators.
Another narration from Hadhrat Abu Dharr ﷺ states that Rasulullaah ﷺ asked, "What will you then do when you are removed from there (Madinah)?" Hadhrat Abu Dharr ﷺ replied, "I shall take my sword and strike anyone who wants to remove me." Rasulullaah ﷺ then placed his hand on the shoulder of Hadhrat Abu Dharr ﷺ and said, "Overlook (what they do) O Abu Dharr. You should rather follow them wherever they lead you and go along to wherever they drive you even though you have to adopt this attitude even with an Abyssinian slave."

Hadhrat Abu Dharr ﷺ says, "When I settled in Rabda (on the instruction of Ameerul Mu'mineen Hadhrat Uthmaan ﷺ), it once occurred that the Iqamah (for salaah) was already called out and an Abyssinian man who had been appointed to collect Zakaah went forward (to lead the salaah). However, when he saw me, he started going back and putting me forward. I said to him, 'Stay where you are, for I am obeying the command of Rasulullaah ﷺ.'"

Another narration states that when Hadhrat Abu Dharr ﷺ went to Rabda, he once found an Abyssinian slave of Hadhrat Uthmaan ﷺ there. The man called out the Adhaan and the Iqamah and then asked Hadhrat Abu Dharr ﷺ to go forward (to lead the salaah). Hadhrat Abu Dharr ﷺ said, "No. Rasulullaah ﷺ instructed me to listen and to obey even an Abyssinian slave." The slave then went forward and Hadhrat Abu Dharr ﷺ performed salaah behind him.

Hadhrat Umar ﷺ said, "Listen and obey (your Ameer) even though the person appointed as your Ameer is an Abyssinian slave with mutilated limbs. Exercise patience if he harms you and if he gives you an instruction, carry it out. Also exercise patience if he deprives you and even if he oppresses you. However, if he ever intends to diminish your Deen, then tell him, 'You may have my blood but not my Deen!' Also ensure that you never separate from the Jamaa'ah."

The Narration of Hadhrat Umar ﷺ Concerning Showing Respect for the Ameer and his Incident with Hadhrat Alqama in this Regard Hadhrat Hasan narrates that Hadhrat Alqama bin Alanha once met Hadhrat Umar ﷺ late at night. Because Hadhrat Umar ﷺ resembled Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed ﷺ (Hadhrat Alqama mistook him as Hadhrat Khaalid ﷺ) and said, "O Khaalid! That man (Hadhrat Umar ﷺ) has dismissed you from your post (as commanding officer)! It is all because of his narrow sightedness. In fact, my cousin and I were about to ask him for something but we shall now never ask him anything because he has dismissed you." Hadhrat Umar ﷺ said to him, "Is there anything else you wish to say?" Hadhrat Alqama continued, "Nevertheless, our leaders are people who have a right over us (that we have to obey them in all conditions). We shall have our rewards with Allaah .

when we fulfill the rights we owe to them."

The next morning, Hadhrat Umar asked Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed, "What has Alqama said to you since last night?" Hadhrat Khaalid replied, "By Allaah! He has not said anything to me!" Hadhrat Umar said, "And you are even swearing in Allaah's name about it." The narration of Hadhrat Abu Nadhrah adds that Hadhrat Alqama then said to Hadhrat Khaalid, "Be quiet, O Khaalid (Do not deny it)." Another narration(1) concludes with the words of Hadhrat Umar who said, "You are both speaking the truth." The narration of Zubayr bin Bakkaar states that Hadhrat Umar then granted Hadhrat Alqama what he wanted and thus satisfied his need. This narration also adds that (during the night conversation) when Hadhrat Umar asked Hadhrat Alqama what he had to say, Hadhrat Alqama replied, "All I can advocate is that we listen and obey. Hadhrat Umar later said (to Hadhrat Alqama) that if everyone else shared his attitude, it would be more precious to him (Hadhrat Umar) than all the wealth in the world. (2)

An Incident of a Leper Concerning Respect for the Ameer

Hadhrat Ibn Abi Mulaykah says that Hadhrat Umar once passed by a lady suffering from leprosy as she was busy performing Tawaaf. He said to her, "O servant of Allaah! Do not cause difficulty to the people (because they are afraid to perform Tawaaf with you here). It would be best for you to remain at home." She then remained at home (and stopped going to the Masjidul Haraam). It later occurred that a man passing by her said to her, "The person who had prevented you has passed away. You may now come out." She responded by saying, "It is not befitting of me to obey him while he was alive and then disobey him after his death." (3)

The Consequences of Disobeying the Ameer

Hadhrat Shamar narrates from a man who had been the chief of an area during the Khilafah of Hadhrat Ali that Hadhrat Ali once issued an order to them and then asked, "Will you do as you have been ordered?" When the said that they would not, Hadhrat Ali said, "I swear by Allaah that you must do as you have been commanded otherwise the Jews and the Christians will definitely mount you necks." (4)

Co-operation between Leaders

The Incident Between Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas, Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah and Hadhrat Umar

Hadhrat Urwa bin Zubayr narrates that Rasulullaah once sent

(1) From Sayf bin Amr, also narrating from Hadhrat Hasan.
(2) Ya'qoob bin Sufyaan and Zubayr bin Bakkaar, as quoted in Isaaba (Vol.2 Pg.504).
(3) Maalik, as quoted in Kanzul Ummal (Vol.5 Pg.192).
(4) Ibn Abi Shaybah, as quoted in Kanzul Ummal (Vol.3 Pg.167).
Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas \(\text{\textcircled{}}\) (as Ameer) on a military expedition to the rural towns of Shaam, where the Battle of Dhaatus Salaasil was fought. The towns were those of the Banu Bally tribe, the Banu Abdullaah tribe and the Banu Qudaa'ah tribe next to them. It was from the Banu Bally tribe that the maternal uncles of Aas bin Waa'il hailed (Aas bin Waa'il was the father of Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas \(\text{\textcircled{}}\)). When Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas \(\text{\textcircled{}}\) arrived at the place, he was apprehensive of the large numbers of the enemy and sent a message to Rasulullaah \(\text{\textcircled{}}\) asking for reinforcements.

Rasulullaah \(\text{\textcircled{}}\) prepared the early Muhaajireen for the task and amongst the most senior Muhaajireen who got ready for the task were Hadhrat Abu Bakr \(\text{\textcircled{}}\) and Hadhrat Umar \(\text{\textcircled{}}\). Rasulullaah \(\text{\textcircled{}}\) appointed Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah \(\text{\textcircled{}}\) as their Ameer and when they met Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas \(\text{\textcircled{}}\), he said to them, "I am your Ameer now for I had sent the message to Rasulullaah \(\text{\textcircled{}}\) asking for you to come here as reinforcements. However, the group of Muhaajireen said, "You may be the Ameer of your army, but our Ameer is Abu Ubaydah \(\text{\textcircled{}}\)." Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas \(\text{\textcircled{}}\) reiterated what he said by saying, "You are only the reinforcements that I had requested."

Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah \(\text{\textcircled{}}\) was a man of excellent character and very soft-hearted. When he saw what was happening, he said, "You ought to know O Amr that the parting instruction Rasulullaah \(\text{\textcircled{}}\) gave to me was, 'When you reach your companion, co-operate with him.' I shall therefore obey you even if you wish to disobey me." With this, Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah \(\text{\textcircled{}}\) handed over the command to Hadhrat Amr \(\text{\textcircled{}}\). (1)

Another narration from Zuhri states that Rasulullaah \(\text{\textcircled{}}\) dispatched two expeditions against the Banu Kalb tribe, the Ghassaan tribe and other Kuffaar tribes located in the rural towns of Shaam. Rasulullaah \(\text{\textcircled{}}\) appointed Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah \(\text{\textcircled{}}\) as Ameer of one expedition and Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas \(\text{\textcircled{}}\) as Ameer of the other. Marching in the army of Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah \(\text{\textcircled{}}\) was Hadhrat Abu Bakr \(\text{\textcircled{}}\) and Hadhrat Umar \(\text{\textcircled{}}\). When the two armies were about to leave, Rasulullaah \(\text{\textcircled{}}\) called for Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah \(\text{\textcircled{}}\) and Hadhrat Amr \(\text{\textcircled{}}\) and said to them, "Never oppose each other."

When the two armies had left (Madinah), Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah \(\text{\textcircled{}}\) took Hadhrat Amr \(\text{\textcircled{}}\) aside and said to him, "Rasulullaah \(\text{\textcircled{}}\) had emphatically advised us never to oppose each other. It is either you who will obey me or I that will obey you." Hadhrat Amr \(\text{\textcircled{}}\) replied, "I'd rather that you obey me." Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah \(\text{\textcircled{}}\) then accepted to be under the command of Hadhrat Amr \(\text{\textcircled{}}\), who became the commander of both armies.

Hadhrat Umar \(\text{\textcircled{}}\) became angry at this arrangement and said (to Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah \(\text{\textcircled{}}\)), "You have chosen to be under the command of Naabigha's son and have made him your Ameer, the Ameer of Abu Bakr \(\text{\textcircled{}}\) and our Ameer?! What sort of idea is this?" Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah \(\text{\textcircled{}}\) pacified Hadhrat Umar \(\text{\textcircled{}}\) by saying, "Dear brother! Rasulullaah \(\text{\textcircled{}}\) emphatically advised me and Amr never to oppose each other. I therefore feared that if I do not obey him, I would be disobeying Rasulullaah ﷺ. In this way, more people would be the cause of spoiling my relationship with Rasulullaah ﷺ. I swear by Allaah that I shall now obey him until we return." When they returned from the expedition, Hadhrat Umar ﷺ complained about this to Rasulullaah ﷺ. Rasulullaah ﷺ said, "After this, I shall appoint only someone from yourselves (senior Muhaajireen) as your Ameer." (1)

(1) Bayhaqi, as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg.273), as quoted in Kanzul Umaa\(\text{\textcircled{}}\)l (Vol.5 Pg.310), Ibn Asaakir has also reported the narration but instead of the saying "the rural towns of Shaam" he mentions "the east of Shaam".

The Rights that Subjects Owe to their Ameer

The Statement of Hadhrat Umar ﷺ in this Regard
Hadhrah Salama bin Shihaab Abdi reports that Hadhrat Umar ﷺ once said, "O citizens! We (leaders) have a right that you owe to us. It is that you always wish well for us even in our absence and that you assist us in all good works. Take note that there is nothing more beloved to Allaah and which has a more widespread benefit than the tolerance and compassion of an Ameer towards his subjects. On the contrary, there is nothing more detested by Allaah than the foolishness of an Ameer and his harshness." (2)

Another narration from Hadhrat Abdullah bin Akeem states that Hadhrat Umar ﷺ said, "There is no tolerance more loved by Allaah than the tolerance and compassion of an Ameer (towards his subjects). There is also no foolishness that is more detested by Allaah than the foolishness and harshness of an Ameer. Those who overlook things that happen to him will receive health and safety and those who exercise justice between people even when it concerns himself shall be granted success in his affairs. Suffering disgrace when being obedient is closer to goodness than winning honour through sin." (3)

Prohibition from Speaking ill of the Ameer

The Narration of Hadhrat Anas ﷺ in this Regard
Hadhrah Anas ﷺ narrates, "The senior companions of Rasulullaah ﷺ used to prevent us from certain misdeeds. They would say, 'Never speak ill of your leaders, never betray them and never disobey them. Fear Allaah and exercise patience because the event (Qiyaamah/death) is close by.'" (4)

Refraining from Speaking the Truth

Before Leaders

In this Regard, Hadhrat Abdullah bin Umar ﷺ Tells Hadhrat Urwa ﷺ that they used to consider this as an act of Hypocrisy

Hadhrah Urwa ﷺ narrates that he once approached Hadhrat Abdullah bin

Omar bin Khattaab (ra) and said, "O Abu Abdur Rahmaan! Sometimes we sit with these leaders of ours and we confirm what they say even though we know that it is not true. Even when they make unjust decisions, we still support them and make it seem credible to them. What do you think about this?" Hadhrat Abdullah bin Omar (ra) said, "Dear nephew! During the time we were with Rasulullah (saw) we regarded this to be an act of hypocrisy but I do not know what you regard it to be." (1)

Another narration from the father of Hadhrat Aasim bin Muhammad states that someone once said to Hadhrat Abdullah bin Omar (ra), "When we are with our leaders, we say things that are quite the opposite of what we say when we leave them." Hadhrat Abdullah bin Omar (ra) commented, "We used to regard this as an act of hypocrisy." (2) Bukhari has reported a similar narration from Hadhrat Muhammad bin Zaid but adds that Hadhrat Abdullah bin Omar (ra) said, "During the time of Rasulullah (saw), we regarded this to be an act of hypocrisy."

Hadhrat Mujaahid reports that when a man came to Hadhrat Abdullah bin Omar (ra), the latter asked him, "How is the relationship between you people and Abu Unays (the Ameer)?" The man replied, "Our relationship is that when we meet with him, we tell him what he likes to hear and sing a different tune when we go away from him." Hadhrat Abdullah bin Omar (ra) commented, "When we were with Rasulullah (saw), this is the thing we regarded as hypocrisy." (3)

Hadhrat Sha'bi reports that they once said to Hadhrat Abdullah bin Omar (ra), "When we enter the courts of these people (our leaders), we say the things they like to hear but then say the opposite when we leave their presence." Hadhrat Abdullah bin Omar (ra) said, "During the time of Rasulullah (saw), we used to regard this as an act of hypocrisy." (4)

The Narration of Hadhrat Alqama bin Waqqaas Concerning the Prohibition of Laughing and Jesting in the Presence of the Ameer

Hadhrat Alqama bin Waqqaas narrates that there was a useless man who used to enter the courts of the governors and make them laugh. Hadhrat Alqama's grandfather said to the man, "Shame on you! Why do you enter the courts of these people and make them laugh?! I have heard from Bilaal bin Haarith (ra) who was a companion of Rasulullah (saw) that Rasulullah (saw) said, 'A servant (of Allaah) may utter a word that pleases Allaah without him realising its true potential and because of it, Allaah becomes pleased with him until the day he meets Allaah. On the contrary, a servant (of Allaah) may utter a word that displeases Allaah without him realising its true potential and because of it, Allaah becomes displeased with him until the day he meets Allaah.' (5)

(2) Bayhaqi (Vol.8 Pg.164), as quoted in Targheeb wal Tarheeib (Vol.4 Pg.382).

Muzani ـ said to him, "I see that you enter the courts of these governors and overwhelm them. Do check what you are saying to them because I have heard Rasulullah ـ say, "A servant (of Allah) may utter a word..." The rest of the narration is like the one mentioned above.

The Statement of Hadhrat Hudhayfa ـ that the Doors of the Rulers are Dens of Evil

Hadhrat Hudhayfa ـ once said, "Beware of the dens of evil!" "What are the dens of evil, O Abu Abdullaah?" someone enquired from him. He replied, "The doors of the rulers. A person enters the court of a ruler and then confirms the lies he speaks and praises him for qualities he does not possess." (1)

The Advice Hadhrat Abbaas ـ gave his Son in this Regard

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas ـ narrates that his father (Hadhrat Abbaas ـ) once said to him, "Dear son! I notice that the Ameerul Mu'mineen calls for you, allows you to be close to him and even consults with you together with the Sahabah ـ of Rasulullah ـ. Now remember these three things that I am telling you. Fear Allah and never let him encounter any lies from you (never tell him a lie). You should also never disclose any of his secrets and never backbite about anyone in his presence." One of the narrators by the name of Aamir says that he said to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas ـ, "Each one of these advices are better than a thousand." Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas ـ in turn said, "Each one of them is better than ten thousand." (2)

Hadhrat Sha'bi reports that Hadhrat Abbaas ـ once said to his son Hadhrat Abdullaah ـ, "I notice that that great man (referring to Hadhrat Umar ـ) allows you to sit close to him and includes you amongst people with whom you do not belong (the veterans of Badr). You should therefore remember three things that I shall tell you. Never let him encounter any lies from you, (never tell him a lie), never disclose any of his secrets and never backbite about anyone in his presence." (3)

Speaking the Truth to the Ameer and Rejecting his Command if it Conflicts with the Commands of Allah

The Incident between Hadhrat Ubay ـ and Hadhrat Umar ـ and his Statement that there is no Good in an Ameer in whose Presence The Truth Cannot be Spoken

Hadhrat Hasan ـ narrates that Hadhrat Umar ـ once refused to accept a verse of the Qur'aan from Hadhrat Ubay (saying that it is either not in the Qur'aan or not as Hadhrat Ubay said it appeared). Hadhrat Umar then said, "I had heard it from Rasulullaah at a time when you were preoccupied with trade in Baqee." Hadhrat Umar then said, "You have spoken the truth. (I knew that the verse is in the Qur'aan but I refused to accept it because) I only wanted to test whether there are people amongst you who would speak the truth (before the Ameer). There is no good in an Ameer in whose presence the truth cannot be spoken and who does not speak the truth." (1)

Hadhrat Abu Mijlaz reports that Hadhrat Umar accused Hadhrat Ubay of lying when he recited the verse:

Hadhrat Umar retorted by saying, "Your lie is worse!" Someone reprimanded Hadhrat Ubay by saying, "Are you calling the Ameerul Mu'mineen a liar?" Hadhrat Umar replied, "I have more respect for the rights of the Ameerul Mu'mineen than you have. However, I have falsified him only to confirm the truth of Allaah's Book and I can never confirm what the Ameerul Mu'mineen says when it entails falsifying the Book of Allaah." Hadhrat Umar then said, "He has spoken the truth." (2)

Hadhrat Basheer bin Sa'd Says to Hadhrat Umar: "If you do that, we will Set you Straight as an Arrow is Straightened"

Hadhrat Nu'maan bin Basheer reports that in a gathering of Muhaajireen and Ansaar, Hadhrat Umar once asked, "What will you people do if I were permissive in certain matters?" When everyone remained silent, Hadhrat Umar then asked the question for a second and then a third time. Hadhrat Basheer bin Sa'd then responded by saying, "If you do that, we will set you straight as an arrow is straightened." Hadhrat Umar commented, "You are then certainly the ones (capable of being with me)! You are then certainly the ones!" (3)

The Incident of Hadhrat Umar and Hadhrat Muhammad bin Maslama in this Regard

Hadhrat Moosa bin Abu Isa narrates that when Hadhrat Umar bin Khattaab went to the pond of the Banu Haaritha, he met Hadhrat Muhammad bin Maslama there. Hadhrat Umar asked him, "What do you think of me?" Hadhrat Muhammad bin Maslama replied, "I swear by Allaah that in my opinion you are as I like to see you and as anyone who likes good likes to see you. I see that you are meticulous in collecting wealth, are also abstinent from it

Hadhrat Abu Qabeel narrates that Hadhrat Mu'aaawiya \(\text{\textsuperscript{}}\text{\textregistered} \) once ascended the pulpit on the day of Jumu'ah and said in his lecture, "The wealth is all ours and the spoils of war are all ours. We shall give it to whom we will and refuse whoever we will." Since no one responded to this statement, Hadhrat Mu'aaawiya \(\text{\textsuperscript{}}\text{\textregistered} \) repeated it the following Jumu'ah. When no one objected this time as well, he again repeated it on the third Jumu'ah. On that occasion, a man in the Masjid stood up and said, "Never! The wealth is ours and the spoils of war are ours. If anyone poses an obstacle between us and it, we shall have him dealt with by Allaah or by our swords."

After Hadhrat Mu'aaawiya \(\text{\textsuperscript{}}\text{\textregistered} \) descended from the pulpit, he sent for the man, who was allowed in his court. "He is destroyed!" the people commented. However, when the people entered the court of Hadhrat Mu'aaawiya \(\text{\textsuperscript{}}\text{\textregistered} \), they found the man sitting with Hadhrat Mu'aaawiya \(\text{\textsuperscript{}}\text{\textregistered} \) on his bed. Hadhrat Mu'aaawiya \(\text{\textsuperscript{}}\text{\textregistered} \) then said to the people, "This man has given me life, may Allaah give him life. I have heard Rasulullaah \(\text{\textsuperscript{}}\text{\textregistered} \) say, 'Soon after me there shall come rulers who will say (wrong) things and no one would object to them. They will fall over each other in Jahannam just as monkeys (jumping from a tree) fall over each other.' When no one objected to what I said on the first Jumu'ah, I feared that I would be amongst these rulers. When no one objected on the second Jumu'ah, I said to myself that I must be from amongst them. However, when I spoke on the third Jumu'ah, this man objected. He has given me life, may Allaah give him life." (2)

Hadhrat Khaalid bin Hakeem bin Hizaam reports that when Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah \(\text{\textsuperscript{}}\text{\textregistered} \) was governor of Shaam, he punished some of the local (Kuffaar) persons (for not paying the Jizya\(^{(3)}\)). Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed \(\text{\textsuperscript{}}\text{\textregistered} \) stood up and spoke to him (about the error of his act). The people commented, 'You have made the Ameer angry.' Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed \(\text{\textsuperscript{}}\text{\textregistered} \) said, 'I had never intended to make him angry but I have heard Rasulullaah \(\text{\textsuperscript{}}\text{\textregistered} \) say that

The Narration of Hadhrat Hasan in this Regard
Hadhrat Hasan reports that when Ziyaad dispatched Hadhrat Hakam bin Amr Ghifaari as governor of Khurasan, the Muslims there managed to win a large amount of booty. Ziyaad then wrote to Hadhrat Hakam saying, "The Ameerul Mu'mineen (Hadhrat Mu'aawiya) has written to say that all the gold and silver should be reserved for him and should therefore not be distributed amongst the Muslims." Hadhrat Hakam wrote back to Ziyaad saying, "You have written to me about the letter of the Ameerul Mu'mineen. However, I have received the Book of Allaah before the letter of the Ameerul Mu'mineen (I shall therefore not obey his command which contradicts that of the Qur'aan). I swear by Allaah that even if the skies and earth have to close up on a person, Allaah will create an escape for him between them and give him peace if he is one who fears Allaah."

Hadhrat Hakam then had an announcer announce to the people that they should present themselves for the booty by the morning. He then distributed the booty (including the gold and silver) amongst the people. When he did this, Hadhrat Mu'aawiya sent some people to arrest Hadhrat Hakam and place him in shackles. Hadhrat Hakam passed away in these shackles and was buried in Khurasan. He said, "I shall contest (my case against Mu'aawiya in the court of Allaah)." (2)

Another narration adds that after Hadhrat Hakam had distributed the booty amongst the people, he prayed, "O Allaah! If You have any good for me with You, then raise me to You." He then passed away in the town of Maroo in Khurasan. (3) Isaaba (Vol.1 Pg.347) states that it was actually when Hadhrat Hakam received the letter of Ziyaad noting his displeasure, he prayed to Allaah (for a swift death), after which he passed away.

The Way that Hadhrat Imraan bin Husayn Dealt with the Zakaah Monies
Hadhrat Ataa reports that Ziyaad or his son once sent Hadhrat Imraan bin Husayn to collect Zakaah. When Hadhrat Imraan returned, he brought nothing back. "Where is the money?" asked Ziyaad (or his son). "Did you send me to bring back any money?" Hadhrat Imraan asked, "I collected it as we used to do during the time of Rasulullaah and used it in the avenues we used it during the time of Rasulullaah (I distributed it amongst the needy of the area)." The Rights that the Ameer Owes to his Subjects

Hadhrat Umar нская Enquires from Delegations about the Qualities of Their Governors

Hadhrat Aswad bin Yazeed narrates that whenever a delegation came to Hadhrat Umar нская, he would ask them about their governor. He would ask, "Does he visit the ill? Does he respond to the pleas of slaves? How does he treat those who stand at his door (to have a need fulfilled)?" If the delegates had to give a negative answer to any of the questions, Hadhrat Umar нская would dismiss the governor. (1)

Hadhrat Ibraheem reports that when Hadhrat Umar нская appointed a governor to an area and a delegation had to come to him from the same area, he would ask them, "How is your governor? Does he visit the slaves? Does he follow funeral processions? How is his door (is he accessible)? Is it welcoming?" If the people replied that the governor's door was welcoming and that he visited the slaves, Hadhrat Umar ӈии would leave the man in his post. Otherwise, he would send a messenger to dismiss him. (2)

The Conditions Hadhrat Umar ӈии Made with his Governors

Hadhrat Aasim bin Abi Nujood states that whenever Hadhrat Umar ӈии dispatched governors, he would make the conditions with them that they should never ride Turkish horses, should not eat refined white flour, should not wear fine clothing and should not lock their doors to those who were in need. He made it clear to them that if they were ever to do any of this, they would be liable for punishment. It was only after making these conditions that he saw them off (walked a distance with them). When he was about to return, he would further tell them, "I am not sending you to give you sovereignty over the blood of people, over their skins, over their honour and over their wealth. I am sending you to ensure that the people establish salaah, to distribute the spoils of war amongst them and to judge between them with justice. If you encounter any difficulties, do refer it to me. Beware that you never hit an Arab for this would humiliate them. Never prevent them from returning to their homelands because this would place them in great difficulty and never level false accusations against them because you would then be depriving them (of their rights). Also ensure that you keep the (words of the) Qur'aan separate (from the Ahadeeth and from commentaries so that these are nor confused as part of the Qur'aan)." (3)

Another similar narration states that Hadhrat Umar ӈии said, "Keep the Qur'aan separate and report fewer narrations from Rasulullah нская. I shall also join you in doing this." Hadhrat Umar ӈии would also enforce the necessary punishment on his governors (when they deserved it) and whenever a complaint was brought to him about any governor, he would gather the complainant and the governor in one place. Thereafter, if the complaint was proven to be valid and the governor needed to be taken to task, Hadhrat Umar would take him to task. (1)

Hadhrat Abu Khuzayma bin Thaabit reports that whenever Hadhrat Umar appointed someone as governor, he would make a group of the Ansar and some others witness (to the appointment) and say (to the new governor), "I am not sending you to give you sovereignty over the blood of people..." The rest of the narration is similar to the one quoted earlier. (2)

The Statement of Hadhrat Umar Concerning the Duties of an Ameer

Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Saabit reports that Hadhrat Umar once sent for Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Aamir Jumhi and said to him, "We wish to appoint you in command of this regiment whom you should lead into enemy territory to wage war with them." Hadhrat Sa'eed said, "O Umar! Please do not try me." Hadhrat Umar resolved "I shall never leave you. You people have cast this responsibility (of Khilafah) on my neck and now you wish to leave me all alone! I am sending you with a group of people from whom you are not the best. I am not sending you to whip them or to humiliate them but only to lead them in Jihad against their enemies and to distribute their booty amongst them." (3)

Hadrat Tameem Jayshani reports that Hadrat Umar wrote the following letter to Hadrat Amr bin Al Aas:

"The news has reached me that you have had a pulpit made by which you climb high above the people's necks (when delivering a sermon). Is it not sufficient for you to remain standing with the Muslims beneath your heels. I command you in the name of Allaah that you should demolish it." (2)

The Letter of Hadrat Umar to Hadrat Utba bin Farqad about not Raising his Standards above that of the Public

Hadrat Abu Uthmaan reports that Hadrat Umar wrote a letter to them when they were in Azerbaijan. He wrote:

"O Utba bin Farqad! Your position and wealth has not been the fruits of your efforts, nor the fruits of your father's or mother's efforts. Feed the people in their homes with that which you feed yourself in your home. Guard yourself against indulging in luxuries, from imitating the appearance of the Mushrikeen and from wearing silk clothing." (3)

Hadrat Umar Takes the Ameer of Hims to Task for Constructing a Lofty Residence

Hadrat Urwa bin Ruwaym narrates that Hadrat Umar was inquiring about the condition of the people (during the Hajj) when some people from Hims passed by him. "How is your Ameer?" asked Hadrat Umar. They replied, "He is the best of Ameers except for the fact that he had built a lofty residence in which he lives.

Hadrat Umar then wrote a letter, which he sent with a messenger with instructions to burn the building down. When the messenger reached Hims, he gathered firewood and set fire to the door. When the Ameer was informed about it, he said, "Leave him alone because he has been sent (by the Ameerul Mu'mineen)." The messenger then handed the letter over to the Ameer. (After reading the letter) The Ameer did not even put the letter down when he rode off to Hadrat Umar. When Hadrat Umar saw him arrive, he told the Ameer to meet him at Harra where the Zakaah camels were kept.

(When he met him there) Hadrat Umar asked him to remove his clothes and then gave him a garment of camel hide to wear. Hadrat Umar then instructed him to fetch water from the well to give the camels to drink. The man continued going in and out of the well until he was exhausted. Hadhrat Umar then asked him, "How much longer will you be in this world?" "For only a short while," came the reply. Hadhrat Umar commented, "Then is it for this short while that you have built the mansion and adopted a standard of living that exceeds those of the poor, the widows and orphans? Go back to your post and never repeat yourself." (1)

Hadrat Umar Takes Hadhrat Sa'd to task for Building a Mansion

Hadrat Attaab bin Rifaa'ah narrates that Hadrat Umar once received the news that Hadrat Sa'd had built a mansion and had a door put on it, saying that the noise from the marketplace has now been cut off (form entering the mansion). Hadrat Umar then dispatched Hadrat Muhammad bin Maslama, whom he always sent when he needed a task done exactly as he wanted. The instructions he gave Hadrat Muhammad bin Maslama was to bring Hadrat Sa'd to him and to burn down the door.

(When Hadrat Muhammad bin Maslama arrived in Kufa) Someone came to Hadrat Sa'd and informed him (about the arrival) and when the features (of Hadrat Muhammad bin Maslama) were described to Hadrat Sa'd, he recognised him. Hadrat Sa'd then went to meet Hadrat Muhammad bin Maslama, who said to him, "The news has reached the Ameerul Mu'mineen that you commented about the noise being cut off." When Hadrat Sa'd swore that he never made such a statement, Hadrat Muhammad bin Maslama said, "we shall do as we have been commanded while you will have to convey what you said (to the Ameerul Mu'mineen)."

When Hadrat Sa'd offered to provide Hadrat Muhammad bin Maslama with provisions for the journey, he refused to take any and rode off until he reached Madinah. When Hadrat Umar saw him, he said, "If I did not have a good opinion of you, I would have thought that you did not fulfill the task." Hadrat Muhammad bin Maslama informed Hadrat Umar that he had hurried back and assured Hadrat Umar, "I have fulfilled the task. However, Sa'd excuses himself and swears that he had never made the statement."

Hadrat Umar asked, "Did he give you any provisions for the journey?" Hadrat Muhammad bin Maslama replied, "No, but what prevented you from giving me provisions?" Hadrat Umar said, "I disliked giving you any provisions because although you would have had ease, I would have had to suffer for it (in the Aakhirah) since hunger is killing the people around me in Madinah. Have you not heard Rasulullah say that a Mu'min should not fill his belly while his neighbour goes hungry?" (2)

Another narration from Hadhrat Abu Bakrah and Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah states that the news that reached Hadhrat Umar stated that Hadhrat Sa'd kept aloof from the people and locked them out of his house. Hadhrat Umar then dispatched Hadhrat Ammaar bin Yaasir with instructions to go to Hadhrat Sa'd and if he found the door locked, he was to burn it down.\(^1\)

The Incident Between Hadhrat Umar and a group of Sahabah in Shaam

Hadhrat Abu Dardaa once sought permission from Hadhrat Umar to go to Shaam. Hadhrat Umar told him that he would be allowed to go there only on condition that he became a governor of one of the areas. When Hadhrat Abu Dardaa refused to be a governor, Hadhrat Umar refused to grant the permission. Hadhrat Abu Dardaa then said, "I shall go there to teach people the Sunnah of their Nabi and lead them in salaah." Hadhrat Umar then granted him permission.

Hadhrat Umar later visited Shaam and when he drew close to where the Sahabah were staying, he stopped until evening fell. When the night cast its veil over him, he called to his slave saying, "O Yarfa! Let us go to Yazeed bin Abi Sufyaan. You will see that he has story-tellers with him, lanterns will be burning and rugs of silk\(^2\) and velvet will be spread out, which have been taken from the booty belonging to the Muslims. You will greet him and he will reply, after which you will ask permission to enter and he will not grant permission until he enquires who you are."

The two men proceeded until they reached the door of Hadhrat Yazeed bin Abi Sufyaan. Hadhrat Umar greeted by saying, "As Salaamu Alaikum!" to which Hadhrat Yazeed replied, "Wa Alaikumus Salaam." When Hadhrat Umar asked whether he could enter, Hadhrat Yazeed first asked, "Who are you?" To this Yarfa replied, "This is the one who is about to spoil your fun. This is the Ameerul Mu'mineen." Hadhrat Umar then opened the door and found story-tellers there, lanterns burning and rugs of silk and velvet. Hadhrat Umar urgently instructed Yarfa to shut the door and struck Hadhrat Yazeed with his whip right between the ears. Hadhrat Umar then folded up all the goods and placed it at the centre of the room. He then issued the command that no one should move until he returned.

Hadhrat Umar and Yarfa then left Hadhrat Yazeed. Hadhrat Umar entire narration is reported in Isaaba (Vol.3 Pg.384) except that the narrator's name appears as Aabaya bin Rifaa'ah instead of Attaab bin Rifaa'ah. Haythami (Vol.8 Pg.167) has commented on the chain of narrators.

\(^2\) These rugs may not have been pure silk, but a mixture of silk and more of another fabric. There were also some Sahabah who were of the opinion that although wearing clothing of silk is Haram, there was nothing wrong with sitting on silk rugs. It is also possible that the rugs were being used by the governors of the Byzantine Empire who were the former rulers of the region and the Sahabah were only temporarily using the quarters of these rulers until they could consolidate their own quarters.
said, "O Yarfa! Come with me to Amr bin Al Aas. You will see that he has story-tellers with him, lanterns will be burning and rugs of velvet will be spread out, which have been taken from the booty belonging to the Muslims. You will greet him and he will reply, after which you will ask permission to enter and he will not grant permission until he inquires who you are."

The two men proceeded until they reached the door of Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas. Hadhrat Umar greeted by saying, "As Salaamu Alaykum!" to which Hadhrat Amr replied, "Wa Alaykumus Salaam." When Hadhrat Umar asked whether he could enter, Hadhrat Amr first asked, "Who are you?" To this Yarfa replied, "This is the one who is about to spoil your fun. This is the Ameerul Mu'mineen." Hadhrat Umar then opened the door and found story-tellers there, lanterns burning and rugs of velvet. Hadhrat Umar urgently instructed Yarfa to shut the door and struck Hadhrat Amr with his whip right between the ears. Hadhrat Umar then folded up all the goods and placed it at the centre of the room. He then issued the command that no one should move until he returned.

After leaving Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas, Hadhrat Umar said, "O Yarfa! Let us go to Abu Moosa Ash'ari. You will see that he has story-tellers with him, lanterns will be burning and rugs of wool will be spread out, which have been taken from the booty belonging to the Muslims. You will greet him and he will reply, after which you will ask permission to enter and he will not grant permission until he enquires who you are."

The two men proceeded until they reached the door of Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari. Hadhrat Umar greeted by saying, "As Salaamu Alaykum!" to which Hadhrat Abu Moosa replied, "Wa Alaykumus Salaam." When Hadhrat Umar asked whether he could enter, Hadhrat Abu Moosa first asked, "Who are you?" To this Yarfa replied, "This is the one who is about to spoil your fun. This is the Ameerul Mu'mineen." Hadhrat Umar then opened the door and found story-tellers there, lanterns burning and rugs of wool spread out. Hadhrat Umar struck Hadhrat Abu Moosa with his whip right between the ears and then said, "You too, O Abu Moosa (have you also changed since leaving Madinah)?" Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari said, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! This is what I have (which is less than the others) You have already seen what my companions are doing whereas I had also received what they have received (but have not gone to the extent they have)." Hadhrat Umar asked, "Then what is all this about?" Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari replied, "The people of the city believe that this is the only way by which to rule." Hadhrat Umar then folded up all the goods and placed it at the centre of the room. He then issued the command that no one should move until he returned.

When the two had left Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari, Hadhrat Umar said, "O Yarfa! Come with me to my brother (Hadhrat Abu Dardaa). You will see that he has no story-tellers with him, no lanterns will be burning and his door will be unlocked. You will greet him and he will reply, after which you will ask permission to enter and he will grant you permission without enquiring who you are."

The two men proceeded until they reached the door of Hadhrat Abu Dardaa. Hadhrat Umar greeted by saying, "As Salaamu Alaykum!" to which Hadhrat Abu Dardaa replied, "Wa Alaykumus Salaam." When Hadhrat Umar asked whether he could enter, Hadhrat Abu Dardaa granted permission. As Hadhrat Umar pushed open the door, he found that it had no lock. The two men entered the dark room and Hadhrat Umar had to feel his way around until he found Hadhrat Abu Dardaa. When Hadhrat Umar felt the pillow of Hadhrat Abu Dardaa, he found that it was made from the blanket used on animals. When he felt the ground, there was only sand and when he felt the clothing of Hadhrat Abu Dardaa, he discovered that it was a flimsy shawl.

Hadhrat Abu Dardaa asked, "Who is this? Is it the Ameerul Mu'mineen?" When Hadhrat Umar confirmed that he was the Ameerul Mu'mineen, Hadhrat Abu Dardaa said, "You are late. We had been waiting for you all year," Hadhrat Umar said, "May Allaah have mercy on you. Have I not granted you sufficient wealth? Have I not given you plenty?" Hadhrat Abu Dardaa said, "O Umar! Do you not remember a Hadith that Rasulullaah mentioned to us?" "Which Hadith?" asked Hadhrat Umar. Hadhrat Abu Dardaa replied, "(The Hadith in which Rasulullaah said,) 'The limit of a person's possessions in this world should be like the provisions of a traveller.'" "Oh yes (I have heard the Hadith)" confirmed Hadhrat Umar. Hadhrat Abu Dardaa then asked, "Now what have we done after Rasulullaah? O Umar?" The two Sahabah then continued reminding each other (of the words of Rasulullaah) with tears in their eyes until morning arrived. (1)

Enquiring about the Condition of the Citizens

The Incident of Hadhrat Abu Bakr and Hadhrat Umar in this Regard

Hadhrat Abu Saalih Ghifaari narrates that there was an extremely old blind lady living on the outskirts of Madinah whom Hadhrat Umar used to regularly visit at night. He would go there to fetch water for her (from the well) and do other chores for her. However, whenever he got to her, he would find that someone else had beat him there and had already seen to her needs. He went to her many times only to find that he was not the first to get there. (One day) He sat in wait for the person (who always beat him) and found that the person was Hadhrat Abu Bakr. Hadhrat Abu Bakr would tend to the old lady even though he was the Khalifah. Hadhrat Umar exclaimed, "By my life! It could only be you!" (2)

Hadhrat Awzaa'ee reports that Hadhrat Talha ﷺ once spotted Hadhrat Umar ﷺ coming out (of his house) late at night. Hadhrat Umar ﷺ entered a house and then another house. The following morning, Hadhrat Talha ﷺ went to the house, where he found an old woman who was blind and crippled. Hadhrat Talha ﷺ asked her, "Why does that man come to you?" She then informed Hadhrat Talha ﷺ that Hadhrat Umar ﷺ had been frequently coming to her for many years to see to her needs and remove all the filth from her house. Hadhrat Talha ﷺ then said to himself, "Shame on you, O Talha! Were you searching for faults in Umar?!" (1)

Passing Judgement by what is Apparent

The Statement of Hadhrat Umar ﷺ in this Regard

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Utba bin Mas'ood says that he heard Hadhrat Umar ﷺ say, "People would be taken to task by means of revelation during the time of Rasulullaah ﷺ (when Allaah would send revelation to disclose the secrets of some people). However, revelation has been terminated and now we are able to take you people to task by your apparent actions. Therefore, we will trust and bring close to us only those people whose apparent actions appear good to us because we have no knowledge of his inner self. Allaah is the One Who will take him to task for his inner condition. On the other hand, we cannot trust and cannot believe those whose apparent actions appear evil to us even though he may claim that his inner condition is good." (2)

Hadhrat Hasan states that in the first lecture that Hadhrat Umar ﷺ delivered (after becoming the Khalifah), he first praised Allaah and then said:

"(Now that I have become Khalifah) I am being tested through you people and you will be tested through me. I have been made the Khalifah after my two companions (Rasulullaah ﷺ and Hadhrat Abu Bakr ﷺ). We shall therefore deal directly with those in our presence and to deal with those who are not in our presence, we shall appoint over them people who are capable and trustworthy. We shall treat well those people who do good and punish those who do evil. May Allaah forgive you and I." (3)

Continuously dispatching Troops

The Statement of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Ka'b bin Maalik in this Regard

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Ka'b bin Maalik Ansaari said that a regiment of the Ansaar were posted to Persian territory with their Ameer. Although Hadhrat Umar would continuously dispatch troops every year (to relieve others), he happened to be preoccupied (with other tasks) and failed to relieve the particular regiment. When their term expired, the troops posted at that border (the regiment of Ansaar) returned. Hadhrat Umar became very angry and threatened action against them (because he had not yet sent anyone in their place). They all happened to be Sahabah of Rasulullaah and they said, "O Umar! You were too preoccupied to worry about us and failed to implement the command of Rasulullaah to continuously dispatch troops." (2)

The Consideration the Ameer ought to Give to the people when they are Faced with a Problem

The Incident between Hadhrat Umar and Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah During the Plague of Amwaas

Hadrat Abu Moosa narrates that as soon as the Ameerul Mu'mineen (Hadhrat Umar) heard about the plague that was affecting the people in Shaam, he wrote the following letter to Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah: "I require you to fulfil a need I have and I cannot do so without you having it fulfilled. If this letter of mine reaches you at night, I emphatically command you not to let the morning arrive without you riding off to me (in Madinah). If this letter of mine reaches you in the morning, I emphatically command you not to let the evening arrive without you riding off to me."

(After reading the letter) Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah remarked, "I know well what need has presented itself to the Ameerul Mu'mineen. He wishes to preserve someone who cannot remain living (he wants me to escape the plague by returning to Madinah)." Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah then wrote back to Hadhrat Umar saying:

"I am part of a Muslim army. I am not prepared to leave them to save my own life. I am well aware of the need that has presented itself to you. You wish to preserve someone who cannot remain living. When this letter of mine reaches you, do absolve me of your command and permit me to remain here."

When Hadhrat Umar read this letter, his eyes welled with tears and he began to weep. The people with him asked, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! Has Abu Ubaydah passed away?" "No," replied, Hadhrat Umar, "but it is as if he already has." Hadhrat Umar then wrote back to Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah, saying:

"Indeed the entire land of Jordan has been affected by the epidemic whereas the region of Jaabiya is free from it. You should therefore take the Muhaajireen there."

When Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah had read the letter, he said, "We shall certainly listen to and obey this command of the Ameerul Mu'mineen." Hadhrat Abu Moosa reports further, "Abu Ubaydah then ordered me to mount my animal and to keep the people in their living quarters. In the meantime, my wife also got affected by the plague. When I reported this to Abu Ubaydah, he personally proceeded to confine the people to their quarters, after which he was also afflicted and passed away. The plague then came to an end."

Hadhrat Abul Muwajjih says, "It is believed that Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah was part of an army of thirty six thousand people. Every one of them save six thousand died." (1)

Another narration states that (when he read the letter from Hadhrat Umar) Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah said, "May Allaah forgive the Ameerul Mu'mineen. He wishes to preserve the lives of people who cannot remain living (forever)." Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah then wrote back to Hadhrat Umar saying, "Verily, I am with an army from amongst the armies of the Muslims whom I am not prepared to leave to save my own life from that which had afflicted them." (2)

Yet another narration states that Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah wrote to Hadhrat Umar saying:

"O Ameerul Mu'mineen! I knew well your need from me. However, I am part of a Muslim army that I do not wish to leave to save my own life. I have no desire to leave them until Allaah passes His decree concerning me and concerning them. O Ameerul Mu'mineen! Do release me from your command (to return to Madinah) and leave me with my army." (3)

The Lecture of Hadhrat Umar in this Regard

Hadhrat Buraydah narrates that he was sitting with Hadhrat Umar one day when he heard a scream. Hadhrat Umar instructed his slave Yarfa to see where the noise was coming from. After checking, Yarfa reported, "The mother of a girl from the Quraysh is being sold (as a slave, because of which the child is screaming)." Hadhrat Umar then instructed him to summon the Muhaajireen and the Ansaar. After a short while, the room and the entire house was filled. After praising Allaah, Hadhrat Umar then said: "Do you people know whether the severing of family ties was amongst the teachings that Rasulullaah brought?" When they replied in the negative, Hadhrat Umar continued, "Because it has started to spread rapidly amongst you." He then recited the following verse of the Qur'aan:

It is possible that if you are given authority (to rule over others), you would spread corruption on earth and (let alone harming others, you would even) sever family ties. {Surah Muhammad, verse 22}

Hadhrat Umar continued, "What form of severing family ties is worse than selling the mother of a girl from amongst you when Allaah has given you abundance?" The Sahabah said, "Do as you see fit." Hadhrat Umar then wrote to all the regions (of the Islamic Empire) instructing that the mother of no free woman should be sold (as a slave) because it entails severing family ties which is not permissible. A Hadith of Abu Uthmaan Nahdi in this Regard

Hadhrat Abu Uthmaan Nahdi reports that after Hadhrat Umar had appointed a man from the Banu Asad tribe as governor, the man came to him to collect the certificate of appointment. In the meantime, one of Hadhrat Umar's children was brought to him and he started kissing the child. The man from the Banu Asad tribe asked, "Do you kiss children, O Ameerul Mu'mineen? By Allaah! I have never kissed a child to this day." Hadhrat Umar then said, "In that case, I swear by Allaah that you will be even less compassionate towards people. Give the certificate of appointment back. You should never act as governor for me ever again." Hadhrat Umar then cancelled his appointment. [3]

A narration of Hadhrat Muhammad bin Sallaam states that Hadhrat Umar  said (to the man), "What crime is it of mine that mercy has been extracted from your heart? Allaah has mercy only on those servants of his who show mercy." Hadhrat Umar  then removed him from the post and said, "If you have no mercy for your own children, how will you have mercy on the masses?(1)

The Justice and Equity that Rasulullaah  and the Sahabah  Practised

The Incident of the Makhzoomiyyah Woman and the Lecture Rasulullaah  Gave

Hadhrat Urwa narrates that in the time of Rasulullaah  a woman stole during the conquest of Makkah. The members of her tribe (the Banu Makhzoom) hurried to Hadhrat Usaama bin Zaid to ask him to intercede (on her behalf before Rasulullaah ) so that her hand should not be cut off. When Hadhrat Usaama spoke about it to Rasulullaah , Rasulullaah 's face turned red (with anger) and he said, "Are you talking to me about (waiving) a penalty that Allaah has imposed?" Hadhrat Usaama cowered and said, "Seek Allaah's forgiveness for me, O Rasulullaah!" That evening, Rasulullaah stood up to deliver a lecture. After duly praising Allaah, he said: "The nations before you were destroyed because whenever a noble person amongst them stole, they let it be. However, when a weak person (from a family holding no status) stole, they imposed the penalty on him. I swear by the Being Who controls my life that even if Faatima , the daughter of Muhammad has to steal, I would cut off her hand."

Rasulullaah then issued the necessary instructions and the woman's hand was cut off. She then repented sincerely to Allaah and even got married. Hadhrat A'isha says, "Thereafter, she used to come to me and I would present her needs to Rasulullaah."

The Narration of Hadhrat Abu Qataadah in this Regard

Hadhrat Abu Qataadah reports, "After we had left with Rasulullaah for the Battle of Hunayn and met with the enemy, we suffered a temporary defeat. When I saw a man from the Mushrikeen overpowering one of the Muslims, I used my sword to strike his subclavian vein (on the shoulder) from behind. My blow cut through his armour and he turned to me. He then grabbed hold of me and started squeezing me so hard that I could get the smell of death. Fortunately, (because he had lost a lot of blood,) death overcame him and he let go of me. I then met Hadhrat Umar and asked, 'What has happened to the people (Why did the Muslims suddenly flee?) He replied, 'It was the command of Allah.' (However, the Muslims then regrouped and fought back to defeat the Mushrikeen). When the Muslims returned (from the battlefield,) Rasulullah sat down and said, 'Whoever killed someone and has a witness to testify shall have the possessions of the dead man.' I stood up and asked, 'Who will testify for me?' (When I received no response) I sat down again. When Rasulullah repeated the announcement, I again stood up and asked, 'Who will testify for me?' (When I again received no response) I sat down. Rasulullah repeated the announcement and again I stood up and asked, 'Who will testify for me?' (When I received no response this time) I sat down yet again. When Rasulullah again repeated the announcement, I stood up. Rasulullah asked, 'What is the matter, O Abu Qataadah?' After I had informed him of the incident, someone said, 'He had spoken the truth and the dead man's possessions are with me. O Rasulullah! Satisfy him on my behalf (give him something else so that I may keep the possessions).' Hadhrat Abu Bakr then said, 'Never! By Allah! In that case, whenever one of the lions of Allah fight for Allah and His Rasool, should he give you what is taken from the enemy?' Rasulullah confirmed what was said by saying, 'He is right. Hand over the possessions.' The man handed me the possessions and with it I bought an orchard in the Banu Salma district. This was the first time that I had received any wealth as a Muslim.

The Incident of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abu Hadrad with a Jew

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abu Hadrad Aslami narrates that he owed four Dirhams to a Jewish man, who then complained about him (to Rasulullah) saying, 'O Muhammad! That man owes me four Dirhams but he keeps overpowering me (refuses to pay whenever I ask him). Rasulullah said to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abu Hadrad, 'Pay this man his dues.' Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abu Hadrad replied, 'I swear by the Being Who has sent you with the truth that I cannot pay him.' 'Pay this man his dues,' Rasulullah repeated. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abu Hadrad pleaded, 'I swear by the Being Who controls my life that I am unable to pay him. I have already informed him that you would soon send us to Khaybar from where I hope to return with some spoils of war that you give us. I would then be able to pay him back with this.' However, Rasulullah again instructed, 'Pay the man his dues.' It was the habit of Rasulullah that he never repeated anything after the third time (saying something three times meant that it was final).

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abu Hadrad then proceeded to the marketplace. He was wearing a turban on his head and a shawl as his lower garment. He removed the turban from his head and used it as a lower garment. He then removed the shawl and said (to the Jew), 'Buy this shawl from me.' The Jew bought it from him for four Dirhams. An old woman then passed by and asked,
"What is the matter, O companion of Rasulullaah (ﷺ)?" when Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abu Hadrad related the incident to her, she took off a shawl she was wearing and threw it over him saying, "Take this shawl." (1)

The Incident of Two Men from the Ansaar in this Regard

Hadrhat Ummu Salama (رضي الله عنها) reports that two men from the Ansaar brought to Rasulullaah (ﷺ) their dispute concerning some inheritance for which they could produce no evidence nor any witnesses. Rasulullaah (ﷺ) said to them, "You are bringing your dispute to me when I can pass judgement only by my estimation in matters concerning which no revelation has come to me. Therefore, if I decide in the favour of someone because of his stronger case, thereby severing any right of his brother, he should not accept it. In that case, I would be apportioning for him a part of Jahannam. On the Day of Qiyaamah he will come with it as a yoke around his neck."

The two men started weeping and each one of them said, "O Rasulullaah (ﷺ), I hand over my right to him." Rasulullaah (ﷺ) said, "Since you want it that way, go and ponder about the right, divide it between yourselves and draw lots (to decide who should have which share). Each one of you should then permit his share for the other (so that none stands responsible for taking the right of the other)." (2)

An Incident of a Bedouin in this Regard

Hadrhat Abu Sa’eed (رضي الله عنه) reports that a Bedouin once came to Rasulullaah (ﷺ) to demand payment of a debt Rasulullaah (ﷺ) owed to him. He behaved very harshly with Rasulullaah (ﷺ) saying, "I shall continue plaguing you until you pay the debt!" The companions of Rasulullaah (ﷺ) admonished the man saying, "Shame on you! Do you know with whom you are talking?!" The man said, "I am only asking for my right." Rasulullaah (ﷺ) said to them, "Why are you not defending the one who has a right?"

Rasulullaah (ﷺ) then sent for Hadhrat Khowla bint Qais (رضي الله عنها) and asked her, "Borrow me some dates if you have any and I shall pay you back when I receive some dates." She said, "Most certainly! May my parents be sacrificed for you, O Rasulullaah (ﷺ)!" She then borrowed the dates to Rasulullaah (ﷺ), with which he paid the Bedouin off together with something extra. The man then said, "You have given me full payment, may Allaah give you in full." Rasulullaah (ﷺ) then said, "They are the best of people (who support those with a right). There is no good in a nation whose weak people cannot claim their right without hesitation." (3)

The Narration of Hadhrat Khowla bint Qais in this Regard

Hadhrat Khowla bint Qais, who was the wife of Hadhrat Hamza bin Abdul Muttalib, narrates, "Rasulullaah owed a wasaq(1) of dates to a man from the Banu Saa'idah tribe. When the man came to claim repayment, Rasulullaah instructed someone from the Ansaar to pay it. When the Ansaari paid the man in dates which were of an inferior quality, he refused to accept it. The Ansaari said, "Are you refusing Rasulullaah?" The man said, "Yes. Who is more worthy of exercising justice than Rasulullaah?" Rasulullaah's eyes welled with tears as he said, "He is right. Who is more worthy of exercising justice than me? May Allaah not bless a nation whose weak ones cannot claim their rights from their powerful ones and cannot demand them either." Rasulullaah then said, "O Khowla! Count and settle his debt because when a creditor is satisfied when he leaves his debtor, all creatures on earth and fish in the oceans pray for him (the debtor). However, when a debtor delays in paying when he has the means to pay, Allaah records a sin in his records for every day and night that passes (without him paying)." (2)

The Justice of Hadhrat Abu Bakr

The Narration of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr in this Regard

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr bin Al Aas reports that Hadhrat Abu Bakr stood up one Friday and announced, "Bring the zakaah camels tomorrow morning so that we may distribute them. Remember that none should come to see us without permission." A woman said to her husband, "Take this rein (to be given with the camels to the poor). Perhaps Allaah shall make it a means of providing a camel for us." The man arrived at a time when Hadhrat Abu Bakr and Hadhrat Umar were with the camels and entered (the enclosure) with them. Hadhrat Abu Bakr turned around and asked, "Who allowed you to come here?" Hadhrat Abu Bakr then took the rein from the man and hit him with it. After he had completed distributing the camels, Hadhrat Abu Bakr summoned the man and handing him the rein, said, "Take your revenge." Hadhrat Umar quickly intervened and said, "By Allaah! He should not take revenge from you. You should not make this a custom (that people should take revenge from an Ameer who needs to teach a lesson to people)." Hadhrat Abu Bakr said, "Then who will defend me in Allaah's court on the Day of Qiyaamah?" Hadhrat Umar replied, "Compensate him somehow." Hadhrat Abu Bakr then instructed his slave to give the man a riding camel together with its carriage and blanket. In addition to this, he also gave him five Dinaars (gold coins). In this manner, Hadhrat Abu Bakr secured the man's pardon.\(^{(1)}\)

The Justice of Hadhrat Umar Farooq

The Incident of Hadhrat Umar and Hadhrat Ubay bin Ka'b

Hadhrat Sha'bi reports that a dispute arose between Hadhrat Umar and Hadhrat Ubay bin Ka'b. Hadhrat Umar said, "Appoint someone to decide the matter between us." They then agreed to appoint Hadhrat Zaid bin Thaabit to settle the matter between them. When the two men came to Hadhrat Zaid, he made place at the head side of his bedding saying, "Sit here, O Ameerul Mu'mineen." Hadhrat Umar said, "That is the first wrong you have committed in your decision-making procedure. I shall rather sit with my contestant." The two men then sat in front of Hadhrat Zaid. Hadhrat Ubay made his claim and Hadhrat Umar refuted it. Hadhrat Zaid then said to Hadhrat Ubay, "Absolve the Ameerul Mu'mineen (from taking an oath, which is the next step of the procedure since no witnesses were presented). I would not have asked for this concession for anyone else besides the Ameerul Mu'mineen." However, Hadhrat Umar still took the oath and then said, "Zaid will be unable to judge unless he treats Umar as a man from the ranks of the common Muslims."\(^{(2)}\)

The narration of Ibn Asaakir states that Hadhrat Umar and Hadhrat Ubay bin Ka'b disputed about the harvesting of a date crop. With tears in his eyes, Hadhrat Ubay bin Ka'b said, "Is this how it will be under your rule, O Umar?" Hadhrat Umar said, "Then appoint someone to decide between us." When Hadhrat Ubay suggested the name of Hadhrat Zaid bin Thaabit, Hadhrat Umar accepted and the two of them went to him. The rest of the narration is like the one above.\(^{(3)}\)

The Dispute Between Hadhrat Umar and Hadhrat Abbaas Concerning the Expansion of the Masjidun Nabawi

Hadhrat Zaid bin Aslam reports that Hadhrat Abbaas had a house next to the Masjid of Madinah. Hadhrat Umar asked Hadhrat Abbaas to sell the house to him because he intended adding it to the Masjid. However, Hadhrat Abbaas refused to sell it. When Hadhrat Umar requested him to give it as a gift, Hadhrat Abbaas refused this as well. Hadhrat Umar said, "You have no option but to accept one of the two proposals." When Hadhrat Abbaas still refused, Hadhrat Umar told him to appoint someone to decide the matter between them. Hadhrat Abbaas appointed

Hadhrat Ubay and the two men took their case to him. (After hearing the case,) Hadhrat Ubay said to Hadhrat Umar, "I do not see any way in which you can remove him from his house without his consent." Hadhrat Umar asked, "Tell me whether you found this judgement in the Book of Allaah or in a Hadith of Rasulullaah ﷺ?" "It is in a Hadith of Rasulullaah ﷺ," replied Hadhrat Ubay. When Hadhrat Umar asked for substantiation, Hadhrat Ubay said, "I have heard Rasulullaah ﷺ say that while Hadhrat Sulaymaan bin Dawood was constructing Baytul Maqdas, he found the walls destroyed every morning after he had them built. Allaah then sent revelation telling him that he would be unable to build anything on the land of another person without the person's consent." Hadhrat Umar then left Hadhrat Abbaas and Hadhrat Abbaas himself included it in the Masjid at a later stage. (1)

A Narration of Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Musayyib in this Regard

Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Musayyib narrates that Hadhrat Umar once intended to take the house of Hadhrat Abbaas to include it in the Masjid. However, Hadhrat Abbaas refused to hand the house over. When Hadhrat Umar resolved that he would certainly have possession of the house, Hadhrat Abbaas proposed that they appoint Hadhrat Ubay bin Ka'b to pass judgement between them. Hadhrat Umar agreed and they both approached Hadhrat Ubay. After they had related the matter to him, Hadhrat Ubay said, "Allaah sent revelation to Hadhrat Sulaymaan instructing him to construct the Baytul Maqdas. The land belonged to a man whom Hadhrat Sulaymaan approached to buy it from him. However, when Hadhrat Sulaymaan handed over the money to the man, he asked, 'Is this price that you are paying better or is that which you are taking from me better?' Hadhrat Sulaymaan replied, 'Certainly that which I am taking from you is better.' 'In that case,' said the man, 'I shall not accept it.' Hadhrat Sulaymaan then gave the man a higher price. The man then did the same thing two or three times until Hadhrat Sulaymaan made a condition with him, 'I am buying this land from you at the price you fix. You may therefore not ask me which of the two is better.' Hadhrat Sulaymaan took the purchased land from him at the price he fixed, which happened to be twelve thousand Qintaar of gold (one Qintaar equals four thousand gold coins). Hadhrat Sulaymaan then felt that the amount was too big to give the man. Allaah then sent revelation to him saying, 'If you are paying him from something that is your own, then you know best (what you have to do). However, if you are paying him from what We have provided for you, then give him whatever he is pleased with.' Hadhrat Sulaymaan then paid the amount."

Hadhrat Ubay then said, "I feel that Abbaas has a greater right to his house, which cannot be taken from him until he is pleased." Hadhrat Abbaas then said, "Since you have made the decision in my favour, I wish to make it Sadaqah for the Muslims." [1]

The Incident of Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Umar and Abu Saroo'ah

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar reports that his brother Abdur Rahmaan and Abu Saroo'ah both drank some wine while they were in Egypt during the Khilaafah of Hadhrat Umar. They were both intoxicated and the following morning they approached Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas who was the Ameer of Egypt. They said to him, "Purify us (by imposing the penalty) because we had both become intoxicated with what we drank." Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar says, "When my brother mentioned to me that he had become intoxicated, I said to him, 'Come into the house and I will purify you.' I did not know then that he had already been to Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas. When my brother told me that he had already informed the Ameer of Egypt, I said, 'Your head will not be shaved in front of all the people today. Go into the house and I will myself shave your head.' The practice of governors in those days was that they shaved the heads of criminals together with imposing the penalty. The two men then entered the house. I shaved my brother's head with my own hand and then Hadhrat Amr had them lashed." Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar continues, "When Hadhrat Umar heard about this, he wrote to Hadhrat Amr with instructions to send Abdur Rahmaan to him on a carriage. Hadhrat Amr complied and when Abdur Rahmaan reached (his father) Hadhrat Umar, Hadhrat Umar lashed him and punished him further because of his relationship with him. Hadhrat Umar then let him go and he lived hale and healthy for a month after which his predestination caught up with him and he passed away. Although people commonly believe that he died because of the lashing he received from Hadhrat Umar, it is evident that he did not die because of this lashing." [2]

The Incident of Hadhrat Umar and a Woman whose Husband was Missing

Hadhrat Hasan narrates that Hadhrat Umar once sent for a woman whose husband had gone missing. Hadhrat Umar objected to the fact that Ibn Asaakir has also reported a similar narration in great detail from Saalim Abu Nadhar and the chain of narrators are reliable save for the fact that Saalim was not a contemporary of Hadhrat Umar. Bayhaqi and Ya'qoob bin Sufyaan have reported the narration briefly from Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas with a reliable chain of narrators, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.65). In this narration, Hadhrat Hudhayfa is mentioned instead of Hadhrat Ubay.

people used to frequently visit her. When she was summoned, it was said to her, "Respond to the call of Umar." She bemoaned, "Alas! I am destroyed! What does Umar want with me?!" (She was pregnant and) As she was still on her way, she became so frightened that labour pains struck. She entered a house where the child was born. However, the child screamed only twice and then it died.
Umar said, "You killed him because of his intentions! Which of us does not make intentions (to do evil)? Had it not been for the fear that it would become routine, I would have killed you for (killing) him." (1)

The Hadith of Zaid bin Wahab in this Regard

Hadhrat Zaid bin Wahab narrates that Hadhrat Umar once emerged from his home with his fingers in his ears and saying, "If only I could have been at your service! If only I could have been at your service!" When the people asked what the matter was, Hadhrat Umar informed them that a messenger had come to him from one of his governors stating that a river presented an obstacle to the progress of their army and they could not find a boat to cross over. The Ameer of the army instructed the others to find a man who knew how to gauge the depth of a river. They brought an old man who pleaded to the Ameer saying, "I fear the cold." Although it was winter, the Ameer forced him to go into the river and it was not long before the cold overcame him and the last thing he shouted before he drowned was, "Help me, O Umar!"

Hadhrat Umar wrote to the Ameer (to come to Madinah) and when he arrived, Hadhrat Umar ignored him for a few days. Hadhrat Umar usually did this when he was angry with someone. Hadhrat Umar then asked him, "What wrong was done by the man you killed?" The Ameer said, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! I never intended to kill him. Because we could find nothing with which to cross over, we only wanted to ascertain the depth of the water." He then went on to enumerate the many territories they had conquered. However, Hadhrat Umar said, "A single Muslim is more valuable to me than all your achievements. Had I not feared that it would become a common practice, I would have executed you. Pay the Diyah to his family and go somewhere where I would not see you again." (2)

The Incident of Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari and another man and the Letter Hadhrat Umar Wrote in this Regard

Hadhrat Jareer narrates that a man who was with Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari (in a battle) managed to gain a large booty. Although Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari gave the man some share of the booty, it was not the complete share. The man refused to accept anything less than his complete share. Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari then gave the man twenty lashes and shaved off his hair. The man collected his hair and went to Hadhrat Umar. He then took out the hair from his pocket and thrust it on Hadhrat Umar's chest. "What is the matter?" asked Hadhrat Umar. After the man recounted the incident to Hadhrat Umar, the Khalifah wrote a letter to Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari. After greeting Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari, Hadhrat Umar wrote the name of the person who had informed him of the incident and also wrote the details of what he heard. Thereafter, he wrote:

"I order you in the name of Allaah that if you had carried out the act in public, you should sit in public and allow him to have his revenge from you. If you had done so in private, then you should sit in private and allow him to have his revenge."

When this letter reached Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari, he sat down for the man to take his revenge, but the man said, "I have forgiven him for the pleasure of Allaah." (1)

The Incident of Hadhrat Fayrooz Daylami and a Youngster from the Quraysh

Hadhrat Hirmaazi reports that Hadhrat Umar wrote the following letter to Hadhrat Fayrooz Daylami:

"The news has reached me that you are very occupied with eating refined bread with honey. When this letter of mine reaches you, come to me in the name of Allaah and fight in the way of Allaah."

When Hadhrat Fayrooz Daylami arrived (in Madinah), he sought permission to see Hadhrat Umar and permission was granted. Just then, (as he was about to enter) a youngster from the Quraysh also rushed in and jostled Hadhrat Fayrooz. Hadhrat Fayrooz lifted his hand and slapped the Qurayshi on the nose. The Qurayshi entered the presence of Hadhrat Umar with a bleeding nose and Hadhrat Umar asked him, "Who did this to you?" "Fayrooz," came the reply. Hadhrat Fayrooz was still standing at the door and then entered after Hadhrat Umar gave him permission to do so.

Hadhrat Umar then asked, "What is this, O Fayrooz?" he replied, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! It was just recently that we had been kings. You had written to me (to come here) but did not write to him. You had also permitted me to enter and did not permit him. However, he wanted to enter before me with the permission I had been granted. I then did what he has informed you about." Hadhrat Umar said, "Retribution!" "Does it have to be?" asked Hadhrat Fayrooz. "It will have to be," Hadhrat Umar confirmed. Hadhrat Fayrooz then knelt on his knees and the youngster stood ready to have his revenge. Hadhrat Umar interrupted by saying, "Hold it boy until I inform you about what I heard Rasulullaah say one morning. He said, 'Last night Aswad Anasi the great liar (who claimed to be a Nabi) was killed last night. It was the pious servant Fayrooz Daylami who killed him.' Can you see yourself taking revenge from him after hearing this from Rasulullaah?" The youngster said, "I have forgiven him after you have informed me about this statement of Rasulullaah."

Hadhrat Fayrooz then asked Hadhrat Umar, "Tell me whether my admission to guilt and his pardoning me without duress would save me (from punishment in the Aakhirah)?" "Certainly," replied Hadhrat Umar.

"In that case," said Hadhrat Fayrooz, "I make you the witness that I am giving my sword, my horse and thirty thousand of my wealth to this youngster as a gift." Hadhrat Umar said to the youngster, "Your pardon has been rewarded (by Allaah in the Aakhirah), O brother of the Quraysh and you have also received plenty of wealth (in this world)." (1)

The Incident of a Slave Woman and the Justice of Hadhrat Umar

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas reports that a slave woman once came to Hadhrat Umar and said, "My master has accused me of fornication and made me sit on a fire until my private organ was burnt." Hadhrat Umar asked her, "Did anyone witness you commit the act?" When she replied in the negative, he asked further, "Did you make any confession before him?" When she again said that she did not, Hadhrat Umar exclaimed, "I shall deal with him." When Hadhrat Umar saw the man, he asked, "Do you punish with punishment that is reserved for Allaah (with fire)?!" The man entreated, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! I was suspicious of her." "Did you see her commit the act?" Hadhrat Umar demanded to know. "No," came the reply. Hadhrat Umar enquired further, "Did she then confess to you that she committed the act?" Again he said, "No."

Hadhrat Umar then exclaimed, "I swear by the Being Who controls my life that I would have definitely taken retribution from you had I not heard Rasulullaah say, 'Retribution cannot be taken from a master for anything he does to his slave and also not from a father for anything he does to his child.' Hadhrat Umar had the man lashed a hundred times and then said to the woman, "You may go because you are now freed for the pleasure of Allaah. You are now the freed slave of Allaah and His Rasool. I testify that I have heard Rasulullaah say, 'The person who is burnt by fire or disfigured by it is a free person and is the freed slave of Allaah and His Rasool.' (2)

The Incident Between a Farmer and Hadhrat Ubaadah bin Saamit and the Justice of Hadhrat Umar in the Matter

Hadhrat Makhool narrates that Hadhrat Ubaadah bin Saamit once called a non-Arab Christian farm labourer to hold his animal next to Baytul Maqdas.

When the labourer refused, Hadhrat Ubaadah hit him so hard that his head was cut. The labourer sought help from Hadhrat Umar bin Khattaab, who then asked Hadhrat Ubaadah, "What made you do that to him?"

Hadhrat Ubaadah replied, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! He refused to hold my animal when I asked him to do so, so I hit him because I am a short-tempered man." Hadhrat Umar then instructed Hadhrat Ubaadah to sit down so that the labourer could have his revenge. Just then, Hadhrat Zaid bin Thaabit interrupted by saying, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! Will you allow your slave to take revenge from your brother?" Hadhrat Umar then left out the retribution and determined that Hadhrat Ubaadah should compensate the labourer in money. (1)

The Incident of Hadhrat Awf bin Maalik Ashja'ee with a Jew and the Justice of Hadhrat Umar in this Matter

Hadrhat Suwayd bin Ghafla reports that when Hadhrat Umar once arrived in Shaa'm, a man belonging to the Ahlul Kitaab said to him, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! A man from amongst the Mu'mineen did this to me." The man's head was cut and he had been beaten. Hadhrat Umar became extremely angry and then said to Hadhrat Suhayb, "Go and investigate who is responsible for this and then bring the culprit to me." Hadhrat Suhayb proceeded and discovered that the person responsible was Hadhrat Awf bin Maalik Ashja'ee. Hadhrat Suhayb said to Hadhrat Awf bin Maalik, "The Ameerul Mu'mineen is extremely angry with you. Bring along Mu'aadh bin Jabal to speak to him because I fear that he will be very hasty in deciding your matter."

After Hadhrat Umar had completed his salaah, he called for Hadhrat Suhayb and asked him whether he had "brought the person." "Yes," replied Hadhrat Suhayb. In the meanwhile, Hadhrat Awf bin Maalik had already approached Hadhrat Mu'aadh and narrated the incident to him. Hadhrat Mu'aadh then stood up and said, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! The man is Awf bin Maalik. Please give him a hearing and do not be hasty with him." (Turning to Hadhrat Awf bin Maalik) Hadhrat Umar asked, "What has happened between you and this person?" Hadhrat Awf bin Maalik said, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! I saw this man pushing along the donkey of a Muslim woman. He then poked the donkey so that it should throw her off, but it did not. He then pushed the donkey and it dropped her. Thereafter, he fell on to her (and raped her. Unable to bear this, I then hit him)."

Hadhrat Umar said, "Bring the woman to me so that she may confirm what you said." When Hadhrat Awf bin Maalik went to her, her father and her husband said, "What do you want with our woman? You have already disgraced us (by relating the story)." However, the woman said, "By Allaah! I shall definitely go with him!" Her father and husband then said, "We shall rather go and relate the incident on your behalf." The two men then went to Hadhrat Umar and related the story just as Hadhrat Awf bin Maalik had. Hadhrat Umar then had the Jew crucified and said (to the Jewish population), "This (type of behaviour) was not amongst the clauses of our treaty with you." He then said, "O people! Fear Allaah with regard to those under the guardianship of Muhammad ﷺ (the Dhimmis). However, there shall be no guardianship for those of them who do this (who rape Muslim women)."

Hadhrat Suwayd says that the Jew was the first person he had seen crucified in Islaam. (1)

The Incident of Hadhrat Bakr bin Shaddaah ﷺ with a Jew and the Justice of Hadhrat Umar ﷺ

Hadhrat Abdul Malik bin Ya'la Laythi narrates that Hadhrat Bakr bin Shaddaah Laythi ﷺ used to serve Rasulullaah ﷺ when he was a child. After he came of age, he approached Rasulullaah ﷺ saying, "O Rasulullaah ﷺ! I used to go into the homes of your wives, but I have now reached the age of a man. Rasulullaah ﷺ then prayed for him saying, "O Allaah! Make his speech always truthful and grant him success."

It happened during the Khilafah of Hadhrat Umar ﷺ that a Jew was found murdered. Hadhrat Umar ﷺ regarded this to be a very serious matter and was very perturbed. He mounted the pulpit and said, "Will people be suddenly killed during the period in which Allaah has made me the Khalifah? In the name of Allaah do I beseech anyone with any knowledge (of the murder) to inform me likewise." Hadhrat Bakr bin Shaddaah ﷺ then stood up and said, "It was I who did it." Hadhrat Umar ﷺ exclaimed, "Allaahu Akbar! You are confessing to the murder! Explain your excuse." "Certainly," said Hadhrat Bakr bin Shaddaah ﷺ, "When a certain Muslim left to fight in Jihaad, he appointed me to the task of caring for his family. I came one day and found this Jew in the (Muslim's) house saying:

"Islaam has deceived Ash'ath (the Muslim out in Jihaad)
so much that I have spent the entire night alone with his wife
I spent the night on her breasts
While she spent the night on bare-backed and lean camel
It appears that at the place where her thighs meet
Are waves crashing on to waves"

Hadhrat Umar ﷺ believed Hadhrat Bakr bin Shaddaah ﷺ because of the prayer of Rasulullaah ﷺ and acquitted him for the murder. (2)

(1) Abu Ubayd, Bayhaqi and Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.299). Tabraani has reported a similar narration in brief from Hadhrat Awf bin Maalik ﷺ. He has narrated from reliable sources, as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.6 Pg.13).

Shaam. The case was brought before Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah who then wrote to Hadhrat Umar. Hadhrat Umar wrote back with the instruction that if killing Dhimmis is a habitual practice of the Muslim, he should be executed. However, if he did it in a fit of rage, he should pay a penalty of four thousand Dirhams. (1)

Hadrat Umar Writes to the Commander of an Army Forbidding the Killing of Mushrikeen (who surrender)

It is reported that Hadrat Umar once wrote the following letter to one of the army commanders he had dispatched:

"The news has reached me that some of your men seek out the burly Mushrikeen soldiers and even if they flee to the mountains where they feel safe, your men tell them 'Matras' (a Persian word meaning 'Have no fear', used to assure the person that he would not be harmed). Thereafter, when they have the man in custody (after he had given himself up upon the assurance of safety) they kill him. I swear by the Being Who controls my life! If the news reaches me that any of you does this, I shall have him executed. (2)

Another narration from Abu Salama states that Hadrat Umar said, "I swear by the Being Who controls my life! If any of you points your finger towards the sky for any Mushrik (assuring him safety) and then kills him when he surrenders himself, I shall have him executed." (3)

The Incident of Hurmuzaan and Hadrat Umar

Hadrat Anas says, "When we laid siege to the city of Tustar, (their leader) Hurmuzaan eventually surrendered on the verdict of Umar. I then brought him to Umar. When we arrived, Umar told Hurmuzaan to speak. Hurmuzaan asked, 'Should I speak like a dead man or like a living person?' Hadrat Umar replied, 'You may speak, 'Laa Ba's' (without fear).'

Hurmuzaan then said, 'O Arabs! As long as Allaah had left you and us to ourselves, we used to enslave you, kill you and usurp your wealth. However, since Allaah has been with you, we have no strength against you.'

'What have you to say?' Umar asked me. I said, 'O Ameerul Mu'mineen! I have left behind me a large enemy force who have tremendous strength. If you kill him, his people will lose hope in living and their strength will be even greater (so do not kill him).' Umar said, 'Can I allow the murderer of (great people like) Baraa bin Maalik (the brother of Hadrat Anas) and Hajza bin Thowr to remain alive?' When I feared that Umar was going to kill Hurmuzaan, I said, 'You have no right to kill someone to whom you have said, 'You may speak 'Laa Ba's' (because this is an assurance of amnesty).'

Umar asked, 'Did you receive a bribe or anything else from him?' I replied, 'I Umar ﷺ then warned, 'You will have to bring forth someone besides yourself to testify (that the words 'Laah Ba's' is an assurance of amnesty) otherwise I shall punish you first.' I left and found Zubayr bin Awwaam ﷺ, who testified on my behalf. Umar ﷺ then restrained himself from killing Hurmuzaan. Hurmuzaan then accepted Islaam and Umar ﷺ fixed an allowance for him from the public treasury." (1)

Hadhrat Umar ﷺ Fixes an Allowance from the State Treasury for an Old Dhimmi

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abi Hadrad Aslami ﷺ narrates that when they arrived with Hadhrat Umar ﷺ in Jaabiya, they came across an old Dhimmi man begging for food. When Hadhrat Umar ﷺ enquired about the man, he was informed that the man was a Dhimmi who had grown very old and weak and even had a family to support. Hadhrat Umar ﷺ then absolved him of paying the Jizya he was obliged to pay and said, "You have made him pay the Jizya and when he eventually became weak, you left him to beg for food?" Hadhrat Umar ﷺ then fixed an allowance of ten Dirhams for the man from the state treasury. (2)

Another narration states that Hadhrat Umar ﷺ once passed by an old Dhimmi begging at the doors of the Masajid. Hadhrat Umar ﷺ said, "We have not treated you fairly. We had been taking Jizya from you when you were young and now that you are old, we have not cared for you." Hadhrat Umar ﷺ then had an allowance given to him from the public treasury that was adequate for him. (3)

The Incident of Hadhrat Umar ﷺ and a Dhimmi

Hadhrat Yazeed bin Abi Maalik reports that Hadhrat Umar ﷺ was with the Muslims of Jaabiya when a Dhimmi reported to him that people had ransacked his vineyard. Hadhrat Umar ﷺ went to investigate and even found one of the Sahabah carrying a shield full of grapes. "You also?" gaped Hadhrat Umar ﷺ. The Sahabi said, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! We are starving." Hadhrat Umar ﷺ then left him and gave instructions that the owner of the vineyard should be paid (from the state treasury) for his grapes. (4) dispute to Hadhrat Umar رضي الله عنه. Because Hadhrat Umar رضي الله عنه saw that the Jew was right, he passed judgement in his favour. The Jew then said to him, "By Allaah! You have judged by the truth!" Hadhrat Umar رضي الله عنه rapped him with a whip and asked, "How do you know?" The Jew replied, "By Allaah! We read in the Torah that whenever a judge resolves to pass judgement by the truth, there is an angel by his right and another by his left who continue guiding him aright and inspiring him. However, as soon as he forsakes the resolve to judge by the truth, they ascend (to the heavens) and leave him." (1)

Hadrat Iyaas bin Salama narrates from his father (Hadrat Salama), "Hadrat Umar رضي الله عنه once passed through the marketplace with a whip in his hand. He lightly struck me with the whip which hit the edge of my clothes as he said, 'Move from the path.' The following day when he met me, he asked, 'O Salam! Do you intend performing Hajj?' When I replied in the affirmative, he led me by my hand to his house and gave me six hundred Dirhams. He then said, 'Use this to help you in your Hajj and you should know that it is in compensation for the lash that I gave you.' I said, 'O Ameerul Mu'mineen! I do not even remember it.' He said, 'And I have never forgotten it.'" (2)

An Incident that Transpired between him and his Slave

Hadrat Abul Furaat narrates that Hadrat Uthmaan رضي الله عنه once said to his slave, "I once twisted your ears and I want you to take retribution. When the slave took hold of his ears, Hadrat Uthmaan رضي الله عنه told him to twist harder and said, "How delightful is retribution in this world without any in the Aakhirah." (3)

His Justice with a Bird

Hadrat Naafi bin Abdul Haarith narrates, "Hadrat Umar رضي الله عنه once arrived in Makkah where he went to the Daarun Nadwa(4) on a Friday. He intended to reach the Masjid earlier in this way. He hung his shawl on a peg in a room and a pigeon came to sit on it. When Hadrat Umar رضي الله عنه chased the pigeon away, a snake attacked it and killed it. After he had led the Jumu'ah salaah, Hadrat Uthmaan bin Affaan رضي الله عنه and I came to him. He said, 'Do pass a verdict concerning something that I had done today. I had entered this room with the intention of reaching the Masjid earlier and hung my shawl on this peg. When a pigeon perched on top of it, I feared that it would mess the shawl with its

The Incident of an Arab Woman and Her Freed Slave

The Narration of Hadhrat Asbagh bin Nabaatah in this regard

Hadhrat Asbagh bin Nabaatah narrates that he once accompanied Hadhrat Ali to the marketplace. When Hadhrat Ali noticed that the traders had trespassed their boundaries, he asked, "What is this?" When the people confirmed that the traders had indeed trespassed their boundaries, Hadhrat Ali said, "They have no right to do that. The Muslim marketplace is like the place where they perform salaah. Whoever arrives first at a place, it is his for the day unless he chooses to forfeit it." (1)

The incident of Hadhrat Ali and a Jew has already passed in the chapter dealing with incidents about the character and actions of the Sahabah that inspired people to accept Islaam.

The Justice of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Rawwaaha

The Incident Concerning his Justice with the people of Khaybar

In a lengthy narration concerning the Mushrikeen in the Battle of Khaybar, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar says that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Rawwaaha used to go to Khaybar every year to estimate their crop output and would then make them pay half the amount (according to the agreement they made with Rasulullaah). The Jews complained to Rasulullaah about the harshness of his estimations and even tried to bribe him. He however said to them, "O enemies of Allaah! Do you wish to feed me of food what is forbidden? By Allaah, I have come to you from someone whom I love most of all people while I detest each of you people more than apes and pigs. However, my hatred for you and my love for him will not prompt me from being unjust towards you." The Jews then said, "It is because of this (such justice) that the skies and the earth remain in existence." (2)

The man then returned saying, "Never before have I been treated as I have been treated today." Hadhrat Miqdaad happened to pass by and asked the man what the matter was. When the man related the incident, Hadhrat Miqdaad hung his sword around his neck and proceeded with the man to the Ameer. Hadhrat Miqdaad said (to the Ameer), "Allow him to take retribution from you." When the Ameer allowed the man to do so, the man forgave him. Hadhrat Miqdaad then went back saying, "(Inshaa Allaah) I shall die while Islaam is dominant (when the weak are able to redress the wrong that the powerful do to them)."

The Fear that the Khulafaa had for Allaah

The Narration of Hadhrat Dahhaak about the fear that Hadhrat Abu Bakr had for Allaah

Hadhrat Dahhaak reports that Hadhrat Abu Bakr Siddeeq once saw a bird perched on a tree and said, "How fortunate you are, O bird! By Allaah! I wish I had been like you. You perch on trees, eat fruit and then fly off without (fear of) any reckoning or punishment. By Allaah! I wish that I was a shrub on the roadside that a passing camel takes into its mouth, chews and then swallows to eventually emerge as dung. I wish I had never been a human (with worries of reckoning and punishment)."

Another narration also from Hadhrat Dahhaak bin Muzaahim states that Hadhrat Abu Bakr was once looking at a sparrow when he said, "How fortunate are you, O sparrow. You eat from the fruit, fly amongst the trees and have no (worries of) reckoning or punishment. By Allaah! I wish that I had been a sheep that some family fattens and when I eventually become as big and fat as I possibly can be, they slaughter me. Thereafter, they roast a part of me, dry parts of me and then eat me. They then dispose of me as excrement in the toilet. I wish that I was never created as a human being." (2)

A Narration of Ibn Asaakir and Abu Nu'aym about the Fear that Hadhrat Umar ﷺ had for Allaah

Hadhrat Aamir bin Rabee'ah reports that he once saw Hadhrat Umar ﷺ pick up a twig from the ground and say, "I wish that I had been this twig. I wish that I had never been created. I wish that I had been nothing. I wish that my mother had never given birth to me. I wish that I had been something gone and forgotten." (2)

Another narration states that Hadhrat Umar ﷺ said, "If a caller from the heavens had to announce, 'O people! Each one of you shall enter Jannah besides one person' I would fear that the one person may be me. On the other hand, if the announcer had to announce, 'O people! Each one of you shall enter Jahannam besides one person' I would wish that the one person should be me." (3)

The Incident Between Hadhrat Umar ﷺ and Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari ﷺ

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ﷺ narrates that Hadhrat Umar ﷺ once met Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari ﷺ and asked him, "O Abu Moosa! Will it please you to have for yourself (the rewards for) all the good deeds you carried out during the time of Rasulullaah ﷺ and that (when it concerns the deeds you did after the demise of Rasulullaah ﷺ, especially during your term as Ameer) you should emerge with a clean sheet i.e. your good deeds should be cancelled out with your evil acts and your evil acts with your good deeds so that you neither have rewards (for your good deeds) nor punishment (for your evil acts)?"

Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari ﷺ replied, "No, O Ameerul Mu'mineen! By Allaah, when I arrived in Basrah, insolence was rife amongst its people. I then taught them the Qur'aan and the Sunnah and fought with them in the path of Allaah. I now aspire to reap the benefits of this." Hadhrat Umar ﷺ then said, "However, I wish to emerge with a clean sheet, having my good deeds cancelled with my evils acts and my evil acts cancelled with my good deeds. All that I require to have for myself are the good deeds that I carried out during the time of Rasulullaah ﷺ." (4)

He then said, 'I swear by the Being Who controls my life that I wish to emerge from it just as I had entered it without any rewards and without any sin." (1)

Another narration states that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas ﷺ said to Hadhrat Umar ﷺ, "Accept the glad tidings of Jannah for you have been in the company of Rasulullaah ﷺ for a very long time. Thereafter, when you became the Ameer of the Mu'mineen, you lent tremendous strength to them and fulfilled the trust placed on your shoulders." Hadhrat Umar ﷺ responded by saying, "As for the glad tidings of Jannah that you have given me, I swear by the Being besides Whom there is none worthy of worship that if I owned the world and all its contents, I would have offered it as ransom to be saved from the frightening scene that lies ahead of me. As for what you have said about my leadership over the Mu'mineen, I swear by Allaah that I wish it were a clean sheet without any rewards in my favour nor any punishment. As for what you have mentioned about my companionship with Rasulullaah ﷺ, this is something (precious, for which I can expect great rewards)." (2)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Ubayd bin Umayr narrates that a lengthy narration in which he states that Hadhrat Umar ﷺ asked those around him to help him sit up. When they did this, he asked Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas ﷺ to repeat what he had said. When Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas ﷺ repeated his words, Hadhrat Umar ﷺ asked, "Will you testify to this before Allaah on the day you meet Him?" "Certainly," replied Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas ﷺ. Hadhrat Umar ﷺ then became very happy and was pleased. (3)

The Narration of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ﷺ and Hadhrat Miswar Concerning the Fear Hadhrat Umar ﷺ had for Allaah

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ﷺ says, "Umar ﷺ's head was on my lap when he was suffering the illness that eventually claimed his life. 'Put my head on the ground,' he said to me. I said, 'What difference would it make if it is on my lap or on the ground?' However, he again ordered me to place it on the ground and I complied. He then said, 'My mother and I are destroyed if my Rabb does not have mercy on me!'"

Hadhrat Miswar reports that when Hadhrat Umar ﷺ was stabbed, he said, "If I possessed enough gold to fill the earth, I would have given it to ransom myself from the punishment of Allaah before I can even see it." (4)

Should an Ameer Fear Anybody's Criticism?

The Narration of Hadhrat Saa'eb bin Yazd in this regard

Hadhrat Saa'eb bin Yazd narrates that someone once asked Hadhrat Umar, "Is it better for me not to fear anybody's criticism in matters pertaining to Allaah or to rather look into myself (for reformation)?" Hadhrat Umar replied, "Those who have been entrusted with overseeing the affairs of the people should not fear anybody's criticism in matters he has to do for Allaah. As for the person who is not charged with any public duty, he should look to his own reformation and advise the one who is entrusted to oversee public affairs." (1)

The Advices that the Khulafaa Gave to other Khulafaa and leaders

The Advice that Hadhrat Abu Bakr gave to Hadhrat Umar when He intended to Appoint him as his Successor

Hadhrat Aghar from the Banu Maalik tribe reports that when Hadhrat Abu Bakr decided to appoint Hadhrat Umar as his successor, he send for him. When Hadhrat Umar came, Hadhrat Abu Bakr said to him, "I am summoning you to a duty that tires the person it is entrusted to. O Umar! Fear Allaah by obeying Him and obey Him by fearing Him because the one who fears Allaah is safe (from fears) and protected (from all harm). You should also understand that (whatever you do in) this position will be presented before Allaah (for reckoning). None is worthy of this post except the one who fulfils it rights. None of the hopes of a person is realised when he commands people to do what is right while he engages in wrong and who enjoins good while doing evil. All this person's deeds will soon be wasted (will not benefit him in the Aakhirah). Therefore, if you are appointed as the Ameer of the people, you should do your best to keep your ends dry of their blood, your stomach empty of their wealth and your tongue free of their honour. There is no power (to do good) except from Allaah." (2)

The Advice that Hadhrat Abu Bakr gave on his deathbed about the Appointment of Hadhrat Umar as his Successor and his Advice to Hadhrat Umar

Hadhrat Saalim bin Abdullaah bin Umar narrates that when death came

(1) Bayhaqi, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.163).
(2) Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.5 Pg.198) has commented on the chain of narrators, as has Haafidh Mundhiri in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.4 Pg.15).
to Hadhrat Abu Bakr, he gave the following parting advices:

This is a parting request from Abu Bakr that he is making during his final moments in this world as he is leaving it and during his initial moments in the Aakhirah as he enters it. This is a time when a Kaafir accepts Imaan, a sinner develops fear for Allaah and even a liar speaks the truth. I have appointed Umar bin Khattaab as my successor. If he exercises justice, then this has always been my expectation of him. However, if he changes and oppresses, then my knowledge of the unseen.

shortly (after death) the oppressors (wrongdoers) will come to know to which place they will return (jannaham). (Surah shu'ara, verse 227)

Hadhrat Abu Bakr then sent for Hadhrat Umar. (When he arrived) Hadhrat Abu Bakr called him in and said, "O Umar! There are those who hate you as well as those who love you. It is however, a very old practice for people to hate good and to love evil." Hadhrat Umar interjected, "I have no need for Khilaafah." "But the Khilaafah has a need for you," added Hadhrat Abu Bakr. Hadhrat Abu Bakr then continued, "You have seen Rasulullah and spent time in his company. You have also seen how he gave preference to us over himself. In fact, we used to actually give his family what was left over from that which came to us from him (he gave us before even giving his family). Then you have also seen me and spent time in my company. I have only been following in the footsteps of the one who passed before me. By Allaah! I am not sleeping and dreaming this nor am I in doubt about what I am seeing. I shall also not turn off the course I am taking. O Umar! Take note that Allaah has a right during the night that He does not accept during the day a right that He does not accept during the night. The scales of those with heavy scales on the Day of Qiyaamah have only become heavy because they have always followed the truth. It is also the right of the scales to weigh heavily when they contain nothing but the truth. On the other hand, the scales of those with light scales on the Day of Qiyaamah have only become light because they have always followed falsehood. It is also the right of the scales to be light when they contain nothing but falsehood. The first thing that I wish to warn you about is your own self. I also wish to warn you about the people because their eyes are always envious and their desires have swollen. However, when they are disgraced (because of these evil traits), they become alarmed, so beware of becoming a cause of this. They will always remain in awe of you as long as you fear Allaah. This is my parting advice. I now wish you peace." (1)

(1) Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.146).
The Narration of Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Saabit and Others About the Advice that Hadhrat Abu Bakr gave to Hadhrat Umar Before his death

Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Saabit, Hadhrat Zaid bin Zubayd bin Haarith and Hadhrat Mujaahid all report that when death approached Hadhrat Abu Bakr, he summoned Hadhrat Umar and said, "Fear Allaah, O Umar! Take note that Allaah has some acts (owing to Him) during the night that He does not accept during the day and some acts (owing to Him) during the day that He does not accept during the night. Also note that Allaah does not accept Nafl acts until the Faraa'idh are fulfilled. The scales of those with heavy scales on the Day of Qiyaamah have only become heavy because they have always followed the truth in this world and have had high regard for it. It is also the right of a scale in which the truth is placed tomorrow that it should weigh heavily. On the other hand, the scales of those with light scales on the Day of Qiyaamah have only become light because they have always followed falsehood in this world and have made light of it. It is also the right of a scale in which falsehood is placed tomorrow that it should weigh lightly. Where Allaah has made mention of the people of Jannah, He has mentioned the best of their deeds and overlooked their sins. Whenever I think of them, I say, 'I fear that I may never join them.' Wherever Allaah has also made mention of the people of Jahannam, He has mentioned them by the worst of their actions and rejected their good deeds. Whenever I think of them, I say, 'I fear that I may be from amongst them.' Allaah has mentioned verses of mercy and verses of punishment so that Allaah's servant should become hopeful (of Allah's mercy) and fearful (of His punishment). Never entertain false hopes in Allaah (by continuing with sin in the hope that you would be forgiven) but also never lose hope in Allaah's mercy. Never throw yourself into destruction by the doings of your own hands. If you remember this advice of mine, there will never be an unseen thing more beloved to you than death, which will certainly come to you. However, if you put it to waste, there will never be an unseen thing more hated to you than death, which you will never be able to escape." (1)

The Advice that Hadhrat Abu Bakr Gave to Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas and Others

The Advice Hadhrat Abu Bakr gave to Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas when He Appointed him Commander of the Armies Proceeding to Shaam

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abu Bakr bin Muhammad bin Amr bin Hazm narrates

(1) Ibn Mubaarak, Ibn Abi Shaybah, Hannaad, Ibn Jareer and Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.363).
that Hadhrat Abu Bakr ﷺ had resolved to combine the armies marching to Shaam. The first of the commanders to march was Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas ﷺ. Hadhrat Abu Bakr ﷺ had instructed him to pass Eela en route to Palestine. His army numbered three thousand and consisted of many Muhaajireen and Ansaar. (When seeing them off) Hadhrat Abu Bakr ﷺ walked by the side of Hadhrat Amr ﷺ’s animal and advised him saying, "O Amr! Fear Allaah in private and in public and feel shamed before Him because He sees you and the actions you do. As you can see, I have put you ahead of people who are your seniors and who are more valuable to Islaam and the Muslims than you are. You should therefore act for the Aakhirah and do everything to please Allaah. Be a father towards the people and never disclose their secrets. Suffice yourself with their apparent condition and apply yourself to your task. Be steadfast when you meet the enemy in battle and never show cowardice. Give importance to (eradicating) misappropriation of the booty and punish people for it. Keep your talk brief when you address your people and as long as you keep yourself straight, your subordinates will also remain straight." (1)

The Advice Hadhrat Abu Bakr ﷺ Gave to Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas ﷺ and to Hadhrat Waleed bin Uqaba ﷺ

Hadhrat Qaasim bin Muhammad narrates that Hadhrat Abu Bakr ﷺ once wrote a letter to Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas ﷺ and to Hadhrat Waleed bin Uqaba ﷺ, both of whom were appointed to collect half the Zakaah of the Qudaa’ah tribe. When he dispatched them to collect the Zakaah, Hadhrat Abu Bakr ﷺ saw them off and gave both of them the same advice. He said, "Fear Allaah in private and in public because whoever fears Allaah, Allaah will create for him an exit (from every difficulty) and provide for him from sources he does not expect. Whoever fears Allaah, Allaah will annul his sins and grant him an immense reward. This is because Taqwa is the best thing about which Allaah’s servants encourage each other. You are in a path from amongst the paths of Allaah. You have no scope of compromising, dropping measures and being negligent concerning those matters that ensure the stability of your Deen and the best interests of your duty. You should therefore never weaken and never be careless." (2)

The Letter Hadhrat Abu Bakr ﷺ Wrote to Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas ﷺ Concerning Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed ﷺ

Hadhrat Muttalib bin Saalib bin Abu Wadaa’ah ﷺ narrates that Hadhrat Abu Bakr ﷺ wrote the following letter to Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas ﷺ:

(1) Ibn Sa’d, as quoted in Kanzul Ummal (Vol.3 Pg.133). Ibn Asaakir (Vol.1 Pg.129) has also reported the narration.
(2) Ibn Jarir Tabari (Vol.4 Pg.29). Ibn Asaakir (Vol.1 Pg.132) has also reported a similar narration.
I have written to Khaalid bin Waleed to march upwards as to reinforce you. So when he comes to you, you should behave well with him and never assert your authority over him. You should also never make any decisions without him merely because I have placed you ahead of him and others (by making you the Ameer). Consult with the others and never oppose their views." (1)

The Narration of Ibn Sa'd About the Advice Hadhrat Abu Bakr (R) Gave to Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas (R)

Hadhrat Abdul Hameed bin Ja'far narrates from his father that Hadhrat Abu Bakr (R) said to Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas (R), "I have appointed you as Ameer of all the people you pass, the Balaq tribe, the Udhra tribe, the remaining branches of the Qudaa'ah tribe and all the other remnants of Arab tribes. Encourage them to wage Jihaaad in the path of Allaah and motivate them for this. Provide transport and provisions for those of them who follow you and foster a bond between them. Treat every tribe according to their status and keep their quarters separate (from other tribes)." (2)

The Advice Hadhrat Abu Bakr (R) gave to Hadhrat Shurahbeel bin Hasanah (R)

Hadhrat Muhammad bin Ibraheem bin Haarith Taymi (R) reports that when Hadhrat Abu Bakr (R) relieved Hadhrat Khaalid bin Sa'eed of his duties, he gave the following advice to Hadhrat Shurahbeel bin Hasanah (R), who was also one of the Muslim governors:

"Give due regard to Khaalid bin Sa'eed and acknowledge the rights he has over you just as you would like him to acknowledge the rights you have over him had he been the governor over you. You know well the status he has in Islaam and that at the time when Rasulullaah (S) passed away, he had been a governor for Rasulullaah (S). Although I had planned to reinstate him as governor, I later decided to relieve him of the post. Perhaps this will be better for his Deen because I do not envy the governorship of any person. When I gave him the choice of choosing a commander from all the army commanders, he chose you over even his own cousin. If you are ever faced with a matter that requires the advice of a pious and well-wishing person, let the first person you consult be Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah. Thereafter, consult Mu'aadh bin Jabal and the third should be Khaalid bin Sa'eed. In these men you will certainly find excellent counsel and good results. Beware of ever implementing your opinion without taking theirs and of concealing any intelligence from them." (3)

(1) Ibn Sa'd, as quoted in Kanzul Ummal (Vol.3 Pg.133).
(2) Ibn Sa'd, as quoted in Kanzul Ummal (Vol.3 Pg.133). Ibn Asaakir (Vol.1 Pg.129) has also reported the narration.
(3) Ibn Sa'd (Vol.4 Pg.70), as quoted in Kanzul Ummal (Vol.3 Pg.134).
The Advice Hadhrat Abu Bakr \(\textcircled{6}\) gave to

Hadhrat Yazeed bin Abu Sufyaan \(\textcircled{6}\)

Hadhrat Haarith bin Fadhl reports that when Hadhrat Abu Bakr \(\textcircled{6}\) gave the flag to Hadhrat Yazeed bin Abu Sufyaan \(\textcircled{6}\) (appointed him commander of the army), he said to him, "O Yazeed! You are a youthful person who is well thought of on account of an act that you have been observed doing in private. I have decided to put you to a test and to take you away from your family, so carefully watch yourself and how you exercise your authority. I shall also be informed about you. Should you do well, I shall promote you and should you botch-up, I will have to dismiss you. I am now appointing you to the post of Khaalid bin Sa'eed."

Hadhrat Abu Bakr \(\textcircled{6}\) then briefed Hadhrat Yazeed bin Abu Sufyaan \(\textcircled{6}\) about the responsibility ahead. He said, "I advise you to treat Abu Ubaydah binJarraah well. You well recognise his status in Islaam and that Rasulullaah \(\textcircled{6}\) said, 'Every Ummah has a trustworthy person and the trustworthy person of this Ummah is Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah.' You should therefore acknowledge his virtue and his being one of the earliest Muslims. You should also show due regard to Mu'aadh bin Jabal. You know well the battles he fought with Rasulullaah \(\textcircled{6}\) and that Rasulullaah \(\textcircled{6}\) said, '(On the Day of Qiyaamah) He (Hadhrat Mu'aadh \(\textcircled{6}\)) would come ahead of the Ulema holding a distinguished position.' You should therefore never make a decision without the two of them for they will never fail to give you good advice."

Hadhrat Yazeed \(\textcircled{6}\) asked, "O Khalifah of Rasulullaah \(\textcircled{6}\)! Do advise the two of them about their behaviour with me as you have advised me about them."

Hadhrat Abu Bakr \(\textcircled{6}\) said, "I shall not fail to advise them about their behaviour towards you." Hadhrat Yazeed \(\textcircled{6}\) then gave the following du'aa, "May Allaah shower His mercy on you and may Allaah grant you the best rewards on behalf of Islaam." (1)

Hadhrat Yazeed bin Abu Sufyaan \(\textcircled{6}\) narrates that Hadhrat Abu Bakr \(\textcircled{6}\) called him and said, "O Yazeed! The worst that I fear from you is that you might give preference to your relatives when appointing people to posts of leadership. Rasulullaah \(\textcircled{6}\) said, 'Whoever is given charge over the affairs of the Muslims and then wrongfully appoints someone to any post over the people merely because of his love for the person, Allaah's curse will be on him and Allaah will neither accept any of his Fardh or Nawaafil until Allaah enters him into Jahannam. Whoever gives the wealth of his brother to another person merely because of his love for him, Allaah's curse will be on him (or Allaah's protection will take leave from him)." (2)

(1) Ibn Sa'd, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.132).
(2) Ahmad, Haakim, Mansoor bin Shu'ba Baghdaadi in his Arba'een, who has commented on the chain of narrators, as did Allaama Ibn Katheer, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.143). Haythami (Vol.5 Pg.232) has also commented on the chain of narrators.
The Advices of Hadhrat Umar

The Advice Hadhrat Umar gave to his Successor

Hadhrat Umar once said, "My parting advice to my successor is that he recognises the rights of the early Muhaajireen and upholds their honour and respect. I also advise him to give recognition to those Ansaar who do good and to overlook those who do wrong because the Ansaar are the ones who adopted the place (Madinah) as their home before them (before the Muhaajireen) and (had adopted) Imaan. I also advise him to treat well the people of the other cities because they are the assistants of Islaam, an invaluable source of income (for the Muslim state) and a source of fury for the enemy. He should take from them only their excess wealth and only with their consent. I also advise him to treat the Bedouins well because they are the native Arabs and the foundation of Islaam. He should take only from their young animals, which should then be given back to the poor amongst them. I also advise him to honour the treaty of those in the custody of Allaah and His Rasool i.e. the Dhimmis. He should fight those who threaten them (should defend them) and should not charge them with more than they can bear." (1)

Hadhrat Qaasim bin Muhammad narrates that Hadhrat Umar once said, "My successor should know that many close and distant people will want to take the Khilaafah away from him. Even I have to exert myself to fight people off. Had I known of anyone who will make a more powerful Khalifah than myself, I would prefer that (he be the Khalifah and that) I should be executed rather than be appointed to the post." (2)

The Advice that Hadhrat Umar gave to Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah

Hadhrat Saalih bin Kaysaan narrates that the first letter that Hadhrat Umar wrote after becoming the Khalifah was to Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah to give him command over the army of Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed. He wrote:

I advise you to fear Allaah Who will remain forever and besides Whom all will come to an end. It is He Who has guided us after being astray and Who has removed us from darkness and brought us into the light. I have appointed you as commander of the army of Ibn Waleed, so fulfil the task that is binding on you. Never send the Muslims to their destruction with the hope of winning booty. Never let them camp at a place until you have had it examined for them and until you know its approaches. Whenever you dispatch any group, send them as a complete unit and guard against ever sending them to their destruction. Allaah has put you to test through me and put me to test through you, so lower your gaze to the world and detach your heart from it. Beware that the world should ever destroy you as it destroyed those before you, whose places of destruction you have already witnessed. (1)

Hadhrat Umar’s Advice to Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas

Hadhrat Muhammad and Hadhrat Talha both narrate that Hadhrat Umar once sent for Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas. When he arrived, Hadhrat Umar appointed him commander of the military offensive in Iraq. Hadhrat Umar then advised him saying, "0 Sa'd! Sa'd of the Banu Wuhayb tribe! Let the fact never deceive you that you are called the maternal uncle of Rasulullah and that you have had the opportunity of being in his company. Allaah never erases evil with evil but erases evil with good. Allaah has no relation with anyone besides the relation of obedience to Him. All of mankind whether they are respectable or not are equal in the sight of Allaah. Allaah is their Rabb and they are all His servants. They attain superiority over each other only by their abstinence and they attain what is with Him only by obeying Him. Consider everything you saw Rasulullah do from the time he announced his Nabuwaat until the time he left us. Hold fast to this because this is the actual objective. This is my advice to you. Should you ignore it and turn away from it, your deeds would be destroyed and you would be amongst the losers."

Thereafter, when Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas was about to leave, Hadhrat Umar again called for him and said, "Since I have appointed you to command the offensive in Iraq, remember my advice. You are going towards an extremely difficult and unpleasant task from which nothing but treading the path of the truth will deliver you. Make yourself and those with you accustomed to doing good and seek Allaah's assistance through this good. Remember that every good habit requires preparation. The preparation for good deeds is patience and this patience entails enduring every condition that comes to you. By this, you will attain the fear of Allaah. You should know that the fear for Allaah is found in two things, in obeying Allaah and in abstaining from disobedience to Him. Those who obey Him obey Him because of their disgust for this world and their love for the Aakhirah, while those who disobey Him disobey Him because of their love for this world and their disgust for the Aakhirah. You should also know that hearts have certain realities that Allaah has created most wonderfully. The one is hidden while the other is apparent. As for apparent one, it is when those who praise a good act and those who condemn it are viewed in the same light (when a good deed is done solely for Allaah regardless of whether people praise or condemn it). As for the hidden reality, it is recognised when wisdom from the heart surfaces on a person's tongue and when the people love him. You should not abstain from earning the love of people because even the Ambiyaa asked Allaah for the love of the people. Whenever Allaah loves a person,

(1) Ibn Jareer (Vol.3 Pg.92).
Allaah makes him loved (by others) and whenever Allaah dislikes someone, He makes him disliked (by others as well). You can therefore assess your position in Allaah's sight by your position in the eyes of those people who are always with you." (1)

The Advice that Hadhrat Umar (ṣ) gave to Hadhrat Utba bin Ghazwaan (ṣ)

Hadhrat Abdul Malik bin Umayr narrates that when Hadhrat Umar (ṣ) dispatched Hadhrat Utba bin Ghazwaan (ṣ) to Basrah, he said to him, "O Utba! I have appointed you as governor of India (2), which is amongst the strongholds of the enemy. I have great hope that Allaah will suffice for you against those around you and will assist you against them. I have already written to Alaa bin Hadhrami to reinforce you with Arjafa bin Harthama who is a fierce fighter against the enemy and a great strategist against them. When he comes to you, you should consult with him and keep him close to you. Call people towards Allaah and welcome those who respond. As for those who refuse (to accept Islaam), they will have to pay the Jizya in humiliation (and live under Muslims rule). Otherwise (if these two options are refused), it will have to be the sword without any sympathy. Fear Allaah in the post that you have been appointed to and beware that your carnal self should ever pull you towards pride because this will ruin your Aakhirah. You had been a companion of Rasulullaah (ṣ) and through him you had attained honour after being disgraced. Through him did you attain strength after weakness so much so that you have become an Ameer in a position of great authority and a ruler whose commands are obeyed. People listen when you speak and your commands are obeyed. What a great bounty this is on condition that it does not make you think that your status is higher than it is and that it does not make you display arrogance over those of lower ranks. Guard against this bounty just as you would guard against sin. This post is one of the two things (sin being the other) that I fear most for you, that they should gradually deceive you and then drop you so hard that they eventually lead you into Jahannam. I seek Allaah's protection for you and for myself against this. People rush towards Allaah (towards doing the work of Allaah) when the world is lifted for them (when they stand to receive worldly gain by it) and they then make it their objective. You should therefore have the intention of pleasing only Allaah and not to acquire worldly gains. You should also always beware of the place where oppressors will fall (Jahannam)." (3)

Hadhrat Alaa bin Hadhrami (ṣ)

Hadhrat Sha'bi reports that Hadhrat Umar (ṣ) once wrote the following letter
(1) Ibn Jareer (Vol.3 Pg.92).
(2) Basrah was referred to as India because it borders the Persian Gulf, which leads to the Indian subcontinent.
(3) Ibn Jareer (Vol.4 Pg.150). Ali bin Muhammad Madaa'ini has also reported a similar narration, as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.7 Pg.48).
to Hadhrat Alaa bin Hadhrami who was in Bahrain:

"Proceed to Utba bin Ghazwaan because I have appointed you to his post. Remember that you are going to someone from the very first Muhaajireen for whom Allaah has already decreed Jannah. I am not dismissing him because he has not been chaste, strong and a good fighter. I am dismissing him only because I feel that you would be of more use to the Muslims of that region. You should therefore respect his status. I had already appointed someone else to this post before you, but he passed away before he could reach there. Therefore, if Allaah wishes that you take charge there, you will become the governor. However, if Allaah wills that Utba remains the governor, then all creation and decisions are the prerogative of Allaah the Rabb of the universe. Remember that every decision that Allaah makes is protected by Him (and will certainly come to pass). You should therefore concern yourself only with the purpose for which you were created (Allaah shall see to the rest). Apply yourself to this task and forsake everything else because this world is destined to come to an end while the Aakhirah is eternal. You should therefore never allow yourself to be preoccupied with something the good of which will soon end rather than something the evil of which is everlasting. Hasten towards the pleasure of Allaah away from His displeasure. For those whom He wishes, Allaah combines high merit in their leadership as well as in their knowledge. We beseech Allaah to grant you and us assistance to do good and protection from His punishment." (1)

The Advice that Hadhrat Umar gave to Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari

Hadhrat Dabba bin Mihsin narrates that Hadhrat Umar wrote the following letter to Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari:

People usually develop a dislike for their rulers. I therefore seek Allaah's protection that this should even happen to me or to you. Ensure that you enforce the penalties of the Shari'ah even though it be only for a while during the day (if not more often). If you are faced with two decisions, the one being for Allaah and the other for worldly gain, then give preference for the one that is for Allaah because this world will come to an end while the Aakhirah is everlasting. Instil fear into criminals and keep them separate (so that they never have the opportunity to conspire together). Visit the sick Muslims, attend their funerals, keep your door open and do the work of the Muslims yourself because you are after all a man from amongst them. The only difference is that Allaah has placed a heavier burden on you. The news has reached me that you and your family have adopted a trend in your clothing, your food and your conveyance that the (average) Muslims cannot afford. O servant of Allaah! Beware that you should become like a beast that passes by a lush valley and then has no other objective but getting fat, whereas it is getting fat that will kill it. Remember that when a governor becomes corrupt, his subordinates become corrupt and the most wretched of all people is the person who is the cause of his subordinates

(1) Ibn Sa'd (Vol.4 Pg.78).
Hadhrat Dahhaak reports that Hadhrat Umar Narrated wrote the following letter to Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari Narrated:

"Strength in leadership is attained when leaders refrain from postponing today's tasks for tomorrow. When you do this, the tasks accumulate to the extent that you do not know which one to begin with. They are all eventually destroyed. When you are faced with two matters, the one being for this world and the other for the Aakhirah, opt for the one that is for the Aakhirah rather than the one that is for this world because this world will come to an end while the Aakhirah is eternal. Always remain afraid of Allaah and study the Book of Allaah because it is the fountainhead of knowledge and springtime of the hearts (because it revives the heart and is a balm for it)." (2)

The Parting Advices of Hadhrat Uthmaan Dhun Nurayn

Hadhrat Alaa bin Fadhl narrated from his mother that after Hadhrat Uthmaan was martyred, the people searched for his wealth and found a locked box. When they opened the box, they found in it a paper on which the following was written:

"This is the parting advice of Uthmaan. I begin with the name of Allaah the Most Kind the Most Merciful. Uthmaan bin Affaan testifies that there is none worthy of worship but the One Allaah Who has no partner and that Muhammad was Allaah's servant and Rasul. He also testifies that Jannah is real, Jahannam is real and that Allaah shall resurrect those in the graves on a day about which there is no doubt. Indeed, Allaah never breaks a promise. Upon this did I live, upon this did I die and with this will I be resurrected, Inshaa Allaah."

A narration of Nizaamul Mulk states that the following couplets were written on the reverse side of this paper (which mean):

"Independence makes one so content that his status soars
Even though it suppresses him to the extent that poverty threatens
Though you should be patient when it strikes, remember that difficulty
Never comes without ease following on its heels
Whoever does not compare times cannot understand grief
The promises of time are to be found in the changing of the days" (3)

The Incident Between Hadhrat Ali and Hadhrat Uthmaan On the Day his House was Under Siege

Hadhrat Shaddaad bin Aws narrates that when the siege of Hadhrat

Uthmaan’s house became too difficult, he peeped out to see the people and said, "O servants of Allaah!" Hadhrat Shaddaad says that he then saw Hadhrat Ali bin Abi Taalib outside his house wearing the turban of Rasulullah and his sword around his neck. In front of him was Hadhrat Hasan, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar and a group of the Muhaajireen and Ansaar. They launched an assault on the rebels (surrounding the house) and dispersed them all. They then entered the house where Hadhrat Ali said to Hadhrat Uthmaan, "As Salaamu Alayka, O Ameerul Mu'mineen! Verily Rasulullah did not attain this (dominance) until he struck those who turned away with those who came forward. By Allaah! I believe that these people want nothing but to kill you, so issue the command for us to fight them. Hadhrat Uthmaan said, "In the name of Allaah do I implore a person who acknowledges the right he owes to Allaah and the right he owes to me that he should not spill even a cupping-glass of blood because of me and that he should not even spill his own blood because of me."

When Hadhrat Ali repeated his request, Hadhrat Uthmaan gave the same reply. Hadhrat Ali then left the house saying, "O Allaah! You know well that we have tried our level best." He then entered the Masjid, where it was time to perform salaah. "O Abul Hasan!" the people said to him, "Go forward and lead the salaah." Hadhrat Ali replied, "I shall not lead you in salaah when your Imaam is under siege. I shall rather perform salaah by myself." He then performed the salaah by himself and then went to his house. His son met him and said, "Dear father! I swear by Allaah that the rebels have barged into the house." Hadhrat Ali sighed, "Innaa Lillaahi wa Innaa Ilayhi Raaji'oOn! By Allaah! They will certainly martyr him." Some people asked, "O Abul Hasan! Where will Hadhrat Uthmaan be (when they martyr him)?" He replied, "In Jannah. I swear by Allaah that he will enjoy an extremely close position to Allaah." Then they asked, "And where will they (the murderers) be, O Abu Hasan?" Hadhrat Ali trice repeated, "By Allaah! They will be in Hell." (1)

The Narration of Abu Salama bin Abdur Rahmaan in this Regard

Hadhrat Abu Salama bin Abdur Rahmaan reports that Hadhrat Abu Qataadah and another person went to Hadhrat Uthmaan while his house was under siege. They requested permission to proceed for Hajj and he granted them permission. They then asked, "With whom should we affiliate if these rebels gain the upper hand?" Hadhrat Uthmaan replied, "Stick with the majority." They then asked, "But what if these rebels who gain the upper hand form the majority? Who then should we affiliate with?" Hadhrat Uthmaan repeated, "Stick with the majority wherever they may be."

The narrators say, "We were leaving when we met Hasan bin Ali at the door as he was going to Uthmaan. We returned with him to hear what he had to say. He greeted Uthmaan and then said, 'O Ameerul Mu'mineen! Command us to do as you wish.' Uthmaan replied, 'Dear nephew! Go and sit in your home until Allaah brings His decision to pass.' When he left, we left with him but then met Ibn Umar at the door as he was going to Uthmaan. We returned with him to hear what he had to say. He greeted Uthmaan and then said, 'O Ameerul Mu'mineen! I had been in the company of Rasulullaah and I listened and obeyed. Thereafter, I had been in the company of Abu Bakr and I listened and obeyed. After that, I had been in the company of Umar and I also listened and obeyed, dutifully acknowledging his rights as my father and as the Khalifah. I am now present to obey you, O Ameerul Mu'mineen. Command us to do as you wish.' Hadhrat Uthmaan twice repeated, 'May Allaah reward you with the best rewards, O family of Umar.' He then added, 'However, I do not need blood to be spilt.'

The Narration of Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah in this Regard

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah says, "I was under siege with Uthmaan in his house when one of our men was struck by an arrow. I said, 'O Ameerul Mu'mineen! Now that one of our men has been killed, it is alright for us to fight back.' He replied, 'O Abu Hurayrah! I strictly command you to throw down your sword. It is my life that is wanted and am prepared to save the Mu'mineen by giving my own life.' I then threw away my sword and do not know where it is to this day." (2)

The Advice that Hadhrat Ali bin Abi Taalib Gave

His Letter to his Governors

Hadhrat Muhaajir Aamiri narrates that in the letter of appointment that Hadhrat Ali bin Abi Taalib wrote to some governors of certain towns, he wrote:
"Never be away from the populace for an extended period of time because when governors are away from the populace, it frustrates the people and reduces his knowledge of their affairs. In fact, by being away (and not interacting with the people), the governors will have no knowledge about that which they had been absent from. As a result of this, small things (and people) will seem big to them while big things (and people) will seem small to them. In a like manner, they will see evil as being good, good as evil and confuse the truth with falsehood. A governor is after all a human and had no idea about what people hide from him and their mere speech bears no indications by which the truth can be deciphered from falsehood. A governor should therefore guard against interferences in people's rights by reducing his absence (he should make himself accessible so that he can remain in touch with affairs and will not be misled into abusing the rights of people). You are either one of two persons. You may be a person who has a magnanimous nature and who always gives where it is right. In that case, why should you remain aloof from people, thereby refraining from giving them what is rightful and from displaying your generous disposition? On the other hand, you may be a miserly person. In that case, people will very soon stay away from you and stop asking from you when they give up hope of receiving anything. However, most of the needs people will ask from you require no effort on your part because it will either be a complaint of injustice or an appeal for justice (in this case also you have nothing to fear and therefore have no need to keep aloof from them). Reap full benefit from what I have described. I shall suffice with these few words which will Inshaa Allaah benefit and guide you." (1)

(1) Abu Ahmad, as quoted in Riyaadun Nudhra Fi Munaajibil Ashara (Vol.2 Pg.128).
(2) Abu Umar, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.9 Pg.129).

Another of His Letters to his Governors

Hadrat Madaa'ini reports that Hadrat Ali wrote the following letter to some of his governors:

"Slow down and imagine that you have reached your death and that your actions have been presented before you in a place where a person is deceived by the world will lament, where the one who wasted his life will wish he had repented and where the oppressor would wish to return to the world (to redress the wrong he did)." (2)

His Advice to the Governor of Ukbara

A man from the Thaqeef tribe narrates that Hadrat Ali once appointed him as governor of Ukbara. While the local people of the area were with him, Hadrat Ali advised him saying, "The people of rural Iraq are deceitful people so beware that they never deceive you. Also ensure that you take all that is due from them."

He then told the man to see him that evening and when he did, Hadrat Ali said, "I had mentioned to you what I did so that those people should hear it. Never lash any one of them for a Dirham and never punish them by letting them stand in the sun. You should also never take from them a goat or a cow. We have been commanded only to take from them what is extra (not difficult for them to give). Do you know what is extra? It is obedience." (3)

Another narration states that Hadrat Ali said, "Never sell off their grains, their summer and winter clothing or their animals of labour. Never make any of them stand in the sun (as punishment) to receive a Dirham." The man said, "In that case, O Ameerul Mu'mineen, I shall return to you as I have left (without receiving anything from them)." Hadrat Ali said, "Even if you have to return as you have left (it matters not) because we have been commanded to take from them only what is more than their needs." (4)

The Advice that the Populace give to their Rulers

The Advice that Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Aamir gave to Ameerul Mu'mineen Hadhrat Umar

Hadhrat Makhool states a Sahabi of Rasulullaah by the name of Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Aamir bun Judhaym Jumhi once told Hadhrat Umar that he wished to offer some advice. "Certainly! Go ahead," Hadhrat Umar told him. Hadhrat Sa'eed then said, "I advise you to fear Allaah when dealing with the people. Never let your words and deeds contradict each other because the best of words are those that are confirmed by actions. Never pass two conflicting judgements for one matter, for then conflicts will arise and you will turn away from the truth. If you accept the position that is backed by evidence, you will be successful, Allaah will assist you and reform your citizens for you. Devote your attention and your judgements for those Muslims over whom Allaah has made you the ruler, whether they are far away or close by. Like for them what you would like for yourself and for your family and dislike for them what you would dislike for yourself and for your family. Dive deep to extract the truth and never fear the condemnation of anyone who condemns what you have done for Allaah."

Hadhrat Umar asked, "Who can possibly do this?" Hadhrat Sa'eed replied, "Someone like yourself whom Allaah has given charge over the Ummah of Muhammad and who will not allow anyone to come between himself and Allaah." (1)

The Narration of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Buraydah in this Regard

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Buraydah narrates that Hadhrat Umar once gathered the people upon the arrival of a delegation. He then said to Azina bin Arqam, "Look out for the Sahabah of Rasulullaah and allow them in first. You may then allow the groups after them to come in. when the people gathered and formed rows before Hadhrat Umar, he looked at them all. When his gaze fell on a hefty man wearing a patterned shawl, he motioned him to come forward. When the man came forward, Hadhrat Umar thrice said to him, "Say something." However, each one of the three times the man said, "No, you say something." Eventually, Hadhrat Umar said, "Shame on you! Stand up." The man stood up (and left).

When Hadhrat Umar again looked at the people, he noticed an Ash'ari. The man was fair in complexion, slender, short and languid. When Hadhrat Umar motioned to him, he came forward. "Say something," Hadhrat Umar said. "You rather say something," the man responded. When Hadhrat

(1) Ibn Sa'd and Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.390).
Umar again asked him to say something, the man said, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! You start a conversation and we will talk." Hadhrat Umar said, "Shame on you! Stand up. A sheep herder (like myself) can never be of any use to you?" The man stood up (and left).

When Hadhrat Umar again looked at the people, his eyes fell on a man who was also fair in complexion and thin. Hadhrat Umar motioned to him and he also came forward. When Hadhrat Umar asked him to say something, he jumped to the occasion. He praised Allaah, spoke about Allaah and then said, "You have been given charge of this Ummah, so fear Allaah with regard to the position you have been given over the Ummah and your citizens. Fear Allaah especially with regard to your personal self because you will be taken to task and questioned. You are in a position of trust and are responsible to fulfill what you have been entrusted with. You will be rewarded only according to what you do."

Hadhrat Umar then said, "Since I became the Khalifah no one besides you has ever spoken so frankly to me. Who are you?" "I am Rabee bin Ziyaad," he replied. "The brother of Muhaajir bin Ziyaad?" Hadhrat Umar asked. 'Yes," came the reply. Hadhrat Umar then prepared some troops. He appointed the Ash'ari as commander and said to him, "Watch Rabee bin Ziyaad. If he proves true to his word, he will be of great help in your task. You may then also appoint him to a post of leadership; You should then inspect him every ten days and write to me about his conduct as a leader in so much detail that I can feel as if I had appointed him." Hadhrat Umar then added, "Rasulullaah once advised us, 'What I fear most for you after me is the hypocrite with the tongue of a knowledgeable person.'"(1)

The Letter that Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah and Hadhrat Mu'aadh Wrote to Hadhrat Umar and his Response

Hadhrat Muhammad bin Sooqa reports that he once went to Hadhrat Nu'aym bin Abu Hind who took out a paper on which the following was written:

"From Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah and Mu'aadh bin Jabal to Umar bin Khattaab.

We have observed that you are always concerned about your self reformation. You have now been given charge of this Ummah, Arabs and non-Arabs alike. You have before you people who are noble and ignoble as well as people who are enemies and those who are friends. Each of them should have their share of justice. O Umar! You should therefore watch how you deal with all of them. We caution you about a day when faces will be cast down, hearts will dry up (with fear) and all evidence will hold no weight against the evidence of the Sovereign Whose supremacy overpowers all of them. All of creation will stand before Him in humility, hoping for His mercy and fearing His punishment. We have been informed of a Hadith stating that towards the end of time the condition of this Ummah will retrogress to the extent that on the surface people will be friends but are actually enemies on the inside. We seek refuge in Allaah that this letter of ours should be interpreted to mean what our hearts never intended to mean. We have written this only to give you good advice.

Hadhrat Umar wrote the following letter back to the two:
From Umar bin Khattaab to Abu Ubaydah and Mu'aadh.

Your letter has reached me in which you state that you two have observed that I have always been concerned about my self reformation. (You mentioned) 'You have now been given charge of this Ummah, Arabs and non-Arabs alike. You have before you people who are noble and ignoble as well as people who are enemies and those who are friends. Each of them should have their share of justice.' You have also stated, 'O Umar! You should therefore watch how you deal with all of them.' However, Umar has neither the power nor the strength to do any of this without the help of Allaah. You have also cautioned me about something that all the nations before us were cautioned about. Since ancient times have the days and nights been interchanging with the deaths of people continuing. This system draws closer those who are far, makes every new thing old, brings every promise to pass and will continue until people have reached their places in Jannah or Jahannam. You have also warned me saying that towards the end of time the condition of this Ummah will retrogress to the extent that on the surface people will be friends but are actually enemies on the inside. However, the two of you are not like this, neither is this that period of time. That will be a period when people will have great motivation and also great fear. However, their motivation to meet each other will be solely to improve their lot in this world. You have also written to seek refuge in Allaah that your letter should be interpreted to mean what your hearts never intended to mean. You say that you had written the letter only to give me good advice. You are both true and should never stop writing to me because I cannot do without the two of you.

The Advice of Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah

His advice to the Muslims at the Time of his Death in Jordan

Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Musayyib says that when Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah

was afflicted by the plague in Jordan, he summoned all the Muslims with him and said, "I am about to give you some advices which will keep you on the path of righteousness if you accept them. Establish salaah, fast during the month of Ramadhaan, pay Zakaah, perform Hajj, perform Umrah, encourage each other (to do good), wish well for your leaders, never deceive them and never let the world preoccupy you (from preparing for the Aakhirah). Even if a person is given a life of a thousand years, he will have no option but to head towards the falling place (death) that you see. Allaah has decreed death for the children of Aadam and therefore they will all have to die. The wisest of them is he who is most obedient to his Rabb and who works the most for the day for his return (to Allaah).

Lead the salaah, O Mu'aadh bin Jabal.

When Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah passed away, Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Jabal addressed the people saying, "O people! Repent to Allaah for your sins because when a servant meets Allaah after having repented for his sins, Allaah has to forgive him. Whoever has debts should settle them because a person will be detained because of his debts (and will not be allowed to move on the Day of Qiyaamah until he settles them by paying with his good deeds). Whoever has broken ties with his brother should meet him and reconcile with him for it behoves not a Muslim to severe ties with his brother for more than three days. O Muslims! You have been given the shocking news of the death of a great man. I do not think that I have seen any servant of Allaah with a more righteous heart than his, who was further from evil than he, who had more love for the masses than he and who was more well wishing than he had been. You should therefore pray to Allaah to shower His mercy on him and present yourselves for his Janaazah salaah." (1)

The Lives of the Khulafaa and Leaders

The Life of Hadhrat Abu Bakr Siddeeq

His Life Before Becoming the Khalifah and Afterwards

Ibn Sa'd has combined Ahadeeth reported by Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar, Hadhrat Aa'isha, Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Musayyib and others to relate that people pledged their allegiance to Hadhrat Abu Bakr on the day that Rasulullaah passed away, which was Monday 12th Rabee-ul Awwal 11 A.H. He was then living in the area of Sunh with his wife Hadhrat Habeebah bint Khaarija bin Zaid bin Abu Zuhayr who belonged to the Haarith bin Khazraj tribe. He lived in a tent woven from animal hairs and did not add to this until he moved to his house in Madinah. He continued living here in Sunh for six months after becoming the Khalifah and would walk in the mornings to Madinah. He sometimes also rode to Madinah on his horse and he wore only a loin cloth and a shawl that was dyed a reddish colour. He would come to Madinah to lead the people in salah and return to his family in Sunh after performing the Isha salah. Whenever he came, he would lead the people in salah but when he could not make it, Hadhrat Umar would lead the salah. On Fridays he used to remain at home during the morning to apply henna to his head and beard and then arrive (in Madinah) at the time of the Jumu'ah salah when he would lead the people in salah.

He was a businessman by trade and would proceed to the marketplace every morning to buy and sell. He also had a flock of goats that would come to him in the evenings. He sometimes took them out himself for grazing and sometimes had someone else graze them. He used to milk goats for the people of his locality so when he became the Khalifah, a little girl said, "Now there will be none to milk our animals." When he heard her saying this, Hadhrat Abu Bakr said, "Why not! I swear by my life that I shall definitely still milk for you. I hope that what I have entered into will never change the personality I always had." He then continued milking for the people and would sometimes say to the little girl of the locality, "Dear girl! Would you like me to make the milk foamy or without foam?" At times she would ask for foamy milk while at times she asked for it to have no foam. He then did exactly as she asked.

In this way, he stayed in Sunh for six months, after which he moved into Madinah. When he started living there, he thought about his post and said, "By Allaah! The affairs of the people can never be set right if I am to continue with my trade. Their affairs can be rectified only if I free myself from trade and look into their matters. However, my family still needs their necessities." He then left trade and drew from the public treasury only what he required for himself and his family for each day and what he needed for performing Hajj and Umrah. Those in charge of the public treasury fixed an amount of six thousand Dirhams per annum for him.

When he was on his deathbed, Hadhrat Abu Bakr said, "Return to the public treasury whatever of its money we have in our possession because I do not wish to derive any benefit from it." He also instructed that a certain piece of land he owned should be given to the Muslims (the public treasury) in lieu of the money he had been using from there. (After he passed away) The land, a milk-giving camel, a slave who sharpened swords and a shawl valued at five Dirhams were all handed over to Hadhrat Umar. Hadhrat Umar said, "Abu Bakr has set a difficult example for his successors to follow."

In the year 11 A.H., Hadhrat Abu Bakr appointed Hadhrat Umar as the Ameer of Hajj and performed Umrah in Rajab of the year 12 A.H. Hadhrat Abu Bakr arrived in Makkah at midmorning and when he went to his residence, (his father) Abu Quhaafa was sitting at the door talking to some youngsters. When someone said to him that his son had arrived, Hadhrat
Abu Quhaafa quickly started to stand up. Hadhrat Abu Bakr hurried to seat his camel and jumped off while it was still standing as he said, "Do not stand, dear father!" He then met his father, hugged him and kissed him between his eyes. The old man then burst out crying out of joy at his son's arrival.

The governor of Makkah Hadhrat Attab bin Usayd, Suhayl bin Amr, Ikrama bin Abu Jahal and Haarib bin Hishaam all came to greet Hadhrat Abu Bakr saying, "As Salaamu Alaykum, O Khalifah of Rasulullaah!" When they all shook his hands and when they spoke of Rasulullaah, Hadhrat Abu Bakr started weeping. When they all greeted Hadhrat Abu Quhaafa, he said, "O Ateeq (a title of Hadhrat Abu Bakr)! These are all leaders, so do treat them well." Hadhrat Abu Bakr said, "Dear father! There is no power (to do good) and no strength (to abstain from evil) except with the help of Allaah. I have been charged with an extremely great task which I have no power to fulfil without the assistance of Allaah."

He then entered the house, took a bath and then emerged. When his companions started following him, he bade them to disperse telling them, "Walk calmly (there is no need to stay behind me)." People started meeting him and walking with him. As they sympathised with him over the demise of Rasulullaah, he wept bitterly. When he reached the Kabah, he threw his upper garment under his right shoulder (so that it is exposed), kissed the Black Stone and then completed seven circuits around the Kabah. Thereafter, he performed two Rakaahs salaah and returned to the house.

Hadrat Abu Bakr came out again at the time Zuhr and again performed Tawaaf. He then sat close to Daarun Nadwa and said, "Is there anyone who wishes to lodge a complaint of injustice or who wants to demand a right?" However, no one came forward and they all praised their governor. He then performed the Asr salaah and remained sitting for the people to greet him. Thereafter, he left for Madinah.

When Hajj arrived in 12 A.H., Hadhrat Abu Bakr led the people in Hajj. He performed the Itraad Hajj (donned the Ihraam only for Hajj and not for Umrah) and appointed Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Affaan as his deputy in Madinah.(1)

The Incident of Hadhrat Umayr bin Sa'd Ansaari

The Incident When Hadhrat Umar appointed him as Governor of Hims

Hadrat Antara narrates from Hadhrat Umayr bin Sa'd Ansaari that Hadhrat Umar send him to be the governor of Hims but after a year had still not received any news from him. Hadhrat Umar then said to his(1) Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.131). Allaama Ibn Katheer has stated that the chain of narrators is sound, that numerous other narrations support the content and that it has been widely accepted.
scribe, "Write a letter to Umayr. By Allaah! I feel that he has betrayed us!" The following was then sent to Hadhrat Umayr ﷺ:
"Come here as soon as this letter reaches you. When you look at this letter, you should immediately come with all the booty of the Muslims that you have collected."

Hadhrat Umayr ﷺ then took his leather bag, put his journey's provisions and a dish into it and hung his water bag onto it. He also took his spear with him and left Hims on foot. When he arrived in Madinah, he was pale, his face was covered in dust and his hair was very long. He went to Hadhrat Umar ﷺ and greeted him saying, "Peace be on you, O Ameerul Mu'mineen together with Allaah's mercy and His blessings." "What is wrong with you?" asked Hadhrat Umar ﷺ. Hadhrat Umayr ﷺ responded by saying, "What do you see wrong in me? Do you not see that I am in good health, with pure blood and that I am dragging the world along with its horns?" Thinking that he had brought much wealth along, Hadhrat Umar ﷺ asked, "What do you have with you?" Hadhrat Umayr ﷺ replied, "I have my bag with me in which I have my provisions. I have my dish in which I eat and wash my hair and clothes in. I also have my water bag in which I carry the water for my wudhu and for drinking. Then I have my spear from which I take support and use to fight off any enemy that confronts me. By Allaah! The world is dependent only on these possessions of mine (they are enough for all my needs)."

Hadhrat Umar ﷺ then asked, "Have you come walking?" When Hadhrat Umayr ﷺ replied in the affirmative, Hadhrat Umar ﷺ said, "Was there no one who could lend you their animal to ride?" Hadhrat Umayr ﷺ replied, "Neither did they offer nor did I ask." "What terrible Muslims you have come from!" Hadhrat Umar ﷺ exclaimed. Hadhrat Umayr ﷺ cautioned, "Fear Allaah, O Umar! Allaah has prohibited us from backbiting and I have seen them perform their Fajr salaah (those who perform their Fajr salaah are in the custody of Allaah and none should harm them in any way, physically or verbally)."

Hadhrat Umar ﷺ then asked him, "Where did I send you? (Tabraani reports that he asked, "Where is that for which I had sent you?") what have you done there?" "What are you asking?" queried Hadhrat Umayr ﷺ. "Subhaanallaah!" gasped Hadhrat Umar ﷺ. Hadhrat Umayr ﷺ then explained, "Were it not for the fear that it would depress you, I would not have informed you. However, you sent me and I reached the place, I then gathered all the pious people from amongst them and charged them with collecting the booty of the Muslims. When they had done so, I spent it all in the appropriate avenues. Had there been a share for you in it, I would have surely brought it to you." "Then you have brought back nothing?" asked Hadhrat Umar ﷺ. "Nothing at all," came the reply. Hadhrat Umar ﷺ then issued the command for Hadhrat Umayr ﷺ's term as governor to be renewed. However, Hadhrat Umayr ﷺ submitted, "This (being a governor) is something that I can neither do for you nor for anyone else after you. By Allaah! I have not been saved (from the evils of governorship). I once said to a Christian woman, 'May Allaah humiliate you!' This is the evil that you have exposed me to, O Umar. The worst of my days were those in which I stayed behind (in this world without dying earlier) with you, O Umar. Hadhrat Umayr  gün then sought leave and Hadhrat Umar  gün granted it. He then returned to his home, which lay a few miles outside Madinah.

After Hadhrat Umayr  gün had left, Hadhrat Umar  gün said, "I still think that he has betrayed us (he has brought back much wealth and kept it at his house)." Hadhrat Umar  gün then gave a hundred Dinaars (gold coins) to a man called Haarith and sent him with the instructions, "Go to Umayr as if you are a guest. If you see signs of a good life, return to me immediately. However, if you see him in extreme poverty, give him these hundred Dinaars. When Hadhrat Haarith arrived at the house, he found Hadhrat Umayr  gün sitting against a wall and removing lice from his upper garment. Haarith greeted Hadhrat Umayr  gün, who said to him, "Why not dismount, may Allaah have mercy on you." Hadhrat Haarith dismounted and Hadhrat Umayr  gün asked him, "Where are you coming from?" When Hadhrat Haarith replied that he was coming from Madinah, Hadhrat Umayr  gün asked, "How was the Ameerul Mu'mineen when you left?" "He was fine," replied Hadhrat Haarith. "And how were the Muslims?" was the next question. "They were also fine," Hadhrat Haarith replied. "Does the Ameerul Mu'mineen enforce the penal code?" asked Hadhrat Umayr  gün. "Oh yes," responded Hadhrat Haarith, "he even lashed his son who had done wrong, because of which he died." (This was not so because he died of natural causes a month after the lashing.) Hadhrat Umayr  gün prayed, "O Allaah! Assist Umar because as far as I know, he has great love for You." Hadhrat Haarith then stayed there for three days. The family had nothing to eat besides a loaf of barley bread, which they fed to Hadhrat Haarith while they stayed hungry. Eventually, when the hunger was too much for them to bear, Hadhrat Umayr  gün said to Hadhrat Haarith, "Your presence has caused us hunger, so if you can, would you please go somewhere else?"

Hadhrat Haarith then took out the hundred Dinaars and handed it to Hadhrat Umayr  gün saying, "The Ameerul Mu'mineen has sent this for you, so use it." Hadhrat Umayr  gün sighed deeply and said, "I have no need for this. Take it back." His wife then came and said, "Use it if you need it, otherwise spent it where it should be spent." Hadhrat Umayr  gün said, "By Allaah! I have nothing to spend it on." His wife then tore off the bottom part of her scarf and gave it to him. He put the money in the piece of cloth and then went out to spend the money on the children of the martyrs and the poor. He then returned. Hadhrat Haarith thought that Hadhrat Umayr  gün would give him also something, but all that Hadhrat Umayr  gün said was, "Convey my Salaams to the Ameerul Mu'mineen."

When Hadhrat Haarith returned, Hadhrat Umar  gün asked, "What did you see?" "O Ameerul Mu'mineen!" Hadhrat Haarith replied, "I see an extremely difficult life." "What did he do with the Dinaars?" Hadhrat Umar asked enquired. "I did not know," submitted Hadhrat Haarith. Hadhrat Umar then wrote to Hadhrat Umayr with instructions to come to him without even putting the letter down. When Hadhrat Umayr arrived and went to see Hadhrat Umar, the Ameerul Mu'mineen asked, "What did you do with the Dinaars?" Hadhrat Umayr replied, "I did what I had to do with it. Why should you ask about it?" Hadhrat Umar demanded, "I command you in the name of Allaah to tell me what you did with it!" Hadhrat Umayr then responded by saying, "I sent it ahead (to the Aakhirah) for myself." "May Allaah shower his mercy on you!" exclaimed Hadhrat Umar. Hadhrat Umar then issued instructions for Hadhrat Umayr to be given two Wasaqs of grain and two sets of clothing. Hadhrat Umayr said, "I have no need for the food because I have at home two Saa of barley and Allaah will provide more when I have eaten that." He therefore did not take the food. With regard to the clothing he said, "A certain person's mother has no clothes (I shall give it to her)." He then took it and returned home. It was not long afterwards that he passed away. May Allaah shower His mercies on him.

When Hadhrat Umar received the news, he was extremely distressed and prayed to Allaah to shower His mercy on Hadhrat Umayr. Hadhrat Umar then walked to Baqee Gharqad (the graveyard of Madinah) and was accompanied by many others walking with him. Hadhrat Umar said to those with him, "Express your wishes." Someone said, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! I wish that I had plenty of wealth so that I could buy and set free so many slaves." Another person said, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! I wish that I had a lot of wealth to spend in the path of Allaah." Someone else said, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! I wish that I had a lot of strength so that I may draw buckets of water to give the people performing Hajj." Hadhrat Umar then expressed his wish when he said, "I wish that I had a person like Umayr bin Sa'd to assist me in administering the affairs of the Muslims."(1)

The Incident of Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Aamir bin Hudhaym Jumhi

His Behaviour as the Governor of Hims

Hadhrat Khaalid bin Ma'daan narrates that Hadhrat Umar appointed Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Aamir bin Judhaym as their governor in Hims. When Hadhrat Umar visited Hims, he asked, "O people of Hims! How have you found your governor?" The people then started complaining about him. Hims was termed 'small Kufa' because of the complaints they always had against their governors (the people of Kufa are noted for this). The people said, "We have four complaints against him. He does not come out to us until nearly half the day has passed." "That is a serious complaint," remarked Hadhrat Umar ﷺ, "What else?" They continued, "He does not see anyone at night." "Another serious complaint," Hadhrat Umar ﷺ commented, "What else?" They said, "There is a day in every month when he does not come out at all." Hadhrat Umar ﷺ said, "That is also serious. What else?" They concluded by saying, "At times he suffers bouts of unconsciousness and appears to be dead."

Hadrath Umar ﷺ then brought the people of Hims and Hadhrat Sa'eed ﷺ together and prayed, "O Allaah! Do not allow my opinion of him to fail."

He then asked the people to lodge their complaints. They said, "He does not come out to us until nearly half the day has passed." Hadhrat Sa'eed ﷺ exclaimed, "By Allaah! I do not want to speak about this but the fact of the matter is that I do not have a servant. I therefore knead the dough myself, wait for it to rise and then bake my bread. Thereafter, I perform wudhu and go out." Hadrath Umar ﷺ again asked, "What is your complaint?" The people said, "He does not see anyone at night." "What have you to say about this?" Hadhrat Umar ﷺ asked. Hadhrat Sa'eed ﷺ replied, "I would also not like to mention this but I reserve the day for the people and the night for Allaah."

"What is your next complaint?" Hadrath Umar ﷺ asked them. They said, "There is a day in every month when he does not come out at all." "What have you to say about this?" Hadhrath Umar ﷺ asked. Hadhrat Sa'eed ﷺ replied, "Because I have no servant, I have to wash my clothes myself and have nothing else to change into. I therefore wash my clothes and then wait for them to dry. Because they are thick, they become firm and I have to rub them before they soften up. This takes the entire day and I am then only able to see the people by the evening."

Hadrath Umar ﷺ again asked, "What is your complaint?" The people said, "At times he suffers bouts of unconsciousness and appears to be dead." "What have you to say about this?" Hadhrath Umar ﷺ asked him. Hadhrat Sa'eed ﷺ replied, "I was present in Makkah when Khubayb Ansaari ﷺ was martyred. The Quraysh had cut his flesh in pieces and when they crucified him, they asked, 'Do you wish that Muhammad was here with us in your place?' He replied, 'I swear by Allaah that I would not even like a thorn to prick Muhammad ﷺ where he is while I am sitting with my family.' He then called out, 'O Muhammad ﷺ!' Whenever I recall that day and the fact that I did nothing to help him and that I was a Mushrik who did not believe in Allaah, I think that Allaah will never forgive me for that sin. It is then that I fall unconscious."

Hadrath Umar ﷺ then exclaimed, "All praise is due to Allaah Who has not made my intuition fail."

Hadrath Umar ﷺ then sent a thousand Dinaars for Hadhrat Sa'eed ﷺ saying, "Use it for yourself." His wife exclaimed, "All praise is due to Allaah Who has made us independent of your work!" He said, "Do you not want something better than this? That we give this to whoever will bring it back to us at a time that we will need it even more desperately (on the Day of Qiyaamah)." When she happily agreed, Hadhrat Sa'eed called someone from his family whom he trusted and placed the Dinaars into several bags. He then instructed the man to take one bag to a certain widow, another to a certain orphan, another to a certain poor person and another to a certain distressed person. This was done until there remained only a few Dinaars. He then (gave this to his wife and) said, "Spend this." Thereafter, he continued the activities of the governorship. She said, "Will you not get us a servant then? What has happened to the wealth?" Hadhrat Sa'eed replied, "It will come to you at a time when you need it most (in the Aakhirah)." (1)

The Incident of Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah

Hadhrat Tha'labbin Abu Maalik Qurazi says, "It was during the period that Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah was the governor (of Madinah) for Marwaan that he came to the marketplace carrying a bundle of wood. He joked, 'Widen the road for the Ameer, 0 Ibn Abu Maalik!' 'But the road is wide enough for you,' I quipped. He the said, 'Widen the road for the Ameer with the bundle on his head.'" (2)

Chapter Eight

The Chapter About How the Sahabah Spent in the Path of Allaah

This chapter highlights how Rasulullaah and the Sahabah spent their wealth and everything that Allaah granted them in the path of Allaah and in avenues where Allaah's pleasure is found. The chapter also highlights how they loved this more than spending on themselves and how they preferred others above themselves even though they suffered poverty.

The Encouragement Rasulullaah gave and the Fervour the Sahabah had for Spending in the Path of Allaah

The Encouragement that Rasulullaah Gave to Spend in the Path of Allaah

The Narration of Hadhrat Jareer in this Regard

Hadhrat Jareer reports that they were once with Rasulullaah one morning when some people belonging to the Mudar tribe arrived. They were barefoot and practically naked. All they had were striped shawls or cloaks and their swords hanging from their necks. The expression on Rasulullaah's face actually changed when he saw their poverty. He then went into his room and when he emerged, he gave instructions to Hadhrat Bilaal, who duly called out the Adhaan and then the Iqaamah. After Rasulullaah led the salaah, he addressed the people with the following verses of the Qur'aan:

O mankind! Fear your Rabb who created you from a single soul (from Aadam), created its spouse (Hawwa) from it, and spread great numbers of men and women from the two (from Aadam and Hawwa). Fear that Allaah in Whom (in Whose name) you ask (things and take... promises) from each other and (fear breaking) family ties. Verily Allaah is Watchful over you. {Surah Nisaa, verse 1}

Fear Allaah and let every soul see (consider) what (good deeds) it has sent ahead for tomorrow (to be rewarded on the Day of Qiyaamah).
{Surah Hashar, verse 18}

Rasulullaah then continued to say, "A man should therefore contribute something from his Dinaars, from his Dirhams, from his clothing, from his Saa of barley, from his Saa of dates. Rasulullaah continued until he said, "Even if it be a piece of a date (Everyone ought to give something regardless of how little it is).

An Ansaari Sahabi then brought a bag (of food, that was so full) that he could not even carry it. Hadhrat Jaabir says, "The others soon followed suit until I saw two heaps of food and clothing and I saw the face of Rasulullaah gleam as if it were a piece of gold. Rasulullaah then said, 'Whoever starts a good practice in Islaam will receive the reward for it in addition to the rewards of all those who do the same after him without any of their rewards being diminished in the least. On the contrary, whoever starts an evil practice in Islaam will be burdened with the sin of it in addition to the sins of all those who do the same after him without the burden of any of their sins being lightened in the least.' (1)

Ahadeeth discussing the encouragement that Rasulullaah gave to the Sahabah to spend in the path of Allaah have already passed. (2)

A Narration from Hadhrat Jaabir in this Regard

Hadhrat Jaabir narrates that it was a Wednesday when Rasulullaah visited the Banu Amr bin Auf tribe. The Hadith continues to the point where Rasulullaah said, "O assembly of Ansaar!" The Ansaar responded by saying, "We are at your service, O Rasulullaah!" Rasulullaah then addressed them saying, "During the Period of Ignorance when you were not worshipping Allaah, you used to bear the burdens of others, engage your wealth in good deeds and care for travellers. However, now that Allaah has blessed you with Islaam and His Nabi, you are suddenly locking away your wealth (whereas you should be spending even more now). There are rewards for whatever man eats (from your property) and there are also rewards for whatever birds eat." The Ansaar then went to their orchards and each one of them made thirty doors leading into their orchards. (3)

The Sermon of Rasulullaah concerning the Virtues of Generosity and the Abomination of Miserliness

Hadrat Anas narrates that in the first sermon that Rasulullaah delivered, he praised Allaah and then said, "O people! Verily Allaah has chosen Islaam to be your religion so enhance your relationship with Islaam by generosity and good character. Take note that generosity is a tree in Jannah that has its branches in this world. Therefore, whoever is generous continues attaching himself to one of its branches until it eventually transports him to Jannah. Behold! Miserliness is a tree of Jahannam that has its branches in this world. Therefore, whoever is miserly attaches himself to its branches until it eventually plummets him into Jahannam. Be generous for Allaah's sake! Be generous for Allaah's sake!" (1)

The fervour that Rasulullaah and the Sahabah had to Spend in the Path of Allaah

The Hadith of Hadrat Umar in this Regard

Hadrat Umar narrates that a man came to ask Rasulullaah to give him something. Rasulullaah said, "I have nothing to give you, but you may give something on my name and I shall settle the payment as soon as something comes my way." Hadrat Umar then said, "O Rasulullaah! You had already given him something, (so why incur a debt when) Allaah has not charged you with what you cannot bear." Rasulullaah disliked the statement of Hadrat Umar, but then an Ansaari said, "O Rasulullaah! Continue spending without fearing any decrease from the Rabb of the Throne." The statement of the Ansaari made Rasulullaah smile and he said, "That is exactly what I have been commanded to do." (2)

A Narration from Hadrat Jaabir in this Regard

Hadrat Jaabir reports that someone came to ask Rasulullaah for something and he gave it to him. Thereafter, another person came to ask for something and (because Rasulullaah had nothing to give him) Rasulullaah promised to give him something. Hadrat Umar then stood up and (out of pity for Rasulullaah, he) said, "O Rasulullaah! When someone asked you for something, you gave it to him. Then someone else asked you for something and you gave him as well. Thereafter, another person came to ask from you and you promised to give him something. Then when another person came to ask from you, you again made a promise to give (why do you burden

Rasulullaah ﷺ seemed to dislike this statement of Hadhrat Umar ﷺ, but just then Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Hudhaafa Sahmi ﷺ stood up and said, "O Rasulullaah ﷺ! Continue spending without fearing any decrease from the Rabb of the Throne." Rasulullaah ﷺ said, "That is exactly what I have been commanded to do." (1)

The narration of Hadhrat Ibn Mas'ood ﷺ about Rasulullaah ﷺ's Instruction to Hadhrat Bilaal ﷺ to Spend

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood ﷺ reports that Rasulullaah ﷺ once went to Hadhrat Bilaal ﷺ at a time when he had a few heaps of dates before him. "What is this, Bilaal?" asked Rasulullaah ﷺ. He Bilaal ﷺ replied, "I have kept this in preparation for the guests you receive." Rasulullaah ﷺ said, "O Bilaal! Do you not fear that the smoke of Jahannam may reach you? (That you will have to account for this if you die without spending it on others?). O Bilaal! Continue spending without fearing any decrease from the Rabb of the Throne."(2)

The narration of Hadhrat Anas ﷺ Concerning What transpired Between Rasulullaah ﷺ and his Servant

Hadhrat Anas ﷺ reports that when Rasulullaah ﷺ was once given three birds as a gift, he gave one to his servant to eat. The following day, she came with the same bird to him. Rasulullaah ﷺ said, "Did I not tell you not to leave anything for the next day because Allaah provides sustenance for each coming day."(3) (4)

A narration of Hadhrat Ali ﷺ About what Transpired Between Hadhrat Umar ﷺ and the People with regards to Excess Wealth

Hadhrat Ali ﷺ reports that Hadhrat Umar ﷺ once said to the people, "We have some excess funds (what should we do with it?)." The people replied, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! Since we have kept you too busy to attend to your family and your business, you may have it for yourself." Hadhrat Umar ﷺ then asked Hadhrat Ali ﷺ, "What do you have to say?" Hadhrat Ali ﷺ replied, "The people have already given you their opinion." However, when Hadhrat Umar ﷺ insisted, Hadhrat Ali ﷺ said, "Why should you change your conviction into assumption (when you are certain that the wealth cannot be yours, why change this on the assumption that the people are right?)." Hadhrat Umar ﷺ said, "You will have to prove what you are saying." "Certainly," responded Hadhrat Ali ﷺ, "By Allaah, I can certainly prove myself. Do you recall the time when Rasulullah ﷺ sent you to collect Zakaah? Remember when you approached Abbaas bin Abdil Muttalib ﷺ and he refused to pay his Zakaah to you because there had been a problem between you and him? You then told me to accompany you to Rasulullah ﷺ to inform him about what Abbaas ﷺ did. We then went to Rasulullah ﷺ but returned because we discovered that he was feeling very cheerless. We then went back to him the following morning and when we found him in a cheerful mood, I informed him about what Abbaas ﷺ had done. He then said to you, 'Do you not realise that a person's paternal uncle is like his father?'

We then mentioned to Rasulullah ﷺ that we had found him to be cheerless on the first day but again happy on the second. He said to us, "When you came on the first day, I still had with me two Dinaars of Sadaqah funds left over and it was this that caused me to be in that mood (because I was worried that I should not die with it in my possession). However, when you came on the second day, I had already spent it and that had put me in the good mood that you saw."

Hadrat Umar ﷺ then said, "You are right. I am grateful to you for the first thing you told me (about changing conviction to assumption) and for the second thing (reminding me of the incident)." (1)

The Incident between Hadhrat Umar ﷺ and Hadhrat Ali ﷺ Concerning the Distribution of some wealth

Hadrat Talha bin Ubaydullaah ﷺ reports that some wealth once came to Hadhrat Umar ﷺ and he duly distributed it amongst the people. When some of it was left over, he consulted with the people about what to do with it. They said, "You should keep it for any needs that may arise." Hadhrat Ali ﷺ, who was also present there, remained silent without expressing any opinion. Hadhrat Umar ﷺ asked him, "What is the matter, O Abul Hasan? Why are you not saying anything?" "The people have already spoken," replied Hadhrat Ali ﷺ. When Hadhrat Umar ﷺ insisted that Hadhrat Ali ﷺ voice his opinion, Hadhrat Ali ﷺ said, "Allaah has already distributed this wealth (by detailing the recipients in the Qur'aan). The remaining amount should also be distributed likewise." Hadhrat Ali ﷺ then proceeded to mention the incident when wealth arrived from Bahrain and Rasulullah ﷺ had not yet distributed all of it when nightfall prevented him from completing. Rasulullah ﷺ then performed all his salaahs as he stayed in the Masjid (without returning home) and the concern (to complete the task) was clearly noticeable on his face until everything had been distributed. Hadhrat Umar then instructed Hadhrat Ali to complete the distribution, which he did. Hadhrat Talha says that his share from this amounted to eight hundred Dirhams. (1)

The Narration of Hadhrat Ummu Salama about the spending of Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Ummu Salama narrates, "Rasulullaah once came to me with great concern on his face. Fearing that he was in pain, I asked, 'O Rasulullaah! What is the matter that I see you so concerned?' he replied, 'It is on account of seven Dinaars that were brought to us yesterday. It is already evening and it is still lying on the edge of our bedding.' Another narration states that Rasulullaah said, "It was brought to us and we have not yet spent it (not yet given it to the needy)." (2)

The Narration of Hadhrat Sahl bin Sa'd in this Regard

Hadhrat Sahl bin Sa'd reports that Rasulullaah had seven Dinaars with him, which he left in the custody of Hadhrat Aa'isha. When Rasulullaah fell ill, he said, "O Aa'isha! Send the gold (the Dinaars) to Ali." He then fell unconscious and Hadhrat Aa'isha became preoccupied with tending to him. Rasulullaah then repeated the instruction several times but each time he fell unconscious and Hadhrat Aa'isha was again preoccupied with nursing him. Rasulullaah eventually sent for Hadhrat Ali, who then gave the Dinaars to the poor as Sadaqah.

On Tuesday evening when Rasulullaah started suffering the pangs of death, Hadhrat Aa'isha sent her lantern to a lady who was her neighbour with the message, "Please fill some oil in our lantern for us because Rasulullaah is already suffering the pangs of death." (3)

Another narration quotes that Hadhrat Aa'isha said, "During his illness, Rasulullaah instructed me give in Sadaqah some gold that we had. When he regained consciousness, Rasulullaah asked, 'What did you do?' I replied, 'Seeing the seriousness of your condition, I became preoccupied with nursing you (and was therefore unable to fulfil your request).'

Rasulullaah then asked her to bring it to him and she did so. A narrator named Abu Haazim was uncertain whether there were seven or nine Dinaars. When Hadhrat Aa'isha brought it, Rasulullaah said, "What would Muhammad think if he had to meet Allaah while this is with him? These Dinaars would have left nothing of Muhammad's trust in Allaah should it remain with him when he meets his Rabb." (4)

The narration of Hadhrat Ubaydullaah bin Abbaas

Concerning Spending wealth

Hadhrat Ubaydullaah bin Abbaas reports that Hadhrat Abu Dharr said to him, "Dear nephew! Rasulullaah was once holding me by the hand when he said, 'O Abu Dharr! If I possessed gold and silver equal to Mount Uhud to spend in the path of Allaah, I would not like to die with even a Qiraat (one-twentieth of a Dinaar) still in my possession.' I said, 'O Rasulullaah! You mean a Qintaar (a large amount equal to four thousand Dinaars)?' Rasulullaah said, 'O Abu Dharr! You are referring to a large sum while I am referring to a small amount. I desire the Aakhirah while you desire this world. It is a Qiraat that I mean.' He then repeated this to me three times." (1)

The Incident of Hadhrat Abu Dharr and Hadhrat Ka'b in the Presence of Hadhrat Uthmaan

Hadhrat Abu Dharr narrates that he once went to Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Affaan. When Hadhrat Uthmaan allowed him in, he entered with a staff in his hand. Addressing Hadhrat Ka'b Ahbaar, Hadhrat Uthmaan asked, "O Ka'b! What is your opinion of Abdur Rahmaan (bin Auf) who had left behind plenty of wealth when passed away?" Hadhrat Ka'b replied, "There shall be no reckoning in that as long as he had fulfilled the rights owed to Allaah." Hadhrat Abu Dharr struck Hadhrat Ka'b with his staff and said, "Even if I possessed gold equal to this mountain (Mount Uhud) to spend (in Sadaqah) and it is all accepted by Allaah, I would still not like to die with even six Awqiya still in my possession." Hadhrat Abu Dharr then thrice asked, "O Uthmaan! I ask you to say in the name of Allaah whether you had heard this from Rasulullaah?" Hadhrat Uthmaan confirmed that he had heard it. (2)

A detailed narration of Ghazwaan bin Abu Haatim states that Hadhrat Uthmaan asked Hadhrat Ka'b, "O Abu Is'haaq! Do you think that a person will be required to account for his wealth when he has paid the Zakaah due on it?" "No," replied Hadhrat Ka'b. Hadhrat Abu Dharr then stood up and struck Hadhrat Ka'b on the head saying, "O son of a Jewess! Do you think that after paying the Zakaah there are no other rights due from a person's wealth when Allaah has stated:

أَذْكُرُ اللَّهَ وَتَنْبَذُونَ نَفْسَكُمْ مَأْتِيَتَكُمْ لِقَلِيلٍ (سورة حشر، آية 9)

They prefer (others) above themselves (they prefer to give others) even though they are themselves in need. (3)

Allaah has also mentioned:

(1) Bazzaar, narrating from reliable sources, as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.10 Pg.239). Tabraani has also reported the narration.
(2) Ahmad. Haythami (Vol.10 Pg.239) has commented on the chain of narrators. Abu Ya'la has also reported the narration.

Out of love for Allaah, they feed the poor, the orphan and the captive. (1)

Allaah also says:

And (they are those) who have a stipulated right (have fixed a share) in their wealth for the beggar and the destitute. (2)

Hadhrat Abu Dharr then continued quoting several similar verses from the Qur'aan. (3)

The Statement of Hadhrat Umar Concerning how Hadhrat Abu Bakr was Always in the lead when it Came to Spending in Charity

Hadhrat Umar says, "Rasulullaah once instructed us to spend in charity at a time when I happened to have a considerable sum of wealth with me. I therefore said to myself, 'If there be any day when I shall beat Abu Bakr (at spending in the path of Allaah), it shall be this day.' I then brought half of all my wealth. Rasulullaah asked, 'What have you left for your family?' 'I have left something for them,' I responded. Rasulullaah repeated, 'What have you left for them?' I said, 'I have left with them as much as I have brought.' Abu Bakr then arrived with everything that he possessed. When Rasulullaah asked him what he had left for his family, he replied, 'I have left (the pleasure of) Allaah and His Rasool for them.' It was then that I declared that I will never be able to beat him at anything afterwards." (4)

The Incident of Hadhrat Uthmaan and another Man in this Regard

Hadhrat Hasan narrates that a man once said to Hadhrat Uthmaan, "You wealthy people have far superseded us (poor people) on doing good because you are able to give Sadaqah, free slaves, perform Hajj and spend in the path of Allaah." Hadhrat Uthmaan asked, "Do you envy us?" "We certainly do," the man responded. Hadhrat Uthmaan then said, "I swear by Allaah that a single Dirham that a person donates while he is in financial difficulty is better than ten thousand Dirhams given when there is still so much more left." (5)

The Incident of Hadhrat Ali and a Beggar

Hadhrat Ubaydullaah bin Muhammad bin Aa'isha narrates that when a beggar came to the Ameerul Mu'mineen Hadhrat Ali, he said to (his son) Hadhrat

His son went and later returned with the message that she said, "You had left the six Dirhams to purchase flour." Hadhrat Ali رضي الله عنه said, "The Imaan of a person cannot be true until he has more trust in that which is in Allaah's hands than that which is in his hands." He then sent a message to her to send all six Dirhams. When she did so, he gave it all to the beggar.

Hadhrat Ali رضي الله عنه had not yet even changed his posture when a man arrived selling a camel. "How much for the camel?" Hadhrat Ali رضي الله عنه asked. "A hundred and forty Dirhams," the man replied. Hadhrat Ali رضي الله عنه told the man to tie the camel by him with the understanding that he would pay for it after a while. The man tied the camel there and then left. Another man then passed by and asked who the camel belonged to. When Hadhrat Ali رضي الله عنه informed him that the camel was his, the man asked him whether he would sell it. "Certainly," replied Hadhrat Ali رضي الله عنه. "How much?" he asked. "For two hundred Dirhams," was the reply. The man agreed to buy it, handed over the two hundred Dirhams and then took the camel.

Hadhrat Ali رضي الله عنه then paid a hundred and forty Dirhams to the man whom he had promised to pay and then returned with the sixty Dirhams to (his wife) Hadhrat Faatima رضي الله عنها. (Seeing the money) She asked, "What is this?" Hadhrat Ali رضي الله عنه replied, "This is what Allaah has promised us on the lips of His Nabi ﷺ:

(من جاء بالحسنة فلله عشر أمتالها) (سورة انعام آية 160)

Whoever brings (carries out) a good act will receive ten times as much."

A Sahabi gives a Larger Camel as Zakaah

Hadhrat Ubay رضي الله عنه narrates, "Rasulullaah ﷺ once sent me to collect Zakaah. I passed by a man and when he gathered all his wealth together, I calculated that all that was due from him was a one-year old male camel. I therefore said to him, 'Give me a one-year old male camel because that is all that is due from you.' He said, 'But such a camel neither gives milk nor can it be used for transport or loading. Why don't you rather take this young, large and fat she-camel.' I said to him, 'I cannot accept anything that I was not instructed to take. However, Rasulullaah ﷺ is not far from you, so if you wish you may make the same offer to him. If he accepts the offer, I shall accept and if he rejects, I shall do the same.' The man agreed to do so and left with me, taking along the camel that he had offered to give. When we came to Rasulullaah ﷺ, the man said, 'O Nabi of Allaah ﷺ! Your messenger came to me to take the Zakaah due on my wealth. By Allaah! Never before has the Rasool of Allaah ﷺ or any messenger ever come to collect my Zakaah. When I gathered together all my wealth for him, he calculated that all that was due from me was a one-year old male camel, whereas such an animal neither gives milk nor can it be used for transport or loading. However, when I offered him to rather take this large and young she-camel, he refused to take it. Here is she now. I have brought her to you, O Rasulullaah ﷺ. Rasulullaah ﷺ said to him, 'Although all that was due from you was the one-year old camel, if you wish to give something extra, Allaah will reward you for it and we shall accept it from you.' Here is she now, O Rasulullaah ﷺ, ' the man said, 'I have brought her to you, so do take her.' Rasulullaah ﷺ then instructed someone to take the camel and prayed for the man’s wealth to be blessed.(1)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr ﷺ says, "I have never seen women as generous as Aa'isha ﷺ and (her sister) Asmaa ﷺ. Their forms of generosity were however different. As for Aa'isha ﷺ, she would collect things and then distribute them when she had collected a considerable amount. As for Asmaa ﷺ, she would never keep with her anything for the next day."(2)

An Incident Concerning the Generosity of Hadhrat Mu'aadh ﷺ

Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Ka'b bin Maalik narrates that Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Jabal ﷺ was an extremely generous, youthful and handsome man who was amongst the most righteous persons of his tribe. He never kept anything back and would continue taking loans (to assist others) until all his wealth was tied up in debt. He then approached Rasulullaah ﷺ to request his creditors to write off the debts, but (when Rasulullaah ﷺ did so) they all refused. If there was anyone through whose intercession they would have written off any other person’s debt, it would have been through the intercession of Rasulullaah ﷺ. Rasulullaah ﷺ then sold all of Hadhrat Mu'aadh ﷺ’s possessions to repay his debts until he was left with absolutely nothing.

During the year that Makkah was conquered, Rasulullaah ﷺ dispatched Hadhrat Mu'aadh ﷺ as governor of a region of Yemen so that he may have the opportunity of recovering his losses. Hadhrat Mu'aadh ﷺ then stayed in Yemen as the governor and was the first person to ever use Allaah’s wealth (Zakaah funds) to trade with. There he earned a considerable amount of wealth and it was during this period that Rasulullaah ﷺ passed away.

When Hadhrat Mu'aadh ﷺ returned to Madinah, Hadhrat Umar ﷺ said to Hadhrat Abu Bakr ﷺ, "Send for that man (Hadhrat Mu'aadh ﷺ) and take away the wealth he has except for that amount which he requires to survive." Hadhrat Abu Bakr  said, "Unless he gives it of his own accord, I cannot take anything from him because Rasulullah had sent him to recover his losses." When Hadhrat Abu Bakr  refused to submit to his request, Hadhrat Umar  himself went to Hadhrat Mu'aadh  and informed him of his intentions. Hadhrat Mu'aadh  responded by saying, "Since Rasulullah had sent me so that I may recover my losses, I do not have to do this." (Since Hadhrat Mu'aadh  had paid back the capital he took from the Zakaah funds, he felt entitled to the profits he earned. Hadhrat Umar  was of the opinion that although Hadhrat Mu'aadh  could use what he needed, the excess was to be returned to the public whose money was a means to the profits).

When Hadhrat Mu'aadh  met Hadhrat Umar  some time later, he said, "I have obeyed you and have done as you instructed me. I saw in a dream that I was surrounded by water and was in danger of drowning when you rescued me, O Umar." Hadhrat Mu'aadh  then went to Hadhrat Abu Bakr  and related the incident to him. He (disclosed all his assets and) swore that he would not hide anything, even disclosing the whip that he owned. Hadhrat Abu Bakr  said, "By Allaahl I shall take none of this from you. You may have it all as a gift." Hadhrat Umar  said, "Now this is good for you and permissible." Hadhrat Mu'aadh  thereafter left for Shaam. (1)

Another narration from the son of Hadhrat Ka'b bin Maalik  states that Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Jabal  was an extremely youthful, handsome and generous man who was amongst the most righteous persons of his tribe. He gave away everything that he was asked for until all his wealth was tied up in debt. The rest of the narration is as quoted above. (2)

The Narration of Hadhrat Jaabir Concerning the Generosity of Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Jabal

Hadrat Jaabir  reports that Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Jabal  was amongst the most handsome of people, amongst those with the best character and the most open-handed. However, (to assist others) he accumulated a large debt and when his creditors started pushing him to pay, he hid away from them in his house for several days. The creditors eventually sought Rasulullah's assistance. When Rasulullah sent for Hadhrat Mu'aadh, he came with the creditors in trail. They pleaded, "O Rasulullah! Please claim our dues from him." Rasulullah said, "Allah will shower His mercy on the person who is charitable towards him (who writes off the debt)." Consequently, some of them wrote off their debts while others refused. They still insisted, "O Rasulullah! Do reclaim our rights from him." Rasulullah said, "O Mu'aadh! Be patient with them (settle their debts even though you have to lose all your wealth)." Rasulullaah then took away everything that Hadhrat Mu'aadh possessed and handed it over to the creditors. When they distributed it amongst themselves, only five sevenths of the dues were settled. They then said, "O Rasulullaah! Sell him (as a slave) to settle the debts." Rasulullaah refused saying, "Leave him alone. You cannot lodge any claims against him now."

Hadrat Mu'aadh then went to live with the Banu Salama tribe where someone said to him, "O Abu Abdur Rahmaan! Why do you not ask Rasulullaah for something now that you have become a pauper." Hadrat Mu'aadh however refused to ask from Rasulullaah and stayed there a few days more until Rasulullaah sent for him. Rasulullaah dispatched him to Yemen to act as governor and said to him, "Perhaps Allaah shall redeem your losses and pay off your debt for you." Hadrat Mu'aadh then proceeded to Yemen where he stayed until the demise of Rasulullaah.

It was in the year that Hadrat Abu Bakr appointed Hadrat Umar as the Ameer of Hajj that Hadrat Mu'aadh also happened to be in Makkah (for Hajj). Hadrat Mu'aadh and Hadrat Umar therefore met on the 8th of Dhul Hijjah and they both embraced each other and consoled each other about the loss of Rasulullaah. As they then sat down on the ground and started talking, Hadrat Umar noticed that Hadrat Mu'aadh had several slaves. (1) The rest of the narration is the same as the one reported by Hadrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood (which will be quoted hereunder).

The Narration of Hadrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood Concerning the Generosity of Hadrat Mu'aadh

Hadrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood reports that after the demise of Rasulullaah, the people appointed Hadrat Abu Bakr as his successor. Rasulullaah had appointed Hadrat Mu'aadh as governor of Yemen and it was in the year that Hadrat Abu Bakr had appointed Hadrat Umar as the Ameer of Hajj that Hadrat Umar met Hadrat Mu'aadh in Makkah. Noticing several slaves with Hadrat Mu'aadh, Hadrat Umar asked, "Who are these people?" Hadrat Mu'aadh replied, "The people of Yemen gave these as a gift to me while the others are for Abu Bakr." Hadrat Umar said, "I think that you should rather give them all to Abu Bakr."

When the two men met again the following day, Hadrat Mu'aadh said, "O Ibn Khatthaab! When you saw me last night I was heading for the fire of Jahannam, but you grabbed hold of my waist (to save me by advising me to give all the slaves to Hadrat Abu Bakr). I now feel that I should do as you say." Hadrat Mu'aadh then brought all the slaves to Hadrat Abu Bakr.

saying, "These have been given as gifts to me, while the others are yours." Hadhrat Abu Bakr said, "We have authorised your gifts for you (you may have them for yourself)." Hadhrat Mu'aadh then proceeded to perform his salaaah and the slaves all performed salaaah behind him. He then asked them, "For whom are you performing salaah?" "For Allaah," they replied. Hadhrat Mu'aadh said, "Then you are all for Allaah." Saying this, he set them all free. (1)

Spending That Which One Loves

Hadhrat Umar Donates his Land in Khaybar

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar narrates that Hadhrat Umar received a piece of land in Khaybar. He then approached Rasulullah saying, "I have received a piece of land in Khaybar. Never before have I received any property more excellent than this. What do you advise me to do with it?" Rasulullah replied, "If you wish, you could make the property an endowment and donate the proceeds in charity." Hadhrat Umar therefore made the land an endowment on the condition that it should never be sold, never be given away as a gift, never be inherited and that its proceeds be given to the poor, to his relatives, to free slaves, in the path of Allaah and to guests. He also stipulated that the caretaker of the land may take from the proceeds what is normally paid and what is required to feed his guests. He however had no permission to amass wealth from it. (2)

Hadhrat Umar Frees a Slave Woman whom he had obtained from Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari

Hadhrat Umar once wrote to Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari to buy for him a slave woman from Jaloolaa (a place en route to Khurasan that the Muslims had conquered. Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari did as requested and sent the woman to Hadhrat Umar. Hadhrat Umar then called for her one day and said, "Allaah says (in the Qur'aan):

\text{\textit{You shall never reach (true, perfect) righteousness until you spend of that which you love.}}\text{\textit{}}} (\text{\textit{Surah Al Aaloomah, verse 92}})

Hadhrat Umar then set her free. (4)

Hadhrat Naafi narrates that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar owned a slave woman. When his love for her became intense, he freed her and married her to one of his freed slaves. She later bore a son. Hadhrat Naafi reports further that he saw Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar pick up the little boy and kiss him. Referring to the slave woman he freed, he then said, "What a beautiful fragrance coming from her!" (1)

The Incident of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar when he heard a Verse of the Qur'aan

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar says, "I brought to mind everything that Allaah had given me when I heard the verse:

\[ \text{كَيْنُوتُوا الْيَدَانَ بِمَثْلِ هَذَا مَثَلَيْنِ يَسْلُكُونَ } \]

You shall never reach (true, perfect) righteousness until you spend of that which you love. (2)

However, I could think of no possession more beloved to me than Marjaana, my Roman slave woman. I then said, 'She is free for the pleasure of Allaah.' If I were to ever go back on something that I had allocated to Allaah, I would have certainly married her." (3)

Another narration adds that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar got her married to Hadhrat Naafi and she thus gave birth to his child. (4)

The Narration of Hadhrat Naafi Concerning the Spending of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar

Hadhrat Naafi narrates, "Whenever the love of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar for any of his possessions became intense, he offered it to his Rabb (gave it away as Sadaqah). His slaves knew this well and they would sometimes exert themselves in good deeds and attach themselves to the Masjid. When he saw this excellent behaviour, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar would then set them free. His companions said to him, '0 Abu Abdur Rahmaan! By Allaah! They are only deceiving you.' He would reply to this by saying, 'We fall for the deceit of anyone who deceives us with acts pleasing to Allaah.'"

Hadhrat Naafi continues, "I can recall one evening when Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar was riding an excellent camel for which he had paid a large sum. When he became extremely impressed with the way it carried itself, he made it sit down and then dismounted. He then said, 'O Naafi! First remove its reins and saddle and then put a blanket on it, mark it and include it amongst the sacrificial animals.' (5)

Another narration also from Hadhrat Naafi states that once while Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar was riding a camel, he was very impressed by its ride. He then said, "Ikh! Ikh! (words said to get a camel to sit down)" When the camel sat down, he said, "O Naafi! Remove its saddle." Hadhrat Naafi says, "I thought that this was because he needed to use the saddle for something or because he had some doubts about the camel. When I removed the saddle, he said to me, 'Look and see whether another camel can be bought with the goods this camel carries?' (Because he intended slaughtering the camel for the pleasure of Allaah because he liked it, he needed another for his journey). I said, 'I can tell you in the name of Allaah that if you so wish, you can easily purchase another with the price of this if you sell it.' Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar then put a blanket on the camel's back, put a garland around its neck (to mark it) and then included it amongst the sacrificial animals. Whenever any of his possessions caught his fancy, he always sent it ahead (to the Aakhirah).

Another narration quoted Hadhrat Naafi as saying, "Whenever any of his possessions caught his fancy, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar would remove it from his possessions and give it away for the pleasure of Allaah. He would sometimes give in Sadaqah as much as thirty thousand Dirhams in a single sitting. Ibn Aamir twice gave him thirty thousand Dirhams and he said to me, 'O Naafi! I fear that the Dirhams of Ibn Aamir should not put me to trial. Go! You are free.' Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar would sometimes not eat meat for an entire month unless he was on a journey or it was the month of Ramadhaan.' Hadhrat Naafi also said, 'He would sometimes not even taste meat for an entire month.' (1)

The Incident of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar when he Stayed Over in Juhfa

Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Abu Hilaal reports that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar was once ill when he stayed over at Juhfa. When he expressed the desire to eat fish, the people searched for fish but could find only one fish. His wife Hadhrat Safiyya bint Abu Ubayd prepared it for him and then gave it to him. A poor person then arrived and stood there. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar told him to have the fish. "Subhaanallaah!" exclaimed his family, "We have tired ourselves (to prepare this fish) and we have our provisions (to give the poor man)." He replied, "Abdullaah likes the fish (and it should therefore be given to the poor person)." (2)

Another narration states that his wife said, "We shall give him a Dirham which will be more useful for him then the fish, while you will be able to fulfil your desire to eat it." Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar said, "My desire is what I want you to do." (3) of all the Ansar in terms of the date plantations he owned. However, what he loved most of all his possessions was the orchard of Bir Haa. It was situated opposite the Masjid and even Rasulullah used to go there to drink from its pure and excellent water. However, Hadhrat Abu Talha went to Rasulullah as soon as the verse was revealed in which Allaah states:

النَّ نَتَأَلَّوْا الْيَرْضَى تَنْفَقُوا مَمَّا تَجْبَوْنَ (سُورَةُ آل عمران آية 22)

You shall never reach (true, perfect) righteousness until you spend of that which you love. (1)

He said to Rasulullah, "O Rasulullah! Indeed, Allaah has stated: 'You shall never reach righteousness until you spend of that which you love.' Bir Haa is certainly the possession that I love most, so it is now Sadaqah for the pleasure of Allaah. I aspire for the good of this and that Allaah will keep it as a treasure for me (in the Aakhirah). O Rasulullah! Utilise it as Allaah shows you." Rasulullah said, "Wow! This is an excellent investment! This is an excellent investment!" (2)

Another narration of Bukhari adds that Rasulullah said, "I have heard what you have to say, but think that you should rather divide it amongst your relatives." Hadhrat Abu Talha then said, "I shall definitely do so, O Rasulullah!" He then divided it amongst his relatives and his nephews.

Hadhrat Zaid bin Haaritha Gives his Horse away as Sadaqah

Hadhrat Muhammad bin Munkadir narrates that Hadhrat Zaid bin Haaritha brought along his horse called "Shibla" when the following verse of the Qur'aan was revealed:

لا نَتَأَلَّوْا الْيَرْضَى تَنْفَقُوا مَمَّا تَجْبَوْنَ (سُورَةُ آل عمران آية 22)

You shall never reach (true, perfect) righteousness until you spend of that which you love. (3)

This horse was the most prized of all his possessions. He said (to Rasulullah), "This is Sadaqah." Rasulullah took it from him and handed it over to Hadhrat Zaid's son Usaama. Noticing the expression (of unhappiness) on Hadhrat Zaid's face, Rasulullah said, "Allaah has certainly accepted it from you." (4)

Spending in Charity while in Need

The Incident of Rasulullaah ﷺ in this Regard

Hadhurat Sahl bin Sa’d ﷺ narrates that a woman once brought a shawl to Rasulullaah ﷺ. It was woven with a woven edge as well. She said, "O Rasulullaah ﷺ! I have come to give you this to wear." Rasulullaah ﷺ really needed a shawl and he took it from her and wore it immediately. When one of the Sahabah saw him wearing it, he commented, "What a beautiful shawl is this, O Rasulullaah ﷺ! Will you not give it to me to wear?" "Certainly," said Rasulullaah ﷺ. After Rasulullaah ﷺ had left, the other Sahabah reprimanded the man saying, "You had done a terrible thing by asking for the shawl when you saw that Rasulullaah ﷺ accepted it because he really needed it. You know well that Rasulullaah ﷺ never refuses anything he is asked for." The man replied, "By Allaah! The only thing that prompted me to ask for it was that I hoped for its blessings after Rasulullaah ﷺ had worn it. I hope to be buried with it as my shroud." (3)

Another narration from Hadhurat Sahl bin Sa’d ﷺ states that a striped set of clothing with white edging was knitted for Rasulullaah ﷺ out of black wool. Rasulullaah ﷺ was wearing it when he went to meet the Sahabah. Striking his hand on his thigh, he said, "Do you not think that these clothes look good?" A Bedouin said, "May my parents be sacrificed for you, O Rasulullaah ﷺ! Will you not give it to me?" Because it was the habit of Rasulullaah ﷺ never to refuse anything he was asked for, he agreed and gave the clothes to the man. He then sent for his old set of clothes and wore it. Rasulullaah ﷺ later had another set of similar clothes knitted for him but it was still being made when he passed away. (4)

The Incident of Hadhurat Abu Aqeel ﷺ

Hadhurat Abu Aqeel ﷺ narrates that to earn two Saa of dates he spent an entire night drawing water from a well with a rope tied to his back. He took one

Saa to his family for their use and the other he reserved to attain proximity to Allaah. When he brought it to Rasulullaah ﷺ and informed him how he had earned it, Rasulullaah ﷺ instructed him to add it to the Sadaqah that had been collected. Mocking Hadhrat Abu Aqeel ﷺ, the Munaafiqeen commented, "Of what use is it to this man to contribute a mere Saa of dates (when he needs it more)?" It was then that Allaah revealed the verse:

Allaah shall mock (punish the mockery of) those (Munaafiqeen) who mock the Mu'mineen about their charity when they spend of their own will and (who mock) those who find only their efforts (to spend, referring to those who offer their labour in the path of Allaah). For them will be a painful punishment. {Surah Taubah, verse 79}(1)

Hadhrat Abu Salama and Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah ﷺ narrate that Rasulullaah ﷺ once called on the Sahabah ﷺ for contributions because he intended dispatching a military expedition. Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf ﷺ said, "O Rasulullaah ﷺ! I have four thousand Dirhams. I shall lend two thousand to my Rabb and leave two thousand for my family." Rasulullaah ﷺ said, "May Allaah bless what you give and may Allaah also bless what you keep behind.

A Sahabi ﷺ from the Ansaar spent the entire night labouring to earn two Saa of dates. He then said, "O Rasulullaah ﷺ! I have earned two Saa of dates. One of for my Rabb and the other for my family." The Munaafiqoon then started to mock as they said, "Those who contribute like Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf do so to boast while Allaah and His Rasool ﷺ have no need for the meager Saa of the other."

It was then that Allaah revealed the verse:

The Incident of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zaid ﷺ

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zaid bin Abdi Rabbihi ﷺ was the Sahabi who was shown the Adhaan in his dream. He once approached Rasulullaah ﷺ saying, "O Rasulullaah ﷺ! This orchard of mine is for Sadaqah. I am handing it over to Allaah and His Rasool ﷺ (to spend it as they please)." His parents then came to Rasulullaah ﷺ and said, "Our livelihood depended on that orchard."

Rasulullahah handed it over to them and (after a while) they passed away. Thereafter, their son inherited it. (1)

The Incident of a man from the Ansaar
Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah narrates that a man came to Rasulullahah complaining of severe hunger. Rasulullahah then sent a message to one of his wives (to send some food) but received the reply, "I swear by the Being Who has sent you with the truth that I have nothing but water with me." He then sent the same message to another wife and received the same reply. When the message was sent to each of his wives, each one of them replied saying, "I swear by the Being Who has sent you with the truth that I have nothing but water with me." Rasulullahah then announced, "Who will host this man tonight and Allaah will shower His mercy on him." A man from the Ansaar volunteered and took the man home, where he said to his wife, "Do you have any food?" She replied, "There is nothing besides the children's food." He said, "Pacify them with something and then put them to sleep when they want their supper. When our guest arrives, put out the lantern and pretend that we are eating." Another narration states that he said, "When he starts to eat, stand up to set the lantern right and (while doing so) put it off." They all then sat down and the guest ate while the couple went to sleep hungry. When he went to Rasulullahah the next morning, Rasulullahah said, "Allaah was impressed by what you two did last night." Another narration adds that it was then that Allaah revealed the verse:

They prefer (others) above themselves (they prefer to give others) even though they are themselves in need. {Surah Hashar, verse 9}(2)

The Incident of the Seven houses
Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar reports that a goat's head was passed between seven houses because the people of each home preferred others above themselves. Although each household needed it, it eventually returned to the house from which it originally left. (3)

Hadhrat Abu Dahdaa ﷺ then arrived and said to the man, "Sell me your date palm in exchange for my orchard." The man readily agreed.

Hadhrat Abu Dahdaa ﷺ then came to Rasulullaah ﷺ and said, "I have bought the date palm in exchange for my orchard. You may give it to the man because I am handing it over to you." Rasulullaah ﷺ said, "There shall be so many laden and large date palms for Abu Dahdaa in Jannah!" Rasulullaah ﷺ repeated this statement several times. Hadhrat Abu Dahdaa ﷺ then went to his wife and said, "O Ummu Dahdaa! You will have to leave this orchard because I have sold it in exchange for a date palm in Jannah." "An excellent transaction!" she exclaimed.

The Incident of Hadhrat Abu Dahdaa ﷺ when he said, "I have lent my Orchard to my Rabb"

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood ﷺ narrates that Hadhrat Abu Dahdaa ﷺ approached Rasulullaah ﷺ when Allaah revealed the verse:

(Agregar) (Surah Baqara, verse 245)

Who is it that will lend to Allaah a good loan. {Surah Baqara, verse 245}

He said, "O Rasulullaah ﷺ! Does Allaah require a loan from us?" "Yes, O Abu Dahdaa," replied Rasulullaah ﷺ. "Show me your hand," said Hadhrat Abu Dahdaa ﷺ. When Rasulullaah ﷺ gave him his hand, Hadhrat Abu Dahdaa ﷺ said, "I have lent my orchard to my Rabb." His orchard contained six hundred date palms. He then walked back to the orchard where (his wife) Hadhrat Ummu Dahdaa ﷺ and his family were. He then shouted, "O Ummu Dahdaa!" "At your service!" she responded. He shouted back, "Leave the orchard because I have lent it to my Rabb." (2)

Tabraani has also reported a similar narration from Hadhrat Umar ﷺ with a weak chain of narrators, as quoted in Majma'uz Zawaa'id (Vol.3 Pg.113).
instructions that the goats of Sadaqah that filled an entire valley should be given to him. The man returned to his tribe and said, "O my people! Accept Islaam because Muhammad gives without fearing poverty."
Another narration states that even when a person came to Rasulullaah only to acquire worldly possessions, the evening would not come without the Deen being more beloved and more honoured in his sight than the world and all that it contains. (1)

A narration of Hadhrat Zaid bin Thaabit in this Regard Hadhrat Zaid bin Thaabit reports that an Arab once came to Rasulullaah and asked for a piece of land between two mountains. Rasulullaah had it given to him in writing, after which he accepted Islaam. The man returned to his tribe and said, "O my people! Accept Islaam because I have come to you from a man who gives without fearing poverty."

The Cause of Hadhrat Safwaan bin Umayyah Accepting Islaam and his Statement About Rasulullaah
In the story of how Hadhrat Safwaan bin Umayyah accepted Islaam, it has already passed that as Rasulullaah was walking amongst the booty to have a look at it, Hadhrat Safwaan was with him. Hadhrat Safwaan then started looking at a valley filled with camels, goats and shepherds.
Rasulullaah watched his long stares at the scene and said to him, "O Abu Wahab! Do you like this valley?" When he replied in the affirmative, Rasulullaah said to him, "It is all yours." Hadhrat Safwaan accepted Islaam on the spot and said, "It is only be the heart of a Nabi that can be so generous. I testify that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah and that Muhammad is Allaah's servant and Rasul." (4)

Rasulullaah (for Hijrah), Abu Bakr took along all the money he had, which amounted to five or six thousand Dirhams. My grandfather Abu Quhaafa who had lost his sight then came home. He said, 'By Allaahl I expect that together with alarming you by his leaving, Abu Bakr has also alarmed you with his money (by taking it all along with him).' I said, 'Not at all, dear grandfather. He has left plenty of money with us.' I then gathered some stones and placed them in the dish in which my father usually put his money. Thereafter, I covered it with a cloth and took his hand saying, 'Here, grandfather. Put your hand on this money.' He put his hand on it and (thinking that it was Dirhams) said, 'Then there is no problem. If he has left this money for you, he has done very well. There should be sufficient money here to see to your needs.' By Allaahl! My father had not left a thing for us but all that I wished to do by this was to put the old man's heart at rest." (1)

The narration has already passed in which it is stated that Hadhrat Abu Bakr spent all of his four thousand Dirhams for the Tabook expedition.

The Spending of Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Affaan

His Spending on the 'expedition of Difficulty' and the Statement of Rasulullaah About Him

Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Khabbaab Sulami reports that Rasulullaah once delivered a sermon in which he encouraged the Sahabah to spend on the 'expedition of difficulty' (the expedition to Tabook). Hadhrat Uthmaan then said, "I shall provide a hundred camels together with their saddle blankets and saddles." Rasulullaah then stepped down a step of the pulpit and again encouraged the Sahabah. This time again Hadhrat Uthmaan stood up and said, "I shall provide another hundred camels together with their saddle blankets and saddles." Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan says that he then saw Rasulullaah shaking his hand as a person does when expressing wonder. A narrators by the name of Abdus Samad demonstrated this action by taking out his hand and shaking it. Rasulullaah then said, "After this, Uthmaan need not carry out any other (optional) deed."(2)

Another narration states that Rasulullaah gave encouragement three times and that Hadhrat Uthmaan took it upon himself to provide three hundred camels together with their saddle blankets and saddles. Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan says, "I was present there as Rasulullaah stood on the pulpit saying, 'No sin can harm Uthmaan after this' or he said, 'No sin can harm Uthmaan after this day.'"(3)

The Narration of Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Samura About the Spending of Hadhrat Uthmaan on the 'expedition of Difficulty'

Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Samura narrates that on the occasion when Rasulullaah was preparing the 'Expedition of Difficulty', Hadhrat Uthmaan came with a thousand Dinaars and emptied them into Rasulullaah's bag. As Rasulullaah turned the coins over in his hands, he said, "No act that Uthmaan does after this day will cause him any harm." Rasulullaah repeated this several times. (1)

Another narration from Hadhrat Abdullah bin Umar states that Rasulullaah prayed, "O Allaah! Do not forget this deed of Uthmaan." Rasulullaah also added, "After this, Uthmaan need not carry out any other (optional) deed." (2)

The Narration of Hadhrat Hudhayfa bin Yamaan About the Spending of Hadhrat Uthmaan on the 'expedition of Difficulty'

Hadhrat Hudhayfa bin Yamaan narrates that Rasulullaah sent someone to Hadhrat Uthmaan to request his assistance for the 'Expedition of Difficulty'. Hadhrat Uthmaan sent ten thousand Dinaars, which were poured out in front of Rasulullaah. As Rasulullaah turned the coins over in his hands, turning them from top to bottom, he said, "O Uthmaan, may Allaah forgive you every sin that you committed secretly, every sin that you committed openly, every sin that you hid from others and every sin that you may commit until the Day of Qiyaamah. Uthmaan need not worry to carry out any (non-obligatory) good deed after this." (3)

The Narration of Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf, Hadhrat Qataadah and Hadhrat Hasan in this Regard

Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf narrates that he was present when Hadhrat Uthmaan handed over to Rasulullaah what he needed to dispatch the 'Expedition of Difficulty'. On that day, he brought seven hundred Awqiya of gold. (4)

The narration has already passed in which it was mentioned that Hadhrat Uthmaan provided a third of the army's needs during the expedition to Tabook to the extent that it was said that he saw to each and every need they expressed.

The Spending of Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf

He Donates Seven Hundred Camels together with their Carriages and Supplies

Hadrath Anas narrates that while Hadrath Aa'isha was in her room, she heard a lot of noise in Madinah. "What is that?" she enquired. The people informed her, "That is the caravan of Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf that had arrived from Shaam carrying everything with it." Hadrath Anas says that there were seven hundred camels in the caravan and that all of Madinah was resounding with the noise. Hadrath Aa'isha then said, "I have heard Rasulullaah say that he saw Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf entering Jannah on his knees (exhausted after accounting for all his wealth)." When these words reached Hadrath Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf, he said, "I shall do my best to enter Jannah standing upright." He then donated all the camels in the path of Allâh together with their carriages and the supplies they carried. (2)

Imaam Zuhri reports that during the lifetime of Rasulullaah, Hadrath Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf donated half his wealth in the path of Allâh, which amounted to four thousand Dirhams. Thereafter, he also donated forty thousand Dirhams and then forty thousand Dinaars. He also donated five hundred horses in the path of Allâh and again one thousand five hundred camels in the path of Allâh. Most of his fortune was earned through trade. (3)

Another narration from Imaam Zuhri states that Hadrath Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf donated five hundred camels in the path of Allâh. (4)

The Spending of Hadhrat Hakeem bin Hizaam

He Spends on those Proceeding in the path of Allaah

Hadhrat Abu Hizaam says that they had never heard of anyone in Madinah who provided more transport for people proceeding in the path of Allaah than Hadhrat Hakeem bin Hizaam. Two Bedouins once came to Madinah to ask for someone to provide them with transport to proceed in the path of Allaah. When they were directed to Hadhrat Hakeem bin Hizaam, they approached him while he was with his family. When he asked them what they required and they duly informed him, he told them not to be hasty and to wait until he comes out to see them. (When he came out) He was wearing clothing that was brought from Egypt. It resembled a spider's web and cost four Dirhams. He took his staff with him and his slaves also accompanied him. Each time he passed by a rubbish dump, he used the end of his staff to pick up any piece of cloth that could be used to patch up the satchels of the camels going out in the path of Allaah. He would then dust off the cloth and hand it over to his slave saying, "Keep this piece of cloth to mend the satchels."

One of the Bedouins said to the other, "Oh dear! Save us from him! By Allaah! All this man has with him are pieces of cloth from rubbish dumps." The other said, "Shame on you! Do not be hasty. Let us first wait and see." Hadhrat Hakeem then took them to the marketplace where he saw two large, fat and pregnant camels. He purchased them along with their supplies and said to his slave, "Use the pieces of cloth to mend any of the satchels that need mending."

Thereafter, he loaded on the camels some food, wheat and fat. Furthermore, he gave the two men money for their expenses and made over the camels to them. The one Bedouin then said to his companion, "By Allaah! I have never seen a better collector of cloth pieces than this man!" (3)

He Donates his House in the path of Allaah for the Poor and for Slaves

Hadhrat Hakeem bin Hizaam once sold a house to Hadhrat Mu'aawiyah. (1) Ibn Mubaarak, as quoted in Isaaba (Vol.2 Pg.416).

for sixty thousand Dirhams. Some people said to him, "By Allaah! Mu'aawiya has hoodwinked you (by paying so little)." Hadhrat Hakeem said, "By Allaah! During the Period of Ignorance, I bought it for a mere bag of wine. I now make you all witness that I am giving the price away in the path of Allaah for the benefit of the poor and for setting slaves free. Now which one of us two has been hoodwinked?" Another narration states that he sold the house for a hundred thousand Dirhams. (1)

The Spending of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar and other Sahabah

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar Donates a Hundred Camels in the path of Allaah

Hadhrat Naafi reports that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar once sold a property of his for two hundred camels. He then donated a hundred camels in the path of Allaah and made a condition with the riders that they were not to sell them before reaching Waadi Qura. (2)

Hadhrat Umar, Hadhrat Aasim bin Adi and others Spend in the path of Allaah

It has already passed in a chapter (3) describing the encouragement Rasulullaah gave to the Sahabah to spend in the path of Allaah that Hadhrat Umar gave a hundred Awqiya of silver (equal to four thousand Dirhams) while Hadhrat Aasim Ansaari gave ninety Wasaq of dates for the expedition to Tabook. On the same occasion, Hadhrat Abbaas bin Abdil Muttalib, Hadhrat Talha bin Ubaydillaah, Hadhrat Sa'd bin Ubaadah and Hadhrat Muhammad bin Maslama all donated large sums of money. A narration has also passed about a man bringing along a camel in the path of Allaah and how Hadhrat Qais bin Sala Ansaari spent in Jihaad. (4)

The Spending of Hadhrat Zaynab bint Jahash and Other Women

Hadhrat Zaynab bint Jahash Spends in the path of Allaah and What Other Women Contributed Towards the Expedition to Tabook

Hadhrat Aa’isha narrates that Rasulullaah once said (to his wives),

"The one to meet me first (after death) from all of you is the one with the longest arms." The wives then started measuring whose arms were the longest and then (when they realised that the statement was metaphorical) it was Hadhrat Zaynab bint Jahash whose arms turned out to be the longest because she made things by hand and gave the proceeds in Sadaqah.

Another narration quotes Hadhrat Aa'isha as saying, "After the demise of Rasulullah, whenever we gathered in any of our houses, we used to measure our arms against the wall to see whose were the longest. We continued doing this until Zaynab bint Jahash passed away. She was a short woman whose arms were by no means the longest. It was then that we realised that Rasulullah was referring to spending in Sadaqah when he mentioned long arms. Zaynab bint Jahash was skilful with her hands. She used to dye leather and stitch it and then donate the proceeds in the path of Allaah." (1)

Another narration states that Hadhrat Zaynab bint Jahash used to weave cloth and give it to those proceeding in battle, who sewed it and used it in battle. (2)

The narration has already passed in which it is stated to assist the Muslim army in its preparations for Tabook, the women had sent their bangles, bracelets, anklets, earrings, rings and other jewellery that filled a cloth spread out in front of Rasulullah. (3)

Spending on the Poor and Those in Need

The Incident of a Bedouin Lady and Hadhrat Umar

Hadhrat Umayr bin Salama Duwali narrates that Hadhrat Umar was sleeping under a tree at midday when a Bedouin lady arrived in Madinah. She searched around (for someone to assist her) and eventually approached Hadhrat Umar (not knowing that he was the Ameerul Mu'mineen). She then said to him, "I am a poor woman with two children. The Ameerul Mu'mineen Umar bin Khatibah had sent Muhammad bin Maslama to collect Zakaah (in our area) but he did not give me anything. Perhaps you could intercede before him on our behalf. May Allaah have mercy on you."

Hadhrat Umar shouted for (his servant) Yarfa to summon Hadhrat Muhammad bin Maslama. The lady said, "it may have been more helpful to me if you had taken me to him." Hadhrat Umar put her heart at rest by saying, "Inshaa Allaah, he will soon fulfil your need." Hadhrat Yarfa went to Hadhrat Muhammad bin Maslama and told him to respond to the call of Hadhrat Umar. Hadhrat Muhammad bin Maslama came to Hadhrat Umar and said, "As Salaamu Alayka, O Ameerul Mu'mineen!" The lady felt embarrassed (when she realised that it was the Ameerul Mu'mineen himself whom she was talking to).

Hadhrat Umar ﷺ then said, "By Allaahu! I spare no pains to ensure that I select the best man (for any task). What answer will you give when Allaah asks you about this lady?" When he heard this, the eyes of Hadhrat Muhammad bin Maslama ﷺ filled with tears. Hadhrat Umar ﷺ then continued, "Allaah had sent His Nabi ﷺ to us and we believed in him and followed him. He did as Allaah commanded him and gave the Zakaah funds to those poor people who deserved it. This he continued doing until Allaah took him away. Thereafter, Allaah appointed Abu Bakr ﷺ as his successor and he followed the Sunnah of Rasulullah ﷺ until Allaah took him away as well. Allaah then made me his successor and I have always done my best to select the very best of you (to collect and distribute the Zakaah funds). When I send you again, ensure that you give this lady her share for the year as well as her share for the previous year. In fact, I do not even know whether I would be sending you at all."

Hadhrat Umar ﷺ then sent for a camel for the lady and also gave her some flour and oil. He said to her, "Take this until you meet us at Khaybar because we intend coming there." When she came to Hadhrat Umar ﷺ at Khaybar, he called her forward and gave her two more camels saying, "Take this, for it will suffice for your needs until Muhammad comes to you again. I have already instructed him to give you your dues for the year as well as for the previous year."(1)

Hadhrat Aslam says that he once left with Hadhrat Umar ﷺ to the marketplace where he met a young lady who said, "0 Ameerul Mu'mineen! My husband has passed away and has left behind small children. By Allaah! They do not even have hooves to cook (which the Arabs usually gave away free of charge) nor any plantation or any milk-giving animal. I fear that the drought may destroy them. I am the daughter of Khufaaf bin Eema Ghifaari ﷺ and my father was with Rasulullah ﷺ at Hudaybiyyah." Hadhrat Umar ﷺ stood motionless awhile and then said, "Welcome to a close relative." He then went home where a fine pack camel was tied. He loaded the animal with two sacks filled with food and placed between the two some money and clothing. Thereafter, he handed the reins of the camel to the lady saying, "Take this away. Allaah shall provide for you before this is finished." When someone commented that Hadhrat Umar ﷺ had given her too much, Hadhrat Umar ﷺ said, "May your mother lose you! Her father was at Hudaybiyyah with Rasulullah ﷺ. By Allaah! I saw her father and her brother lay siege to a fortress for a long time and then conquer it. We then received large shares from the booty earned from it. (She therefore deserves the large amount that I gave her)."(2)

The Spending of Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Aamir bin Judhaym Jumhi

His Spending as the Governor of Shaam

Hadrat Hassaan bin Atiyya reports that when Hadrat Umar relieved Hadrat Mu'aawiya of his post as governor of Shaam, he sent Hadrat Sa'eed bin Aamir bin Judhaym Jumhi (to replace him). He left with his young and beautiful wife from the Quraysh but it was not long before they began suffering extreme poverty. When Hadrat Umar heard about this, he sent a thousand Dinaars for them. Hadrat Sa'eed took the money to his wife saying, "Umar has sent for us all that you see." She said, "Why do you not buy us something with which to prepare some gravy and some flour. We can then store the rest." He then told her, "Should I rather not tell you of something better than that? Should we rather not give the money to someone who will invest it in business so that we may use the profits. He will then also be responsible for the money. When she agreed, he bought something with which to prepare gravy and some flour as well as two camels and two slaves. The slaves loaded on the camels all sorts of necessities and then distributed it all to the poor and needy.

After a short while, his wife informed him that the food they had bought was finished. She said further, "Why do you not approach the man (trading on our behalf) and take some of the profits to buy some food." Hadrat Sa'eed remained silent. When she repeated herself, he again remained silent until she started admonishing him. He then stopped coming home during the day and would return only at nights. There was a person from her family who used to frequent the house with Hadrat Sa'eed. He said to Hadrat Sa'eed's wife, "What are you doing? You are now really hurting him whereas he has given all the money away as Sadaqah."

When she started weeping bitterly in remorse about the money, Hadrat Sa'eed came to her one day and said, "Take it easy. I had some companions who have recently left me. Even in exchange for the world and all its contents, I would not like to leave the path they tread. If a single damsel of Jannah has to even peep into this world from the sky, everything on earth would be illuminated and the radiance of her face would outshine the sun and the moon. The scarf that she is given to wear is more precious than the world and all that it contains. It is therefore more appropriate that I leave you for them rather than leaving them for you." His wife then accepted what had happened and was satisfied.

The Narration of Hadrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Saabit Concerning this

The narration of Hadrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Saabit Jumhi states that whenever Hadrat Sa'eed received his salary, he bought what was necessary for his family and then gave the rest out in Sadaqah. When she asked him about the remainder of his salary, he told her that he had lent it out. Some people once approached him and said, "Verily your family has rights over you and your in-laws also have a right over you." He replied, "I have never given others preference in the rights I owe to my family and in-laws. However, I shall also not seek the pleasure of people when I am searching for the large-eyed damsels of Jannah. If a single damsel of Jannah has to even peep into this world, everything on earth would be illuminated just as the sun illuminates the earth. I am also not prepared to be left behind the first group to enter Jannah after I had heard Rasulullah ﷺ say, 'Allaah will gather the people for reckoning when the poor Mu'mineen will race towards Jannah as doves race. When they will be told to wait for the reckoning, they will say, 'We have nothing to account for because we had been given nothing.' Their Rabb will say, 'My servants are right.' A gate of Jannah will then be opened for them and they will enter Jannah seventy years before anyone else."(1)

The narration has already passed previously(2) in which Hadhrat Sa'eed said to his wife, "Do you not want something better than this? That we give this to whoever will bring it back to us at a time that we will need it even more desperately (on the Day of Qiyaamah)." When she happily agreed, Hadhrat Sa'eed called someone from his family whom he trusted and placed the Dinaars into several bags. He then instructed the man to take one bag to a certain widow, another to a certain orphan, another to a certain poor person and another to a certain distressed person. This was done until there remained only a few Dinaars. He then (gave this to his wife and) said, "Spend this." Thereafter, he continued the activities of the governorship. She said, "Will you not get us a servant then? What has happened to the wealth?" Hadhrat Sa'eed replied, "It will come to you at a time when you need it most (in the Aakhirah)." (3)

The Spending of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar

A Narration of Hadhrat Naafi About the Spending of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar

Hadhrat Naafi reports, "When Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar once fell ill, a bunch of grapes was bought for him for one Dirham. When a poor person arrived there, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar instructed that it be given to the person. Someone (from the household) then went to buy the bunch from the poor person for a Dirham (because grapes were no longer available elsewhere) and brought it back to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar. However, the poor person returned to beg and again Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar instructed that it be given to the person. Yet again someone went to buy the bunch back from the poor person for a Dirham. When he brought it back to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ®, the poor person returned again to beg and once again Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ® instructed that it be given to him. This time also someone went to buy the bunch from the poor person for a Dirham and brought it back to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ®. When the poor person intended to return yet again, he was prevented from doing so. Had Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ® known about this, he would not have even tasted the grapes." (1)

Another Narration from Hadhrat Naafi in this Regard

Hadhrat Naafi says, "When Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ® once fell ill, he desired to eat grapes. I bought a bunch of grapes for him for a Dirham and then placed it in his hand." The rest of the narration is the same as the one reported above. However, this narration concludes with the words, "The beggar continued returning and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ® kept instructing that the grapes be given to him until it was the third or fourth occasion when I eventually said to the beggar, 'Shame on you! Are you not embarrassed?!' I then bought the grapes back from him for a Dirham and brought it to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ®. This time, he managed to eat it." (2)

The Spending of Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Abul Aas

The Narration of Hadhrat Abu Nadhra

Hadhrat Abu Nadhra reports, "It was during the first ten days of Dhul Hijjah that I visited Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Abul Aas ® in a room that he reserved for conversing (with visitors). When someone passed by with a sheep, Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Abul Aas ® asked the man what he paid for the sheep. The man replied that he had paid twelve Dirhams for it. I then said (to myself), 'If only I had twelve Dirhams, I could have also bought a sheep, slaughtered it and fed it to my family (for the occasion of Eid that was forthcoming).' When I returned home, Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Abul Aas ® had sent someone behind me with a bag containing fifty Dirhams. I had never before seen money that had as much blessings as those Dirhams. He gave them to me with the intention of being rewarded and at a time when I most needed it." (3) to beg from Hadhrat Aa'isha the wife of Rasulullaah. She was fasting that day and had no food at home besides a piece of unleavened bread. When she instructed her servant to give it to the beggar, the servant entreated, "You will then have nothing to terminate your fast with." However, Hadhrat Aa'isha insisted that she give it to the beggar. The servant continues the story and says, "I then gave it to the beggar. That evening some family or some person who usually did not give us gifts, sent for us some cooked goat meat with many pieces of bread. Hadhrat Aa'isha then called for me and said, 'Eat some of this. It is much better than that piece of bread (that we gave away).""

Imaam Maalik reports that another narration also reached him about a poor person who asked Hadhrat Aa'isha for some food at a time when she had a grape in front of her. She then said to someone (present there), "Take a grape and give it to him." Looking at the single grape, the person expressed surprise. Hadhrat Aa'isha said to him, "You seem surprised. How many atoms' weights do you see in that grape?" (Here she was referring to the verse of the Qur'aan that states: "Whoever (sincerely) does an atom's weight of good will see its consequences when he is rewarded for it...) (1)

Giving the Poor with One's own Hand

The Incident of Hadhrat Haaritha bin Nu'maan in this Regard and the Statement of Rasulullaah Concerning Giving the Poor with One's own Hand

Hadhrat Uthmaan narrates that when Hadhrat Haaritha bin Nu'maan lost his eyesight, he tied a string from the place where he performed salaah to the door of his room. Whenever a beggar came, he would take something from his basket, hold on to the string (to lead him to the door) and then give the thing to the beggar. Although his family offered to do it for him, he said, "I heard Rasulullaah say that personally giving something to the poor saves one from a gruesome death." (2)

The Virtue of Personally Giving a Beggar Something

Hadhrat Amr Laythi narrates that they were with Hadhrat Waathila bin Asqa when a beggar came. Hadhrat Waathila took a piece of bread, put a coin on it and then stood up to personally place it in the beggar's hand. Hadhrat Amr asked, "O Abu Asqa! Is there none from your family who can do this for you?" "Of course there is," he replied, "but the person who stands up to give something as Sadaqah to a poor person, a sin of his will be forgiven for every step he takes. When he then places the thing in the person's hand, ten sins are

The Incident of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar

Hadhrat Naafi says, "Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar used to gather all of his family to eat from one platter every night. It often happened that when he heard the plea of a poor person, he would take his share of meat and bread to the poor person. However, by the time he gave the food away and returned, the others would have finished everything in the platter. If I found anything in the platter, he would also find it, otherwise he would fast in the morning." (2)

Spending on Beggars

The Incident of a Bedouin with Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Anas reports that Rasulullaah entered the Masjid one day wearing a shawl from Najraan that had thick edging. A Bedouin came from behind and pulled at a corner of the shawl so hard that the edging left marks on Rasulullaah’s neck. The Bedouin said, "O Muhammad! Give some of Allaah’s money that you have with you!" Rasulullaah turned around and smiled. He then said to the Sahabah, "Give him something." (3)

Another Incident in this Regard

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah says, "We used to sit with Rasulullaah in the Masjid in the mornings and when he stood up to leave, we would also stand and remain standing until he entered his room. On one occasion, Rasulullaah stood up to leave and had reached the centre of the Masjid when a Bedouin met him and said, "O Muhammad! Give me two camels to ride because you are neither giving them from your own wealth nor from the wealth of your father!" As he met Rasulullaah, he pulled so hard on Rasulullaah’s shawl that it left a red streak across his neck. Rasulullaah then thrice repeated, "No. I seek Allaah's forgiveness. Not until you allow me to take retribution (for the injury you have caused me)." Rasulullaah then (forgave the man and) called someone saying, "Give him two camels, one loaded with barley and the other loaded with dates." (4)

The Narration of Hadhrat Nu'maan bin Muqarrin

Hadhrat Nu'maan bin Muqarrin narrates that they were four hundred people from the Muzaynah tribe who came to Rasulullaah. After Rasulullaah had taught them aspects of the Deen (and they were departing), some of them asked, "O Rasulullaah! We have no food for the journey." Rasulullaah instructed Hadhrat Umar to supply them with some provisions, but he submitted, "O Rasulullaah! I have nothing but some left-over dates which I do not think will be of any benefit to them." Rasulullaah said to him, "Go and give them some provisions." Hadhrat Umar then took the people to an upstairs room where there were dates that resembled a little brown calf (in colour and height). Hadhrat Umar told the people to help themselves and each of them took as much as they needed. Hadhrat Nu'maan says, "I was the last of the lot and when I looked (at the dates), I could not see a single date missing (from the original heap) although four hundred people had already taken from it." (The dates did not diminish because of the blessings of complying with the order of Rasulullaah). (1)

The Incident of Hadhrat Dhukayn bin Sa'eed Khath'am in this Regard

Hadhrat Dhukayn bin Sa'eed Khath'am reports that they were four hundred and forty people who approached Rasulullaah for food. Rasulullaah instructed Hadhrat Umar to give them some food, but he submitted, "O Rasulullaah! I have only that much which would suffice for my children and I during the four months of summer (it would not be enough for these people)." Rasulullaah repeated the instruction and Hadhrat Umar said, "I hear and obey you, O Rasulullaah!" Hadhrat Umar left with the people and took them to an upstairs room where he took out the key from his waist string and opened the door. In the room there was a heap of dates that resembled a baby camel that was sitting down. Hadhrat Umar told the people to help themselves and each of them took as much as they needed. Hadhrat Dhukayn says, "I was the last of the lot and when I looked (at the dates), it appeared as if we had not reduced the number of dates at all." (2)

Another narration of Hadhrat Dhukaym

Hadhrat Dhukayn says, "We were four hundred people when we asked Rasulullaah for food." The narration is then that same as the above narration but with the difference that Hadhrat Umar said (to Rasulullaah), "I have nothing besides a few Saa of dates that would suffice only for my children and I during the four months of summer." Hadhrat Abu Bakr then said to him, "Listen and obey." Hadhrat Umar responded by saying, "I hear and I obey." (3)

The Behaviour of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar

with Beggars

Hadhrat Aflah bin Katheer says, "Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar never refused any beggar and even a leper with fingers dripping with blood could be seen eating with him from the same plate."

Spending in Sadaqah

The Incident of Hadhrat Abu Bakr

Hadhrat Hasan Basri reports that Hadhrat Abu Bakr once brought his Sadaqah to Rasulullaah (PBUH). He secretly gave it to Rasulullaah (PBUH) saying, "O Rasulullaah! This is my Sadaqah contribution and I shall give again for Allaah whenever necessary." Thereafter, Hadhrat Umar (RA) arrived with his Sadaqah. He gave it openly to Rasulullaah (PBUH) and said, "O Rasulullaah! Here is my Sadaqah contribution and I shall have my reward with Allaah." Rasulullaah (PBUH) said, "O Umar! You have strung your bow without a string. The difference in the Sadaqah of you two is just like the difference in your words." (Although the Sadaqah of both men were accepted, the intention of Hadhrat Abu Bakr was only the pleasure of Allaah, whereas that of Hadhrat Umar was also to attain reward. Hadhrat Abu Bakr's intention was therefore superior.)

Hadhrat Uthmaan Purchases the Well of Roomah and Donates it to the Muslim Public

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar (RA) narrates that Rasulullaah (PBUH) once announced, "Who will purchase the well of Roomah for us and donate it as Sadaqah for the Muslim public? Allaah will quench his thirst on the Day of Qiyaamah." Hadhrat Uthmaan (RA) then bought it and donated it to the Muslim public.

The Narration of Ibn Asaakir About the Incident

Hadhrat Basheer Aslami narrates that when the Muhaajireen arrived in Madinah, the water did not agree with them. There was a well called Roomah which was owned by a man from the Gifaar tribe but he sold a waterbag full of the water for a Mudd. Rasulullaah (PBUH) once said to him, "Sell me the well in exchange for a fountain in Jannah." However, he submitted, "O Rasulullaah! I have no source of income for my family and myself besides this well. I am therefore unable to sell it." When this news reached Hadhrat Uthmaan (RA), he bought the well from the man for thirty five thousand Dirhams. He then approached Rasulullaah (PBUH) and said, "Rasulullaah (PBUH)! If I buy the well, will you promise me the same fountain in Jannah that you had promised him?" "Certainly," replied Rasulullaah (PBUH). Hadhrat Uthmaan (RA) then said, "I have

Hadhrat Talha 🤲 Donates a Hundred Thousand Dirhams in a Single Day

Hadhrat Su'daa the wife of Hadhrat Talha 🤲 reports that Hadhrat Talha 🤲 gave away a hundred thousand Dirhams as Sadaqah on a single day and that he was delayed from going to the Masjid that day because she had to stitch two parts of his garment together. (Although he gave so much in Sadaqah, he did not even possess an extra garment to wear.) (2)

The Sadaqah of Hadhrat Abu Lubaabah 🤲 when Allaah Accepted his Taubah

Hadhrat Saa'ib 🤲 the son of Hadhrat Abu Lubaabah 🤲 reports from his father that when Allaah forgave him, he approached Rasulullaah 🤲 and said, "O Rasulullaah 🤲! I wish to leave the home amongst my people in which I committed the wrong and desire to give away all of my wealth as Sadaqah to Allaah and His Rasool 🤲." Rasulullaah 🤲 said, "O Abu Lubaabah! It will suffice for you to give only a third." Hadhrat Abu Lubaabah 🤲 then gave away a third of his wealth in Sadaqah. (4)

Hadhrat Salmaan 🤲

Hadhrat Nu'maan bin Humayd 🤲 says, "I went with my uncle to visit Hadhrat Salmaan 🤲 in Madaain (where he served as governor) as he was making something with the leaves of a date palm. expedition when we started experiencing extreme hardship. I could see the strains of hardship on the faces of the Muslims and I could also notice the happiness on the faces of the Munaafiqeen (who were happy to see the Muslims suffer). When Rasulullaah noticed this, he said, 'Allaah shall provide sustenance before the sun sets.' Hadhrat Uthmaan knew that the words of Allaah and His Rasool were always true, so he bought fourteen camels together with the loads of food they carried. He then sent nine to Rasulullaah.

When Rasulullaah saw them, he asked, 'What are these?' 'They are a gift to you from Uthmaan,' came the reply. The happiness on the face of Rasulullaah was then clearly noticeable, while the faces of the Munaafiqeen displayed only unhappiness. I then saw Rasulullaah raise his hands so high to pray for Hadhrat Uthmaan that I could even the see the whiteness of his armpits. He made such du'aa for Hadhrat Uthmaan that I had never before or ever after heard him make for anyone else. He prayed for Allaah to reward Hadhrat Uthmaan abundantly and to treat him every so graciously." (1)

The Statement of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas Concerning the Virtues of Giving Gifts

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas once stated, "For me to fulfill the necessities of a Muslim family for a month or for a week or for whatever period of time Allaah pleases is more beloved to me than performing Hajj after Hajj. Buying a utensil for even a Daaniq (one-sixth of a Dirham) and giving it to my brother as a gift for the pleasure of Allaah is more beloved to me than spending a Dinaar in the path of Allaah." (2)

The Narration of Hadhrat Shaqeeq bin Salama ﷺ in this Regard

Hadhrat Salmaan ﷺ said to them, "Had Rasulullaah ﷺ not forbidden us from imposing on ourselves, I would have certainly imposed on myself to entertain you." He then brought for them some bread and salt (because he had nothing else). Hadhrat Shaqeeq ﷺ's friend said, "(It would have been nice) if there was some mint with the salt." Hadhrat Salmaan ﷺ then pawned his jug to buy some mint and brought it. After the men had eaten, Hadhrat Shaqeeq ﷺ's friend made a du'aa which meant, "All praise is for Allaah Who has granted us contentment with the sustenance He has provided." Hadhrat Salmaan then remarked, "Had you been content with what Allaah had provided for you, my jug would not have been pawned." Another narration states that Hadhrat Salmaan ﷺ said, "Rasulullaah ﷺ and Hadhrat Ali ﷺ had forbidden us from imposing on ourselves by providing for our guests what we do not have." (4)

The Incident between Hadhrat Suhayb ﷺ and Hadhrat Umar ﷺ in this Regard

The Story of Hadhrat Uthmaan ﷺ in this Regard

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Salaam ﷺ reports that Rasulullaah ﷺ once saw

Rasulullaah ﷺ instructed Hadhrat Uthmaan ﷺ to make the camel sit down butter and honey in the pot and then had a fire made beneath it. When the food was cooked, Rasulullaah ﷺ told the Sahabah ﷺ to eat it and he also had some. He then said to them, "This is what the Persians call 'Khabees'."

The Narration of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Busr ﷺ in this Regard Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Busr ﷺ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ had a large plate that had to be carried by four men. It was called "Gharraa" and was brought out at midmorning after the Sahabah ﷺ had performed their Duhaa (Chaast) salaah. Thareed (3) would be prepared in it and the Sahabah ﷺ would gather around to eat from it. When there were too many people, Rasulullaah ﷺ would sit in a squatting position. A Bedouin once asked, "What type of sitting position is this?" Rasulullaah ﷺ replied, "Allaah has made me a generous slave and not an arrogant tyrant (this posture is therefore one of humility)." Rasulullaah ﷺ then said to the Sahabah ﷺ, "Eat from the sides and leave the centre (for last) because it is where blessings descend." (4)

see Rasulullaah (as usual) when he said to me, 'O Abdur Rahmaan! Take care of the visitors (feed them without waiting for me). When evening arrived, I took their food to them but they refused to eat saying, 'We shall not eat until the man of the house eats with us.' I said to them, 'My father is a stern man and I fear that he may beat me (if I have not fed you). However, they still refused to eat. When my father arrived, the guests were his first concern and he asked (the members of the household), 'Have you taken care of the guests?' 'We have not yet seen to them,' came the reply. 'Had I not instructed Abdur Rahmaan (to see to them)?' he asked. I had made myself scarce by then as he shouted, 'Abdur Rahmaan!' I remained in hiding and he again shouted, 'You scamp! In the name of Allaah am I commanding you to come here if you can hear my voice!'

Then went to him and said, 'By Allaah! It was no fault of mine. You can even ask your guests that I had brought them their food but they refused to eat until you arrived.' My father then said to them, 'Why will you people not accept the food we give you? I swear by Allaah that I shall not eat anything tonight.' The guests responded by also swearing, 'By Allaah! We shall also have none of it until you do.' Hadhrat Abu Bakr then said, 'I have never known a night worse than this! Why will you not accept the food we give you? Nevertheless, the first oath (I took not to eat) was from Shaytaan. Bring the food.' When the food was brought, he recited Bismillaah and ate. The guests then followed suit.'

The following morning, Hadhrat Abu Bakr went to Rasulullaah and said, "O Rasulullaah! While my guests fulfilled their oath, I breached mine." He then proceeded to inform Rasulullaah about the incident. Rasulullaah said, "In fact, you are better at fulfilling oaths than them and a better person than they are." The narrator of the Hadith says, "No news has reached me about whether Hadhrat Abu Bakr gave Kaffaara for his oath or not." (Hadhrat Abu Bakr obviously did give Kaffaara because according to the consensus of the Ulema, Kaffaara is binding in such a situation.)

Hadhrat Umar Feeds People

The Practice of Hadhrat Umar

Hadhrat Aslam reports, "I once informed Hadhrat Umar that there was a blind camel amongst the pack animals. He said, 'Give it to some family who can derive some benefit from it.' 'But it is blind,' I submitted. He said, 'They can tie it to the others in the caravan (and it will follow the rest).' I again asked, 'But how will it graze?' Hadhrat Umar then asked, 'Is it from amongst the animals collected as Jizya or from the animals collected as Zakaah?' When I informed him that it was from amongst those collected as Jizya, he said, 'By Allaah! You people intend eating it (because anyone may eat from such an animal, unlike the animals of Zakaah). I then said to him, '(I am not just saying this) But it really has the markings of the Jizya animals on it.' Hadhrat Umar then issued the order that the camel should be slaughtered. He kept with him nine plates and whenever some fruit or delicacy came to him, he would always place some of it on each plate and send them to the (nine) wives of Rasulullah ﷺ. He would also ensure that he sent the plate of (his daughter) Hadhrat Hafsah  but so that if there are any defects, it would be in her share (and none could accuse him of nepotism). He then put some of the camel’s meat into these plates and sent them to the wives of Rasulullah ﷺ. Thereafter, he gave instructions for the remaining meat to be cooked. When it was cooked, he invited the Muhajireen and the Ansaar to partake of it.” (1)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar Feeds People

The Narration of Muhammad bin Qais

Hadhrat Muhammad bin Qais reports that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar never ate without a poor person to join him. This eventually injured his health (because the poor people often finished the food, leaving him hungry). His wife then made for him a drink from dates, which she would give him whenever he ate (to replenish his strength).

Hadhrat Abu Bakr bin Hafs has reported that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar would eat only when an orphan was present at his tablecloth. (2)

An Incident with an Orphan

Hadhrat Hasan reports that whenever Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ate lunch or dinner (the Arabs never ate breakfast), he would invite an orphan from the vicinity. When he sat down to lunch one day, he sent for an orphan, but none could be found. After his lunch, he would drink some barley porridge. The orphan then arrived after the family had eaten the lunch and the porridge was still in Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar's hand. He then gave the cup to the orphan saying, "Take this. I do not think that you have lost out completely."

The Narration of Hadhrat Maymoon bin Mahraan about this

Hadhrat Maymoon bin Mahraan reports that some people reproached the wife of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar concerning him. They said to her, "Have you no mercy for the old man? (He is growing weaker by the day, why don't you feed him properly?)" She responded by saying, "What am I to do? Whenever we prepare some food for him, he invites someone to eat it up." His wife then sent some food to the poor people who usually sat on the path that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar took from the Masjid. She then gave them instructions not to sit by the roadside as he passed. When Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar returned home, he asked for certain poor people to be brought to eat with him (because he did not find them by the roadside that day). However, when his wife had sent food to them, she had also given them instructions not to come when Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar called for them. (When they failed to turn up,) Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar said (to his family), "Do you wish that I should not eat tonight?!" That night he did not have anything for

A Similar Incident when he was at Juhfa

Hadhrat Abu Ja'far Qaari says, "My master (Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Ayaash bin Abu Rabee'ah Makhzoomi) instructed me to proceed with Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar on a journey to serve him. Whenever Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar camped at an oasis, he would invite the local people to share his meals. His eldest sons would also share the meals. (Because of the large number of people) Each person would have only two or three morsels to eat. When he arrived in Juhfa and the locals arrived to eat, a black boy who was scarcely dressed also came along. When Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar called him to eat, he said, 'I cannot find any place to sit.' The people were already sitting close together so I saw Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar move a bit from his place so that the boy sat against his chest." (2)

The Practice of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar on his Journeys

Hadhrat Abu Ja'far Qaari says, "I accompanied Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar on a journey from Makkah to Madinah. Around his large dish containing Thareed, his sons, his companions and everyone else who presented themselves there would eat. In fact, (because of the large crowd) some would have to eat standing. He also had a camel that carried two filled containers, one with Nabeedh and the other with plain water. Every person then received a cup of barley porridge together with the Nabeedh, which would satiate him completely." (5)

The Narration of Hadhrat Ma'n about this

Hadhrat Ma'n reports that when Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar's meals were prepared and a well-off man passed by, he would not invite him. However, his sons and nephews would invite such a person. On the other hand, if a poor person passed Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar, he would invite the person while his sons and nephews would not. Concerning this, he would say, "They invite those who do not want the food and leave out those who want it." (6)

Khilaafah of Hadhrat Mu'aawiya (Vol-2). With him was Hadhrat Muntasir bin Haarith and a group of Qurraa from Basrah. They were determined not to return home until they had the opportunity to meet a distinguished companion of Rasulullaah (Vol-2) who would relate some Ahadeeth to them. They kept enquiring until they were informed that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr bin Al Aas was staying over in the lower part of Makkah. When they went to see him, they found a large array of three hundred camels. One hundred camels were riding camels, while the other two hundred were laden with goods. Upon enquiry, they were informed that the contingent belonged to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr. In surprise, they asked, "Does all of this belong to him?! We were told that he is an extremely modest person (so why does he need all of this?)." They were then informed that (everything was not for his personal use, but that) the hundred riding camels were to transport his brothers while the goods on the two hundred camels were for his guests and the people of the various towns (he passed by on his travels). When the group expressed surprise, they were told, "Do not be so surprised! Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr is a wealthy man who sees it as a right to others that he should have ample provisions to cater for the people who come to meet him." The group then asked where he could be found and they were told that he is in the Masjidul Haraam. When they searched for him, they found him sitting behind the Kabah. He was a short man with watery eyes whose shoes hung at his left side. He wore two sheets of cloth and a turban without a sewn upper garment. (1)

An Incident of him with Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Sa'd bin Ubaadah narrates that he once went to Rasulullaah with a large utensil full of camel's brains. Rasulullaah said, "O Abu Thaabit! What is this?" Hadhrat Sa'd replied, "I swear by the Being Who has sent you with the truth! I have slaughtered forty camels and would like to feed you with these brains until you are full." Rasulullaah ate it and made du'aa for Hadhrat Sa'd. (2)

The Narration of Hadhrat Anas about the Du'aa that Rasulullaah made for Hadhrat Sa'd

Hadhrat Anas narrates that Hadhrat Sa'd bin Ubaadah once invited Rasulullaah (for a meal). When Rasulullaah arrived at Hadhrat Sa'd's house, Hadhrat Sa'd brought some dates and bread, which Rasulullaah ate. He then brought a cup of milk which Rasulullaah Shower Your choicest mercies on the family of Sa'd bin Ubaadah." (1) Another narration also from Hadhrat Anas states that Hadhrat Sa'd served some sesame seeds and dates to Rasulullaah. (2)

Another Incident of his Hospitality

Hadrat Urwa reports that he once saw Hadhrat Sa'd bin Ubaadah announce from his house, "Whoever wishes to eat fat or meat should go to Sa'd bin Ubaadah." I then also saw his son doing the same (after his father's death). He narrates further that (after the death of the son) he was once walking in the streets of Madinah when Hadrat Abdullaah bin Umar passed by him and as he was proceeding to his property in the upper part of Madinah. Hadrat Abdullaah bin Umar said, "Dear youngster! Go and see whether there is anyone announcing from the house of Sa'd bin Ubaadah." When Hadrat Urwa saw that there was no one announcing and reported back, Hadrat Abdullaah bin Umar said, "You are right (none could be as generous as that father and son)." (3)

The Incident of him with Rasulullaah

Hadrat Abu Mas'ood Ansaari reports that there was a Sahabi from amongst the Ansaar who was called Abu Shu'ayb. He had a slave who was an expert in cooking meat. He once instructed his slave to prepare a meal so that he could invite Rasulullaah and four other people. He then invited Rasulullaah and four others. However, another person came along with them. (When they arrived at the house) Rasulullaah said to Hadrat Abu Shu'ayb, "You have invited five of us but this person has come along with us. You may permit him to join or leave him out." Hadrat Abu Shu'ayb said, "He is most welcome." (4)

Another narration states that when Hadrat Abu Shu'ayb once saw Rasulullaah, he noticed the sign of hunger on Rasulullaah's face. He then said to his slave, "How terrible! Cook some food for five people." (5)

Hadrat Jaabir bin Abdullaah Feeds People

His Story During the Battle of Khandaq

Hadrat Jaabir narrates, "As we were busy digging (the trench) for the Battle of Khandaq, an extremely hard boulder became an obstacle. When the Sahabah reported to Rasulullaah that the boulder posed an obstacle in the digging, he said, 'I am coming down there.' Rasulullaah then stood up with a stone tied to his belly (to suppress the hunger) because we had already gone three days without even tasting any food. Rasulullaah then took up a pickaxe and with one strike, reduced it to a heap of dust. I then asked permission from Rasulullaah to go home and (when I reached home) I said to my wife, 'I have seen such hunger on Rasulullaah that I am unable to bear. Do you have anything (to eat)?' She replied, 'I have some barley and a kid goat.'

I then slaughtered the kid as she ground the barley. We placed the meat in a pot (to cook) and when I went to call Rasulullaah, the dough had already risen and the pot was on the fire with the food almost cooked. I said, 'O Rasulullaah! I have a little food, so why don't you and one or two persons come?' When Rasulullaah asked me how much food there was, I informed him accordingly. He said, 'That is plenty and most excellent. Tell your wife not to take the pot off the fire and not to take the bread out of the oven until I arrive.' He then told the Sahabah to stand up (to join in the meal) and the Muhaajireen, the Ansaar and all with them stood up.

When Hadrat Jaabir came to his wife, he said, 'Oh dear! Rasulullaah has come with the Muhaajireen, the Ansaar and everyone else!' She asked, 'Did Rasulullaah ask you about this?' Hadrat Jaabir confirmed that Rasulullaah had asked him (she was therefore content that Rasulullaah would make the further arrangements). (When the Sahabah reached the house,) Rasulullaah said to them, 'Enter the house, but do not crowd it.' Rasulullaah then started breaking the bread into pieces, placed meat on them and served them to the Sahabah. Whenever Rasulullaah took anything from the pot or the oven, he covered them again. Rasulullaah continued breaking the bread and dishing out the food until everyone was satiated and there was still plenty leftovers. He then said (to the lady), 'Eat from this and give some to others because hunger had afflicted everyone.' (2) amount of food, he addressed all the Muslims saying, "Come to Jaabir's place." Hadhrat Jaabir  says, "Such extreme embarrassment overcame me that Allaah Alone knows. I said to myself, 'Rasulullaah  is coming with such a large group whereas I have prepared only one Saa of barley and a kid goat!' When I came to my wife, I said, 'You are soon to be embarrassed! Rasulullaah  is coming with everyone digging the trench!' 'Has Rasulullaah asked you how much food you have?' she asked. When I confirmed that he did, she assured me, 'Then Allaah and His Rasool  know best (what they intend).'

A tremendous worry then disappeared from my mind." Rasulullaah  then arrived and said (to Hadhrat Jaabir 's wife), "Continue what you are doing but hand the meat over to me." Rasulullaah  then broke the bread into the food and served the meat. As he did this, he kept covering the bread and the meat. In this manner, he continued serving food to the Sahabah  until they were all satiated and both the pot and the oven were as full as they had ever been. Thereafter, Rasulullaah  said (to the lady), "Eat and give others." She continued eating and giving others from there the entire day. (Another narration) states that the Sahabah  numbered three hundred and another narration states eight hundred on that occasion.

In another narration, Hadhrat Jaabir  says, "Rasulullaah  announced, 'O people digging the trench! Jaabir has prepared a meal, so all of you should come!' Rasulullaah  then said (to me), 'Do not take the pot off the fire and do not bake the bread until I arrive.' I arrived home as Rasulullaah  led the others. When I got to my wife, I said, 'Oh dear! I did exactly as you said (but things seem to have gone wrong).' (When Rasulullaah  arrived) She gave him the dough and he mixed some of his blessed saliva in it and made du'aa for blessings. Thereafter, Rasulullaah  said (to me), 'Call another lady to bake with you and dish out from the pot without taking it off the fire.' Although the Sahabah  present there numbered a thousand, I swear by Allaah that they ate so much that they eventually had to leave the food and go away. Even then the pot was still cooking with food as it had been and the oven was baking bread as it had been." (The Narration of Tabraani about such an Incident)

Hadhrat Jaabir  says, "My mother cooked some food and asked me to invite Rasulullaah  for a meal. I went to Rasulullaah  and whispered to him, 'My mother has cooked something.' Rasulullaah  then told the Sahabah  to stand up and fifty of them came along. Sitting at the door, Rasulullaah  told them to enter ten at a time. They all ate to their fill and the food still remained as it had been." (4)

An Incident Between him and Rasulullah

Hadhrat Anas says, "Abu Talha once said to his wife (my mother) Ummu Sulaym, 'I have heard Rasulullah's voice go very weak and I know that it is because of extreme hunger: Do you have any food with you?' 'Yes,' she replied and then took out a few loaves of barley bread. She wrapped the bread with a part of her scarf, put it beneath my clothes and then wrapped the rest of the scarf around me. Thereafter she sent me off to Rasulullah. I went with the bread and found Rasulullah sitting in the Masjid with some people. When I stood by them, Rasulullah asked, 'Has Abu Talha sent you?' 'Yes,' I replied. 'Is it for food?' Rasulullah enquired further. When I again replied in the affirmative, Rasulullah said to those with him, 'Stand up.' (They then all accompanied Rasulullah to the house.)

Rasulullah walked to the house and I walked in front of them. When I reached Abu Talha, I informed him about the situation and he said, 'O Ummu Sulaym! Rasulullah is coming with many people and we have nothing to feed them.' She replied, 'Allaah and His Rasool know best (we have no cause of concern).'

Hadhrat Abu Talha then went to receive Rasulullah on the road and Rasulullah walked with him until they both entered the house. Rasulullah then said, 'Bring whatever you have, O Ummu Sulaym.' When she brought the bread, Rasulullah instructed that it be broken into small pieces and that Ummu Sulaym squeeze out from her container whatever butter was left to make some gravy. Rasulullah then recited something on the food and said, 'Allow ten people in.' When they were allowed in, they ate to their fill and then left. Thereafter, Rasulullah asked for another ten to be allowed in, who also ate to their fill before leaving. Rasulullah again asked another ten persons to come in and in this manner, everyone ate to their fill. In total, they numbered seventy or eighty men. Another narration states that there were approximately one hundred men.

One day after Rasulullaah had completed the salaaah, one of us called out to him saying, 'O Rasulullaah! The dates have burnt our stomachs and our shawls are in tatters.' Rasulullaah turned towards the pulpit, mounted it and then praised Allaah before recounting the difficulties that his people had given him. He said, 'There was a time when my companion and I passed more than ten nights without anything to eat besides the fruit of acacia trees. We then came to our Ansaar brothers (after Hijrah) and because dates was their staple diet, they saw to our needs by giving us dates to eat. By Allaah! If I could feed you bread and meat, I would have definitely done so. They would then join Rasulullaah ﷺ when his supper was brought. When we finished eating, Rasulullaah ﷺ would say, 'You may sleep in the Masjid.' Rasulullaah ﷺ once passed by me as I was asleep on my face (lying on my belly). Rasulullaah ﷺ nudged me with his foot and said, 'O Jundub! What is this manner of lying down?! This is the manner in which Shaytaan lies down.'(1)

Hadrat Tughfah bin Qais ﷺ narrates, "In compliance with the instruction of Rasulullaah ﷺ, some Sahabah took one person (from the men of the Sufa as his guest) while others took two and I was eventually left as one of four other men. Rasulullaah ﷺ told us to proceed with him and we accompanied him to Aa'isha ﷺ. When Rasulullaah ﷺ asked her to give us something to eat and drink, she served some coarsely ground wheat cooked with meat. After we had eaten it, she served us a sweet dish made of dates, which was the (brownish) colour of a sand grouse. After we had eaten it, Rasulullaah ﷺ asked Aa'isha ﷺ for something to drink and she brought a small cup of milk from which we all drank. Rasulullaah ﷺ then said, 'If you please, you may either spend the night here or proceed to the Masjid.' We told him that we would rather go to the Masjid. Entertaining those Who Intended Accepting Islaam Hadrat Jahjaa Ghifaari ﷺ says, "I arrived (in Madinah) with a group from my tribe with the intention of accepting Islaam. When we presented ourselves before Rasulullaah ﷺ and greeted him, he said (to the Sahabah), 'Each person should take the hand of the person sitting next to him (and take the person home for meals).' (When the Sahabah did as told) There was none left in the Masjid besides Rasulullaah ﷺ and myself. No one approached me (to take me for a meal) because I was large in size and very tall. Rasulullaah ﷺ took me home where he milked a goat for me. When he brought the milk to me, I drank it all up. Rasulullaah ﷺ eventually milked seven goats and I drank up all the milk. He then served a pot of food and I ate this as well. Ummu Ayman ﷺ commented, 'May Allaah starve the person who has starved Rasulullaah ﷺ!' 'Be quiet, O Ummu Ayman!' said Rasulullaah ﷺ, 'He has only eaten the sustenance destined for him. Allaah shall provide our sustenance.'"

Early next morning, Hadrat Jahjaa Ghifaari ﷺ and his companions gathered and started discussing what food they had been served the previous

After they had all performed the Maghrib salaah, Rasulullaah ﷺ again announced, "Each person should take the hand of the person sitting next to him (and take the person home for meals)."

Hadhrat Jahjaa ﷺ narrates further, "(When the Sahabah did as told) there was none left in the Masjid besides Rasulullaah ﷺ and myself. No one approached me (to take me for a meal) because I was large in size and very tall. Rasulullaah ﷺ took me home where he milked a goat for me. When he brought the milk to me, I drank it and was full. Ummu Ayman ﷺ asked, '0 Rasulullaah ﷺ Is this not the same guest we had (last night)!' Rasulullaah ﷺ replied, 'He is the same man. However, tonight he has eaten with the intestine of a Mu'min whereas before this he had been eating with the intestine of a Kaafir. While a Kaafir eats to fill seven intestines, a Mu'min eats to fill only one.'

Feeding the Men of Suffa During Ramadhaan

Hadhrat Waathila bin Asqa ﷺ says, "We were amongst the men of Suffa when Ramadhaan arrived and we all fasted. Whenever the time came to end the fast, one of the Sahabah who had pledged allegiance to Rasulullaah ﷺ would approach one of us and take him for meals. However, there arrived an evening when no one came to us. We then spent the morning (hungry). Again the following evening, no one arrived (to take us for meals) so we approached Rasulullaah ﷺ and informed him of the situation. Rasulullaah ﷺ then sent a message to each of his wives to ask if they had any food with them. Every wife swore on oath that there was not even enough food in her home that evening to feed a single person. Rasulullaah ﷺ then asked us to gather around and when we did so, he prayed to Allaah saying, '0 Allaah! I beseech You for Your grace and mercy, for it is only in Your power and none other has control over it.' Rasulullaah ﷺ had hardly completed when someone asked permission to enter. He brought a roasted goat and many loaves of bread. By the instruction of Rasulullaah ﷺ, the food was placed before us and we all ate until we were full. Rasulullaah ﷺ then said to us, 'We had asked Allaah for His grace and His mercy. This (food) was from His grace and He has kept His mercy in store for us with Him (for the Aakhirah).'

food for four should take five or six people.' While Rasulullaah ﷺ took ten person home, (my father) Abu Bakr ﷺ brought three people whereas my mother, my father and I were there." One of the narrators said, "I cannot remember whether he also said, '(my mother, my father and I were there) together with my wife and a servant who worked at both my father's house and mine.'" (The food therefore had to suffice for five people at home in addition to the three guests).

Hadrat Abu Bakr ﷺ ate with Rasulullaah ﷺ and stayed with him until the Isha salaah. He then returned to Rasulullaah ﷺ (after the Isha salaah) and waited until Rasulullaah ﷺ had eaten. He only returned home after a considerable portion of the night had already passed (thinking that his family would have already fed the guests). His wife said to him, "What has kept you from (seeing to) your guests?" "Have you not given them their supper yet?" he said in surprise. His wife replied, "They refuse to eat until you arrive. Despite our insistence, they refused to eat and had their way." Hadrat Abdur Rahmaan ﷺ hid himself away (for fear of his father) and Hadrat Abu Bakr ﷺ shouted (at him), "You scamp!" After much scolding, Hadrat Abu Bakr ﷺ told the guests to eat but (in anger) swore that he would not touch the food. (The guests then swore that they would not eat until he did. When his anger cooled, Hadrat Abu Bakr ﷺ then started eating with them).

Hadrat Abdur Rahmaan ﷺ reports further. He says, "By Allaah! Each time we took a morsel, more food appeared beneath it, making it more than it was. When everyone had eaten to their fill, there was more food than there had been initially. When Abu Bakr ﷺ saw that there was still food remaining and even more than there had been, he exclaimed (addressing his wife), 'O daughter of the Banu Firaas tribe! (What is happening?!)' She said, 'By the coolness of my eyes! It is three times more than it had been!'"

"Abu Bakr ﷺ then ate some more saying, 'That (my oath) had been from Shaytaan.' After eating another morsel, he took the rest to Rasulullaah ﷺ and the food stayed there until the morning. There had been a treaty between us Muslims and a tribe (of Kuffaar) which had expired. Twelve of us had been appointed as commanders (of an army marching against the tribe) and each one commanded a large group of men. Only Allaah knows how many men were under each person's command. Nevertheless, every person ate from the food." Another narration states that the Muslims were divided into twelve groups. (1)

The Story of Hadrat Qais bin Sa'd

Hadrat Yahya bin Abdul Azeez narrates that Hadrat Sa'd bin Ubaadah ﷺ would proceed in Jihaad one year and his son Hadrat Qais ﷺ would proceed the following year. It was while Hadrat Sa'd ﷺ was once out on a military expedition that Rasulullaah ﷺ received a large group of guests. When Hadrat Sa'd ﷺ heard about this, he said, "If Qais is truly my son, he would say (to my slave), 'O Nistaas! Give me the keys (to my father's storehouse) so that"

(1) Bukhaari and Muslim, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vo1.6 Pg.112).
I may take for Rasulullah ﷺ what he needs (to feed his guests).” Nistaas will then say, ‘First produce a letter from your father (to authorise it).’ Qais will then punch Nistaas on the nose and take the keys from him to provide Rasulullah ﷺ with whatever he needs.” Matters transpired exactly as Hadhrat Sa’d ﷺ had mentioned and Hadhrat Qais ﷺ took for Rasulullah ﷺ a hundred Wasaq of provisions. Feeding Bedouins During a Drought
Hadhrat Maymoona bint Haarith (one of Rasulullah ﷺ’s wives) reports, “The Bedouins always came to Madinah and Rasulullah ﷺ would instruct someone to take a Bedouin by the hand as his guest and serve him a meal. It was during a year of drought when a Bedouin came to Rasulullah ﷺ one night. All Rasulullah ﷺ had was a little food and some milk. The Bedouin ate everything without leaving anything for Rasulullah ﷺ. Rasulullah ﷺ brought the Bedouin for a night or two and he always ate everything. I therefore said, ‘May Allaah not bless this Bedouin who eats the food of Rasulullah ﷺ, leaving him without any.’ Rasulullah ﷺ then brought the Bedouin another night after the man had accepted Islaam and he ate only a little. When I mentioned this to Rasulullah ﷺ, he said, ‘While a Kaafir eats to fill seven intestines, a Mu’min eats to fill only one.”(2)

The practice of Ameerul Mu’mineen Hadhrat Umar ﷺ During the Year of Drought
Hadhrat ASlam reports that during the ‘Year of Ashes (destruction)’, Arabs from all over collected in Madinah. Hadhrat Umar ﷺ appointed certain persons to go to these people and distribute food and gravy amongst them. These persons were Hadhrat Yazeed bin Ukh Namir, Hadhrat Miswar bin Makhramah, Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Abdul Qaari and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Utba bin Mas’ood ﷺ. Each one of them was appointed to a particular sector of Madinah and they reported back to Hadhrat Umar ﷺ every evening.

The Bedouins were stationed from the beginning of Thaniyyatul Wadaa up to the Raal’j mountain and the areas of the Banu Haaritha, the Banu Abdil Ash’hal, the Banu Quraizah tribes. They even extended to the Baqee cemetery and some of them reached up close to the area of the Banu Salama tribe. They had virtually surrounded Madinah. One night after the people had had their supper with Hadhrat Umar ﷺ, he gave instructions that the people who eat with him should be counted. When they were counted the following night, they numbered seven thousand. Hadhrat Umar ﷺ then instructed that the families, the ill and the children who were unable to attend should also be counted. When they were counted, they were found to number forty thousand. After a few nights, the numbers increased. When Hadhrat Umar ﷺ had them counted, those eating with him numbered ten thousand and the rest numbered fifty thousand. This continued until Allaah sent the rains.

Hadhrat Aslam narrates further, "After the rains had fallen, I saw Umar appoint a man from every area to send the (Bedouin) people back to their rural areas and to also provide them with transport and provisions to get back. In fact, I saw Umar personally engage in this exercise. Many deaths occurred amongst the people stricken by the drought and I estimate that two thirds of them perished while only a third remained alive. The people tending the large pots of Hadhrat Umar used to start preparing the Kurkoor(1) before dawn and continued well into the morning. They then served it to ill after which they added butter and prepared another dish. According to the instructions of Hadhrat Umar, olive oil used to be boiled in large cauldrons to eliminate its inherent sharpness and heat. Bread was then broken into the oil to make a type of Thareed. By eating too much of oil, the Arabs generally suffered from fever (because they were used to using butter instead of oil). During the Year of Ashes, Hadhrat Umar ate nothing from the homes of his children or his wives. He ate only what was prepared for the suffering people until Allaah gave life back to the people (by sending the rains)."

The Narration of Firaas Daylami in this Regard

Hadhrat Firaas Daylami reports that from the camels that Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas sent from Egypt, Hadhrat Umar would have twenty slaughtered every day for his table (to feed those who were stricken by the drought). (3)

The Story of Hadhrat Umar with a Poor Family

Hadhrat Aslam reports that Hadhrat Umar was going on his usual rounds one night when he came across a woman in a house surrounded by crying children. The woman had a pot of water boiling over the fire. Hadhrat Umar went to the door asked, "O servant of Allaah! Why are these children crying?" The woman replied, "Because they are hungry." Hadhrat Umar asked further, "What is in the pot?" "Only water to soothe the children, so that they may go to sleep in the belief that food is being prepared for them." Hadhrat Umar wept and went straight to the public treasury where he took a sack and put in it some flour, fat, butter, dates, clothing and some money. When the sack was full, he said to Aslam, "Put this sack on my back, Aslam." "Please, O Ameerul Mu'mineen! Let me carry the sack," pleaded Aslam. Hadhrat Umar remarked, "Never! I shall carry the sack because I will be questioned about these people in the Aakhirah."

Aslam most reluctantly placed the bag on Hadhrat Umar's back, who carried it to the woman's home. Hadhrat Umar put a little flour and some dates and fat in the pan and began to stir it. He also blew into the fire to kindle it.

Aslam says, "I saw the smoke passing through his thick beard. When the food was ready, he himself served it to the family and they ate to their fill. He then left and knelt near the house in a humble position. I was too overawed to say anything. He remained watching in this manner until the children were playing and laughing. He then stood up and said, 'Do you know why I sat there, Aslam?' When I admitted that I did not, he said, 'I had seen them weeping in distress and disliked to leave until I saw them laughing. I was satisfied when they started to laugh.'”(1)

Another narration states that Hadhrat Aslam said, "I accompanied Umar one night to Harrah and Aqim. When we came to Saraar, we noticed a fire burning. He said, 'O Aslam! There seems to be a caravan here that had to camp over because of nightfall. Let us go there.' When we arrived there, we found a woman with her children..." The rest of the narration is similar to the one above.(2)

Sharing Food

A Narration of Hadhrat Anas in this Regard

Hadhrat Anas reports that Ukaydir (the ruler of Dowmatul Jandal) once sent a bag full of sweetmeats as a gift to Rasulullaah. When Rasulullaah had performed the salaah, he passed by some people and started giving pieces of it to each one of them. Rasulullaah gave Hadhrat Jaabir a piece and then returned to give him another piece. Hadhrat Jaabir said, "But you have already given me a piece." Rasulullaah told him, "This is for the daughters of Abdullaah (for your sisters)." (3)

A Narration of Hadhrat Hasan in this Regard

Hadhrat Hasan reports, "Ukaydir who was the ruler of Dowmatul Jandal once sent a bag full of sweetmeats as you may have already seen as a gift to Rasulullaah. By Allaah! Rasulullaah and his family were truly in need of it in those days (because they had no food to eat). However, when Rasulullaah had performed the salaah, he instructed someone to take the bag around to the Sahabah. Each of them would then put his hand in the bag and eat whatever he took out. When the bag came around to Khaalid bin Waleed and he placed his hand in the bag, he said, 'O Rasulullaah! While the others have taken only once, I have had twice.' Rasulullaah said to him, 'Eat and give your family to eat some as well.'”(4)

Rasulullaah Shares some Dates with The Sahabah

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah narrates, "Rasulullaah once distributed some dates amongst the Sahabah. He gave each person seven dates. I also received seven dates, one of them being without a seed. This was the best of the lot because it was firm and took long to chew." (1)

Another narration from Hadhrat Anas states that when some dates were once brought to Rasulullaah, he shared it with the Sahabah. Rasulullaah was sitting in a squatting position and eating quickly (because he was probably leaving to go somewhere).

The Letter Hadhrat Umar sent to Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas During the Year of Ashes and His Reply

Hadhrat Layth bin Sa’d reports that a severe drought afflicted the people of Madinah during the Khilaafah of Hadhrat Umar, in what was called the Year of Ashes. Hadhrat Umar wrote the following letter to Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas in Egypt.

From the servant of Allaah the Ameerul Mu’mineen
To the sinful son of Aas
Salaams to you. O Amr! I swear by my life that while you and those with you are eating to your fill you seem to have no concern for my companions and I who are on the verge of destruction. Do assist! Do assist!

Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas sent the following reply:
To the servant of Allaah Ameerul Mu’mineen
From Amr bin Al Aas
I am at your service! I am at your service! I have dispatched (a train of) camels, the first of which will be by you when the last will still be here with me. Peace be on you as well as Allaah’s mercy and blessings.

Hadhrat Umar Distributes the Food that Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas sent Amongst the Residents of Madinah

Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas then sent a train of camels so large that when the first camel reached Madinah, the last camel was still leaving Egypt. When the camels arrived, Hadhrat Umar generously distributed it amongst the people. He gave every household in Madinah a camel with all the food it carried. He appointed Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf, Hadhrat Zubayr bin Awwaam and Hadhrat Sa’d bin Abi Waqqas to distribute amongst the people. They then gave every household a camel with all the food it carried so that they may eat the food and slaughter the camel to eat the meat, use the fat for cooking, make shoes from the hide and use the satchels for purpose they desired, such as making quilts, etc. As a result of this generosity, Allaah extended further generosity to the people (and sent abundant rains). The narration still continues, in which it is stated that to get the provisions to Makkah and Madinah, a canal was dug from the Nile to the Red Sea. (1)

A narration from Hadhrat Aslam also mentions the letter that Hadhrat Umar wrote to Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas. The narration also states that when the first camel reached Madinah, Hadhrat Umar called for Hadhrat Zubayr and said to him, "Take the first camel to Najd and bring back to me as many families as you can. As for those whom you are unable to bring, you should issue instructions for each household to receive a camel together with all the provisions it carries. Then instruct them to wear two sheets, to slaughter the camel, to melt the fat (for cooking), to dry the meat and to make shoes from the hide. Thereafter, they should take a part of the meat, a part of the fat and a handful of flour to cook a meal to eat. In this manner, they should keep eating until Allaah makes further provisions available."

When Hadhrat Zubayr excused himself from the task, Hadhrat Umar said to him, "By Allaah! You will never have another chance (of gaining such immense rewards) until you leave this world!" Hadhrat Umar then called for another person who the narrator assumes was Hadhrat Talha. However, when he also excused himself, Hadhrat Umar sent for Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah, who left to fulfil the task. The narration continues further and states that Hadhrat Umar gave Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah a thousand Dinaars, which the latter refused to accept. However, when Hadhrat Umar insisted that he accept, he eventually did. (2)

The narration has already passed in the chapter discussing the service that the Ansaar rendered to others, specifically the food that Rasulullaah distributed amongst the Ansaar and the Banu Zafar tribe. (3)

Giving Clothing to People

Rasulullaah Gives Away his Two shawls

Hadhrat Jan Sulami reports that he brought to Rasulullaah a prisoner (of war that his people had captured). When Hadhrat Jan accepted Islaam and Rasulullaah intended giving him two shawls, Rasulullaah said to him, "Go to Aa'isha and she will give you two of the shawls she has with her." He then went to Hadhrat Aa'isha and said, "May Allaah always keep you hail and healthy! Choose for me any two shawls from the ones you have with you because Rasulullaah has instructed that I have two of them." Hadhrat...

Aa’isha placed each shawl on the end of a long Miswaak taken from an acacia tree and handed them over saying, "Take this. Take this." The narrator says that Arab women did not expose themselves (because of the laws of Hijaab). (1)

The Incident of Hadhrat Umar and the Grandsons of Rasulullaah

Hadrat Ja’far bin Muhammad reports from his father that when some clothing came to Hadhrat Umar from Yemen, he distributed it amongst the people. As Hadhrat Umar was sitting between the grave of Rasulullaah and the pulpit that evening, the people came wearing their new garments. They greeted Hadhrat Umar and made du’aa for him. Hadrat Hasan and Hadrat Husayn (the grandsons of Rasulullaah) then came out of the house of (their mother) Hadrat Faatima without wearing any of the new garments. As they approached stepping over the shoulders of people, the face of Hadhrat Umar dropped and he became very depressed. He said (to the people around him), "By Allaah! I am not at all pleased by the clothing I have given you to wear." "O Ameerul Mu’mineen!" they consoled him, "You have done an excellent thing by providing clothing for your subjects." Hadrat Umar explained, "I am depressed about those two youngsters stepping over the shoulders of the people. They have none of these garments on them because the garments were too large for them and they too small to fit into them."

Hadrat Umar then wrote to the governor of Yemen to speedily send two sets of clothing for Hadrat Hasan and Hadrat Husayn. When the governor sent it, Hadrat Umar gave it to the two to wear. (2)

In the chapter concerning honouring the Ansar, the incident has already passed about Hadrat Usayd bin Ubadah and Hadrat Muhammad bin Maslama with Hadrat Umar when he distributed clothing amongst the people. Also in this regard, the incident has passed about the new shawl that Hadrat Umar gave to Hadrat Ummu Ammaara because she had been amongst the women who fought in the Battle of Uhud. (3)

The Practice of Ameerul Mu’mineen

Hadrat Umar

Hadrat Sha’aa bint Abdullaah Adawiyyah reports that Hadrat Umar once sent a message that she should come to see him the following morning. She says, "When I got there in the morning, I found Aatika bint Usayd bin Abil Ees at his door. We entered together and spoke for while when Umar sent for a shawl and gave it to her. He then sent for a shawl of inferior quality and gave that to me. I said, 'O Umar! I accepted Islaam before her and I am also your cousin while she is not. Furthermore, you had sent for me while she came of her own accord (why did she then receive a better shawl?). He replied, 'I had originally kept that shawl for you but when the two of you came together, it occurred to me that she was more closely related to Rasulullaah ~ than you are (I therefore gave preference to the relatives of Rasulullaah ~ over my own).''(1)

The Practice of Ameerul Mu'mineen Hadhrat Ali ]

Hadhrat Asbagh bin Nubaata reports that a man came to Hadhrat Ali  saying, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! I have a need that I have already placed before Allaah before coming to you. If you are able to fulfil it, I shall praise Allaah and be thankful to you. If you are unable to fulfil it, I shall praise Allaah and excuse you." Hadhrat Ali  said, "Write down your request on the ground because I do not like to see the humiliation of begging on your face." The man then wrote that he was a destitute. Hadhrat Ali  instructed that a set of clothing be brought to him and when it came, he gave it to the man. The man wore the clothes and the recited the following couplets (in praise of Hadhrat Ali ~, which mean):

"You have given me clothing, the beauty of which will soon fade
While I shall give you the most excellent clothing of praise
Should you receive my good praise, you have received great honour
And you will want nothing else in return for what I have to say
Praise revives the mention of a person
Just as the waters of the rain revive the plains and mountains
Never give up the good that Allaah inspires you to do Because every servant shall be rewarded for the deeds they do"

Hadhrat Ali  then sent for some gold coins and when a hundred coins were brought to him, he gave it all to the man. To this, Hadhrat Asbagh remarked, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! A set of clothing and a hundred gold coins?" Hadhrat Ali  replied, "Certainly! I have heard Rasulullaah ~ say, 'Treat people according to their status' and this is the status of this man in my regard." (2)

The Reward of giving a Muslim Clothing to wear

When a beggar once came to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas ~, he asked the man, "Do you testify that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah and that Muhammad ~ is Allaah's Rasul?" When the man replied in the affirmative, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas ~ asked him further, "And do you fast during Ramadhaan?" "Yes," was the reply. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas ~ then said, "You have asked for something and it is our duty to assist you." He then

Feeding the Mujaahideen

The Practice of Hadhrat Qais bin Sa'd

Hadhrat Jaabir bin Abdullaah reports that Rasulullaah once dispatched an army under the command of Hadhrat Qais bin Sa'd bin Ubaadah. When the army suffered hunger, he slaughtered nine riding animals (for them to eat). After the expedition returned and the incident was mentioned to Rasulullaah, he said, "Verily generosity is the hallmark of that family." (2)

Another narration from Hadhrat Raafi bin Khudayj states that Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah and Hadhrat Umar both approached Hadhrat Qais bin Sa'd and implored him not to slaughter any more camels (because it would deprive the army of their transport). However, he still went ahead to do so. When the news reached Rasulullaah, he said, "He is after all from the house of generosity." This occurred during the "Expedition of Leaves" (when the Sahabah were forced to eat leaves because they had no food). (3)

A Giant Fish comes to the Shore for the Mujaahideen

Hadhrat Jaabir narrates, "Qais bin Sa'd bin Ubaadah once passed by us during the time of Rasulullaah when we were suffering severe hunger. He slaughtered seven camels for us (and we continued on our expedition). When we set up camp along the shore, we found a giant fish lying there. We lived off it for three days and took along with us as much of its fat we could store in our water bags and satchels. We then travelled back until we came to Rasulullaah and informed him of what had transpired." The Sahabah (who were part of the expedition) said, "If we had assurance that the fish would not rot before we reached Rasulullaah, we would have loved to take some back for him." (4)

The Incident between Hadhrat Umar and Hadhrat Bilaal About Feeding the Mujaahideen

Hadhrat Qais bin Abu Haazim reports that when Hadhrat Umar arrived in Shaam and was with the commanders of the various armies, Hadhrat Bilaal came calling, "Umar! Umar!" "Here I am!" responded Hadhrat Umar. Hadhrat Bilaal said, "You are between these people and Allaah.

whereas there is none between yourself and Allaah. Look carefully at those before you, those on your right and those on your left. By Allaah! These who have come to you eat only the meat of birds (they eat well whereas those under their command are ill fed)."

Hadrat Umar responded by saying, "You are right. I shall not stand up from here until each one of them guarantees me that he would provide every Muslim (under his command) two Mudd of barley and an appropriate measure of vinegar and olive oil." The commanders assured Hadrat Umar saying, "We give you our guarantee that we will take this responsibility upon us, for Allaah has granted us an abundance of wealth." "That is then fine," Hadrat Umar expressed in satisfaction.

How was the Spending of Rasulullaah?

The Incident of Hadrat Bilaal and a Mushrik

Hadrat Abdullaah Howzini reports that he once met Hadrat Bilaal the Mu'adhin of Rasulullaah in Aleppo. When he asked Hadrat Bilaal to explain to him how Rasulullaah managed his finances, Hadrat Bilaal replied, "From the time Rasulullaah announced his Nabuwaat until the time of his demise, I had been the one to take charge of anything that he possessed. Whenever any Muslim came to him whom he regarded to be destitute, he gave me instructions to borrow some money to purchase some clothing or some food to give the person to wear or to eat. This continued until one of the Mushrikeen once came to me and said, 'O Bilaal! I have plenty of wealth. You therefore need to borrow money from none besides me.' I then did as he said. One day after performing wudhu and standing up to call out the Adhaan, the man arrived with a group of traders. When he saw me, he said, 'Hey Abyssinian!' When I replied, he treated me most insolently and spoke very harshly. He then asked, 'What remains of the month?' 'Not much,' I replied. He continued, 'There are only four nights of the month left, after which I shall take you as a slave if you do not settle the debt. I have not given you the loans out of any regard for you or for your chief (Rasulullaah). I gave you the loans so that you should become my slave and I could have you grazing goats as you had been doing previously.'

My heart was left filled with every thought a person could possibly have. I then proceeded to call out the Adhaan. After we had performed the Isha salaah and Rasulullaah had returned to his home, I sought permission to see him. When he permitted me in, I said to him, 'May my parents be sacrificed for you, O Rasulullaah! The Mushrik I told you about from whom I was taking loans has told me much (and demands repayment) whereas neither you nor I have the means to settle the debt. He will certainly humiliate me (if I am unable to pay). Do permit me to go (into hiding) to some tribe that has accepted Islaam until

(1) Abu Ubayd, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.318). Tabraani has also reported the narration and Haythami (Vol.5 Pg.213) has commented on the chain of narrators.
Allaah gives His Rasool something to pay off my debt.
I then left for home where I placed my sword, my bag, my spear and my shoes by my headside and faced towards the horizon from where the sun rises. Each time I fell asleep, I awoke (out of worry) but when I realised that there was still night left, I slept again. Eventually the first pillar of dawn broke through the sky and I decided to leave. However, I suddenly heard someone calling, 'Bilaa! Hurry, Rasulullaah is calling you.' I walked to Rasulullaah and found four loaded camels there. When I came to Rasulullaah and sought permission to enter, he said to me, 'Rejoice, for Allaah has sent the means to settle your debt.' I praised Allaah and Rasulullaah asked, 'Did you not pass by the four camels sitting there?' When I informed him that I did, Rasulullaah said, 'I hand them over to you together with their loads. Take them and settle your debts.' The camels were loaded with clothing and food that the chief of Fidak had given as a gift to Rasulullaah.
I did as Rasulullaah bade me and offloaded the camels. I then fed them and proceeded to call out the Adhaan for the Fajr salaah. After Rasulullaah had led the salaah, I went to Baqee where I placed my fingers in my ears and called out, 'Whoever has a debt due from Rasulullaah should present themselves!' I then offered the goods to people, sold them and paid of the debts until there was no debt on earth due from Rasulullaah. I was even left with two or one and a half Awqiya. When I later left for the Masjid, most of the day had already passed and Rasulullaah was sitting there all by himself.
When I greeted him with Salaam, he asked, 'Have you fulfilled what you had to do?' I replied, 'Allaah has settled every debt that was due form His Rasool and nothing is left outstanding'. He then asked me if anything was left over and I informed him that two Dinaars were left (this was all that was left from the two or one and a half Awqiya since the balance was also used to pay creditors on the way back to the Masjid). Rasulullaah then said, 'Do try to give me peace from that as well (by giving it away) because I cannot return to any of my wives until I have peace from it.' However, since no one deserving came to us, Rasulullaah spent the entire night in the Masjid. He then spent the second day in the Masjid as well. It was at the end of the day when two riders eventually came. I approached them and gave them food and clothing. After Rasulullaah had led the Isha salaah, he summoned me and asked, 'Have you fulfilled what you had to do?' I replied by saying, 'Allaah has given you peace from it.' Rasulullaah then exclaimed 'Allaahu Akbar' and praised Allaah because he feared that death should overcome him while he had wealth in his possession. I then walked behind him as he greeted each one of his wives in turn and finally reached his place for the night. This is the reply to the question you have posed. (1)

Distribution of Wealth

The Manner in which Rasulullah Distributed Wealth

The Narration of Ummul Mu'mineen Hadhrat Ummu Salama

Hadhrat Ummu Salama narrates, "I know of the most amount of wealth that came to Rasulullah during his entire lifetime. It was during the early hours of the night when a bag came to Rasulullah containing eight hundred Dirhams and a letter. Rasulullah sent the bag to me because it was my turn to spend the night with him. He then returned after performing the Isha salaah and started performing salaah in the place he reserved for salaah. I had already made the bed for us and was waiting for him. He however took very long and left the room only to return again after a while. This continued until the Adhaan was called out for the Fajr salaah. He led the salaah and then returned saying, 'Where is that bag? It troubled me the entire night.' He took the bag and then distributed everything it had. I then asked him, 'O Rasulullah! You had behaved in a manner that is not your usual behaviour (Why is this?).' He replied by saying, 'Whenever I started my salaah, I started thinking of the bag. I then had to leave to see it and then return to my salaah.'(1)

Rasulullah Distributes the Eighty Thousand that Hadhrat Alaa bin Hadhrami had Sent

Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari narrates that Hadhrat Alaa bin Hadhrami once sent eighty thousand to Rasulullah from Bahrain. Never before or afterwards had so much money been sent to Rasulullah. According to the instruction of Rasulullah, the money was spread out on a mat and the Adhaan was called out. Bending over the money (after the salaah was over), Rasulullah then started giving to the people as they came. That day there was no counting and no weighing. All Rasulullah did was to give out handfuls.

He Abbaas then arrived saying, "O Rasulullah! I had to pay the ransom for myself and for (my nephew) Aqeel after the Battle of Badr because he did no have any money then. Do give me some of that money." "Take some," Rasulullah said to him. Hadhrat Abbaas then spread out the embroidered black shawl he was wearing (and filled it). When he wanted to get up to leave, he was unable to carry it. He then looked up to Rasulullah and said, "O Rasulullah! Please lift this onto me." Rasulullah smiled so widely that his teeth showed. He said, "Rather put some of it back and take only what you can carry." Hadhrat Abbaas did as told and then left with the money he took. As he left, he said, "As for one of the things Allaah has promised,

(1) Tabraani, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.10 Pg.325).
He has certainly fulfilled. I do not know about the second promise." He then recited the verse:

He said further, "This money is better than that which was taken from me (as ransom) but I have no idea about the promise of forgiveness." (2)

The Manner in which Hadhrat Abu Bakr Distributed Wealth

The Practice of Hadhrat Abu Bakr in this Regard and the Public Treasury during his Period as Khalifah

Hadhrat Sahl bin Abi Hathma and others reports that Hadhrat Abu Bakr had the Baytul Maal (public treasury) in Sunh. It was known to all and no one guarded it. When people voiced the concern that it should be guarded, he said, "None should fear about it." "Why not?" they asked. "Because it has a lock on it," was the simple reply.

Hadhrat Abu Bakr used to distribute everything the Baytul Maal contained so that nothing remained. When Hadhrat Abu Bakr moved (from Sunh) to Madinah, he kept the Baytul Maal in the house he lived. Proceeds from the mines of the Qabiliyya and Juhayna tribes came to him. The mine of the Banu Sulaym was also opened during his Khilafah, so the Zakaah came from there as well. Everything was kept in the Baytul Maal. Hadhrat Abu Bakr used to convert this into gold and silver nuggets and give every hundred people a specified amount (which they shared between themselves). He was fair in his distribution and all received justly whether they were slaves or free people, men or women, young or old. He also used the money to purchase camels, horses and weapons for people proceeding in Jihaad. During one of the years, he bought warm woollen shawls from the rural areas and distributed them amongst the widows of Madinah during winter.

When Hadhrat Abu Bakr passed away, Hadhrat Umar called a few trustworthy persons and they went into the Baytul Maal of Hadhrat Abu Bakr. Amongst others, they included Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf and Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Affaan. When they opened the Baytul Maal, they neither found a Dinar nor a Dirham. All they found was a coarse cloth for storing money and when they shook it, all that emerged was a single Dirham. They all then prayed for Hadhrat Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه. There was a man in Madinah who weighed Dinars and Dirhams even during the time of Rasulullaah ﷺ. It was he who used to do the weighing for Hadhrat Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه as well. When he was asked what the value of the wealth was that came to Hadhrat Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه, he replied that it amounted to two hundred thousand. (1)

The Narration of Hadhrat Ismaa'eel bin Muhammad and others about the Fairness in the Manner that Hadhrat Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه Distributed Wealth

Hadrat Ismaa'eel bin Muhammad reports that whenever Hadhrat Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه distributed wealth amongst the people he always gave equally. Hadrat Umar رضي الله عنه once objected saying, "O Khalifah of Rasulullaah ﷺ! How can you give the same to the veterans of Badr as you give to other people?" Hadrat Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه replied, "The things of this world are merely a means of existence and the best of such means are those that are moderate (and this applies equally to all people). The superiority of the veterans of Badr shall be seen in their rewards (in the Aakhirah). (2)

Another narration states that when it was mentioned to Hadrat Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه that he ought to give preference to some people in the distribution of wealth, he said, "Their virtues shall be rewarded by Allaah (in the Aakhirah). With regard to their worldly existence, equality is best." (3)

Yet another narration from Hadrat Aslam states that when Hadrat Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه became the Khalifah and distributed equally amongst the people, someone said to him, "0 Khalifah of Rasulullaah ﷺ! Why do you not give preference to the Muhaajireen and the Ansaar (by giving them a larger share)?" Hadrat Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه replied, "Should I buy their virtues from them? With regard to people's existence in this world, equality is better than showing preference." A narration from Amr bin Abdullaah states that after Hadrat Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه distributed wealth for the first time, Hadrat Umar رضي الله عنه said to him, "Why do you not show preference to the earliest Muhaajireen and the earliest Muslims?" Hadrat Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه responded by saying, "Should I buy from them the lead they have?" He then continued to exercise equality whenever he distributed. (4)

The Incident of the Wealth that Arrived from Bahrain

About Hadrat Umar رضي الله عنه, the freed slave of Ghafra reports that when Rasulullaah ﷺ passed away, plenty of wealth arrived from Bahrain. Hadrat Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه made an announcement saying, "Whoever Rasulullaah ﷺ owed money to or whom Rasulullaah had promised some money should come and collect his dues." Hadhrat Jaabir stood up and said, "Rasulullaah told me that when the wealth came from Bahrain, he would give me so much (he then indicated three handfuls)." Hadhrat Abu Bakr told him to take from the money and when he did so (took one handful), he had five hundred Dirhams. Hadhrat Abu Bakr then gave instructions that he be given another thousand Dirhams (to complete three handfuls). Thereafter, he distributed all the wealth by giving each person ten Dirhams as he said, "This is the fulfilment of the promise that Rasulullaah made to the people."

The following year even more money arrived and Hadhrat Abu Bakr gave the people twenty Dirhams each. When there was still some money remaining, he gave the slaves five Dirhams each. He addressed the people saying, "We have given something to these slaves of yours because they serve you and do your work for you." The people then requested, "Why do you not give more to the Muhaajireen and the Ansaar because they were the earliest Muslims and because Rasulullaah held them in high esteem." However, Hadhrat Abu Bakr said, "Their rewards are reserved with Allaah (in the Aakhirah). In this world, equality is better than giving preference." This was his practice throughout the period of his Khilaafah. (1)

The rest of the narration will soon be quoted (in the first narration of the next chapter).

The narration has already passed about the equality that Hadhrat Ali exercised when he said to the Arab woman to whom he had given as much as he gave a slave woman, "I have studied the Book of Allaah and have not found in it anything denoting that the progeny of Ismaa'eel (Arabs) should be given preference over the progeny of Is'haaq." The Manner in which Hadhrat Umar Faarooq Distributed Wealth and the Preference he Gave to People According to their Precedence in Islaam and their Ties with Rasulullaah

His Practice in this Regard and the Allowances he Stipulated for People According to their Status

Hadrath Umar the freed slave of Ghafra reports the narration appearing above. The narration continues to state that after Hadhrat Abu Bakr passed away, Hadhrat Umar succeeded him. During the Khilaafah of Hadhrat Umar, Allaah granted the Muslims numerous conquests and even more wealth (poured into Madinah). Hadhrat Umar said, "While Abu Bakr had his opinion about the distribution of this wealth, I have another opinion. I do not hold those who fought against Rasulullaah in the same esteem as those who fought alongside him." He therefore gave preference to the Muhaajireen and the Ansaar. He stipulated an allowance of five thousand for the veterans of Badr and four thousand for those who had accepted Islam before the veterans of Badr (but had not participated in the Battle of Badr). He stipulated an allowance of twelve thousand for all the wives of Rasulullah besides Hadhrat Safiyya and Hadhrat Juwayriyya, for whom he had stipulated six thousand. However, the two ladies refused to accept the amount. Hadhrat Umar explained that he was giving more to the others because they had made Hijrah whereas the two of them had not. They argued, "You have not stipulated their share because of their Hijrah. You have stipulated a share for them because of their relationship with Rasulullah and we all share the same relationship." Hadhrat Umar thought the matter over and then stipulated an equal allowance (of twelve thousand) for them all.

Hadhrat Umar also stipulated an allowance of twelve thousand for Hadhrat Abbaas bin Abdil Muttalib because of his relationship with Rasulullah. Furthermore, he stipulated four thousand for Hadhrat Usama bin Zaid and five thousand each for Hadhrat Hasan and Hadhrat Husayn, an amount equal to that which their father (Hadhrat Ali) received because of their relationship (as grandsons) to Rasulullah. When he stipulated for his son Abdullaah three thousand, his son said, "Dear father! You have stipulated (four thousand) for Usama and only three thousand for me whereas his father had no more status than my father and he has no more status than I?" Hadhrat Umar replied, "His father was more beloved to Rasulullah than your father and he was more beloved to Rasulullah than you."

Hadhrat Umar also stipulated two thousand for the sons of every veteran of Badr. When Umar the son of Hadhrat Abu Salamah passed by, Hadhrat Umar instructed his servants to give him an additional thousand. To this, Hadhrat Muhammad the son of Hadhrat Abdullaah (bin Jahash) enquired, "Why are you giving him more than us when his father had no more status than our fathers?" Hadhrat Umar replied, "I stipulated two thousand for him because of (his father) Abu Salamah and then increased a further thousand because of (his mother) Ummu Salamah (the wife of Rasulullah). If you had a mother like Ummu Salamah, I would have also given you another thousand."

While Hadhrat Umar stipulated eight hundred for Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Ubaydullaah the brother of Hadhrat Talha bin Ubaydullaah, he stipulated two thousand for Hadhrat Nadhar bin Anas. To this, Hadhrat Talha bin Ubaydullaah remarked, "When someone like Uthmaan (bin Ubaydullaah) comes to you, you stipulate eight hundred for him but when a youngster from the Ansaar comes to you, you include him amongst those who receive two thousand?" Hadhrat Umar replied, "I met the father of that youngster on the battlefield of Uhud and he asked me about Rasulullah. When I told him that I assumed that Rasulullah had been martyred, he drew his sword, extended his wrist and said, 'If Rasulullaah is dead, then Allaah is still alive and can never die (it is after all for Allaah that we are fighting).'

He then fought until he was martyred. On the other hand, this person (Ubaydullaah the father of Uthmaan) was grazing goats at the time. Do you expect me to have the same regard for both persons?" Hadhrat Umar maintained this practice throughout his period of Khilaafah. (1) The remainder of the narration will follow soon. (2)

The Narration of Hadhrat Anas in this Regard

Hadhrat Anas bin Maalik and Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Musayyib both report that Hadhrat Umar stipulated five thousand for the Muhaajireen, four thousand for the Ansaaar and also four thousand for the sons of the Muhaajireen who could not fight in the Battle of Badr. Amongst these were Hadhrat Umar the son of Abu Salamah bin Abdul Asad Makhzoomi, Hadhrat Usaama the son of Hadhrat Zaid, Hadhrat Muhammad the son of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Jahash Asadi and Hadhrat Abdullaah the son of Hadhrat Umar. To this, Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf said that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar (the son of Hadhrat Umar) did not belong to this group because of his virtues. He then enumerated the virtues (meaning that he should receive more than the others). Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar said, "Give it to me if I have a right to it, otherwise do not." Hadhrat Umar then said to Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf, "Include him amongst those who are to receive five thousand and record me amongst those who are to receive four thousand." "This is not at all what I meant," Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar clarified. Hadhrat Umar said, "By Allaah! You and I cannot both be amongst those receiving five thousand." (3)

The Narration of Hadhrat Zaid bin Aslam in this Regard Hadhrat Zaid bin Aslam narrates that when Hadhrat Umar was stipulating allowances, he stipulated two thousand Dirhams for Hadhrat Abdullaah, the son of Hadhrat Handhala. When Hadhrat Talha brought his cousin along and Hadhrat Umar stipulated a lesser amount for him, Hadhrat Talha asked, "O Amerul Mu'mineen! You have given more to that Ansaari than to my cousin (who is a Muhaajir)." "Yes," replied Hadhrat Umar, "because I saw his father (Hadhrat Handhala) during the Battle of Uhud shielding himself with only his sword (he had no shield) and moving it like a camel (moves its tail in all directions. He did this to deflect enemy swords and

The Narration of Hadhrat Naashira bin Sumay Yazani in this Regard

Hadhrat Naashira bin Sumay Yazani reports that on the day Hadhrat Umar was in Jaabiya, he heard Hadhrat Umar delivering a lecture in which he said, "Allaah has made me the administrator and distributor of this wealth. It is in fact Allaah who distributes it (by setting the guidelines). I begin distributing by giving to the wives of Rasulullaah and then those who hold high status."

Hadhrat Umar had stipulated ten thousand for each of the wives of Rasulullaah besides Hadhrat Juwayriyya, Hadhrat Safiyya and Hadhrat Maymoona. However, when Hadhrat Aa'isha remarked that Rasulullaah used to treat them all with equality, Hadhrat Umar also did likewise (and gave them all an equal amount).

Hadhrat Umar also said in his lecture, "I then start with my companions who are the very first Muhaajireen because we were oppressively and forcefully banished from our homes. Thereafter, I give to the most noble amongst them."

Hadhrat Umar therefore stipulated five thousand for those Muhaajireen who were veterans of Badr and four thousand for the Ansaar who were veterans of Badr. Those who fought at Uhud were given three thousand.

Hadhrat Umar said further, "I readily give to those who readily made Hijrah and delay giving those who delayed in making Hijrah. Therefore, you should blame nothing else but the sitting down of your riding animals. Do excuse me from dismissing Khaalid bin Waleed from his post. I had dismissed him because instead of reserving some money for the poor Muslims as I had instructed, he rather gave it to people who were powerful, noble and eloquent. I then handed over command to Abu Ubaydah." At this point, Abu Amr bin Hafs commented saying, "By Allaah! You shall never be excused, O Umar bin Khattaab! You have dismissed a commander that Rasulullaah had appointed! You have sheathed a sword that Rasulullaah had drawn and lowered a flag that Rasulullaah had hoisted! You were only jealous of my cousin!" Hadhrat Umar responded by saying, "You are obviously a close relative (of Khaalid). You are still young and are angry for the sake of your cousin."

The Condition of Hadhrat Umar when Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari Brought a great deal of Wealth

eight hundred thousand Dirhams from Abu Moosa Ash'ari. Hadhrat Umar asked, 'What have you come with?' ‘I have come with eight hundred thousand Dirhams,’ replied Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah. Hadhrat Umar asked further, 'Is it all lawful?' 'It certainly is,' was the reply. Hadhrat Umar stayed awake the entire night until the Adhaan was called out for Fajr. His wife then asked, "Have you not slept last night?" He replied, "How could Umar bin Khattaab sleep when so much wealth has come that has never come since the beginning of Islaam? Umar has no assurance that he may die when all this wealth is still with him and he has not spent it where it ought to be spent."

After leading the Fajr salaah, a group of Sahabah gathered around Hadhrat Umar and he said, "Last night the people received so much money that they have never received since the beginning of Islaam. I have an opinion but require your guidance. I feel that I should give it to the people by weight." The others disagreed saying, "Do not do that, O Ameerul Mu'mineen! People are continuously entering the fold of Islaam and the wealth coming in is also increasing (it would therefore be difficult to keep track of who received what). Rather keep their records in a register and give them accordingly."

Hadhrat Umar agreed and said, "Then advise me about whom to start with." They said, "With yourself, O Ameerul Mu'mineen because you are the ruler." There were others who said, "Because the Ameerul Mu'mineen is most knowledgeable." Hadhrat Umar remarked, "No. I shall rather start with Rasulullaah and then those who are closest to him."

Hadhrat Umar then had the register drawn up in this manner, starting with the Banu Haashim and the family of Abdul Muttalib. After giving them all, he gave the Banu Abd Shams and the Banu Naufal bin Abd Manaaf. He gave the Banu Abd Shams only because they were related to the mother of Haashim. (1)

The Register of Hadhrat Umar and His Giving First to the Relatives of Rasulullaah

Hadrat Jubayr bin Huwayrith reports that Hadhrat Umar consulted with the people concerning the filing of a register. Hadhrat Ali advised him to annually distribute all the money collected without keeping back anything. Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Affaan said, "I feel that plenty of wealth will be coming in, which will be enough to give everyone. If record is not kept of the people to know who had taken and who had not, the matter will get out of control." Thereafter, Hadhrat Waleed bin Hishaam bin Mughiera said, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! I have been to Shaam where I saw the rulers keep registers and records of the soldiers in their armies. You should therefore also keep registers and records of the soldiers in the army." Hadhrat Umar accepted this proposal and called for Hadhrat Aqeel bin Abi Taalib, Hadhrat Makhrama bin Naufal and Hadhrat Jubayr bin Mut'im, all of whom very well.

knew the lineage of the Quraysh.

Hadrat Umar gave the three men instructions to make a record of all the people according to their status. When they started writing the record, they commenced with the Banu Haashim (the family of Rasulullah (S.A.W)). Thereafter, they recorded Hadrat Abu Bakr (R.A) and his tribe, followed by Hadrat Umar (R.A) and his tribe. They did this to correspond with the sequence of the Khilaafah. When Hadrat Umar looked at the register, he said "By Allaah! This is how I would have liked it to be. However, I want you to start with Rasulullah followed by all his relatives according to their closeness in relationship to him. You should then eventually place Umar wherever Allaah has had him placed." (1)

The Incident Between Hadrat Umar and the Banu Adi Tribe Concerning the Distribution of Wealth

Hadrat Aslam reports that (after Hadrat Umar opposed the view to place him and his tribe after Hadrat Abu Bakr (R.A) and his tribe) the Banu Adi (the tribe of Hadrat Umar (R.A)) came to him and said, "You are the successor of Rasulullah (S.A.W)." Hadrat Umar corrected them saying, "Rather the successor of Abu Bakr (R.A), because Abu Bakr (R.A) was the successor of Rasulullah (S.A.W)." They continued, "Whatever it may be. However, why do you rather not leave yourself where the three men have written it." Hadrat Umar exclaimed, "Oh! Oh! Dear Banu Adi! Do you wish to get on my back and eat before other people, thereby destroying all my good deeds? I swear by Allaah that I shall never do so, (I shall start with relatives of Rasulullah (S.A.W) even though your names are written last. I have two companions who have walked a path and if I tread a different path, I shall not reach the destination. By Allaah! We have no honour in this world and cannot expect any of Allaah's rewards in the Aakhirah for our deeds without Muhammad (S.A.W). He is the source of our honour and his tribe is the most honourable of all Arabs. The next in kin to him are then most honourable and then those closest in kinship after them. The Arabs have honour only because of Rasulullah (S.A.W). Perhaps the lineage of some of us meets us with his after many generations. Once the generations meet up, our lineage does not part from his until it reaches Aadam (A.S) after a few more generations. Despite all of this (closeness to Rasulullah (S.A.W)), if the non-Arabs arrive on the Day of Qiyaamah with plenty of good deeds and we arrive with none, they will be closer to Rasulullah (S.A.W) than us. A person should therefore never look at his kinship and should carry out deeds for the rewards that Allaah holds. Verily, the one whose actions keep him lagging behind cannot be hurried along by his lineage." (2)

Hadhrat Abu Bakr and Hadhrat Ali

Concerning the Distribution of Wealth

Hadhrat Umar bin Abdullaah the freed slave of Ghafra reports that when Rasulullaah passed away, plenty of wealth arrived from Bahrain. He then narrated the entire narration as has appeared earlier. The narration also mentions that Hadhrat Umar once came out for the Jumu'ah salaah and after praising Allaah, he addressed the people saying, "The news has reached me that some of you have said that when Umar dies (or they said when the Ameerul Mu'mineen dies), we will instantly pledge allegiance to a certain person just as people instantly pledged allegiance to Abu Bakr. There is no doubt that the pledge of allegiance to Abu Bakr took place very suddenly, but where will we find another person like Abu Bakr to whom we would be prepared to fully submit ourselves as we did for Abu Bakr? Abu Bakr was of the opinion that the distribution of wealth should be with total equality whereas my opinion was that some people be given more. However, if I live this year, I shall switch to the opinion of Abu Bakr because his opinion is better than mine." The narration still continues further.

The Monetary Gifts that Hadhrat Umar Gave

Hadhrat Umar Gives Hadhrat Abbaas

What Remained in the Baytul Maal

Hadhrat Hasan reports that once after Hadhrat Umar had distributed money amongst the people, there was still some left over in the Baytul Maal. Hadhrat Abbaas then said to Hadhrat Umar and the people there, "Tell me if the uncle of Moosa was living amongst you, would you honour him?" "Certainly," they all replied. He then said, "Then I am more deserving of the honour for I am the uncle of your Nabi." After discussing with the others, Hadhrat Umar then gave the remaining amount to Hadhrat Abbaas.

The Narration of Hadhrat Aa'isha in this Regard

Hadhrat Aa'isha narrates that when a perfume holder once came to Hadhrat Umar, those around him looked at him to see whom he would give it to. He said, "Would you permit me to send this to Aa'isha because of the love that Rasulullaah had for her?" When they agreed, it was brought

Hadhrat Anas bin Maalik ⁹⁹ says that Hadhrat Abu Bakr ⁹⁹ had appointed him to collect the Zakaah. However, by the time he returned, Hadhrat Abu Bakr ⁹⁹ had already passed away. Hadhrat Umar ⁹⁹ then asked him, "O Anas! Have you brought us some animals?" When Hadhrat Anas ⁹⁹ replied that he had, Hadhrat Umar ⁹⁹ told him to hand over the animals and to keep the money for himself. "But the money is a large amount," said Hadhrat Anas ⁹⁹. Hadhrat Umar ⁹⁹ insisted, "Take it even though it is so much." Hadhrat Anas ⁹⁹ says, "The money amounted to four thousand and I therefore became the richest person in Madinah." (²)

Hadrath Umar ⁹⁹ Gives a Gift to a Person Injured in the Path of Allaah

Hadrath Abdullaah bin Ubayd bin Umayr reports that while people were busy taking their gifts before Hadrath Umar ⁹⁹, he looked up and was surprised to see a man with a scar on his face. Upon enquiry, the man informed Hadrath Umar ⁹⁹ that he had sustained the wound in a battle. Hadrath Umar ⁹⁹ then gave instructions that the man be given a thousand Dirhams. After the money was given, Hadrath Umar ⁹⁹ turned the money over in his hands for a while and then said, "Give him another thousand." Another thousand Dirhams were handed over. This occurred four times (so that the amount totalled four thousand). Feeling embarrassed that he was being given so much, the man left. When Hadrath Umar ⁹⁹ asked about him, the people informed him that they felt he had left out of the embarrassment of being given so much. Hadrath Umar ⁹⁹ then said, "By Allaah! Had he stayed, I would have continued giving him until there was not a single Dirham left. This is because the sword-wound he sustained in the path of Allaah had left a black scar on his face." (³)

Hadrath Ali bin Abi Taalib ⁹⁹ Distributes Wealth

Hadrath Ali ⁹⁹ distributed things amongst the people thrice in a year. Distribute Everything in the Baytul Maal

Hadhrat Umar Distributes all the wealth and Rejects the Proposal of a person who Advocated Keeping Reserves

Hadhrat Sa'eed narrates that Hadhrat Umar instructed (the public treasurer) Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Arqam to distribute everything in the Baytul Maal every month. Thereafter, he issued instructions for everything to be distributed once a week. He eventually gave the instruction for the distribution to be on a daily basis. Someone then said, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! Why do you not keep something in reserve for an emergency or when other areas call for assistance?" Addressing the person, Hadhrat Umar said, "It is Shaytaan speaking on your lips. Allaah has inspired me with the answer and protected me from the evil of the act. What I have prepared for such situations is exactly what Rasulullaah had prepared, and that is obedience to Allaah and His Rasool.

The Narration of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar in this Regard

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar reports that some wealth once came to Hadhrat Umar from Iraq. He was about to distribute it when someone stood up to say, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! Why do you rather not reserve this wealth to fend off an enemy that may suddenly attack or for another unforeseen emergency that may strike?" Hadhrat Umar admonished the person saying, "What is the matter with you?! May you be destroyed! It is Shaytaan speaking with your tongue. Allaah has inspired me with the response and I swear by Allaah that I shall never disobey Him today for the emergencies of tomorrow. I shall not (do as you say) but shall rather prepare for the Muslims that which Rasulullaah had prepared for them (obedience to Allaah and Rasulullaah)."

Hadhrat Umar responded by saying, "These are words that only Shaytaan could mention. Allaah has already inspired me with the response and saved me from its

The Letter of Hadhrat Umar ﷺ to Hadhrat Hudhayfah ﷺ

Hadhrat Hasan also reports that Hadhrat Umar ﷺ wrote to Hadhrat Hudhayfah ﷺ that he must give every person his dues and specified allowances. Hadhrat Hudhayfah ﷺ wrote back saying that a large sum of money still remained after he had done so. Hadhrat Umar ﷺ replied with a letter stating, "These are the spoils of the people that neither belongs to Umar nor to his family. Distribute it amongst the people." (3)

Hadhrat Ali ﷺ distributes all the Wealth

Hadhrat Ali bin Rabee'ah Waalibi reports that Ibn Nabbaaj once came to Hadhrat Ali ﷺ and said, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! The Baytul Maal of the Muslims is full of gold and silver." Hadhrat Ali ﷺ exclaimed, "Allaahu Akbar!" and then stood up with the support of Ibn Nabbaaj. Standing by the Baytul Mall, Hadhrat Ali ﷺ recited the following couplet (which means):

"These are the fruits ready for picking and the best of it is still here (I have taken none of it)
Whereas the picker usually has his hand to his mouth (ready to consume the fruit)"

He then continued, "O Ibn Nabbaaj! Bring the people of Kufa here." When an announcement was made (and the people arrived), Hadhrat Ali ﷺ distributed everything that lay in the Baytul Maal. As he distributed, he said, "O gold and O silver! Deceive someone else besides me." Addressing the people, he said, "Take! Take!" Eventually there was not a single Dinar or Dirham left. Hadhrat Ali \( \text{ص} \) then instructed Ibn Nabaaaj to wash out the Baytul Maal and (after it was washed out) he performed two Rakaahs salaah in it. \(^{(1)}\)

Hadhrat Mujamma Taymi reports that Hadhrat Ali \( \text{ص} \) used to sweep the Baytul Maal and perform salaah in it. He made it a place for his salaah in the hope that it would testify on his behalf on the Day of Qiyaamah. \(^{(2)}\)

Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Alaa reports from his grandfather that he heard Hadhrat Ali \( \text{ص} \) say, "I have received nothing from your spoils of war besides this date container that a chief of one of the rural towns gave me as a gift." He then went down to the Baytul Maal where he distributed everything it contained. He then recited the following couplet (which means):

"Successful is the one who has a little basket
From which he eats once a day"

Hadhrat Antara Shaybaani says that Hadhrat Ali \( \text{ص} \) used to collect Jizya and Kharaaj from every artisan. For this, he took something of their crafts. In fact, he even took from cloth makers some of their needles, knitting needles, cottons and thread. He then distributed this amongst the people. He would never leave anything for a night in the Baytul Maal without distributing it. The only time he would leave it for the morning was when he was too preoccupied with something else. He would always say, "O world! Go and deceive someone other than myself." He often recited the following couplet (which means):

"These are the fruits ready for picking and the best of it is still here (I have taken none of it)
Whereas the picker usually has his hand to his mouth (ready to consume the fruit)"

Abu Ubayd reports a narration from Hadhrat Antara which states that he once went to Hadhrat Ali \( \text{ص} \) when (his slave) Qambar arrived and said, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! You have left nothing (after distribution) whereas your family are also entitled to a share of the wealth. However, I have kept something aside." "What have you kept aside?" enquired Hadhrat Ali \( \text{ص} \). "Come and see for yourself," Qambar replied. He then took Hadhrat Ali \( \text{ص} \) to the house where there was a large gold plated dish filled with dishes of gold and silver. When he saw this, Hadhrat Ali \( \text{ص} \) exclaimed, "Shame on you! Do you wish to fill my house with a raging fire?!" He then started weighing the dishes and giving a portion to the chiefs of every tribe. Thereafter, he said:

"These are the fruits ready for picking and the best of it is still here (I have taken none of it)
Whereas the picker usually has his hand to his mouth (ready to consume the fruit)"

Addressing the wealth, he added further, "Do not deceive me. Go an deceive

The Opinion of Hadhrat Umar  on the Rights of the Muslims in Wealth

The Narration of Hadhrat Aslam in this Regard

Hadhrat Aslam reports that he heard Hadhrat Umar say, "Gather around to consult and ponder about who should be the recipients of this wealth. (When the people forming the consultative assembly had gathered) Hadhrat Umar said to them, "I have instructed you to gather here to ponder about who should receive this wealth. I have studied a few verses of the Qur'aan in which Allaah says:

\text{ما أَفَاتَ اللَّهُ عَلَى رَسُولِهِ مِنْ أَهْلِ الْفُرْقَى فَلِلَّهِ وَلِلَّهِ يُلْبِسُ وَلِلَّهِ يُبِينُ} \\
\text{وَالْمُسِكِينِ وَالْمَهْدِرِينَ الْمُهِجَّرِينَ الَّذِينَ أُخِرِجُوا مِنْ دِيَارِهِمْ وَأَمْوَالِهِمْ يَنْتَفَعُونَ فِي} \\

The booty that Allaah granted His Rasool (without a battle being fought) from the people of the villages is for Allaah (to be distributed as Allaah pleases), for the (needs of the) Rasool, for the relatives (of Rasulullaah ), for the orphans, for the poor and for the travellers so that this wealth may not remain as amassed riches with the wealthy among you (by distributing it in this manner, the wealth is circulated among people so that all may benefit). Hold fast to what (commands) the Rasool gives you and refrain from what (actions) He prevents you (because whatever he instructs you is from Allaah). Fear (disobeying) Allaah, for Allaah punishes very severely. (A share of the booty received without a fight is also reserved) For the poor Muhaajireen who were removed from their homes and their possessions. They seek Allaah's grace and pleasure and assist Allaah and His Rasool These are the ones who are true (in their claim to Imaan).

(1) Abu Nu’aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.81), as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummal (Vol.5 Pg.57). Ahmad in his Zuhd and Musaddad has also reported the narration, as also quoted in Muntakhab Kanzal Ummal (Vol.5 Pg.57).

(2) Surah Hashar, verses 7,8.
(Part of this booty is also for) Those (the Ansar) who adopted the place (Madinah) as their home before them (before the Muhaajireen) and (had adopted) Imaan. They (the Ansar) love those who migrate to them (the Muhaajireen) and find no want (jealousy or envy) in their hearts for what they (the Muhaajireen) are given. They (the Ansar) prefer (others) above themselves (they prefer to give others) even though they are themselves in need (of the things they give). (Like the Ansar,) Those who are saved from the miserliness (and greed) of the soul are really the successful ones (whom will attain salvation). (1)

Hadrat Umar رضي الله عنه said, "By Allaah! This wealth is not only for these people (there are others also as mentioned in the forthcoming verse).

(2) Surah Hashar, verse 10.

(3) Bayhaqi (Vol.6 Pg.351).

The Narration of Hadrat Maalik bin Hadathaan

Narrating the same incident, Hadrat Maalik bin Aws bin Hadathaan reports that Hadrat Umar رضي الله عنه also recited the following verses:

Alms (zakaah) are only for the poor, the destitute (people whose total wealth is less than the value of Nisaab), the orphans, those appointed to collect them (zakaah), those whose hearts have to be reconciled (a group that existed only during the time of Rasulullaah ﷺ), for (the freedom of) slaves, for those in debt (who are not merely stalling payment), for (those striving in) the path of Allaah (and have no means) and for the traveller (who has no means). This is ordered (as obligatory) by Allaah. Allaah is All Knowing, The Wise (Allaah knows best who should receive zakaah and it is therefore not permissible for man to decide that any other group of persons besides the above groups should receive zakaah). (1)

He then added, "Zakaah is reserved for these people." Thereafter, he recited:

(1) Surah Taubah, verse 60.

(2) Surah Anfaal, verse 41.
the Rasool (saw) gives you and refrain from what (actions) He prevents you (because whatever he instructs you is from Allaah). Fear (disobeying) Allaah, for Allaah punishes very severely. (A share of the booty received without a fight is also reserved) For the poor Muhaajireen who were removed from their homes and their possessions. They seek Allaah's grace and pleasure and assist Allaah and His Rasool (saw). These are the ones who are true (in their claim to Imaan). (1)

He added, "That refers to the Muhaajireen." He then continued:

(عَدَّلَ لَهُمَا حَاجَةً مَّا أُوتُوا وَيُؤْتُونَ عَلَى أَنفُسِهِمْ وَلَوْ كَانُوا يَهْمُّ حَصَاصُةً وَمَنْ يُؤْقِرُ شَرَابَةً قَانُونًاَ قَانُونًا (سوره حشر: 9)

(Part of this booty is also for) Those (the Ansaar) who adopted the place (Madinah) as their home before them (before the Muhaajireen) and (had adopted) Imaan. They (the Ansaar) love those who migrate to them (the Muhaajireen) and find no want (jealousy or envy) in their hearts for what they (the Muhaajireen) are given. They (the Ansaar) prefer (others) above themselves (they prefer to give others) even though they are themselves in need (of the things they give). (Like the Ansaar,) Those who are saved from the miserliness (and greed) of the soul are really the successful ones (whom will attain salvation). (2)

To this, Hadhrat Umar (ra) said, "That refers to the Ansaar." Finally, he recited:

(وَالَّذِينَ جَآءُوا مِنْ بَعْلِهِمْ يَقُولُونَ رَبّنَا اغْفِرْ لَنَا وَإِخْرَاجُ النَّذِينَ سَبَقُوْتِنَّ بِالإِيمَانِ وَلَا تَجْعَلْ فِي قُلُوبِهِمْ غَلَابًا غَلَابًا أَنَّا رَبُّنَا أَنْثِبْنَ أَنْفُسَنَّ إِلَّا أَنْفُسَنَّ رَجُلُ وَجُحَمُ (سوره حشر: 10)

(It should also be given to) Those who come after them (after the Muhaajireen and Ansaar who) say, "O our Rabb! Forgive us and our brothers (the Sahabah) who passed before us with Imaan. And do not place any impurity (ill-feelings) in our hearts against those who have Imaan. O our Rabb! Indeed You are the Most Forgiving, Most Merciful." (3)

He then said, "This verse encompasses all people. There is therefore no Muslim apart from your slaves who do not have a right to this wealth. If I live Inshaa Allaah, there shall not be a single Muslim who will not receive his right even though he be a shepherd in the upper reaches of Himyar (in Yemen). His right will reach him without a drop of perspiration on his forehead (without any effort on his part)." (4)

Hadrat Talha bin Ubaydullaah Distributes Wealth

The Incident of Hadrat Talha and a Woman
Hadrat Su'da narrates, "I once went to my husband Talha bin Ubaydullaah and noticed that he was carrying a burden of grief. 'What is the matter?' I asked, 'Did we perhaps cause this grief to overcome you?' 'Not at all,' he replied, 'you are an excellent wife to any Muslim man. The problem is that some wealth has accumulated by me and I do not know what to do with it.' I then said, 'Why should this perturb you? Call up your family people and distribute it amongst them.' He then told his slave to summon all of his family (and he gave it all to them). I (later) asked his treasurer how much was distributed and he informed me that it was four hundred thousand." (1)

The Narration of Hadrat Hasan in this Regard
Hadrat Hasan reports that Hadrat Talha once sold a piece of land he owned for seven hundred thousand. Because the money stayed the night with him, he stayed awake the entire night out of fear (that he should die without giving it away). He then distributed it all as soon as morning arrived. (2)

Talha 'Fayyaadha' (The Very Generous)
Hadrat Su'da the wife of Hadrat Talha reports that she once came to Hadrat Talha and found him to be extremely distressed. She asked, "Why are you so distressed? Have we caused this grief to overcome you?" He replied, "By Allaah! You have caused me no distress at all. You are a most excellent wife. It is some money that has been collected with me (that I am concerned about)." Hadrat Su'da reports further. She says, "I advised him to send for his family and his tribe and to distribute it amongst them. After he had done so, I asked the treasurer how much money there was. He informed me that it amounted to four hundred thousand. His daily earnings amounted to a thousand Waafi (approximately 1666 Dirhams) and he was given the title of Talha Fayyaad (The Very Generous)." (3) then distributed the money every night and had nothing left by the time he returned home. (1)

Hadrat Mugheeth bin Sumay reports that although Hadrat Zubayr bin Awwaam Ṣahbhah had a thousand slaves who worked and gave their earnings to him, not a single Dirham of these earnings entered his house (he gave everything away to the needy). (2)

The Incident Between Hadrat Zubayr Ṣahbah and his Son Abdullaah Ṣahbah Concerning his Debts

Hadrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr Ṣahbah says, "When (my father) Zubayr Ṣahbah stood for the Battle of Jamal, he called for me. As I stood by his side, he said, 'Dear son! None but an oppressor or an oppressed person shall be killed today and I strongly feel that I shall be killed today as one oppressed. However, my greatest worry is my debts. Do you think that our debts will leave any of our money behind? Nevertheless, dear son, I want you to sell our properties to settle my debts.' He also made a bequest for a third to be given away and a third of that third was to be given to the (grand) children. In this regard, he said, 'A third of the third. (He explained) If anything remains after settling the debts, a third (of the third) should go to your children.'" One of narrators by the name of Hishaam says that some of the children of Hadrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr Ṣahbah such as Khubayb and Abbaad were the same age as some of Hadrat Zubayr Ṣahbah's sons. At that time, Hadrat Zubayr Ṣahbah had nine sons and nine daughters.

Hadrat Abdullaah Ṣahbah narrates further, "Advising me about the debt, my father said, 'Dear son! If you are unable to settle something, seek help from my friend.' 'Who is your friend, O father?' I asked. 'Allaah,' he replied. By Allaah! Each time I encountered any difficulty concerning the debt, I said, 'O friend of Zubayr! Settle his debt for him.' Allaah would then settle the debt."

"Zubayr Ṣahbah was martyred that day without leaving behind a single Dinaar or Dirham. All that he left were a few properties, one of which was in Ghaabah. He also left eleven houses in Madinah, two in Basrah, one in Kufa and another in Egypt. The only reason that he had debts was because when people would bring their money to him for safekeeping, he would say to them, 'I cannot accept it as a trust but shall treat it as a loan because I fear that it should not be destroyed (if it is destroyed as a loan, I am liable to pay you back whereas I am not liable to do so if it is only a trust).' My father never was a governor nor did he ever accept appointment as a collector of zakaah. All he did was to accompany Rasulullaah Ṣahbah, Hadrat Abu Bakr Ṣahbah, Hadrat Umar Ṣahbah and Hadrat Uthmaan Ṣahbah on the battlefields. When I calculated his debts, they totalled two million, two hundred thousand."

Hadrat Abdullaah Ṣahbah narrates further, he says, "Hakeem bin Hizaam Ṣahbah once met him and asked, 'Dear nephew! How much was the debt of my brother (Hadrat Zubayr Ṣahbah)?' I did not disclose the entire figure to him and replied,

(1) Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.90).
(2) Bayhaqi (Vol.8 Pg.9) and Yaqqoob bin Sufyaan, as quoted in Isaaabah (Vol.1 Pg.546).
'A hundred thousand.' He then said, 'By Allaah! I do not think that you have enough money for that.' I said, 'What would you say if it was two million, two hundred thousand?' He replied, 'I do not think that you would ever be able to settle it. Nevertheless, if you need any assistance, do not hesitate to ask me.'

Hadrat Zubayr \(\text{زبارة} \text{pb}}\text{}}\) had purchased the piece of land in Ghaabah for one hundred and seventy thousand. Hadrat Abdullaah \(\text{عبدلاة} \text{pb}}\text{}}\) evaluated its value to be one million, six hundred thousand (he then divided it into sixteen parts, each worth a hundred thousand). He then made the announcement, "Whoever has a debt due from Zubayr should meet us at Ghaabah." Hadrat Abdullaah bin Ja'far \(\text{ابن جعفر} \text{pb}}\text{}}\) came up. He was owed a sum of a hundred thousand. He said to Hadrat Abdullaah \(\text{عبدلاة} \text{pb}}\text{}}\), "If you please, I could write off the debt." "No," replied Hadrat Abdullaah bin Ja'far \(\text{ابن جعفر} \text{pb}}\text{}}\), "if you so wish, you could include me amongst those who are the last to be paid." When Hadrat Abdullaah \(\text{عبدلاة} \text{pb}}\text{}}\) did not agree to this either, Hadrat Abdullaah bin Ja'far \(\text{ابن جعفر} \text{pb}}\text{}}\) asked to be given a piece of the land in settlement. Hadrat Abdullaah \(\text{عبدلاة} \text{pb}}\text{}}\) then gave him a piece of the land saying, "You may have the land from this point to this point." Hadrat Abdullaah \(\text{عبدلاة} \text{pb}}\text{}}\) then sold the other pieces of land and settled all the debts in full. At the end, there were only four and a half properties left (from the sixteen). Hadrat Abdullaah \(\text{عبدلاة} \text{pb}}\text{}}\) then approached Hadrat Mu'aawiya \(\text{أوووية} \text{pb}}\text{}}\) who was then in the company of Hadrat Amr bin Uthmaan \(\text{أمر بن عثمان} \text{pb}}\text{}}\), Hadrat Mundhir bin Zubayr \(\text{مذخر بن زبارة} \text{pb}}\text{}}\) and Hadrat Ibn Zam'ah \(\text{ابن زمح} \text{pb}}\text{}}\). "How much did you evaluate the property at Ghaabah to be?"

When Hadrat Abdullaah \(\text{عبدلاة} \text{pb}}\text{}}\) informed him that each portion was valued at a hundred thousand, Hadrat Mu'aawiya \(\text{أوووية} \text{pb}}\text{}}\) asked how many portions were still available. "Four and a half," replied Hadrat Abdullaah \(\text{عبدلاة} \text{pb}}\text{}}\). "I shall take one portion for a hundred thousand," said Hadrat Mundhir bin Zubayr \(\text{مذخر بن زبارة} \text{pb}}\text{}}\). "And I shall take another for a hundred thousand," said Hadrat Amr bin Uthmaan \(\text{أمر بن عثمان} \text{pb}}\text{}}\). "I too shall take one for a hundred thousand," said Hadrat Ibn Zam'ah \(\text{ابن زمح} \text{pb}}\text{}}\). Hadrat Mu'aawiya then asked, "How many does that leave?" "One and a half portions," replied Hadrat Abdullaah \(\text{عبدلاة} \text{pb}}\text{}}\). "I shall take them for a hundred and fifty thousand," said Hadrat Mu'aawiya \(\text{أوووية} \text{pb}}\text{}}\). Hadrat Abdullaah bin Ja'far \(\text{ابن جعفر} \text{pb}}\text{}}\) also sold his portion of the land to Hadrat Mu'aawiya \(\text{أوووية} \text{pb}}\text{}}\) for six hundred thousand.

When Hadrat Abdullaah \(\text{عبدلاة} \text{pb}}\text{}}\) had settled all the debts, the children of Hadrat Zubayr \(\text{زبارة} \text{pb}}\text{}}\) asked for their inheritance to be distributed. However, Hadrat Abdullaah \(\text{عبدلاة} \text{pb}}\text{}}\) refused and said, "By Allaah! I shall not distribute anything amongst you until I make an announcement during four Hajj seasons calling all people who were owed any money by (our father) Zubayr \(\text{زبارة} \text{pb}}\text{}}\). He then made the announcement during four consecutive years during the Hajj season. It was only after the fourth year that he finally distributed the inheritance (amongst his brothers and sisters). Hadrat Zubayr \(\text{زبارة} \text{pb}}\text{}}\) had four wives and he had also bequeathed a third of the estate. Despite this, each wife received an amount of one million, two hundred thousand. His entire estate amounted to fifty million, two hundred thousand. (1)

Allaama Ibn Katheer has mentioned, "The total amount distributed between the heirs was thirty eight million, four hundred thousand. The total amount bequeathed to others totalled nineteen million, two hundred thousand. The sum of the two was therefore fifty seven million, six hundred thousand. The debts paid before this amounted to two million, two hundred thousand, making the sum total of the entire estate fifty nine million, eight hundred thousand. We have mentioned this only because of the objections that arise about the narration of Bukhaari. It is therefore necessary that this matter be clarified." (2)

Hadhrat Ummu Bakr bint Miswar reports that Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf ممـٓـٰٓٓ once sold a property of his for forty thousand Dinaars. He then distributed it amongst the Banu Zuhrah tribe, the poor Muslims, the Muhaajireen and the wives of Rasulullaah ﷺ. When she was informed that Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf ممـٓـٰٓٓ had sent it and the entire incident was reported to her, she said, "Rasulullaah ﷺ once said (to us his wives), 'After my demise, none but the truly steadfast ones will show compassion towards you.' The slave took the bag and said to Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah \( \text{\textsuperscript{260}} \), "Ameerul Mu'mineen says that you should use this for your needs." Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah \( \text{\textsuperscript{260}} \) prayed, "May Allaah reward him and shower His mercy on him." He then called for his slave girl and instructed her to give seven coins to a certain person, another five to another and another five to someone else. In this manner, he gave everything away. The slave then returned to Hadhrat Umar \( \text{\textsuperscript{260}} \) and informed him about what had transpired.

Hadhrat Umar \( \text{\textsuperscript{260}} \) then had the same amount of money placed in a bag for Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Jabal \( \text{\textsuperscript{260}} \). Addressing his slave once more, Hadhrat Umar \( \text{\textsuperscript{260}} \) said, "Take this to Mu'aadh bin Jabal \( \text{\textsuperscript{260}} \) and then busy yourself with something in the house for a while to see what he does with it." Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Jabal \( \text{\textsuperscript{260}} \) prayed, "May Allaah shower His mercy on him and reward him." He then called for his slave girl and instructed her to give an amount to a certain family, another amount to another and so forth until all the money was finished. When Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Jabal \( \text{\textsuperscript{260}} \) 's wife came to know about this, she came to him and said, "What about us? By Allaah! We are also poor. Do give us some of it." By then all that was left in the bag was two Dinaars, which he handed over to her. When the slave reported back to Hadhrat Umar \( \text{\textsuperscript{260}} \), he was very pleased and said, "They are all brothers of each other (and therefore act alike)." \(^{(1)}\)

Hadhrat Aslam reports that Hadhrat Umar \( \text{\textsuperscript{260}} \) once asked those around him to express their wishes. Someone said, "I wish that this room was filled with Dirhams that I could spend in the path of Allaah." When Hadhrat Umar \( \text{\textsuperscript{260}} \) asked another person to express his wish, he said, "I wish that this room was filled with gold that I could spend in the path of Allaah." When Hadhrat Umar \( \text{\textsuperscript{260}} \) repeated the request, another person said, "I wish that this room was filled with gems (or something as valuable) that I could spend in the path of Allaah." When Hadhrat Umar \( \text{\textsuperscript{260}} \) once again asked them to express their wishes, they submitted, "What more can we wish for?" Hadhrat Umar \( \text{\textsuperscript{260}} \) then said, "Unlike you, I wish that this room was filled with men like Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah \( \text{\textsuperscript{260}} \), Mu'aadh bin Jabal \( \text{\textsuperscript{260}} \) and Hudhayfah bin Yamaan \( \text{\textsuperscript{260}} \) so that I could employ them in the service of Allaah. Hadhrat Umar \( \text{\textsuperscript{260}} \) then sent some money to Hadhrat Hudhayfah \( \text{\textsuperscript{260}} \) and instructed the person taking it to see what he does with it. When the money came to him, Hadhrat Hudhayfah \( \text{\textsuperscript{260}} \) distributed it all (to the poor). Hadrat Abdullaah bin Umar

Distributes Wealth

He Distributes a Large Amount of Money all at Once and Spends in the path of Allaah Everything that Hadrat Mu'aawiya Sent to him

Hadrat Maymoon bin Mahraan reports that Hadrat Abdullaah bin Umar once received twenty thousand Dinaars as he was sitting in a gathering. He then distributed all of it before standing up from the gathering. Hadrat Naafi narrates that when Hadrat Mu'aawiya once sent a hundred thousand to Hadrat Abdullaah bin Umar, there was nothing left of it by the time the year came to an end (he had spent it all in the path of Allaah). (1)

He Spends Thousands in Cash in a Single day

Hadrat Ayyoob bin Waa'il Raasibi reports that when he went to Madinah, a neighbour of Hadrat Abdullaah bin Umar told him, "Hadrat Abdullaah bin Umar once received a sum of four thousand from Hadrat Mu'aawiya, four thousand from another person, a further two thousand from someone else as well as a shawl. He then came to the marketplace to buy some fodder for his animal for a Dirham. When he made the purchase on credit, I recalled the large amount of money that came to him and approached one of his slaves. I said to her, 'I wish to ask you something and want you to tell me the truth. Did Abu Abdur Rahmaan (Hadrat Abdullaah bin Umar) not receive four thousand from Hadrat Mu'aawiya, four thousand from another person, a further two thousand from someone else as well as a shawl?' 'Yes, he did,' she replied. 'Then why did he just buy some fodder on credit for a Dirham?' I asked. She said, 'He had spent all of it (in the path of Allaah) before sleeping. He the put the shawl on his back and also gave that away before returning home.' I then made an announcement saying, 'O assembly of traders! Why are you toiling for this world when Abdullaah bin Umar received ten thousand proper Dirhams last night and in the morning he is buying a Dirham's worth of fodder on credit?!'" (2)

Another Similar Incident About him

Hadrat Naafi reports that Hadrat Abdullaah bin Umar once received twenty odd thousand as he sat in a gathering. Before getting up from the gathering, he had already given it all away together with some more that he added. He continued giving until everything he had was finished. A person then came to him whom he usually gave (but the money was already finished by then).

Hadrat Abdullaah bin Umar ﷺ took a loan from someone whom he had already given money to and gave it to the person (who had come late). Hadrat Maymoon says, "I swear by Allaah that the person who called Hadrat Abdullaah bin Umar ﷺ a miser is definitely wrong. He was never miserly in worthy causes." (He of course never spent in unworthy causes and on himself.) (1)

Hadrat Ash'ath bin Qais ﷺ Distributes Wealth

Hadrat Abu Is'haaq reports, "A man from the Kindah tribe owed me some money and left to see him before dawn (to collect the money). However, I happened to be at the Masjid of Hadrat Ash'ath bin Qais ﷺ at the time of Fajr and performed the Fajr salaah there. After the Imaam had made the Salaam, Hadrat Ash'ath bin Qais ﷺ placed before every person a set of clothing, a pair of shoes and five hundred Dirhams. I told the people that I was not from the locality (but they still let me have it). When I asked what the gifts were for, the people informed me that Hadrat Ash'ath bin Qais ﷺ had just returned from Makkah (and was therefore giving gifts to the people). (2)

Hadrat Aa'isha ﷺ Distributes Wealth

Hadrat Ummu Durra says, "A hundred thousand was once brought to Hadrat Aa'isha ﷺ and she distributed it all even though she was fasting that day. I said to her, 'Could you not use a Dirham from the money to buy some meat with which to terminate your fast?' She replied, 'Had you reminded me about it, I would have done so.'"(3)

Hadrat Sauda bint Zam'ah ﷺ Distributes Wealth

Hadrat Muhammad bin Seereen reports that Hadrat Umar ﷺ once sent a bag full of Dirhams to Hadrat Sauda ﷺ (one of the wives of Rasulullaah ﷺ). "What is this?" she asked. When she was told that it was Dirhams, she remarked, "In a bag like dates?" She then distributed all the money (amongst the poor). (4)

Hadrat Zaynab bint Jahash ﷺ Distributes Wealth

The Incident of her and Ameerul Mu'mineen Hadrat Umar ﷺ

Hadrat Barra bint Raafi narrates, "When some surplus wealth was being distributed, Hadrat Umar ﷺ sent to Hadrat Zaynab bint Jahash ﷺ her share. When it was brought to her, she said, 'May Allaah forgive Umar ﷺ. My sisters besides me are better at distributing this than I am (take it to them rather).' When she was told that it was all hers, she exclaimed, 'Subhaanallaah!"

She then veiled herself and told the people bringing it to put it down and cover it with a cloth. Thereafter, she instructed me to put my hand beneath the cloth, to take a handful of coins and give it to the people of certain tribes, all of whom were her relatives and orphans. Eventually when there was only a little left beneath the cloth, I said to her, 'May Allaah forgive you, O Ummul Mu'mineen! By Allaah! We also have a right to this.' 'You may have whatever is left beneath the cloth,' she said. We found eighty five Dirhams there. She then raised her hands towards the sky and prayed, 'O Allaah! Let not the surplus of Umar reach me after this year.' She then passed away (not long afterwards)." (1)

Another Similar Incident About her

Hadhrat Muhammad bin Ka'b narrates that the share of Hadhrat Zaynab bint Jahash from the surplus wealth amounted to twelve thousand. She however, only took it once. (After receiving it) She prayed, "O Allaah! Do not let me have this wealth next year because it is a great tribulation." She then gave it all out to her family and to needy people. When this news reached Hadhrat Umar, he said, "She is a woman with whom Allaah intends only good." He then went to her door and sent her Salaams saying, "The news has reached me about how you gave away all the money (without keeping anything for yourself). I am therefore sending you another thousand to keep for yourself." However, Hadhrat Zaynab did the same thing (and gave all of it to others). (2)

Allowances for Babies

An Incident of a Woman and Hadhrat Umar when he Stipulates an Allowance for every Muslim baby

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar reports that when a trade caravan arrived (in Madinah), they set up camp at the place where the Muslims performed the Eid salaah. Hadhrat Umar asked Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf whether he was prepared to accompany him to guard the camp against theft that night. (Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf agreed and) The two men spent the night guarding the camp and performing salaah (in turn). Hearing the cry of a child, Hadhrat Umar went in the direction and said to the mother, "Fear Allaah and treat your child well." He then returned to where he was. When he again heard the child cry, he went back to the mother and repeated what he had said earlier. He then returned to his place. When he again heard the child cry towards the end of the night, he returned to the mother and said, "Shame on you! You seem to be a terrible mother! It seems like your child will not be calmed the entire night."

The mother responded by saying, "O servant of Allaah! You have pestered me all night. I have been trying to pacify my child to wean him but he refuses to do so."

(1) Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.216).
(2) Ibn Sa'd, as quoted in Isaabah (Vol.4 Pg.314).
"Why are you doing this?" enquired Hadhrat Umar ﷺ. "Because," the lady explained, "Umar only gives allowances to children who have been weaned." "How old is the child?" asked Hadhrat Umar ﷺ. When the woman informed him that the child was only a few months old, Hadhrat Umar ﷺ said, "Please do not rush him."

When Hadhrat Umar ﷺ led the Fajr salaah, the people could barely understand his recitation of the Qur'aan because of his excessive weeping. After saying the Salaam, he exclaimed, "Woe to Umar! How many Muslim children has he killed?!" He then instructed someone to announce, "Take note! Do not rush your children into weaning because we have now fixed an allowance for every Muslim child born." He then wrote to all the Muslim territories, notifying them that an allowance has been stipulated for every new born Muslim child. (1)

Abstention from using Public Funds for Personal use and for Close Relatives

Hadhurat Umar ﷺ’s Handling of Public Funds and his Abstention from it

Hadhurat Umar ﷺ once said, "I treat Allaah's money (public funds) as if it is the wealth of orphans. I stay away from it as long as I am able to do without it and use it within reason only if I really have to. Another narration states that Hadhrat Umar ﷺ once said, "I treat Allaah's money like the wealth of orphans." He then recited the following verse of the Qur'aan:

![Verse Image]

Whoever (whichever guardian) is wealthy should refrain (from taking anything from the orphan's wealth for caring for him) and whoever is poor may take from it (a wage for his services) within reason. (2)

Yet another narration from Hadhrat Uwra states that Hadhrat Umar ﷺ once said, "It is permissible for me to take from this (public) money only as much as I spend from my earnings." (3)

The Incident Between Hadhrat Umar ﷺ and the public Treasurer

Hadhurat Imraan narrates that whenever Hadhrat Umar ﷺ needed money, he would approach the public treasurer and take a loan from him. There were times when Hadhrat Umar ﷺ was unable to pay back (on time) and the treasurer would come to him to demand payment. He would also pressurise Hadhrat Umar ﷺ and Hadhrat Umar ﷺ would make the necessary arrangements for repayment. At times, Hadhrat Umar ﷺ would pay him back from his share of the surplus wealth that he received. (4)

The Incident of Hadhrat Umar \(\text{ﷺ} \) and Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf \(\text{ﷺ} \)

Hadhrat Ibraheem reports that Hadhrat Umar \(\text{ﷺ} \) used to engage in trade when he was Khalifah. When he once prepared a caravan to send to Shaam, he sent someone to arrange a loan of four thousand Dirhams for him from Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf \(\text{ﷺ} \). Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf \(\text{ﷺ} \) sent a message back with the messenger that Hadhrat Umar \(\text{ﷺ} \) should take the loan from the public treasury and pay it back later. When the message reached him, Hadhrat Umar \(\text{ﷺ} \) felt it most difficult to do so.

When Hadhrat Umar \(\text{ﷺ} \) met Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf \(\text{ﷺ} \), he asked him, "Are you the one who said that I should take the money from the public treasury? Had I died before the caravan returns, you would say, 'The Ameerul Mu'mineen had taken the money. Let us waive it.' I shall then be taken to task for it on the Day of Qiyaamah. I shall never do such a thing. I prefer to rather take the money from a man who is as greedy and stingy as you are so that he would ensure that he takes it from my estate if I die." (1)

The Incident of Hadhrat Umar \(\text{ﷺ} \) and the Honey from the public treasury

One of the sons of Hadhrat Baraa bin Ma'roor reports that Hadhrat Umar \(\text{ﷺ} \) once fell ill and honey was prescribed to treat him. At that time there was a vial of honey in the public treasury. Hadhrat Umar \(\text{ﷺ} \) therefore came out and mounted the pulpit saying (to the people), "I shall use the honey in the public treasury only if you people permit. Otherwise it will be Haraam for me." The people gladly gave their permission. (2)

The Incident Between Hadhrat Umar \(\text{ﷺ} \) and his Daughter Hadhrat Hafsah \(\text{ﷺ} \) Concerning Public Funds

Hadhrat Hasan narrates that some money once came to Hadhrat Umar \(\text{ﷺ} \). When his daughter Hadhrat Hafsah \(\text{ﷺ} \) heard about it, she approached him saying, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! Relatives also have a right to that money because Allaah has advised kind treatment of relatives." He responded by saying, "Dear daughter! My relatives have a right only in my personal wealth. As for this, it is the spoils of the Muslims. Do you wish to deceive your father? Please leave." She then left, dragging her dress along. (3)

"I do," said Hadhrat Umar , "Spread out the leather tablecloth and place the jewels and utensils on it." After Hadhrat Abdullah bin Arqam  did as told, Hadhrat Umar came to tablecloth and as he stood there, he said, "O Allaah! You have mentioned this when You say:

 Beautified for mankind has been made the love of pleasures (that come) from women (there is no sin if this love is directed to one's lawful wife), children, large heaps of gold and silver, branded (pedigreed) horses, livestock and plantations. These are the luxuries of the worldly life (everlasting success is not acquired through luxuries) and with Allaah (in securing His pleasure) is a most excellent (place of) return (Jannah). (1)

He said further, "O Allaah! You have also mentioned:

 (You are informed of predestination) So that you do not grieve about what you lose (because you know that this is Allaah's will) and you do not become overjoyed about what you receive (because you know that it is from Allaah). (2)

We seem unable to avoid getting overjoyed by those things that have been beautified for us. O Allaah! Grant us the ability to spend in the right avenues and protect us from its evil." Just then one of Hadhrat Umar 's sons called Abdur Rahmaan bin Bahiyya(3) was brought to him. The child said, "Dear father! Do give me a ring." Hadhrat Umar  said, "Go to your mother. She will give you some barley porridge to drink." The narrator says, "By Allaah! Hadhrat Umar  did not give his son anything (from the wealth)." (4)

His wife Hadhrat Aatika bint Zaid bin Amr bin Nufayl offered, "I am good at weighing. Bring it here and I will weigh it for you." However, Hadhrat Umar refused to give it to her. "Why not?" she enquired. Hadhrat Umar replied, "I fear that (while weighing) you may take some of it and do this (he then put his finger on his temples) and apply some on your neck. In this manner, you will be receiving a greater share than other Muslims." (1)

The Incident of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar

Hadhrat Hasan narrates that Hadhrat Umar once saw a little girl dragging her feet as she walked because of weakness. "Who is this child?" he asked. "She is one of your daughters," replied (his son) Hadhrat Abdullaah. "Which daughter of mine is she?" Hadhrat Umar enquires further. Hadhrat Abdullaah explained, "She is my daughter." "What has made her reach the condition I see?" Hadhrat Umar asked. "Your practice," replied Hadhrat Abdullaah, "because you do not spend on her." Hadhrat Umar exclaimed, "By Allaah! My dear man, I do not intend fooling you about your children. You need to earn for your children (do not expect me to provide for them from the Baytul Maal)." (2)

The Narration of Hadhrat Aasim the Son of Hadhrat Umar

Hadhrat Aasim bin Umar (the son of Hadhrat Umar) says, "When Hadhrat Umar got me married, he provided for me from the Baytul Maal for a month. He then sent (his slave) Yarfa to call me. When I went to him, he said, 'By Allaah! Even before becoming the Khalifah I never regarded the money of the Baytul Maal to be permissible for me to use unless the cause was right. Now that I am the Khalifah, it is even more prohibited for me because it is now a trust in my care. She then gave instructions (to the envoy) to take the bottle to the wife of Hadhrat Umar. When the bottle reached Hadhrat Umar's wife, she emptied the gems on her bed (to have a look at them). Hadhrat Umar then walked in and asked, "What is this?" When she related the incident to him, he took the gems and sold them. He then gave his wife a Dinar from the money and deposited the rest in to the Baytul Maal. (1)

The Incident of Hadhrat Umar and his Son's Camel

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar says that he once purchased a camel and kept it in the grazing fields of the Baytul Maal. Once it grew fat, he brought it (to the marketplace to sell). Hadhrat Umar came to the marketplace where he saw the fat camel. "Whose camel is this?" he asked. When he was informed that the camel belonged to his son Hadhrat Abdullaah, he called out, "O Abdullaah bin Umar! How excellent! The son of the Ameerul Mu'mineen!" Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar came running and said, "What is the matter, O Ameerul Mu'mineen?" Hadhrat Umar asked, "What have you to say about this camel?" Hadhrat Abdullaah explained, "I bought this camel and sent it to the grazing fields of the Baytul Maal seeking that (profits from it) which other Muslims also seek." Hadhrat Umar remarked, "(When you sent it there, the shepherds must have said) 'Ensure that the camel of Ameerul Mu'mineen's son feeds well. Ensure that the camel of the Ameerul Mu'mineen's son has plenty to drink.' (In this manner, your camel received special attention and became so fat). O Abdullaah bin Umar! You may have your capital back (from the sale) but return to the Baytul Maal whatever profits are earned." (2)

Hadhrat Umar Rebukes his In-Laws for asking from the Baytul Maal

Hadhrat Muhammad bin Seereen narrates that one of Hadhrat Umar's in-laws once approached him and suggested that something be given to him from the Baytul Maal. Hadhrat Umar rebuked him saying, "Do you want me to meet Allaah as a dishonest despot?" some time afterwards, Hadhrat Umar gave the man ten thousand Dirhams from his own money. (3)

Giving Back Wealth

Rasulullaah Refuses to Accept wealth given to him

The Incident of Rasulullaah With Hadhrat Jibra'eel and another Angel

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas reports that Allaah once sent to Rasulullaah and angel with Hadhrat Jibra'eel. The angel said to Rasulullaah, "Allaah has given you a choice to either be a Nabi who is a slave (of Allaah) or a Nabi who is a king. Rasulullaah turned to Hadhrat Jibra'eel to get his opinion. Hadhrat Jibra'eel indicated to Rasulullaah that he should adopt humility. Rasulullaah then replied, "I would rather be a Nabi who is a slave." After that day (like a true slave) Rasulullaah never ate anything while reclining until the day he met Allaah. (2)

Another Incident with Hadhrat Jibra'eel in this Regard

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas narrates that Rasulullaah and Hadhrat Jibra'eel were once together on Mount Safa when Rasulullaah said, "O Jibra'eel! I swear by the Being Who has sent you with the truth that the family of Muhammad have neither had a mouthful of flour nor a handful of porridge this evening." Rasulullaah had barely completed his sentence when he was startled by a loud clamour from the sky. Rasulullaah asked, "Has Allaah given the command for Qiyaamah to take place?" "No," replied Hadhrat Jibra'eel, "Allaah has commanded Israafeel to come to you when he heard what you said." Hadhrat Israafeel then came to Rasulullaah and said, "Allaah had heard what you said and has sent me with the keys to the treasures of the earth. Allaah has instructed me to make you the offer that if you wanted, I could transform the mountains of Tihaamah into emeralds, pearl, gold and silver and make them travel with you wherever you go. If you so wish, you could either be a Nabi who is a king or a Nabi who is a slave." Hadhrat Jibra'eel indicated to Rasulullaah that he should adopt humility, because of which Rasulullaah thrice repeated, "I would rather be a Nabi who is a

The Narration of Hadhrat Abu Umaamah ﷺ About this

Hadhrat Abu Umaamah ﷺ reports that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, "My Rabb had offered to transform the rocky plains of Makkah into gold for me. However, I submitted, 'No, my Rabb. I would rather like to eat one day and be hungry the next day.' This Rasulullaah ﷺ repeated three or more times. He then continued, 'So that I can be humble before You and remember You when I am hungry and thank and praise You when I have eaten." (2)

The Narration of Hadhrat Ali ﷺ About this

Hadhrat Ali ﷺ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ once informed them that an angel came to him and said, "O Muhammad ﷺ! Your Rabb sends Salaams to you and offers to turn the rocky plains of Makkah into gold for you if you would have it." However, Rasulullaah ﷺ looked towards the sky and said, "No, O my Rabb! I prefer to rather have something to eat one day so that I may thank you and stay hungry the next day so that I may beg from You." (3)

The Incident of the Money for a Dead Mushrik

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas ﷺ reports that when a Mushrik was killed during the Battle of Ahzaab, the Mushrikeen sent a message to Rasulullaah ﷺ that they would give him twelve thousand if he sent them the body. Rasulullaah ﷺ remarked, "There is neither any good in his body nor in the money." A narration of Ahmad states that Rasulullaah ﷺ said to the Sahabah ﷺ, "Hand the corpse over to them because both the corpse and the money are terrible." Rasulullaah ﷺ then refused to accept any payment. (4)

Yet another narration states that a person named Naufal or Ibn Naufal died when he fell from his horse during the Battle of Ahzaab. Abu Sufyaan ﷺ (who was not a Muslim then) sent a hundred camels to Rasulullaah ﷺ (as payment to have the body). Rasulullaah ﷺ refused the money saying, "Take the body because both the money and the corpse are despicable." (5)

The Clothing of Dhu Yazan

Hadhrat Urwa ﷺ narrates that Hadhrat Hakeem bin Hizaam ﷺ once went to Yemen where he bought a suit of clothing that belonged to (the Yemeni ruler) Dhu Yazan. When he brought it to Madinah, he presented it as a gift to Rasulullaah ﷺ. Rasulullaah ﷺ however refused to accept it saying, "We do not accept gifts from Mushrikeen." (Hadhrat Hakeem ﷺ was not yet a Muslim.)

(1) Tabraani and Bayhaqi, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.5 Pg.157). Tabraani has reported a similar narration in his Awsat but Haythami (Vol.10 Pg.315) has commented on the chain of narrators.

(4) Bayhaqi and Tirmidhi, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.4 Pg.107).

(5) Ibn Abi Shabah, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.281).
When Hadhrat Hakeem went to sell it, Rasulullaah instructed someone to purchase it for him. After buying it, Rasulullaah put it on and entered the Masjid. Hadhrat Hakeem says, "I have never seen anyone look more outstanding in that clothing than Rasulullaah. He was as striking as the full moon and when I saw him, I could not restrain myself from saying (these couplets which mean):

"How can rulers even think to issue commands after the emergence of the clear, bright and gleaming one (Rasulullaah because they are now all constrained to follow him)
When honour is matched to his, he surpasses them
Because honour has been poured over him like water poured over a person from a large bucket"

When he heard these couplets, Rasulullaah smiled. (1)

Hadhurat Hakeem bin Hizaam says that even during the Period of Ignorance, Rasulullaah was the person he liked most. After Rasulullaah announced his Nabuwaat and went to Madinah, Hadhrat Hakeem left (for Yemen) during the Hajj season. There he found a set of clothing that belonged to Dhu Yazan on sale for fifty Dirhams. He purchased it to give as a gift to Rasulullaah. When he brought it back (to Madinah), he did his best to make Rasulullaah accept it, but Rasulullaah refused. One of the narrators by the name of Ubaydullaah says that he thinks that Rasulullaah said, "We do not accept anything from the Mushrikeen. However, if you please, we could pay you for it." Hadhrat Hakeem then sold it to Rasulullaah.

Narrating further, Hadhrat Hakeem says, "I saw Rasulullaah wearing the clothes when he was on the pulpit. I have never seen anything as impressive as Rasulullaah wearing those clothing that day." Rasulullaah then gave the clothing to Usaama bin Zaid and when I once saw Usaama wearing it, I said, 'O Usaama! Are you wearing the clothes of Dhu Yazan?' Usaama replied, 'Yes! I am better than Dhu Yazan. My father is better than his father and my mother is better than his mother.' I then left for Makkah where the people were shocked to hear the statement of Usaama. (2)

The Gift of a Horse and a Camel

Hadhurat Aamir bin Tufayl Aamiri reports that Aamir bin Maalik once gave Rasulullaah a horse as a gift with a letter stating, "A sore has emerged on my stomach, so please send me the cure you have." Rasulullaah refuse to accept the gift but sent to him a container of honey, telling him to use it as medication.

Another narration from Hadhrat Ka'b bin Maalik narrates that 'The Spear Juggler' (Aamir bin Maalik) once brought a gift for Rasulullaah. Rasulullaah (1) Ibn Jarir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.177). Tabraani has also reported the narration, as quoted in Majma'uz Zawaa'id (Vol.8 Pg.278). Haythami has commented on the chain of narrators.

invited him to accept Islaam but he refused. Rasulullaah therefore said, "I do not accept the gift of a Mushrik." (1)

Another narration from Hadhrat Ayaadh bin Himaar Mujaashi'ee states that when he once presented to Rasulullaah a camel or something else as a gift, Rasulullaah asked him whether he was a Muslim. When he replied in the negative, Rasulullaah said, "I have been prohibited from accepting gifts from Mushrikeen." (2)

Hadhrat Abu Bakr Refuses to Accept wealth given to him

He Refuses to Accept his Allowance from the Baytul Maal

Hadhurat Hasan narrates that Hadhrat Abu Bakr once addressed the people. After praising Allaah, he said, "Verily the best of all intelligence is Taqwa." The narration continues to the point where it states that Hadhrat Abu Bakr was proceeding to the marketplace early next morning when Hadhrat Umar (met him and) asked, "Where are you off to?" When Hadhrat Abu Bakr informed him that he was on his way to the marketplace, Hadhrat Umar remarked, "You have been appointed to a post that will preoccupy you from any engagements at the marketplace."

"Subhaanallaahl!" exclaimed Hadhrat Abu Bakr, "Will it preoccupy me from (providing for) my family?" Hadhrat Umar replied, "We shall fix a reasonable allowance for you." Hadhrat Abu Bakr remarked, "Woe to you, O Umar! I fear that it may not be permissible for me to take anything from that wealth." (By consultation with the other Sahabah, an allowance was fixed for Hadhrat Abu Bakr)

During his period of just over two years, Hadhrat Abu Bakr used eight thousand Dirhams (from the Baytul Maal). On his deathbed, he said, "I had mentioned to Umar that I fear that it may not be permissible for me to take anything from that wealth but he overpowered me. Now that I am dying, I want you to take eight thousand Dirhams from my estate and deposit it in the Baytul Maal." When this money was brought to Hadhrat Umar, he said, "May Allaah shower His mercy on Abu Bakr. He has certainly exhausted those to come after him." (3)

The Incident Between him and Hadhrat Aa'isha

Hadhurat Abu Bakr bin Hafs bin Umar narrates that Hadhrat Aa'isha came to (her father) Hadhrat Abu Bakr when he was ill and about to breathe his last. She recited a couplet (which means)

"By your life! Prosperity is of no benefit to the youth

(1) Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.177).

when the pangs of death arrive and the chest has tightened"

Hadrat Abu Bakr صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم looked at her angrily and said, "O Ummul Mu'mineen! Matters are not like that, but (Allaah states):

وَجَآتَ نَصْرَةً لِلنَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ }

The pangs (agony) of death will bring the truth (of Imaan to every person). (It will then be said to the dying person,) "This (death) is what you used to avoid (However, now you have no option),"(1)

He addressed her further saying, "I had given you an orchard as a gift, but am not satisfied with it. You should therefore return it to my estate." Hadrat Aa'isha خاتم الانبياء صلی الله عليه وسلم readily agreed and made it over. Hadrat Abu Bakr صلی الله علیہ وسلم then said, "Since my appointment as Khalifah, I have neither taken a Dinar or a Dirham of the Muslims. We have of course eaten from their coarse food to fill our bellies and worn their coarse cloth on our backs. Besides that we have none of their spoils apart from this Abyssinian slave, this camel for drawing water and this worn woollen shawl. When I die, I want you to send these items to Hadrat Umar صلی الله علیہ وسلم, thereby alleviating me from being responsible for them."

(After Hadrat Abu Bakr صلی الله علیہ وسلم passed away) Hadrat Aa'isha خاتم الانبياء صلی الله عليه وسلم did as her father had requested. When the messenger came to Hadrat Umar صلی الله علیہ وسلم (to bring him the items), he wept so profusely that his tears fell on the ground. He said, "May Allaah shower His mercy on Abu Bakr صلی الله علیہ وسلم. He has certainly exhausted those to come after him. May Allaah shower His mercy on Abu Bakr صلی الله علیہ وسلم. He has certainly exhausted those to come after him."

He then commanded his slave to receive all the items. Hadrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf صلی الله علیہ وسلم then remarked, "Subhaanallaah! Are you snatching away from Abu Bakr صلی الله علیہ وسلم's family their Abyssinian slave, their watering camel and their worn woollen shawl worth only five Dirhams?" "What do you advise?" Hadrat Umar صلی الله علیہ وسلم asked. Hadrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf صلی الله علیہ وسلم advised Hadrat Umar صلی الله علیہ وسلم to give the items back to Hadrat Abu Bakr صلی الله علیہ وسلم's family. Hadrat Umar صلی الله علیہ وسلم however disagreed and said, "No! I swear by the Being Who has sent Muhammad صلی الله علیہ وسلم with the truth that this shall never happen during my term of Khilaafah. Hadrat Abu Bakr صلی الله علیہ وسلم would not have escaped from his responsibility for them if I return them to his family and death is ever close by (what will I tell him when I meet him after death?)." Hadhrat Umar صلی الله علیہ وسلم Refuses to Accept wealth given to him asked. Hadhrat Umar replied, "O Rasulullaah! Did you not tell us that it is best not to take anything from anyone?" Rasulullaah replied, "That applies to asking. When you are given something without asking for it, it is a provision that Allaah has sent for you." Hadhrat Umar then said, "I swear by the Being Who controls my life that I shall never ask anyone for anything and I shall accept anything that comes to me without asking." (1)

An Incident with Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari

Hadrat Abdullaah bin Umar reports that Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari once sent a fine silken mat as a gift for Hadrat Aatika bint Zaid bin Amr bin Nu'ayyl who was the wife of Hadrat Umar. The narrator estimates that the mat was an arm's length long and a handspan wide. When Hadrat Umar came to her and saw the mat, he asked, "Where did you get this from?" When she told him that Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari had sent it as a gift for her, Hadrat Umar grabbed the mat and struck her so hard over the head that her braids opened up. He then gave instructions that Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari be brought to him in a hurry even it he got tired (by running). Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari was then brought very quickly and was made very tired in the rush. As he came, he said, "Please do not be hasty with me, O Ameerul Mu'mineen!" Hadrat Umar rebuked him saying, "What makes you send gifts to my wives?" He then took hold of the mat and struck it across the Hadhrat Abu Moosa's head saying, "Take this because we have no need for it." (2)

The Sale of the Foot of the Muqattam Hill

Hadrat Layth bin Sa'd narrates that Maqoqis (the once king of Egypt) asked Hadrat Amr bin Al Aas (the governor of Egypt) to sell to him the foot of the Muqattam hill for seventy thousand Dinaars. Surprised at the high offer, Hadrat Amr bin Al Aas informed him that he will first have to write to (Ameerul Mu'mineen) Hadrat Umar about it. After sending the letter, Hadrat Umar replied saying, "Ask him why he wants to pay you so much when the land cannot be cultivated, no water can be extracted from it and it is of no benefit?" When Hadrat Amr bin Al Aas asked Maqoqis about this, he replied that their scriptures informed them that a tree of Jannah grows at that place. Hadrat Amr bin Al Aas then wrote back to Hadrat Umar about this and received the reply stating, "As far as we are concerned, the tree of Jannah are reserved for the Mu'mineen. You should bury the Muslims with you at that place and should not sell it to him." (3)

Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah  Refuses to Accept wealth given to him

The Incident with Hadhrat Umar During the "Year of Ashes"

Hadhrat Aslam reports that during the "Year of Ashes" when the lands of the Arabs were stricken by drought, Hadhrat Umar  wrote a letter to Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas . The narration then continues to a point where Hadhrat Umar  sent for Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah  (to appoint him to fulfil a certain task). Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah  left for the appointment and after returning, Hadhrat Umar  sent him a thousand Dinaars. Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah  said, "I did not do the work for your sake, O son of Khattaab. I have done it for Allaah and will therefore not take any remuneration." Hadhrat Umar  responded by saying, "Rasulullaah  also gave us something for work that he appointed us to do and when we disliked accepting it, he told us not to refuse it. Therefore, my dear man, you should accept this and use it to assist you in the affairs of this world and for the Deen." Only then did Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah  accept the money. (1)

Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Aamir  refuses to Accept wealth given to him

Hadhrat Umar  gives him a Thousand Dinaars

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Ziyaad narrates that Hadhrat Umar  once gave Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Aamir  a thousand Dinaars. Hadhrat Sa'eed  refused the money saying, "I have no need for it. Rather give it to someone else." Hadhrat Umar  said, "Take it easy! Let me first tell you what Rasulullaah  said. Thereafter you are at liberty to decide whether you want it or not. When Rasulullaah  once gave me something and I said to him what you just said to me, he remarked, 'When someone is given something without him asking for it and without raving for it, then it is a provision from Allaah that he should not refuse.'" "Did you hear this from Rasulullaah  ?" asked Hadhrat Sa'eed . When Hadhrat Umar  confirmed that he did, Hadhrat Sa'eed  accepted the money. (2)

The narration of Haakim and Bayhaqi

Hadhrat Zaid bin Aslam reports that Hadhrat Umar  once said to Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Aamir bin Hudhaym (who was a governor in Shaam), "Why is it that the people of Shaam love you so much?" Hadhrat Sa'eed  replied, "It is because I am always concerned about their rights and sympathise with them." Hadhrat Umar  then gave him ten thousand Dirhams. However, he refused it saying, "I have several slaves and horses and have sufficient wealth. I want my services to be a charity towards the Muslims." "Do not refuse this money," said Hadhrat Umar, "because Rasulullaah once gave me some money less than this amount (of ten thousand) and I also replied as you did. He then said to me, 'When Allaah gives you some wealth without you asking for it and without you having a craving for it, then accept it because it is a provision that Allaah is giving to you.'"(1)

Another narration from Hadhrat Aslam states that Hadhrat Umar once said to a man whom the people Shaam dearly loved, "Why do the people of Shaam like you so much?" He replied, "Because I lead them in Jihaad and sympathise with them." Hadhrat Umar then offered him ten thousand Dirhams saying, "Use this to assist you in your affairs of this world and in your religious matters." However, he refused saying, "But I have sufficient wealth." The rest of the narration is like the one above. (2)

Hadrath Abdullaah bin Sa'di Refuses to Accept wealth given to him

The Incident with Hadrath Umar

Hadrath Abdullaah bin Sa'di narrates that he once approached Hadrath Umar during the period of his Khilafah. Hadrath Umar said to him, "I have been told that you have done many things for public welfare but whenever you are given some remuneration, you do not like to accept it. Is this true?" When Hadrath Abdullaah confirmed that it was, Hadrath Umar enquired further, "Why do you do this?" He replied, "I have several horses and slaves and sufficient wealth. I want my services to be a charity for the Muslims."

Hadrath Umar advised him saying, "Do not do this. I also had the same intentions. Whenever Rasulullaah gave me anything, I would tell him to give it to someone more deserving. When he again gave me something on one occasion, I again told him to give it to someone more deserving. He then said, 'Take it and then either keep it for yourself or give it away as Sadaqah. Whenever any wealth comes to you without you asking for it or without you craving for it, then make sure that you accept it. However, if you had been craving for it, then do not follow your desire (by accepting it)."(3)

In another narration, Hadrath Abdullaah bin Sa'di says, "Hadrath Umar once employed my services and after I had completed the task, he gave me the remuneration. I refused to accept it saying, 'I had done it for the pleasure of Allaah and Allaah will reward me for it.' However, Hadrath Umar insisted, 'Please take it because I had also completed some work during the time of

Hadhrat Hakeem bin Hizaam Refuses to Accept wealth given to him

The Incident with Rasulullah

Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Musayyib reports that Rasulullah gave Hadhrat Hakeem bin Hizaam something after the Battle of Hunayn but because he regarded it to be too little, Rasulullah gave him some more. Hadhrat Hakeem then asked, "O Rasulullah! Which of the two amounts is better?" Rasulullah replied, "The first (that you received without asking). Dear Hakeem bin Hizaam! This wealth is green and sweet. Whoever takes it with a generous heart (to give others) and to use it in good avenues, he will receive blessings in it. On the other hand, whoever takes it with greed and to use it in evil avenues, he will receive no blessings and will be like a person who keeps eating without being satisfied. The upper (giving) hand is better than the lower (receiving) hand." Hadhrat Hakeem asked, "even though one asks from yourself, O Rasulullah?" "Even from me," replied Rasulullah. Hadhrat Hakeem then swore, "I swear by the Being Who has sent you with the truth that I shall never accept anything from anyone after you." He then never accepted even his allowance (from the Baytul Maal) and anything else he was given until he passed away. Hadhrat Umar used to pray, "O Allaah! I call You to witness that I have called him to accept his share of this wealth but he refuses." Hadhrat Hakeem said to him, "By Allaah! I shall never accept anything from you or from anyone else." (2)

The Incident with Hadhrat Umar

Hadhrat Hakeem bin Hizaam narrates that he once asked Rasulullah for something and Rasulullah gave him to him. When he again asked, Rasulullah gave him once more. When he asked for a third time, Rasulullah again complied. Rasulullah then said to him, "Dear Hakeem! This wealth is green and sweet." The narration then reads like the previous narration. The narration later states that even when Hadhrat Abu Bakr used to call Hadhrat Hakeem to accept his money, he would refuse to accept any part of it. Thereafter, Hadhrat Umar used to call him to take his dues and he would refuse Hadhrat Umar as well. Hadhrat Umar then addressed the people saying, "O assembly of Muslims! I call you to be witness to the fact that I have offered Hakeem his dues from the spoils that Allaah has distributed but he refuses to accept it." After Rasulullah

Another narration from Hadhrat Urwa  states that Hadhrat Hakeem  did not accept anything from Hadhrat Abu Bakr  until the Khalifah's death. Thereafter, he also refused to accept anything from Hadhrat Umar  until the demise of the Ameerul Mu'mineen and also from Hadhrat Uthmaan  and from Hadhrat Mu'aawiya  until the day he passed away. The man later came to Hadhrat Aamir (after meeting Rasulullaah ) and said, "I have asked (and received) from Rasulullaah  a valley in Arabia that is the best of all valleys. I now wish to allocate a portion of it for you and for your progeny after you." Hadhrat Aamir replied, "I have no need for your land because today a Surah has been revealed that makes us oblivious of this world:

Hadhrat Abu Dharr requested, "Allow me to go to (and live in) Rabdha." Hadhrat Uthmaan replied, "Go ahead. We shall give instructions for some of the zakaah animals to go to you early in the mornings and in the evenings (so that you may use their milk)." "I have no need for it," said Hadhrat Abu Dharr , "because the little flock of Abu Dharr suffices for him." He then stood up and said, "While you people remain

The estate of Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf  was being distributed at that time when Hadhrat Ka'b (a Jewish Rabbi who accepted Islaam) was with Hadhrat Uthmaan . Hadhrat Uthmaan asked Hadhrat Ka'b, "What is your opinion of a man who had collected all this wealth and used to contribute in Sadaqah, in good causes and did various good works with it?" Hadhrat Ka'b replied, "I anticipate good for him." Hadhrat Abu Dharr became angry at this and raised his staff over Hadhrat Ka'b saying, "What do you know, 0 son of a Jewess? On the Day of Qiyaamah the owner of this wealth will wish that scorpions should sting the most delicate part of his heart (rather than having to account for all that wealth)." (1)

Another narration that when a man approached Hadhrat Abu Dharr to offer him some money for his expenses, Hadhrat Abu Dharr said to him, "I already have some goats that I milk, some donkeys for transport, a freed slave to serve me and a shawl that is more than the clothing I require. I fear that I shall be required to account for anything over and above my needs." (2)

The Incident with Hadhrat Habeeb bin Maslamah

Hadhrat Abu Bakr bin Munkadir narrates that Hadhrat Habeeb bin Maslamah who was the Ameer of Shaam once sent three hundred Dinaars for Hadhrat Abu Dharr with the message, "Use this for your needs." Hadhrat Abu Dharr said (to the messenger), "Take this back. Could he not find someone else who is more deceived about Allaah than we are? All we have (and need) is shade (of a house) in which we can take shelter, a small flock of goats who come to us in the evenings (after grazing for our milk and meat) and a freed slave who serves us for free. Despite this, I still fear owning anything extra." (3)

The Incident with Hadhrat Haarith Qurashi

Hadhrat Muhammad bin Seereen narrates that Hadhrat Haarith belonged to the Quraysh tribe and lived in Shaam. When the news reached him that Hadhrat Abu Dharr was living a life of poverty, he sent three hundred Dinaars to him. (When the money reached him) Hadhrat Abu Dharr remarked, "Could he not find any servant of Allaah lower in his eyes than myself? I have heard Rasulullaah  say, 'Whoever has forty Dirhams and still asks from the people has begged with importunity (an act which is disliked by Allaah).'  has forty Dirhams, forty goats and two servants." Hadrat Abu Raafi ☪ the Freed Slave of Rasulullaah ☪ Refuses to Accept Wealth Given to him

The Incident with Rasulullaah

Hadrat Abu Raafi ☪ the freed slave of Rasulullaah ☪ narrates that Rasulullaah ☪ once said to him, "O Abu Raafi! What will be your condition when you become a poor man?" He replied, "Should I then not send some money forward (to the Aakhirah by giving Sadaqah since I will have nothing to give when I become poor)?" "Of course," replied Rasulullaah ☪, "but how much do you have?" Hadrat Abu Raafi ☪ replied, "I have forty thousand Dirhams and I wish to give them all for the pleasure of Allaah." Rasulullaah ☪ advised, "No (do not give it all away). Rather give only some away and keep some for yourself so that you may treat your son well."

Hadrat Abu Raafi ☪ enquired, "Do they (our children) have rights due from us as we have rights due from them?" Rasulullaah ☪ replied, "Certainly! The right that a father owes his child is to teach him the Book of Allaah, archery and swimming." A narration of Hadrat Yazeed adds, "and to leave lawful wealth for him as inheritance." "When will I become a poor man?" asked Hadrat Abu Raafi ☪. "After my demise," came the reply.

Hadrat Abu Sulaym says, "I saw Hadrat Abu Raafi ☪ as a poor man sitting and saying, 'Who will be charitable towards an old and blind man? Who will be charitable towards a man whom Rasulullaah ☪ had informed that he would become poor after Rasulullaah ☪'s demise? Who will be charitable because the highest hand is Allaah's, the middle hand is that of the giver and the lowest hand is that of the beggar? Whoever begs unnecessarily will have an unsightly scar that will be seen on the Day of Qiyaamah. It is not permissible for a person to accept charity when he is wealthy or when he is in perfect health.' I then saw a man give him four Dirhams. When he returned one Dirham, the man said, '0 servant of Allaah! Please do not refuse my charity.' Hadrat Abu Raafi ☪ explained, 'Rasulullaah ☪ had forbidden me from hoarding extra wealth.' I then saw the time afterwards when he became so wealthy that I even saw the collectors of Ushr(1) come to him. He then used to say, 'If only Abu Raafi had died when he was a poor man!' In exchange for their freedom, he would take from his slaves only that amount that he paid for them." (2)

Hadrat Maymoon reports that Hadrat Mu'aawiya maal thrust onto Hadrat Amr bin Al Aas maal the responsibility of determining what the intentions of Hadrat Abdullaah bin Umar maal were, whether he would resort to a fight or not (if Yazeed were made the Khalifah)? Hadrat Amr bin Al Aas maal said to Hadrat Abdullaah bin Umar maal, "O Abu Abdur Rahmaan! What prevents you from proclaiming yourself Khalifah so that we may pledge our allegiance to you? You are after all a companion of Rasulullaah maal, the son of an Ameerul Mu'mineen and most deserving of the post of Khilaafah."

Hadrat Abdullaah bin Umar maal asked, "Does everyone agree to what you are saying?" "O yes," replied Hadrat Amr maal, "all except a small band of people." Hadrat Abdullaah bin Umar maal then said, "If everyone save three individuals from Hajar supported the idea, I still have no need for the post." Hadrat Amr maal then concluded that Hadrat Abdullaah bin Umar maal would not resort to fighting (for the Khilaafah). Hadrat Amr maal further enquired, 'Would you be interested in pledging allegiance to a person whom almost everyone is willing to accept (as Khalifah) in exchange for so much of land and wealth that neither you nor your progeny will ever be in need of anything afterwards.'

Hadrat Abdullaah bin Umar maal said, "Shame on you! Leave me and never set foot here again! Woe to you! My Deen is not based on your Dinaars and Dirhams. I wish to leave this world with my hands clean (from the wealth of this world)." (2)

Hadrat Mu'aawiya bin Qurra reports that he was once staying with Hadrat Amr bin Nu'maan bin Muqarrin. When Ramadhaan arrived, someone came with a bag of Dirhams saying, "The Ameer Mus'ab bin Zubayr conveys his Salaams and says that his gifts shall reach every Qaari (and you are one of them). Please use this money." Hadrat Amr bin Nu'maan said (to the messenger), "Tell him that we swear by Allaah that we do not recite the Qur'aan with the intention of earning worldly profits." He then sent the money back. (4)

The Incident of Hadhrat Asmaa  and her Mother
Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr  reports that Qutaylah bint Abdul Uzza bin Abd Sa'd from the Banu Maalik bin Hisol tribe was still a Mushrik when she brought some gifts to her daughter Hadhrat Asmaa  the daughter of Hadhrat Abu Bakr . The gifts included a type of badger (which the Arabs ate), some bread and some butter. However, (because her mother was not a Muslim) Hadhrat Asmaa  refused to accept the gifts and even refused to allow her mother into her house. When (her sister) Hadhrat Aa'isha  asked Rasulullaah  about this, Allaah revealed the verse:

Allaah does not forbid you from behaving cordially and justly towards those (Kuffaar) who do not fight you for (reason of your) religion and who do not drive you out from your homes. Verily Allaah loves those who are just. {Surah Mumtahina, verse 8}

Rasulullaah  then instructed Hadhrat Asmaa  to accept her mother's gift and to allow her into her home. (1)

The Incident of Hadhrat Aa'isha  and a Poor Lady
Hadhrat Aa'isha  relates, "A poor lady once came to me with a gift. I however refused to accept it out of pity for her (because she needed it more than I did). Rasulullaah  then told me, "Why did you rather not accept her gift and give her something else in return? I think that you may have been looking down on her. Humble yourself, O Aa'isha because Allaah loves the humble ones and detests the proud ones." (2)

The Incident of Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed Khudri  and Rasulullaah 
Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed Khudri  reports, "My family was suffering from extreme poverty when my wife told me to approach Rasulullaah  to ask for something. However, as I came to Rasulullaah , the first thing I heard him

We shall however not keep back something that a person asks from us.' I then returned home without asking him. (We then lived with the situation and continued making an effort for the Deen, as a result of which) The world later fell at our feet."

Another narration states that Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed Khudri once spent the morning with a stone tied to his belly to suppress his extreme hunger. It was then either his wife or his slave who told him to approach Rasulullaah and ask him for something because someone else had done so and Rasulullaah complied. Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed says, "When I came there, Rasulullaah was addressing the people and I heard him say, 'Allaah will grant chastity to the one who asks Him for it and will make that person independent who asks Him for independence. As for the one who asks from us, we shall either give him something or (if we have nothing) we shall sympathise with him. Nevertheless, we prefer those who do not depend on us over those who ask from us.' I then returned without asking for anything. Allaah then continued providing for us until a time came when the Ansaar knew none more wealthy than us." (2)

The incident of Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf

Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf says, "Rasulullaah once promised me (some money). When the Banu Qurayzah were conquered, I approached him to fulfil the promise. However, I then overheard him say, "Allaah will make that person independent who asks Him for independence and will grant contentment to the one who is content.' I then said to myself, 'In that case, I shall not ask from Rasulullaah.'"

The incident of Hadhrat Thowbaan

Hadhrat Thowbaan reports that Rasulullaah once said, "Whoever guarantees me that he will not ask people for anything, I shall guarantee Jannah for him." Hadhrat Thowbaan responded by saying that he would be the person. Thereafter, (true to his word) he did not ask anyone for anything. (4)

The narration of Ibn Maajah states that Rasulullaah instructed Hadhrat Thowbaan not to ask from anyone. Consequently, even when Hadhrat Thowbaan's whip fell as he rode his animal, he would not tell anyone (on the ground) to hand it to him. He would rather dismount and pick it up himself.

In the chapter concerning how the Sahabah pledged their allegiance to the injunctions of Islaam, a narration of Hadhrat Abu Umaamah appears about how Hadhrat Thowbaan pledged that he would not ask anyone for

Hadhrat Abu Umaamah ﷺ says that he saw Hadhrat Thowbaan ﷺ riding amongst a large crowd in Makkah and even when his whip sometimes fell on someone's shoulders and the person would attempt to give it back to him, he would not allow it and would dismount the animal to pick it up himself. The incident of Hadhrat Abu Bakr ﷺ

Hadhrat Ibn Abi Mulaykah reports that when the rein of his camel would sometimes fall from the hands of Hadhrat Abu Bakr ﷺ, he would hit the front legs of the camel to make it sit down and then pick up the rein. People would say, "Why do you rather not tell us to get it for you?" He would then tell them, "Verily my beloved friend ﷺ instructed me never to ask people for anything." (2)

Fear for Worldly Prosperity

The Fear of Rasulullaah ﷺ

The Narration of Hadhrat Uqba bin Aamir ﷺ

Hadhrat Uqba bin Aamir ﷺ reports that eight years after they had been martyred, Rasulullaah ﷺ again performed the Janaazah salaah for the martyrs of Uhud. Rasulullaah ﷺ seemed to be bidding farewell to all those alive and all those deceased. Thereafter, he mounted the pulpit and said, "I shall be going ahead before you (to the Aakhirah) and shall be your witness. Our promised rendezvous shall be the fountain of Kowthar and I can actually see it as I stand here (because Allaah has allowed me to see it from here). I have no fear that you would revert to Shirk but I fear that you would vie with each other in acquiring the things of this world." Hadhrat Uqba ﷺ says that this was the last time that he ever saw Rasulullaah ﷺ. (3)

Another narration from Hadhrat Uqba bin Aamir ﷺ states that Rasulullaah ﷺ once came out of his home and performed the Janaazah salaah for the martyrs of Uhud. The rest of the narration continues until the point where Rasulullaah ﷺ said, "By Allaah! I am looking at my fountain right now and I have been handed the keys to the treasures of the earth (because of which the Muslims later conquered lands far and wide). I swear by Allaah that it is not your reverting to Shirk after my demise that worries me but I fear that you would start vying with each other in acquiring the things of this world." (4)

Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah to collect the jizya from Bahrain. When he returned and the Ansaar heard about his arrival, they all presented themselves to perform the Fajr salaah behind Rasulullaah. After performing the salaah, Rasulullaah started walking away when they all came before him. When he saw them, Rasulullaah smiled and said, "I assume that you all heard about Abu Ubaydah returning from Bahrain with something?" "We certainly did, O Rasulullaah," they replied. Rasulullaah then said to them, "I have good news for you and you may also hope for some joy (because you will all receive a portion of the wealth and much more in future). By Allaah! It is not poverty that I fear for you. On the contrary, I fear that the world would be spread out before you as it was spread out to the people before you, after which you would compete with each other in acquiring it just as they competed. It would then eventually destroy you as it destroyed them." (1)

The Narration of Hadhrat Abu Dharr in this Regard

Hadhrat Abu Dharr narrates that while Rasulullaah was sitting, an uncultured Bedouin stood up and said, "O Rasulullaah! The drought has consumed us!" Rasulullaah responded by saying, "It is not that which I fear for you. I fear the time when worldly wealth will be poured on to you. Alas! If only my Ummah would not wear gold!" (2)

The Narration of Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed Khudri in this Regard

Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed Khudri reports that they were sitting around Rasulullaah when he was on the pulpit. He said to them, "Amongst the things that I fear for you is the splendour and wealth of the world that Allaah will open up to you." (3)

The Narration of Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas in this Regard

Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas narrates that Rasulullaah said, "More than you being tested with difficulties, I fear more that you will be tested with prosperity. The Fear of Hadhrat Umar and his Weeping Over Worldly Prosperity

The Narration of Hadhrat Miswar bin Makhrama about the Booty Won at Qaadisiyyah

Hadhrat Miswar bin Makhrama narrates that when some of the booty won at the Battle of Qaadisiyyah was brought to Hadhrat Umar, he was inspecting it when he began to weep. Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf who was with him at the time said, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! This is a day of joy and happiness (because we won the battle. Why are you weeping?)." Hadhrat Umar replied, "It certainly is but whenever a nation is given such wealth, they get enmity and hatred along with it." (2)

The Narration of Hadhrat Ibraheem bin Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf

Hadhrat Ibraheem bin Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf narrates that when the treasures of the Kisra (Persian Emperor) were brought to Hadhrat Umar, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Arqam Zuhri asked, "Shall we deposit this in the Baytul Maal?" "No," replied Hadhrat Umar, "we shall not deposit it in the Baytul Maal until we have distributed it." Hadhrat Umar then started to weep. Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf asked, "What makes you weep, O Ameerul Mu'mineen? Today is a day of gratitude and joy." Hadhrat Umar replied, "Whenever Allaah gives this to a nation, he casts enmity and hatred between them." (3)

The Narration of Hadhrat Hasan Basri About the Crown of the Kisra

Hadhrat Hasan reports that when the crown of the Kisra was brought before Hadhrat Umar, he placed it before him (together with other crown jewels). Amongst the people was Hadhrat Suraaqa bin Maalik bin Ju'shum. Hadhrat Umar threw to him the two bracelets of Kisra bin Hurmuz and when he put them on, they reached up to his shoulders. Seeing the bracelets on Hadhrat Suraaqa's arms, Hadhrat Umar exclaimed,

"All praise is for Allaah! The bracelets of Kisra bin Hurmuz on the arms of Suraqa bin Maalik bin Ju'shum a Bedouin from the Banu Mudlaj tribe! O Allaah! I know that Your Rasool liked getting wealth only to spend it in Your path and on Your servants. However, You chose a better way and kept it away from him. O Allaah! I know that Abu Bakr also liked getting wealth only to spend it in Your path and on Your servants. However, You chose a better way and kept it away from him as well. (Now this wealth has come during my term as Khalifah) O Allaah! I seek Your protection that this should be a trap from You for Umar." He then recited the following verse:

(When they see their prosperity in this world,) Do they think that by Us granting them an increase in wealth and sons we wish to hasten in granting them good? No (it is rather worse for them)! They fail to perceive. {Surah Mu'minoon, verses 55, 56}(1)

The Narration of Hadhrat Abu Sinaan Duwali

Hadhrat Abu Sinaan Duwali reports that he once went to see Hadhrat Umar at a time when a group of the earliest Muhaajireen were with him. Hadhrat Umar sent for a basket resembling a sack or a bag which was brought to him from a fortress in Iraq. The basket contained a ring which one of Hadhrat Umar's sons snatched up and put in his mouth. Hadhrat Umar took it out of the child's mouth and began to weep. One of the persons with him asked, "Why do you weep when Allaah has granted you so many conquests, given you victory over your enemies and satisfied you?" Hadhrat Umar replied, "I heard Rasulullaah say, 'Whenever worldly wealth is opened up to a nation, Allaah casts enmity and hatred amongst them until the Day of Qiyaamah. This is what frightens me." The Narration of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar

About the Crying of Hadhrat Umar

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar reports, "After leading the salaah, Umar would remain seated for awhile so that a person with any need may speak to him. He would stand up when there was none with any need. However, it once occurred that he led several salaahs without sitting afterwards. I said (to his slave), 'O Yarfa! Is the Ameerul Mu'mineen not well?' When he informed me that the Ameerul Mu'mineen was in good health, I sat down and Uthmaan bin Affaan also joined me. (After a while) Yarfa came out and said, 'Come, O son of Affaan! Come, O son of Abbaas!' When we entered the room, we found before Umar several heaps of money with a shoulder blade on each heap (shoulder blades were used as paper in those days). He said, 'Looking through all the people of Madinah, I found that the two of you had the biggest families. Therefore, take this money and distribute it. You should then bring back what is left over. While Uthmaan took as much as he could, I knelt down and said, 'Will you give us more if it is less?' He replied, 'You are a chip off the old block (just like your father)! Was all of this not with Allaah when Muhammad and his companions were eating scraps of leather?' I replied, 'Most certainly! It was all with Allaah while Muhammad was alive. However, if these conquests took place at his hands, he would not have done as you are doing.' Umar became angry at this and asked, 'What then would he have done? He would have eaten from it and fed us as well,' I replied. Umar then started weeping loudly until his ribs heaved. He said, 'I wish that I could escape from this Khilaafah with a clean sheet, nothing in my favour and nothing against.'

Another narration from Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar states, "Umar once called for me and when I went to him, I found a leather tablecloth in front of him on which there was gold spread out. He said, 'Come and distribute this amongst your people. Allaah knows best why he kept this away from His Nabi and from Abu Bakr and it has come to me. Is it good that I have been given or evil?' He then burst out crying as he said, 'Not at all! I swear by the Being Who controls my life! It was not for any evil reason that Allaah kept it away from His Nabi Rasool and from Abu Bakr and then gave it to me for some good reason (it is evident that it is a test for me)." (2)

The Incident with Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf

Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf narrates that Hadhrat Umar once sent for him. However, when he reached the door, he heard Hadhrat Umar crying loudly. He said, "Innaa Lillaahi wa Innaa Ilayhi Raaji'oon! A calamity must have struck Ameerul Mu'mineen!" He then entered the room and held Hadhrat Umar's shoulders saying, "No need to grieve. No need to grieve." Hadhrat Umar remarked, "There is every need to grieve." He then took Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf by the hand and led him through the door. There lay several bags stacked one upon the other. Hadhrat Umar said, "The family of Khattaab now has no value in the sight of Allaah. If Allaah willed, He could have given this to my two predecessors (Rasulullaah and Hadhrat Abu Bakr) and I could have followed the practice they would have set in this regard." Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf consoled Hadhrat Umar by saying, "Sit down with us (the senior Sahabah) and we shall discuss the matter." They then determined that Rasulullaah's wives should receive four thousand each while everyone else received two thousand each. Eventually, all the money was distributed. (1)

The Fear of Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf and his Weeping Over Worldly Prosperity

He Weeps While Eating
Hadhrat Ibraheem reports that some food was once served to Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf after he had fasted. He said, "Mus'ab bin Umayr who was a better person than I was martyred and shrouded in a sheet (so small) that would leave his legs exposed when his head was covered, and his head exposed when his feet were covered. Hamza who was also a better person than I, was also martyred. Thereafter, worldly wealth was spread out before us and we fear that our good deeds may have been rewarded in advance (in this world rather than in the Aakhirah)." He then started weeping so much that he even left his food. (2)

Another Incident About him
Hadhrat Naufal bin Ayaadh Hudhali says, "Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf was our companion and an excellent one indeed. He took us home one day and when he entered he first took a bath before sitting down with us. A platter with bread and meat was then served to us. When the platter was put down, Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf started to weep. 'What makes you weep, O Abu Muhammad?' we asked. He replied, 'Rasulullaah passed away without him or his family filling their bellies with even barley bread. I do not think that what we have been kept back to enjoy is better than what they had.' (3)

He Asks Hadhrat Ummu Salamah About Worldly Prosperity and her Reply Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf once went to Hadhrat Ummu Salamah and asked, "Dear mother! I fear that my wealth will destroy me because I am the wealthiest of the Quraysh." She advised him saying, "Dear son! Then spend (in charity) because I have heard Rasulullaah say, 'Verily there are some of my companions who will never see me after I part from them.'" Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf then left and happened to meet Hadhrat Umar. When he informed Hadhrat Umar about what Hadhrat Ummu Salamah had told him, Hadhrat Umar went to her and asked, "I ask you in the name of Allaah to tell me whether I am amongst them." She replied, "You are not. I shall henceforth not fulfil the request of anyone else (who takes Allaah’s name and asks me to inform them if they are amongst those companions or not)." (1)

The Fear of Hadhrat Khabbaab bin Arat and his Weeping Over Worldly Prosperity

The Incident when some Sahabah Visited him

Hadrat Yahya bin Ja’dah reports that some Sahabah once visited Hadhrat Khabbaab during his illness. They said, "Good news for you, O Abu Abdullaah! You shall meet Muhammad at the pond.” He then pointed to the top and bottom storeys of his house and said, "How is that possible with all this when Rasulullaah said, 'All that one of you requires are the provisions of a traveller'"? (2)

The Incident when he Passed Away

Hadrat Taariq bin Shihaab reports that a group of Sahabah once visited Hadhrat Khabbaab during his illness and said, "Good news for you, O Abu Abdullaah! You shall be meeting your brothers tomorrow." Hadhrat Khabbaab then started weeping saying, "Remember that I am not afraid (of death). However, (I am crying because) you have reminded me of a group of people and called them my brothers whereas they have passed on with all their rewards intact (all reserved for the Aakhirah without receiving any part of it in this world). What I fear is that we may have already been given the rewards for the deeds you have mentioned (in this world) since we have lived on after them (and received much wealth)." (3)

Hadrat Haaritha bin Mudarrib reports that when they visited Hadhrat Khabbaab, he had already taken seven brandings with a hot iron on his stomach (as treatment for his illness). He said, "Had Rasulullaah not stated that no person should ever wish for death, I would have certainly wished for it now." Someone said to him, "(Why worry about your future?) Rather call to mind your companionship with Rasulullaah and that you will soon be going to him." Hadhrat Khabbaab responded by saying, "I fear that what I have with me, may prevent me from meeting with him. I have forty thousand Dirhams here in my house." (4)

Another similar narration adds that Hadhrat Khabbaab said, "I saw a time when I was with Rasulullaah without a single Dirham to my name. I now have beside my room forty thousand Dirhams." When his burial shroud was brought and he saw it, he wept as he said, "On the other hand, no shroud could be found for Hamza besides a striped sheet (so small) that when his head was covered, his feet would be uncovered and when his feet were covered, his head would be uncovered. Eventually, his head was covered and his feet covered with idhkhir grass." (1)

Hadrat Abu Waa'il Shaqueeq bin Salamah says that when they visited Hadrat Khabbaab bin Arat during his final illness, he said, "There is eighty thousand Dirhams in that box. By Allaah! Neither have I ever tied it up or refused it to any beggar (I never intended hoarding it, but it was too much to spend)." He then started weeping. When the others asked him what made him weep, he replied, "I am crying because my companions have passed on without the world decreasing any of their rewards (because they passed away as poor people). On the other hand, we have lived on after them (and received plenty wealth) to the extent that we found no place for the wealth except in sand (in buildings)." (2)

A narration of Hadrat Abu Usaama states that Hadrat Khabbaab expressed the wish that the world should have been something like dung. Yet another narration from Hadrat Qais reports that Hadrat Khabbaab said, "A group of people have passed on before us who did not receive any worldly wealth. However, we lived on after them and received so much wealth that we could find nothing to spent it on besides on sand (buildings). A Muslim can be rewarded for everything he spends on except for that which he spends on sand (unnecessary building)." (3)

The Narration of Bukhaari about the Fear of Hadrat Khabbaab

Bukhaari reports that Hadrat Khabbaab said, "We migrated with Rasulullah with no motifs besides attaining the pleasure of Allaah. Our rewards are therefore forthcoming from Allaah. From us there were those who passed on without enjoying any part of their rewards (in this world). Amongst them was Mus'ab bin Umayr who was martyred during the Battle of Uhud. All that he left behind was a sheet (so small) that would leave his legs exposed when we covered his head, and his head exposed when we covered his feet. Rasulullah then instructed us to cover his head to cover his feet with idhkhir grass. Then there are those of us whose fruits have ripened and they are busy picking it (they are enjoying the rewards of their deeds already in this world)." (4)

Salmaan Faarsi when he spoke about the treasures of Kisra (the Persian Emperor) that Allaah caused to fall to the hands of the Muslims. He then said, 'That Allaah Who gave all of this to you, Who gave you these victories and blessed you with what you have has kept it all away when Muhammad was alive. (In those times) The Sahabah would start the mornings without a single Dinaar, Dirham or even a Mudd of grain. Thereafter, O brother of the Banu Abs, we have this situation (we have now in which we have plenty of wealth).' We were later passing by some silos where grain was being separated from the chaff.

Hadhrat Salmaan then repeated, 'That Allaah Who gave all of this to you, Who gave you these victories and blessed you with what you have has kept it all away when Muhammad was alive. (In those times) The Sahabah would start the mornings without a single Dinaar, Dirham or even a Mudd of grain. Thereafter, O brother of the Banu Abs, we have this situation.'

A man from the Banu Abs tribe says, "I was once travelling with Hadhrat Salmaan along the banks of the Tigris River when he said to me, 'O brother from the Banu Abs tribe! Dismount and drink.' After I had drunk, he asked, 'How much of the river has your drinking decreased from the Tigris?' 'It decreased practically nothing,' I responded. He then commented, 'That is knowledge. People take from it and decrease none of it.' He then told me to mount the animal again and as we passed by some wheat and barley silos, he said, 'All of this has been opened up to us and kept back from Rasulullaah and his companions. Do you think that this is for our benefit or not?' 'I do not know!' I replied. 'Well I know the answer,' he continued, 'it is bad for us and good for them. Until the day he met Allaah, Rasulullaah never filled his belly for three consecutive days.'

Hadrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas visits Hadhrat Salmaan

Abu Sufyaan reports from his teachers that Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas visited Hadhrat Salmaan during his final illness. When Hadhrat Salmaan started to weep, Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas asked, "What makes you cry? You are off to meet your companions and shall join Rasulullaah at the pond. Rasulullaah was pleased with you when he passed away." Hadhrat Salmaan replied, "I am neither crying for fear of death nor for greed of this world. However, Rasulullaah once emphatically told us, 'Your means of living in this world should be only as much as the provisions a traveller takes on a journey.' Yet look at all these black snakes around me (these worldly possessions)." The narrator says that all that he possessed were a jug for water, a utensil for washing clothes and similar such household necessities. Hadhrat Sa'd then said to him, "Give us some advices that we could hold on to after your demise." Hadhrat Salmaan said, "Remember your Rabb whenever you intend doing something, at the time of passing judgement and whenever you are distributing." (1)

A narration of Haakim states that all Hadhrat Salmaan possessed at the time was a dish for washing clothes, a plate and a jug.

Hadrath Anas narrates that when Hadhrat Salmaan fell ill, Hadrath Sa'd visited him. When he saw Hadrath Salmaan weeping, Hadrath Sa'd asked, "What makes you cry, dear brother? Did you not spend time in the company of Rasulullah?" Hadrath Sa'd then continues to enumerate various accomplishments of Hadrath Salmaan (to give him encouragement). Hadrath Salmaan replied, "I am not crying for any one of two things. I am not crying for greed of this world nor for dislike of the Aakhirah. I am crying because Rasulullah gave me explicit instructions that I have transgressed." "What did he instruct you with?" asked Hadrath Sa'd. Hadrath Salmaan said, "The instructions of Rasulullah were that only the provisions of a traveller is sufficient for us. I think that I have certainly transgressed the instruction. As for you, O Sa'd. My advice is that you fear Allaah when you pass judgement, when you distribute and when you make any intentions." A narrator called Thaabit says that he received the news that the estate that Hadrath Salmaan left amounted to only twenty odd Dirhams and a little money for expenses. (2)

Why Hadhrath Salmaan was Concerned at the Time of Death

Hadrath Aamir bin Abdullaah narrates that when Hadrath Salmaan "al Khayr" was on his deathbed, the people noticed that he was somewhat uneasy. They asked "O Abu Abdullaah! What makes you so restless when you were amongst the earliest Muslims and when you accompanied Rasulullah in great battles and coveted conquests?" Hadrath Salmaan replied, "What concerns me is that when he was parting from us, my beloved friend explicitly instructed that the mere provisions of a traveller should suffice for us. This is what makes me so uneasy." When all the possessions were evaluated, it amounted to only fifteen Dirhams. (4) Although other narrations state that Hadrath Salmaan's estate amounted to fifteen Dinaars, others are unanimous that they totalled less than twenty Dirhams (not Dinaars). In fact, a narration from Hadrath Ali bin Badheemah states that after all his assets were

The Fear of Hadhrat Abu Haashim bin Utba bin Rabee'Ah Qurashi

The Incident with Hadhrat Mu'aawiya at the time of death

Hadhrat Abu Waal narrates that Hadhrat Mu'aawiya came to visit Hadhrat Abu Haashim bin Utba when he fell ill. Finding him in tears, Hadhrat Mu'aawiya asked, "What makes you weep dear uncle? Are you suffering with pain or are you grieving over leaving this world?" "Not at all," he replied, "I am crying because Rasulullaah had given us explicit advice that we failed to adhere to." "What was that advice?" enquired Hadhrat Mu'aawiya. Hadhrat Abu Haashim replied, "I heard Rasulullaah say, 'It is sufficient only to possess a servant and a conveyance to use in the path of Allaah.' Today I find that I have accumulated plenty of wealth." A narration of Razeen states that after the demise of Hadhrat Abu Haashim bin Utba, all his assets were evaluated thirty Dirhams. This even included a dish that he used for kneading dough and for eating. (1)

Fear of Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jaraah and his Weeping Over Worldly Prosperity

Hadhrat Abu Hasanah Muslim bin Akyas the freed slave of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Aamir reports that when someone once went to Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jaraah, he found him weeping. "What makes you weep, O Abu Ubaydah?" he asked. Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah replied, "I am weeping because Rasulullaah once made mention of the conquests and spoils of war that Allaah would grant the Muslims. He also made mention of (conquering) Shaam and then said, 'O Abu Ubaydah! If your life is prolonged (to see the times of these conquests), three servants will be enough for you; one servant to serve you, one to travel with you and another for your family to serve them. At that time, three animals will be enough for you; one to ride, one to transport your goods and another for your servant.' Now I see that my house is full of servants and that my stables are full of animals and horses. How will I meet Rasulullaah after this? Rasulullaah also said to us, 'The most beloved and closest of you to me is the one who meets me in the condition that he left me.' (2)

The Abstinence of Rasulullaah ﷺ and the Sahabah ﷺ and How they Left the World Without Bothering About it

The Abstinence of Rasulullaah ﷺ

The Narration of Hadhrat Umar ﷺ About the Imprint of a Mat on Rasulullaah ﷺ’s Side

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas ﷺ reports that Hadhrat Umar ﷺ once told him about the time when he visited Rasulullaah ﷺ. Rasulullaah ﷺ was lying on a straw mat and when Hadhrat Umar ﷺ sat down he noticed that Rasulullaah ﷺ because was not wearing an upper garment, the mat had made imprints on his side. Hadhrat Umar ﷺ was also startled to see that all the room contained was a handful of barley close to a Saa in weight, some acacia leaves in one corner (used for dying cloth) and a piece of leather hanging. When tears started flowing from Hadhrat Umar ﷺ’s eyes, Rasulullaah ﷺ asked, "What makes you weep, O son of Khattaab?" Hadhrat Umar ﷺ replied, "O Nabi of Allaah ﷺ! Why should I not weep when the mat has left an imprint on your side and what I see here is the sum total of all your belongings? You are the Nabi of Allaah and His chosen servant and this is all you have whereas the Emperors of Rome and Persia have all types of fruits and rivers (and other luxuries)!" Rasulullaah ﷺ consoled him saying, "O son of Khattaab! Are you not satisfied that they should have the world while we have the Aakhirah?" (1)

Another narration from Hadhrat Umar ﷺ states, "I once sought permission to see Rasulullaah ﷺ. When I entered an upper storey room he was occupying, Rasulullaah ﷺ was lying on a coarse cloth with part of his body in the sand. His pillow was filled with the bark of a date palm, hanging over his head was a piece of leather and in a corner of the room lay some acacia leaves. After greeting Rasulullaah ﷺ and sitting down, I asked, "You are the Nabi of Allaah and His chosen servant (lying on a little coarse cloth) while the Emperors of Persia and Rome are sleeping on golden beds with bedding made of velvet and silk." Rasulullaah ﷺ replied, "Their luxuries have been brought to them in this world and will soon come to an end whereas our luxuries are postponed for the Aakhirah (and will never finish)." (2)

According to yet another narration states that Hadhrat Umar ﷺ once went to see Rasulullaah ﷺ. Rasulullaah ﷺ was lying down on a straw mat that had left an imprint on his side. Hadhrat Umar ﷺ said, "O Rasulullaah ﷺ! Why do you rather not choose a softer bedding?" Rasulullaah ﷺ replied, "What interest have I in this world? My relationship with this world is merely like a traveller on a journey during summer. He stops to take shade beneath a tree for a short while and then proceeds on his journey, leaving the tree behind."(1)

The Bedding of Rasulullaah Hadhrat Aa’isha says, “A woman from the Ansaar once visited me and noticed that the bedding of Rasulullaah was merely a double-folded sheet. She then sent me a bedding that was filled with wool. When Rasulullaah came to me, he asked, “What is this, O Aa’isha?” I then informed him that the Ansaari lady had come and when she saw the bedding, she left and sent this bedding. Rasulullaah said, "Return it, O Aa’isha. By Allaah! if I wanted, Allaah would make mountains of gold and silver travel with me." (2)

The Food and Clothing of Rasulullaah Hadhrat Anas reports that Rasulullaah wore woollen clothing and patched shoes. He also said that Rasulullaah ate Bashi and his clothing was made of coarse cloth. When someone asked Hadhrat Hasan what Bashi was, he replied that it was coarsely ground barley which Rasulullaah only managed to swallow with a sip of water. (3)

The Incident of Rasulullaah and Hadhrat Ummu Ayman Hadhrat Ummu Ayman narrates that she once sifted some flour and made bread for Rasulullaah (with the refined flour rather than with the coarse flour Rasulullaah was used to). (When she served it to Rasulullaah,) He asked, "What is this?" Hadhrat Ummu Ayman replied, "It is something we prepare in our country (Abyssinia) and I wished to make you some bread from it." Rasulullaah said, "Put it back in the mill and knead it again (so that it can be made into a coarse type of bread)." (4)

A narration of Hadhrat Salma Hadhrat Salma, the wife of Hadhrat Abu Raafi reports that Hadhrat Hasan bin Ali, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Jafar and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas once came to her and said, "Make for us some food that Rasulullaah liked to eat." She said to them, "But you may not like it nowadays (because you are used to better foods)." However, she stood up and ground some barley. She then blew off the very rough chaff and made some bread. The gravy (for the bread) was olive oil and she also sprinkled some

The Narration of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar

About the Abstinence of Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar reports that they once accompanied Rasulullaah into an Ansaari's orchard. Rasulullaah picked up some dates from the ground and ate them. "What is the matter, O son of Umar? Why are you not eating?" Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar replied, "I do not feel like eating." "Well, I certainly do," said Rasulullaah, "because it is now four day since I have had anything to eat. If I wished, I could have prayed to my Rabb to give what the Emperors of Rome and Persia have. O son of Umar! What will be your condition when you live on to be with people who will store a year's provisions and (people's) trust in Allaah will be weak." Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar says, "By Allaah! We were still standing there when Allaah revealed the verse:

\text{وَكَانَ مِنْ ذَاتٍ لَا تُحْصَلُ رُزْقُهَا إِلَّا اللَّهُ تُزِيرُهَا وَأَيْضًا كُرْمُهُ الْيَمِينُ} \\
\text{سورة Ankaboot, verse 60}

How many are the animals who do not (even) carry their own provision (as you do)? (Despite this,) Allaah (still) sustains them and you (people) as well. He is the All Hearing (hears all your du'aas), the All Knowing (knows your needs and will fulfil them). {Surah Ankaboot, verse 60}

Rasulullaah then said, "Allaah has neither commanded me to amass worldly possessions nor to follow my desires. Whoever amasses worldly wealth with the intention of using it in the remaining portion of his life should remember that life is in Allaah's hands. Take note that I do not amass Dinaars or Dirhams and I do not store provisions for tomorrow." (2)

The Narration of Ummul Mu'mineen Hadhrat Aa'isha

Hadhrat Aa'isha narrates that when a cup containing milk and honey was given to Rasulullaah, he commented, "A combination of two drinks as well two meals in one cup. I have no need for such a thing. Take note that I do not say that this is Haraam but on the Day of Qiyaamah I do not like my Rabb to question me about the extravagance of this world. I humble myself before Allaah. Whoever humbles himself for Allaah, Allaah will elevate him and whoever behaves arrogantly, Allaah will lower him. Allaah will grant independence to the one who spends thriftily and Allaah will love the one who remembers death." (3)

The Abstinence of Hadhrat Abu Bakr

The Narration of Hadhrat Zaid bin Arqam in this Regard

Hadhrat Zaid bin Arqam narrates, "We were once with Hadhrat Abu Bakr when he asked for something to drink. When some water mixed with honey was brought and put in his hand, he started to cry and sobbed a lot. He wept so much that we thought that something was seriously wrong with him. However, we did not ask him anything. When he stopped crying, we asked, 'O Khalifah of Rasulullaah! What made you weep so much?' He replied, 'I was once with Rasulullaah when I saw him repel something from himself which I could not see. I asked, 'O Rasulullaah! What was it I saw you repel from yourself when I could see nothing?' He replied, 'The world leapt towards me and I (repelled it as I) said, 'Get away from me!' It then said, 'I know that you will never take me.' It was this that made it difficult for me (to drink the honey water). I feared that I may oppose the way of Rasulullaah and that the world would get hold of me." (1)

In another narration, Hadhrat Zaid bin Arqam reports that when Hadhrat Abu Bakr once asked for a drink, he was given a cup with honey mixed in water. As he took it to his mouth, he started weeping and this made everyone around him cry as well. When he stopped crying, the people around him were still in tears. The same thing happened a second time and this time he cried so much that the people could not even ask him anything. When he eventually wiped his face and stopped crying, the people asked him the reason for his crying. The rest of the narration is similar to the one above except that he also said, "It (the world) then said (to Rasulullaah), 'Remember! I swear by Allaah that although you have slipped through my grasp, those after you will be unable to do so." (2)

Hadhrat Aa'isha says, "Abu Bakr passed away without leaving behind a Dinaar or a Dirham. Just before his demise, he took all his money and deposited it in the Baytul Maal."

Another narration from Hadhrat Urwa states that when he was made Khalifah, Hadhrat Abu Bakr deposited every Dinaar and Dirham he possessed into the Baytul Maal. He said, "I used to trade and seek my livelihood with this money. Now that I am the Khalifah, public affairs have preoccupied me from trade and earning a livelihood." (3)

(1) Bazzaar. Haythami (Vol.10 Pg.254) has commented on the chain of narrators but Ibnul Mundhir (Targheeb wat Tarheeb Vol.5 Pg.168) says that the chain is sound and that Ibn Abi Dunya has also reported the narration.

(2) Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.30). Haakim and Bayhaqi have also reported the narration, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.37).

The Incident Between him and Hadhrat Umar

Hadhrat Ataa bin Saa'ib narrates that the morning after Hadhrat Abu Bakr was appointed Khalifah, he had some shawls over his arm and was proceeding to the marketplace (to do business as usual). "Where are you off to?" asked Hadhrat Umar. "I am off to the marketplace," replied Hadhrat Abu Bakr. Hadhrat Umar enquired further, "What will you be doing there now that you have been put in charge of the Muslims?" "How will I then feed my family?" asked Hadhrat Abu Bakr. Hadhrat Umar replied, "Let us go to Abu Ubaydah and he will fix an allowance for you (from the Baytul Maal)." The two men then proceeded to Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah who said, "I shall fix for you the average allowance of a Muhaajir which is neither too much nor too little. You will also receive a set of clothing for summer and one for winter but when you have worn out a set of clothing, you will return it before taking another." They then determined that he would receive half a goat every day without the head and innards. (1)

The Narration of Hadhrat Humayd bin Hilaal

Hadhrat Humayd bin Hilaal reports that when Hadhrat Abu Bakr was appointed as Khalifah, some of the Sahabah suggested that he should receive an allowance from the Baytul Maal. It was eventually agreed that he should receive two shawls and when he wore them out, he could receive another two after returning the old ones. He would also receive an animal for travelling and as much for household expenses as he normally spent before becoming the Khalifah. Hadhrat Abu Bakr was happy with this. (2)

The Abstinence of Hadhrat Umar

Some Sahabah Feel that Hadhrat Umar should Receive a Larger Allowance but he Rejects the Idea

Hadhrat Saalim bin Abdullaah reports that when Hadhrat Umar became the Khalifah, he took the same allowance that was fixed for Hadhrat Abu Bakr. Although he continued with it, it became difficult for him to fulfil his needs with it. When a group of the Muhaajireen that included Hadhrat Uthmaan, Hadhrat Talha and Hadhrat Zubayr once convened, it was Hadhrat Zubayr who suggested Hadhrat Umar be informed that his allowance should be increased. Hadhrat Ali agreed saying, "That is exactly what I had wanted some time ago. Let us go." However, Hadhrat Uthmaan cautioned, "This is Umar we are talking about! Let us first ascertain what his reaction would be. Let us rather approach (his daughter) Hafsah and ask her. We will also ask her to keep the matter a secret."

(1) Ibn Sa'd, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.129).
(2) Ibn Sa'd, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.130).
They then went to Hadhrat Hafsah and told her that she should inform Hadhrat Umar about the suggestion coming from a group of people. They stressed that she should not mention their names unless Hadhrat Umar accepted the proposal. They then left.

When Hadhrat Hafsah met Hadhrat Umar to discuss the matter, she noticed the anger on his face. "Who are these people?" Hadhrat Umar demanded to know. "I cannot tell you until I know your opinion," she replied. Hadhrat Umar then said, "If I knew who they were, I would scar their faces. You are my only medium with them. I ask you to tell me in the name of Allaah what was the best clothing that Rasulullaah wore in your house?"

She replied, "Two reddish brown garments which he wore when receiving delegations and delivering sermons on Fridays." "And what was the best food Rasulullaah ate at your house?" Hadhrat Umar asked further. Hadhrat Hafsah replied, "I once made bread from barley flour and when it was still hot, I poured over it some oil left at the bottom of our oil can. This made it moist and soft and Rasulullaah ate it with great relish." Hadhrat Umar then asked, "And what bedding did Rasulullaah use with you that was most comfortable?" She replied, "It was made from a thick material which we four-folded in summer beneath us. During winter we double-folded it beneath us and used the other portion to cover ourselves."

Hadrat Umar then said, "Dear Hafsah! Take this message from me (to the group of Muhajireen) that Rasulullaah had set a precedent in all matters. He had kept extravagance in its place (without indulging in it) and sufficed only with what was necessary. By Allaah! I shall also keep extravagance in its place and suffice with bare necessities. The example of myself and my two companions (Rasulullaah and Hadhrat Abu Bakr) are like three persons on a road. The first took along his provisions and reached his destination. The second followed suit and also reached the destination. Now the third is on the road. If he sticks to their way and is content with the provisions they took, he will meet them and be with them. However, if he takes a road other than the one they took, he will not be able to meet up with them." (1)

The Narration of Hadhrat Hasan Basri

Hadhrat Hasan Basri says that he once attended a gathering in the Jaami Masjid of Basrah where he found some Sahabah speaking about the abstinence of Hadhrat Abu Bakr and Hadhrat Umar. They were also discussing the personalities of the two men and the military conquests that Allaah had given Islam under their leadership. Moving closer to the gathering, he found Hadhrat Ahnaf bin Qais Tameemi sitting with them. Hadhrat Ahnaf was saying, "Umar bin Khattaab dispatched us on a military expedition to Iraq and it was then that Allaah allowed us to conquer Iraq and various Persian cities. There we took possession of white Persian and Khurasan..." cloth, which we took with us and started to wear. When we came to Hadhrat Umar (in Madinah), he turned his face away from us and did not speak to us. This was a hard blow to the Sahabah. We then approached his son Abdullaah bin Umar who was sitting in the Masjid. When we complained to him about the cold treatment we received from the Ameerul Mu’mineen, he said, 'The Ameerul Mu'mineen (ignored you because he) saw you wearing clothing that he neither saw Rasulullaah nor his successor Abu Bakr wearing.'

Hadrat Ahnaf continues, "We then returned to our homes, removed the clothing and wore the clothing that Umar was used to seeing us wear. (When we again went to meet him) Hadhrat Umar stood up and greeted each one of us individually. He even embraced each of us as if he had never seen us before. When we brought the booty before him, he distributed it equally between us. Amongst the booty presented to him was a container with yellow and red sweetmeats. When he tasted it, he found it to be extremely delicious. He then turned to us and said, 'O assembly of Muhaajireen and Ansaar! I swear by Allaah that it will be for food like this that a son will kill his father and a brother will kill his brother.' According to his instructions, the sweetmeats were then distributed amongst the children of those Sahabah who were martyred during the time of Rasulullaah. Hadhrat Umar then got up and left, with the Sahabah walking behind him.

Some of the Sahabah said, "O assembly of Muhaajireen and Ansaar! Just look at the abstinence of this man and his attire. We have had to endure plenty of embarrassment on account of him because since Allaah has granted him victory over the domains of Rome and Persia and the far reaches of the East and West, many Arab and non-Arab delegations come to him and see him wearing the same robe with twelve patches. You people are the senior companions of Rasulullaah who are veterans of many great battles. You are also the early vanguards from the Muhaajireen and Ansaar. Therefore, O companions of Rasulullaah, why do you not ask him to change his robe for something softer that would instil awe into someone looking on. He should also have (an elaborate) meal platter served to him every morning and another every evening from which he could eat and also feed the Muhaajireen and Ansaar with him."

All of them unanimously agreed that only two persons could suggest this to Hadhrat Umar. They were Hadhrat Ali bin Abi Taalib because he was the boldest before Hadhrat Umar and also his father-in-law. The other was Hadhrat Umar's daughter Hadhrat Hafsah because she was the wife of Rasulullaah. Hadhrat Umar respected her because of her relationship with Rasulullaah. When they approached Hadhrat Ali, he refused to do it and referred the people to the wives of Rasulullaah because they were after all the mothers of all Mu'mineen and could therefore address Hadhrat Umar without fear.

They then asked Hadhrat Aa'isha and Hadhrat Hafsah at a time when the two happened to be together. When Hadhrat Aa'isha  said, "I don't think that he will oblige. However, you will soon find out." When the two ladies went to Hadhrat Umar  , he welcomed them in. Hadhrat Aa'isha  said, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! Will you permit us to say something?" "Go ahead and speak, O Ummul Mu'mineen," replied Hadhrat Umar . She said, "Rasulullaah  has passed on to his way to Jannah and to Allaah's pleasure without taking any portion of this world and without the world coming to him. Hadhrat Abu Bakr  passed on in a like manner in the footsteps of Rasulullaah  after reviving his Sunnah, finishing off those who rejected Islaam and giving thorough replies to those who trod the path of falsehood. He exercised justice amongst the people, distributed wealth amongst them with equity and pleased the Rabb of creation. Allaah then took him into His mercy and joined him with His Nabi  and those most high (the Ambiyaa in the high ranks of Jannah). Neither did he desire this world not did it come to him. Allaah has now conquered the treasures of Roman and Persian Emperors at your hands and gave you their lands. Their wealth has been carried to you and the ends of the East and West have fallen to your feet. We now anticipate even more from Allaah to bolster Islaam. Envoys from the various non-Arab tribes come to you and many Arab delegations also meet with you while you are wearing that robe that has twelve patches. Why do you not change your robe for something softer that would instil awe into someone looking on and have a meal platter served to you every morning and another every evening from which you could eat and also feed the Muhaajireen and Ansaar with you?"

When he heard this, Hadhrat Umar  started weeping profusely. He then asked, "I ask you to tell me in the name of Allaah whether Rasulullaah  ever filled himself with even barley bread for ten nights or even five or three nights? Or did he ever eat both a morning and evening meal in a day until he met Allaah?" Addressing Hadhrat Aa'isha  , Hadhrat Umar  continued, "Do you ever know of a time when food was served to Rasulullaah  on a table that was even a handspan higher than the ground? Or was it that when he wanted food, it was placed on the ground and (after eating) it was then taken away?" Both ladies replied, "We swear by Allaah that this was the case." He then said, "The two of you are the wives of Rasulullaah  and the mothers of the Mu'mineen. You have rights over all the Mu'mineen and especially over me. However, you have come to encourage me towards things of this world when I know that Rasulullaah  wore a woollen robe so rough in texture that it actually scratched his skin. Do you know about this?" "We swear by Allaah that we do!" they both admitted.

Hadrath Umar  continued, "Do you not know that Rasulullaah  used to sleep on a single folded robe? And, O Aa'isha, did you not have a coarse sheet made of animal hairs that Rasulullaah  used as a rug during the day and bedding during the nights? When we used to come to see him, we could always notice the imprints of the straw mat on his sides. O Hafsah! Remember that you told me that one night you double folded the bedding and finding it soft, Rasulullaah ﷺ slept through the night and woke up only with Bilaal’s Adhaan.
He then said to you, ‘O Hafsah! What have you done? You had double folded the bedding last night, causing sleep to carry me through to the morning. What need have I for this world? Why do you preoccupy me with soft beds?’ O Hafsah! Don’t you know that all Rasulullaah ﷺ’s earlier and later error had been forgiven?
Yet he went hungry in the evenings, spent his sleeping hours in Sajdah and remained in Ruku, Sajdah, weeping and humbling himself before Allaah throughout the hours of the day and night. This he did until the day Allaah took him into the fold of His mercy and pleasure. Umar shall never eat good foods, and shall never wear fine clothing because he has a perfect example in his two companions (Rasulullaah ﷺ and Hadhrat Abu Bakr ﷺ). He shall also never eat two meals at the same time except for having salt and olive oil together. He shall eat meat only once a month just so that his month passes like the masses.”
The two ladies then left and informed the Sahabah ﷺ about what had transpired. Hadhrat Umar ﷺ remained like this until he eventually left to meet Allaah.(1)

His Abstinence in Eating

Hadhrat Ikrama bin Khaalid narrates that Hadhrat Hafsah ﷺ, Hadhrat Ibn
Mutee and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ﷺ once addressed Hadhrat Umar ﷺ saying, "If you eat good food, it would give you more strength to establish the truth." Hadhrat Umar ﷺ replied, "I know well that each of you wish me well, but I have left my two companions Rasulullaah ﷺ and Hadhrat Abu Bakr ﷺ on a certain route and if I leave that route, I shall not be able to meet them at the destination.” (2)

Hadhrat Abu Umaamah bin Sahl bin Hunayf ﷺ says that for a long period of time, Hadhrat Umar ﷺ took nothing from the Baytul Maal. He eventually reached a stage where he started suffering poverty (because involvement in public matters gave him no time to engage in trade). He then sent for some of the Sahabah ﷺ to consult with them. He addressed them saying, "My task has preoccupied me (from earning), so what (allowance) do you see appropriate for me?” Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Affaan ﷺ replied, "(So much that is sufficient for your) Morning and evening meals.” Hadhrat Umar ﷺ abided by this opinion.(3) Hadhrat Qataadah ﷺ reports that Hadhrat Umar ﷺ used to say, "Had I so wished, I could be eating the best of foods and wearing the finest of clothing. However, I prefer to rather perpetuate my luxuries (by reserving them for the Aakhirah)." It has also been narrated that when Hadhrat Umar  once arrived in Shaam, food that he had never before set eyes upon was prepared for him. He asked, "While we eat this, what will the poor Muslims have who die without filling themselves with even barley bread?" Hadhrat Umar bin Waleed replied, "They shall have Jannah." Tears then started to flow from the eyes of Hadhrat Umar as he said, "If this (food) is our share while they have made off with Jannah, then they have certainly excelled us with a tremendous virtue."(1)

The Incident with his Son Hadhrat Abdullaah and Daughter Hadhrat Hafsah

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar  (the son of Hadhrat Umar ) narrates that Hadhrat Umar once came to his house while he was eating. Hadhrat Umar made space for his father at the head of the table. (When he sat down) Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar said, "Bismillaah" and then put his hand to the food. He ate a morsel and then another. Thereafter, he commented, "I can taste the presence of something that is not the natural fat of meat (this meat has not been cooked in its own fat)." Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar submitted, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! I went to the marketplace (with two Dirhams) to look for some fatty meat to buy but found that it was too expensive (more than two Dirhams). I then bought the meat of a thin animal for a Dirham and cooked it with some butter that I bought for another Dirham. I wanted each member of my family to have at least one bone to eat. Hadhrat Umar then said, "Whenever these two things (meat and butter) came to Rasulullah , he only ate one of them and gave the other away as Sadaqah (I shall therefore not eat)." Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar said, "Please eat, O Ameerul Mu'mineen! Whenever the two again come in my possession at the same time, I shall also do the same." "I cannot," replied Hadhrat Umar .(2)

Abu Haazim reports that Hadhrat Umar  once went to see his daughter Hadhrat Hafsah who served him some cold gravy and bread. She then poured some olive oil into it. "Two gravies in one!" remarked Hadhrat Umar , "I shall not eat this until the day I meet Allaah." (3)

The Narrations of Hadhrat Anas and Hadhrat Saa'ib bin Yazeed Concerning the Food of Hadhrat Umar

Hadhrat Anas says, "When he was Khalifah, I saw that when a Saa of dates was given to Hadhrat Umar , he would even eat the dates that were of an inferior quality."

Hadhrat Sa'a'il bin Yazeed reports, "I often had dinner with Hadhrat Umar when he ate bread and (dry) meat. He would then wipe his hands on his feet saying, 'This is the serviette of Umar and his family.'" A narration of Deenowri from Hadhrat Thaabit states that when Hadhrat Jarood once ate with Hadhrat Umar and had finished the meal, he asked one of the servants to get him a serviette to wipe his hands. Hadhrat Umar then said, "Wipe your hands off on your sleeve (because the meal was dry and your hands have hardly been soiled)." (1)

Hadhrat Umar Reminds People of a Verse of the Qur'aan

Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Abu Layla reports that when some people from Iraq once came to Hadhrat Umar, he noticed that they ate very little (because they were used to good food and did not like his simple food). He then said to them, "O Iraqis! If I wanted, I could also have sumptuous meals prepared for me as you have. However, we wish to rather perpetuate our luxuries of this world (by forsaking them here) to find them in the Aakhirah. Have you not heard that (in the Aakhirah) Allaah will say to some people:

"You have used up your good things in your worldly life (and therefore have nothing for yourselves here)". {Surah Ahqaaf, verse 20}(2)

A companion of Hadhrat Habeeb bin Abi Thaabit narrates that Hadhrat Umar once met a group of Iraqis with whom was Hadhrat Jareer bin Abdullah. When a platter of food prepared from bread and olive oil was served to them, they ate only very little (because they did not like it). Hadhrat Umar then said to them, "I have seen what you have done. What do you want? Do you want various types of sweets and savouries served hot and cold (according to your desire) and then have to cram it all into your bellies?" (3)

Hadhrat Humayd bin Hilaal reports that Hadhrat Hafs bin Abul Aas often joined Hadhrat Umar for meals but ate nothing. Hadhrat Umar asked, "What prevents you from eating our food?" Hadhrat Hafs replied, "Your food is very coarse and thick. I prefer to eat the smooth variety of food that is prepared for me." Hadhrat Umar told him, "Do you think that I cannot give instructions for all the hairs of a goat to be removed and then the meat roasted for me? Do you think that I cannot give instructions for flour to be sifted through a cloth and then prepared as refined bread? Do you think that I cannot give instructions for raisins to be put into a container and then soaked in water to produce a (delicious) drink that resemble the blood of a deer (in colour)?" Hadhrat Hafs commented, "You seem to know all about living a good life." "Certainly," replied Hadhrat Umar, "I swear by the Being Who controls my life! Had I not disliked that it should reduce my good deeds on the Day of Qiyaamah, I would have joined you in your lives of luxury.” (1)

Hadrat Saalim bin Abdullaah narrates that Hadrat Umar used to say, "By Allaah! We have no concern for the luxuries of this world. We could easily give instructions for the hairs of a kid goat to be removed and then roasted. We could likewise give instructions for the best of wheat to be used for our bread and for raisins to be soaked overnight in a container (to produce a sweet drink) until it resembles the eyes of a partridge. We could then have all these things to eat and drink. However, we prefer to perpetuate our luxuries because we have heard Allaah say (to some people on the Day of Qiyaamah):

"You have used up your good things in your worldly life (and therefore have nothing for yourselves here)." {Surah Ahqaaf, verse 20} (2)

The Incident with Hadrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari

Hadrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari narrates, "I came to Hadrat Umar with a delegation from Basrah. Whenever we met him (and ate with him), we noticed that every day he was served pieces of the same bread. At times, we would have something like butter, olive oil or milk with it. There were times when we would have boiled strips of dried meat as well. Although we sometimes ate fresh meat, those occasions were very rare. One day Hadrat Umar said to us, 'By Allaah! I have noticed how little you eat and that you seem to dislike my food. By Allaah! Had I so wished, I could be eating the best of foods and leading the most opulent life. Take note that I am not unaware of delicacies like roasted breast and hump meats (of a camel), refined bread and spicy relishes. However, (I do not have them because) I have heard Allaah reprimanding a nation for something they had done when he says:

"You have used up your good things in your worldly life (and therefore have nothing for yourselves here)." {Surah Ahqaaf, verse 20}

Hadrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari suggested to his companions that they speak to Ameerul Mu'mineen about allotting to them some food from the Baytul Maal. When they addressed him, Hadrat Umar said, "O assembly of governors! Are you not satisfied with that with which I satisfy myself?" They submitted, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! Madinah is located in an area where living is hard. We do not think that your food is eaten when it is served (to others). However, we live in a fertile land and when the food of our leaders is served, it is always well eaten (we therefore have many people to feed)."

Hadrat Umar lowered his head for awhile and then raised it saying, "I shall allow you two goats and two bags (of flour) from the Baytul Maal every day. In the mornings, a goat and bag should be prepared. You should eat from it and feed those with you. You may also have a Halaal drink prepared, from which you drink first and then give to those on your right and then those after them. Thereafter, you should proceed for your necessities. Later in the evenings, the other goat and bag should be prepared for you and your companions to eat from. Remember that you should also provide for the people at their homes and ensure that their families are well fed. If you do not provide enough for the people, their character will never improve and their hungry ones will not be satiated. I swear by Allaah that despite this (allowance I have allotted), I still believe that ruination will come quickly to a town from which two goats and two bags are taken every day." (1)

The Incident with Hadhrat Utba bin Farqad

Hadhrat Utba bin Farqad reports, "I once brought to Hadhrat Umar a few baskets full of sweetmeats. 'What is this?' he asked. I replied, 'Because you spend the beginning of the day fulfilling the needs of the people, I wanted you to have some food to return to so that you may replenish your strength.' Hadhrat Umar opened one of the baskets and asked, 'O Utba! Tell me in the name of Allaah whether you have given every Muslim a basket like this.' 'O Ameerul Mu'mineen!' I replied, 'You would be unable to do that even if you spent all the money of the Qais tribe.' 'Then I have no need for this,' he said. Hadhrat Umar then called for a plate of Thareed made from coarse bread and tough meat. He relished the meal as we ate together. I stretched my hand towards a piece of food that I thought was from the hump of the camel, only to discover that it was muscle tendons. I kept chewing on a piece of meat that I could not get down my throat and when I noticed that Hadhrat Umar was not looking at me, I put it between the plate and the tablecloth. Thereafter, Hadhrat Umar called for a large container of Nabeedh that (was so old that) it had almost become vinegar. He told me to drink it but I could not get it down my throat. He then took it and drank. After drinking, he said; 'Listen O Utba! We slaughter a camel every day and give all the fat and the best meat to Muslims visitors from other places. As for the neck, it is reserved for the family of Umar so that they may have the toughest meat. They then drink this strong Nabeedh to break up the tough meat (aid in digestion) so that it causes us no harm." (3)

His Fear when Served Water Mixed with Honey

Hadhrat Hasan narrates that Hadhrat Umar was thirsty when he once visited someone. When he asked the man for something to drink, some honey (mixed in water) was brought to him. "What is this?" asked Hadhrat Umar. "Honey," came the reply. Hadhrat Umar then said, "This should not be amongst the things about which I will be questioned on the Day of Qiyaamah (1)

(1) Ibn Mubaarak and Ibn Sa'd, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.402).
(2) Raisins (or dates) left overnight in water so that the water becomes sweet. The fruit is then removed before the drink can become intoxicating.
(3) Hannaad, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.404).
Another narration states that when Hadhrat Umar ﷺ once asked for a drink, he was served some water mixed with honey. He said, "This is most excellent, but I have heard Allaah rebuke a nation for (following the dictates of) their desires. Allaah says:

(2) "You have used up your good things in your worldly life (and therefore have nothing for yourselves here)." {Surah Ahqaaf, verse 20}

His Clothes, his Spending and Other Facets of his Biography

Hadrath Urwa ﷺ says that Hadhrat Umar ﷺ arrived in Eela with a group of Muhaajireen and Ansaar. Because the journey was long and arduous, the seat of his upper garment had torn even though it was made from a thick material. He therefore gave it to a priest to have it washed and patched. The priest took the garment and had it patched. He also sewed another identical garment for Hadhrat Umar ﷺ. When he brought the garments back to Hadhrat Umar ﷺ that evening, Hadhrat Umar ﷺ asked, "What is this?" The priest replied, "This is your garment that I washed and patched. This, however, is a garment I wish to give you." Hadhrat Umar ﷺ looked at the new garment and felt it. He then wore his old garment and, returning the other one to the priest, he said, "This (old garment) better absorbs perspiration." (3)

Hadrath Qataadah ﷺ reports that when he was Khalifah, Hadhrat Umar ﷺ wore a patched woollen robe that had some patches of leather. He used to walk through the marketplace with a whip on his shoulder to reprimand (errant) people. Whenever he passed by any thread or date stones (lying around), he picked them up and threw them in people's yards so that they may find use for them. (4)

Hadrath Hasan reports that when Hadhrat Umar ﷺ was Khalifah, he was once delivering a lecture wearing a lower garment that had twelve patches. (5)

Hadrath Anas ﷺ says, "When Hadhrat Umar ﷺ was the Ameerul Mu'mineen, I once saw that his garment had three patches between the shoulders, one overlapping on to the other." (6)

Hadrath Abdullaah bin Umar ﷺ reports, "The food that Hadhrat Umar ﷺ took (from the Baytul Maal) was only what was absolutely necessary for his family and for himself. He also received a set of clothing for the summer.

There were times when his lower garment would tear but he would keep patching it up without taking another until the time came for him to receive another. Whenever the Baytul Maal received more funds, I noticed that (rather than having something better) his clothing appeared worse than those he wore the previous year. When (his daughter) Hafsah spoke to him about this, he replied, 'I receive my clothing from the money of the Muslims and this suffices for me.'

Hadhrat Muhammad bin Ibraheem reports that the daily allowance Hadhrat Umar received from the Baytul Maal for his and his family's needs was only two Dirhams.

The Abstinence of Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Affa'an

His Clothing and Food and Sleeping on a Straw Mat in the Masjid

Hadhrat Abdul Malik bin Shaddaad says that he once saw Hadhrat Uthmaan on the pulpit on a Friday wearing a thick lower garment sewn in Aden that was worth no more than four or five Dirhams. His upper garment was made of a reddish brown Kufi material.

When Hadhrat Hasan was asked about the people who slept in the Masjid in the afternoons, he replied, "During his period as Khalifah, I saw Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Affa'an sleep in the Masjid in the afternoon. When he then got up, the imprint of the straw mat was visible on his side. The people then used to say (out of astonishment), 'That is the Ameerul Mu'mineen! That is the Ameerul Mu'mineen!'"

Hadhrat Shurahbeel bin Muslim says that although Hadhrat Uthmaan used to feed people the sumptuous meals of a ruler, he would eat (simple) vinegar and olive oil at home.

The Abstinence of Hadhrat Ali bin Abi Taalib

His Food

A man from the Thaqeef tribe says, "Hadhrat Ali appointed me as governor of a place called Ukbara. It was a place in rural Iraq where no Muslims lived. Hadhrat Ali told me to meet him the following day at the time of Zuhr. When I went to him, I found no doorman to prevent me from entering and saw him sitting down with a jug and a glass of water. When he asked for a bag to be brought to him, I thought, 'Perhaps he trusts me so much that he is going to..." give me a precious jewel'. I had no idea what was in the bag. It was sealed and when he broke the seal, I was surprised to find that there was barley flour inside. He took some out of the bag, put it in a cup and then poured water into it. He drank the mixture and also gave me drink. Unable to contain myself, I said, 'O Ameerul Mu'mineen! You are having this in Iraq, when Iraq has foods much better than this?' He replied, 'By Allaah! I do not have these bags sealed because of stinginess. The reason (for sealing them) is that I buy exactly how much I need (from Madinah) and fear that it should not deplete (by spilling) because I would then have to cook something else (from Iraq). This is my way of looking after it because I do like anything but pure foods to enter my belly.'"

Hadhrat A'mash reports that although Hadhrat Ali ™ used to feed people well at lunches and dinners, he only ate food brought for him from Madinah.¹

His statement when he was Served some Faalooda

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Shareek reports form his grandfather that some Faalooda² was once served to Hadhrat Ali ™. Addressing the Faalooda, Hadhrat Ali ™ said, "You have an excellent fragrance, a wonderful colour and delicious taste. However, I do not wish to get myself accustomed to something that I am not used to having."³

His clothing

Hadrat Zaid bin Wahab narrates that Hadhrat Ali ™ once came before them wearing a shawl and lower garment tied (to his waist) with a strip of cloth. When someone commented on this, Hadhrat Ali ™ said, "I am wearing this because it keeps pride away, it is convenient for performing salaah and so that it may become a common practice amongst the Mu'mineen." ⁴

It is reported that Hadhrat Ali ™ wore a lower garment made of coarse cloth. He once said, "I bought this garment for five Dirhams and will sell it to anyone who gives me a profit of one Dirham." ⁵

He Sells his Sword to Buy a Garment

Hadrat Mujammi bin Sam'aan Taymi narrates that Hadhrat Ali ™ once took his sword to the marketplace and announced, "Who will buy this sword from me? I would never have sold it if I had four Dirhams to buy myself a lower garment." ⁶

Hadhrat Saalih bin Abi Aswad reports from someone else that he once saw Hadhrat Ali ™ riding a donkey with both his legs hanging on one side as he said, "It is I who holds the world in contempt." ⁷

His Statement about How Much of Public Funds are Permissible for the Khalifah

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Razeen reports that they once went to meet Hadhrat Ali on the occasion of Eidul Adha. Hadhrat Ali served them a dish prepared with cubes of meat and bran. We remarked, "May Allaah always keep you well! It would have been better if you had fed us duck because Allaah has given plenty." Hadhrat Ali replied, "O Ibn Razeen! I heard Rasulullaah say, 'It is not permissible for a Khalifah to take anything from Allaah's money (public funds) besides two dishes. One for himself and his family and the other to place before people.'" (1)

The Abstinence of Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah

The Narration of Hadhrat Urwa

Hadhrat Urwa reports that when Hadhrat Umar once went to see Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah, he found him lying down on a saddle blanket, using the animal's satchel as a pillow. Hadhrat Umar said, "Why have you not adopted that (luxuries) which your companions have adopted?" Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah replied, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! This is sufficient to take me to the grave." In his narration, Hadhrat Ma'mar narrates that when Hadhrat Umar arrived in Shaam, the common people as well as the leaders came to meet him. "Where is my brother?" Hadhrat Umar asked. "Who is he?" the people enquired. "Abu Ubaydah," Hadhrat Umar replied. The people said, "Here he comes." When Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah came, Hadhrat Umar descended from his animal and embraced him. Hadhrat Umar then went to Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah's house and saw nothing there but his sword, his shield and his conveyance. The rest of the narration is similar to the one above. (2)

The Abstinence of Hadhrat Mus'ab Bin Umayr

The Narration of Hadhrat Ali and the Statement of Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Ali says, "One winter morning I left home extremely hungry with the cold almost killing me. There was a piece of undyed leather at home which was still smelly. I cut it to put my head through and tied it to my chest to ward off the cold. By Allaah, there was nothing at home that I could eat and had there been any food in Rasulullaah's house, some of it would have definitely reached me. As I was walking in one end of Madinah, I peeped through a hole in the wall of an orchard where I saw a Jew standing in his orchard. He said, 'What is the problem, O Bedouin? Are you prepared to earn a date for every bucket of water you draw from the well?' 'Certainly,' I replied, 'open the gate.' I entered the orchard after he opened the gate and started drawing water. He gave me a date for every bucket I drew until my hand was full of dates. I then said, 'That is enough for now.' I ate the dates and then put my mouth to a stream of water to drink.

Thereafter, I arrived before Rasulullaah who was sitting in the Masjid with a group of Sahabah. It was then that Mus'ab bin Umayr appeared wearing a patched shawl. Rasulullaah mentioned the opulence that Mus'ab was used to (before becoming a Muslim) and seeing his condition (at the time), Rasulullaah's eyes filled with tears and he started weeping. Rasulullaah then said, 'What will be your condition when that time comes when one of you would be wearing an outfit in the mornings and then another in the evenings, and your homes will be adorned like the covering of the Kabah?' We replied, 'In that time, we shall be in a better position because we will have others to do the hard work for us while we free ourselves for Ibaadah.' 'No,' said Rasulullaah, 'You are better off today than you would be during those days.'

The Hardships Hadhrat Mus'ab Bin Umayr Endured after Becoming a Muslim

Hadhrat Umar narrates that Rasulullaah once saw Hadhrat Mus'ab Bin Umayr approach wrapped in a sheepskin. Rasulullaah remarked, "Look at that man whose heart Allaah has illuminated. I saw him at a time when in the care of his parents they would give him the best of foods and drinks. I also saw him wearing an outfit that was bought for two hundred Dirhams. It was then the love for Allaah and the love for Allaah's Rasool that called him to the situation that you now see."

Hadhrat Zubayr reports that Rasulullaah was once sitting with a group of Sahabah in Quba when Hadhrat Mus'ab Bin Umayr arrived wearing a shawl that could hardly cover his body. The Sahabah lowered their heads and when he reached them and greeted with Salaam, they replied to his greeting. Rasulullaah had only good words to say about him and praised him. Thereafter, Rasulullaah said, "I had seen this man with his parents in Makkah when they showered their love and favours on him. There was not a youngster from all of the Quraysh as fortunate as he was. He then left all of that (opulence) in search of Allaah's pleasure and to assist the Deen of Allaah and Allāh's Rasool. Behold! In a short period of time, Allāh shall grant you conquests over Persia and Rome. (You will then have so much wealth that) There will be those amongst you who will wear an outfit in the mornings and another in the evenings and a platter of food will be served to you in the mornings and again in the evenings." The Sahabah asked, "O Rasulullāh! Are we in a better position today or in those days?" Rasulullāh replied, "You are certainly better off today as you will be during those days. Take note! If you knew about this world what I know, you would never be at ease with it." (1)

Another narration from Ḥadhrat Khābāb states that all that Ḥadhrat Mus'āb Bin Umayr left behind (after his death) was a sheet (so small) that (when it was used as a burial shroud, it) would leave his feet exposed, when his head was covered and his head exposed when his feet were covered. Rasulullāh then instructed the Sahabah to cover his head with the sheet and his feet with Idhkhir grass. (2)

The Abstinence of Ḥadhrat Uthmaan bin Madh'oōn

His Clothing

Ḥadhrat Ibn Shihaab narrates that Ḥadhrat Uthmaan bin Madh'oōn once entered the Masjid wearing a striped shawl that he patched with a piece of leather because it tore. Seeing his pitiable condition Rasulullāh started weeping and the Sahabah also started weeping upon the crying of Rasulullāh. Rasulullāh then remarked, "What will be your condition at the time when one of you would wear an outfit in the morning and another in the evening. As one platter of food would be placed before him, another will be taken away and you will be decorating your homes as the Kabah is adorned." The Sahabah said, "We wish that such a time had already come so that we could enjoy ease and comfort." Rasulullāh said, "That time will certainly be coming. However, you are in a better position today that the people of those times." (3)

His Demise

Ḥadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas reports that after Ḥadhrat Uthmaan bin Madh'oōn had passed away, Rasulullāh came to him and bent over him as if advising him. Rasulullāh then raised his head and signs of crying could be noticed from his eyes. Rasulullāh then bent over (the corpse) again and when he raised his head, he was weeping. Thereafter, Rasulullāh bent over him for the third time and when he raised his head this time, he was sobbing profusely. The Sahabah then understood that Ḥadhrat Uthmaan bin Madh'oōn had certainly passed away and they all started to weep.

Another narration states that Rasulullaah said, "May Allaah shower His mercy on you, O Uthmaan! Neither have you taken from this world nor has it taken from you." (2)

The Abstinence of Hadhrat Salmaan Faarsi

His Statement when he was Forced to Eat More

Hadrmat Aliyya bin Aamir says that he once saw Hadhrat Salmaan Faarsi being forced to eat more. He said, "That is enough for me. That is enough for me because I heard Rasulullaah say, 'Those who are most full in this world shall be most hungry in the Aakhirah. O Salmaan! This world is but a prison for the Mu'min and paradise for the Kaafir." (3)

His Abstinence as Governor

Hadrmat Hasan reports that the allowance Hadhrat Salmaan Faarsi received was five thousand Dirhams and he was governor of approximately thirty thousand Muslims. However, he still delivered lectures to the people wrapping a part of his robe over himself while spreading the other part on the ground to sit upon. He always spent the allowance (on others) whenever he received it and would subsist on the income he received from the baskets he wove from the fibres of palm leaves. (4)

The Incident between him and Hadhrat Hudhayfah Concerning Building a Room

Hadrmat A'mash reports that he heard the incident from people that Hadhrat Hudhayfah once said to Hadhrat Salmaan Faarsi, "O Abu Abdullaah! Should I not build a room for you?" Hadhrat Salmaan did not like this. Hadhrat Hudhayfah then added, "Hang on until I explain. I intend building you a room that when you lie down, your head touches one end and your feet the other. Furthermore, when you stand up, your head hits the roof." Hadhrat Salmaan commented, "It appears as if you live in my heart (you know exactly what I want)." (5)

Hadhrat Maalik bin Anas narrates that Hadhrat Salmaan Faarsi had no room (from which to administer public affairs). He would sit in the shade (of a tree) and move wherever the shadow moved. Someone one day offered, "Should I not build a room for you which you may have shade from the heat and have shelter from the cold?" When Hadhrat Salmaan agreed and the man was leaving, Hadhrat Salmaan called to him saying, "How will you build this room?" The man replied, "I shall build it so that your head touches the roof when you stand and your feet touch the wall when you lie down." "Exactly," replied Hadhrat Salmaan. (1)

The Abstinence of Hadhrat Abu Dharr Ghifaari

While Living in Rabdha

Hadhrat Abu Asmaa reports that he once visited Hadhrat Abu Dharr who was then staying in Rabdha. With Hadhrat Abu Dharr at the time was an unattractive black woman with disheveled hair, who wore no perfume at all. Hadhrat Abu Dharr said, "Will you not look at this little woman?! She is telling me to go to (live in) Iraq. However, I know well that when I go there, the people will bring to me all their worldly possessions whereas my good friend Rasulullaah had informed me that before the bridge of Siraat is an extremely slippery path. We would be able to pass it more easily when our loads are light and compact than when we are burdened with heavy loads." (2) Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Khiraash reports that he once saw Hadhrat Abu Dharr sitting in the shade in Rabdha. He was sitting on a piece of coarse sack cloth with his wife who was a black woman. (In pity) Someone said to him, "You have no surviving children." Hadhrat Abu Dharr replied, "All praises are for Allaah Who has taken them from this temporary world and kept them as a treasure for us in the everlasting world." When someone then suggested that he get himself another wife, he said, "I prefer marrying a wife who is a cause for humility developing in me rather than one who is a cause of pride developing." "Why do you rather not use a mat that is softer than this one?" Hadhrat Abu Dharr responded by praying, "O Allaah! Forgive me. Take from me as many bounties as You please." (3)

His Food

Hadhrat Ibraheem Taymi reports from his father that someone once suggested to Hadhrat Abu Dharr that he should become a land owner like some other person was doing. Hadhrat Abu Dharr replied, "Why should I become a

Another narration states that Hadhrat Abu Dharr \(\text{العـضـر} \) said, "During the time of Rasulullah \(\text{صـلـي اللَّه عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّم} \), I subsisted on a Saa and I shall never increase this until I meet Allaah." \(^2\)

The Abstinence of Hadhrat Abu Dardaa \(\text{أبـعـد عـبـر} \)

He Forsakes Trade to Engage in Ibaadah

Hadhrat Abu Dardaa \(\text{أبـعـد عـبـر} \) says, "I had been a trader before Rasulullah \(\text{صـلـي اللَّه عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّم} \) announced his Nabuwaat. After Rasulullah \(\text{صـلـي اللَّه عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّم} \) announced that he was a Rasul, I tried combining my trade with Ibaadah but was unable to do so. I therefore gave up trade and devoted my attention to Ibaadah." \(^3\)

The Reason for his Abstinence

A narration similar to the one above adds that Hadhrat Abu Dardaa \(\text{أبـعـد عـبـر} \) said, "I swear by the Being Who controls the life of Abu Dardaa! Even today I would not like to have a shop at the door of the Masjid that without missing a single salaah with Jamaa'ah, gives me a profit of forty Dinaars all of which I spend in the path of Allaah." "Why would you not like that, O Abu Dardaa?" someone asked. Hadhrat Abu Dardaa \(\text{أبـعـد عـبـر} \) replied, "Because of the intensity of reckoning." \(^4\)

Another narration states that Hadhrat Abu Dardaa \(\text{أبـعـد عـبـر} \) said, "It gives me no pleasure to stand on the step of the Masjid, buying and selling to earn a profit of three hundred Dinaars without missing a single salaah in the Masjid. I am not saying that Allaah has made trade impermissible and has not made interest Haraam, but I wish to be amongst those people whom neither trade nor commerce distracts from the Dhikr of Allaah\(^5\).\(^6\)

Hadrat Khaalid bin Hudayr Aslami narrates, "I once met Hadhrat Abu Dardaa \(\text{أبـعـد عـبـر} \) lying on a bedding made of leather or wool. He was covered with a woollen blanket and his shoes were even woollen. He happened to be ill that day and was perspiring profusely. I said, 'If you wished, you could cover your bedding with the thin cloth and yourself with the Saffron coloured shawl that the Ameerul Mu'mineen had sent to you.' He replied, 'We have a permanent abode (the Aakhirah) towards which we are heading and for which we carry out our deeds (it is therefore best to give our wealth to the poor so that it may benefit us in the Aakhirah).'

Another narration from Hadhrat Hasaan bin Atiyya states that Hadhrat Abu Dardaa \(\text{أبـعـد عـبـر} \) had a few friends whom he would entertain as his guests and who entertained him. (Because of a shortage of bedding) Some of them (when they spent the night at his home) slept on saddle blankets while others had to sleep on the garments they were wearing. When Hadhrat Abu Dardaa went to them early the next morning, he sensed their feelings (disappointment with his inadequate arrangements). He then said to them, "We have another abode (the Aakhirah) for which we carry out our deeds (and for which we are making preparations)." (1)

Hadhrat Muhammad bin Ka'b reports that when some people stayed as guests with Hadhrat Abu Dardaa on a very cold night, he sent hot food for them but did not send any blankets. One of them remarked, "He has sent food for us but it gives us no joy with this cold (for we have nothing to keep us warm). I shall have to go to tell him about this." Although the others tried to dissuade him, he insisted on going. When he arrived at Hadhrat Abu Dardaa's door, he saw Hadhrat Abu Dardaa sitting down with his wife whose clothing was not even worth mentioning (because they were so inadequate for the cold). As he was returning, the man said, "I suppose that you will also be spending the night just as we will (without anything to cover ourselves)." Hadhrat Abu Dardaa replied, "We have an abode that we will be going to. We have therefore sent our bedding and our blankets there (by giving them away as Sadaqah). If I had anything with me, I would have definitely sent it for you. We have a steep valley ahead of us that is extremely difficult to climb. The one who travels light there shall be better off than the one who is heavily laden. Do you understand what I am telling you?" "I certainly do," the man replied. (2)

The Incident between him and Hadhrat Umar

The narration has already passed in the chapter entitled "Condemning Rulers who Live Lives Above the Standards of the Common People" (3) that when Hadhrat Umar pushed open the door (of Hadhrat Abu Dardaa's home), he found that it had no lock. The two men entered the dark room and Hadhrat Umar had to feel his way around until he found Hadhrat Abu Dardaa. When Hadhrat Umar felt the pillow of Hadhrat Abu Dardaa, he found that it was made from the blanket used on animals. When he felt the ground, there was only sand and when he felt the clothing of Hadhrat Abu Dardaa, he discovered that it was a flimsy shawl.

Hadhrat Abu Dardaa asked, "Who is this? Is it the Ameerul Mu'mineen?" When Hadhrat Umar confirmed that he was the Ameerul Mu'mineen, Hadhrat Abu Dardaa said, "You are late. We had been waiting for you all year." Hadhrat Umar said, "May Allaah have mercy on you. Have I not granted you sufficient wealth? Have I not given you plenty?" Hadhrat Abu Dardaa said, "O Umar! "Oh yes (I have heard the Hadith)" confirmed Hadhrat Umar . Hadhrat Abu Dardaa then asked, "Now what have we done after Rasulullaah, O Umar?" The two Sahabah then continued reminding each other (of the words of Rasulullaah) with tears in their eyes until morning arrived.

The Abstinence of Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Afraa

The Incident with Hadhrat Umar Concerning his Attire

Hadhrat Aflah the freed slave of Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob narrates that Hadhrat Umar used to have a set of exclusive clothing made for the veterans of Badr. When he sent such a set to Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Afraa, Hadhrat Mu'aadh told Hadhrat Aflah to sell it. When Hadhrat Aflah sold it for one thousand five hundred Dirhams, Hadhrat Mu'aadh instructed him to purchase some slaves with the money. Hadhrat Aflah managed to buy five slaves. Hadhrat Mu'aadh then said, "By Allaah! Any man who prefers wearing two sheets of cloth to setting five slaves free is certainly most foolish." He then set all the slaves free.

When Hadhrat Umar heard that Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Afraa did not wear the clothing he sent to him, he had a crude set of clothing made for him that cost a hundred Dirhams. When the messenger brought the clothing to him, Hadhrat Mu'aadh said, "I do not think that the Ameerul Mu'mineen had sent you to give that to me." When the messenger swore that he had been sent to him, Hadhrat Mu'aadh took the outfit and went to Hadhrat Umar. He then asked, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! Have you sent this outfit for me?" Hadhrat Umar replied, "Yes. We had sent to you an outfit that we had made for you and your brethren but subsequently heard that you did not wear it (and therefore sent you this simple clothing)." Hadhrat Mu'aadh said, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! Even though I do not wear such clothing, I would still like to receive the best of that which you receive." Hadhrat Umar then gave him the same type of (good) clothing (as he had been giving before). (1)

The Abstinence of Hadhrat Jalaaj Ghitfaani

His Abstinence from Eating to his Fill after Accepting Islaam

Hadhrat Jalaaj says, "Since the time I accepted Islaam at the hands of Rasulullaah, I have never filled my belly. I eat only what is sufficient to

The Abstinence of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar

His Life

Hadhrat Hamza bin Abdullaah bin Umar ☪ says that whenever Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ☪ had plenty of food, he would never eat to his fill after he had found someone to share it with him. Hadhrat Ibn Mutee once came to visit him. Seeing that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ☪'s body had become very frail, he said to (Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ☪'s wife) Hadhrat Safiyya ☪, "Do you not look after him? Why do you not prepare good food for him so that his body could return to him?" She replied, "That is exactly what we do. However, he leaves out no family person and no other person who comes to him without inviting them to eat with him (they then eat and he does not). You speak to him about it."

Hadhrat Ibn Mutee then said (to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ☪), "O Abu Abdur Rahmaan! Why do not eat so that your body could return to you?" Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ☪ replied, "For the past eighty years I have never once eaten to my fill (or he said, "I have only once eaten to my fill"). Now you want me to fill my belly when all that remains of my life is like the thirst of a donkey (only a few moments)?" (2)

Hadhrat Umar bin Hamza bin Abdullaah bin Umar ☪ reports that he was once sitting with his father when a man passed by. He (Hadhrat Hamza) asked, "Tell me what you were saying to (my father) Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ☪ that day when I saw you speaking to him at Jurf." The man replied, "I said, 'O Abu Abdur Rahmaan! Your body has become frail, your age has advanced and those attending your gatherings neither acknowledge your rights nor your position (because of which they tire you by keeping you engaged for extended periods of time). Why do you not instruct your wife to prepare some especially good food for you when you return home. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ☪ angrily replied, "Shame on you! By Allaah! I have never eaten to my fill for not only eleven years, twelve years, thirteen years or fourteen years (but for eighty years). I have not done so even once. Why should I do so now when all that remains of my life is like the thirst of a donkey (only a few moments)?" (3)

"Jawaarish," was the reply. "What is Jawaarish?" enquired Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar. He Ubaydullaah explained, "It aids the digestion of food." Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar remarked, "What will I do with it when I have never filled my belly for the past forty years?" (1)

Hadhrat Muhammad bin Seereen narrates that someone once said to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar, "Should prepare some Jawaarish for you?" "What is this Jawaarish?" enquired Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar. The man replied, "It is a preparation that aids digestion when you have eaten too much and feel bloated." Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar said, "I have never eaten to my fill for the past four months. This is not because I cannot find any food to eat. However, I have lived with people (Rasulullaah and the Sahabah) who would sometimes eat and stay hungry at other times." (2)

His Abstinence After the Demise of Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar once said, "Since the time Rasulullaah was taken away, I have never laid a brick upon a brick (never built anything) and never planted a single date palm." (3)

The Narration of Hadhrat Jaabir and Suddi

Hadhrat Jaabir says, "Besides Abdullaah bin Umar, there was none amongst us who received worldly wealth without the world turning towards him and he being inclined towards it." (4)

Hadhrat Suddi says, "I have seen a large group of Sahabah who felt that besides Abdullaah bin Umar, none of them remained in the same condition in which Rasulullaah left them." (5)

The Abstinence of Hadhrat Hudayfah bin Yamaan

Hadhrat Saa'idah bin Sa'd bin Hudayfah narrates that Hadhrat Hudayfah used to say, "No day is more comforting and more pleasing to me than the day I return to my family to find that they have no food and are saying, 'We have been unable to get anything to eat.' This is because I have heard Rasulullaah say, 'More than the family of a sick person prevents him from (harmful) food, Allaah prevents a Mu'min from the wealth of this world. This is because Allaah cares more to safeguard the Mu'min from hardship than a father cares to safeguard his own son." (6)

Rebuking and Advising Caution to those who Do Not Abstain from Worldly Luxuries and Who Indulge themselves

Rebuking Hadhrat Aa'isha for eating Twice in a Day

Hadhrat Aa'isha says, "Rasulullaah once saw that I had eaten (full meals) twice during a single day and said, 'O Aa'isha! Are you not interested in any activity besides your stomach? Eating twice during one day is extravagance and Allaah does not like the extravagant ones." (1)

The Parting Advice Rasulullaah gave to Hadhrat Aa'isha

Hadhrat Aa'isha says, "I was sitting and weeping by the side of Rasulullaah (at his deathbed) when he said, 'What makes you weep? If you wish to meet with me (in the Aakhirah), you should suffice in this world with the mere provisions of a traveller and should never mix with the affluent." (2)

Another narration states that Rasulullaah added, "Never replace your clothing until you have patched them (and can wear them no more)." (3) A narration from Hadhrat Urwa states that Hadhrat Aa'isha never got new clothing until she had patched her (old) clothing (to the extent) that some patches overlapped others. Hadhrat Mu'aawiya once sent her eighty thousand Dirhams but by the evening there was not a single Dirham left with her (she spent it all on the poor). Her servant asked, "Why did you not use a Dirham from it to buy us some meat?" Hadhrat Aa'isha said, "I would have done so had you reminded me about it." (4)

The Advice Rasulullaah gave to Hadhrat Abu Juhayfah

Hadhrat Abu Juhayfah says that he once ate Thareed prepared with fatty meat because of which he was belching as he went to Rasulullaah. Rasulullaah said, "Please do not belch in front of us, O Abu Juhayfah. Remember that those who fill themselves most in this world shall suffer the most hunger on the Day of Qiyaamah." Thereafter, Hadhrat Abu Juhayfah never ate to his fill until the day he left this world. Whenever he ate during the mornings, he would not eat in the evenings and whenever he ate in the evenings, he would not eat in the mornings. (5)

The Incident Between Rasulullaah ﷺ and a man with a Large Stomach

Hadrat Ja’da narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ once saw a man with a large stomach. Sticking his finger into the man’s stomach, Rasulullaah ﷺ said, "It would have been best for you if this (food) was in another (poor person’s) stomach."

Another narration states that a person once saw a dream about Rasulullaah ﷺ. Rasulullaah ﷺ sent for him and he came to relate the dream to Rasulullaah ﷺ. Because he was a man with a large belly, Rasulullaah ﷺ stuck his finger in the man’s belly saying, "It would have been best for you if this (food) was in another place (in the belly of a poor man)." Hadrat Umar ﷺ Rebukes Hadrat Jaabir ﷺ for Buying Meat for his Family

Hadrat Yahya bin Sa’eed reports that Hadrat Umar ﷺ once saw Hadrat Jaabir bin Abdullaah ﷺ with a man who was carrying some meat for him. Hadrat Umar ﷺ said, "Does none of you ever desire to keep himself hungry for the sake of his neighbour or cousin? Where has the verse of the Qur’aan left you in which Allaah says:

أَذْهَبْنَا طَيْبًاٰكُمْ فِي حَيَايْنَاكُمْ الدُّنْيَا (سُورَةَ احْفَاظُ آيَتَ) (You have used up your good things in your worldly life (and therefore have nothing for yourselves here)). (Surah Ahqaaf, verse 20) (2)

In another narration, Hadrat Jaabir ﷺ reports, "Umar bin Khattaab ﷺ once met me after I had purchased some meat for a Dirham. 'What is this, O Jaabir?" I replied, 'Because my family had a strong craving for meat, I bought them this meat for a Dirham.' Umar ﷺ then started repeating (my words) 'My family had a strong craving so much that I wished the Dirham had fallen away from me and that I had never met Umar ﷺ." (3) Hadrat Abdullaah bin Umar ﷺ narrates that Hadrat Umar ﷺ once saw a Dirham in the hand of Hadrat Jaabir ﷺ. "What is that Dirham for?" asked Hadrat Umar ﷺ. Hadrat Jaabir ﷺ replied, "I intend to use it to purchase some meat for my family since they were craving for some." Hadrat Umar ﷺ remarked, "Will you always buy something merely because you crave for it? Where has the verse of the Qur’aan left you in which Allaah says:

أَذْهَبْنَا طَيْبًاٰكُمْ فِي حَيَايْنَاكُمْ الدُّنْيَا (سُورَةَ احْفَاظُ آيَتَ) (You have used up your good things in your worldly life (and therefore have nothing for yourselves here)). (Surah Ahqaaf, verse 20)

Hadhrat Umar  ﷺ Rebuked his Son Abdullaah  when he sees Meat with him

Hadhrat Hasan  ❞ reports that Hadhrat Umar  ﷺ once went to his son Abdullaah  ﷺ's house at a time when he was eating some meat. "Why are you eating this meat?" Hadhrat Abdullaah  ﷺ replied, "I was craving for some." Hadhrat Umar  ﷺ rebuked him saying, "Will you always buy something merely because you crave for it? It is enough to classify a person as extravagant for him to eat whatever he craves for." (2)

The Advice Hadhrat Umar  ﷺ gave to Hadhrat Yazeed bin Abu Sufyaan  ﷺ

Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Jubayr reports that the news reached Hadhrat Umar  ﷺ that Hadhrat Yazeed bin Abu Sufyaan  ﷺ ate various types of meats. Hadhrat Umar  ﷺ then said to his slave Yarfa, "Let me know when his evening meal is served to him." When the meal was served to Hadhrat Yazeed  ﷺ, Yarfa duly informed Hadhrat Umar  ﷺ. Hadhrat Umar  ﷺ went to Hadhrat Yazeed  ﷺ, greeted with Salaam and sought permission to enter. He entered when permission was granted and Hadhrat Yazeed  ﷺ offered Hadhrat Umar  ﷺ his dinner. When Thareed and meat were served, Hadhrat Umar  ﷺ joined Hadhrat Yazeed  ﷺ in the meal. When roasted meat was served, Hadhrat Yazeed  ﷺ took some while Hadhrat Umar  ﷺ did not. Hadhrat Umar  ﷺ then exclaimed, "Allaah! Are you eating a meal after a meal, O Yazeed bin Abu Sufyaan? I swear by the Being Who controls the life of Umar! If you oppose the lifestyle of Rasulullah  ﷺ and the Sahabah  ﷺ, you will certainly be led off their path (and not reach the highest echelons of Jannah)." (3)

Hadhrat Umar  ﷺ Criticises the world Before the Sahabah  ﷺ

Hadhrat Hasan reports that Hadhrat Umar  ﷺ once passed by a rubbish dump and stopped there. When his companions felt disgusted (at the sight and stench), Hadhrat Umar  ﷺ said, "This is your world that you aspire for (or he said, "This is your world that you rely upon")."(4)

"O little builder, the son of the little builder's mother! Are the buildings of the Persians and Romans not sufficient for you that you had to go and build so many new buildings? O companions of Muhammad! You are an example to others (others will emulate your examples)." (1)

Another narration from Hadhrat Raashid bin Sa'd states that when the news reached Hadhrat Umar that Hadhrat Abu Dardaa had built porches (at house entrances) in Hims, he wrote to him saying:
"O little builder! Were the worldly decorations built by the Romans and Persians not sufficient for you? (How can you be doing this) When Allaah has commanded that these things be destroyed (that you should be simple)?" (2)

Yet another narration states that Hadhrat Umar added:
"Were the worldly decorations and renovations built by the Romans and Persians not sufficient for you? (How can you be doing this) When Allaah has announced that these things should be destroyed? As soon as this letter reaches you, you should move from Hims to Damascus."

Hadhrat Sufyaan says that this instruction was a form of punishment. (3)

The Letter Hadhrat Umar Wrote to Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas to Demolish the Double Storey Building of Hadhrat Khaarijah bin Hudhaafah

Hadhrat Yazeed bin Abu Habeeb reports that Hadhrat Khaarija bin Hudhaafah was the first person to build a double storey building in Egypt. When he received news of this, Hadhrat Umar wrote the following letter to Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas (the governor of Egypt):

"Peace be on you.
The news has reached me that Khaarijah bin Hudhaafah has built a double storey building. (By doing this) Khaarijah will be spying on his neighbours. You should therefore demolish the house as soon as this letter reaches you, Inshaa Allaah. Peace be on you." (4)

Hadrath Ummu Talq and the Instruction of Hadhrat Umar

Hadrath Abdullaah Roomi narrates that he once entered the house of Hadrath Ummu Talq. Noticing that the roof of her house was extremely low, he asked, "O Ummu Talq! Why is your roof so low?" "Dear son," she replied, "Umar Hadhrat Saalim the son of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar says, "I got married during the lifetime of my father. Amongst the people that my father invited was Abu Ayyoob. The walls of my room were covered with green curtains (as decorations). When Abu Ayyoob entered, he lowered his head (to scrutinise the wall) and discovered that they were indeed covered. He said, 'O Abdullaah! You people cover your walls?' my father was embarrassed and said, 'Our women have overpowered us, O Abu Ayyoob.' Abu Ayyoob remarked, 'I feared that others may be overpowered by their women, but I never had the fear of you being overpowered by them. I shall neither enter your house nor eat your food.'"

The Parting Advice Hadhrat Abu Bakr ® gave to Hadhrat Salmaan ™

Hadhra Salmaan ™ reports that he once went to Hadhrat Abu Bakr ® and asked for some advice. Hadhrat Abu Bakr ® said, "Fear Allaah, O Salmaan! You should know that there will be many conquests. Your share from it should be only that (food) which you need for your stomach and that (clothing) which you need to cover yourself. You should also know that whoever performs his five salaaahs is in the protection of Allaah in the mornings and in the evenings. You should also never kill anyone in Allaah's protection because you will then be breaching the security of Allaah because of which Allaah will throw you headlong into Jannah." (1)

Another narration from Hadhrat Hasan states that Hadhrat Salmaan Faarsi ™ visited Hadhrat Abu Bakr ® on his deathbed and asked, "Do give me some advice, O Khalifah of Rasulullaah ®." The Parting Words Hadhrat Abu Bakr ® spoke to Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf ™

Hadhra Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf ™ once visited Hadhrat Abu Bakr ® on his deathbed and greeted him with Salaam. Hadhrat Abu Bakr ® said, "Although it has not yet arrived, I can see worldly wealth approaching. It will however arrive and you people will then have curtains of silk and cushions of velvet. You will then (be so used to luxury that you will) experience difficulty using the woollen beddings of Azerbaijan, feeling as if you are lying on the thorns of the Su'daan tree. By Allaah! For one of you to be brought forward and executed is better for him than swimming in the intoxication of this world." (3)

Hadhra Amr bin Al Aas ™ Rebukes his Companions about their Lack of Abstinence and his Narration Concerning the Abstinence of Rasulullaah ®

Hadhra Ali bin Rabaah narrates that he once heard Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas ™ say, "You people spend the morning and the evenings hankering after that which Rasulullaah ® abstained from. You have started hankering after the world when Rasulullaah ® stayed away from it. By Allaah! Not a night passed Rasulullaah ® in his entire life without his debts exceeding his dues." Some of the Sahabah ™ then said, "We did see Rasulullaah ® taking loans." (4)

Hadhrat Maymoom reports that when one of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar's sons asked him for new lower garment, claiming that his was torn, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar said, "Cut your garment (off from where it is torn) and then wear the rest." When (he noticed that) the youngster did not like the response, he said, "Shame on you! Do not be one of those people who spend everything that Allaah provides for them on their bellies (on food) and backs (on clothing)." (3)

When Hadhrat Abu Dharr repeated his remark, Hadhrat Abu Dardaa said, "Dear brother! It appears as if you are upset with me for this." Hadhrat Abu Dharr replied, "Had I passed you when you were tending to the faeces of your family, it would have been more pleasing to me than what I am now seeing." (4)

What Hadhrat Abu Bakr said to his Daughter Hadhrat Aa'isha when he saw her Wearing New Clothes

Hadhrat Aa'isha says, "I once wore a new upper garment of mine and was very taken aback by it as I looked at it. Hadhrat Abu Bakr said to me, 'What are you looking at? Allaah is not looking at you (with affection). Why not?' I asked. He replied, 'Don't you know that when self-adoration enters a servant because of worldly beauty, Allaah detests the person until the beauty is lost (and the self-adoration with it).' I then took off the garment and gave it away as Sadaqah. Hadhrat Abu Bakr then said, 'That shall perhaps atone for you.'" (5)

After he has passed away, the people informed Hadhrat Abu Bakr (رضي الله عنه) that they noticed his son looking towards the pillow. When the people lifted the corpse off the pillow, they noticed five or six Dinaars beneath it. Hadhrat Abu Bakr (رضي الله عنه) hit one hand on to the other saying, “Innaa Lillaahi wa Innaa Ilayhi Raaji’oon! I do not think that your skin will be able to withstand (the punishment for not spending in Sadaqah) those Dinaars.” (1)

Chapter Nine

The Chapter About How the Sahabah Relinquished their Carnal Desires

This chapter highlights how the Sahabah relinquished the instinctive feelings they had for their parents, their children, their brothers, their spouses, their families, their wealth, their businesses and their homes so that they could cling to the love of Allaah, the love of Rasulullaah and the love of every Muslim attached to Allaah and Rasulullaah. The chapter also highlights how honoured every person who had been attached to Rasulullaah in any way.

Severing Ties with the Period of Ignorance to Strengthen Ties with Islaam

Hadrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah Kills his Father During the Battle of Badr

Hadrat ibn Showdhab reports that the father of Hadrat Abu Ubaydah kept confronting him during the Battle of Badr as Hadrat Abu Ubaydah continued avoiding him. However, when his father's confrontations became too persistent, Hadrat Abu Ubaydah killed him. It was then that Allaah revealed the following verse:

كما يؤمنون بالله والرسولين الآخر يقرأون من حاد الله ورسوله وكنوا آباه

You will not find people who believe in Allaah and the Last Day befriending those who oppose Allaah and His Rasool even though they (those who oppose Allaah and Rasulullaah) are their fathers, their sons, their brothers or their families. These (Mu'mineen who...
disassociate from their relatives who oppose Allaah and Rasulullaah (ﷺ) are the people in whose hearts Allaah has written (entrenched) Imaan and whom Allaah assists with His mercy. Allaah shall enter them into gardens beneath which rivers flow where they shall live forever. Allaah is pleased with them and they are pleased with Him. They are the group of Allaah. Behold! The group of Allaah shall be the only successful ones. {Surah Mujadalah, verse 22}(1)

The Incident of Two Sahabah (ﷺ) with their fathers

Hadrat Maalik bin Umayr (ﷺ) who had seen the Period of Ignorance reports that a man came to Rasulullaah (ﷺ) and said, "Amongst the enemy I encountered my father. When he uttered ugly words of blasphemy against you, I was unable to control myself and killed him with a thrust of my spear." Rasulullaah (ﷺ) remained silent. Thereafter, another man arrived and said, "When I confronted my father in battle, I left him, hoping that someone else should rather kill him." This time Rasulullaah (ﷺ) again remained silent. (2)

The Son of Abdullaah bin Ubay Seeks Permission to Execute his Father

Hadrat Abu Hurayrah (ﷺ) narrates that Rasulullaah (ﷺ) once passed by Abdullaah bin Ubay who was sitting on the shade of a fortress. Abdullaah bin Ubay passed a remark saying, "The son of Ibn Kabshah(3) has thrown dirt on our faces." Abdullaah bin Ubay's son Hadrat Abdullaah (ﷺ) then said, "O Rasulullaah (ﷺ)! I swear by the Being Who has given you honour that if you wish, I shall bring my father's head to you (after executing him)." Rasulullaah (ﷺ) replied, "No. You should rather continue treating your father well and being good to him." (4)

Another narration from Hadrat Abdullaah (ﷺ) the son of Abdullaah bin Ubay says that when he requested permission from Rasulullaah (ﷺ) to execute his father, Rasulullaah (ﷺ) told him not to. (5)

Yet another narration from Hadrat Aasim bin Umar bin Qataadah states that Hadrat Abdullaah (ﷺ) the son of Abdullaah bin Ubay bin Salool once came to Rasulullaah (ﷺ) and said, "O Rasulullaah (ﷺ)! The news has reached me that you intend having Abdullaah bin Ubay executed because of what you have heard about him. If you are really going to do so, give me the instruction and I shall bring his head to you. By Allaah! All of the Khazraj tribe know well that there is none amongst them who honours their father more than I do. I fear that if you give the instruction to another person and he kills my father, my carnal self will not allow me to see my father's executioner walk freely amongst the people. I may then kill him, as a result of which I shall enter Jahannam for killing a Mu'min for the life of a Kaafir." Rasulullaah replied, '(Instead of executing him) We shall rather be lenient with him and continue treating him well as long as he remains with us.' (1)

Hadhrat Usaama bin Zaid narrates that when Rasulullaah returned from the military offensive against the Banu Mustaliq tribe, Hadhrat Abdullah the son of Abdullaah bin Ubay stood up and drew his sword before his father saying, "I swear by Allaah. That I shall not sheath my sword until you say, 'Muhammad is honourable while we are low.'" Abdullah bin Ubay then said, "Shame on you! Muhammad is honourable while we are low." When Rasulullaah was informed of this, he was pleased and approved of the act. (2)

Hadhrat Urwa reports that Hadhrat Handhala the son of Abu Aamir and Hadhrat Abdullah the son of Abdullaah bin Ubay bin Salool both sought permission from Rasulullaah to execute their fathers but Rasulullaah refused. (3)

The Incident Between Hadhrat Abu Bakr and his Son Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan during the Battle of Badr

Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan the son of Hadhrat Abu Bakr once said to his father, "When I saw you during the Battle of Uhud, I avoided you." Hadhrat Abu Bakr responded by saying, "Had I seen you, I would not have avoided you (but would have attacked you because you were opposing the Deen of Allaah)." (4) Waaqidi reports that (as a Kaafir then) Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan the son of Hadhrat Abu Bakr called for a contestant to fight him. When Hadhrat Abu Bakr stood up to the challenge, Rasulullaah said, "(Do not go because) We still have much to benefit from you." (5)

It is reported by Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah and other scholars proficient in the knowledge of the various battles Rasulullaah fought, state that Hadhrat

Umar  once passed by Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Al Aas . Hadhrat Umar  asked, "It seems to me that you are upset with me because you think that I had killed your father. Had I killed him, I would not have made any excuses for it because I killed my own maternal uncle Aas bin Hishaam bin Mughiera. Nevertheless, the truth is that when I passed by your father (on the battlefield) he was (lying down wounded and) hitting his head on the ground as a bull hits its horns on the ground. I then steered away from him and it was his cousin Ali who headed for him and killed him. (1) Another narration adds that Hadhrat Sa'eed  said, "Even if you killed him, it was you who was on the truth while he was on falsehood." This statement greatly pleased Hadhrat Umar  (2).

Hadrath Abu Hudhayfah's reaction when he Saw his Father's Body being Dragged to the Well After the Battle of Badr

Hadrath Aa'isha narrates that according to the instructions of Rasulullaah , the bodies of the Mushrikeen killed during the Battle of Badr were dragged to a (unused) well and thrown into it. Rasulullaah then stood beside the well and said, "O people of this well! Have you found the promise of your Rabb (punishment) to be true? I have indeed found the promise of my Rabb (victory) to be true." The Sahabah asked, "O Rasulullaah! Are you addressing dead people?" Rasulullaah replied, "They now know well that the promise of their Rabb is true."

Rasulullaah noticed an expression of gloom on the face of Hadrath Abu Hudhayfah as he saw the body of his father Utba being dragged to the well. "O Abu Hudhayfah!" Rasulullaah called out, "It seems that you dislike what you are seeing?" Hadrath Abu Hudhayfah replied, "O Rasulullaah! Because my father was a leader of his people, I hoped that his Rabb would guide him to Islaam. However, it depressed me to see how he has fallen (without becoming a Muslim)." Rasulullaah then made good du'aas for Hadrath Abu Hudhayfah.

Another narration from Hadrath Abu Zinaad states that when Hadrath Abu Hudhayfah fought in the Battle of Badr, he called his father Utba to challenge him to a duel. This narration also quotes the couplets that his sister Hind bin Utba recited about the incident.

when Rasulullaah ﷺ arrived with the captives from the Battle of Badr, they distributed them amongst the Sahabah ﷺ saying, "I emphatically command you to treat them well." Amongst the prisoners was Abu Azeez bin Umayr bin Hishaam, the real brother of Hadhrat Mus'ab bin Umayr ﷺ. Hadhrat Abu Azeez ﷺ says, "When I was captured by one of the Ansaar, my brother Mus'ab bin Umayr ﷺ passed by. He said to the Ansaari, 'Tie both his hands well because his mother is very wealthy and she will pay a large ransom for him.' I was with a group of Ansaar when we returned from the battle. Whenever the morning and afternoon meals were served, they gave me the bread and ate dates only because of the instruction of Rasulullaah ﷺ to treat us (prisoners) well. Whenever any of them happened to receive any bread, he would ensure that he gave it to me. When I returned it to him out of embarrassment, he would give it back without even touching it."

Hadhrat Abu Yasar ﷺ was the Ansaari who captured Hadhrat Abu Azeez ﷺ. After Hadhrat Mus'ab bin Umayr ﷺ had told Hadhrat Abu Yasar ﷺ what he did (about tying both hands well), Hadhrat Abu Azeez ﷺ said, "Dear brother! Is this the advice you give him about me (your own brother)?" Hadhrat Mus'ab ﷺ replied, "He (Hadhrat Abu Yasar ﷺ) is my brother and not you." When Hadhrat Abu Azeez ﷺ's mother enquired what the highest ransom was that anyone from the Quraysh had paid, she was informed that it was four thousand Dirhams. She then sent four thousand Dirhams and ransomed her son. (1)

Hadhrat Ayyoob bin Nu'maan narrates that during the Battle of Badr, Hadhrat Abu Azeez bin Umayr, the real brother of Hadhrat Mus'ab bin Umayr ﷺ was also captured (by the Muslims). He was placed in the custody of Hadhrat Muhriz bin Nadhla ﷺ. Hadhrat Mus'ab ﷺ said to Hadhrat Muhriz ﷺ, "Tie both his hands well because he has a very wealthy mother in Makkah (who will pay a large ransom for him)." Hadhrat Abu Azeez ﷺ said, "Is that your advice concerning me, dear brother?" Hadhrat Mus'ab ﷺ replied, "Muhriz is my brother and not you." Hadhrat Abu Azeez ﷺ's mother then sent four thousand Dirhams (as ransom for her son). (2)

The Incident Between Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan ﷺ and his Daughter Ummul Mu'mineen Hadhrat Ummu Habeebah ﷺ

Hadhrat Zuhri reports that Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan ﷺ once came to Madinah (before accepting Islaam) to meet Rasulullaah ﷺ at a time when Rasulullaah ﷺ had intended to go to war with the people of Makkah. Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan ﷺ spoke to Rasulullaah ﷺ about extending the Treaty of Hudaybiyyah (which the people of Makkah had already breached) but Rasulullaah ﷺ refused to do so. He then left Rasulullaah ﷺ and went to see his daughter Hadhrat

Ummu Habeebah (the wife of Rasulullaah ﷺ). As he was going to sit on Rasulullaah ﷺ's bedding, Hadhrat Ummu Habeebah quickly rolled it up. "Dear daughter!" Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan ﷺ exclaimed, "Am I not worthy of this bedding or is it not worthy of the likes of me?" Hadhrat Ummu Habeebah replied, "This is Rasulullaah ﷺ's bedding and (you are unfit to sit on it because) you are an impure Mushrik." Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan ﷺ responded by saying, "Dear daughter! You have really changed for the worse since leaving us." (1) Another narration states that Hadhrat Ummu Habeebah added, "I would not like you to sit on his bedding." (2)

The Statement of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood

Concerning a Sparrow and its Fledglings

Hadhrat Abul Ahwas narrates, "We once visited Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood as he was with his three sons, who appeared (radiant) like three gold coins. As we looked at the three boys, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood understood our feelings and said, 'It seems like you envy me because of these boys?' We replied, 'It is because of such things that a person is truly the envy of all.' Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood then looked up to the low ceiling of his house where a sparrow had built a nest. He said, 'I prefer dusting off from my hands the sand from the graves of these boys rather than a single egg falling and breaking from that sparrow's nest.'"

Another narration from Hadhrat Abu Uthmaan states that he used to sit in the company of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood in Kufa. He further says that at that time, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood was married to two beautiful women of high birth and had the most beautiful children from them. As he was sitting on a raised place, a sparrow started chirping from above and then emptied its belly on Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood. As he wiped the mess off, he said, "I prefer that the family of Abdullaah die and I follow them in death rather than this sparrow dying." (3)

The Statement of Hadhrat Umar About the Prisoners from Badr

The narration has already passed concerning the statement that Hadhrat Umar made about what should be done with the prisoners from the Battle of Badr. He said, "I swear by Allaah that I do not share the opinion of Abu Bakr. I strongly feel that you should hand so-and-so (a relative of Hadhrat Umar) over to me for execution, that you hand Aqeel over to Ali for execution and that you hand over to Hamza his brother (Abbaas) so that he could execute him. In this manner, Allaah would know that we have no inclination towards the Mushrikeen in our hearts because these men are their leaders and the most influential people they have."

Many incidents have also passed about how the Ansaar severed the ties they had with people during the Period of ignorance(1).

The Love that the Sahabah had for Rasulullaah

The Love that Hadhrat Sa'd bin Mu'aadh had for Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abu Bakr narrates that (during the Battle of Badr) Hadhrat Sa'd bin Mu'aadh said, "O Nabi of Allaah! Should we not build you a structure for shade so that you could stay there and your conveyance could stay in readiness with you. We shall then fight the enemy and if Allaah grants us honour and victory over them, it would be what we want. However, if the contrary occurs, you could mount your conveyance and join up with those who have remained behind (in Madinah). Many people have remained behind who love you no less than we do and who would have never stayed behind had they known that we were going to fight a battle. Allaah shall then use them to protect you because they are your well wishers and will fight by your side." Rasulullaah praised this gesture of Hadhrat Sa'd and prayed for him. The structure was then erected for Rasulullaah. (2)

The Incident of the Love a Sahabi Expressed for Rasulullaah and the verse Revealed in this Regard Hadhrat Aa'isha narrates that a man came to Rasulullaah and said, "O Rasulullaah! I love you more than my own self and more than my children. When I am in my house and think of you, I have no peace until I come to see you. Now that I think of my death and yours, I realise that you will be elevated amongst those occupying the highest positions in Jannah and I fear that I will never get to see you when I get to Jannah. Rasulullaah gave no reply until Hadhrat Jibra'eel came with the revelation of the verse:

وَمَنْ يُبْعِثُ اللَّهُ وَالرَّسُولُ فَأُولَٰٓيَّكَ مِنَ الَّذِينَ آتَى اللهُ عَلَٰهُمْ مِنَ النَّبِيِّينَ

(القصص 29)

Those who obey Allaah and the Rasool will be (in the Aakhirah) with those Ambiya (those who received divine revelation),

(1) In the Chapter about the Ansaar and under the heading "How the Ansaar Severed the Ties they had During the Period of Ignorance to Strengthen the Ties of Islaam".
(2) Ibn Ishaq, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.3 Pg.268).
"Siddeeqeen" (1), martyrs (those prepared to die for Allaah and for Rasulullaah) and righteous ones (those who purify their bodies and souls) on whom Allaah has bestowed His bounties. These are indeed the best of companions. (Although all these people may not necessarily share the same stages of Jannah, they will be able to meet each other frequently.) {Surah Nisaa, verse 69}(2)

Another narration from Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas (4) states that a man once approached Rasulullaah (s) saying, "O Rasulullaah (s)! I love you so much that whenever I think of you, I feel that I would die if I do not come to see you. It now occurs to me that I would be on a level lower than yours when I enter Jannah (and will be unable to see you). This grieves me terribly and I therefore wish to be on the same level as you." Rasulullaah (s) gave no reply until Allaah revealed the verse:

Those who obey Allaah and the Rasool (s) will be (in the Aakhirah) with those Ambiyaa, "Siddeeqeen", martyrs and righteous ones on whom Allaah has bestowed His bounties. These are indeed the best of companions. {Surah Nisaa, verse 69} Rasulullaah (s) then called for the Sahabi (s) and recited the verse to him.(3)

The Incident of the Sahabi whose Preparation for the Day of Qiyaamah was His Love for Allaah and Rasulullaah

Hadrat Anas (s) narrates that a man once asked Rasulullaah (s) when Qiyaamah will take place. "What have you prepared for the Day of Qiyaamah?" asked Rasulullaah (s). The Sahabi (s) replied, "Nothing besides the love for Allaah and His Rasool (s)." Rasulullaah (s) told him, "(On the Day of Qiyaamah) You shall be with those whom you love." Hadrat Anas (s) says, "Nothing made us as happy as the statement of Rasulullaah (s): 'You shall be with those whom you love'. I love Rasulullaah (s), Abu Bakr (s) and Umar (s). Because of this love I bear for them, I hope to be with them." (4) Another narration of Bukhaari states that a man from the desert once came to Rasulullaah (s) and asked, "When will Qiyaamah take place?" "What!" exclaimed Rasulullaah (s), "What preparations have you made for it?" The man replied, "I have made no preparations for it apart from the fact that I love Allaah and His Rasool Ḥasan. Rasulullaah Ḥasan said, "You shall be with those whom you love." Hadhrat Anas Ḥasan asked, "Does this apply to us as well?" "Certainly," replied Rasulullaah Ḥasan. Hadhrat Anas Ḥasan says, "That day we were extremely overjoyed."

A narration of Tirmidhi quotes that Hadhrat Anas Ḥasan said, "While I have seen the companions of Rasulullaah Ḥasan rejoice about many things, I have never seen them rejoice more than the time when a man came and asked, "O Rasulullaah Ḥasan! A person loves another for doing a good deed that he is unable do (will this benefit him)?" Rasulullaah Ḥasan replied, "A man shall be (in the Aakhirah) with those whom he loves."

The Statement of Rasulullaah Ḥasan: "You, O Abu Dharr, shall be with Those whom you love"

Hadhrat Abu Dharr Ḥasan narrates that he once said to Rasulullaah Ḥasan, "O Rasulullaah Ḥasan! (What will be the outcome of) A man who loves a group of people but is unable to carry out the deeds they carry out?" Rasulullaah Ḥasan replied, "You, O Abu Dharr, shall be with those whom you love." Hadhrat Abu Dharr Ḥasan then said, "I love Allaah and His Rasool Ḥasan." "You shall therefore be with those whom you love," Rasulullaah Ḥasan assured him. When Hadhrat Abu Dharr Ḥasan repeated his words, Rasulullaah Ḥasan repeated what he had said. (1)

The Incident of Hadhrat Ali Ḥasan with Rasulullaah Ḥasan when he was Experiencing Extreme Hunger

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas Ḥasan reports that the news once reached Hadhrat Ali Ḥasan that Rasulullaah Ḥasan was experiencing severe hunger. Hadhrat Ali Ḥasan therefore left home to look for some work by which he could earn something to alleviate the plight of Rasulullaah Ḥasan. When he entered the orchard of a Jewish man, the man asked him to draw seventeen buckets of water from the well for a price of one date for every bucket drawn. The Jew then allowed Hadhrat Ali Ḥasan to choose what type of dates he wanted and Hadhrat Ali Ḥasan chose seventeen Ajwah dates. When Hadhrat Ali Ḥasan brought the dates, Rasulullaah Ḥasan asked, "Where did you get this from, Abu Hasan?" Hadhrat Ali Ḥasan replied, "O Nabi of Allaah Ḥasan! When I heard about your hunger, I went out to look for a job to get you this food." "Was it the love of Allaah and for His Rasool Ḥasan that motivated you to do this?" Rasulullaah Ḥasan asked. "It certainly was," came the reply. Rasulullaah Ḥasan then said, "Whenever a servant of Allaah loves Allaah and His Rasool Ḥasan, poverty comes to him faster than water flowing downstream. The person who loves Allaah and His Rasool Ḥasan should prepare a shield (of patience and abstinence) against tribulations." (2)

The Incident of Hadhrat Ka'b bin Ujrah

Hadhrat Ka'b bin Ujrah narrates that he once went to Rasulullah and found that his face had become extremely pale. "May my parents be sacrificed for you! What is that matter that I see your face so pale?" he asked. Rasulullah replied, "Nothing that can enter the belly of any living creature has entered my belly for three days." Hadhrat Ka'b then left and found a Jewish man watering his camel. He watered the camel for the man with the understanding that he would earn a date for every bucket drawn. When he had collected several dates, he took them to Rasulullah who asked where he got them. After Hadhrat Ka'b explained the incident, Rasulullah asked, "Do you have love for me, Ka'b?" "May my father be sacrificed for you!" Hadhrat Ka'b responded, "Of course I do." Rasulullah then told him, "Poverty runs to a person who loves me faster than water returning to its source. In addition to this, tribulations will certainly come your way, so prepare a shield (of patience and abstinence) for it."

Rasulullah later did not see Hadhrat Ka'b and asked the Sahabah where he was. When they informed Rasulullah that he was ill, Rasulullah walked to his house. When Rasulullah entered the house, he said, "Good news for you, O Ka'b!" Hadhrat Ka'b's mother then said, "Glad tidings of Jannah for you, Ka'b!" "Who is this lady who swears in Allaah's name?" asked Rasulullah. "She is my mother, O Rasulullah!" replied Hadhrat Ka'b. Rasulullah then said, "How can you be sure, O Ummu Ka'b? Perhaps Ka'b spoke something useless and refused to give (to a needy person) something that he did not need?" (1)

The Love that Hadhrat Talha bin Baraa had for Rasulullah

Hadhrat Husayn bin Wahwah Ansaari reports that when Hadhrat Talha bin Baraa met Rasulullah, he embraced Rasulullah and kissed his feet. He said, "O Rasulullah! Command me to do as you please, for I shall never disobey any instruction you give." This surprised Rasulullah because Hadhrat Talha was still a young boy. "Then go and kill your father," Rasulullah said. As he left with the resolve to kill his father, Rasulullah called him back saying, "Come back! I have not been sent to severe family ties."

It was not long afterwards that Hadhrat Talha fell ill. It was an icy cold and overcast winter's day when Rasulullah came to visit him. As he left, Rasulullah said to the family, "I think that death is coming to Talha. Do inform me when he passes away so that I may be present and perform the (Janaazah) salaah for him. However, do hurry with the burial procedures."

(1) Tabraani, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.10 Pg.314) and Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.5 Pg.153). Ibn Asaakir has also reported the narration, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaai (Vol.3 Pg.320). This narration quotes that Rasulullah said, "Perhaps Ka'b spoke something useless or refused to give (to a needy person) something that he did not need?"
Rasulullaah had not yet reached the area of the Banu Saalim bin Auf tribe when Hadhrat Talha passed away. However, by then the night had already enveloped him. Amongst other things that Hadhrat Talha told his family was, "Bury me and allow me to meet my Rabb but do not call Rasulullaah because I fear that the Jews may cause him some harm as he comes here." Rasulullaah was therefore informed about his death only in the morning. Rasulullaah came to his grave and stood there as the people stood on rows with him. He then raised his hands and prayed, "O Allaah! You be smiling when you meet Talha and let him be smiling as well." (1)

Hadhrat Talha bin Miskeen narrates that Hadhrat Talha bin Baraa came to Rasulullaah and said, "Stretch out your hand so that I may pledge my allegiance to you." "Even if I command you to sever ties with your parents?" Rasulullaah asked. "No," replied Hadhrat Talha. Thereafter, Hadhrat Talha again came to Rasulullaah asking him to stretch out his hand. "To what do you want to pledge allegiance?" asked Rasulullaah. "To Islaam," replied Hadhrat Talha. "Even if I command you to sever ties with your parents?" Rasulullaah asked. "No," replied Hadhrat Talha.

Hadhrat Talha then approached Rasulullaah for the third time with the same request. He had only a mother and was most dutiful towards her. This time Rasulullaah said to him, "O Talha! Severing of family ties has no place in our religion. All I wished to do (by asking you if you would sever ties with your parents) was to ensure that there were no doubts in your Deen." Hadhrat Talha then accepted Islaam and was an excellent Muslim.

When he fell ill one day, Rasulullaah visited him and found him unconscious. Rasulullaah said, "I do not think that Talha will survive the night. Do send for me as soon as he regains consciousness." When Hadhrat Talha did regain consciousness late at night, he asked, "Has Rasulullaah not come to visit me?" When he was informed that Rasulullaah did come and told about what Rasulullaah said, Hadhrat Talha said, "Do not send for him at this hour for he must not be stung (by a reptile) or suffer some other harm. However, after I die, do pass my Salaams to him and request him to seek forgiveness on my behalf." After Rasulullaah had led the Fajr salaah, he enquired about Hadhrat Talha and was informed that he had passed away. Rasulullaah then raised his hands and prayed, "O Allaah! You be smiling when you meet Talha and let him be smiling as well." (2)

The Love that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Hudhaafa Had for Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Zuhri reports that someone once complained to Rasulullaah that

(1) Tabraani, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaa (Vol.7 Pg.50). Baghawi, Ibn Abi Khaythama, Ibn Abi Aasim, Ibn Shaaheen and Ibn Sakan have also reported the narration, as quoted in Isaabah (Vol.2 Pg.227). Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.365) states that Abu Dawood has reported a part of the narration without commenting on the chain of narrators. He says that the chain should therefore be sound, Inshaa Allaah.

(2) Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.365) has commented on the chain of narrators. Ibnus Sakan has reported a similar narration, as quoted in Isaabah (Vol.2 Pg.227).
Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Hudhaafa joked a lot and spoke many useless things. Rasulullaah said, "Leave him alone because he has a heart that loves Allaah and His Rasool."(1)

The Statement of Rasulullaah when the Corpse of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Dhul Bijaadayn was Carried

Hadhrat Adra narrates that he was guarding Rasulullaah one night when he heard someone reciting Qur'aan in a loud voice. When Rasulullaah came out, he said "O Rasulullaah! That person is showing off." "That man," Rasulullaah explained, "is Abdullaah bin Dhul Bijaadayn." Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Dhul Bijaadayn passed away in Madinah and after burial preparations were made and the body was carried, Rasulullaah said, "Be gentle with him as Allaah is gentle with him because he had great love for Allaah and His Rasool." When Rasulullaah came to the grave (which was being dug), he said, "Widen it for him as Allaah's mercy has been widened for him." One of the Sahabah asked, "O Rasulullaah! You seem very depressed about his death?" Rasulullaah replied, "Because he loved Allaah and his Rasool."(2)

The Incidents of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar, Hadhrat Zaid bin Dathana and Hadhrat Khubayb bin Adi

Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Sa'd reports, "I was once with Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar when his leg cramped. 'What is wrong with your leg?' I asked. 'The muscles have cramped from here to here,' he replied. I said, 'Then take the name of the person most beloved to you (so that Allaah should cure it thereby).' He then took the name of Muhammad and was able to stretch his leg."(3)

The incident has already passed reporting the time when Hadhrat Zaid bin Dathana was brought for execution and Abu Sufyaan said to him, "O Zaid! I ask you to swear by Allaah whether you wish that Muhammad was here with us in your place to have his head severed while you could be with your family." Hadhrat Zaid replied, "I swear by Allaah that I would not even like a thorn to prick Muhammad where he is while I am sitting with my family." Abu Sufyaan said, "I have never seen people love anyone as much as the companions of Muhammad loved Muhammad." The story of Hadhrat Khubayb has also passed narrating the incident about the time when the Mushrikeen asked him to swear by Allaah whether he preferred to have Rasulullaah ﷺ in his place (in exchange for his own freedom). Hadhrat Khubayb ﷺ replied, "Never! I swear by the Exalted Allaah that I would not even accept a thorn pricking the foot of Rasulullaah ﷺ as ransom for my life." Both these incidents have been quoted in the chapter entitled "The Enthusiasm of the Sahabah to Die and Give their Lives in the path of Allaah"(1)

The Sahabah ﷺ Prefer the Pleasure of Rasulullaah ﷺ to their Own Pleasure
Hadhrat Abu Bakr ﷺ Weeps when his Father Embraces Islaam because of his Keenness for Abu Taalib to Accept Islaam.
In the narration discussing how Hadhrat Abu Quhaafah ﷺ (the father of Hadhrat Abu Bakr ﷺ) accepted Islaam, Hadhrat Anas ﷺ reports that when Hadhrat Abu Quhaafah ﷺ stretched out his hands to pledge allegiance to Rasulullaah ﷺ, Hadhrat Abu Bakr ﷺ started to cry. "What makes you cry?" Rasulullaah ﷺ asked. Hadhrat Abu Bakr ﷺ replied, "It would have been more pleasing for me to see the hand of your uncle (Abu Taalib) in the place of my father's hand and him accepting Islaam instead so that Allaah could please you in that manner." (2)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ﷺ narrates that on the day that Makkah was conquered, Hadhrat Abu Bakr ﷺ led his aged and blind father Hadhrat Abu Quhaafah ﷺ to Rasulullaah ﷺ (to accept Islaam). Rasulullaah ﷺ said, "Why did you not leave the old man in his house and let me go to him?" Hadhrat Abu Bakr ﷺ replied, "I wanted him to be rewarded for it. O Rasulullaah ﷺ! Had your uncle Abu Taalib accepted Islaam, it would have made me happier than my father's embracing Islaam because your happiness is all I wish to see." Rasulullaah ﷺ replied, "You are true (in your words because this is really what you feel)." (3)

The Incident between Hadhrat Umar ﷺ and Hadhrat Abbaas ﷺ
Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ﷺ narrates that amongst the captives of the Battle of Badr was Hadhrat Abbaas bin Abdul Muttalib ﷺ. A man from the Ansaar captured him and the other Ansaar threatened to kill him. Because this news reached Rasulullaah ﷺ, he said, "I was unable to sleep last night because the Ansaar have said that they would kill my uncle Abbaas." "Should I go to the Ansaar (and fetch Hadhrat Abbaas ﷺ)?" Hadhrat Umar ﷺ offered. When Rasulullaah ﷺ bade him to do so, he went to them and said, "Release Abbaas." "Never," responded the Ansaar; "we swear by Allaah that we shall never release him." "Even if it pleases Rasulullaah ﷺ?" asked Hadhrat Umar ﷺ. The Ansaar immediately acceded saying, "If it pleases Rasulullah, you may have him." Hadhrat Umar took him in his custody and when Hadhrat Abbaas was with him, Hadhrat Umar said to him, "Accept Islaam, O Abbaas. I swear by Allaah that your accepting Islaam would please me more than (my father) Khattaab accepting Islaam. This is only because I know that your accepting Islaam would please Rasulullah."

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas narrates that Hadhrat Umar once said to Hadhrat Abbaas, "Accept Islaam, O Abbaas. I swear by Allaah that your accepting Islaam would please me more than (my father) Khattaab accepting Islaam. I am saying this only because I know that Rasulullah would like you to be amongst the early ones to accept Islaam." (1)

Hadhrat Sha'bi reports that when Hadhrat Abbaas was pressurising Hadhrat Umar for something, he said, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! Tell me. How would you treat the uncle of Moosa if he came to you as a Muslim?" "By Allaah!" exclaimed Hadhrat Umar, "I would certainly treat him well." "Well," remarked Hadhrat Abbaas, "I am the uncle of Muhammad the Nabi." Hadhrat Umar then said, "What do you think, O Abu Fadhl (do you think that I have no regard for you)? I swear by Allaah that your father is more beloved to me than my own father." "Really, do you swear by Allaah?" Hadhrat Abbaas staggered. "Really," replied Hadhrat Umar, "and that is because I know that Rasulullah liked your father more than my father. I shall give preference to what Rasulullah liked over that which I like." (3)

Hadhrat Muhammad bin Ali narrates that Hadhrat Abbaas once approached Hadhrat Umar saying, "Rasulullah had apportioned the land of Bahrain for me." "Who else knows about this?" asked Hadhrat Umar. "Mughiera bin Shu'ba does," replied Hadhrat Abbaas. Hadhrat Abbaas then brought Hadhrat Mughiera, who testified on his behalf. However, Hadhrat Umar did not pass judgement in Hadhrat Abbaas's favour, apparently not accepting his evidence. Hadhrat Abbaas then said some harsh words to Hadhrat Umar, upon which Hadhrat Umar said (to Hadhrat Abbaas's son), "O Abdullaah! Take your father's hand. O Abul Fadhl (HadhraJ: Abbaas's title) I swear by Allaah that I was happier by your accepting Islaam than if (my father) Khattaab had accepted Islaam because this pleased Rasulullah."

The Narration of Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed Khudri About those Who Passed Away in Madinah

Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed Khudri says, "When Rasulullah just arrived in Madinah, it was our practice to inform him whenever a person was about to pass away. Rasulullah would then present himself and seek forgiveness on..." behalf of the person. He and those with him would leave only after the person passed away and would sometimes also remain until after the burial. This would often delay Rasulullaah because it kept him back. When we sensed this inconvenience to Rasulullaah, some of us said to the others, 'By Allaah! We ought to inform Rasulullaah only after a person passes away so that it would not be inconvenient for him nor keep him back.' This was then what we did. We informed Rasulullaah after the person's death and he would lead the (Janaazah) salaah and seek forgiveness for the person. There were times when he would leave after this (the salaah) while at other times, he would remain behind until after the burial. This practice continued for awhile, after which the people said, 'By Allaah! We ought not to bother Rasulullaah and should rather carry the deceased to Rasulullaah's house and then call for him to lead the salaah near his house. This would be more convenient and easier for Rasulullaah.' This was then what we used to do."

Hadhrat Umar bin Muhammad says that it was from that time that the place was called "Mowda'ul Janaa'iz" (the place for biers), because it was to this place that the biers were carried. It was from those times to this day that the practice continued of people carrying the funeral biers to this place and performing the salaah there. (1)

The Affection Hadhrat Umar had for Rasulullaah's Daughter Hadhrat Faatima because Rasulullaah Loved her

Hadhrat Aslam narrates that Hadhrat Umar once went to Hadhrat Faatima the daughter of Rasulullaah and said, "O Faatima! I have never seen anyone that Rasulullaah loved more than you. By Allaah! After your father, there is none dearer to me than yourself." (2)

Honouring and Respecting Rasulullaah

The Respect the Sahabah Showed by Not Raising their Gazes in Front of Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Anas reports that when Rasulullaah went to the Sahabah as they were sitting with Hadhrat Abu Bakr and Hadhrat Umar, none of them besides Hadhrat Abu Bakr and Hadhrat Umar would lift his gaze. It was only the two of them who would look at him and he would look at them. They would smile with him and he would smile at them. (This was because Hadhrat Abu Bakr and Hadhrat Umar were close enough to act informally with Rasulullaah.) (3)

The Manner in Which the Sahabah sat Around Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Usaama bin Shareek says, "We were sitting around Rasulullaah as if there were birds perched on our backs with no one uttering a word. Some people then arrived and asked, 'Which of Allaah's bondsmen are most beloved to Him?' Rasulullaah replied, 'Those whose character is the best.'" (1) Another narration states that Hadhrat Usaama bin Shareek said, "I once came to Rasulullaah while his companions sat around him (so still) as if there were birds perched on their backs." (2)

The Awe that Hadhrat Baraa bin Aazib Felt for Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Baraa bin Aazib says, "I once wanted to ask Rasulullaah about something but delayed asking for two years because of the awe I felt for him." (3)

The Sahabah Seek Blessings from the Water left over from Rasulullaah's Wudhu and from his Saliva

Hadhrat Zuhri reports, "Someone whose dependability is unquestionable mentioned to me that whenever Rasulullaah made wudhu or spat, the Sahabah would race to get his saliva (and leftover wudhu water) to rub it on their faces and bodies. "Why do you do this?" asked Rasulullaah. "Because we seek blessings from it," came the reply. Rasulullaah then told them, "Whoever loves to be loved by Allaah and by His Rasool should always speak the truth, return trusts and should never harm his neighbour." (4)

The Statement of Hadhrat Urwa bin Mas'ood Concerning the Respect the Sahabah had for Rasulullaah

The narration of Hadhrat Miswar bin Makhramah and Marwaan concerning the Treaty of Hudaybiyyah as reported in Bukhaari and other books has already passed. This narration states that (as he was negotiating with Rasulullaah) Hadhrat Urwa started observing the Sahabah very closely. He says, "By Allaah! Even when Rasulullaah would spit, someone would catch it and rub it on his face and body. Whenever he issued any Urwa then returned to his people and said to them, "O people! I have been to the royal courts of Caesars, Kisras and Najaashi. I have never seen the followers of any ruler so devoted to him as the followers of Muhammad are to him.

The Narration of Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Haarirah Concerning the Sahabah

Seeking Blessings from the Leftover Wudhu Water and Saliva of Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Abu Quraad Sulami says, "We were with Rasulullaah when he asked for some water. (When it was brought) Rasulullaah dipped his hand in the water and started performing wudhu. As the water dripped off (his limbs), we drank it up. 'What makes you do this?' Rasulullaah asked. We replied, 'It is the love for Allaah and His Rasool (that makes us do this).'

Rasulullaah then said, 'If you want Allaah and His Rasool to love you, you should return something placed in your trust, always speak the truth and behave politely towards the neighbours in your vicinity.'"(1)

Hadhraat Abdullaah bin Zubayr Drinks the Blood of Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Aamir the son of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr reports from his father that he once approached Rasulullaah as Rasulullaah was having his blood cupped. When the cupping was complete, Rasulullaah said, "O Abdullaah! Take this blood and throw it where no one sees you." However, when Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr left Rasulullaah, he took the blood and drank it up. After returning, Rasulullaah asked him what he had done with the blood and he replied, "I have placed it in a most hidden place where I am sure that no one would know about it." "Did you perhaps drink it?" Rasulullaah enquired. When he admitted that he did, Rasulullaah said, "Why did you drink the blood? Destruction shall come to people from you and destruction shall come to you from people (here Rasulullaah was referring to the strife that took place during the time of Marwaan and Abdul Malik)."

Hadhrat Abu Moosa reports from Hadhrat Abu Aasim that according to popular opinion, the phenomenal strength that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr had came from this blood. (2)

Ibn Asaakir has reported the narration with the closing comment about the strength of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.57).
Hadrat Kaysaan who was the freed slave of Hadrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr reports that when Hadrat Salmaan once came to Rasulullaah, he noticed Hadrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr drinking something from a plate he had with him. When Hadrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr came before Rasulullaah, Rasulullaah asked, "Are you finished?" When Hadrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr replied that he had, Hadrat Salmaan exclaimed, "I swear by the Being Who has sent you with the truth! He just drank it." "Did you drink it?" enquired Rasulullaah. "Yes, I did," came the reply. "Why did you do it?" Rasulullaah asked. "Because," explained Hadrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr, "I wished to have the blood of Allaah's Rasool in my belly." Rasulullaah then pointed to Hadrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr's head and said, "Destruction shall come to people from you and destruction shall come to you from people. The Fire (of Jahannam) shall not touch you except to fulfil the promise (of passing over the Bridge of Siraat that spans Jahannam)." (1)

Hadrat Safeenah Drinks Rasulullaah's Blood

Hadrat Safeenah says, "Rasulullaah once had himself cupped and said (to me), 'Take this blood and bury it out of the reach of animals, birds and people.' As I disappeared out of sight, I drank it up. When I later mentioned it to Rasulullaah, he merely laughed." (2)

The Incident of Rasulullaah and Hadrat Maalik bin Sinaan During the Battle of Uhud

Hadrat Abu Sa'eed Khudri reports that his father Hadrat Maalik Bin Sinaan licked the blood off Rasulullaah's face and then swallowed it. This happened after Rasulullaah's face was injured during the Battle of Uhud. Someone asked, "Are you drinking blood?" "Yes," he confirmed, "but this is the blood of Rasulullaah that I am drinking." Rasulullaah then said, "Once my blood has mixed with his, the Fire (of Jahannam) shall never touch him." (3) had a wooden cup in which he used to urinate. He kept this cup beneath his bed. When he looked for it one day and could not find it, he asked where it was. He was then informed that Surrah, the maidservant of Hadhrat Ummu Salamah, who had come with her from Abyssinia had drunk it. Rasulullaah said, "She has erected a solid barrier against the Fire (of Jahannam)." (1)

The Narration of Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob Concerning the Respect he Showed to Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob reports that Rasulullaah stayed at his house when Rasulullaah arrived in Madinah. While Rasulullaah stayed in the lower storey of the house, Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob (and his family) stayed on the upper storey. That morning and evening, the thought plagued Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob that he was on the top of the house while Rasulullaah was beneath him, and he was therefore an impediment between Rasulullaah and revelation (from the heavens). Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob also did not sleep that night fearing that he may cause some dust to fall on Rasulullaah or that his movements may disturb Rasulullaah.

Early next morning, he went to Rasulullaah and said, "O Rasulullaah! My eyes and those of (my wife) Ummu Ayyoob were unable to close all night."

"Why was that, O Abu Ayyoob?" enquired Rasulullaah. Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob replied, "The thought occurred to me that since I am above and you below me, dust would fall on you if I moved and my movements would disturb you. I also feared that I was an impediment between you and revelation."

Rasulullaah put him at ease saying, "Do not worry like that in future, O Abu Ayyoob. Should I not teach you some words that if you recite them ten times in the mornings and ten times in the evenings, you will be granted the reward of ten good deeds, ten sins will be erased from your record, you will be elevated ten stages (in Jannah) and on the Day of Qiyaamah you will have the reward of setting ten slaves free? You should recite:

(2) "للهِ إِلَّا الَّذِي كَرِهْتَ إِلَّا مَا كَرَّحْتَ لَهُ وَهُدِّي إِلَّا مَنْ وَلَىٰ كُنْتُمْ إِلَّا عَرَفَتُمْ قَدْ أَهْلُكُمْ فَأَنَا مَسِيحُ الْيَمِينِ مُفْتَرِسُهُ يَعْتَفَرُ بِهِ لاَ تَهْدِي إِلَّا مَنْ هُدَىٰ رَبُّكَ وَأَنَا مُرَجِّعُهُنَّ إِلَيْهِ يُحْيِي مَنِيدًا وَيَحْيِي مَا مُتِّلَ "

Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob says, "When Rasulullaah came to stay with me, I said, 'May my parents be sacrificed for you! I do not like it that I be above you while you are below me.' Rasulullaah said, 'It is more convenient for us to be below because we would be swamped with visitors.' One of our jugs happened to break and the water started to spill. Ummu Ayyoob and I stood with our blanket and used it to dry up the water, fearing that the water should not drop on Rasulullaah, thereby inconveniencing him. We had nothing else to cover ourselves (and therefore spent the night without anything to cover ourselves). We used to prepare meals (and send to Rasulullaah) and when he sent back (what was extra), we specifically sought out the parts where his fingers touched and ate from there with the intention of attaining blessings. One night when Rasulullaah ﷺ sent back his dinner in which we had put garlic or onions, we did not see any traces of his fingers touching the food. When I mentioned our practice to Rasulullaah ﷺ, adding that he sent back the food without eating it, he said, 'I could get the smell of that tree (garlic or onion) and because I am a person who engages in close conversation (with Allaah and the angels), I did not like the smell to stay with me. However, you people are at liberty to eat it.'

Another narration states that Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob ﷺ said, "O Rasulullaah ﷺ! It is not proper for me to be above you. You should therefore move to the upper storey." Rasulullaah ﷺ then had his luggage moved, which was very little.

The Incident Between Hadhrat Umar ﷺ and Hadhrat Abbaas ﷺ Concerning a Gutter

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas ﷺ narrates that there was a gutter belonging to Hadhrat Abbaas ﷺ that was on the road Hadhrat Umar ﷺ used (to the Masjid). Hadhrat Umar ﷺ left his house one Friday after dressing (for the Jumu'ah salaah). Because Hadhrat Abbaas ﷺ had two birds slaughtered, the blood of the birds were thrown into his gutter and when Hadhrat Umar ﷺ passed by, the blood spilt on his clothing. Hadhrat Umar ﷺ gave instructions that the gutter should be removed and then returned home where he removed the clothes and changed into something else. He then went back and led the salaah. Hadhrat Abbaas ﷺ then went up to Hadhrat Umar ﷺ and said, "By Allaah! The gutter was on the place where Rasulullaah ﷺ had it placed." Hadhrat Umar ﷺ responded by saying, "I command you in the name of Allaah that even if you have to climb on my back, you should replace it in the place where Rasulullaah ﷺ had it laid." Hadhrat Abbaas ﷺ then did just that.

Another narration states that Hadhrat Umar ﷺ actually carried Hadhrat Abbaas ﷺ on his neck, with his legs over his shoulders. He then replaced the gutter where Rasulullaah ﷺ had laid it.

Hadrath Abdullaah bin Umar ﷺ and the Other Sahabah ﷺ Honour the Pulpit of Rasulullaah ﷺ sat on his pulpit and then put the hand on his face.

Another narration from Hadhrat Yazeed bin Abdullaah bin Qusayt states that when the Masjid (Nabawi) was empty he saw several Sahabah use their right hands to pick up some of the shiny and smooth sand from that side of the pulpit which adjoined Rasulullaah's grave. They then made du'aa facing the Qibla.

Kissing the Body of Rasulullaah

The Incident of Hadhrat Usayd bin Hudhayr

Hadhrat Abu Layla says that Hadhrat Usayd bin Hudhayr was a good man who was always smiling and jovial. One day as he was busy speaking to some people in the presence of Rasulullaah and making them laugh, Rasulullaah poked his side. "You've hurt me," he complained. "Then take your revenge," replied Rasulullaah. Hadhrat Usayd remarked, "But you have a garment on while I do not." Rasulullaah raised his upper garment and Hadhrat Usayd immediately embraced Rasulullaah and started kissing his sides. He said, "May my parents be sacrificed for you, O Rasulullaah! This is all I wanted to do." (1)

Hadhrat Sawaad bin Ghuzayyah Kisses Rasulullaah's Belly

Hadhrat Habbaan bin Waasi reports from senior scholars from his tribe that Rasulullaah had the shaft of an arrow in his hand during the Battle of Badr as he was straightening the rows of the Sahabah. Hadhrat Sawaad bin Ghuzayyah who was an ally of the Banu Adi bin Najjaar tribe was standing ahead of the row. As Rasulullaah passed by him, Rasulullaah nudged the shaft in his belly saying, "Get in line, O Sawaad." Hadhrat Sawaad said, "You have hurt me, O Rasulullaah! Allaah has sent you with the truth and with justice, so allow me to have retribution." Rasulullaah uncovered his belly and said, "You may have your retribution." Hadhrat Sawaad then embraced and started kissing Rasulullaah's belly. "What makes you do this, O Sawaad?" asked Rasulullaah. You can see what developments are (that a battle is looming), so I wish that my last meeting with you (if I am killed) should be with my skin touching yours." Rasulullaah then made du'aa for him. (2)

The Incident of Another Sahabi who Kissed Rasulullaah's Belly

Hadhrat Hasan narrates that Rasulullaah was once carrying the branch of a date palm in his hand when he met a man who had dyed his clothing yellow. Nudging the man's belly with the branch, Rasulullaah said, "Remove that Waras(1). Did I not forbid you (men) from wearing that?" Although the jab made a mark on his belly, no blood emerged. The Sahabi then said, "O Rasulullaah! Retribution will have to be taken." The other Sahabah exclaimed, "You wish to take retribution from Rasulullaah?" He replied, "None has a skin better than mine." Rasulullaah then exposed his abdomen saying, "You may have your retribution." The Sahabi then started kissing the belly of Rasulullaah saying, "I forsake the retribution on condition that you intercede for me on the Day of Qiyaamah." (2)

The Incident of Hadhrat Sawaad bin Amr

Hadhrat Hasan narrates that Rasulullaah once saw that Hadhrat Sawaad bin Amr was wearing Khalooq perfume. "Remove the Waras! Remove the Waras!" Rasulullaah exclaimed. Rasulullaah then prodded Hadhrat Sawaad in the belly with a twig or a Miswaak. The prod shook his belly and left a mark. The rest of the narration is like the one quoted above. (4) Another narration from Hadhrat Hasan states that a man called Sawaadah bin Amr used to apply so much of Khalooq fragrance that he actually resembled the branch of a date palm (because of the yellow colour). Whenever Rasulullaah saw him, Rasulullaah would shake the fragrance off his clothes. One day when he again appeared before Rasulullaah wearing the Khalooq, Rasulullaah lightly struck him with a twig that was in his hand. However, because the twig hurt him, Hadhrat Sawaadah said, "There will have to be retribution, O Rasulullaah!" Rasulullaah handed the twig over to him and started lifting the two upper garments he was wearing. The people reprimanded him and he also retrained himself until the garment was lifted to the area where he was injured. He then threw down the twig, held on to Rasulullaah and started kissing him, saying, "Rasulullaah! I forsake the retribution on condition that you intercede for me on the Day of Qiyaamah." (5)

Hadhrat Talha bin Baraa Kisses Rasulullaah's Feet

The narration of Hadhrat Husayn bin Wahwah has already passed(6) describing how Hadhrat Talha bin Baraa embraced Rasulullaah and kissed his feet when he met Rasulullaah. The incident will also be quoted ahead about how Hadhrat Abu Bakr kissed Rasulullaah's forehead when Rasulullaah passed away.

The Crying of the Sahabah when they Heard that Rasulullaah had been Martyred and What Happened to them when he Passed Away

The Incident of a Lady from the Ansaar When she Heard that Rasulullaah had Been Martyred in the Battle of Uhud

Hadhrat Anas bin Maalik reports that when the people of Madinah were being defeated during the Battle of Uhud, the people started saying that Rasulullaah had been martyred. (The people of Madinah started weeping so much that) The cries of women could be heard in the furthest reaches of Madinah. One of the women from the Ansaar left Madinah wearing her veil (and headed for the battlefield). (The corpses of) Her father, her son, her husband and her brother were all brought to her. The narrator says that he is not certain which of them was brought first. When she passed by any one of them and asked who he was, she was informed that he was her father, her brother, her husband or her son. (Undaunted from her intent to find out about Rasulullaah) She asked (each time), "How is Rasulullaah?" "There he is in front of you," the people told her. When she eventually reached Rasulullaah, she held on to the edge of his garment and said, "May my parents be sacrificed for you, O Rasulullaah! When you are safe, I have no concern for all those who have passed on." (1)

Hadhrat Zubayr says that on the day the Battle of Uhud was fought, none but he was with Rasulullaah near Madinah. None of the Sahabah remained behind in Madinah (because all of them were on the battlefield). So many Muslims were martyred that someone even announced that Rasulullaah had been martyred. All the women started weeping. However, one of them said, "Do not be so hasty to cry until I go and see for myself." She then left Madinah on foot without any purpose besides her concern for Rasulullaah and to find out about his welfare. (2)

Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas reports that Rasulullaah passed by a lady from the Banu Dinaar tribe whose husband, brother and father had been martyred while fighting by the side of Rasulullaah in the Battle of Uhud. Whenever she was informed about one of their deaths, she kept asking, "How is Rasulullaah?" Addressing her by her family name, the Sahabah said, "He is well. By the grace of Allaah, he is exactly as you would like him to be." "Show me where he is so that I may see him," she asked. She was then shown where Rasulullah صلی اللہ علیه وسلم was and when she saw him, she said, "After seeing you (O Rasulullah صلی اللہ علیه وسلم), every calamity seems trivial."

The Behaviour of Hadhrat Abu Talha ﷺ During the Battle of Uhud Because of his Love for Rasulullah صلی اللہ علیه وسلم

Hadhrat Anas ﷺ narrates that Hadhrat Abu Talha ﷺ was firing arrows in front of Rasulullah صلی اللہ علیه وسلم during the Battle of Uhud. He was a proficient archer and was shielding Rasulullah صلی اللہ علیه وسلم. Each time, he fired an arrow, Rasulullah صلی اللہ علیه وسلم looked up to see where the arrow landed. At the same time, Hadhrat Abu Talha ﷺ would raise his chest (to shield Rasulullah صلی اللہ علیه وسلم) saying, "May my parents be sacrificed for you, O Rasulullah صلی اللہ علیه وسلم! Do not get up for an arrow should strike you. My neck is there to be sacrificed rather than yours." Hadhrat Abu Talha ﷺ was ready to have himself killed in the defence of Rasulullah صلی اللہ علیه وسلم. He therefore kept saying, "O Rasulullah صلی اللہ علیه وسلم! I am a strong man, so send me to fulfil any of your needs and give me any command you wish."

The Bravery of Hadhrat Qataadah ﷺ for the Love of Rasulullah صلی اللہ علیه وسلم

Hadhrat Qataadah bin Nu'maan ﷺ narrates, "Rasulullah صلی اللہ علیه وسلم was given a bow as a gift, which he gave to me during the Battle of Uhud. I used it to fire arrows in front of Rasulullah صلی اللہ علیه وسلم until the string broke. I then remained standing where I was, shielding the face of Rasulullah صلی اللہ علیه وسلم with my own. Whenever an arrow headed for the face of Rasulullah صلی اللہ علیه وسلم, I turned my head to protect the face of Rasulullah صلی اللہ علیه وسلم for I had no bow to use..." The rest of the narration is the same as appears in the chapter entitled "The Bravery of Hadhrat Qataadah bin Nu'maan ﷺ(3)"

The Sahabah ﷺ Weep at the Mention of Rasulullah صلی اللہ علیه وسلم Separating from them

The Weeping of Hadhrat Abu Bakr ﷺ

Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed ﷺ narrates, "Rasulullah صلی اللہ علیه وسلم once came out to us from his room during the illness in which he passed away. He had a bandage wrapped around his head and he went towards the pulpit until he sat upright on it. We followed Rasulullah صلی اللہ علیه وسلم (towards the pulpit), where he said, 'I swear by the Being Who controls my life that at this moment I am standing upon my fountain (Kowthar). When a servant of Allaah was given the choice between this world with its splendour (and the Aakhirah), he chose the Aakhirah.' No one understood the message of this statement besides Abu Bakr. His eyes therefore filled with tears and he started weeping. He then exclaimed, 'May my parents be sacrificed for you, O Rasulullah! In fact, may all our fathers, our mothers, ourselves and our wealth be sacrificed for you!' Rasulullah then descended from the pulpit and has not stood there again to this day. (1)

The Weeping of Hadhrat Faatima

Hadrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas reports that Rasulullah sent for Hadhrat Faatima after Allaah revealed the Surah:

(إِذَا جاءَ نُصِرُ اللهِ وَالْفَتِحَةُ)

He said to her, "This tells me of my pending death." When she started to weep, Rasulullah consoled her by saying, "Do not weep because you shall be the first of my family to meet me." She then started to laugh. Seeing her do this, one of Rasulullah's wives asked, "I saw you cry and then laugh?" Hadhrat Faatima explained, "Rasulullah said to me, 'This tells me of my pending death.' When I started to weep, Rasulullah then consoled me by saying, 'Do not weep because you shall be the first of my family to meet me.' It was then that I started to laugh." (2)

Hadrat Aa'isha narrates, "During his final illness, Rasulullah once called for his daughter Faatima. When he whispered something to her, she wept. He then called her again and when he whispered something to her this time, she started laughing. When I asked her about this, she replied, 'When Rasulullah informed me that his life would be taken during this illness, I started to weep but when he told me that I would be the first of his family to meet him, I started to laugh.'" (3)

In another narration, Hadhrat Ummu Salamah states, "When I asked Faatima about her laughing and crying, she replied, 'Rasulullah first informed me that he was going to pass away and then informed me that I would be the leader of the women of Jannah after Maryam the daughter of Imraan. It was this that made me laugh.'" (4)

Hadrat Alaa reports that when Rasulullah was about to leave this world, Hadhrat Faatima started weeping. Rasulullah said to her, "Do not weep, dear daughter. When I pass on, you should say, 'Innaa Lillaahi wa Innaa Ilayhi Raaji'oon' because by reciting these words a person receives something in return for every calamity." "Even in return for losing you, O Rasulullah!" asked Hadhrat Faatima. "Even in return for losing me," replied Rasulullah. (5)

The Weeping of Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Jabal

Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Jabal narrates that when Rasulullaah sent him (as governor) to Yemen, Rasulullaah walked with him as he gave him advice. Hadhrat Mu'aadh was riding his animal while Rasulullaah walked beside the animal. After giving him the necessary advice, Rasulullaah said, "O Mu'aadh! You shall probably not meet me after this year. You shall perhaps be passing by only this Masjid of mine and my grave." Hadhrat Mu'aadh then started weeping profusely because of this separation from Rasulullaah. Rasulullaah then turned around and faced towards Madinah as he said, "The people closest to me are those with Taqwa regardless of who they are and where they may be." (1)

Another narration states that Rasulullaah said, "Do not weep, O Mu'aadh because this weeping is from Shaytaan." (2)

The Sahabah Weep out of Fear of Rasulullaah Passing Away

The Narration of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas in this Regard

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas reports that Rasulullaah was once informed that the Ansaar men and women were crying in the Masjid. "What makes them cry?" Rasulullaah enquired. When he was informed that they were crying because they feared he was going to pass away, Rasulullaah left his room and went to sit on his pulpit. He was wrapped in a shawl with the ends thrown over his shoulders. He also wore a stained bandage on his head. After duly praising Allaah, he said, "O people! People will multiply as the Ansaar dwindle in numbers until they are only as much as salt in food. Whoever is given charge over their affairs should accept the good from their good people and excuse their evil ones." (3)

The Statement of Hadhrat Ummul Fadhl At the Demise of Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Ummul Fadhl bint Haarith says that when she came to Rasulullaah during his final illness, she started weeping. Rasulullaah lifted his head and asked, "What makes you weep?" She replied, "We fear for you (that you will pass away) and do not know how people will treat us after your demise." Rasulullaah replied, "You will be the ones in a weaker position after I leave." Rasulullaah ﷺ Bids Farewell (to the Ummah)

The Direction Rasulullaah ﷺ Gave Prior to his Demise Concerning his Burial, Bathing, Janaazah salaah and other Matters

Hadhrat Abdullah bin Mas’ood ﷺ says, "May my father and I be sacrificed for our beloved Nabi ﷺ who gave us the news of his demise six days in advance. When his end drew near, he gathered us in the room of our mother A’isha ﷺ. His eyes welled with tears as he looked at us and said, 'Welcome to you all. May Allah give you long lives. May Allah protect you. May Allah safeguard you. May Allah assist you, May Allah elevate you. May Allah guide you. May Allah provide for you. May Allah steer you to what is right. May Allah keep you safe. May Allah accept you. I advise you to adopt Taqwa. I plead to Allah to care for you and make Him my successor over you. I am a clear warner to you not to exert your authority over Allah with regard to His servants and lands, for Allah has mentioned to me and to you:

\text{`زك الداژ الاجغة تَجَّلُّهَا لَلذينَ لا يَبْذَونَ عَلّواً فِى الْأَرْضِ وَلا فَسادًا وَالْعَافِيَةُ}

This (Jannah) is the Home of the Aakhirah, which We shall assign to those who do not desire pomp (glory) on earth nor corruption. The (best) outcome shall be for those with Taqwa. {Surah Qasas, verse 83}

Allah also says:

\text{`أَلْيَسَ فِى جَهَنَّمَ مَثْوَى لِلْمَتَكَبِّرِينَ}

Is there not an abode (a place to live) in Jahannam for the arrogant?

{Surah Zumar, verse 60}

Rasulullaah ﷺ then continued, 'The term is coming to an end. The time has come to return to Allah, to the Sidratul Muntahaa (1), to Jannatul Ma’waa (2), to glasses filled to the brim and to the Highest Companion (Allah).'

"Who shall bathe you then, O Rasulullaah ﷺ?" the Sahabah enquired. Rasulullaah ﷺ replied, "The men of my family who are closest in relation, together with those who are closest after them." "In what shall we shroud you?" they enquired further. Rasulullaah ﷺ replied, "In the clothing I am wearing. Otherwise, if you wish, you may shroud me in a Yemeni shawl or in white Egyptian sheets." "Which of us should then lead the Janaazah salaah," was the

(1) The Arabic word "Sidrah" means a lotus or a jujube tree. "Muntahaa" means the 'limit' or 'apex' i.e. a point beyond which there is nothing more. The "Sidratul Muntahaa" is therefore a tree at which everything stops. Whatever deeds ascend to the heavens first stop at the "Sidratul Muntahaa" before proceeding further and all commands descending to earth also stop there before descending further.

The Sahabah and Rasulullaah then burst out crying. Rasulullaah said, "Take it easy. May Allah forgive you all and grant you the best of rewards on behalf of His Nabi. After you have bathed me and placed me on my bed in a corner of my room that will be my grave, then leave me alone for a while because the first to perform the (Janaazah) salaah for me shall be my friend (the archangel) Jibra'eel. After him shall be Mika'eel, followed by Israafeel, then the angel of death with his army and then all the angels. May Allah shower His blessings on all of them. You should then enter in groups to perform the salaah and to greet me. You should however not allow any wailing woman to come to me nor any woman who is screaming and raising her voice. The first to perform the salaah should be the men of my family and then the rest of you afterwards. Accept my reply to your greetings of Salaam and convey my greeting of Salaam to all my brothers who are not present and to every person who enters the fold of your Deen after my demise. I make you witness to the fact that I am conveying my Salaams to him and to every other person following me in my Deen from this day until the Day of Qiyaamah."

The Sahabah then asked, "Which of us should place you in your grave, O Rasulullaah?" Rasulullaah replied, "The men of my family together with a large host of angels who will be able to see you without you being able to see them." (1)

The Demise of Rasulullaah

The Incident of his Demise and the Statements of Hadhrat Abu Bakr and Hadhrat Umar

Hadrat Yazeed bin Baabnoos says, "A friend and I once went to Hadrat Aa'isha and sought permission to enter. She threw us some cushions and then concealed herself behind a screen (before allowing us in). 'What do you have to say about Araak, O Ummul Mu'mineen?' my friend asked. 'What is Araak?' she asked. When I struck my friend on the shoulder (to bid him not to ask about it), Hadrat Aa'isha said, 'Do not do that for you have hurt your brother.' She then proceeded to ask, 'What is Araak? Is it about menstruation (that you wish to know about, whether a man can touch his wife when she is menstruating?). You should practise what Allah has mentioned in the Qur'aan about menstruating women. Rasulullaah used to embrace me and kiss my head with only a sheet between us when I was menstruating.'"

Hadrat Aa'isha then went on to say, "It was the practice of Rasulullaah to tell me something of benefit every time he passed by my door. However, one day he passed my door two or three times without saying anything. I then told my maidservant to place a pillow at the door and I tied a bandage around my head (pretending to be ill to get Rasulullaah’s attention). When Rasulullaah passed by (and saw me lying there), he asked, 'Dear Aa’isha! What is the matter?’ ‘My head is paining,’ I responded. ‘I too have severe pain in my head,’ he replied. He then left and it was not long when he came to me carrying a blanket with him. He entered my room and then sent a message to his other wives saying, ‘I am ill and am unable to come to all of you. Do permit me to stay with Aa’isha.’ (With the permission of the others) I then started to nurse Rasulullaah whereas I had never nursed anyone else before him.

Rasulullaah’s head was on my shoulder one day when it turned towards me. I thought that Rasulullaah wanted to kiss me when a drop of cold saliva dropped from his mouth. When it fell on the back of my neck, my entire body started to shiver. Thinking that he had fallen unconscious, I covered him with a sheet. Umar and Mughiera then arrived and sought permission to enter. I gave them permission and then pulled over my veil. Umar looked at Rasulullaah and said, ‘O dear! Rasulullaah is unconscious! What a deep coma he seems to be in.’ The two men then stood up. When they were near the door, Mughiera said, ‘O Umar! Rasulullaah has passed away.’ ‘Never!’ exclaimed Umar, ‘You are always making statements that cause trouble! Rasulullaah will never pass away until Allaah has obliterated the Munaafiqeen.’

Hadhrat Aa’isha continues, ‘(My father) Abu Bakr then arrived and I lifted my veil. He looked at Rasulullaah and exclaimed, ‘Innaa Lillaahi wa Innaa Ilayhi Raaji’oon! Rasulullaah has passed away.’ He went to Rasulullaah from the headside, bowed his head and kissed Rasulullaah’s forehead. He then said, ‘O dear Nabi!’ Thereafter, he raised his head and again lowered his mouth to kiss Rasulullaah’s forehead, saying, ‘O my chosen friend!’ For the third time he then raised his head and again lowered his mouth to kiss Rasulullaah’s forehead, saying, ‘O my bosom friend! Rasulullaah has passed away.’

Hadhrat Abu Bakr then went to the Masjid where Hadhrat Umar was busy lecturing the people saying, ‘Indeed Rasulullaah shall never pass away until Allaah destroys the Munaafiqeen.’ Hadhrat Abu Bakr then addressed the people. After duly praising Allaah, he said, ‘Allaah says:

Muhammad ﷺ is but a Rasool (of Allaah). Indeed many Rusul have passed before him. If he passes away or is martyred, would you (Muslims) then turn back on your heels (and forsake Islaam)? He who turns back on his heels can never harm Allaah in the least (because he will be harming only himself). Allaah shall soon reward the grateful ones (so be firm and strive for His Deen). {Surah Aal Imraan, verse 144}

He then proceeded to say, "Whoever worships Allaah should know that Allaah is Alive and shall never die. Whoever worshipped Muhammad ﷺ should know that Muhammad ﷺ has passed away." Astonished, Hadhrat Umar ﷺ asked, "Are those verses really in the Qur’aan? O people! This is Abu Bakr and he is the highest achiever amongst the Muslims. Pledge your allegiance to him.”

The Burial of Rasulullaah ﷺ

The Narration of Hadhrat Ali ﷺ

Hadhrat Ali bin Abi Taalib ﷺ narrates that when they (the family of Rasulullaah ﷺ) started the burial preparations for Rasulullaah ﷺ, they locked the door and did not allow anyone in. While the Ansaar shouted, "We are the maternal relatives of Rasulullaah ﷺ and have a high standing in Islaam!" the Quraysh shouted, "We are his paternal relatives!" Hadhrat Abu Bakr ﷺ then shouted saying, "O assembly of Muslims! Every family has a greater right to the burial of their family members than others do. We therefore plead to you in the name of Allaah (not to enter) because if you enter, you will be pushing back others (those who are entitled to enter). By Allaah! None should enter besides those who are called."

A narration of Hadhrat Ali bin Husayn states that the Ansaar shouted, "We have a right (to arrange the burial) because Rasulullaah ﷺ is the son of our sister and because we have a high standing in Islaam." When they lodged their request with Hadhrat Abu Bakr ﷺ, he said, "A family has the greatest right to members of their family. You may put the request to Ali ﷺ and Abbaas ﷺ because none may enter the room besides those whom they permit." (2)

The Narration of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas ﷺ in this Regard

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas ﷺ reports that Hadhrat Aa’isha ﷺ and Hadhrat Hafsah ﷺ were with Rasulullaah ﷺ when his illness grew severe. When Rasulullaah ﷺ saw Hadhrat Ali ﷺ enter the room, he lifted his head and said, "Come closer. Come closer." Hadhrat Ali ﷺ let Rasulullaah ﷺ lean against him and remained with Rasulullaah ﷺ until he passed away. When Rasulullaah ﷺ passed away, Hadhrat Ali ﷺ stood up and locked the door. Hadhrat Abbaas and the members of the Banu Abdul Muttalib family came and stood (guard) at the door.

(Addressing Rasulullaah) Hadhrat Ali said, "May my parents be sacrificed for you! You were so pure in life and now so pure in death." There wafted from the body of Rasulullaah an extremely wonderful fragrance that people had never smelt before. Hadhrat Abbaas then said to Hadhrat Ali, "What is happening here? Leave all that weeping like women do. Pay attention to your leader (Rasulullaah)." Hadhrat Ali then asked for Hadhrat Fadhl bin Abbaas to be brought to him (to assist him). At this stage the Ansaar requested, "We plead to you in the name of Allaah and by the affinity we have with Rasulullaah (that you allow one of us to be part of the burial preparations)." Hadhrat Ali and those with him allowed in an Ansaari called Hadhrat Awsbin Khowlay who carried a bucket of water in one hand. (Before starting the bathing) They heard a voice in the house saying, "Do not remove Rasulullaah's clothing. Bathe him as he is in his clothing."

Hadrath Ali then washed Rasulullaah by placing his hand beneath the clothing as Hadhrat Fadhl held the clothing up and the Ansaari brought the water. Hadhrat Ali wore a cloth over his hand (as a glove) as he placed his hand beneath the clothing. (1)

The Janaazah salaah for Rasulullaah

The Narration of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas

Hadrath Abdullaah bin Abbaas narrates that when Rasulullaah passed away, groups of men were let into the room and they performed the Janaazah salaah individually without anyone being the Imaam. When all the men were finished, the women were let in to perform the Janaazah salaah, followed by the children and then the slaves. None of the groups were led by an Imaam. (2)

The Narration of Hadhrat Sahl bin Sa'd

Hadrath Sahl in Sa'd says that after Rasulullaah was shrouded in the burial shroud, he was placed on a bed, which was then placed in the corner of the room. The people then entered the room in groups (to perform the Janaazah salaah) without anyone leading them in the salaah. (3)

Hadrath Moosa bin Muhammad bin Ibraheem says that he found a book in which his father had written that after Rasulullaah was shrouded in the burial shroud, he was placed on a bed. Hadrath Abu Bakr and Hadrath Umar then entered the room together with as many Muhajireen and Ansaar as could fit in the room. The two men said:

السلام علىكم أيها النبي ورحمة الله وبركاته

The other Muhaajireen and Ansaar also greeted Rasulullah  as Hadhrat Abu Bakr  and Hadhrat Umar  did. They then formed rows without any of them being the Imaam. Standing in the first row in front of Rasulullah , Hadhrat Abu Bakr  and Hadhrat Umar  said, "O Allaah! We testify that Rasulullah  conveyed whatever was revealed to him. He was a well-wisher of the Ummah who strove in the path of Allaah until Allaah gave honour to His Deen, His Words (Deen) was completed and belief was established in the One Allaah Who has no partner. O Allaah! Make us people who follow the guidance revealed to him and allow us to meet him again with him recognising us and us recognising him. He was indeed most forgiving and most merciful unto the Mu'mineen. We seek no worldly recompense for believing in him and shall never sell our Imaan in him for any price." The other Sahabah  said, "Aameen! Aameen!" They then left and another group entered. After all the men had completed, the women entered, followed by the children. (1)

The Narration of Hadhrat Ali **

Hadhrat Ali  narrates that when Rasulullah  was placed on a bed, he said to the people, "None shall be the Imaam (to lead the Janaazah salaah) because Rasulullah  is the Imaam while alive and after his demise. The people then started entering (the room) in groups and performed the salaah in rows without any of them being the Imaam. They all said "Allahu Akbar" as Hadhrat Ali  stood directly in front of Rasulullah  and said:

"السلام علیک أيها النبي ورحمة الله وبركاته"

"Peace be on you, O Nabi  together with the mercy of Allaah and His blessings."

He then continued, "O Allaah! We testify that Rasulullah  conveyed whatever was revealed to him. He was a well-wisher of the Ummah who strove in the path of Allaah until Allaah gave honour to His Deen and His Words (Deen) was completed. O Allaah! Make us people who follow the guidance revealed to him, keep us steadfast and allow us to meet him again" The other Sahabah  said, "Aameen!" After all the men had completed, the women did the same, followed by the children. (2)

Sahabah were all whispering to each other. Hadhrat Abu Bakr instructed his slave to listen to what they were saying and report back to him. The slave reported that he overheard the Sahabah saying that Rasulullah had passed away. Hadhrat Abu Bakr then hurried as he said, "O dear! My back has been broken!" (He was so overcome with grief that) The Sahabah thought that he would not even make it to the Masjid, but he did. (1)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas narrates that on the day Rasulullah passed away, Hadhrat Abu Bakr Siddeeq emerged (from Rasulullah's room) as Hadhrat Umar was busy addressing the Sahabah. He told Hadhrat Umar to be seated and after duly praising Allaah, he said, "Whoever worshipped Muhammad should know that Muhammad has passed away. On the other hand, whoever worships Allaah should know that Allaah is Alive and shall never die. Verily Allaah states:

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas says, "By Allaah! (Because they were so overcome with grief) It was as if the people never knew that such a verse was ever revealed until Hadhrat Abu Bakr recited it. They all took it from Hadhrat Abu Bakr and every one of them was reciting it. Hadhrat Umar bin Khattaab said, 'By Allaah! No sooner did I hear Abu Bakr recite the verse when my legs collapsed beneath me and were unable to carry me. I then fell to the ground when I heard it for I was then convinced that Rasulullah had definitely passed away."(2)

The Grief of Hadhrat Uthmaan

Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Affaan says, "When Rasulullah passed away, the Sahabah were so grieved that some of them even started having false thoughts (that Islaam had come to an end). I was also amongst those who were deeply grieved and was once sitting on one of the hills of Madinah when Umar passed by me without me even noticing that he had passed. By then, people had already pledged their allegiance to Abu Bakr. Umar ..."

proceeded immediately to Abu Bakr and said, 'O Khalifah of Rasulullaah! I have some shocking news for you! When I passed by Uthmaan and greeted him, he did not even reply.' The rest of the narration shall soon be quoted in the chapter concerning greeting. (1)

The Grief of Hadhrat Ali

Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Sa'eed bin Yarboo narrates that Hadhrat Ali bin Abi Taalib one day had his face covered and was extremely grieved. "I notice that you are deeply grieved," enquired Hadhrat Abu Bakr. Hadhrat Ali replied, "Such grief has overcome me that has not befallen you." To this Hadhrat Abu Bakr said, "Look at what he is saying! I ask you in the name of Allaah to tell me whether any other person is more grieved about the demise of Rasulullaah than I am?" (2)

The Weeping of Hadhrat Ummu Salamah

Hadhrat Ummu Salamah says, "When we (the wives of Rasulullaah) gathered together and were weeping (over the demise of Rasulullaah), we did not have a wink of sleep. (The blessed body of) Rasulullaah was still in our rooms and we consoled each other every time we saw him lying on the bed. When we suddenly heard the sounds of shovels (digging Rasulullaah's grave) just before dawn, we started crying (out of grief) and the people in the Masjid also started crying. This caused all of Madinah to shudder. When Bilaal called out the Fajr Adhaan and took the name of Rasulullaah (as he said), he burst out crying. This added to our grief and the people started going towards the grave. The door was however locked to them. O what a calamity it was! Every calamity that befell us afterwards paled into insignificance when we thought about the calamity of Rasulullaah's demise." (3)

The Wailing of the people of Madinah

Hadhrat Abu Dhu'ayb Hudhali says, "When I arrived in Madinah, the wailing of the people of Madinah pulsed like the calls of 'Labbaik' from people performing Hajj pulsates. 'What is the matter?' I enquired. They then informed me that Rasulullaah had passed away." (4)

The Condition of the Sahabah in Makkah when they Heard about Rasulullaah's Demise

the Masjid burst out crying. Hadhrat Attaab left Makkah and went to one of the valleys of Makkah. Hadhrat Suhayl bin Amr approached him and told him to address the people. "I cannot speak after the demise of Rasulullaah," replied Hadhrat Attaab. Hadhrat Suhayl said, "Then come with me and I shall do it for you." They left and when they came to the Masjidul Haraam, Hadhrat Suhayl stood up to address the people. After duly praising Allaah, he delivered a lecture that was identical to the one that Hadhrat Abu Bakr gave the people (in Madinah). In fact, when Hadhrat Suhayl was a captive of the Battle of Badr, Rasulullaah said to Hadhrat Umar, "What makes you want to extract his front teeth? Leave him alone because Allaah shall perhaps place him on a platform that would bring you great pleasure." The platform Rasulullaah referred to was this one by which the authority of Hadhrat Attaab was consolidated over Makkah and neighbouring areas.

The Condition of Hadhrat Faatima

Hadrath had Abu Ja'far says, "After the demise of Rasulullaah, I never saw Faatima laugh. All I saw was her mouth extend on one side (as she smiled)."

What the Sahabah Said When Rasulullaah Passed Away

The Statement of Hadhrat Abu Bakr: "Today we have Lost Revelation"

Hadrat Is'haaq reports that when Rasulullaah passed away, Hadhrat Abu Bakr said, "Today we have lost revelation and speech from Allaah." (3)

The Statement of Hadhrat Ummu Ayman Concerning the Loss of Revelation

Hadrat Anas reports that when Rasulullaah passed away, Hadhrat Ummu Ayman wept bitterly. When asked what made her weep so bitterly about the demise of Rasulullaah, she replied, "I always knew that Rasulullaah would soon pass away, but what makes me weep is that revelation has now been lifted from us." (4)

Hadrat Anas also reports that after the demise of Rasulullaah, Hadhrat Abu Bakr once said to Hadhrat Umar, "Come with me to visit Ummu Ayman". When they came to her, she started weeping. They consoled her saying, "What makes you weep? What is with Allaah is better for Rasulullaah." She replied, "By Allaah! I am not weeping because I do not know that what Allaah has with Him is better for Rasulullaah ﷺ. I am weeping because revelation from the heavens has been terminated." This statement made both men start weeping. (1)

Another narration states that when Rasulullaah ﷺ passed away, Hadhrat Ummu Ayman ﷺ wept bitterly. When asked what made her weep, she replied, "What makes me weep is that news from the heavens has now been terminated." (2)

A narration of Hadhrat Moosa bin Uqba quotes Hadhrat Ummu Ayrnan as saying, "I am weeping because the news from the heavens used to come to us in large quantities and fresh from the heavens every day and night. This has now been terminated and lifted. It is only this that makes me weep." This statement greatly surprised the people. (3)

The Statement of Hadhrat Ma'n bin Adi ﷺ

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ﷺ reports that when Rasulullaah ﷺ passed away, the people wept bitterly and said, "We wished that we would pass away before Rasulullaah ﷺ for we fear that we will be facing great tribulations after him." To this, Hadhrat Ma'n bin Adi ﷺ said, "on the contrary, I swear by Allaah that rather than wishing to die before Rasulullaah ﷺ, I wish to believe in him after his demise just as I did during his lifetime." (4)

The Statement of Hadhrat Faatima the Daughter of Rasulullaah ﷺ

Hadhrat Anas ﷺ reports that when Rasulullaah ﷺ fell seriously ill, Hadhrat Faatima ﷺ bemoaned, "O! The pain my father is suffering!" Rasulullaah ﷺ then said to her, "Your father will suffer no pain after this day." After Rasulullaah ﷺ passed away, she said, "O my dear father! His Rabb really accepted his supplication. O my dear father! Jannatu Firdous (5) has become his abode! O my dear father! Jibra'eel has informed us of his demise." After Rasulullaah ﷺ was buried, Hadhrat Faatima ﷺ said, "O Anas! How did your hearts allow you to throw sand over Rasulullaah ﷺ?" (6)

Another narration quotes that Hadhrat Faatima ﷺ said, "O Anas! How did your hearts allow you to return after burying Rasulullaah ﷺ in the sand?" Hadhrat Hammaad says that whenever Hadhrat Thaabit related this narration, he sobbed so much that his ribs heaved. (7)

The Couplets of Hadhrat Safiyya the Aunt of Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Urwa reports that Hadhrat Safiyya bint Abdul Muttalib recited a few couplets in memory of Rasulullaah. (The meaning of these couplets are):

"My heart grieves and I have spent the night like he who has lost everything
I have stayed awake all night like the one whose every possession has been looted
It is all because of my grief and remorse that I cannot sleep
If only I were also given the cup of death to sip from
When they said that there came to Rasulullaah
The destined moment of death
When we came to the family of Muhammad
The hairs on our neck turned white (with grief)
When we saw his rooms had become deserted
After him there was none there to live the life of a stranger
Because of this, a deep grief has come to me
Mixing in my heart, filling it with fear"

Hadhrat Safiyya also recited the following couplets (which means):

"Do listen, O Rasulullaah! You had been the one to give us ease
You had been good to us and never harsh
Our Nabi had always been good and forgiving towards us
Today everyone who wishes to weep should respond
By my life! It is not because of his death that I weep for my Nabi
It is rather because of the hardships that are to come after him
Because of the loss of Muhammad
And because of the love for him, my heart has been branded by a hot iron
O Faatima! May the Rabb of Muhammad shower His special mercies
On the body that had taken up residence in Yathrib
I am looking at Hasan whom you have left as an orphan
Making him cry and call out for his grandfather who has gone so far
I am ready to sacrifice for Rasulullaah my mother, my aunt my uncle, myself and all of my near and dear families
You had endured much and conveyed the message with truth
You had left the world with the Deen firm, apparent and clear
Had the Rabb of the Throne kept you alive with us we would have been most fortunate, but His decision is final
May peace and greetings from Allaah be showered on you
As you are entered happily into the everlasting gardens"

"After you there shall be many distressing and difficult times the dangers of which would not be so much had you been there." (1)

Hadhrat Ghunaym bin Qais reports that he heard his father say some couplets after the demise of Rasulullaah. They were:

"Behold! I have been destroyed by the departure of Muhammad.
In his life did I find my rest and peace in which my nights were calm until the mornings." (2)

The Sahabah Weep as they Think of Rasulullaah

The Incident Between Hadhrat Umar and an Old Lady

Hadhrat Zaid bin Aslam narrates that Hadhrat Umar left the house one night to keep watch. When he saw a lantern burning, he went closer and found an old woman carding wool to be spun. She was reciting some couplets (which meant):

"May the salutations of all righteous people be showered on Muhammad.
May the chosen best people send their salutation to you (O Rasulullaah).
You had been regularly crying (in Ibaadah) before dawn but death has many ways and if only I knew.
Whether the Aakhirah will join me with my beloved (Rasulullaah).

Hadhrat Umar sat down and began weeping. He continued weeping until he was able to knock at her door. "Who is it?" she asked. When he replied that he was Umar bin Khattaab, she said, "What has Umar to do with me? What brings Umar at this hour?" Hadhrat Umar put her at ease saying, "Open the door. May Allaah have mercy on you. You are in no trouble." When she opened the door, Hadhrat Umar entered and requested, "Please repeat to me the words you just said." She then repeated the couplets. When she reached the closing words, Hadhrat Umar asked, "Do include me with you two." She then added, "And Umar, do forgive him, O Most Forgiving." Hadhrat Umar was happy and returned. (3)

How the Sahabah Hit Out Against Anyone who Reviled Rasulullaah

The Incident Between Hadhrat Gharfa Kindi ṣṣṣ. and Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas ṣṣṣ.

Hadrat Ka'b bin Alqama narrates that a Sahabi by the name of Hadhrat Gharfa bin Haarith Kindi ṣṣṣ. once heard a Christian reviling Rasulullaah ﷺ. Hadhrat Gharfa ṣṣṣ. hit the Christian and broke his nose. When the case was brought before Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas ṣṣṣ., he said (to Hadhrat Gharfa ṣṣṣ.), “We have entered into a treaty with them.” Hadhrat Gharfa ṣṣṣ. respond by saying, “Allaah forbid that we ever enter into a treaty with them permitting them to revile Nabi ﷺ! Our treaty with them says that we will not interfere with their churches and will allow them to say there what they wish. It also says that we will not charge them to do more than they can manage and that we will fight in their defence if an enemy attacks them. It says further that we will permit them to enforce their own laws unless they opt to abide by ours, in which case we will pass judgement between them based on the laws of Allaah and Rasulullaah ﷺ. We will also not prevent them if they wish to remain aloof from us.”

Hadrat Amr bin Al Aas ṣṣṣ. then said, "You are absolutely right." (3)

Hadrat Gharfa bin Haarith ṣṣṣ. was a Sahabi who fought with Hadrat Ikrama bin Abu Jahal ṣṣṣ. against the apostates in Yemen. He narrates that he once passed by a Christian in Egypt called Mundaqoon. When Hadrat Gharfa ṣṣṣ. invited the man to accept Islaam, the Christian started reviling Rasulullaah ﷺ. When Hadrat Gharfa ṣṣṣ. hit the Christian, the case was brought before Hadrat Amr bin Al Aas ṣṣṣ. Hadrat Amr ṣṣṣ. sent for Hadrat Gharfa ṣṣṣ. and said to him, "We have entered into a treaty with them." The rest of the narration is the same as the one quoted above. (4)

Another narration states that Hadrat Gharfa bin Haarith Kindi ṣṣṣ. was a Sahabi who once passed by a man with whom the Muslims had entered into a peace treaty. When Hadrat Gharfa ṣṣṣ. invited the man to accept Islaam, the man swore Rasulullaah ﷺ because of which Hadrat Gharfa ṣṣṣ. killed him. "These people were safe from us because of the treaty (how could you then kill him?)." Hadhrat Gharfa replied, "We did not enter into any treaty with them that permits them to injure us with regard to Allaah and His Rasool.

The rest of the narration is similar to the ones already quoted. (1)

Obeying the Instructions of Rasulullaah

Rasulullaah's Instructions are Obeyed during the Expedition to Nakhla

Hadhrat Urwa bin Zubayr narrates that Rasulullaah once dispatched Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Jahash on a expedition to a place called Nakhla. Rasulullaah's instructions were, "Stay there until you are able to bring us Intelligence about the Quraysh." Rasulullaah did not instruct him to engage the enemy. This occurred during one of the sacred months. Before informing him where he was to go, Rasulullaah had a letter written for him, and briefed him saying, "Proceed with your companions and open the letter only after you have travelled for two days. Read the letter and then proceed whence I have instructed you in the letter. You should also not force any of your companions to travel with you."

After travelling for two days, Hadhrat Abdullaah opened the letter, which read, "Proceed until you set up camp in Nakhla from where you should gather any intelligence that comes to you about the Quraysh." After reading the letter, Hadhrat Abdullaah said to his companions, "I hear and I obey. Whoever desired martyrdom should proceed with me because I intend fulfilling the instructions of Rasulullaah. Those who do not wish to do this may return because Rasulullaah has forbidden me from forcing any of you." They all marched with him. When they reached a placed called Buhraan, Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas and Hadhrat Uthba bin Ghazwaan lost the camel they had been sharing and had to fall behind to look for it. The rest of the group forged ahead until they set up camp in Nakhla.

It was then that Amr bin Hadrhami, Hakam bin Kaysaan, Uthmaan bin Abdullaah and Mughiera bin Abdullaah passed by them with merchandise of leather and raisins that they were bringing back from Ta'if. When this group of traders saw the Sahabah, it was Hadhrat Waaqid bin Abdullaah whom they saw staring at them. Because Hadhrat Waaqid happened to have his hair shaved off, the traders reasoned, "They have come to perform Umrah and we therefore have nothing to fear from them." It happened to be the last day of Rajab so the Sahabah urgently convened, saying to each other, "If we fight them today, we will be fighting them in a sacred month (during which the Arabs regarded fighting as forbidden) and if we leave them, they will be entering the precincts of the Haram by nightfall, because of which they will be protected from us (because no person can be attacked within the boundaries of the Haram)."

They therefore decided to attack.

(1) Ibn Asaakir.
Hadhrat Waaqid bin Abdullaah Tameemi shot an arrow at Amr bin Hadhrami and killed him. Uthmaan bin Abdullaah and Hakam bin Kaysaan were taken captive while Mughiera bin Abdullaah ran away and escaped. The Sahabah led the caravan away and brought it to Rasulullaah. Rasulullaah said to them, "By Allaah! I never instructed you to launch any attack during a sacred month." Rasulullaah then refrained from doing anything to the captives and the caravan and took nothing from it.

After Rasulullaah had told them what he did, these Sahabah became demoralised and thought that they were destroyed. Their Muslim brothers rebuked them and when the news reached the Quraysh, they began saying, "Muhammad has spilt blood during a sacred month. He has also usurped property during a sacred month, captured people and violated the sanctity of the month." It was then that Allaah revealed the following verse of the Qur'aan:

\text{بَلْ يَسْتَلَوْنَ عَيْنَيْنَ أَشْهُرَيْنَ الْحَرَامِ يُقَالُانَ فِيهِنَّ قَالُواَ فِيهِنَّ كَبِيرٌ وَصَدَّ عَنْ سَيْرِ الْلَّهِ}\\
\text{وَكَثَرَاهُ الْمَسْجِدُ الْحَرَامِ وَأَخْرَجَ أَهْلِهِ مِنْهُ أَكْبَرَ عَنْدَهُمْ وَالْفَتْنَةَ أَكْبَرَ مِنْ}\\

They question you (O Muhammad) about warfare in the sacred months (Dhul Qa'dah, Dhul Hijjah, Muharram and Rajab). Say, "Warfare in these months is a grave matter, but to prevent (others) from Allaah's way (from Islaam), to disbelieve in Him, (to prevent people from) the Masjidul Haraam and to expel (drive out) its people from it (as the Mushrikeen did to Rasulullaah and the Sahabah) is a far greater sin in the sight of Allaah. Corruption (especially kufr, Shirk and causing mischief in religion) is worse than killing." {Surah Baqara, verse 217}

This verse made it clear that committing kufr is a greater sin than killing. When the verse was revealed, Rasulullaah took the caravan and ransomed the two captives. The Sahabah (who had marched to Nakhla) asked, "(O Rasulullaah) Do you think that we will be rewarded for the expedition?"

Allaah then revealed the following verse with special reference to them:

\text{اللَّهُ وَاللَّهُ عَفَوُ رَحِيمٌ} (سَوْرَةَ بَقَارَةَ، آيَتُهُ ٢١٨)

Verily those who have Imaan, who migrate and who strive (exert themselves) in the way of Allaah (for Islaam), these have hope of Allaah's mercy (His rewards). Allaah is Most Forgiving, Most Merciful (Allaah will not deprive such people of the rewards they deserve). {Surah Baqara, verse 218}

The Sahabah (who were part of the expedition numbered eight with their commander Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Jahash being the ninth. (1)

(1) Bayhaqi (Vol.9 Pg.58). Abu Nu'aym and Tabari have also reported the narration, as quoted in Isaabah (Vol.3 Pg.228).
Hadrat Jundub bin Abdullaah narrates that Rasulullaah once dispatched an expedition with Hadrat Ubaydah bin Haarith as the commander. However, when they were leaving, he was overcome by his love for Rasulullaah and started weeping. Rasulullaah then dispatched a Sahabi called Hadrat Abdullaah bin Jahash in his place. Rasulullaah had a letter written for him and instructed him to read the letter only when he reached a certain place. He also received instructions not to force anyone to march with him. When he reached the specified destination, he read the letter and recited, "Innaa Lillaahi wa Innaa Ilayhi Raaji'oon". He then said, "I hear and obey the orders of Allaah and His Rasool."

While two of the Sahabah left the expedition, the others proceeded with him.

When they met with Ibn Hadhrami, they killed him, not knowing whether it was still the month of Rajab or whether it was Jumaadal Aakhirah (that had already started). When the Mushrikeen claimed that the Sahabah had killed him during a sacred month, Allaah revealed the verse:

(Surah Baqara, verse 217)

They question you (O Muhammad) about warfare in the sacred months (Dhul Qa'dah, Dhul Hijjah, Muharram and Rajab). Say, "Warfare in these months is a grave matter, but to prevent (others) from Allaah's way (from Islaam), to disbelieve in Him, (to prevent people from) the Masjidul Haraam and to expel (drive out) its people from it (as the Mushrikeen did to Rasulullaah and the Sahabah) is a far greater sin in the sight of Allaah. Corruption (especially kufr, Shirk and causing mischief in religion) is worse than killing." (Surah Baqara, verse 217)

Some Muslims then enquired, "Although what they did may have been alright, they will receive no reward for it." It was then that Allaah revealed the verse:

أَنَّ الَّذِينَ آمَنُواْ وَالَّذِينَ مَاتُواْ مُجَاهِدِيْنَ وَجَاهَدُواْ فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ أُلْبِيْكَ يُرَفُّ عَلَيْهِ وَاللَّهُ غَفُورٌ رَحِيمٌ

(1) He said this because he misinterpreted the instruction to mean that he was to attack the enemy during a sacred month.

(2) Bayhaqi (Vol.9 Pg.11). Ibn Abi Haatim has reported a similar narration, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihayyah (Vol.3 Pg.251).
Obeying the Instructions of Rasulullaah When Marching Against the Banu Qurayzah

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar reports that after the Battle of Ahzaab, Rasulullaah issued instructions (to the Sahabah) saying, "None of you should perform Asr salaah until he reaches the Banu Qurayzah." When the time for Asr arrived while some Sahabah were still on the way, some of them said, "We should not perform Asr until we reach the Banu Qurayzah." Others said, "We should perform our salaah (here on the road). Rasulullaah never meant this (that we should not perform the salaah on the road. He meant that we should hurry)." When this (difference of opinion) was reported to Rasulullaah, he did not rebuke either party. (1)

Hadhrat Ka'b bin Maalik narrates that after the Battle of Ahzaab, Rasulullaah returned home and wore his armour (for a second time after taking it off) and cleansed himself. A narration of Hadhrat Duhaaym adds that Rasulullaah said, "Jibra'eel descended from the heavens and said, 'Prepare your fighters for battle (against the Banu Qurayzah). Why do I see you removing your armour when we have not yet removed ours?'" Rasulullaah jumped up with a fright and emphatically instructed the Sahabah not to perform their Asr salaah until they reach the Banu Qurayzah. The Sahabah then wore their armour and left. They had not yet reached the Banu Qurayzah when the sun started to set. The Sahabah then started arguing. Some of them said, "Perform your salaah because Rasulullaah never intended that you miss your salaah." There were others who argued, "Rasulullaah issued emphatic orders that we should not perform our salaah until we reach the Banu Qurayzah. We shall therefore not be sinful for fulfilling the implicit instruction of Rasulullaah." A group of Sahabah therefore performed their salaah (en-route) with perfect belief (that they are doing what is right) and with the hope of being rewarded. The other group performed their salaah only when they set up camp in the area of the Banu Qurayzah. They then performed their salaah after sunset with perfect belief (that they are doing what is right) and with the hope of being rewarded. Rasulullaah did not rebuke either party. (2)

Obeying the Instructions of Rasulullaah During the Battle of Hunayn

Hadhrat Jaabir narrates that during the Battle of Hunayn when Rasulullaah saw the Sahabah dispersing (when caught by surprise), he instructed Hadhrat Abbaas to call for the Ansaar and those who pledged allegiance beneath the tree (at Hudaybiyyah). They all responded saying,

(2) Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.6 Pg.140) has commented on the chain of narrators. Bayhaqi has reported a similar but longer narration form Hadhrat Aa'isha, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Niihaayah (Vol.4 Pg.117).
"At your service! At your service!" In fact, even those who were unable to get their camels to turn (towards the call because the camels were too frightened), threw on their armours, grabbed their swords and shields and hurried (on foot) towards the call. Soon a hundred Sahabah had gathered around Rasulullaah. The enemy attacked them and the fight started.

While the first call had been for all the Ansar, a second was made for the Khazraj tribe in particular because they were unwavering in battle. Rasulullaah peered out to see his cavalry and when he saw that they were fighting in earnest, he said, "Now is the time to heat the pebbles."

Hadhrat Jaabir continues. He says, "By Allaah! The Sahabah had hardly returned to the battle when (the Kuffaar were already defeated and) prisoners were being marched to Rasulullaah. Allaah killed those Kuffaar who were to die and those destined to be defeated were defeated. Allaah then gave all the wealth and children of the enemy to Rasulullaah as booty." (1)

Another narration from Hadhrat Abbaas states that Rasulullaah instructed Hadhrat Abbaas to call for the men of the acacia tree (those who pledged allegiance beneath the tree at Hudaybiyyah). Hadhrat Abbaas says, "By Allaah! When they heard my voice, they returned to Rasulullaah just as a cow returned to her calves (when she senses that they are in danger). They were all calling out, 'Yaa Labbaika! Yaa Labbaika! (At your service! At your service!)" (2)

The Incident Between Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan and the Sahabah Concerning the Breach of the Treaty of Hudaybiyyah

Hadrat Ikrama reports that after Rasulullaah had entered into the treaty with the people of Makkah, the Banu Khuzaa'ah tribe who had been Rasulullaah's allies during the Period of Ignorance, opted to align with the Muslims in the treaty. On the other hand, the Banu Bakr tribe aligned themselves with the Quraysh. When hostilities erupted between the Banu Khuzaa'ah and the Banu Bakr tribes, the Quraysh assisted the Banu Bakr with arms and food. The Banu Bakr then launched an offensive against the Banu Khuzaa'ah, overpowered them and killed many of them. The Quraysh feared that they had breached the treaty and immediately said to Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan (who was then their leader), "Go to Muhammad and do your best to ensure that the treaty remains in place and that reconciliation takes place."

Hadrat Abu Sufyaan therefore left and arrived in Madinah. Rasulullaah said (to the Sahabah), "Abu Sufyaan has come to you. He shall soon return happy but without achieving his objective." Hadrat Abu Sufyaan went to Hadrat Abu Bakr and said, "O Abu Bakr! Let the treaty remain in place and reconcile between the people." Hadrat Abu Bakr replied, "The matter does not rest with me. It rests with Allaah and His Rasool ﷺ." Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan ﷺ then approached Hadhrat Umar ﷺ with the same request he had placed before Hadhrat Abu Bakr ﷺ. Hadhrat Umar ﷺ said, "You have yourselves breached the treaty. May Allaah now make any new treaty old and sever any treaty that is firm." Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan ﷺ remarked, "To this day I have never seen anyone so antagonistic against his own people as you are."

Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan ﷺ then approached Hadhrat Faatima ﷺ and said, "O Fatima! Do you wish to do something by which you will become the leader of the women of your tribe?" He then placed to her the same request he placed before Hadhrat Abu Bakr ﷺ. She however made herself clear when she said, "The matter does not rest with me. It rests with Allaah and His Rasool ﷺ." Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan ﷺ then approached Hadhrat Ali ﷺ with the same request that he took to Hadhrat Abu Bakr ﷺ. Hadhrat Ali ﷺ said, "To this day I have never seen anyone as lost as you are. You are the leader of your people. You should go and keep the treaty intact (by not allowing the people to breach it) and reconcile between the people."

Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan ﷺ hit his one hand on the other and said, "I have already given some of the people protection from others." He then left and when he came to the people of Makkah, he informed them of what he had done. They said, "By Allaah! To this day we have never seen an ambassador like you! By Allaah! Neither have you come to us with news of a war so that we could take precautions nor have you brought news of a treaty so that we could feel safe."

The rest of the narration has already been quoted in the chapter discussing the conquest of Makkah. (1)

How the Sahabah ﷺ treated the Captives of Badr

Hadhrat Abu Azeez bin Umayr ﷺ who was the real brother of Hadhrat Mus'ab bin Umayr ﷺ says, "I was amongst the prisoners captured (by the Muslims) during the Battle of Badr. Rasulullaah ﷺ said (to the Sahabah ﷺ), "I emphatically command you to treat the prisoners well." I was with a group of Ansar and whenever the morning and afternoon meals were served, they ate dates only and gave me the wheat (bread) because of the instruction of Rasulullaah ﷺ (to treat us prisoners well)." The Incident of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Rawaaha ﷺ When he Hastened to Fulfil the Command of Rasulullaah ﷺ was delivering a sermon. "Do sit down," said Rasulullaah (during the course of his sermon). Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Rawaaaha immediately sat down where he was outside the Masjid and remained seated there until Rasulullaah had completed the sermon. When this was reported to Rasulullaah, he said to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Rawaaaha, "May Allaah increase your desire to obey Allaah and His Rasool." (1)

Hadhrat Aa'isha narrates that when Rasulullaah sat down on the pulpit one Friday, he said, "Do be seated." Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Rawaaaha heard the instruction of Rasulullaah and immediately sat down in the Banu Ghanam district. Someone reported to Rasulullaah, "O Rasulullaah! There is Ibn Rawaaaha who sat down where he was when he heard you tell the people to be seated." (2)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood Obeys the Command of Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Ataa reports that Rasulullaah was once delivering a sermon when he told the people to be seated. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood heard this instruction at the door and immediately sat down. Rasulullaah then said, "O Abdullaah! You may come inside." (3)

Hadhrat Jaabir reports that Rasulullaah had just stood up on the pulpit when he told the people to be seated. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood heard this instruction and immediately sat down at the door of the Masjid. When Rasulullaah saw him, he said, "Come in, O Abdullaah bin Mas'ood." (4)

A Dome is Demolished because Rasulullaah Disliked it

Hadhrat Anas narrates that they were once with Rasulullaah when he stepped out. Seeing a large dome, Rasulullaah asked, "What is this?" When the Sahabah informed him that it belonged to one of the Ansaar, Rasulullaah remained silent but kept it in mind. When the owner of the dome one day came to greet Rasulullaah amongst other people, Rasulullaah turned away from him. When this occurred several times, the man realised that Rasulullaah was angry and ignoring him. The man brought up the matter with his friends saying, "By Allaah! Rasulullaah has behaved strangely today." The others then told him that Rasulullaah (was angry with him because he) had seen his dome. The Sahabi then went out and demolished the dome to the ground.

(2) Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.51). Tabraani in his Awsat and Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.316) have reported a similar narration. Commentary on the chain of narrators has been mentioned by Haythami and also appears in Isaabah (Vol.2 Pg.306).
(3) Ibn Abi Shaybah, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.56).

On another day, Rasulullaah  again went out but did not see the dome. When he asked the Sahabah what had happened to it, they replied, "When the owner informed us that you had ignored him and we told him what the reason was, he demolished it." Rasulullaah  then remarked, "Take note! Every building is a curse for its owner except what is absolutely necessary." (1) A brief narration of Ibn Maajah states that when Rasulullaah  did not see the dome and asked about it, he was informed that the owner had demolished it because he had heard (that Rasulullaah  was displeased). Rasulullaah  then prayed, "May Allaah shower His mercies on him. May Allaah shower His mercies on him."

Burning A Red Shawl because Rasulullaah  Disliked it

Hadrat Abdullaah bin Amr bin Al Aas narrates that he was once wearing a red shawl when he was walking with Rasulullaah  in Aqaba Adhaakhir (a valley between Makkah and Madinah). Turning to him, Rasulullaah  asked, "What is this garment?" Realising that Rasulullaah  disliked it, Hadrat Abdullaah  went to his camp where the oven was being lit and threw the shawl into the oven. When he returned, Rasulullaah  asked him what had happened to the shawl. "I threw it in the oven," Hadrat Abdullaah  replied. Rasulullaah  said, "You could have given it to one of the ladies of your household." (2)

Hadrat Khuraym Cuts his Long Hair and Lifts his Lower Garment

Hadrat Sahl bin Hadhaliyyah Abshami narrates that Rasulullaah  once said to him, "Khuraym Asadi is an excellent man if it were not for his long hair and his garment hanging below his ankles." When this statement reached Hadrat Khuraym, he immediately cut his hair up to the middle of his ears and raised his lower garment up to the middle of his calves. (3)

Hadrat Kanani Gets off a Golden Throne in Obedience to the Command of Rasulullaah

Hadrat Juthaama bin Musaahiq bin Rabee bin Qais Kanani was Hadrat Umar's envoy to Heraclius (the emperor of Rome). He says, "I once sat on a throne (when visiting Heraclius) not knowing what it was. When I discovered that it was made of gold, I immediately got off. Heraclius laughed and said to me, 'Why did you get off that throne that we have honoured you with?' I replied, 'Because I heard Rasulullaah forbid (us) from using such things.'" (4)

The Narration of Hadhrat Raafi bin Khadeej

Hadhrat Raafi bin Khadeej says, "My uncle came home one day and said to me, 'Today Rasulullaah had forbidden us from something that has been very beneficial for you. However, obedience to Allaah and His Rasulullaah is even more beneficial for you...' The rest of the narration concerns hiring out property. (1)

The Incident of Hadhrat Muhammad bin Aslam

Hadhrat Muhammad bin Aslam bin Bujra belonged to the Banu Haarith bin Khazraj tribe and was a very old man. He reports about himself that he would often come to Madinah (from his village nearby) and then return home after doing what he needed to do at the marketplace. It was only after taking off his shawl (after returning home) that he would remember that he had not performed two Rakaahs salaah in the Masjid of Rasulullaah. He would say, 'By Allaah! I have not performed two Rakaahs salaah in the Masjid of Rasulullaah whereas Rasulullaah told us (the inhabitants of the nearby villages), 'Whichever of you comes to this town (Madinah) should never return home until he has performed two Rakaahs salaah in this Masjid (of mine).' He would then put on his shawl again and return to Madinah to perform the two Rakaahs salaah in the Masjid of Rasulullaah. (2)

The Incident of Hadhrat Fataa a Lady from the Ansaar

Hadhrat Mughiera bin Shu'ba reports, "I once proposed for the hand of a lady from the Ansaar. When I mentioned this to Rasulullaah, he asked, 'Did you see her?' When I informed him that I did not, he said, 'See her because it contributes towards love developing between the two of you.' I then went to her home and when I mentioned this to her parents, they just stared at each other. I then got up and left. The lady then sent for me and stood in the corner of her veiled room as she said, 'If Rasulullaah had commanded you to see me, then you may look, otherwise you have no permission to do so.' I then looked at her and we were later married. I have never married a woman whom I loved as much as her and whom I respected as much as her, although I have married seventy women." (3) was wearing exactly the same thing. Some people suggested to him, "O Abu Dharr! Why don't you take your slave's shawl and make up for yourself a complete set of clothing. You may then always give your slave something else to wear." Hadhrat Abu Dharr explained, "I once used bad language for a man (Hadhrat Bilaal) and because his mother was not an Arab, I also teased him for it." When he complained about me to Rasulullaah, Rasulullaah said, 'O Abu Dharr! You are a man who still has ignorance left in you. They (slaves) are your brothers over whom Allaah has given you some superiority. You should sell those of them who do not suit you and never punish the creation of Allaah.'

Another narration states that Rasulullaah said to Hadhrat Abu Dharr, "They are your brothers whom Allaah has placed in your custody. When Allaah has placed someone's brother in his custody, he should feed him what he eats, clothe him with what he wears and should not give him more work than he can bear. If he has to give him more work than he can manage, he (the master) should assist him." (2)

Being Stern with those who Oppose the Commands of Rasulullaah

The Incident Between Hadhrat Umar and Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf

Hadhrat Abu Salamah bin Abdur Rahmaan narrates that Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf once complained to Rasulullaah that he was getting too much of lice and therefore requested permission to wear silk garments. Rasulullaah granted him permission. After the demise of Rasulullaah and Hadhrat Abu Bakr, Hadhrat Umar was the Khalifah when Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf once came to him with his son Abu Salmah. Because Abu Salamah was wearing a silk garment, Hadhrat Umar asked, "What is this?" and then promptly put his finger into the collar and tore the garment right to the bottom. Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf protested, "Don't you know that Rasulullaah allowed me to wear silk?" Hadhrat Umar said, "He only permitted you because you complained of lice. It is however not permitted for others besides you." (3)

Another narration from Hadhrat Abu Salamah states that Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf once went to Hadhrat Umar with his son Muhammad who was wearing a silk garment. Hadhrat Umar stood up, caught hold of the collar of the garment and tore it. "May Allaah forgive you!" protested Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf, "You have frightened the boy and set his heart racing." Hadhrat Umar asked, "Do you allow them to

Tearing the Garments of Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed and Hadhrat Khaalid bin Sa'eed

Hadhrat Ibn Seereen reports that Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed once went to Hadhrat Umar wearing a silk garment. "What is this, O Khaalid?" enquired Hadhrat Umar. "What is wrong with it, O Ameerul Mu'mineen?" Hadhrat Khaalid asked, "Does Ibn Auf not wear this?" Hadhrat Umar replied, "Are you at all like Ibn Auf and do you have the problem he has? In the name of Allaah do I entreat every person in this room to grab hold of that part of the garment closest to him and to tear it until nothing is left of it." (2)

The narration has already passed in the chapter entitled "The Sahabah Place Hadhrat Abu Bakr Ahead for Khilaafah" that Hadhrat Khaalid bin Sa'eed bin Aas was in Yemen when Rasulullaah passed away. He arrived in Madinah a month after Rasulullaah's demise wearing a silken cloak. When he met Hadhrat Umar and Hadhrat Ali, Hadhrat Umar called out to the people, "Tear up his cloak! How can he wear silk when he is a Muslim man in times of peace?" The people then tore his cloak up. (4)

Hadhrat Umar Cuts Off Silk Buttons from a Garment

Hadhrat Abdah bin Abu Lubaabah reports that he was informed that Hadhrat Umar once passed a person in the Masjid. The man was performing salaah and wearing a green garment that had buttons of silk. Standing by his side, Hadhrat Umar said, "Lengthen your salaah as much as you please but I shall remain here until you complete." When he saw that the man had turned towards him (after completing the salaah), Hadhrat Umar said, "Show me your garment." Hadhrat Umar then took the garment and cut off all the silk buttons before giving it back to the man. (5)

therefore went to Hadhrat Uthmaan (to find out what to do), wearing a cloak, the collar and hem of which was decorated with silk. When I got there, Hadhrat Uthmaan had a man sitting with him. When the man saw me, he came up to me and started pulling at my cloak so that he could tear it up. Seeing this, Hadhrat Uthmaan told him to leave me alone and he did. Hadhrat Uthmaan then said, 'You people have been too quick (to start wearing silk).' I then proceeded to ask Hadhrat Uthmaan, 'O Ameerul Mu'mineen! My brother has passed away and made a bequest that a hundred Dinars should be donated in the path of Allaah. What do you instruct me to do?'

'Have you asked anyone else before coming to me?' enquired Hadhrat Uthmaan. When I replied that I did not, he said, 'Had you been to seek a ruling from anyone else before coming to me and if he had passed a ruling other than what I shall pass, I would have had you executed (for asking an ignorant person). When Allaah commanded us to accept Islaam, we all did so and (by Allaah's grace) are all Muslims. Allaah then commanded us to make Hijrah so we made Hijrah and are all Muhaajireen and residents of Madinah. Allaah then commanded jihaad and when you people waged jihaad, you became Mujaahideen and residents of Shaam. Spend the money on yourself, on your family and on the needy ones around you (relatives and neighbours). If you take a Dirham and buy some meat for yourself and your family to eat (when necessary), you will have the reward of seven hundred Dirhams recorded to your name.' I then left him.

When I made enquiries about the man who was wrestling my cloak from me, I was informed that he was Hadhrat Ali bin Abi Taalib. I then visited him at his home and asked him what he saw me do wrong. He replied, 'I heard Rasulullaah say, 'It will not be long before my Ummah legalises for themselves fornication and silk.' This is the first time that I have seen silk being worn by any Muslim.' I then left him and proceeded to sell the cloak." (1)

Hadhrat Umar Lashes his Governor

Hadhrat Qudaamah who was the Maternal Uncle of Hadhrat Hafsah

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Aamir bin Rabee'ah narrates that Hadhrat Umar appointed Hadhrat Qudaamah bin Madh'oon as governor of Bahrain. Hadhrat Qudaamah also happened to be the maternal uncle of Hadhrat Umar's two children Hadhrat Hafsah and Hadhrat Abdullaah. It then occurred that Hadhrat Jaarood who was the leader of the Abd Qais tribe one day arrived from Bahrain and went to Hadhrat Umar. He said, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! Qudaamah drank something and was intoxicated. Because I have seen something that deserves the penalty of Allaah, it is my duty to report it to you." "Who is there to testify with you?" enquired Hadhrat Umar. When Hadhrat Jaarood replied that Hadhrat Abu

(1) Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.8 Pg.57).
Hurayrah was also a witness, Hadhrat Umar sent for him. "What have you seen?" Hadhrat Umar asked Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah replied, "Although I did not actually see him drink anything, I did see him in a state of intoxication and vomiting." Hadhrat Umar remarked, "You are very precise in your testimony."

Hadhrat Umar then wrote to Hadhrat Qudamaah to come to him from Bahrain. When Hadhrat Qudamaah arrived, Hadhrat Jaarood said, "Enforce Allaah's penalty on him." "Are you a plaintiff or a witness?" Hadhrat Umar asked. "I am a witness," Hadhrat Jaarood replied. "Then you have already rendered your affidavit." Hadhrat Umar reminded him.

Hadhrat Jaarood kept quiet but returned to Hadhrat Umar the next morning to demand that the penalty be enforced. Hadhrat Umar said to him, "To me you seem to be a plaintiff and have but only one witness." "I am then telling you (to enforce the penalty) in the name of Allaah!" Hadhrat Umar cautioned him saying, "Do control your tongue before I have to punish you!" Hadhrat Jaarood commented, "O Umar! It is wrong for you to punish me when it is your cousin who has drunk wine." Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah then spoke saying, "O Amiirul Mu'mineen! If you doubt our testimony, send for the daughter of Waleed and ask her. She is Qudamaah's wife."

Hadhrat Umar then sent for Hind bint Waleed and asked her to testify in the name of Allaah. When she testified against her husband, Hadhrat Umar said to Hadhrat Qudamaah, "I will be having you lashed." "If I did drink as you claim," Hadhrat Qudamaah argued, "you have no right to have me lashed." "Why is that?" asked Hadhrat Umar. Hadhrat Qudamaah replied, "Because Allaah states:

\text{لينَّ عَلَى الْذِّينَ يَعْمَلُونَ الْكَبْرَةِ جَنَّاتٌ} \\
\text{وَعَمَّلُوا الصَّلِيحَةَ ثُمَّ أَفْتَقُوا ثُمَّ أَفْتَقُوا أَحْسَنَّمَا} \\
\text{وَللهِ يُحْبِبُ الْمُحْسِنِينَ} \\
\text{سُورَةُ مَائِدَةُ آية١٠٣}

There is no sin on those who have Imaan and who do righteous acts for what they have eaten when they have adopted Taqwa (abstained from Haraam acts), had Imaan and performed good actions, then again adopted Taqwa and had Imaan; and again adopted Taqwa and performed good actions. Allaah loves those who do good." {Surah Maaida, verse 93}

Hadhrat Umar said to him, "You have misinterpreted the verse. Had you adopted Taqwa, you would have refrained from that which Allaah has forbidden." Hadhrat Umar then turned to the people and asked, "What do you say about having Qudamaah lashed?" The people replied, "We think that he should not be lashed as long as he is ill." Hadhrat Umar then let the matter rest until after a few days when he renewed his resolve to have Hadhrat Qudamaah lashed. Again he asked the people, "What do you say about having Qudaamah lashed?" The people replied, "We think that he should not be lashed as long as he is ill." This time, Hadhrat Umar \(\text{SAHABAH}\) said, "I prefer that he meets Allaah beneath the lash rather than me meeting Allaah with the responsibility of lashing him still on my shoulders. Bring me a strong whip." (When the whip was brought) Hadhrat Umar \(\text{SAHABAH}\) gave the instruction and Hadhrat Qudaamah \(\text{SAHABAH}\) was lashed.

Hadhrat Umar \(\text{SAHABAH}\) was then angry with Hadhrat Qudaamah \(\text{SAHABAH}\) and broke off ties with him. Hadhrat Umar \(\text{SAHABAH}\) and Hadhrat Qudaamah \(\text{SAHABAH}\) later both performed Hajj while Hadhrat Umar \(\text{SAHABAH}\) was still angry with Hadhrat Qudaamah \(\text{SAHABAH}\). When they were both returning from the Hajj, Hadhrat Umar \(\text{SAHABAH}\) camped at a place called Suqya, where he fell asleep. When he awoke, from his sleep, he said, "Bring Qudaamah to me quickly. By Allaah! Someone came to me in my dream saying, 'Reconcile with Qudaamah because he is your brother.' Bring him to me quickly." When the people went to Hadhrat Qudaamah \(\text{SAHABAH}\), he refused to go. Hadhrat Umar \(\text{SAHABAH}\) then instructed them to bring him by force. (When he arrived) Hadhrat Umar \(\text{SAHABAH}\) then spoke to him and sought Allaah's forgiveness for him. (1)

Hadrat Yazeed bin Ubaydullaah reports from some of his companions that Hadrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood \(\text{SAHABAH}\) once saw a man laughing at a funeral. Hadrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood \(\text{SAHABAH}\) said to him, "Are you laughing while you are at a funeral? By Allaah! I shall never speak to you again." (2)

The Fear of the Sahabah \(\text{SAHABAH}\) when An Instruction of Rasulullaah \(\text{SAHABAH}\) was Opposed

Hadrat Abu Hudhayfah \(\text{SAHABAH}\) Fears Something he said during the Battle of Badr

Hadrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas \(\text{SAHABAH}\) narrates that on the day the Battle of Badr of was fought, Rasulullaah \(\text{SAHABAH}\) said to the Sahabah \(\text{SAHABAH}\), "I know well that the men from the Banu Haashim were forced to march and have no desire to fight against us. Therefore, whoever confronts anyone from the Banu Haashim should not kill him. Whoever confronts Abul Bakhtari bin Hishaam bin Haarith bin Asad should not kill him and whoever of you confronts Abbaas bin Abdul Muttalib the uncle of Rasulullaah \(\text{SAHABAH}\) should also not kill him because he had been forced (to fight)." At this, Hadrat Abu Hudhayfah bin Utba bin Rabee'ah \(\text{SAHABAH}\) said, "Should we kill our fathers, our sons and our brothers and leave Abbaas? By Allaah! If I happen to confront Abbaas, I shall cut him to pieces with my sword."

When this reached Rasulullaah ﷺ, he asked Hadhrat Umar ﷺ, "O Abu Hafs! (Hadhrat Umar ﷺ says, "By Allaah! This was the first time that Rasulullaah ﷺ ever called me by the title of Abu Hafs") Will the face of Rasulullaah's uncle be smitten with a sword?" Hadhrat Umar ﷺ burst out, "O Rasulullaah ﷺ! Permit me to behead Abu Hudhayfah! By Allaah! He has certainly turned hypocrite!" Hadhrat Abu Hudhayfah ﷺ says, "I have never felt safe from those words I uttered that day. I am always fearful of their repercussions unless martyrdom washes its effects off." Hadhrat Abu Hudhayfah ﷺ was finally martyred during the Battle of Yamaamah. (1)

Hadrath Abu Lubaabah ﷺ Fears that he Betrayed Rasulullaah ﷺ and Repents

Hadrath Ma'bad bin Ka'b reports that the Muslims laid siege to the (Jewish) Banu Qurayzah tribe for fifteen days until the siege became too much for them to bear and Allaah cast fear into their hearts. Eventually their chief Ka'b bin Asad proposed to them that they either accept Imaan, launch a surprise attack that Saturday or kill their women and children and then go out to fight (so that they would have nothing to lose). However, they said, "We shall never accept Imaan, never violate the sanctity of the Saturday and what life will there be for us without our women and children?" They then called for Hadrath Abu Lubaabah bin Mundhir ﷺ who had been one of their allies (during the Period of Ignorance). When they conferred with him about surrendering to the command of Rasulullaah ﷺ, he passed his finger across his throat to indicate that they would all be killed. Thereafter, Hadrath Abu Lubaabah ﷺ bitterly regretted what he did and headed for the Masjid of Rasulullaah ﷺ where he tied himself to a pillar until Allaah accepted his repentance. (2)

Another narration from Hadrath Moosa bin Uqba states that the Banu Qurayzah asked, "O Abu Lubaabah! What is your opinion? What would you instruct us to do because we have no strength to fight?" Hadrath Abu Lubaabah ﷺ passed his finger across his throat to indicate to them that they were to be executed. However, when Hadrath Abu Lubaabah ﷺ left them, he deeply regretted his action and felt that a great tribulation had befallen him. He said, "By Allaah! I shall never be able to look Rasulullaah ﷺ in the face until I repent to Allaah so sincerely that He may tell others that it is from deep within me."

He then returned to Madinah where he bound his hands to a pillar of the Masjid. It is believed that he kept himself bound for close to twenty days. When Rasulullaah ﷺ did not see Hadrath Abu Lubaabah ﷺ (after the Jews had called or him), he asked, "Has Abu Lubaabah not finished with his allies?" When the incident was related to Rasulullaah ﷺ, he said, "A great trial has certainly afflicted him after he left me. Had he come to me (after making the mistake), I would have sought Allaah's forgiveness for him. However, since he has already done what he did (by tying himself to the pillar), I shall not move him from there until Allaah decides the matter as He pleases." (1)

The Fear of Hadhrat Thaabit bin Qais and the Glad Tidings Rasulullaah Gave him

Hadhrat Anas bin Maalik narrates that when Rasulullaah did not see Hadhrat Thaabit bin Qais for awhile, a Sahabi volunteered to make enquiries about him. When the Sahabi came to Hadhrat Thaabit bin Qais, he found him sitting in his house with head bent down. "What's the matter?" he asked. "Bad," replied Hadhrat Thaabit, "because I raise my voice above that of Rasulullaah, all my deeds are destroyed and I am amongst the inmates of Jahannam." (This he felt because of a verse of the Qur'aan referring to people who deliberately raise their voices above that of Rasulullaah). The Sahabi then reported back to Rasulullaah. Hadhrat Moosa bin Anas reports that the Sahabi returned a second time to Hadhrat Thaabit bin Qais with glad tidings from Rasulullaah. Rasulullaah instructed the Sahabi to inform Hadhrat Thaabit that far from being and inmate of Jahannam, he will be amongst the inhabitants of Jannah. (2)

The daughter of Hadhrat Thaabit bin Qais bin Shammaas narrates from her father that he became extremely worried when he heard the verse:

\[\text{"Verily Allaah detests every arrogant boaster." (Surah Luqmaan, verse 18)\}

He then locked himself in his house and started to weep. When Rasulullaah was informed about this, Rasulullaah called for him and he explained to Rasulullaah what it was that worried him. He said, "I am a man who loves beauty and to be the leader of my people." Rasulullaah reassured him saying, "You are not amongst those (arrogant and boastful) people. Your life shall be good, your death shall be good and Allaah shall enter you into Jannah." Hadhrat Thaabit then did the same thing when Allaah revealed the verse:

\[\text{O you who have Imaan! Never raise your voices above the voice of the Rasool (literally and figuratively) and do not speak to him loudly as you speak loudly with each other, lest your deeds be laid to waste without your realising it. (Surah Hujuraat, verse 2)\]

When Rasulullaah was informed about this, Rasulullaah again called for him and he explained to Rasulullaah what it was that worried him. He explained that he naturally had a loud voice and feared that his deeds should not be laid to waste. Rasulullaah again consoled him by saying, "In fact, you shall live a praiseworthy life, be killed as a martyr and Allaah shall enter you into Jannah." (1)

Hadhurat Muhammad bin Thabit Ansaari reports that Hadhrat Thabit bin Qais once said to Rasulullaah, "O Rasulullaah! I fear that I have been destroyed." When Rasulullaah asked him why he felt that way, he explained, "Whereas Allaah has prohibited us from liking to be praised for what we do not do, I seem to enjoy praise. Furthermore, whereas Allaah has prohibited us from pride, I find myself liking beauty and whereas Allaah has prohibited us from raising our voices above yours, I am a person with a loud voice." Rasulullaah said, "O Thabit! Would you not like to live a praiseworthy life, to be killed as a martyr and to enter Jannah?" "Certainly, O Rasulullaah!" Hadhrat Thabit responded. It then happened that Hadhrat Thabit lived a praiseworthy life and was killed as a martyr the day the Muslims fought Musaylama Kadhaab. (2)

Emulating Rasulullaah

The Sahabah Follow Rasulullaah in Salaah

Hadhurat Aa'isha narrates that Rasulullaah had a mat that he made into a room at nights to perform salaah (during Ramadhaan) and which he spread out during the day to sit on. The Sahabah then started flocking to Rasulullaah and performing salaah with him. When there were too many people, Rasulullaah turned to them and said, "O people! Adopt those actions that you are capable of carrying out (with consistency) because Allaah never tires (of giving rewards) until you tire yourselves. Indeed the most beloved deeds to Allaah are those that are consistent even though they may be little." Another narration adds that whenever the family (and close ones) of Muhammad started anything, they did it with consistency. (3)

The Sahabah Remove their Rings Because Rasulullaah Did

Hadhurat Anas bin Maalik reports that it was for only a single day that he saw Rasulullaah wearing a silver ring when the Sahabah started having rings made for themselves and wearing it. When Rasulullaah discarded his ring, the Sahabah did the same. (4) Another narration from Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar states that Rasulullaah wore a gold ring but then discarded it saying, "I shall never wear it again!" The Sahabah then discarded their rings. Hadhrat Uthmaan Emulates Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Salamah narrates that when the Quraysh sent Hadhrat Khaarijah bin Kurz to spy for them, he returned full of praise (for the Muslims). The Quraysh said to him, "You are a Bedouin. All they had to do to make your heart flutter (with awe) was to shake their weapons. You have no idea about what they said nor about what you are saying." They then sent Urwa bin Mas'ood. When Hadhrat Urwa came (to the Muslim camp), he said "O Muhammad! What is this new development? You invite towards the Being of Allaah and then with the riff-raff of various tribes some of whom you know and others you do not know, you come to your own people to severe family ties and to plunder their honour, their blood and their wealth?" Rasulullaah replied, "I have come to my people only to foster family ties and to give them a Deen and life better than their religion and their lives." Hadhrat Urwa then also returned full of praise.

However, the suffering of the Muslims living under the Mushrikeen (in Makkah) grew more intense. Rasulullaah therefore called for Hadhrat Umar and said, "O Umar! Will you (go to Makkah to) convey my message to your Muslim brothers who are prisoners?" "I am unable to do so, O Rasulullaah," Hadhrat Umar said, "for I have no family in Makkah (to offer me protection). There are others who have more family (in Makkah) than I have." Rasulullaah then summoned Hadhrat Uthmaan and sent him.

Hadhrat Uthmaan proceeded on his conveyance and was intercepted by some Mushrikeen soldiers who mocked him and addressed him with insulting words. It was then Hadhrat Uthmaan's cousin Abaan bin Sa'eed bin Al Aas who took Hadhrat Uthmaan in his custody and made him ride behind him on his saddle. Hadhrat Uthmaan went with him, wearing his lower garment halfway up his calves. Abaan asked, "Dear cousin! Why do I see you humble yourself so? Lower your garment." Hadhrat Uthmaan replied, "Such is the garment of our leader." Hadhrat Uthmaan then proceeded to convey Rasulullaah's message to every Muslim prisoner in Makkah.

It was while the Muslims were asleep during the afternoon (in Hudaybiyyah) that they heard Rasulullaah's announcer call out, "O people! Come pledge your allegiance! Come pledge your allegiance! The Ruhul Qudus (Hadhrat Jibra'eel) has descended!" The Sahabah hastened to Rasulullaah who was beneath an acacia tree, where they pledged their allegiance (to fight to the death). It is with reference to this that Allaah says:

\text{لاَفَعَّلُ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنِ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ إِذَا بِيَوْنَكُ تَحْتَ الْشَجَرَةَ (سُورَةُ فَتحٌ آيةٌ ۴۸)}

Allaah was well pleased with the Mu'mineen (the Sahabah) when they pledged their allegiance to you (O Rasulullaah) beneath the tree.... (Surah Fatah, verse 18)

Rasulullaah pledged allegiance on behalf of Hadhrat Uthmaan by placing his one hand over the other. The Sahabah said, "How fortunate for Abu Abdullaah (Hadhrat Uthmaan ﷺ) that he is able to perform Tawaaf of the Kabah while we are here." Rasulullaah ﷺ remarked, "Even if he had to remain there for years on end, he would not perform Tawaaf until I have performed Tawaaf." (1)

Another narration states that Abaan said, "Dear cousin! I see that you are humbling yourself. Why do you not let your garment fall below your ankles as your tribe does?" Hadhrat Uthmaan ﷺ replied, "This is how our leader wear his lower garment, halfway up his calves." Abaan then said, "Dear cousin! Perform Tawaaf of the Kabah." Hadhrat Uthmaan ﷺ replied, "We do nothing until our guide does it and then we follow in his footsteps." (2)

The Incident Between Hadhrat Abu Bakr ﷺ, Hadhrat Umar ﷺ and Hadhrat Zaid ﷺ

Concerning the Compilation of the Qur'aan

Hadhrat Zaid bin Thaabit ﷺ reports that Hadhrat Abu Bakr ﷺ once sent for him after the Battle of Yamaamah. With Hadhrat Abu Bakr ﷺ at the time was Hadhrat Umar ﷺ. Hadhrat Abu Bakr ﷺ said to Hadhrat Zaid ﷺ, "He (Hadhrat Umar ﷺ) has come and said, 'Many Huffaadh of the Qur'aan have been martyred in this battle of Yamaamah(3) and I fear that if all the other battles also take a heavy toll on the Huffaadh, the Qur'aan should not leave us. I have therefore decided that you should compile the Qur'aan (into a single manuscript).' 'How can we attempt to do something that Rasulullaah ﷺ never did?' I asked him. 'But it is an excellent thing,' he replied. Umar ﷺ then continued convincing me until Allaah put my heart at ease about the matter just as his heart was at ease. I now share Umar's opinion on the matter."

Hadhrat Zaid ﷺ narrates further, "Umar ﷺ was sitting there without saying a word. Abu Bakr ﷺ then continued, 'You are young and intelligent and we have no accusations to level against you. Furthermore, you used to write down the Qur'aan during the time of Rasulullaah ﷺ. You should therefore do the compilation.'"

Hadhrat Zaid ﷺ says, "By Allaah had they charged me with moving a mountain, it would not have been more difficult than the instruction to collect the Qur'aan (into one manuscript). I said, 'How can you do something that Rasulullaah ﷺ never did?' 'By Allaah!' said Abu Bakr ﷺ, 'the act is an excellent one.' Abu Bakr ﷺ then continued convincing me until Allaah put my heart at ease about the matter just as the hearts of Abu Bakr ﷺ and Umar ﷺ were at ease. I then shared their opinion on the matter. I then launched an intensive search for parts of the Qur'aan that had been preserved on paper, white stones, collar bones, palm leaves and the hearts of men. It was only with Khuzaymah bin Thaabit Ansaari that I could find (in writing) the closing verses of Surah Baraa'ah:

Undoubtedly a Rasool from yourselves has come to you (someone whose lineage, morals, manners and integrity you know well). The difficulties that afflict you are very distressing to him. He is anxious for (good to come to) you and extremely forgiving and merciful (gentle and kind) towards the Mu'mineen. If they turn away, then say, "Allaah is sufficient for me (even if the whole world turns against me). There is none worthy of worship besides Him. On Him only do I rely and He is the Rabb of the glorious Throne.". {Surah Taubah, 128-129}

The manuscript of the complete collected Qur'aan remained with Hadhrat Abu Bakr throughout his life until he passed away. It then remained with Hadhrat Umar throughout his life until he passed away. Thereafter, it remained with Hadhrat Hafsah the daughter of Hadhrat Umar.{1}

Hadrat Abu Bakr Dispatches the Army of Hadrat Usaama bin Zaid

The statement of Hadrat Abu Bakr has already passed in which he said, "I swear by the Being Who controls my life! I prefer falling from the sky rather than neglecting to fight for something for which Rasulullaah fought." Hadrat Abu Bakr then waged Jihaad against the Arabs (who had renounced islaam and those who refused to pay zakaah). {2}

Another narration states that Hadrat Abu Bakr said, "By Allaah! I shall certainly fight those who differentiate between salaah and zakaah (by performing Salaat while omitting zakaah) because zakaah is a right due from wealth. By Allaah! Should they refuse to give me (as part of the zakaah dues) even a rope that they used to give to Rasulullaah, I shall fight them for it." {3}

Another narration has also passed in which Hadrat Abu Bakr said, "I swear by the Being besides Whom there is none worthy of worship! Even though wild dogs should drag the legs of the wives of Rasulullaah (because there is none in Madinah to defend them), I shall never recall an army that Rasulullah had dispatched nor untie a flag that Rasulullah had tied." He then dispatched the army of Hadhrat Usaama. (1)

Yet another narration states that Hadhrat Abu Bakr said, "I swear by the Being Who controls the life of Abu Bakr! Even if I knew that wild animals would tear at my body (as a result), I would still dispatch the army of Usaama according to the commands of Rasulullah. I would do so even if I were to be the only person left behind in Madinah." (2)

Another narration from Hadhrat Urwa quotes that Hadhrat Abu Bakr said, "I have dared to do something extremely perilous! I swear by the Being Who controls my life! I prefer having all the Arabs turn against me rather than holding back an army that Rasulullah had dispatched. O Usaama! Proceed whence you have been commanded to march and then fight in the parts of Palestine and against the people at Mu'ta as Rasulullah had commanded you. Remember that Allaah is enough for those you are leaving behind." (3)

Hadhrat Hasan reports that Hadhrat Abu Bakr caught hold of the beard of Hadhrat Umar as he said, "May your mother lose you, O son of Khattaab! You are asking me to relieve him (Hadhrat Usaama) of a post to which Rasulullah appointed him?" This narration has already been quoted in detail. (4)

The Incident between Hadhrat Umar and his Daughter Hadhrat Hafsah Concerning Clothing and Food

Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqas reports that Hadhrat Hafsah once said to her father Hadhrat Umar, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! Why don't you wear clothing of a better quality than those you wear and eat food that is better than the food you eat? Allaah has now made food abundant and increased our wealth." Hadhrat Umar replied, "I shall have you prove the point against yourself. Do you recall the hard life that Rasulullah lived?" He then continued reminding her of this (Rasulullah's hard life) until he made her weep. He then said, "By Allaah! Now that you have admitted to that (the hard lives that Rasulullah and Hadhrat Abu Bakr led), I wish to share their hard lives with them as far as I am able to. In this way I shall perchance be able to join them in their lives of ease and comfort (in the Aakhirah)." (5)

The Incident of Hadhrat Umar when he was Presented with a New Garment

Hadhrat Abu Umaamah reports that Hadhrat Umar was once sitting amongst some friends when a cotton garment was brought. He started wearing it and had hardly pulled it over his collarbones when he recited:

dan yu dhul a'dhini kusaniy calculator" u a'wari yu 'aswani yu hafirmi haf "

"All praise is for Allaah Who has given me clothing to wear to cover my private areas and with which I can beautify myself during my lifetime."

He then turned to the people and said, "Do you know why I said these words?" They replied, "We will not know until you inform us." He explained, "I was once with Rasulullaah when he was brought a set of new clothing. He put it on and then said:

dan yu dhul a'dhini kusaniy calculator" u a'wari yu 'aswani yu hafirmi haf "

Thereafter, he added, 'I swear by the Being Who has sent me with the truth! When Allaah gives a Muslim new clothing to wear and only for the pleasure of Allaah he gives his old clothes to a poor Muslim to wear, he will be in the safety, protection and guardianship of Allaah as long as the (poor) person has even a thread of it on his body either while alive or dead.'"

Hadhrat Umar then stretched out his arms to see how much the garment overlapped his fingers. He then said to (his son) Hadhrat Abdullaah, "Dear son! Do bring the knife." Hadhrat Abdullaah stood up and brought the knife. Hadhrat Umar then stretched out the sleeves over his arms and cut off what he saw to overlap. Those around him asked, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! Should we not bring a tailor to stitch the ends?" "No," replied Hadhrat Umar. Hadhrat Abu Umaamah says that afterwards he saw the threads of the sleeves dangling haphazardly over Hadhrat Umar's fingers where he did not have it stitched. (1)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar reports, "(My father) Umar once wore a new upper garment and then asked me to bring a knife. He then said, "Dear son! Stretch the sleeves of my garment and hold firmly onto where my fingers are. Then cut off whatever overlaps my fingers." I then cut off the ends of both sleeves and (because I could not cut straight with the knife), the openings of the sleeves were unequal in length. I therefore said to him, 'Dear father! Why don't I cut them equally with a scissor?' 'Leave it, son,' he replied, 'because I have seen Rasulullaah do exactly the same.' The garment then remained on him in this manner until it eventually wore out. I would often see the threads falling over his foot." (2)

Statements of the Sahabah Concerning Kissing the Black Stone and Touching the Two Western Pillars of the Kabah

Hadrat Aslam narrates that Hadrat Umar  once addressed the Hajar Aswad (Black Stone) saying, "Behold! I swear by Allaah that I know well that you can neither cause benefit nor harm. Had I not seen Rasulullaah  kiss you, I would never have kissed you." After kissing it, he said, "Why should we perform Ramal? It was something that we did to show the Mushrikeen (that we have strength). Allaah has subsequently destroyed them (and we therefore have no need to continue it)! However, because it was something that Rasulullaah  did, we do not like to forsake it." (1)

A Sahabi  reports that he saw Rasulullaah  standing by the Hajar Aswad and saying, "I know well that you are a stone that can neither cause benefit nor do harm." Rasulullaah  then kissed it. Thereafter, when Hadrat Abu Bakr  performed Hajj, he also stood by the Hajar Aswad and said, "I know well that you are a stone that can neither cause benefit nor do harm. Had I not seen Rasulullaah  kiss you, I would have not done so." (2)

Hadrat Ya'la bin Umayyah  says, "I was performing Tawaaf with Hadrat Uthmaan . After kissing the Hajar Aswad, I was walking next to the Kabah. When we passed by the western pillar (called Rukn Iraqi) that comes after the Hajar Aswad, I pulled at Hadrat Uthmaan 's hand to touch it. 'What is the matter?' he asked. 'Are you not going to touch the pillar?' I asked. 'Did you not perform Tawaaf with Rasulullaah ?' he enquired. When I replied that I did, he asked, 'Did you see Rasulullaah touch any of the two western pillars of the Kabah (Rukn Iraqi and Rukn Shaami)?' 'No,' I replied. He then said, 'Do you then not have a perfect example in Rasulullaah ?' 'Most certainly,' I replied. He then bade me, 'Then leave it out and proceed.' (3)

The Incident between Hadrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas and a Bedouin

Hadrat Bakr bin Abdullaah narrates: that a Bedouin once asked Hadrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas , "Why is it that (on the occasion of Hajj) the family of Mu'awwiya gives people water and honey to drink, the family of another give milk while you people give only Nabeedh(4)? Is it because you people are stingy or because you are poor?" Hadrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas replied by saying, "It is neither because we are stingy nor because we are poor. However, Rasulullaah  once came to us with Usaama bin Zaid sitting behind him on the animal. When he asked for something to drink and we gave him this (Nabeedh) to drink, he drank it an said, "You have prepared it well. This is what Hadrat Ja’far bin Tammaam reports that a man once approached Hadrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas and asked, "Tell me about this Nabeedh from raisins that you give people to drink. Is it because of a Sunnah that you are following or do you find this more convenient for yourselves than giving milk and honey?" Hadrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas replied, "Indeed Rasulullaah once came to Abbaas who was busy giving the people Nabeedh to drink. When Rasulullaah asked for something to drink, Abbaas called for a few cups of Nabeedh and handed one over to Rasulullaah. After drinking, Rasulullaah remarked, 'You have it prepared well. This is what you should continue doing.' It therefore gives me no pleasure to be a means of giving people milk and honey in place of the statement Rasulullaah made when he said, 'You have prepared it well. This is what you should continue doing.”

Incidents About How Hadrat Abdullaah bin Umar Followed in the Footsteps of Rasulullaah

Hadrat Ibn Seereen narrates, "I was once with Hadrat Abdullaah bin Umar in Arafaat. When the people left, I left with him until we reached the Imaam and performed the Zuhr and Asr salaah behind him. My companions and I then stayed there with him until the Imaam left (for Muzdalifah after sunset). We left with Hadrat Abdullaah bin Umar and when we eventually reached a narrow place just before Ma’zamain, he made his animal sit. We also made our animals sit, thinking that he intended performing salaah. He however told us that it was at this place that Rasulullaah stopped to relieve himself and that he also wished to relieve himself there.”

Another narration states that Hadrat Abdullaah bin Umar used to go to a certain tree between Makkah and Madinah beneath which he would have his afternoon nap. He mentioned that (he did so because) Rasulullaah used to do that.

Hadrat Naafi narrates that Hadrat Abdullaah bin Umar was extremely particular about following in the footsteps of Rasulullaah. He would therefore note every spot where Rasulullaah performed salaah (during journeys) and (was so particular about this that) even if Rasulullaah ever dismounted beneath any tree, Hadrat Abdullaah bin Umar would care for the tree and pour water on its roots so that it should not dry up.

Hadrat Mujaahid says, "We once accompanied Hadrat Abdullaah bin Umar on a journey. When he passed by a certain place, he turned to the side of the road. When we asked him why he had done this, he replied, 'I saw Rasulullaah

Hadrat Naafi reports that Hadrat Abdullaah bin Umar used to turn his animal’s head while travelling the road to Makkah (to turn the animal in different directions). Turning the animal, he would say, "(I am doing) So that the footstep (of my animal) falls on the footstep (of Rasulullaah’s animal)." (2) Hadrat Naafi says, "If you had to see Hadrat Abdullaah bin Umar following in the footsteps of Rasulullaah, you would say that he is mad." (3) Hadrat Aa’isha says, "There was none who followed so meticulously the footsteps of Rasulullaah in all his stops (during his travels) as Abdullaah bin Umar did." (4) Another narration states that if anyone had to see Hadrat Abdullaah bin Umar follow in the footsteps of Rasulullaah, they would think that his mind was affected. Hadrat Naafi says, "No camel that has lost her little one in a desert searches as thoroughly as Abdullaah bin Umar does when searching for the footsteps of Rasulullaah." (5) Hadrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Umayyah bin Abdullaah reports that he once asked Hadrat Abdullaah bin Umar, "We find the salaah of fear and the salaah of a resident in the Qur’aan, but do not find the salaah of a traveller?" Hadrat Abdullaah bin Umar replied, "Allaahsent his Nabi (to guide us) when we were the most unrefined people. We therefore do as Rasulullaah did." (6) Hadrat Umayyah bin Abdullaah bin Khaalid bin Usayd reports that he once asked Hadrat Abdullaah bin Umar, "In the Qur’aan we find mention of shortening the salaah of fear but do not find the shortening of the traveller’s salaah?" Hadrat Abdullaah bin Umar replied, "We found our Nabi doing something and we did the same." (7) Hadrat Waarid bin Abu Aasim reports that he once met Hadrat Abdullaah bin Umar in Mina and asked him about the salaah performed on a journey. When Hadrat Abdullaah bin Umar replied that it was only two Rakaahs, Hadrat Waarid asked, "What is your opinion now that we are here in Mina?" This infuriated Hadrat Abdullaah bin Umar and he said, "Shame on you! Have you heard about Rasulullaah?" Hadrat Waarid replied, "Certainly, and I believe in him." Hadrat Abdullaah bin Umar then said, "Whenever Rasulullaah went on a journey, he would perform two Rakaahs salaah. You may therefore perform two Rakaahs or leave it out." (8) Yet another narration from Hadrat Abu Muneed Jurashi states that someone once enquired from Hadrat Abdullaah bin Umar about the verse:

When you travel on earth, there is no sin on you should you shorten your salaah if you fear an attack from the Kuffaar. Indeed the Kuffaar are your open enemies. {Surah Nisaa, verse 101}

The person then asked, "Should we also shorten the salaah when we are in safety and not in fear (while travelling)?" Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar replied, "There was certainly an excellent example for you in Rasulullaah."

Hadhrat Zaid bin Aslam reports that he once saw Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar perform salaah with his buttons open. When he asked Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar about it, he replied, "I have seen Rasulullaah doing this."

Hadhrat Mu'aaawiya bin Qurra opens his buttons to Emulate Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Qurra says, "I went to Rasulullaah in the company of a group from the Banu Muzayna tribe and we pledged our allegiance to him. Rasulullaah's buttons were open and I put my hand into the collar of his upper garment and felt the seal of prophethood." Hadhrat Urwa bin Abdullaah bin Qushayr says, "Whether summer or winter, I always saw Mu'aaawiya (the son of Hadhrat Qurra) and his son with their buttons open (emulating Rasulullaah)."

A Group of Sahabah Argue About their Relationship with Rasulullaah and He Confirms What they Say

Hadhrat Ka'b bin Ujrah says, "We were all sitting before (the room of) Rasulullaah in the Masjид. We were a group from the Ansar and there was also a group from the Muhaajireen and another from the Banu Haashim. We then started disputing about which of us were closer and more beloved to Rasulullaah. We said, 'It is us, the group of the Ansar. We believed in Rasulullaah, followed him, fought by his side and our army was always at the throats of the enemy. We are therefore closer and more beloved to Rasulullaah.' Our Muhaajireen brothers then said, 'It is us who migrated with Allaah and Rasulullaah, separating from our tribes, families and wealth. In addition to this, we were also present where you were present and fought the battles you did.'" fought. We are therefore closer and more beloved to Rasulullaah ﷺ. Our brothers from the Banu Haashim then spoke, 'We are the family of Rasulullaah ﷺ. We were also present where you were present and fought the battles you fought. We are therefore closer and more beloved to Rasulullaah ﷺ.'

Rasulullaah ﷺ then came out to us and facing towards us, he enquired, 'Were you discussing something?' When we repeated what we (the Ansar) had said, Rasulullaah ﷺ remarked, 'You are right. Who can deny you this?' When we informed him about what our Muhaajireen brothers had said, Rasulullaah ﷺ remarked, 'They are right. Who can deny them this?' When we then informed him about what our brothers from the Banu Haashim had said, Rasulullaah ﷺ remarked, 'They are also right. Who can deny them this?'

Rasulullaah ﷺ then said, 'Should I not pass a decision between you?' We all exclaimed, 'Please do! May all our fathers and mothers be sacrificed for you, 0 Rasulullaah ﷺ!' Rasulullaah ﷺ said, 'As for you, O assembly of Ansar, I am your brother.' The Ansar rejoiced, 'Allahu Akbar! By the Rabb of the Kabah, we are pleased with this!' Rasulullaah ﷺ then said, 'As for you, O assembly of Muhaajireen, I am one of you.' The Muhaajireen rejoiced, 'Allahu Akbar! By the Rabb of the Kabah, we are pleased with this!' Rasulullaah ﷺ continued, 'As for you, O Banu Haashim, you are from me and I am from you.' The Banu Haashim rejoiced, 'Allahu Akbar! By the Rabb of the Kabah, we are pleased with this!' We all then stood up and were all pleased and coveting our relationship with Rasulullaah ﷺ.

Rasulullaah ﷺ Forbids Hadhrat Khaalid ﻭ from Hurting the Veterans of Badr and Forbids the People from Hurting Hadhrat Khaalid ﻭ

Hadhrat Abdullah bin Abu Awfa narrates that Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf once complained to Rasulullaah about Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed. Rasulullaah said, "O Khaalid! Never hurt the veterans of Badr because you will never be able to match the deeds they carried out even though you spend as much as Mount Uhud in gold." Hadhrat Khaalid responded by saying, "When people insult me, I respond to them in the same way." Rasulullaah then said (to the Sahabah), "Never hurt Khaalid because he is a sword from amongst the swords of Allaah that Allaah rains down upon the Kuffaar."

Hadhrat Hasan reports that there once arose a dispute between Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf and Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed. Hadhrat Khaalid said to Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan, "Do not assert your superiority over me just because you accepted Islaam a day or two before me!"

(2) Tabraani in his Sagheer and Kabeer, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.349). Bazzaar has also reported a similar narration. Ibn Asaakir and Abu Ya'la have also reported the narration, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.138), as has Ibn Abdul Birr in his Isti'aab (Vol.1 Pg.409).
When the news of this reached Rasulullaah ﷺ, he said, "Will you people not leave my companions alone for my sake! I swear by the Being Who controls my life that if any of you (non-veterans of Badr) have to spend the equivalent of Mount Uhud in gold, he will not even attain their reward of spending half a Mudd." Some time afterwards an argument sparked between Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf ﷺ and Hadhrat Zubayr ﷺ. Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed ﷺ then approached Rasulullaah ﷺ and said, "O Nabi ﷺ! You forbade me from hurting Abdur Rahmaan but now Zubayr is disputing with him." Rasulullaah ﷺ replied, "They are all veterans of Badr and (because they are equal in rank) they have a right to (dispute amongst) each other." (1)

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah ﷺ narrates that there once arose between Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf ﷺ and Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed ﷺ a dispute of that nature that usually occurs between people. Rasulullaah ﷺ commented, "Will you people not leave my companions alone for my sake! I swear by the Being Who controls my life that if any of you (non-veterans of Badr) have to spend the equivalent of Mount Uhud in gold, he will not even attain their reward for spending a Mudd or half of it." (2)

Rasulullaah ﷺ Says, "Allaah has Selected my Companions from All in the Universe"

Hadhurat Jaabir ﷺ reports that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, "Allaah has selected my companions from all in the universe apart from the prophets and messengers. He has then selected four of them for me viz. Abu Bakr, Umar, Uthmaan and Ali and made them my special companions. Of course, there is great good in every one of my companions. Allaah has also selected my Ummah over all other nations and then selected four generations from amongst my Ummah viz. the first (the period in which Rasulullaah ﷺ lived), the second, the third and the fourth generations." The Advice Rasulullaah ﷺ gave Concerning the Muhaajireen and the Ansaar

Hadhurat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf ﷺ narrates that when Rasulullaah ﷺ was on his deathbed, the Sahabah ﷺ asked, "O Rasulullaah ﷺ! Give us some advice." Rasulullaah ﷺ said, "I advise you to be good towards those Muhaajireen who were the earliest adherents to Islaam and towards their children after them. If you fail to do this, neither your obligatory nor your optional deeds will be accepted." (4)

Another narration states that Rasulullaah ﷺ advised, "I advise you to be good towards those Muhaajireen who were the earliest adherents to Islaam, towards

(1) Hadhrat Zaid bin Sa'd reports from his father that when Rasulullaah was informed that he was soon to leave this world, he came out of his room wrapped in old clothing and sat on the pulpit. When the people and the business people heard about this, they all presented themselves in the Masjid. After praising Allaah, Rasulullaah said, "O people! Keep me in mind when dealing with the Ansaar because they are my belly in which I deposit my food and they are my treasure box (I place my total trust in them). You should therefore accept from those of them who do good and overlook those of them who do evil." (2)

Rasulullaah Forbids People from Reviling the Sahabah

Hadhrat Anas reports that when mention was made of Hadhrat Maalik bin Dukhshun before Rasulullaah and some people started accusing him of being the head of the Munaafiqeen, Rasulullaah said, "Do leave my companions alone for my sake and never revile them." (3)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas narrates that Rasulullaah said, "Allaah, the angels and all of mankind curse the person who reviles my Sahabah."

Hadhrat Aa'isha reports that Rasulullaah said, "Never revile my Sahabah. May Allaah curse the one who reviles my Sahabah."

Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Zubayr once said, "Are you people telling me to revile the Sahabah? May Allaah rather shower His mercy on them and forgive them all." (6)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas Warns Those who Speak ill of the Sahabah

Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Jubayr reports that a man once asked Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas for some advice. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas said, "I advise you to adopt Taqwa and to refrain from speaking ill of the Sahabah because you have no idea about what has been destined for them." (7)

Rasulullaah's Advice Concerning the Members of his Household

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar narrates that the final words that Rasulullaah spoke were: "Be my successors over the members of my household (treat them well and care for them as I have been doing)." (8)

Hadrat Ummu Salamah narrates that Rasulullaah's daughter Hadrat Faatima once came to Rasulullaah carrying (her sons) Hadrat Hasan and Hadrat Husayn on her hips. In her hand she was carrying a pot belonging to Hadrat Hasan in which there was some hot food. When she put the pot down before Rasulullaah, he asked, "Where is Abul Hasan (Hadrat Ali)?" When Hadrat Faatima informed him that Hadrat Ali was at home, Rasulullaah called him. Rasulullaah then sat down to eat with Hadrat Ali, Hadrat Faatima, Hadrat Hasan and Hadrat Husayn. Hadrat Ummu Salamah continues, "However, Rasulullaah did not call me whereas whenever he ate food, he would always call for me if I was there. After eating, Rasulullaah covered them all in his shawl and said, "O Allaah! You be the enemy of those who are their enemies and You be the friend of those who are their friends." (1)

Hadrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas narrates that Rasulullaah once said, "O progeny of Abdul Muttalib! I have asked Allaah for three things for you. That He keeps steadfast those of you who are established (on Deen), that He educates those of you who are ignorant and that He guides those of you who are misguided. I have also asked Allah to make you extremely generous and merciful. Even though a person may be engaged in ibaadah standing between the Hajar Aswad and Maqaam (Ibraheem) and even though he performs salaah and fasts, he will still enter Jahannam if he bears enmity for the members of Muhammad's household." (2)

Hadrat Uthmaan reports that Rasulullaah says, "Whoever does a good turn towards any member of Abdul Muttalib's progeny and is not recompensed in this world, it shall be my duty to repay him for it tomorrow (on the Day of Qiyaamah) when he meets me." (3)

Hadhrat Umar is Overjoyed to be Related to Rasulullaah

Hadrat Jaabir narrates that on the occasion of Hadrat Umar's marriage to the daughter of Hadrat Ali, he heard Hadrat Umar say to the people, "Will you not congratulate me? I have heard Rasulullaah say, 'On the Day of Qiyaamah, all relations and family ties will be severed besides my relations and family ties.'" (By marrying Hadrat Ali's daughter, Hadrat Umar therefore established a tie of kinship with Rasulullaah.) (4)

The Status of the Quraysh

Hadrat Muhammad bin Ibraheem Taymi reports that Hadrat Qataadah bin...
Nu'maan Dhafari once insulted the Quraysh and appeared to use improper language. Rasulullah said, "O Qataadah! Never speak ill of the Quraysh because you will find amongst them such men whose actions and deeds make you pale into insignificance and whom you will truly envy. Had I no fear of the Quraysh becoming rebellious, I would have informed them of their (high) status in Allaah's sight." (1)

Hadhrat Ali reports that to the best of his knowledge, Rasulullah stated, "Always put the Quraysh forwards and never step ahead of them. Had I no fear of the Quraysh becoming boastful, I would have informed them of their status in the sight of Allaah." (2)

Hadhrat Aa'isha reports that Rasulullah once came to her and said, "Had I no fear of the Quraysh becoming boastful, I would have informed them of their status in the sight of Allaah." (3)

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah narrates that Rasulullah mentioned, "Look for trustworthiness amongst the Quraysh because a trustworthy person from the Quraysh is superior to a trustworthy person from another tribe and a powerful person from the Quraysh (in Deen and in leadership) is twice as superior as a strong person from another tribe." (4)

Hadhrat Rifaa'ah bin Raafi reports that Rasulullah one instructed Hadhrat Umar, "Gather my people." Hadhrat Umar gathered them at Rasulullah's room and then went in and asked, "O Rasulullah! Should I get them to enter or shall you be going out to them?" Rasulullah's reply was: "I shall rather go to them." When Rasulullah went to them, he asked, "Is there anyone here who does not belong to you?" "Yes," they replied, "Amongst us are also our allies, the children of our sisters and cur slaves." Rasulullah said to them, "Our allies are part of us, the children of our sisters are part of us and our slaves are all part of us. Have you not heard that it is only those with Taqwa who are Allaah's friends? If you are His friends, then it is excellent. Otherwise, you should give the matter deep thought. It should not be that other people arrive on the Day of Qiyaamah with plenty of good deeds while you arrive there with sins, because of which I will have to turn away from you." Rasulullah then raised his hands and said, "O people! The Quraysh are trustworthy people. Allaah will therefore grab by the nostrils the person who searches for their faults and throw him into the Fire of Jahannam." Rasulullah repeated this thrice. (5)

Harbouring Enmity for the Banu Haashim, the Ansaaar and for Arabs

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbasa reports that Rasulullah said,

(1) Ahmad, Bazzaar and Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.10 Pg.23) has commented on the chain of narrators.
(2) Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.10 Pg.25) has commented on the chain of narrators.

"Harbouring enmity for the Banu Haashim and for the Ansaar lead to Kufr and harbouring enmity for Arabs is a sign of hypocrisy." (1)

The Quraysh shall be First to Meet Rasulullaah

Hadrat Aa'isha

says, "Rasulullaah

once entered my room and said, 'O Aa'isha! Your people shall be first of my Ummah to meet me.'

After Rasulullaah

sat down, I asked, 'O Rasulullaah

May Allaah sacrifice my life for you! You had entered saying something that gave me a fright.' 'What was that?' he asked. I explained, 'You said that my people shall be the first of the Ummah to meet with you.' 'That is what I said,' Rasulullaah confirmed. 'What will be the reason for that?' I enquired. Rasulullaah replied, 'Death shall harvest them and people will be jealous of them.' I then asked, 'What will be the condition of people afterwards? They will be like young locusts, the strong of which will devour the weak. This will continue until Qiyaamah eventually takes place over them.'"

Another narration states that Rasulullaah said, "O Aa'isha! The first of people to be destroyed shall be your people."

Hadrat Aa'isha

asked, "May Allaah sacrifice my life for you! Will it be due to poisoning?" "No," replied Rasulullaah

"It will be their deaths that will come to this tribe of Quraysh and people will be jealous of them. They will then be the first of people to be destroyed."

Hadrat Aa'isha

enquired further, "How long will life be after them?" Rasulullaah replied, "They are the backbone of people and people will be destroyed as soon as they are destroyed." (2)

Rasulullaah

Gives Glad Tidings to those to Come After him

Hadrat Umar

narrates that he was once with Rasulullaah who?" the Sahabah asked to know. Rasulullaah explained, "People who are still in the backs of their forefathers. They will come after me and will believe in me without ever seeing me. They will believe what I say without seeing me and will practice on (the teachings recorded on) hanging pages (of the Qur'aan) that they will find. These are the people whose Imaan is best from all those who have imaan." (1)

Hadhrat Amr reports that Rasulullaah once asked, "Tell me which creation will hold the highest status in Allaah's sight on the Day of Qiyaamah." When the Sahabah submitted that it will be the angels, Rasulullaah commented, "What prevents them from this when they are so close to their Rabb? It is someone else." "Then it must be the Ambiyaa," the Sahabah said. Rasulullaah corrected them saying, "What prevents them from this when revelation descends on them? It is someone else." When the Sahabah begged to be informed, Rasulullaah said, "They are people who will come after you. They will believe in me without seeing me. All they will find will be hanging pages (of the Qur'aan), in which they will believe. These are the people who will hold the highest status in Allaah's sight on the Day of Qiyaamah and whose Imaan will be best in Allaah's sight on the Day of Qiyaamah." (2)

Hadhrat Abu Jumu'ah reports that they were once having a meal with Rasulullaah. Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah was also present and it was he who asked, "O Rasulullaah! Is there anyone superior to us who have accepted Islaam at your hand and waged Jihaad by your side?" Rasulullaah replied, "Yes. They are people who will come after me and will believe in me without seeing me." (3)

Hadhrat Abu Umaamah states that he heard Rasulullaah say, "Glad tidings for those who believe in me after having seen me and seven times glad tidings for those who believe in me without having seen me." (4)

Rasulullaah Wishes to see his Brothers

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah reports that Rasulullaah said, "There will be people coming after me who will wish that they could sacrifice their families and wealth just to see me." (5)

Hadhrat Anas narrates that Rasulullaah once said, "I wish that I could see my brothers who will believe in me without seeing me." (6) Another narration states that Rasulullaah said, "When will I meet my brothers?" "Are we not your brothers, O Rasulullaah?" asked the Sahabah. "You are my companions," replied Rasulullaah, "My brothers are those people who will believe in me even though they will not see me." (7)

The Virtues of the Ummah of Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Ammaar bin Yaasir reports that Rasulullaah said, "The example of my Ummah is like the rain. It cannot be specified whether it is the first part that is better or the last part." (1)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood narrates that Rasulullaah said, "Verily Allaah has angels who travel extensively. They convey to me the greetings that my Ummah give me." Rasulullaah then said further, "My life is best for you because you talk to me (enquire about the injunctions of Deen) and (when revelation answers your questions) you are spoken to. My death shall also be best for you because your actions will be presented to me. When I see good deeds, I shall praise Allaah for it and when I see evil, I shall beg Allaah to forgive you." (2)

Killing is the punishment of this Ummah in this World

Hadhrat Abu Burdah says, "I was sitting with Ibn Ziyaad and Abdullaah bin Yazeed as the heads of the Khawaarij were brought. Whenever a head was passed, I said, 'He is headed towards Jahannam.' Abdullaah said, 'Do not say that, dear nephew because I heard Rasulullaah say that the punishment of this Ummah shall be in this world (thus cleansing them for the Aakhirah)." (3)

Another narration quotes that Rasulullaah said, "Allaah has made killing the punishment of this Ummah in this world." (4)

In another narration, Hadhrat Abu Burdah says, "I left Ubaydullaah bin Ziyaad when I saw him meting extremely harsh punishment (to the Khawaarij). I then sat with one of the Sahabah who said, 'Rasulullaah had mentioned that the punishment of this Ummah shall be administered by the sword.'" (5)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas narrates that a person was mysteriously killed during the time of Rasulullaah. Rasulullaah mounted the pulpit and said, "O people! How can a person be killed under mysterious circumstances when I am still in your midst? If all the inhabitants of the heavens and the earth connive to kill a single Muslim, Allaah shall punish them all without restraint.” (1)

Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed narrates that when a person was killed during the time of Rasulullah, he mounted the pulpit to address the people. Rasulullah thrice asked, "Does anyone know who killed the person in your midst?" When the Sahabah swore that they did not know, Rasulullah said, "I swear by the Being Who controls the life of Muhammad! If all the inhabitants of the heavens and the earth connive to kill a single Mu'min, Allaah shall put them all in Jahannam. Furthermore, whoever bears enmity for us, the members of my household, Allaah shall fling him headlong into Jahannam." (2)

Rasulullaah Rebukes Hadhrat Usama and other Sahabah for Killing People who Recited the Shahaadah

Hadhrat Usama bin Zaid narrates, "Rasulullaah sent us on a military expedition against a branch of the Juhayna tribe called the Banu Hurqah. We launched a surprise attack at dawn. Amongst them was a man who was the fiercest fighter when attacked and who would defend them as they retreated. One of the Ansaar and myself managed to corner him and when we overpowered him, he recited, "Laa Ilaaha Illallaah". While the Ansaari backed off him, I proceeded to kill him.

When the news reached Rasulullaah, he said, 'O Usama! Did you kill a man after he had recited 'Laa Ilaaha Illallaah'? O Rasulullaah! I argued, 'He said it only to save himself from being killed.' Rasulullaah however continued repeating the statement until I wished that I had become a Muslim just that day (so that I could be forgiven of the sin)." (3)

In another narration, Hadhrat Usama says, "When we returned to Rasulullaah and informed him of the event, he said, 'O Usama! Who will defend you against 'Laa Ilaaha Illallaah'? O Rasulullaah! I explained, 'He said it only to protect himself from being killed.' Rasulullaah repeated, 'O Usama! Who will defend you against 'Laa Ilaaha Illallaah'? I swear by the Being Who has sent him with the truth that Rasulullaah kept repeating himself until I wished that my life as a Muslim before this had never been. I wished that I had accepted Islaam only that day and that I had never killed him. I then said, 'I undertake a pledge with Allaah that I shall never kill any person who professes 'Laa Ilaaha Illallaah'! 'Even after me, O Usama?' Rasulullaah queried. 'Even after you,' I affirmed." (4)

Yet another narration quoted that Hadhrat Usama said, "Myself and one of the Ansaar finally cornered Mirdaas bin Nuhayk and when we drew our swords for him, he exclaimed:

أشهد أن لا إله إلا الله

'I testify that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah.' However, we did not withdraw from him until we killed him. When we returned to Rasulullaah ﷺ..." The rest of the narration is just like the one quoted above from Ibn Is'haaq. (1)

Another narration states that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, "He professed 'Laa Ilaaha Illallaah' and you still killed him?" Hadhrat Usama ﷺ replied, "O Rasulullaah ﷺ! He said it only for fear of our weapons." Rasulullaah ﷺ asked, "Did you tear open his heart to know whether he said it for that reason or not? Who will defend you against 'Laa Ilaaha Illallaah' on the Day of Qiyaamah?" Hadhrat Usama ﷺ says, "Rasulullaah ﷺ continued repeating the statement until I wished that I had become a Muslim just that day." (2)

Rasulullaah ﷺ Rebukes Hadhrat Bakr bin Haaritha ﷺ as well

Hadhrat Bakr bin Haaritha ﷺ narrates, "I was once part of an expedition that Rasulullaah ﷺ dispatched. When we clashed with the Mushrikeen, I attacked a man who sought protection from me by accepting Islaam. I however killed him. When this was reported to Rasulullaah ﷺ, he became very angry and distanced himself from me until Allaah revealed the verse:

\text{وَمَا كَانَ لَمُؤْمِنٍ إِلَّا أَنْ يَقْتُلَ مُؤْمِنًا إِلَّا حَتَّى يَقْتُلَ صَدِيقًا} \quad \text{(سُورَةُ نِسَاء، آيَةُ ۹۲)}

It is not for (not becoming of) a Mu'min to kill another Mu'min except (unless) by mistake... {Surah Nisaa, verse 92}
(Because I had killed him in error) Rasulullaah ﷺ was then pleased with me and drew me closer." (3)

Rasulullaah ﷺ Is Cold Towards Someone who Killed a Mu'min

Hadhrat Uqba bin Khaalid Laythi ﷺ reports that Rasulullaah ﷺ once dispatched an expedition that engaged the enemy in battle. When one of them started to flee, one of the Muslims pursued him with a drawn sword. As the man shouted, "I am a Muslim! I am a Muslim!" the Muslims paid no heed to his cries and killed him with a blow from his sword. When the news reached Rasulullaah ﷺ, he used harsh words to condemn it. These words reached the man who killed and as Rasulullaah ﷺ was delivering a lecture, he stood up and said, "O Rasulullaah ﷺ! I swear by Allaah that he said it only to save himself from being killed." Rasulullaah ﷺ however ignored the man and those in his direction and continued with his lecture. The man repeated himself saying, "O Rasulullaah ﷺ! He said it only to save himself from being killed." Rasulullaah ﷺ again ignored the man and those in his direction and continued with his lecture. When the man could bear it no more and repeated himself for a third

A Verse of the Qur'aan is Revealed when Hadhrat Miqdaad ﷺ Kills a man Who Recited the Shahaadah

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas ﷺ reports that Rasulullaah ﷺ once dispatched an expedition which included Hadhrat Miqdaad bin Aswad ﷺ. When the Sahabah ﷺ found the tribe, they discovered that all the people had fled except for a single man with plenty of wealth who remained behind. The man professed:

"`أَنْ تَعْبُرُواْ مِنْ قَبْلِ ۚ (ذِي نَارِ) (سُورَةُ النَّسَاءَ، آيَةٌ ۹۴}

'I testify that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah' However, Hadhrat Miqdaad ﷺ still attacked and killed him. Another Sahabi ﷺ said, "Have you killed someone who testifies that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah? I shall definitely report this to Rasulullaah ﷺ." When the Sahabah ﷺ returned to Rasulullaah ﷺ, they said, "O Rasulullaah ﷺ! Miqdaad killed a man who testified that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah." Rasulullaah ﷺ then asked them to call for Hadhrat Miqdaad ﷺ. (When he arrived) Rasulullaah ﷺ asked, "O Miqdaad! Did you kill a man who professed 'La ilaha illallaah'? How will you fare tomorrow (on the Day of Qiyaamah) against 'La ilaha illallaah'?" It was then that Allaah revealed the verse:

O you who have Imaan! When you travel in Allaah's way then verify (when people claim to be Muslims) and do not say to the one who makes his submission (to Islaam) apparent, "You are not a Mu'min!" (thereby) seeking the gains of this worldly life (to take his possessions as booty). With Allaah lies tremendous booty (rewards much better that the wealth of this world). You were the same (as the Kuffaar) before, until Allaah bestowed His favour on you (and made you Muslims).

{Surah Nisaa, verse 94}

Rasulullaah ﷺ then said to Hadhrat Miqdaad ﷺ, "A Muslim man was hiding his Imaan while living with the Kuffaar but when he got the opportunity to

Hadhrat Muhallim bin Jathaamah ~~~ Kills Aamir bin Athbat

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abu Hadrad reports, "Rasulullaah sent us with a party of Muslims to Idham. Amongst us were Abu Qataadah Haarith bin Rib'ee and Muhallim bin Jathaamah bin Qais. We left Madinah and were in the heart of Idham when Aamir bin Athbat Ashja'ee passed by us on his camel. He had a few goods with him and a bag of milk. When he greeted us with the greeting of Islaam, we left him alone but Muhallim bin Jathaamah attacked and killed him on account of a grudge he bore against him. He then seized his goods and bag. When we returned to Rasulullaah, we informed him about what had happened. It was then concerning us that Allaah revealed the verse:

O you who have Imaan! When you travel in Allaah's way then verify (when people claim to be Muslims) and do not say to the one who makes his submission (to Islaam) apparent, "You are not a Mu'min!" (thereby) seeking the gains of this worldly life (to take his possessions as booty). With Allaah lies tremendous booty (rewards much better that the wealth of this world). You were the same (as the Kuffaar) before, until Allaah bestowed His favour on you (and made you Muslims). So verify (any person's submission to Islaam before disbelieving him)! Indeed Allaah is Informed of what you do (Allaah can take you to task for being indiscriminate, for He knows your motives). {Surah Nisaa, verse 94}(2)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar reports that Rasulullaah once sent Hadhrat Muhallim bin Jathaamah as part of an expedition. When Aamir bin Athbat met them, he greeted them with the greeting of Islaam. However, since they bore a grudge against him from the Period of Ignorance, Hadhrat Muhallim bin Jathaamah shot an arrow that killed him. When the news reached Rasulullaah, Hadhrat Uyaynah (in defence of Aamir) and Hadhrat Aqra (in defence if Hadhrat Muhallim) started debating about the issue. Hadhrat Aqra said, "Set the precedent today (by forgiving

Hadhrat Muhallim then arrived wearing two sheets and sat before Rasulullaah so that Rasulullaah may seek Allaah's forgiveness for him. Rasulullaah said to him, "Allaah has not forgiven you." He then stood up and left, wiping away the tears from his eyes. It was barely seven days afterwards when he passed away. When the Sahabah buried him, the ground brought his body back to the surface. When the Sahabah reported this to Rasulullaah, he said, "The earth accepts the bodies of people much worse than your companion. However, Allaah intends to teach you people an important lesson to respect your sanctity (the sacredness of a Muslim's life)." The Sahabah then threw the body into a crevasse between two mountains and covered it with rocks. It was then that Allaah revealed the verse:

(93) \text{Surah Nisaa, verse 94 (1)}

O you who have Imaan! When you travel in Allaah's way then verify (when people claim to be Muslims) and do not say to the one who makes his submission (to Islaam) apparent, "You are not a Mu'min!" The Earth Brings up the Body of a Man who Killed a Mu'min

Hadhurat Qabeesah bin Dhuwayb narrates that a Sahabi once attacked a group of Mushrikeen who had already been defeated. He then overpowered one of the Mushrikeen who had given up and as he was about to raise his sword over the man, the Mushrik recited, "Laa ilaaha illallaah". However, the Sahabi did not restrain himself and killed the man. He however felt extremely distressed about killing the man. When he related the incident to Rasulullaah, he said, "The man recited the Kalimah only to protect himself." Rasulullaah rebuked him saying, "Did you tear open his (1) Ibn Jareer, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.4 Pg.225).
heart (to see his intention for reciting the Kalimah)? It is only by the tongue that a person can express the contents of the heart." It was not long thereafter that the Sahabi passed away. However, when he was buried, his body had surfaced by the morning. His family reported this to Rasulullaah, who instructed them to bury him again. When they buried him for the second time, the body was again on the surface the following morning. This time when they reported it to Rasulullaah, he said, "The earth refuses to accept his body. You should therefore throw the body down a crevasse in the mountains." (1)

The Incident of Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed and the Banu Jadheema Tribe

Hadrath Abu Ja'far Muhammad bin Ali reports that when Makkah was conquered, Rasulullaah sent Hadrath Khaalid bin Waleed to invite people to Islaam and not to fight anyone. With him were several Arab tribes including the Banu Sulaym bin Mansoor and Banu Mudljaj bin Murrah tribes. When they came across the Banu Jadheema bin Aamir bin Abd Manaat bin Kinaanah tribe and they spotted Hadhrath Khaalid, the immediately took up their weapons. Hadhrath Khaalid said to them, "Put down your weapons because everyone has already accepted Islaam (since you cannot fight all the Arabs, you rather surrender). When the tribe laid down their weapons, they were all tied up with the order of Hadhrath Khaalid. Many of them were then put to the sword. When the news reached Rasulullaah, he raised his hands to the sky and said, "O Allaah! I exonerate myself from what Khaalid bin Waleed has done." Rasulullaah then sent for Hadrath Ali bin Abi Taalib and instructed him saying, "O Ali! Go to those people and look into the matter, trampling the affairs of the Period of Ignorance underfoot." Hadrath Ali then went to them with a large sum of money that Rasulullaah had given him. He then compensated the people for every life and item of property that they had lost, even to the extent of a container from which a dog drank. Eventually, when there was no life or article left to be compensated for, some money was still left over. Hadrath Ali then asked the tribe's people after completing, "Is there any life or article that has not been compensated for?" When they declared that there was nothing, Hadrath Ali said, "I am handing over to you this amount that has been left-over as a precaution from the side of Rasulullaah for anything that has escaped either his or your attention. After doing this, he returned to report back to Rasulullaah. Rasulullaah commended him saying, "You did right and you did well." Rasulullaah then stood up, faced towards the Qibla and raised both his hands so high that his armpits were visible. He then thrice repeated, "O Allaah! I exonerate myself from what Khaalid bin Waleed has done." (2)

Hadhrath AbdulIaah bin Umar states that Rasulullaah once dispatched Hadrath Khaalid bin Waleed to the Banu Jadheema tribe.

(1) Abdur Razzaaq and Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.316).
(2) Ibn Is'haaq.
When he invited them towards Islaam, they could not properly say that they had accepted Islaam and rather said, "We have changed our religion! We have changed our religion!" Hadhrat Khaalid ~ then took them prisoner and handed one prisoner over to each member of his party. On one of the mornings, Hadhrat Khaalid ~ suddenly instructed every person to execute his prisoner. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ~ refused saying, "By Allaah! I shall never execute my prisoner and neither shall any of my companions execute theirs!"

When they returned to Rasulullaah ~ and informed him about what Hadhrat Khaalid ~ had done, Rasulullaah ~ raised his hands towards the sky and twice repeated, "O Allaah! I exonerate myself from what Khaalid bin Waleed has done." (1)

Ibn Is'haaq says that as far as he knows, it was because of this incident that there was a dispute between Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed ~ and Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf ~. Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf ~ said, "You have perpetrated an act of ignorance as a Muslim." Hadhrat Khaalid ~ responded by saying, "I had only avenged the murder of your father." "You are lying," Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan ~ interjected, "I had personally executed my father's murderer. You have only avenged the murder of your uncle Faakih bin Mughierah." The dispute then turned ugly and eventually reached the attention of Rasulullaah ~. Rasulullaah ~ then said, "Take it easy, (leave these matters aside) Khaalid! Leave my companion alone for my sake because I swear by Allaah that if you possessed gold equivalent to Mount Uhud and spent it all in the path of Allaah, you would be unable to attain the reward equal to the reward that one of my companions (who are veterans of Badr) attain in a single morning or evening." (2)

The Incident between Rasulullaah ~ and Hadhrat Sakhar Ahmasi ~

Hadhrat Sakhar ~ from the Ahmas tribe narrates that as soon as he heard that Rasulullaah ~ was fighting the Thaqeef tribe, he led a party of horsemen to reinforce Rasulullaah ~. He however discovered that Rasulullaah ~ had left without conquering the territory. He then took a vow never to leave the fortress until the enemy surrendered to the command of Rasulullaah ~. (True to his word) He did not leave them until they eventually submitted to the command of Rasulullaah ~. Hadhrat Sakhar ~ then wrote a letter to Rasulullaah ~ saying: "O Rasulullaah ~! Verily the Banu Thaqeef have surrendered to your command and I am escorting them with my cavalry."

Rasulullaah ~ gathered Sahabah ~ together with the announcement "As Salaatu Jaami'ah" and then prayed for the Ahmas tribe by repeating ten times, "O Allaah! Bless the Ahmas in their cavalry and infantry." When they arrived Hadhrat Mughiera bin Shu'ba ~ addressed Rasulullaah ~ saying, "O Rasulullaah

! Sakhar has captured my aunt whereas she has also entered the fold of Islaam as the others have done." Rasulullaah summoned Hadhrat Sakhar and said, "O Sakhar! When people accept Islaam, they have safeguarded their blood and their wealth, so do hand over to Mughiera his aunt." Hadhrat Sakhar handed her over and asked Rasulullaah to make over to him the oasis of the Banu Sulaym who had renounced Islaam and deserted the place. He said, "O Rasulullaah! Hand the place over to me and my tribe to settle there." Rasulullaah agreed and they settled there.

However, the Banu Sulaym tribe accepted Islaam again and approached Hadhrat Sakhar to hand the oasis back to them. When he refused to do so, they went to Rasulullaah saying, "O Rasulullaah! After we accepted Islaam, we approached Sakhar to give us back our oasis, but he refused." Rasulullaah then said to Hadhrat Sakhar, "O Sakhar! When people accept Islaam, they have safeguarded their blood and their wealth, so do hand over their oasis back to the Banu Sulaym." Hadhrat Sakhar immediately complied and said, "Certainly, O Nabi of Allaah." Rasulullaah's face had then turned red out of shyness because he had taken from Hadhrat Sakhar the lady as well as the oasis. (1)

Refraining from Killing Muslims and the Abomination of Fighting for Land

Rasulullaah Forbids Killing anyone who Attests to the Oneness of Allaah and the Nabuwaat of Rasulullaah

Hadrat Aws bin Aws Thaqafi reports that Rasulullaah once approached them as they sat in a tent in the Masjid of Madinah. Someone then came to Rasulullaah and whispered something to him that the others could not hear. Rasulullaah said to him, "Go and tell them to execute him." Rasulullaah then called the person back saying, "Did he perhaps not testify that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah and that I am the Rasul of Allaah?" When the man admitted that the person had done so, Rasulullaah said, "Go and tell them that they should release him because I have been commanded to fight people only until they testify that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah and that I am the Rasul of Allaah. Once they say this, their blood and wealth is forbidden for me unless it needs to be taken for a right due to Allaah. Their reckoning will then be Allaah's responsibility." (2)

Hadrat Abdullaah bin Adi Ansaari narrates that Rasulullaah was once sitting with some people when someone came and requested permission to

The man's response was, "Yes, but his testimony cannot be heeded." Rasulullaah asked further, "Did he not testify that I am the Rasul of Allaah?" Again the man replied by saying, "Yes, but his testimony cannot be heeded." Rasulullaah then enquired, "Did he too perform salaah?" "Yes," the man replied, "but his salaah cannot be heeded." Rasulullaah finally told him, "These are the people whom I have been prohibited from (killing)." (1)

Hadhrat Uthmaan Prohibits Fighting when he was Besieged in his House

Hadhrat Aa'isha reports, "Rasulullaah once said, 'Call one of my companions.' I asked, 'Abu Bakr?' 'No,' replied Rasulullaah. 'Then Umar?' I asked. 'No,' Rasulullaah again replied. 'Then your cousin Ali?' I said. When Rasulullaah again replied in the negative, I said, 'Then Uthmaan?' 'Yes,' Rasulullaah replied. When Uthmaan arrived, Rasulullaah took him aside and whispered something to him, which made Uthmaan's face grow pale. The day Uthmaan was besieged in his house (by some Muslim rebels), we asked, 'O Ameerul Mu'mineen! Should we not fight them?' He replied, 'No. Rasulullaah undertook a pledge from me and I shall remain steadfast on it.'" (2)

Hadhrat Uthmaan narrates that Rasulullaah said, "A Person's Blood is Forbidden unless for one of Three Reasons"

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar narrates that when Hadhrat Uthmaan was besieged in his house, he looked out to the people (the rebels) and asked them, "For what reason do you want to kill me? I have heard Rasulullaah say, 'A person's blood is forbidden unless for one of three reasons; the married man who commits adultery shall be stoned to death, the one who intentionally murders shall be executed and the one who renounces Islaam shall also be executed.' By Allaah! I have never committed adultery, neither during the Period of Ignorance nor as a Muslim. I have also never murdered anyone because of which I should be executed and I have also never renounced Islaam. I testify that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah and that Muhammad is the servant and Rasul of Allaah." (3)

Hadhrat Abu Umaamah says, "I was with Uthmaan in his house when he was under siege. From the entrance we used, we could hear what the people were talking at the Balat. When Uthmaan entered through there one day, for some reason, he came to us with his face pale. He said, 'Those people have just threatened to kill me. We said to him, 'Allaah shall suffice for you against them, O Ameerul Mu'mineen.' He continues, 'But why do they want to kill me when I have heard Rasulullaah ﷺ say, 'A person's blood is forbidden unless for one of three reasons; if a man renounces Islaam, commits adultery after being married or murders another without a warrant.' By Allaah! I have never committed adultery either during the Period of Ignorance or after Islaam. Since Allaah has guided me (to Islaam), I have never even wished for a replacement for my Deen and I have never murdered anyone. Why do they want to kill me?'(1)

The Lecture Hadhrat Uthmaan ﷺ delivered to those who Besieged him

Hadhrat Abu Layla Kindi reports that he was present when Hadhrat Uthmaan ﷺ was besieged in his house and peeped through a vent in the wall and said, "O people! Do not kill me and (if I have sinned) rather get me to repent. I swear by Allaah that if you kill me, you (Muslims) shall never again be able perform salaah together nor fight the enemy as a unified force. You will then be at loggerheads until you become like this." He then interlaced his fingers. He then recited a verse of the Qur'aan (quoting the words of Hadhrat Shu'ayb ﷺ):

َوَيَقُولُوُلاَن يَجِيرُونَكُمْ شِيَاطِينًا أَنْ يُصِيبُنَّكُمْ مِنْ مَّا أَصَابَ قَوْمٌ نُوحٌ أَوَّلُوْ قَوْمِ هُوَوْ أَوْ

(Quraan, Surah Hood, verse 89)

"O my people! Let not your opposition for me cause the same punishment to afflict you as afflicted the nation of Nooh ﷺ or the nation of Hood ﷺ or the nation of Saalih ﷺ. And the nation of Loot ﷺ are not far off from you (in memory and location)." {Surah Hood, verse 89}

Hadhrat Uthmaan ﷺ then sent for Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Salaam ﷺ to ask him what his opinion was. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Salaam ﷺ replied, "Restraint! Restraint, (restrain your hand from the rebels) because it lends more weight to your argument (on the Day of Qiyaamah)." (2)

The Incident between Hadhrat Mughiera ﷺ and Hadhrat Uthmaan ﷺ when he was Under Siege

Hadhrat Mughiera bin Shu'ba ﷺ narrates that when Hadhrat Uthmaan ﷺ was under siege, he approached him and said, "You are the leader of the masses and are in the predicament you can see. I therefore have three proposals for you. You may choose any of them you like. You may go out and fight them for you have many supporters with great strength and you are on the truth while they are upon falsehood. Alternatively, you may open up a door from your house apart from the one where they are stationed, from where you can mount your animal and go to Makkah. They shall never regard your blood as lawful (for them to spill) as long as you are there. Another option is that you go to Shaam where the people of Shaam are there for you as well as Mu'aawiya.

Hadrat Uthmaan replied, "I cannot go out and fight them because I never want to be the first of the Ummah of Rasulullaah to shed (the) blood (of Muslims). Although they will never regard my blood to be lawful if I go to Makkah, I have heard Rasulullaah say, 'A man from the Quraysh will go to Makkah and be a cause of spreading irreligiousness. He shall suffer the punishment of half the universe.' I never want that man to be me. I cannot also go to Shaam although the people of Shaam and Mu'aawiya are there because I shall never leave the place of Hijrah and the proximity of Rasulullaah.

Hadrat Uthmaan Forbids some of the Sahabah From Fighting when he was Under Siege

Hadrat Abu Hurayrah reports that he entered Hadrat Uthmaan's house when he was under siege and said, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! It has now become permissible for you to fight these rebels." Hadrat Uthmaan asked, "O Abu Hurayrah! Would you like to kill all of mankind including myself?" "Certainly not," replied Hadrat Abu Hurayrah. Hadrat Uthmaan then said, "By Allaah! If you kill a single person it is tantamount to killing all of mankind." Hadrat Abu Hurayrah then returned without fighting.

Hadrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr entered Hadrat Uthmaan's house and said, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! In your house you have such a group of people who will attract the help of Allaah (when fighting the rebels) even though they may be few in number. Please issue the command so that we may fight." Hadrat Uthmaan said, "I am pleading to every man in the name of Allaah that he should not have his blood spilt for me and should not spill the blood of another for me." Another narration states that Hadrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr said to Hadrat Uthmaan, "Fight them because Allaah has made it permissible for you to fight them." Hadrat Uthmaan replied, "Never! I swear by Allaah that I shall never fight them.

Hadrat Abdullaah bin Aamir narrates that when he was under siege in his house, Hadrat Uthmaan said, "The one most useful to me is he who restrains his hand and his weapon." Hadrat Zaid bin Thaabit approached Hadrat Uthmaan and said,

"The Ansar are at your door saying, 'If you permit, we shall be the helpers of the cause of Allah! If you permit, we shall be the helpers of the cause of Allah!'" Hadhrat Uthmaan refused their offer saying, "If they intend fighting, then I give no permission." (1)

Hadhrat Ibn Seereen says, "With Hadhrat Uthmaan in the house were seven hundred men. Had he left them (to fight), they would have crushed the rebels with the permission of Allah, completely removing them from the boundaries of Madinah. Amongst them was Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar, Hadhrat Hasan bin Ali and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr." (2)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Sa'idah reports that Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Al Aas came to Hadhrat Uthmaan and said, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! For how long will you restrain our hands? These people have eaten at us. While some of them have fired arrows at us, others have thrown stones at us and some have even drawn their swords. Please give us the command (to fight)." Hadhrat Uthmaan replied, "I have no intention of fighting them even though I know that I will be safe from them if I do so. I prefer to rather hand them over to Allah together with those who instigated them against me because we will all be gathered together before our Rabb. As for fighting them, I swear by Allah that I shall never issue the command." Hadhrat Sa'eed said, "By Allah! I shall never be asking anyone about you ever." He then left and fought until he sustained a fatal wound to his head. (3)

Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas Restrains Himself from Fighting

Hadhrat Aamir the son of Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas approached his father and asked, "Dear father! People are fighting for the world and you are sitting here?" "Dear son," Hadhrat Sa'd replied, "are you instructing me to become a leader of anarchy? By Allah! I shall never participate unless I am given a sword that when raised over a Mu'min, it misses him without injury and when raised over a Kaafer, it kills him (since this cannot be found, I cannot participate). I have heard Rasulullah say, "Verily Allah loves the independent person who is inconspicuous and possesses Taqwa." (4)

Hadhrat Ibn Seereen narrates that someone once asked Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas, "Why don't you take up arms because you are one of the consultative assembly and more deserving of the Khilaafah than others?" Hadhrat Sa'd replied, "I shall never fight until you give me a sword that has two eyes, a tongue and two lips and which can differentiate between a Mu'min and a Kaafer (so that it kills only Kuffaar and not Mu'mineen). I used to wage Jihad at a time when I knew that it was really Jihad (the fighting taking place now is not

The Incident Between Hadhrat Sa'd ibn Awaar, Hadhrat Usama and another Person About not Fighting

Hadhrat Ibraheem Taymi reports from his father that after eating a full meal, Hadhrat Usama bin Zaid said, "I shall never fight anyone who recites 'Laa Ilaaha Illallaah.'" Hadhrat Sa'd bin Maalik (bin Abi Waqqas) then remarked, "By Allaah! I shall also never fight a man who recites 'Laa Ilaaha Illallaah.'" Another man then said to the two of them, "Does Allaah not say:

\text{Fight them until no corruption (kufr and shirk) exists and all religion (worship) is for Allaah.} \quad \text{(Surah Anfaal, verse 39)}

The two Sahabah replied, "We did fight until no corruption existed and until all religion was for Allaah." (2)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar Restrains Himself from Fighting During the Troubled times of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr

Hadhrat Naafi reports that two men approached Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar during the period of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr when fighting was raging. They asked, "People are dying while you are the son of Umar and a companion of Rasulullaah! What prevents you from going out (and fighting)?" Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar replied, "What prevents me is that Allaah has made the blood of my brother Haraam (for me to spill)." They argued, "Does Allaah not say:

\text{Fight them until no corruption exists and all religion (worship) is for Allaah.} \quad \text{(Surah Anfaal, verse 39)}

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar replied, "We did fight until no corruption existed and until all religion was for Allaah. However, you people are fighting so that corruption should appear and so that religion should be for others besides Allaah. (3)

Another narration states that a man approached Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar and said, "O Abu Abdur Rahmaan! What makes you perform Hajj one year, Umrah the following year but leaving out waging Jihaad in the path of Allaah whereas you know what encouragement Allaah has given for it?" Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar replied, "Dear nephew! Islaam if founded on five pills; Imaan in Allaah and His Rasool Ṣallallāhu 'alaihi wasālaam, five salaah, fasting in Ramadhaan, paying zakaah and performing Hajj." The person enquired further, "O Abu Abdur Rahmaan! Have you not heard that Allaah says in His Book:

وَإِنَّ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ یَفْتَنُونَ ۖ فَأُصِيبُوا بِذَٰلِكَ ۛ فَإِنْ تَأْكُلُوهُمْ عَلَى

If two groups of Mu'mineen fight each other, then reconcile between them. (However, despite your efforts to reconcile,) If the one group transgresses against the other, then fight that (transgressing) group until they return to (the obedience of) Allaah's command (to live in peace and harmony with other Muslims). (Surah Hujuraat, verse 9)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar Ṣallallāhu 'alaihi wasālaam replied, "We did that during the time of Rasulullaah Ṣallallāhu 'alaihi wasālaam when the adherents to Islaam were few. Because of his Deen, a person was put through trials either when the Kuffaar killed him or tortured him. The people of Islaam eventually increased in number and there no longer remained any corruption."

The person then asked, "Then what is your opinion about Ali Ṣallallāhu 'alaihi wasālaam and Uthmaan Ṣallallāhu 'alaihi wasālaam?" Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar Ṣallallāhu 'alaihi wasālaam replied, "As for Uthmaan Ṣallallāhu 'alaihi wasālaam, Allaah has forgiven him whereas you people do not like him to be forgiven. As for Ali Ṣallallāhu 'alaihi wasālaam, he was the cousin of Rasulullaah Ṣallallāhu 'alaihi wasālaam as well as his son-in-law." Pointing with his hand, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar Ṣallallāhu 'alaihi wasālaam then said, "That house you see was his."

Yet another narration states that a person once asked Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar Ṣallallāhu 'alaihi wasālaam, "O Abu Abdur Rahmaan! Have you not heard Allaah mention in the Qur'aan:

وَإِنَّ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ یَفْتَنُونَ ۖ فَأُصِيبُوا بِذَٰلِكَ ۛ فَإِنْ تَأْكُلُوهُمْ عَلَى

If two groups of Mu'mineen fight each other, then reconcile between them. (However, despite your efforts to reconcile,) If the one group transgresses against the other, then fight that (transgressing) group until they return to (the obedience of) Allaah's command (to live in peace and harmony with other Muslims). (Surah Hujuraat, verse 9)

What prevents you from fighting as Allaah has instructed in his Book?" Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar Ṣallallāhu 'alaihi wasālaam replied, "Dear nephew! I prefer not to fight and be criticised for not practising on this verse rather than being criticised for being guilty of perpetrating what Allaah says in the verse:
Whoever purposely murders a Mu'min (regarding his act as a permissible act), his punishment shall be Jahannam where he shall live forever. Allaah shall be angry with him, curse him and prepare for him a dreadful punishment. {Surah Nisaa, verse 93}

The man then argued, "But Allaah also says:

'Fight them until no corruption exists and all religion (worship) is for Allaah.'?" {Surah Anfaal, verse 39}

To this, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar replied, ""We did that during the time of Rasulullah..." The narration then proceeds like the one quoted above. (1)

Another narration adds that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar asked the man, "Do you know what is meant by 'corruption'? Muhammad used to fight against the Mushrikeen and fighting them is (fighting) 'corruption'. It was nothing like how you fight nowadays for land. (2)

What Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar said to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr and Ibn Safwaan Concerning his Reluctance to pledge allegiance to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr

Hadrat Abul Aaliya Baraa reports that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Safwaan were one day sitting in the Hateem when Hadrat Abdullaah bin Umar passed by while performing Tawaaf. One of them said to the other, "Do you think that there is anyone alive who is better than that man?" He then asked another man to call Hadrat Abdullaah bin Umar when he had completed his Tawaaf. When Hadrat Abdullaah bin Umar completed his Tawaaf and had performed the two Rakaahs, the messenger that the two Sahabah had sent approached him saying, "Abdullaah bin Zubayr and Abdullaah bin Safwaan over there are calling for you." When Hadrat Abdullaah bin Umar came to them, Hadrat Abdullaah bin Safwaan asked, "O Abu Abdur Rahmaan! What prevents you from pledging allegiance to the Ameerul Mu'mineen (Hadrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr) when the people of Makkah, Madinah, Yemen, Iraq and most of the people of Shaam have already pledged their allegiance to him?" Hadrat Abdullaah bin Umar replied, "By Allaah! I shall never pledge my allegiance to you as long as the swords you hang over your necks are dripping with the blood of Muslims." (3)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ﷺ Refuses to Allow People to pledge their allegiance to him

Hadhrat Hasan says that when the Muslims were plunged in problems, they approached Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ﷺ and said, "You are a leader, the son of a leader and the people are happy with you. Why don't you come forward and allow people to pledge their allegiance to you?" Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ﷺ replied, "Never! By Allaah! As long as there is life in me, not even as much as a cupper's cupful of blood will be spilt for my sake." People later came and threatened him saying, "By Allaah! If you do not come out (to have the pledge of allegiance taken at your hand), you will be killed here on you bed." (Undeterred by the threat) Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ﷺ gave the same reply as he did the first time. Hadhrat Hasan continues, "By Allaah! Until Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ﷺ passed away, the people were unable to attain their objectives through him." (1)

The Statement of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ﷺ Concerning Unity and Disunity

Hadhrat Khaalid bin Sumayr narrates that some people once said to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ﷺ, "Why don't you set matters right for the people (by taking the reins of Khilaafah) because they are all happy with you." He said to them, "What if someone in the East opposes me?" They replied, "If anyone stands up in opposition, he will be killed because what is the death of one person for the sake of the Ummah's unity?" Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ﷺ then remarked, "By Allaah! If the entire Ummah of Muhammad ﷺ take hold of the shaft of a spear and I take hold of the head at the expense of a single person losing his life, I would not like it even if I were given the world and all its contents." (2)

Hadhrat Qatan reports that a man once came to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ﷺ and said, "No person has done worse for the Ummah of Muhammad ﷺ than you!" Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ﷺ responded by saying, "Why is that? By Allaah! I have neither spilt their blood, divided their unity nor broken their strength." The man then proposed, "If you choose (to become Khalifah) no two persons would differ on the decision (everyone is pleased to have you as Khalifah)." Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ﷺ replied, "I would never like the Khilaafah to come to me when one man is saying 'no' and another 'why not'." (3)

Hadhrat Qaasim bin Abdur Rahmaan reports that during the first period of strife(4), the people once approached Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ﷺ saying, "Are you not going out to fight?" He replied, "I fought at a time when there were idols between the Hajar Aswad and the door of the Kabah until Allaah wiped them out from the land of the Arabs. I do not like to fight people who recite 'La ilaaha illallah.' The people then accused him saying, 'By Allaah! That is not at all your view. All you want is for the Sahabah to kill each other off so that when none beside yourself is left, the people should say, 'Pledge allegiance to Abdullaah bin Umar to lead the Mu'mineen.'” Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar responded by saying, "I have no such inclinations within me. All I want is that when you say (Come to salaah), I want to respond and when you say (Come to success) I want to respond. Furthermore, when you divide, I do not wish to associate with you but when you unite, I shall never separate from you." (1)

Hadhrat Naafi narrates that during the time when Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr was struggling for the Khilafah and when the Khawaarij and Khashabiyyah sects were on the increase, someone said to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar, "Why do you perform salaah with those people and the others when they are killing each other (yet you do not fight with either group)?" Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar replied, "I respond to the one who says (Come to salaah) and to the one who says (Come to success). However, when someone says, 'Come to kill your brother Muslim and take his wealth', I respond with a definite 'No'." (2)

Hadhrat Hasan bin Ali Dislikes Killing Mu’mineen and Reconciles with Hadhrat Mu'aawiya

Hadhrat Abul Ghareef says, "Twelve thousand of us were part of the frontline forces of Hadhrat Hasan bin Ali. Abu Umrata was our commander and in our eagerness to fight the forces from Shaam, our swords were almost dripping with their blood. When the news reached us about the truce that Hadhrat Hasan and Hadhrat Mu'aawiya had made, it seemed as if our backs had been broken with the rage and frustration of it. When Hadhrat Hasan bin Ali came to Kufa, one of our men called Abu Aamir Sufyaan bin Layl stood up and said, 'As Salaamu Alaykum, 0 humiliator of the Mu'mineen!' 'Do not say that, 0 Abu Aamir,' Hadhrat Hasan said, 'I have not humiliated the Mu'mineen but merely disliked killing them in pursuit of land.' (3) Hadhrat Sha’bi narrates that when Hadhrat Hasan bin Ali and Hadhrat Mu’aawiya entered into a truce, Hadhrat Mu’aawiya said to Hadhrat Hasan, "Stand up and address the people and inform them of your standpoint." Hadhrat Hasan then stood up and addressed the people saying, "All praise is due to Allaah Who has used us (our elders) to guide our former ones and has now used us to save the blood of our latter ones. Behold! Indeed the most intelligent one is the one with the most Taqwa and the most helpless one is the sinner. The matter concerning which I had been disputing with Mu'aawiya was either rightfully his or rightfully mine. I have however forsaken my right for the good of the Ummah of Muhammad and to save their lives." He then turned to Hadhrat Mu'aawiya and addressed him with the verse:

\text{وَإِنَّ ذَٰلِكَ لَعَلَّةً فَيْتَنُّكُمْ وَمَعَانٌ}

{Surah Ambiyaa, verse 111}

He then descended. Hadhrat Amr then said to Hadhrat Mu'aawiya, "This is exactly what you wanted." (1)

What Hadhrat Hasan said to Hadhrat Jubayr bin Nufayr Concerning the Khilaafah

Hadhrat Jubayr bin Nufayr narrates that he once said to Hadhrat Hasan bin Ali, "The people say that you desire the Khilaafah." Hadhrat Hasan replied, "When I had all the Arab leaders in my hand and they were prepared to fight whom I wished to fight and make peace with whom I wanted to make peace, I forsook the post for the pleasure of Allaah and to save the blood of the Ummah of Muhammad. Would I now venture to snatch away the Khilaafah with the displeasure of the people of Hijaz?" (2)

Hadrat Ayman Asadi Refuses to Fight with Marwaan

Hadrat Aamir Sha'bi reports that when Marwaan fought Dahhaak bin Qais, he sent a message to Hadrat Ayman bin Khuraym Asadi, saying, "We would like you to fight by our side." However, Hadrat Ayman sent a reply stating, "Verily my father and my uncle fought in Badr and they both took an undertaking from me never to fight anyone who recites 'Laa Ilaaha Illallaah'. I shall fight alongside you only on condition that you bring me a certificate that guarantees me freedom from Jahannam." "Get lost!" Marwaan said to Hadrat Ayman before he started using bad language against the Sahabi. Hadrat Ayman then recited some couplets (which mean):

I cannot fight someone who performs salaah for the sake of another king from the Quhaysh For me to fight another Muslims for no reason shall give me no benefit as long as I live While he has his kingdom and I am burdened with a sin May Allaah save me form such ignorance and foolishness (3)

What Hadhrat Hakam bin Amr ﷺ said to Hadhrat Ali ﷺ

A messenger from Hadhrat Ali ﷺ once came to Hadhrat Hakam bin Amr ﷺ with a message saying, "Verily you are most worthy of assisting me in this matter of Khilafah." Hadhrat Hakam ﷺ's reply was, "I have heard my good friend who was your cousin ﷺ say that when matters are like this (with Muslims fighting each other), it is best for you to take up a wooden sword. I have therefore already taken up a wooden sword." (1)

Hadrat Abdullaah bin Abu Awfa ﷺ Refuses to Fight for Yazeed

Hadrat Abu Ash'ath San'aani narrates, "Yazeed bin Mu'aawiya once sent me to Hadrat Abdullaah bin Abu Awfa ﷺ. With him were many Sahabah ﷺ when I asked, 'What would you command the people to do?' He replied, 'Abul Qasim ﷺ advised me that if I ever see such things happening (Muslims fighting Muslims), I should go to Mount Uhud, break my sword and remain seated in my house. 'What if someone barges into my house (to kill me)?' I asked. Rasulullaah ﷺ replied, 'Then go to the inner room of your house and if they barge in there too, then sit on your knees (preparing for death) and say, 'Take my sins together with yours (by killing me) so that you may become one of the inmates of Jannah. Such is the punishment for the oppressors.' I have already broken my sword and if anyone barges into my house, I shall enter the inner room. If they then enter the inner room, I shall sit on my knees and say to them what Rasulullaah ﷺ told me to say.'" (2)

Hadrat Muhammad bin Maslamah ﷺ Abides by the Advice of Rasulullaah ﷺ

Hadrat Muhammad bin Maslamah ﷺ reports that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, "When you see people fighting for worldly wealth, take your sword to the largest boulder in Harrah and strike it on the boulder until it breaks. Then remain sitting in your home until the hand of a sinner reaches you (to kill you) or until death puts an end to you." Hadrat Muhammad bin Maslamah ﷺ then said, "I have already practised on this command of Rasulullaah ﷺ." (3)

Hadrat Muhammad bin Maslamah ﷺ says, "Rasulullaah ﷺ gave me a sword and said, 'O Muhammad bin Maslamah! Use this sword to wage Jihaad in the path of Allaah until the time when you see two parties of the Muslims fighting each other. You should then hit it against a rock until it breaks. Thereafter, you should remain sitting in your home until death puts an end to you or until the hand of a sinner reaches you (to kill you).'' ### The Statement of Hadhrat Hudhayfah Ṣallālāhu ʿAlayhi wa Sallam Concerning Fighting Hadhrat Rib‘ee reports that at the funeral of Hadhrat Hudhayfah Ṣallālāhu ʿAlayhi wa Sallām, he overheard someone saying, "The person on this bier once said, 'I have no doubts about what I heard Rasulullah  say. Therefore, if you people start fighting amongst yourselves, I shall enter my home and if anyone barges in, I shall tell him, '(You may kill me and) Take with you my sins coupled with your own.”" [2]

The Incident Between Hadhrat Mu’aawiyah Ṣallālāhu ʿAlayhi wa Sallām and Hadhrat Waa’il bin Hujar Ṣallālāhu ʿAlayhi wa Sallām

Hadhrat Waa’il bin Hujar Ṣallālāhu ʿAlayhi wa Sallām says, "When we heard about the appearance of Rasulullah  Ṣallālāhu ʿAlayhi wa Sallām, I left with a delegation form my tribe. When we reached Madinah, I met the companions of Rasulullah  Ṣallālāhu ʿAlayhi wa Sallām before meeting him. They said, 'Rasulullah  Ṣallālāhu ʿAlayhi wa Sallām had already given us the glad tidings of your arrival three days ago. He informed us that Waa’il bin Hujar would be coming to us.' Rasulullah  Ṣallālāhu ʿAlayhi wa Sallām then met me, welcomed me and called me close to him. He spread out his shawl for me and made me sit on it. He then summoned the people and when they gathered, he mounted the pulpit, taking me along with him. As I sat just below him, he praised Allaah and then said, 'O people! This is Waa’il bin Hujar who has come from a far off place. He has come from Hadhramout out of his own free will and without any compulsion. He is from royal descent. May Allah bless you, O Waa’il bin Hujar and your children.' Rasulullah  Ṣallālāhu ʿAlayhi wa Sallām then dismounted. Rasulullah  Ṣallālāhu ʿAlayhi wa Sallām then gave me a place to settle that was a bit far from Madinah and instructed Mu’aawiyah bin Abu Sufyaan  to settle me there. He therefore left with me and when we were on the road, he said, 'O Waa’il! The hot sand is burning the soles of my feet, so please allow me to ride with you.' I replied, 'I am not selfish with this camel, but because you are not of royal birth, I would not like to spoil my name (by riding the same animal) with you.' Mu’aawiyah  Ṣallālāhu ʿAlayhi wa Sallām then requested, 'Then throw me your shoes so that I may have some protection from the sun.' I replied, 'I am not selfish with these shoes, but because you are not one who wears royal attire, I would not like to spoil my name with you.'"

The narration continues to the point where it says that when Hadhrat Mu’aawiyah Ṣallālāhu ʿAlayhi wa Sallām became Ameerul Mu’mineen, he dispatched an expedition a man from the Quraysh called Busr bin Artaat saying, "Since I have now annexed the entire region, I want you to leave with your army. When you leave the borders of Shaam, draw your sword and kill anyone who refuses to pledge allegiance to me. Proceed in this manner to Madinah and even when you enter Madinah, I want you to kill anyone who refuses to pledge allegiance to me. And if you find Waa'il bin Hujar still alive, bring him to me.

Busr did as commanded and finding Hadhrat Waa'il still alive, he brought him to Hadhrat Mu'aawiyah. Hadhrat Mu'aawiyah issued instructions that Hadhrat Waa'il be given royal welcome and after permitting him to his court, allowed him to sit on his throne. Hadhrat Mu'aawiyah then asked, "Is this throne of mine not better than your camel?" Hadhrat Waa'il replied, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! I was just newly out of ignorance and kufr at the time and that was the way we lived during the Period of Ignorance. Allaah then brought Islaam to us and Islaam has concealed all that I did."

Hadhrat Mu'aawiyah asked further, "Then what prevented you from assisting me when Uthmaan trusted you so much and even made you his son-in-law?" Hadhrat Waa'il replied, "Because you fought a man who was closer to Uthmaan than yourself. Hadhrat Mu'aawiyah remarked, "How can he be closer to Uthmaan than me when I am more closely related to Uthmaan?" Hadhrat Waa'il replied, "Rasulullaah forged a bond of brotherhood between Uthmaan and Ali and the bond of brotherhood is stronger than the bond of being a cousin (as you are). Furthermore, I did not want to fight any of the Muhaajireen." Hadhrat Mu'aawiyah asked, "Are we not Muhaajireen as well?" Hadhrat Waa'il replied, "Did we not stay away from both groups? Another strong reason is that I was once with Rasulullaah with a large group when he looked towards the east. He then looked back saying, 'Tribulations shall come to you like the many portions of a dark night. They will be extremely difficult and unpleasant and will appear very fast.' I was the only one who asked, 'O Rasulullaah! What will these tribulations be?' He replied, 'O Waa'il! When two swords cross in Islaam, stay away from either one.'"

Hadhrat Mu'aawiyah then said, "Have you now become a Shi'ee (staunch supporter of Hadhrat Ali)?" "No," replied Hadhrat Waa'il, "I have only become a well-wisher of the Ummah." Hadhrat Mu'aawiyah said, "Had I heard this before, I would have never sent for you." Hadhrat Waa'il then informed Hadhrat Mu'aawiyah, "Did you not see what Muhammad bin Maslama did when Uthmaan was martyred? He took his sword to a rock and hit it until it broke." Hadhrat Mu'aawiyah remarked, "They (the Ansaar) are after all people who have to be tolerated." Hadhrat Waa'il responded by saying, "Then what will you do about the statement of Rasulullaah 'Whoever loves the Ansaar loves them because of his love for me and whoever hates the Ansaar hates them because of his hatred for me.'"

Hadhrat Mu'aawiyah's next statement was, "Choose whichever city you please (to live in) because you cannot return to Hadhramout." Hadhrat Waa'il replied, "My tribesmen are in Shaam while my family members are in Kufa." Hadhrat Mu'aawiyah commented, "A single member of you family is worth more than ten tribesmen." Hadhrat Waa'il ṣallallahu a'laihi wa sallam said, "(After migrating) I have never returned happily to Hadhramout. It is also not appropriate for a Muhaajir to return to the place he migrated from except with good reason."

"What is your good reason?" questioned Hadhrat Mu'aawiyah ṣallallahu a'laihi wa sallam. Hadhrat Waa'il ṣallallahu a'laihi wa sallam replied, "The statement of Rasulullaah ṣallallahu a'laihi wa sallam concerning the tribulations. Because of your disputes, I have kept away from you but as soon as you unite, I shall come to you. This is the good reason."

Hadhrawat Mu'aawiyah ṣallallahu a'laihi wa sallam then offered, "I intend making you the governor of Kufa, so proceed there." "I cannot assume a post of governorship from anyone after Rasulullaah ṣallallahu a'laihi wa sallam," Hadhrat Waa'il ṣallallahu a'laihi wa sallam replied, "Did you not see that when Abu Bakr ṣallallahu a'laihi wa sallam wanted to appoint me as governor, I refused? Thereafter, when Umar ṣallallahu a'laihi wa sallam wanted to appoint me as governor, I refused as well and even when Uthmaan ṣallallahu a'laihi wa sallam wanted to appoint me as governor, I refused yet again. Despite all of this, I never forsook the pledge of allegiance I took to any of them. The letter of Abu Bakr ṣallallahu a'laihi wa sallam came to me when the people from my region had forsaken Islaam and I stood up (to fight in Jihada) amongst them until Allaah returned them all to the fold of Islaam. This I did without having to fill the post of governorship."

Hadhrawat Mu'aawiyah ṣallallahu a'laihi wa sallam then sent for Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Ummul Hakam ṣallallahu a'laihi wa sallam and said to him, "I have made you the governor of Kufa. Go there with Waa'il bin Hujar, honour him and fulfil his needs." Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan ṣallallahu a'laihi wa sallam said, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! Your opinion of me is not a good one. You have commanded me to honour someone whom I have seen being honoured by Rasulullaah ṣallallahu a'laihi wa sallam, Abu Bakr ṣallallahu a'laihi wa sallam, Umar ṣallallahu a'laihi wa sallam and Uthmaan ṣallallahu a'laihi wa sallam and yourself." This statement made Hadhrat Mu'aawiyah ṣallallahu a'laihi wa sallam very happy. Hadhrat Waa'il ṣallallahu a'laihi wa sallam then proceeded to Kufa with Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan ṣallallahu a'laihi wa sallam and it was not long thereafter that he passed away. (1)

The Statement of Hadhrat Abu Barzah Aslami ṣallallahu a'laihi wa sallam about the Fight Between Marwaan and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr ṣallallahu a'laihi wa sallam

Hadhrawat Abul Minhaal reports, "When Ibn Ziyaad was expelled (from Basrah when Yazeed passed away), Marwaan seized power in Shaam, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr ṣallallahu a'laihi wa sallam seized power in Makkah and a group calling themselves the 'Qurraa' took control of Basrah. My father was extremely grieved about the situation and said (to me), 'May you have no father! Let us go to the companion of Rasulullaah ṣallallahu a'laihi wa sallam.' I then accompanied him and when we entered the house, we found Abu Barzah ṣallallahu a'laihi wa sallam sitting in the shade of his balcony that was constructed from bamboo. It was an extremely hot day and we also sat down with him. My father started speaking about general matters until he finally got to ask, 'O Abu Barzah! Do you not see (what is happening)? Do

The first thing that Abu Barzah Ḥanif Ḥanif said was, 'I hope to be rewarded by Allaah for becoming extremely angry with the tribes of the Quraysh. O little Arab tribes! You know well the times when you were plunged in ignorance. Those were times when you were few in number, you were disgraced and astray. Allaah then elevated you with Islaam and with Muhammad ﷺ until you reached the heights you now enjoy. It is only the love of this world that has corrupted you. I swear by Allaah that the one in Shaam (Marwaan) is fighting only for worldly gain. I swear by Allaah that the one in Makkah (Ibn Zubayr Ḥanif Ḥanif) is fighting only for worldly gain. I swear by Allaah that those around you (in Basrah) whom you call the Qurraa are fighting only for worldly gain.'

When Abu Barzah Ḥanif Ḥanif had condemned everyone, my father asked, 'What would you then tell us to do in such situation?' Abu Barzah Ḥanif Ḥanif replied, 'Today I see none better than the group who are attached to the ground.' saying this, he pointed to the ground. He then continued, 'They are those whose bellies are empty of the wealth of others and whose backs are not burdened by the blood of others.'

The Statement of Hadhrat Hudhayfah ﷺ Concerning Killing

Hadhrat Thamar bin Attiyya reports that Hadhrat Hudhayfah ﷺ once said to someone, "Will it please you to kill someone who is the worst of sinners?" When the man replied in the affirmative, Hadhrat Hudhayfah ﷺ remarked, "In that case, you will be an even worse sinner than he." (2)

Abstaining from Wasting the Life of a Muslim

Hadhrat Anas Ṭalib reports that Hadhrat Umar Ḥanif Ḥanif once asked him, "What do you do when you lay siege to any city?" Hadhrat Anas Ṭalib replied, "We first make a strong shield from leather and send one of our men." "Now tell me," Hadhrat Umar Ḥanif Ḥanif continued, "What if rocks are thrown at him?" "He will then be killed," replied Hadhrat Anas Ṭalib. Hadhrat Umar Ḥanif Ḥanif then said, "Never do that! I swear by the Being Who controls my life! It will never please me if you conquer a city of four thousand warriors at the expense of wasting the life of single Muslim." (3)

Rescuing a Muslim from the Clutches of the Kuffaar

Hadhrat Umar Ḥanif Ḥanif once said, "More than having control over the entire Arabian peninsula, I prefer rescuing a single Muslim from the clutches of the Kuffaar." (4)

Frightening a Muslim

Rasulullaah Forbids Frightening a Muslim

Hadhrat Abul Hasan was a Sahabi who participated in the Pledge of Aqabah as well as in the Battle of Badr. He says, "We were sitting with Rasulullaah when a man stood up (to leave), forgetting his shoes behind. Another person took his shoes and put it beneath him. When the returned, he then asked the others where his shoes were, they replied that they had not seen it. (After the Sahabi worriedly searched for his shoes) The other Sahabi (who hid it away) said, "Here are they." Rasulullaah then remarked, "How will you answer (on the Day of Qiyaamah) for frightening a Mu'min?" The Sahabah explained, "I only did it in jest." However, Rasulullaah repeated two or three times more, "How will you answer for frightening a Mu'min?" (1)

Hadhrat Aamir bin Rabee'ah reports that a Sahabi once hid away the shoes of another Sahabi in jest. When the matter was reported to Rasulullaah, he said, "Never frighten a Muslim because frightening a Muslim is a great injustice." (2)

Other Narrations in this Regard

Hadhrat Nu'maan bin Basheer narrates that they were once on a journey with Rasulullaah when one of them fell asleep on his animal. When another Sahabi removed an arrow from the sleeping man's quiver, he got up with a shock. Rasulullaah rebuked the Sahabi saying, "It is not at all permissible for anyone to frighten a Muslim." (3)

Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Abu Layla reports that the Sahabah informed them that they were once travelling with Rasulullaah when one of them fell asleep. Another person went and grabbed the rope that the sleeping man was holding, causing him to get a fright. Rasulullaah rebuked the man saying, "It is not at all permissible for anyone to frighten a Muslim." (4)

Hadhrat Sulaymaan bin Surad narrates that a Bedouin was once performing salaah with Rasulullaah when someone took away the rope he had with him. After Rasulullaah has completed the salaah with Salaam, the Bedouin exclaimed, "My rope!" Some of the Sahabah (involved in taking the rope away) were busy laughing. Rasulullaah rebuked them saying, "Whoever believes in Allaah and the Last Day should never frighten a Muslim." (5)

Belittling and Looking Down at a Muslim

The Narrations of Hadhrat Aa’isha ﷺ, Hadhrat Ataa and Hadhrat Urwa ﷺ About Hadhrat Usaama bin Zaid ﷺ

Hadhrat Aa’isha ﷺ narrates that Hadhrat Usama bin Zaid ﷺ once tripped and fell over a doorstep, causing him to sustain a gash on his head. Rasulullaah ﷺ said, "O Aa’isha! Wipe the blood off him." When Hadhrat Aa’isha ﷺ felt repulsed to do it, Rasulullaah ﷺ licked the blood off Hadhrat Usama’s wound and then spat it out. He then said, "Had Usama been a girl, I would have adorned her with fine clothing and jewellery and got her married." (1)

Hadhrat Ataa bin Yasaar reports that as soon as he arrived in Madinah, Hadhrat Usama bin Zaid ﷺ was afflicted with smallpox. He was still a little boy and mucus often ran from his nose to his mouth. This repulsed Hadhrat Aa’isha ﷺ. Rasulullaah ﷺ then entered the room, washed the boy’s face and then kissed him. Hadhrat Aa’isha ﷺ says, "By Allah! After seeing this, I shall never distance this boy from me." (2)

Hadhrat Urwa ﷺ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ actually delayed leaving Arafah (to proceed to Muzdalifah) because he was waiting for Hadhrat Usama bin Zaid ﷺ. When Hadhrat Usama bin Zaid ﷺ who was a boy with a flat nose and a black skin arrived, the people of Yemen remarked, "Was it for someone like this that we were delayed?" Hadhrat Urwa ﷺ says that it was because of this statement that the people of Yemen reverted to kufr."

Hadhrat ibn Sa’d says that he asked Hadhrat Yazeed bin Haaroon, "What did Hadhrat Urwa ﷺ mean when he said that it was because of this that the people of Yemen reverted to kufr?" He replied, "Their leaving the fold of Islaam during the time of Hadhrat Abu Bakr ﷺ was because they belittled the behaviour of Rasulullaah ﷺ (by waiting for Hadhrat Usama ﷺ)." (3)

Another similar narration quotes Hadhrat Urwa ﷺ as saying, "After the demise of Rasulullaah ﷺ, the people of Yemen reverted to kufr because of (their looking down at) Hadhrat Usama bin Zaid ﷺ." (4)

The Statement of Hadhrat Umar ﷺ in this Regard

Hadhrat Hasan reports that when a group of people once went to Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash’ari ﷺ, he gave something to the Arabs amongst them while giving nothing to (non-Arab) slaves. Hadhrat Umar ﷺ then wrote a letter to rebuke him saying, "Why did you not treat them equally? It is enough for a man

Making a Muslim Angry

The Incident Between Hadhrat Abu Bakr  and Hadhrat Salmaan  Suhayb  and Bilaal  with Regard to Abu Sufyaan

Hadhrat Al'idh bin Umar narrates that Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan  (who was not yet a Muslim) once approached a gathering that included Hadhrat Salmaan , Hadhrat Suhayb  and Hadhrat Bilaal . They passed a remark saying, "The swords of Allaah had not yet taken the necks of Allaah's enemies as they ought to have." Hadhrat Abu Bakr  said to them, "Are you addressing those words to the elder of the Quraysh and their leader?" When he then reported the matter to Rasulullaah , Rasulullaah said, "O Abu Bakr! You may have made them angry and if you did make them angry, you would have angered your Rabb as well." Hadhrat Abu Bakr then went back to them and asked, "Dear brothers! Have I made you angry?" They graciously replied, "Not at all. May Allaah forgive you, dear brother." (2)

Hadhrat Suhayb  narrates that Hadhrat Abu Bakr  was once passing by with a prisoner for whom he had sought amnesty from Rasulullaah . Hadhrat Suhayb who was sitting in the Masjid asked, "Who is this man with you?" Hadhrat Abu Bakr  replied, "He is my Mushrik prisoner for whom I have sought amnesty from Rasulullaah." Hadhrat Suhayb commented, "His neck would have been a perfect place for a sword to strike." This infuriated Hadhrat Abu Bakr . Seeing Hadhrat Abu Bakr angry, Rasulullaah asked, "Why do I see you so angry?" Hadhrat Abu Bakr replied, "When I passed by Suhayb with this prisoner, he remarked, "His neck would have been a perfect place for a sword to strike."" "Have you not perhaps hurt him?" Rasulullaah asked. When Hadhrat Abu Bakr swore by Allaah that he had not, Rasulullaah said, "Had you hurt him, you would have hurt Allaah and His Rasool as well." (3)

When he was again brought before Rasulullaah ~ (guilty of drinking yet again), Rasulullaah ~ issued the command for him to be lashed. Someone from the crowd remarked, "May Allaah's curse be on him! How many times will he be brought?" Rasulullaah ~ rebuked the person saying, "Do not curse him! By Allaah! As far as I know, he loves Allaah and His Rasool ~."(1)

Another narration states that a man nicknamed 'Himaar' once gave Rasulullaah ~ a container of butter and another of honey as a gift. When the owner of the butter and honey came to collect the payment (and was not paid), he brought the man to Rasulullaah ~, saying, "O Rasulullaah ~! Please pay for the goods." All Rasulullaah ~ did was to smile and then issue instructions for the man to be paid and he was. When he was brought one day to Rasulullaah ~ on charges of drinking wine, someone from the crowd remarked..." The rest of the narration is the same as quoted above. (2)

The Narration of Hadhrat Zaid bin Aslam, Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah ~ and Hadhrat Salamah bin Akwa ~ in this Regard

Hadhrat Zaid bin Aslam narrates that Hadhrat Ibn Nu'maan ~ was once brought to Rasulullaah ~ (for drinking wine), for which he was lashed. He was then brought four or five times again and lashed. Someone then remarked, "May Allaah's curse be on him! How many times will he drink? How many times will he be lashed?" Rasulullaah ~ rebuked the person saying, "Do not curse him because he is a man who loves Allaah and His Rasool ~."(3)

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah ~ reports that when someone who had drunk wine was brought to Rasulullaah ~, the Sahabah ~ hit him according to the instructions of Rasulullaah ~. While some of them hit him with their shoes, others hit him with their hands and others with their garments (rolled up as lashes). Rasulullaah ~ then told them to stop hitting him and to start rebuking him. They did so by telling him, "Are you not embarrassed in front of Rasulullaah ~ by doing such things?" Rasulullaah ~ then let him go. However, as he turned away, some people started cursing him and casting verbal abuse at him. When someone said, "O Allaah! Humiliate him! O Allaah! Curse him!" Rasulullaah ~ interrupted by saying, "Do not say that! Do not assist Shaytaan against your brother. Rather say, 'O Allaah! Forgive him. O Allaah! Guide him.'" Another narration states that Rasulullaah ~ said, "Do not say that! Do not assist Shaytaan. Rather say, 'May Allaah have mercy on you.'"(4)

Hadhrat Salamah bin Akwa ~ says, "Whenever we saw a person cursing his

Swearing a Muslim

A Narration of Hadhrat Aa'isha Concerning a man who Swore his Slave

Hadhrat Aa'isha narrates that a man came and sat in front of Rasulullaah. He said, "I have many slaves who lie to me, cheat me and disobey me. I (retaliate when I) swear them and hit them. What is my position with them?"

Rasulullaah replied, "On the Day of Qiyaamah, their cheating, disobedience and lies will be calculated together with the punishment you gave them. If your punishment is equal to their wrongs, the slate will be clean and you will neither have anything for you or against you. However, if your punishment exceeds their wrongs, they will be allowed to have revenge for the excess." The man then stepped aside and started crying loudly. Rasulullaah then said, "Did you not read (in the Qur'aan) that Allaah says:

\text{On the Day of Qiyaamah, We will erect the scales of justice (to weigh the good and bad actions of people) and no soul will be oppressed (wronged) in the least. Even if a deed (good or bad) is equal to the weight of a mustard seed, We shall bring it (to be weighed on the scales). We suffice as Reckoners (and need no one else for the task).}

\{Surah Ambiyaa, verse 47\}

The man then said, "O Rasulullaah! I see nothing for them and myself better than being separated from each other. I make you witness that they are all free."(2)

The Incident Between Rasulullaah and Hadhrat Abu Bakr when Someone was Swearing him

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah narrates that someone started swearing Hadhrat Abu Bakr while Rasulullaah was also sitting there. Rasulullaah was impressed and kept smiling (because Hadhrat Abu Bakr gave no reply). However, when the person's abuse became too much, Hadhrat Abu Bakr replied to some of what he was saying. This angered Rasulullaah and he left. Hadhrat Abu Bakr then met Rasulullaah and asked, "O Rasulullaah! You were sitting there while he was swearing at me but when I replied to some of his abuse, you became angry and left?" Rasulullaah replied,

"There was an angel with you who was responding on your behalf. However, when you started replying to some of his abuse, Shaytaan arrived and I could not sit with Shaytaan." Rasulullaah ال ار then added, "O Abu Bakr! Three things are absolute facts. Whenever a person overlooks any injustice done to him, Allaah lends him tremendous strength. Whenever a person opens the door of gifts with the intention of joining ties, Allaah increases for him in abundance. Whenever a person opens the door of begging with the intention of amassing wealth, Allaah speeds up the reduction of his wealth." (1)

Hadhrat Umar ال Vows to Cut Off his Son's Tongue for Swearing Hadhrat Miqdaad ال
When Hadhrat Abdullaah ال, the son of Hadhrat Umar ال once swore Hadhrat Miqdaad ال, Hadhrat Umar ال said, "A vow is still binding on me if I do not cut off your tongue!" Even after others had spoken to Hadhrat Umar ال and pleaded with him to forgive his son, Hadhrat Umar ال said, "Leave me to cut off his tongue so that he may never again swear any companion of Rasulullaah ال.

Hadhrat Bahiy narrates that there once arose a dispute between Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ال and Hadhrat Miqdaad ال. When Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ال swore Hadhrat Miqdaad ال, the latter complained to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar's father (Hadhrat Umar ال). Hadhrat Umar ال then vowed to cut off the tongue of his son. When Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ال feared that his father would fulfil the vow, he sent some people to intercede on his behalf. However, Hadhrat Umar ال said, "Leave me to cut off his tongue so that this becomes a precedent for others to emulate after me. Every person who then swears any of the companions of Rasulullaah ال will then have his tongue cut off." (2)

Speaking Ill of a Muslim
Rasulullaah ال Admonishes a Sahabi ال for this Hadhrat Anas ال reports that someone once spoke ill of another in the presence of Rasulullaah ال. "Stand up (and leave)," said Rasulullaah ال, "for your Shahaadah is worthless." "O Rasulullaah ال! I shall never repeat myself," pleaded the Sahabi ال. Rasulullaah ال then said, "You have mocked the Qur'aan this morning. Backbiting a Muslim

Rasulullaah Admonishes Those Who Backbit a Sahabi who was punished for Adultery

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah narrates that a Sahabi from the Banu Aslam tribe once approached Rasulullaah and four times (on different occasions) confessed that he had illegal intercourse with a woman. However, Rasulullaah ignored his confession each time. The narration then continues to the point where Rasulullaah finally gave the instruction for him to be stoned to death. (After he was stoned,) Rasulullaah overheard one of the Sahabah saying to another, "Look at this man! Whereas Allaah had concealed him, he did not leave himself to be until he was stoned like a dog." Rasulullaah did not respond to the remark and walked on for a while. When they passed by the carcass of an ass whose one leg was raised in the air, Rasulullaah called for the two men. When they presented themselves, Rasulullaah said to them, "Dismount and eat from that carcass." Their response was, "O Nabi of Allaah! May Allaah forgive you! Who can eat from that?" Rasulullaah said, "What you just backbite about your brother is worse than eating that carcass. I swear by the Being Who controls my life that at this moment he is diving in the rivers of Jannah." (2)

Ibnul Munkadir narrates that when Rasulullaah had a woman stoned, someone remarked, "All her deeds are destroyed!" to this, Rasulullaah responded by saying, "While the punishment absolved her of the sin, you will be taken to task for what you have said." (3)

The Narrations of Hadhrat Aa'isha and Hadhrat Zaid bin Aslam Concerning Hadhrat Safiyya and a Another Lady

Hadhrat Aa'isha narrates that she once said to Rasulullaah, "It will suffice you to know that Safiyya is like that!" Narrators of the report say that Hadhrat Aa'isha was referring to the fact that Hadhrat Safiyya was short. Rasulullaah then reprimanded Hadhrat Aa'isha saying, "Should the words you spoke be mixed with the ocean, it would surely spoil it."

(1) Abu Nu'aym in his Ihya (Vol.1 Pg.94), reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.7 Pg.223).

(2) Abdur Razzaaq and Abu Dawood, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.93). Ibn Hibbaan has also reported a similar narration in his Saheeh, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.4 Pg.288). Bukhaari has also reported the narration briefly in his Adab (Pg.108) and Haafidh has confirmed its authenticity from Ibn Hibbaan in Fat'hul Baari (Vol.10 Pg.361).

(3) Abdur Razzaaq, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.93).
Hadrat Aa'isha also reports that when she once imitated someone, Rasulullaah said that he would not like her to imitate someone in front of him even in exchange for an abundance of wealth. (1)

A narration of Abu Dawood states that the camel of Hadrat Safiyya once fell ill. Because Hadrat Zaynab had extra riding camels, Rasulullaah asked her to give one to Hadrat Safiyya. Hadrat Zaynab however responded by saying, "Should I give my camel to that Jewess!" This angered Rasulullaah so much that he did not go to Hadrat Zaynab for the months of Dhul Hijjah, Muharram and a part of Safar. (2) Another narration(3) states that Rasulullaah kept away from her for the two months of Dhul Hijjah and Muharram or perhaps even three months. Hadrat Zaynab says that she had even lost hope of Rasulullaah ever returning to her.

Hadrat Aa'isha says, "I was once with Rasulullaah when I remarked that a certain woman wore a long hem. 'Spit out!' Rasulullaah exclaimed, 'Spit out!' When I spat, it was a piece of meat that came out." (4)

Hadrat Zaid bin Aslam reports that Rasulullaah's wives once gathered to see Rasulullaah during the illness in which he passed away. Hadrat Safiyya bint Huyay said, "O Nabi of Allaah! By Allaah! I wish that I should rather be suffering what you are suffering." (Taking her words to be insincere,) The other wives then started winking at each other. Seeing them do this, Rasulullaah told them all to rinse their mouths. When they enquired what it was they were required to rinse off, Rasulullaah replied, "Your winking at the expense of your companion. I swear by Allaah that she is sincere in what she said." (5)

Rasulullaah rebukes Some Sahabah for their Backbiting

Hadrat Abu Hurayrah narrates that when a particular Sahabi once stood up (and left), some of the Sahabah remarked, "What a feeble person he is, O Rasulullaah!" (or they said, "What a weak person he is!"). To this, Rasulullaah admonished, "You have backbitten your friend and eaten his flesh." A narration of Tabraani states that when a Sahabi got up to leave, the others noticed that he did so very feebly. "How very feeble is he!" they commented. Rasulullaah immediately said, "You have eaten your brother's flesh and backbitten him." (6)

Hadrat Mu'aadh bin Jabal report a narration similar to the above with the addition that the Sahabah (who passed the remark) enquired, "O Rasulullaah! We have stated only what is truly his nature." Rasulullaah explained, "(That is still backbiting because he would not like to hear this, however) If you had mentioned what was not actually in him, you would then be guilty of slandering him." (1)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr reports that some of the Sahabah once passed a remark about a particular Sahabi saying, "He will never eat until he is fed and will not ride unless the animal is saddled for him (he is very lazy)." "You have backbitten him," Rasulullaah scolded. "O Rasulullaah!" they submitted, "But we have only stated what is truly his nature." Rasulullaah replied, "It is enough to backbite that you merely mention a fault that your brother truly has within him." (2)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood narrates that they were once with Rasulullaah when a Sahabi got up to leave. After he had left, someone then spoke ill of him. "Repent," Rasulullaah instructed. "What should I repent for?" the person queried. Rasulullaah replied, "Because you have eaten your brother's flesh." (3)

Another narration states that Rasulullaah instructed, "Pick your teeth." "What should I pick them for, O Rasulullaah?" the person queried, "I have not eaten any meat?" (4)

The Incident of Two Ladies who Ruined their Fasts by Backbiting

Hadhurat Anas reports that Rasulullaah once instructed them to fast, making it clear that none was to end the fast until he permitted them. The Sahabah then observed the fast. By the evening, a man came and said, "O Rasulullaah! I have been fasting all day, so permit me to end the fast." Rasulullaah gave him permission. In this manner, people continued coming until a man came and said, "O Rasulullaah! Two young ladies from your family have fasted all day and are too shy to come to you (for permission to end the fast), so do grant them permission to terminate their fasts." Rasulullaah ignored the man. When the man repeated himself, Rasulullaah again ignored him. When he again repeated himself, Rasulullaah again ignored him. When he did so yet again, Rasulullaah still ignored him. Thereafter, Rasulullaah said, "The two of them definitely did not fast. How can a person fast when he has spent this day eating the flesh of people? Go and tell them that if they really have fasted, they should vomit."

The man returned to them and when he informed them (of Rasulullaah's instruction), they both vomited clots of blood. The man then reported back to Rasulullaah who said, "I swear by the Being Who controls my life that if it

Another narration states that when the man told one of the ladies to vomit, she vomited blood, puss and meat which half filled a cup. When he then told the other lady to vomit, she vomited blood, puss and fresh meat which then filled the cup. Rasulullaah \( \text{ﷺ} \) then said, "The two of them fasted (abstained) from what Allaah had made lawful for them (food and drink) but then terminated their fasts with that which Allaah had forbidden for them (backbiting). The one sat with the other and started eating the flesh of other people." (2)

The Incident of Hadhrat Abu Bakr ﷺ and Hadhrat Umar ﷺ with a Man who Used to Serve them

Hadhrat Anas bin Maalik ﷺ reports that it was customary amongst the Arabs to serve each other during journeys. There was a man who used to serve Hadhrat Abu Bakr ﷺ and Hadhrat Umar ﷺ and it once occurred that the two of them slept away (after charging the man to prepare their meal. He however also fell asleep). When the two awoke and the meal was not prepared, they remarked, "He is a real sleepy head." They then got him up and told him to go to Rasulullaah ﷺ with the message, "Abu Bakr and Umar convey their Salaams to you and ask for some gravy." (When the man brought the message,) Rasulullaah ﷺ said, "The two of them have already eaten the gravy." (After informing them of Rasulullaah ﷺ's statement) Hadhrat Abu Bakr ﷺ and Hadhrat Umar ﷺ came to Rasulullaah ﷺ and said, "O Rasulullaah ﷺ! What have we eaten as gravy?" Rasulullaah ﷺ replied, "The flesh of your brother. I swear by the Being Who controls my life that I can see his flesh between your teeth." The two men submitted, "Do seek Allaah's forgiveness on our behalf, O Rasulullaah ﷺ." Rasulullaah ﷺ advised them saying, "Ask him to seek forgiveness for you." (3)

Spying to Discover Faults in Muslims

Hadhrat Umar ﷺ Turns a Blind Eye to People who Were Drinking

Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf ﷺ reports that one night he stood guard over Madinah with Hadhrat Umar ﷺ. As they were walking along, they noticed a lantern in a house. They walked towards it and when they got close, they found the door ajar. It revealed some people talking in raised voices and making a noise. Taking hold of Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf ﷺ's hand, Hadhrat Umar ﷺ asked, "Do you know whose house is this?" Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf replied, "This is the house of Rabee'ah bin Umayyah bin Khalaf and the people here are drinking wine. What do you think (we should do)?" Hadhrat Umar said, "We have perpetrated what Allaah has prohibited when He says:

\text{وَلاَ تَجَسَّسُوا} \quad \text{(Surah Hujuraat, verse 12)}

'We have spied.' Hadhrat Umar then went away and turned a blind eye to them. (1)

The Incident of Hadhrat Umar with an Individual and a Group of people

Hadhrat Sha'bi narrates that when Hadhrat Umar did not see one of his companions for some time, he told Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf to accompany him to the man's house to see what had happened to him. When they approached the house, they found the door open. The man was sitting there and his wife was busy pouring something in his cup and giving it to him. Hadhrat Umar said to Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf, "This is what had been keeping him away from us. Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan asked, "How will you know what is in the cup?" Hadhrat Umar said, "I fear that this may be spying." "But it is spying," Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan confirmed. "What is the way to repent for this?" Hadhrat Umar asked. Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan replied, "Do not inform him what has been learnt about his affairs and maintain only good thoughts about him." The two men then left. (2)

Hadhrat Ta'a'os reports that Hadhrat Umar left home one night to keep guard over some travellers who had set up camp on the outskirts of Madinah. It was late at night when he passed by a house where some people were drinking wine. Hadhrat Umar called out, "Is the command of Allaah being disobeyed? Is the command of Allaah being disobeyed?" One of them responded by saying, "Allaah has prohibited you from this (spying)." Hadhrat Umar then went away and left them alone. (3)

Hadrath Umar Scales the Wall of a Singer's House

Hadhrat Thowr Kindi narrates that Hadhrat Umar was patrolling Madinah one night when he heard a man singing in his house. Hadhrat Umar scaled the wall of the house and confronted the man saying, "0 enemy of Allaah! Do you think that Allaah will conceal your wrongs when you disobey Him?" The man replied, "Do not be hasty. 0 Ameerul Mu'mineen! While I may have disobeyed Allaah in one respect, you have disobeyed on three counts. While Allaah...

Hadhrat Umar submitted, "Will you employ the good in you if I overlook what you have been doing?" "Certainly," the man replied. Hadhrat Umar then pardoned the man, leaving the house and the man alone. \(^{(3)}\)

An Incident of Hadhrat Umar with an Old Man

Hadhrat Suddi reports that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood was with Hadhrat Umar when he saw the light of a fire during the dead of night. Following the light, Hadhrat Umar entered a house lit by a lantern. There they discovered an old man sitting with some drink and a slave girl who was singing for him. The man perceived nothing until Hadhrat Umar confronted him. Hadhrat Umar exclaimed, "To this night, I have never seen a sight uglier than this old man waiting for his death (in such sin)!" The old man lifted his gaze and said, "Quite in order, O Ameerul Mu'mineen! But what you have done is even uglier. You have been spying when Allaah has forbidden it and you have entered \(\text{without permission.}\)

"You are right," Hadhrat Umar admitted. As he left biting his garment and weeping, he said, "Umar's mother may well have lost him if his Rabb does not forgive him. This old man thought that he was hiding himself from his family but will now continue sinning saying that Umar has already seen me (what more have I to lose)." The old man then stayed away from Hadhrat Umar's gatherings for a while.

Hadhrat Umar was one day sitting in a gathering when the old man came discreetly and sat amongst the people at the back. Seeing him arrive, Hadhrat Umar sent someone to summon him. When the person told the old man that Hadhrat Umar was calling for him, the old man expected that Hadhrat Umar would now punish him for what he had seen him do. "Come closer to me," Hadhrat Umar bade the old man. Hadhrat Umar then kept calling him closer until he seated him right beside him. "Bring your ear closer to me," Hadhrat Umar told the old man. Hadhrat Umar then whispered in his ear saying, "Listen! I swear by the Being Who has sent Muhammad as a Rasul with the truth that neither I nor Ibn Mas'ood who was with me have informed a soul about what we had seen you doing."

The old man then said to Hadhrat Umar ﷺ, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! Bring your ear closer to me". He then whispered in Hadhrat Umar ﷺ's ear saying, "Listen! I swear by the Being Who has sent Muhammad ﷺ as a Rasul with the truth that upto the time that I have come to this gathering, I have never repeated myself." Hadhrat Umar ﷺ then raised his voice saying, "Allahu Akbar!" and none present there had any idea why he had done so. (1)

The Incident of Hadhrat Umar ﷺ with Hadhrat Abu Mihjin Thaqafi ﷺ

Hadhrat Abu Qilaabah narrates that Hadhrat Umar ﷺ was once informed that Hadhrat Abu Mihjin Thaqafi ﷺ and some of his friends were drinking wine at his house. Hadhrat Umar ﷺ left and entered the house, finding only one person with Hadhrat Abu Mihjin ﷺ. Hadhrat Abu Mihjin ﷺ said, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! This is not at all permissible for you because Allaah has forbidden you from spying." "What is he saying?" asked Hadhrat Umar ﷺ.

Hadhrat Zaid bin Thaabit ﷺ and Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Arqam ﷺ both agreed saying, "He is right, O Ameerul Mu'mineen! This falls into the category of spying." Hadhrat Umar ﷺ then left him alone. (2)

Concealing the Faults of Muslims

Hadhrat Umar ﷺ’s Instructions to the Family of a Young Lady in this Regard

Hadhrat Sha'bi reports that a man once came to Hadhrat Umar ﷺ saying, "I had a daughter whom I had buried alive during the Period of Ignorance. However, we then removed her from the ground before she died. Together with us, she then found the Period of Islaam and accepted Islaam. After accepting Islaam, she became liable for capital punishment for violating the law of Allaah. She then grabbed a dagger to kill herself but we managed to stop her after she had severed an artery. We then treated her and she has recovered. Subsequently, she has repented most sincerely. Now that she has received a proposal for marriage from a certain family, we have informed all about her past." Hadhrat Umar ﷺ said, "Do you wish to expose that which Allaah has concealed? By Allaah! If you ever again inform anyone about her past, I shall make you a lesson for all the people of the many cities to learn from. Marry her as you would marry any chaste Muslim woman." (3)

Hadhrat Sha'bi narrates that a woman was once punished for a crime of immorality. However, after her tribe had arrived as immigrants in Madinah, she repented very sincerely. When she received a proposal for marriage, her uncle did not approve of getting her married without first informing the people about her past. At the same time, he also disliked disclosing her secret. When he consulted

The Incident of Hadrat Umar \(\widehat{\text{ Hussain}}\), a Little Child and Four Women

Hadrat Shabi also reports that a woman once came to Hadrat Umar \(\widehat{\text{ Hussain}}\) saying, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! I have found a child (abandoned) together with an Egyptian cloth bag containing a hundred Dinaars. I then took the child and hired a wet nurse for him. There are now four women who come to the child and kiss him. I do not know which of them may be his mother." Hadrat Umar \(\widehat{\text{ Hussain}}\) then told her to inform him as soon as the women arrived again. When she did as told, Hadrat Umar \(\widehat{\text{ Hussain}}\) came and asked one of the women, "Which of you is the child's mother?" She responded by saying, "O Umar! You have not done well and your approach is totally wrong. Do you wish to expose a woman whom Allaah has concealed?" "You are right," Hadrat Umar \(\widehat{\text{ Hussain}}\) admitted. He then said to the lady (caring for the child), "Whenever these women come to you, you should not question them about anything and continue caring for the child." He then left. (2)

Hadrat Anas \(\widehat{\text{ Hussain}}\) Instructs that a Lady should Not be Exposed

Hadrat Saalih bin Karz narrates, "I once brought before Hakam bin Ayyoob a slave girl of mine who had fornicated. I was sitting there when Hadrat Anas bin Maalik \(\widehat{\text{ Hussain}}\) arrived and sat down as well. 'O Saalih!' he asked, 'Who is this slave girl with you?' I replied, 'She is my slave girl who has fornicated and I wish to have her case brought before the governor so that she may be punished.' Hadrat Anas \(\widehat{\text{ Hussain}}\) said, 'Do not do that. Rather take your slave girl back home. Fear Allaah and conceal her folly.' When I refused to do as he said, he said, 'Do not go ahead and do as I say.' He then continued insisting until I eventually took her back." (3)

Hadrat Dukhayn Abul Haytham was a scribe for Hadrat Uqba bin Aamir \(\widehat{\text{ Hussain}}\). He says, "I once said to Hadrat Uqba \(\widehat{\text{ Hussain}}\), 'We have a few neighbours who drink wine. I am going to call for the police to arrest them.' He advised, 'Do not do that. Rather advise them and threaten them (with arrest).' I replied, 'I have already tried to stop them but they refuse to take heed. I will now have to call the police to arrest them.' Hadrat Uqba \(\widehat{\text{ Hussain}}\) insisted, 'Shame on you! Do not do..."
that because I have heard Rasulullaah ﷺ say, 'Whoever conceals a fault is like one who has brought back to life one who has been buried alive.'”

The Incident Between Hadhrat Abu Darda’ and his Son Concerning the Criminals of Damascus

Hadhrat Bilaal bin Sa’d Ash’ari narrates that Hadhrat Mu’aawiya ﷺ once wrote to Hadhrat Abu Darda’ ﷺ to submit to him the names of all the criminals of Damascus. Hadhrat Abu Darda’ ﷺ said, “What have I to do with the criminals of Damascus? How am I to know who they are?” His son Bilaal then offered to write their names and when he did, Hadhrat Abu Darda’ ﷺ said, “How do you know them? You would never know that they are criminals unless you are amongst them, so begin with your own name.” He then did not send the list.

The Incident Between Hadhrat Jareer and Hadhrat Umar in this Regard

Hadhrat Sha’bi reports that Hadhrat Umar ﷺ was once in a room with Hadhrat Jareer bin Abdullaah (and others) when he smelt an odour (from someone who had passed wind). Hadhrat Umar ﷺ said, “I command the person responsible for this odour to get up and perform wudhu.” Hadhrat Jareer ﷺ then said, “O Ameerul Mu’mineen! Should everyone rather not perform wudhu (so that the one person is not embarrassed)?” Hadhrat Umar ﷺ praised him saying, “You were an excellent leader during the Period of Ignorance and now an excellent guide in Islaam.”

Forgiving and Overlooking the Faults of a Muslim

The Letter of Hadhrat Haatib bin Abi Balta’ah

Hadhrat Ali ﷺ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ dispatched him, Hadhrat Zubayr ﷺ and Hadhrat Miqdaad ﷺ with instruction saying, “Ride until you reach Rawda Khakh (4) There you will find a woman in her carriage with a note that you should take from her.” The Sahabah raced their horses to the place where they saw the woman. When they asked here for the note, she denied having it in her possession. When they threatened to remove all her clothing if she did not surrender the note, she removed the note from the plait of her hair. When they brought the note to Rasulullaah ﷺ, they discovered that it was from Hadhrat Haatib bin Abi Balta’ah ﷺ and it was addressed to the Mushrikeen of Makkah, passing on to them some information about (the intentions of) Rasulullaah ﷺ.

When Rasulullaah ﷺ asked Hadhrat Haatib ﷺ what the matter was, Hadhrat Haatib ﷺ explained, "O Rasulullaah ﷺ! Please do not be hasty. I am not one of the Quraysh and was only living with them as an ally. The others who have migrated with you have relatives in Makkah by virtue of whom their families and property are protected. Because I have no relatives there I wanted to do a favour for the Quraysh so that they become indebted to me. In this way, they will see to the protection of my family. I did not do it out of apostasy nor because of being pleased with kufr after becoming a Muslim."

After hearing the story, Rasulullaah ﷺ said, "He has spoken the truth." Hadhrat Umar ﷺ then exclaimed, "O Rasulullaah ﷺ! Permit me to behead this hypocrite." Rasulullaah ﷺ said, "Haadb participated in the Battle of Badr and Allaah has looked upon the veterans of Badr saying, 'Do as you please because I have forgiven you'."

It was with reference to this incident of Hadhrat Haatib ﷺ that Allaah revealed the verse:

(1) {Yaaminaa'ul zinden umnawu la tvajjoo'addawiy wa'adumum waron alluma nafsukum ilaihim palmaawid waqad

O you who have Imaan! Do not take My enemy and your enemy as friends, offering your friendship to them when they reject the truth (of Islaam) that has come to you. They have driven out the Rasool ﷺ and yourselves (from Makkah simply) because you believe in Allaah as your Rabb. If you emerge to strive (in Jihaad) in My path and to seek My pleasure (you would not befriend the Kuffaar). You secretly show friendship to them (by passing confidential information on to them) when I am Aware of what you conceal and what you reveal. The one who does this from among you has certainly strayed from the straight path. (Surah Mumtahina, verse 1) (2)

Another narration from Hadhrat Jaabir ﷺ adds that Hadhrat Haatib ﷺ said, "Rasulullaah ﷺ! I did not write the note because I am a hypocrite or because I wished to betray the messenger of Allaah. I knew that Allaah would grant victory to His Nabi and complete His Deen irrespective of whether I wrote or not. However, I was always an alien in Makkah and my mother still lives there. So I wished that the people of Makkah become indebted to me (and care for my mother on account of this)." Hadhrat Umar ﷺ then exclaimed, "O Rasulullaah ﷺ! Permit me to behead this hypocrite." Rasulullaah ﷺ said,

The Incident of Hadhrat Ali

with a Thief

Hadhrat Abu Matar reports that he once saw a person being brought to Hadhrat Ali

The people accused him of stealing a camel. Hadhrat Ali said to him, "I do not think that he had stolen." "No," said the man, "I did steal." Hadhrat Ali then asked, "Perhaps you made a mistake (mistook someone else's camel as your own)." However, the man confessed saying, "Not at all. I did steal." Hadhrat Ali then instructed his slave Qambar saying, "Take him and tie up his fingers. Then light a fire and summon the executioner to cut off his hand. Then wait for me to arrive."

When Hadhrat Ali

later arrived, he asked the man, "Did you steal?" This time his reply was, "No." Hadhrat Ali then let him go free. Some people asked, "0 Ameerul Mu'mineen! Why did you let him go when he had already confessed before you?" Hadhrat Ali replied, "It was by his statement that I had apprehended him so I therefore let him go also because of his statement. When a person was brought to Rasulullaah for stealing, his hand was cut by the command of Rasulullaah . Rasulullaah then started to weep. When I asked him what made him weep, he replied, 'Why should I not weep when the hands of my Ummah are being cut?' Some people then asked, '0 Rasulullaah ! Why did you then not pardon the man?' Rasulullaah replied, 'It is only an unfit ruler who would pardon a crime deserving corporal punishment. It is you people who should pardon each other (for crimes committed against you rather than demand the punishment)."(2)

The Instruction of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood

Concerning a Drunk

Hadhrat Abu Maajid Hanafi reports that a man once brought his drunk nephew to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood saying, "I found him drunk." Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood said, "Shake him up and smell his mouth." When the people shook him up and smelt his mouth, they discovered that he smelt of wine. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood then had him imprisoned. When the man was taken out of prison the following day, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood issued instructions for the end of the whip to be hammered (flattened and softened so that it may not be too hard on the man). He then said to the flogger, "Do not lift your hand so high that your armpits show and give every limb its right." The man was wearing a cloak and trousers when he was being flogged. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood had the man flogged lightly in this way and then set him free.

(1) Ahmad. as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihayah (Vol.4 Pg.284), reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.303). Haakim has also reported the narration, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.137), as have Abu Ya'la, Bazzar and Tabraani, all also reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.304).

(2) Abu Ya'la, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.117).
Thereafter, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood said (with reference to the uncle), "By Allaah! He is terrible guardian over an orphan! Neither did he train (his ward) well nor did he save him from disgrace. Allaah is indeed Most Forgiving and loves forgiving people. It is improper for a governor not to enforce corporal punishment when the case is brought before him." He then started relating a Hadith, "The first Muslim whose hand was cut (for theft) was a man from the Ansaar who was brought before Rasulullaah . (This depressed Rasulullaah so much that) It appeared as if dust had been thrown over Rasulullaah's face. 'O Rasulullaah! some people asked, 'It appears as if this is extremely hard for you?' Rasulullaah replied, 'What is there to prevent me (from being depressed) when you people are assisting Shaytaan against your brother (by not forgiving him rather than demanding that he be punished). Allaah is indeed Most Forgiving and loves to forgive. It is improper for a ruler not to enforce corporal punishment when the case is brought before him.' Rasulullaah then recited the verse:

They should (rather) forgive and pardon. Do you not like Allaah to forgive you? Just as you would like Allaah to forgive you for your shortcomings, you should also forgive the shortcomings of others. Be like Allaah (Who) is Most Forgiving, Most Merciful. (1) {Surah Noor, verse 22} (2)

Hadhrat Amr bin Shu'ayb narrates that the first instance of corporal punishment enforced in Islaam was to a man who was brought to Rasulullaah . After the witnesses had testified against him, Rasulullaah gave the instruction for his hand to be cut. After the man's hand was amputated, Rasulullaah's face appeared as if dust had been thrown on it. The Sahabah asked, "O Rasulullaah! It appears as if the amputation of his hand had been hard for you?" 'What is there to prevent me (from being depressed) when you people are assisting Shaytaan against your brother?' "Why did you not release him then?" they asked. Rasulullaah said, "Why did you not do that before bringing him to me? When a ruler is presented with a case deserving of punishment, it is improper for him to ignore it (when guilt is proven, the ruler cannot waive the punishment unless the aggrieved party pardons the criminal)." (3)

The Incident of Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari

Flogging a Drunk and the Letter Hadhrat Umar Wrote to him

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar narrates that he was once with (his father)

(1) The entire verse reads: "They should (rather) forgive and pardon. Do you not like Allaah to forgive you? Just as you would like Allaah to forgive you for your shortcomings, you should also forgive the shortcomings of others. Be like Allaah (Who) is Most Forgiving, Most Merciful.

(3) Abdur Razzaaq, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.83,89).
Hadrat Umar  for Hajj or Umrah when they spotted a rider arrive. "I think that he is looking for us," said Hadrat Umar . When the man arrived, he started weeping. Hadrat Umar consoled him saying, "What is the matter? If you are in debt, we shall assist you. If you are in fear, we shall grant you security; unless you have murdered someone and deserve to be executed. If you dislike living amongst certain people, we shall transfer you away from them."

The man replied, "When living with the Banu Taym, I drank some wine. Abu Moosa Ash'ari had me flogged, shaved off my hair, blackened my face and had me paraded through the streets announcing to the people, 'Do not associate with him and do not eat with him!' Three ideas then came to my mind. The first was to use my sword to kill Abu Moosa, the second was to come to you so that you may transfer me to Shaam where no one knows me, and the third was to join the enemy and to eat and drink with them."

Hadrat Umar then also started to weep saying, "Even if Umar were to have a staggering sum of wealth, it would give me no pleasure if you were to do these things. In fact, I had been one of the worst drunks during the Period of Ignorance. Drinking is not as serious a crime as adultery." Hadrat Umar then wrote to Hadrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari . After greeting him and informing him that the particular person from the Banu Taym tribe had reported the incident to him, he wrote:

"I swear by Allaah that if you ever repeat yourself, I shall ensure that I blacken your face and parade you through the streets. If you wish to know whether my words are true, go ahead and repeat what you did. Command the people to associate with the man and to eat with him. If he has repented, they should also accept his testimony."

Hadrat Umar then gave the man transport together with two hundred Dirhams. (1)

Interpreting the Actions of Muslims in a Favourable Manner

The Incident of Hadrat Khaalid bin Waleed and Hadrat Maalik bin Nuwayrah

Hadrat Abu Own and others reports that Hadrat Khaalid bin Waleed once claimed that Hadrat Maalik bin Nuwayrah had left the fold of Islaam because of a statement he had been informed Hadrat Maalik made. However, Hadrat Maalik denied the allegation saying, "I am still firm on Islaam and have not changed in the least." However, even though Hadrat Abu Qataadah and Hadrat Abdullaah bin Umar testified in favour of Hadrat Maalik, Hadrat Khaalid bin Waleed brought Hadrat Maalik forward and commanded Hadrat Diraar bin Azwar Asadi to execute Hadrat Maalik, which he did. (After the expiry of her Iddah) Hadrat Khaalid bin Waleed then married Hadrat Maalik

(1) Bayhaqi, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.107).
When the news reached Hadhrat Umar  that Hadhrat Khaalid bin Walieed  had Hadhrat Maalik  executed and married his wife, Hadhrat Umar  said to Hadhrat Abu Bakr , "Khaalid has committed adultery so have him stoned to death." However, Hadhrat Abu Bakr  said, "I cannot have him stoned because (he had not done so intentionally but) he had erred in his judgement." Hadhrat Umar  insisted, "But you should have him executed because he had killed a Muslim." Hadhrat Abu Bakr  again said, "I cannot have him executed because (he had not done so intentionally but) he had erred in his judgement." "Then at least relieve him of his post," demanded Hadhrat Umar . Hadhrat Abu Bakr  responded by saying, "I shall never sheath a sword that Rasulullaah had drawn." (1)

Hating the Sin and not the Sinner

Hadhrat Abu Dardaa  and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood Forbid Swearing a Sinner

Hadhrat Abu Qilaaba narrates that Hadhrat Abu Dardaa  once passed by a person whom people were insulting for committing a sin. Hadhrat Abu Dardaa  said to them, "If you people ever found him lying in a well, would you take him out of it?" When they replied that they certainly would, Hadhrat Abu Dardaa  said, "Then do not insult your brother but rather thank Allaah for safeguarding you (from the sin)." "Do you not hate him?" the people enquired. Hadhrat Abu Dardaa  replied, "I only hate his evil act. When he forsakes it, he is again my brother." (2)

Another narration states that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood  said, "When you see your brother commit a sin, do not assist Shaytaan against him by saying, 'O Allaah! Humiliate him! O Allaah! Curse him!' Rather ask Allaah for safety (from the sin). We the companions of Rasulullaah never said anything about a person until we knew in what condition he died. If he died in a good manner, we then knew for certain that he earned much good. On the other hand, if he died in a bad way, we feared for him." (3)

Keeping The Heart Free from Ill-Feelings and Jealousy

The Incident of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr  and a Sahabi Whom Rasulullaah had Given the Glad Tidings of Jannah

Hadrath Anas reports that they were once sitting with Rasulullaah

(1) Ibn Sa'd, as quoted in Kanzul Ummal (Vol.3 Pg.132).
(2) Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.174). Abu Nu'aym has reported a similar narration in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.225).
(3) Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.4 Pg.206).
when he said, "A man from amongst the people of Jannah shall now appear before you." A man from the Ansar then arrived with his beard dripping water from his wudhu and hanging his shoes over his left hand. The next day Rasulullaah said the same thing and the same man again appeared as he did the first time. On the third day, Rasulullaah again repeated his words and the man appeared yet again in the same state as he did previously.

After Rasulullaah had stood up (and left), Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr bin Al Aas followed the man saying to him, "I had an argument with my father and swore not to go home for three days. Do you think that you could accommodate me at your place until the period expires?" When the man agreed, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr stayed with him for three days. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr did not see the man perform any salaah during the night. All he did was to engage in Dhikr and recite "Allaahu Akbar" whenever he awoke at night and turned on another side. He then continued sleeping until the Fajr salaah. "Apart from this," Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr recalls, "I heard him speaking only good. After the three days had passed, I was on the verge of thinking that his deeds were not deserving (of the accolade Rasulullaah paid to them), when I enquired, 'O servant of Allaah! There was never any argument or severed tie between my father and I. (I wanted to stay with you because) On three occasions I heard Rasulullaah say, 'A man from amongst the people of Jannah shall now appear before you.' On each of the three occasions, it was you who appeared. I therefore made up my mind to stay with you for three days to observe your actions so that I may follow suit. I have however not seen you do anything extraordinary. What is it that you do to deserve what Rasulullaah said?"

"There is nothing besides what you have observed," the man replied. When Hadhrat Abdullaah was leaving, the man called him back and said, "There is nothing besides what you have observed. However, another thing is that I harbour absolutely no ill-feelings towards any Muslim and I do not begrudge anyone for any good that Allaah has granted him." Hadhrat Abdullaah confirmed, "It is this that has conveyed you (to the status Rasulullaah gave you)." (1)

Another narration names the Sahabi as Hadhrat Sa'd. The end of this narration states that Hadhrat Sa'd said, "There is nothing besides what you have observed, dear nephew. However, I never go to sleep with any ill-feelings for any Muslim." (2) Yet another narration states that to this, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr remarked, "It is this that has conveyed you and it is something that we are incapable of doing." (3)

Another narration names the Sahabi as Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas. The end part of that narration states that Hadhrat Sa'd said, "There is nothing besides what you have observed, dear nephew. However, I do not harbour any ill-feelings for any Muslim and never speak any ill about them." To this, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr [114x628] remarked, "It is this that has conveyed (glad tidings of Jannat) you and it is something that I am incapable of doing." (1)

The Face of Hadhrat Abu Dujaanah [114x628] Shines During his Illness

Hadhrat Zaid bin Aslam [114x628] reports that when people went to visit Hadhrat Abu Dujaanah [114x628] during his illness, his face was always shining and radiant. When he was asked the reason for his radiant face, he replied, "There are two deeds of mine that I have the most reliance on (that they will be a source of my salvation and because of which my face is as you see). The first is that I never speak what is not necessary and the second is that my heart is always clear towards all Muslims." (2)

Deriving Pleasure from the Happiness of the Muslims

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas [114x628] is Happy for the Happiness of the Muslims

Hadhrat Buraydah Aslami [114x628] narrates that when someone once insulted Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas [114x628], he responded by saying, "You are insulting me when I have three qualities in me. Whenever I recite a verse of Allaah's Book, I wish that all of mankind also share the knowledge I have. (The second is that) Whenever I hear of a Muslim ruler exercising justice amongst the people, I become extremely happy even though I may never have the opportunity of having a case judged by him. (The third is that) Whenever I hear about rains falling upon any city of the Muslims, I become very happy (for them) even though I have no grazing animals in that area." (3)

Behaving Cordially towards People

Rasulullaah [114x628] Behaves Cordially Towards a Man of Evil Disposition

Hadhrat Aa'isha [114x628] reports that when a man asked permission to see Rasulullaah [114x628], Rasulullaah [114x628] remarked, "He is the worst of his tribe." However, when he entered, Rasulullaah [114x628] received him most warmly and showed happiness to have him. After the man had left, another person arrived and asked permission to see Rasulullaah [114x628]. This time, Rasulullaah [114x628] remarked,

(1) Ibn Asaakir, reporting from reliable sources, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.43).
(2) Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.102).
(3) Tabraani, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.284). Bayhaqi has also reported the narration, as quoted in Isaabah (Vol.2 Pg.334), as has Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.322).
"He is the best of his tribe." When this man entered, Rasulullaah ﷺ did not receive him as warmly as he did the first person and did not appear as happy as he did with the first.

After he had left, Hadhrat Aa'isha ﷺ asked, "O Rasulullaah ﷺ! When the first person arrived, you said what you did and then proceeded to receive him warmly and express happiness at his visit. You then said what you did about the second person but did not receive him as you did the first person." Rasulullaah ﷺ replied, "Amongst the worst of people are those from whose abuse people have to guard themselves." (1)

Hadrat Safwaan bin Assaal ﷺ narrates that they were once on a journey with Rasulullaah ﷺ when a man arrived. Seeing him arrive, Rasulullaah ﷺ commented, "He is the worst of his tribe and a terrible person." However, when he arrived, Rasulullaah ﷺ allowed him to sit close to him. After he has left, the Sahabah ﷺ asked, "O Rasulullaah ﷺ! When you saw him, you said that he is the worst of his tribe and a terrible person. However, when he arrived, you allowed him to sit close to you?" Rasulullaah ﷺ replied, "He is a Munaafiq and because of his hypocrisy I treat him cordially so that he may not spoil my name before others." (2)

Hadrat Buraydah ﷺ reports that they were once with Rasulullaah ﷺ when a man from the Quraysh arrived. Rasulullaah ﷺ allowed him to sit close by and treated him like a close acquaintance. After the man had left, Rasulullaah ﷺ asked, "O Buraydah! Do you know that man?" "Yes," replied Hadrat Buraydah ﷺ, "He is the noblest and wealthiest of the Quraysh." Rasulullaah ﷺ repeated the question thrice (and Hadrat Buraydah ﷺ repeated his reply each time) until he eventually submitted, "O Rasulullaah ﷺ! I have informed you as much as I know about him. You however know better." Rasulullaah ﷺ then said, "He is amongst those for whose (good) deeds Allaah shall not even erect a scale on the Day of Qiyaamah (because he has none)." (3)

The Statement of Hadrat Abu Dardaa ﷺ Concerning the Cordial Treatment of the Sahabah

Hadrat Abu Dardaa ﷺ once stated, "While we may be smiling in the faces of certain people, our hearts are actually cursing them." (4)

Another narration adds that Hadrat Abu Dardaa ﷺ said, "We also laugh with them." (5)

(3) Tabraani in his Awsat. Haythami (Vol.8 Pg.17) has commented on the chain of narrators.

Making a Muslim Happy

Hadhrat Abu Bakr ðRegrets his Exchange of Words with Hadhrat Umar ðand seeks Forgiveness

Hadhrat Abu Dardaa ðnarrates that they were once sitting with Rasulullaah ðwhen Hadhrat Abu Bakr ðcame in (in a hurry) holding the edge of his clothing (and without him realising it) because of which his knees were exposed. Rasulullaah ðcommented, "Look! Your friend has had an argument." After greeting with Salaam, Hadhrat Abu Bakr ðsaid, "I had an argument with (Hadhrat Umar) Ibn Khattaab and in the heat of the discussion I told him something. I then regretted the words and asked him to forgive me. However, he refused to do so and I have therefore come to you." Rasulullaah ðthrice repeated, "May Allaah forgive you, O Abu Bakr."

Hadhrat Umar ðlater regretted (not forgiving Hadhrat Abu Bakr ð) and went to his house. When he asked if Hadhrat Abu Bakr ðwas at home, he was informed that Hadhrat Abu Bakr ðwas not there. He then went to Rasulullaah ðand greeted with Salaam. However, Rasulullaah ð's face reddened (with anger) so much that Hadhrat Abu Bakr ðbecame alarmed. Kneeling down before Rasulullaah ð, Hadhrat Abu Bakr ðpleaded, "O Rasulullaah ð! I swear by Allaah that it was I who was at fault." After Hadhrat Abu Bakr ðhad repeated this twice, Rasulullaah ðsaid, "When Allaah sent me (as a Nabi) to you people, you all said that I was lying except for Abu Bakr who said, 'He is speaking the truth.' He then supported me with his health and wealth, so will you people not leave my companion alone for my sake?"

This Rasulullaah ðrepeated twice, after which no one hurt Hadhrat Abu Bakr ðever again. (1)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ðnarrates that Hadhrat Abu Bakr ðonce used insulting words for Hadhrat Umar ðbut then said, "Please forgive me, dear brother." However, Hadhrat Umar ðwas extremely angry (and refused to forgive him). Despite the fact that Hadhrat Abu Bakr ðrepeated his request several times, Hadhrat Umar ð's anger did not abate. The incident was then reported to Rasulullaah ðand when the Sahabah ðcame to Rasulullaah ðand sat before him, he said, "Your brother asked you to forgive him but you failed to do so." Hadhrat Umar ðreplied, "I swear by the Being Who has sent you with truth! There was not a time that he asked me to forgive him when I did not do so (privately). After yourself there is none of creation whom I like more than him." Hadhrat Abu Bakr ðthen added, "And I swear by the Being Who has sent you with the truth that after yourself there is none of creation whom I like more than him." Rasulullaah ðthen remarked, "Do not hurt me concerning this companion of mine because when Allaah sent me with guidance and the truth, you people said I am lying while Abu Bakr said, 'You are speaking the truth.' Had Allaah not named him my companion (in the Qur'aan), I would have surely made him my 'Khaleel' (special friend). He is after all my brother in Islaam. Take note! Seal off all accesses (leading from some houses directly to the Masjid) except the access leading from the house of Abu Bakr bin Abu Quhaafah."

Hadhrat Ummu Habeebah Forgives

Hadhrat Aa'isha and Hadhrat Ummu Salamah at the Time of her death

Hadhrat Aa'isha says, "Ummu Habeebah the wife of Rasulullaah called for me as she lay on her deathbed. She said, 'There had been incidents between us as occurs between co-wives. May Allaah forgive me and you for all such incidents that occurred between us.' I replied by saying, 'May Allaah forgive you all of that, overlook it and save you from the punishment of it all.' She then said, 'You have made me happy. May Allaah keep you happy.' She then sent for Ummu Salamah and said the same to her."

Hadhrat Abu Bakr Goes to Hadhrat Faatima to Make her Happy

Hadhrat Sha'bi narrates that when Hadhrat Faatima fell ill (just before her demise), Hadhrat Abu Bakr went to request permission to address her. (Her husband) Hadhrat Ali said, "O Faatima! Abu Bakr wants permission to speak to you." "Do you want me to permit him?" she asked. When Hadhrat Ali replied in the affirmative, she granted permission. Hadhrat Abu Bakr then started saying things that would please her. He said, "By Allaah! I forsook my home, wealth, family and tribe only for the pleasure of Allaah, for the pleasure of His Rasool and for your pleasure, the household of Rasulullaah." He then continued saying things to make her happy until she was pleased.

Hadhrat Umar asks Forgiveness from a Man whom he Disliked

Hadhrat Sha'bi narrates that Hadhrat Umar once mentioned that he disliked a particular person. People then started asking him why Hadhrat Umar so disliked him. Eventually, when too many people came to his house, he approached Hadhrat Umar and asked, "O Umar! Have I caused a rift in Islaam (amongst the Muslims)?" When Hadhrat Umar replied that he did not, the man asked, "Have I then committed any crime?" When Hadhrat Umar again replied that he did not, the man further asked, "Have I started some new innovation in Islaam?" "No," came the reply. The man then said, "For what reason do you then dislike me? Allaah has mentioned:

(وَالَّذِينَ يَؤْذُونَ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ وَالْمُؤْمِنَاتْ يَغْرُرُونَهُمْ مَا أَكْسَبُوا فَقَدْ أَحْمَلُوا بِهِمَا وَأَنْثَمَا مَيْتُا)

(Surah Ahzaab, verse 58)

Those who harm the Mu'mineen men and women for no sin on their part will bear the burden of slander and a manifest sin. {Surah Ahzaab, verse 58}

You have harmed me greatly (by making the statement). May Allaah not forgive you." Hadhrat Umar \(\text{A}^\text{\textregistered}\) then said, "He is right. By Allaah! neither has he caused any rift nor has he perpetrated any of the other wrongs. Do forgive me for that." Hadhrat Umar \(\text{A}^\text{\textregistered}\) then continued pleading with the man (to forgive him) until he eventually did. (1)

Hadhrat Rajaa bin Rabee'ah narrates that he was once sitting in the Masjid of Rasulullaah \(\text{A}^\text{\textregistered}\) in Madinah. In the gathering with him were the likes of Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed \(\text{A}^\text{\textregistered}\) and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr \(\text{A}^\text{\textregistered}\). When Hadhrat Hasan bin Ali \(\text{A}^\text{\textregistered}\) passed by and greeted them with Salaam, they all replied with the exception of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr \(\text{A}^\text{\textregistered}\), who remained silent. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr \(\text{A}^\text{\textregistered}\) then watched Hadhrat Hasan \(\text{A}^\text{\textregistered}\) leave and then replied:

وَعَلَّيْكَ السَّلاَمُ وَرَحْمَةُ اللَّهِ

He then said further, "Of all the inhabitants of the earth, that man is most beloved to the inhabitants of the heavens. By Allaah! I have not spoken to him since the days of the Battle of Siffeen." Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed \(\text{A}^\text{\textregistered}\) said, "Why do you then not go to him and present your excuse." Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr \(\text{A}^\text{\textregistered}\) agreed and when they went to Hadhrat Hasan \(\text{A}^\text{\textregistered}\) ’s house, Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed \(\text{A}^\text{\textregistered}\) asked permission to enter. He then entered and requested permission for Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr \(\text{A}^\text{\textregistered}\) to enter.

(When they had entered) Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed \(\text{A}^\text{\textregistered}\) said to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr \(\text{A}^\text{\textregistered}\), "Tell us what you just said when Hasan \(\text{A}^\text{\textregistered}\) passed by." "Of course," replied Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr \(\text{A}^\text{\textregistered}\), "I had told you that of all the inhabitants of the earth, this man is most beloved to the inhabitants of the heavens." Hadhrat Hasan \(\text{A}^\text{\textregistered}\) then said, "If you knew that I am the most beloved person on earth to the inhabitants of the heavens, why did you fight us and strengthen the ranks of the others during the Battle of Siffeen?" Hadhrat Abdullaah \(\text{A}^\text{\textregistered}\) submitted, "I swear by Allaah that I neither strengthened their ranks nor wielded a sword with them. I just happened to be with my father."

Hadhrat Hasan \(\text{A}^\text{\textregistered}\) asked, "Did you not know that the creation cannot be obeyed when it entails disobeying the Creator?" "I did indeed," Hadhrat Abdullaah explained, "but when I used to observe unbroken fasts during the time of Rasulullaah, my father complained to Rasulullaah. He said, 'O Rasulullaah! Abdullaah bin Amr fasts all day and engages in Ibaadah all night.' Rasulullaah then said, 'Fast on some days and do not fast on others. Observe Ibaadah and sleep as well because I perform salaah and sleep and I also fast at times and do not fast on other days.' Rasulullaah then added, 'O Abdullaah! Obey your father.' Therefore, when my father left to fight in the Battle of Siffeen, I had to leave with him." (1)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr Seek Pardon from Hadhrat Husayn bin Ali

Hadhrat Rajaa bin Rabee'ah narrates that he was once sitting in the Masjid of Rasulullaah when Hadhrat Husayn bin Ali passed by and greeted them with Salaam. While they all replied Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr, who remained silent. It was after the others became silent that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr replied:

\[ 	ext{عُلِيَّةِ الله وَرَحْمَةُ الله وَبَرَاكَانِهُ "} \]

He then turned to the people saying, "Should I not inform you who of the inhabitant of the earth is most beloved to the inhabitants of the heavens?" When the people begged to know, he said, "It is that man whose back is now towards you. By Allaah! Neither have I spoken a word to him nor has he spoken a word to me since the days of the Battle of Siffeen. By Allaah! For him to be on friendly terms with me is more beloved to me than a heap of wealth the size of Mount Uhud." Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed said, "Why do you then not go and present your excuse to him." Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr agreed and the two arranged to go together the next morning. Hadhrat Rajaa says that he accompanied them the following morning. When they went to Hadhrat Husayn's house, Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed asked permission to enter. When Hadhrat Husayn gave permission, he then entered with Hadhrat Rajaa and requested permission for Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr to enter. (When Hadhrat Husayn refused) Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed kept insisting until Hadhrat Husayn granted permission and Hadhrat Abdullaah entered.

When Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed saw Hadhrat Abdullaah enter, he moved off his place (to allow Hadhrat Abdullaah to sit there) but Hadhrat Husayn pulled him back. Hadhrat Abdullaah did not sit and when he saw this, Hadhrat Husayn let go of Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed who then made place for Hadhrat Abdullaah. Hadhrat Abdullaah then proceeded to sit between the two men. Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed then explained the situation of Hadhrat Husayn, who asked, "If that so, O Ibn Amr? Do you now really believe that I am the most beloved person on earth to the inhabitants of the heavens?" "Indeed," replied Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr

(1) Bazzaar. Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.177) has commented on the chain of narrators.
"I swear by the Rabb of the Kabah that you certainly are the most beloved inhabitant of earth to those of the heavens." "Then what made you fight my father and I during the Battle of Siffeen when I can swear by Allaah that my father was an even better person than I?" Hadhrat Abdullaah submitted, "That is correct. However, my father once complained about me to Rasulullaah saying, 'Abdullaah fasts all day and engages in Ibaadah all night.' Rasulullaah then said, 'Observe Ibaadah and sleep as well, fast on some days and do not fast on others and obey (your father) Amr.' When the Battle of Siffeen took place, my father forced me in Allaah's name (to participate). I swear by Allaah that I neither strengthened their ranks, never wielded a sword for them, never threw a spear for them nor shot an arrow."

Hadhrat Husayn asked, "Did you not know that the creation cannot be obeyed when it entails disobeying the Creator?" "I did indeed," Hadhrat Abdullaah replied. Hadhrat Husayn then accepted the explanation of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr.

Fulfilling the Need of a Muslim

Hadhrat Ali once said, "I cannot say which of the two favours of Allaah to me are greater. Whether it is a man coming to me with the sincere belief that I am able to fulfil his need or whether it is the favour of Allaah fulfilling his need or at least alleviating some of it at my hand. Fulfilling the need of a Muslim is something I love more than the earth full of gold and silver." (2)

Standing to Fulfil the Needs of a Muslim

Hadhrat Umar Stands Still for An Old Lady who Stopped him

Hadhrat Ibn Yazeed narrates that a lady called Khowlah once met Hadhrat Umar as she was travelling with some people. When she bade Hadhrat Umar to stop, he obliged, came close to her and lowered his head (to listen to her). He also placed his hand on her shoulders (and stood there listening to her) until she had stated her needs and had left. Someone asked, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! You kept senior men of the Quraysh waiting for that old lady?" "Shame on you!" Hadhrat Umar scolded, "Do you have any idea who that lady is?" When the man submitted that he did not, Hadhrat Umar said, "That is the woman whose complaint Allaah heard from above the seven heavens. That is Khowlah bint Tha'laba. By Allaah! Had she not turned away and left me until nightfall, I would have never turned away from her without hearing out her needs." (3)

Hadhrat Thumaamah ibn Hazan reports that a lady once met Hadhrat Umar as he was riding his donkey. "Stop, O Umar!" she demanded. When

Allaah had certainly heard the speech of the lady who debated with you (O Rasulullaah ﷺ) concerning her husband and who complained to Allaah. (Sura Mujaadalah, verse 1)

Walking to Fulfil the Needs of a Muslim

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas ﷺ Leaves His I'tikaaf to Fulfil a Need of a Muslim

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas ﷺ was once observing I'tikaaf in the Masjid of Rasulullaah ﷺ when a man came to him. After the man had greeted with Salaam and sat down, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas ﷺ said, "It seems that you are extremely concerned about something?" "That is true, 0 cousin of Rasulullaah ﷺ!" the man replied. "I am indebted to someone and I swear by the honour of the occupant of this grave (Rasulullaah ﷺ) that I am unable to settle it." "Should I speak to him on your behalf?" Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas ﷺ offered. "if you please," the man replied.

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas ﷺ then put on his shoes and left the Masjid. The man called out, "Have you forgotten what you were engaged in (your I'tikaaf)?" "No," Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas ﷺ replied, "It is something that I heard from the occupant of this grave and it was not a long time ago." His eyes then welled with tears as he continued, "I heard him say, 'Whoever walks to fulfil the need of a Muslim and applies himself in this regard, it will be better for him than ten years of I'tikaaf. As for the one who spends a single day in I'tikaaf for the pleasure of Allaah, Allaah will place between him and the fire of Jahannam three trenches larger than the distance between the heavens and the earth." Visiting a Muslim

Rasulullaah ﷺ Often Visited the Ansaar

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Qais ﷺ narrated that Rasulullaah ﷺ visited the Ansaar very often, both on an individual basis and on a collective basis. The Sahabah Visit each Other

Hadhraat Anas Ṭab'în reports that Rasulullaah ﷺ used to forge a bond of brotherhood between every two Sahabah (The bond became so strong that) The night would seem extremely long for each one of the two until he had met his brother. They would show great love and affection to each other when they did meet and would ask each other what he had done since they last met. As for the others (between whom no bonds were formed), not even three days would pass any of them without him getting to know what had happened to his brother.(1)

Hadhraat Own narrates that when the companions of Hadhraat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood Ṭab'în came to see him, he said, "Do you people sit in each other's company?" "That we do not omit," they replied. "Do you still visit each other?" he enquired further. "Certainly, O Abu Abdur Rahmaan," they replied, "When one of us does not see his brother, he would go walking to the end of Kufa to meet him." Hadhraat Abdullaah Ṭab'în then remarked, "you people will certainly remain in good stead as long as you keep doing this." (2)

Hadhraat Ummu Dardaa Ṭab'în says that Hadhraat Salmaan Ṭab'în once came walking all the way from Mada'in to visit them (her husband Hadhraat Abu Dardaa Ṭab'în) in Shaam. He was then wearing a short shawl that just covered his knees.(3)

Hadhrat Salmaan replied, "I once went to visit Rasulullaah ﷺ as he was reclining on a cushion. He then threw it to me and said to me, 'O Salmaan. When a Muslim goes to visit his brother Muslim and he (the host) throws him a cushion (to use) as a gesture of hospitality, Allaah forgives his sins.'" (2)

Hadhrat Anas ٹر ﷺ also reports that when Hadhrat Umar ﷺ went to visit Hadhrat Salmaan Faarsi ٹر ﷺ. Hadhrat Salmaan ٹر ﷺ threw a cushion to Hadhrat Umar ﷺ, who asked, "What is this, O Abu Abdullaah," Hadhrat Umar ﷺ asked. The Statement of Hadhrat Ibn Jaz Zubaydi Concerning Hospitality towards Guests

When two persons went to visit Hadhrat Abdullah bin Haarith bin Jaz Zubaydi, he removed from beneath him a cushion that he had been sitting on and threw it to them. They said, "We do not need this because we have only come to hear something of benefit to us." Hadhrat Abdullah bin Haarith then said, "Whoever is not hospitable towards his visitor has no ties with either Muhammad or Ibraheem. Glad tidings for the one who spends the day holding the reins of his horse in the path of Allaah, ending his fast with only a piece of bread and some cold water. Destruction for those who are served a variety of foods and who savour them all like cows saying, 'Take this away, servant! Bring that, servant!' When doing all of this, they fail to think of Allaah." (2)

Being Hospitable Towards a Prominent Person

Rasulullah Throws his Shawl for Hadhrat Jareer bin Abdullah Bajali to Sit on

Hadhrat Jareer bin Abdullah Bajali reports that he once went to see Rasulullah in his room at a time when there was a large crowd present. As Hadhrat Jareer stood at the door, Rasulullah looked to his right and his left but could not find any place for Hadhrat Jareer to sit. Rasulullah then took his shawl, folded it and threw it to Hadhrat Jareer saying, "Sit on this." When Hadhrat Jareer caught the shawl, he held it against him, kissed it and then returned it to Rasulullah saying, "O Rasulullah! May Allaah honour you as you have honoured me." Rasulullah said, "When a prominent person of a tribe comes to you, you should honour him." (3)

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah narrates that when Hadhrat Jareer bin Abdullah once came to Rasulullah's room, it was full of people and he could find nowhere to sit. Rasulullaah Gives a Cushion to Hadhrat Adi bin Haatim

Hadhrat Adi bin Haatim narrates that when he came to Rasulullaah, Rasulullaah gave him a cushion (to sit on) but he preferred to rather sit on the bare ground. Hadhrat Adi then said, "I testify that you neither seek superiority on earth nor any corruption." He then accepted Islam. The Sahabah commented, "O Nabi! We have seen you do something today that we have not seen you do for anyone else." Rasulullaah replied, "When a prominent person of a tribe comes to you, you should honour him." (3)

Rasulullaah Honours Hadhrat Abu Raashid

Hadhrat Abu Raashid bin Abdur Rahmaan says, "I went to Rasulullaah with a hundred men from my tribe. When we drew close to Rasulullaah, we stopped and the others said to me, 'You go ahead, O Abu Mu'aawiyah. If you see what you like, come back to us and we shall all go to him. On the other hand, if you do not like what you see, come back to us and we shall all turn back.' Although I was the youngest of us all, I went to Rasulullaah and said, 'A very good morning to you, O Muhammad.', 'That is not the greeting Muslims use amongst themselves,' Rasulullaah said. 'What is it then, O Rasulullaah?' I enquired. Rasulullaah replied, 'When you meet any Muslims, you should say: 'السلام علیکم ورحمة الله وبرکتی' I therefore said, 'السلام عليكم يا رسول الله ورحمة الله وبركاتان,' Rasulullaah replied by saying, 'وعليكم السلام ورحمة الله وبركاتان.' Winning over the Hearts of Certain Leaders

Rasulullaah ﷺ: Endearing the Leader of a Tribe

Hadhrat Abu Dharr ﷺ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ once asked him what he thought of Hadhrat Ju'ayl ﷺ. "I see him as just another poor man like many others," Hadhrat Abu Dharr ﷺ replied. When Rasulullaah ﷺ asked him what he thought of another man, Hadhrat Abu Dharr ﷺ replied, "He is a great leader amongst the leaders of people." Rasulullaah ﷺ then remarked, "But Ju'ayl is better than the world full of that man." Hadhrat Abu Dharr ﷺ then enquired, "O Rasulullaah ﷺ! Why do you then treat him (as well) as you do when he is that bad a person?" Rasulullaah ﷺ replied, "He is the leader of a tribe and I am merely winning them over (attracting them towards Islaam)."

Another narration states that someone said to Rasulullaah ﷺ, "O Rasulullaah ﷺ! You have given Uyaynah bin Hisn ﷺ and Aqra bin Haabis ﷺ a hundred camels each while you have left Ju'ayl ﷺ out. Rasulullaah ﷺ responded by saying, "I swear by the Being Who controls my life! Ju'ayl bin Suraaqa is better than the earth full of the likes of Uyaynah and Aqra. I am however (doing this in an effort towards) winning over the hearts of Uyaynah and Aqra. As for Ju'ayl, I entrust him to his Imaan (he needs nothing material to strengthen his Imaan)."

I am now very old. The time I spent with Rasulullaah ﷺ is now far past and I have forgotten some of the things that I remembered from him. You should therefore take note of what I narrate and do not force me to narrate that which I do not do so myself. Rasulullaah ﷺ once stood up to deliver sermon at a pond between Makkah and Madinah called Khum. After praising Allaah, giving advice and reminding us of some things, he said:

'O people! Take note that I am also a human and the messenger (angel of death) from my Rabb shall soon come and I shall have to respond. I am however leaving behind me two weighty things. The first is the Book of Allaah that contains guidance and light. You should therefore grab Allaah's Book and hold fast to it.' Rasulullaah ﷺ then encouraged the people to Allaah's Book and then added, '(The second thing is) The members of my household. I urge you to remember Allaah when dealing with the members of my household. I urge you to remember Allaah when dealing with the members of my household.'

Husayn then enquired, 'Who exactly are the members of Rasulullaah ﷺ's household? Are his wives not members of his household?' Hadhrat Zaid ﷺ replied, 'Although Rasulullaah ﷺ's wives are members of his household, the actual members of his household are those to whom giving Zakaah is forbidden after the demise of Rasulullaah ﷺ.' When Husayn asked for further elaboration, Hadhrat Zaid ﷺ explained, 'They are the family of Ali ﷺ, the family of Aqeel ﷺ, the family of Ja'far ﷺ and the family of Abbaas ﷺ.' Husayn enquired further, 'Is zakaah forbidden for all of these people?' 'Yes,' was the reply.”

Rasulullaah ﷺ then said to Hadhrat Abu Bakr ﷺ, "It is only people of virtue who acknowledge the virtue of other people of virtue." When Hadhrat Abbaas ﷺ started speaking to Rasulullaah ﷺ, Rasulullaah ﷺ's voice became extremely soft. The Incident between Hadrat Umar ﷺ and Hadrat Abbaas ﷺ and the Du'aa Rasulullaah ﷺ Made for Hadrat Umar ﷺ because of his Honouring Hadrat Abbaas ﷺ

Hadrat Abdullaah bin Mas'oood ﷺ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ once sent Hadrat Umar ﷺ to collect zakaah. The first person Hadrat Umar ﷺ met was Hadrat Abbaas bin Abdul Muttalib ﷺ. "Bring along the zakaah for your wealth, O Abu Fadhl," Hadrat Umar ﷺ called out. Remember that had it not been for fear of Allaah your relationship with Rasulullaah ﷺ, I would have given you a befitting reply for what you have said." The two then separated and took different paths.

Hadrat Umar ﷺ then met Hadrat Ali bin Abi Taalib ﷺ and related the incident to him. Hadrat Ali ﷺ took Hadrat Umar ﷺ by the hand and led him to Rasulullaah ﷺ. "O Rasulullaah ﷺ!" Hadrat Umar ﷺ began, "When you sent me to collect zakaah, the first person I met was your uncle Abbaas. 'Bring along the zakaah for your wealth, O Abu Fadhl,' I called out. He

Hadhrat Abbaas ☪️ Slaps a Man who Insulted his Father

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas ☪️ narrates that when someone spoke about the father of Hadhrat Abbaas ☪️ and insulted him, Hadhrat Abbaas ☪️ slapped the man. Some people gathered around and swore, "By Allaah! We shall slap Abbaas just as he slapped this man." When this news reached Rasulullaah ☪️, he stood up to address the people. "Which person is most honoured by Allaah?" Rasulullaah ☪️ asked. "You, O Rasulullaah ☪️!" the people replied. Rasulullaah ☪️ continued, "Abbaas is from me and I am from him. Never insult the dead, thereby hurting the living." (2)

Another narration states that the people added, "O Rasulullaah ☪️! We seek Allaah's protection from your anger! Do seek forgiveness from Allaah on our behalf." Rasulullaah ☪️ complied. (3)

Hadhrat Abu Bakr ☪️ and Hadhrat Umar ☪️ Honour Hadhrat Abbaas ☪️ during their Terms as Khalifah

Hadhrat Ibn Shihaab reports that during their terms as Khalifah, whenever Hadhrat Abu Bakr ☪️ or Hadhrat Umar ☪️ met Hadhrat Abbaas ☪️ while they were riding, they would dismount the animal (let Hadhrat Abbaas ☪️ mount it) and then lead the animal while walking until Hadhrat Abbaas ☪️ had reached his destination. Only then would they leave him. (4)

Hadhrat Uthmaan ☪️ Lashes a man who Ridiculed Hadhrat Abbaas ☪️

Hadhrat Qaasim bin Muhammad reports that amongst the rulings that Hadhrat Uthmaan ☪️ initiated and which was approved of (by the Sahabah ☪️) was having a man lashed for ridiculing Hadhrat Abbaas bin Abdul Muttaalib ☪️ in an argument. When someone raised a objection, Hadhrat Uthmaan ☪️ said, "When Rasulullaah ☪️ honoured his uncle, how can I allow people to ridicule him? Whoever allows such behaviour will be opposing Rasulullaah (SAW).” This ruling was then sanctioned (by the Sahabah). (1)

Hadhrat Abu Bakr Honours Hadhrat Ali and Vacates his Place for him

Hadhrat Anas narrates that Rasulullaah (SAW) was once sitting in the Masjid with the Sahabah around him. Hadhrat Ali then arrived, greeted with Salaam and then stood there to look for a place to sit. Rasulullaah looked at the faces of the Sahabah to see which of them would make place for him. Hadhrat Abu Bakr, who was sitting on Rasulullaah (SAW)’s right shifted from his place and said, “Come here, O Abul Hasan.” Hadhrat Ali then sat between Rasulullaah (SAW) and Hadhrat Abu Bakr. The Sahabah could actually see the happiness on the face of Rasulullaah (SAW) as he said to Hadhrat Abu Bakr (R), “O Abu Bakr! It is only the people of virtue who recognise others of virtue.” (2)

A Group of the Ansaar Address Hadhrat Ali as “O Moulana”

Hadhrat Rabaah bin Haarith reports that a group of the Ansaar once came to Hadhrat Ali in Rahbah (a place in Kufa) and greeted him with the words, “As Salaamu Alayka, O Moulana (O our master)!” Hadhrat Ali asked, “How can I be your Moulah (master) when you are Arabs (and therefore cannot be slaves)?” They replied, “On the day Rasulullaah delivered a lecture at the pond of Khum, we heard him say, ‘For those to whom I am their Moulah (master), then he (Hadhrat Ali) is also their Moulah.’” Hadhrat Rabaah says that he followed the group after they had left and enquired who they were. I was informed that they were a group of the Ansaar and amongst them was Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob Ansaari as well. (3)

Rasulullaah Says, “For those to whom I am their Friend, then Ali should also be their Friend”

Hadhrat Buraydah reports, “Rasulullaah (SAW) once dispatched us on an expedition to which he appointed Hadhrat Ali as commander. After we returned, Rasulullaah asked us how we found our commander. It was either I or someone else who complained about him. While I was one who usually looked down, when I did lift my gaze, I saw that Rasulullaah (SAW)’s face had turned red (with anger). He said, ‘For those to whom I am their friend, then Ali should also be their friend.’ I then submitted, ‘I shall never hurt you again concerning Ali.’” (4)

Rasulullaah ﷺ Says, "Whoever Hurts Ali has Hurt me"

Hadrat Amr bin Shaas Aslami ﷺ who was with Rasulullaah ﷺ at Hudaybiyyah says, "I was with the group of horsemen under the command of Hadrat Ali ﷺ whom Rasulullaah ﷺ had dispatched to Yemen. When Hadrat Ali ﷺ behaved harshly with me, I harboured my anger within my heart. When we returned to Madinah, I complained about him in various gatherings and to whoever I met. One day, I went to the Masjid where Rasulullaah ﷺ was sitting. When Rasulullaah ﷺ saw me, he continued looking me in the eye until I sat down before him. As I sat down, he said, 'Take note, O Amr! You have hurt me deeply.' 'Innaa Lillaahi wa innaa Ilayhi Raaji'oon!' I exclaimed, 'I seek protection from Allaah and in Islaam from hurting the Rasool of Allaah ﷺ.' Rasulullaah ﷺ said, 'Whoever hurts Ali has hurt me.'"

Hadrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas ﷺ Seeks Protection from the Anger of Rasulullaah ﷺ when he Insulted Hadrat Ali ﷺ

Hadrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas ﷺ says, "I was sitting in the Masjid with two other persons when we insulted Ali ﷺ. When Rasulullaah ﷺ arrived, we could see the anger on his face, so we sought protection in Allaah from his anger. Rasulullaah ﷺ said, 'What have you got against me? Whoever hurts Ali has hurt me.'"

Hadrat Umar Reproaches Someone who Insulted Hadrat Ali ﷺ

Hadrat Urwa narrates that someone once insulted Hadrat Ali ﷺ in the presence of Hadrat Umar ﷺ. Hadrat Umar ﷺ said, "Do you know that occupant of this grave? He is Muhammad ﷺ, the son of Abdullah, who was the son of Abdul Muttalib. Ali is the son of Abu Taalib who was also the son of Abdul Muttalib. You should therefore only speak good of Ali ﷺ because if you hurt Ali, you will be hurting the one in this grave." (3)

Hadrat Sa'd says, "I shall never Revile him even if a Saw is Placed on my Head"

Hadrat Abu Bakr bin Khaalid bin Urfa narrates that he once went to Hadrat Sa'd bin Maalik and asked, "The news has reached me that in Kufa you people are being forced to revile Ali ﷺ. Have you ever reviled him?" Hadrat Sa'd replied, "Allaah forbid! I swear by the Being Who controls the life of

Hadrat Sa’d Forbids Hadrat Mu‘aawiya from Insulting Hadrat Ali

Hadrat Sa’d bin Abi Waqqaas narrates that Hadrat Mu‘aawiya bin Abu Sufyaa once instructed him saying, "What prevents you from reviling Abu Turaab (Hadrat Ali)?" Hadrat Sa’d replied, "If I had to my credit even one of the three virtues that Rasulullaah mentioned for Ali, I would prefer this to having red camels. I cannot revile him as long as I remember these. When Rasulullaah appointed Ali as his deputy (in Madinah) when leaving for one of the battles, Ali asked, 'O Rasulullaah! Are you leaving me behind with the women and children?' I then heard Rasulullaah say, 'Would you not like your relationship with me to be like the relationship between Haaroon and Moosa. Of course, there shall be no Nabi after me.' I also heard Rasulullaah say during the Battle of Khaybar, 'I shall give the flag to someone who loves Allaah and His Rasool and whom Allaah and His Rasool also love.' I also hoped to get it but Rasulullaah then asked for Ali to be summoned. When brought before Rasulullaah, he was suffering from pain in his eyes. Rasulullaah put some of his blessed saliva into Ali’s eyes (thus curing them) and handed the flag over to him. Allaah then granted the conquest at his hand. Furthermore, it was Ali, Faatima, Hasan and Husayn whom Rasulullaah called for when Allaah revealed the verse:

\text{سورة آل عمران آية 61}

"Say to them (O Rasulullaah), 'Come! We shall call your sons and our sons, your wives and our wives, yourselves and ourselves... {Surah Aal Imraan, verse 61}"

Thereafter, Rasulullaah said, "O Allaah! This is my family." (2) Hadrat Abu Nujayh narrates that when Hadrat Mu‘aawiya performed Hajj, he took hold of the hand of Hadrat Sa’d bin Abi Waqqaas and said, "O Abu Is’haaq! We are people whom all these battles have distanced from the Hajj to the extent that we have almost forgotten some of its Sunnah practices. You perform the Tawaaf and we will follow you." After the Tawaaf was complete, Hadrat Mu‘aawiya took Hadrat Sa’d into Daarun Nadwa where he seated him upon his chair. He then spoke of Hadrat Ali bin Abi Taalib and spoke ill of him.

Hadrat Sa’d said, "You brought me into your room, seated me on your chair and then start to speak ill of Ali?! By Allaah! More than everything...

upon which the sun rises, I love to have even one of the three virtues he had. More than everything upon which the sun rises, I love to have for myself what Rasulullaah ﷺ said to him when he left for the expedition to Tabook. On that occasion, Rasulullaah ﷺ said to Ali ﷺ, 'Would you not like your relationship with me to be like the relationship between Haaroon ﷺ and Moosa ﷺ. Of course, there shall be no Nabi after me.' More than everything upon which the sun rises, I love to have for myself what Rasulullaah ﷺ said about him during the Battle of Khaybar. Allaah shall grant the conquest at his hand and he is never one who flees from the battlefield.' More than everything upon which the sun rises, I love to have for myself the virtue of being the son-in-law of Rasulullaah ﷺ by marrying his daughter and having from her the children that he did. I shall never again enter any room with you." Hadhrat Sa'd ﷺ then shook off his shawl and left. (1)

Hadhrat Ummu Salamah ﷺ Rebukes Someone who Reviled Hadhrat Ali ﷺ

Hadhrat Abu Abdullaah Jadali reports, "I once went to Hadhrat Ummu Salamah ﷺ, who asked, 'Do people amongst you revile Rasulullaah ﷺ? 'Allaah forbid!' I exclaimed. I may also have made statements like 'Subhaanallaah!' or something similar. She then said, 'I have heard Rasulullaah ﷺ say, 'Whoever reviles Ali has reviled me.'" (2)

Hadhrat Abu Abdullaah Jadali reports that Hadhrat Ummu Salamah ﷺ once asked him, "Do people amongst you revile Rasulullaah ﷺ?" "How can Rasulullaah ﷺ be reviled?" he asked. She replied, "Is Ali ﷺ and those he loves not reviled whereas Rasulullaah ﷺ loved him?" (3)

The Statement of Hadhrat Ali ﷺ Concerning his Lineage and Deen

Hadhrat Abu Saadiq reports that Hadhrat Ali ﷺ once said to him, "My lineage is the same as that of Rasulullaah ﷺ and my Deen is also the same as that of Rasulullaah ﷺ. Therefore, whoever reviles me actually reviles Rasulullaah ﷺ." (4)

(who was still a child) came there and said, "Do dismount my grandfather's place!" Hadhrat Abu Bakr ﷺ said, "You are right. This place is your grandfather's."

Hadhrat Abu Bakr ﷺ then put Hadhrat Hasan ﷺ on his lap and started to weep (thinking of Rasulullah ﷺ). Hadhrat Ali ﷺ excused himself saying, "By Allaah! This was not by my instruction." "That's true," Hadhrat Abu Bakr ﷺ agreed, "I had no doubts about it." (1)

Hadhrat Urwa narrates that Hadhrat Abu Bakr ﷺ was once delivering a sermon when Hadhrat Hasan ﷺ (who was still a child) arrived and also mounted the pulpit saying, "Do dismount my grandfather's pulpit!" Hadhrat Ali ﷺ then said, "This was done without my consultation." (2)

Hadrat Umar ﷺ honours Hadhrat Husayn ﷺ

Hadrat Urwa narrates that Hadhrat Umar ﷺ was once delivering a sermon when Hadhrat Husayn ﷺ (who was still a child) stood up and said, "Do dismount my grandfather's pulpit!" Hadhrat Umar ﷺ said, "It is indeed the pulpit of your grandfather and not that of mine. Who instructed you to do this?" Hadhrat Ali ﷺ then stood up and said, "No one instructed him to do it! Take note, you rascal! I shall definitely punish you for this." Hadhrat Umar ﷺ interceded by saying, "Do not punish my nephew for he has spoken the truth. By Allaah! It is certainly his grandfather's pulpit." (3)

Hadrat Husayn ﷺ narrates, "I once climbed the pulpit on which Umar ﷺ was and said, 'Do dismount my grandfather's pulpit and mount your father's pulpit!' 'My father does not have a pulpit,' he replied and he then made me sit with him. After dismounting and proceeding home, he asked, 'Dear child! Who taught you to do this?' When I assured him that no one did, he said, 'Dear son! It would be nice if you visited us frequently.' I therefore went to him one day but found him alone with Mu'aawiya while his son Abdullaah was standing at the door and did not have permission to enter. I therefore returned home. When Umar ﷺ met me afterwards, he asked, 'Dear son! Why is it that you have not visited us?' I replied, 'I had come when you were alone with Mu'aawiya. However, when I saw that your son Abdullaah had to return (without receiving permission to enter), I also returned.' He said, 'You are more deserving of permission than my son Abdullaah. Allaah has crowned our heads because of your family (Rasulullah ﷺ).' He then placed his hand on my head." (4)

Hadrat Abu Bakr ﷺ Honours Hadhrat Hasan ﷺ

Hadrat Uqba bin Haarith narrates that it was after the demise of Rasulullah that he left the Masjid with Hadhrat Abu Bakr after performing the Asr salah. Hadhrat Ali was walking on the right of Hadhrat Abu Bakr when they passed by Hadhrat Ali's son Hadhrat Hasan playing with some other boys. Hadhrat Abu Bakr put the boy on his shoulders as he said a couplet which meant:

"May my father be sacrificed! This boy is the image of Nabi and in no way resembled his father"

Hadhrat Ali laughed at this.

Hadrat Abu Hurayrah Kisses Hadhrat Hasan's Stomach

Hadrat Umayr bin Is'haaq reports that he saw Hadrat Abu Hurayrah meet Hadrat Hasan bin Ali and say, "Show me that part of your stomach where I saw Rasulullaah kiss." When Hadrat Hasan did so, Hadrat Abu Hurayrah also kissed the spot. Another narration states that Hadrat Abu Hurayrah kissed his navel. (2) Yet another narration states that when Hadrat Hasan uncovered his belly, Hadrat Abu Hurayrah placed his hand on Hadrat Hasan's navel. (3)

Hadrat Abu Hurayrah Uses the Words "My Guide" when Addressing Hadhrat Hasan

Hadrat Maqbari reports that they were once with Hadrat Abu Hurayrah when Hadrat Hasan bin Ali arrived and greeted them with Salaam. The people returned the greeting but Hadrat Abu Hurayrah was unaware of what happened until somebody said to him, "That was Hasan bin Ali who greeted with Salaam." Hadrat Abu Hurayrah then went to meet Hadrat Hasan and said, "Salaams to you too, O my leader." When someone asked Hadrat Abu Hurayrah why he had addressed Hadrat Hasan as "my leader", Hadrat Abu Hurayrah replied, "I testify that I heard Rasulullaah say, 'He is a leader.' (4)

The Incident Between Hadrat Abu Hurayrah and Marwaan Concerning Having Love for Hadrat Hasan and Hadrat Husayn

pulled himself together and sat up saying, "I testify that we were once travelling with Rasulullaah when he heard Hasan and Husayn crying. They were with their mother (Hadhrat Faatima) at the time. Rasulullaah hurried to them and I heard him ask, "What is the matter with my children?" When their mother informed Rasulullaah that they were suffering of thirst, Rasulullaah grabbed at his water bag to see if it had water (but it did not have any). Water was extremely scarce those days and the people were searching for some. 'Does anyone have any water?' Rasulullaah announced. Every person then grabbed for his water bag to look for water but no one had a drop with them. 'Give one of them to me,' Rasulullaah asked. When Faatima gave one of them from beneath the carriage, I could see her forearms as she did so. Rasulullaah took the child and pressed him to his chest but the child continued screaming without stopping. Rasulullaah then took out his tongue and the child started sucking on it until he was pacified. I did not hear him cry afterwards. In the meantime, the other boy was still crying as he had been without abating. 'Pass me the other one,' Rasulullaah asked. When the other child was passed to Rasulullaah, he did the same and they were both quiet. I did not hear either of them make a sound again. Rasulullaah then called out, 'Let us move on!' Because we were travelling with women, we (men) moved from side to side and I was only able to meet up with Rasulullaah later along the road. How can I not love those two when I have seen Rasulullaah do that?" (1)

Honouring Ulema, Elders and Men of Virtue

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas and Hadhrat Zaid bin Thaabit Honour each other

Hadhrat Ammaar bin Abu Ammaar reports that when Hadhrat Zaid bin Thaabit was once about to mount his animal, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas held the stirrup (so that he may place his foot in it). "Go away, O cousin of Rasulullaah (we should be serving you and not you us)," Hadhrat Zaid bade Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas. However, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas said, "This is how we have been commanded to honour our Ulema and elders." Hadhrat Zaid then said, "Show me your hand." When Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas did so, Hadhrat Zaid kissed the hand saying, "This is how we have been commanded to honour the family of our Nabi." (2)

Hadhrat Sha'bi reports that as Hadhrat Zaid bin Thaabit was about to mount his animal one day, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas caught hold of the stirrup. "Go away, O cousin of Rasulullaah," Hadhrat Zaid bade Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas. However, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas said, "This is how we honour our Ulema and elders." (1) Another narration states when Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas held the stirrup of Hadhrat Zaid bin Thaabit's animal, he said, "We have been commanded to hold on to the stirrup of our teachers and our seniors." (2)

Rasulullaah Honours Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah

Hadhrat Abu Umaamah narrates that a drink was once served when Rasulullaah was in the company of some Sahabah such as Hadhrat Abu Bakr, Hadhrat Umar and Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah. When Rasulullaah passed the cup to Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah, he submitted, "You are more deserving (of having it first), O Nabi of Allaah." When Rasulullaah insisted that he take it, Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah took it but before drinking, he said, "You take it, O Nabi of Allaah." Rasulullaah then said, "Please drink because blessings lie with our elders. That person has no relationship with us who does not have mercy on our youngsters and does not respect our elders." (3)

Rasulullaah Instructs that the Eldest Should be First to Speak

Hadhrat Raafi bin Khadeej and Hadhrat Sahl bin Abi Hathmah both reports that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Sahl and Hadhrat Muhayyisah bin Mas'oood were separated from each other amongst the date palms of Khaybar when Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Sahl was murdered. Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Sahl, Hadhrat Muhayyisah bin Mas'oood and Hadhrat Huwayyiisah bin Mas'oood then went to Rasulullaah to discuss the matter with him. Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan started speaking but because he was the youngest of the three, Rasulullaah said that the eldest should speak first. After they had informed Rasulullaah about what had happened to their companion, Rasulullaah said, "Will you not have a right to the blood money by the oaths of fifty members of your tribe?" "O Rasulullaah!" they questioned, "But it was a case that we did not witness." Rasulullaah then said, "Then the Jews (of Khaybar) will be absolved by the oaths of fifty of them." "O Rasulullaah!" the men argued, "But they are Kufaar (and cannot be trusted)."

(Rasulullaah then paid the blood money from his side. (4)

Rasulullaah Honours Hadhrat Waa'il bin Hujar

Hadhrat Waa'il bin Hujar says, "(In Hadhramaut) We heard about the (1) Ya'qoob bin Sufyaan, as quoted in Isaabah (Vol.1 Pg.561). appearance of Rasulullaah ﷺ at a time when we were in control of a large kingdom where people obeyed us. I then forsook everything and left with enthusiasm for Allaah and His Rasool ﷺ. When I came to Rasulullaah ﷺ, he had already given the people the news of my arrival. When I came to him and greeted with Salaam, he replied to my greeting and spread out his shawl for me to sit on. He then mounted the pulpit and made me sit with him. Thereafter, Rasulullaah ﷺ raised his hands, praised Allaah, invoked Allaah's mercy on the Ambiyaa and gathered the people. He then said to them, 'O people! This is Waa'il bin Hujar who has come from far off, from Hadhramaut. He has come of his own will, without compulsion and with enthusiasm for Allaah, His Rasool ﷺ and His Deen.' 'That is true,' I affirmed." (1)

In another narration, Hadhrat Waa'il bin Hujar ﷺ says that when he came to Rasulullaah ﷺ, Rasulullaah ﷺ announced, "This is Waa'il bin Hujar who has come willingly without any displeasure. He has come to you for the love of Allaah and His Rasool ﷺ." Rasulullaah ﷺ then spread out his shawl for Hadhrat Waa'il ﷺ (to sit on). Rasulullaah ﷺ made Hadhrat Waa'il ﷺ sit beside him and brought him very close. Thereafter, Rasulullaah ﷺ mounted the pulpit and addressed the people saying, "Be kind to him because he has only just left his royal background." Hadhrat Waa'il ﷺ said, "My family has taken away from me everything that I had." Rasulullaah ﷺ consoled him saying, "I shall give you all that they have taken and double of that as well." The Hadith continues further. (2)

Rasulullaah ﷺ Honours Hadhrat Sa'd bin Mu'aadh on his Deathbed

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas ﷺ narrates that when Hadhrat Sa'd bin Mu'aadh ﷺ's arm started bleeding profusely (from a wound), Rasulullaah ﷺ stood by him and embraced him even as the blood splattered over Rasulullaah ﷺ's face and beard. The more someone tried to shield Rasulullaah ﷺ from the blood, the closer Rasulullaah ﷺ drew to Hadhrat Sa'd until he eventually passed away. (3)

One of the Ansaaar narrates that after Hadhrat Sa'd bin Mu'aadh ﷺ had passed judgement for the Banu Qurayzah tribe and had returned (to Madinah), his wound ruptured. When the news reached Rasulullaah ﷺ, he went to Hadhrat Sa'd ﷺ and placed his head in his lap. Hadhrat Sa'd ﷺ was fair in complexion and large in stature so when he was covered in a white sheet, his feet were exposed when his face was covered. Rasulullaah ﷺ then prayed, "O Allaah! Sa'd strove in Your path, believed in Your Rasool and fulfilled his duties, so accept his soul in the best way that You accept any soul." Hearing the prayer of Rasulullaah ﷺ, Hadhrat Sa'd ﷺ opened his eyes and said, "As Salaamu Alayka, O Rasulullaah ﷺ! Take note that I testify that you are certainly Allaah's

When Rasulullaah was informed of the concern of Hadhrat Sa'd's family, he said, "Angels as many as you people are in his house sought permission from Allaah to be present for Sa'd's death." Hadhrat Sa'd's mother was weeping as she recited a couplet (which meant):

"Oh the mother of Sa'd is destroyed
He was a man who meticulously applied himself"

Someone rebuked her saying, "Are you reciting poetry for Sa'd?" Rasulullaah intervened saying, "Leave her alone because it is poets other than her who speak lies (she is true because her son was exactly as she says)." (1)

Hadhrat Umar Honours a Sahabi Called Hadhrat Mu'ayqeet

Hadhrat Khaarijah bin Zaid narrates that supper was once served to Hadhrat Umar when he was dining with some people. Hadhrat Umar then left the house to call Hadhrat Mu'ayqeet bin Abu Faatima, who was a Sahabi who had migrated to Abyssinia. Hadhrat Umar said to him, "Come closer and sit down. By Allaah! Had it been someone else suffering what you are suffering (leprosy), he would not have sat closer than a spear's length to me."

Another narration reports that when Hadhrat Umar bin Khattaab once invited some people for a meal, they felt overawed (but accepted). Eating with them was Hadhrat Mu'ayqeet, a Sahabi suffering from leprosy. Hadhrat Umar said to him, "Eat from that which is in front of you and what is nearest to you. Had it been anyone other than you, he would have never shared a plate with me but would have been a spear's length away from me." (2)

Hadhrat Umar Honours Hadhrat Amr bin Tufayl

Hadhrat Abdul Waahid bin Aun Dowsi narrates that Hadhrat Tufayl bin Amr returned (from the region of his tribe the Dows) to Rasulullaah and remained with Rasulullaah in Madinah until Rasulullaah passed away. When some Arabs left the fold of Islaam, Hadhrat Tufayl left for the Battle of Yamaamah with his son Hadhrat Amr bin Tufayl. While Hadhrat Tufayl was martyred in the battle, his son Hadhrat Amr was severely injured and his hand was cut off. He was once with Hadhrat Umar when some food was served. When Hadhrat Amr stepped aside, Hadhrat Umar asked, "What is wrong? Are you stepping aside because of your (injured) hand (which you feel embarrassed to put into a plate with someone else)?" When Hadhrat Amr admitted that this was the reason, Hadhrat Umar said, "You should not do this! By Allaah! I shall not even taste the food until you have put your hand into it. Hadhrat Umar Writes to Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari about Giving Precedence to People of Virtue

Hadhrat Hasan reports that Hadhrat Umar once wrote to Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari saying, "The news has reached me that you allow a large group of people in all at once. When this letter of mine reaches you, I want you to begin with the people of virtue, status and personality. It is only after they have taken their places that you should permit the others in." (2)

Giving Leadership to Seniors

The Advice Hadhrat Qais bin Aasim gave to his Sons

On his deathbed, Hadhrat Qais bin Aasim gave the following advice to his sons: "Fear Allaah and give leadership to the seniors because when people hand over leadership to their seniors, they follow the ways of their forefathers. However, when they hand leadership over to those who are youngest, their status falls in the estimation of their contemporaries. Tend to the earning and investing of your wealth because it lends added honour to the honourable and makes them independent of the mean ones. Keep away from asking from people because this is the worst earning for a man. Do not wail when I die because no one wailed when Rasulullaah passed away. Furthermore, when I die I want you to bury me in a place the Banu Bakr bin Waa'il tribe have no knowledge of because during the Period of Ignorance I used to ambush them (and they should not do anything nasty with my grave)." Honouring People Despite Differences in Opinion and Deed

The Instruction Hadhrat Ali gave the people During the Battle of Jamal

Hadhrat Yahya bin Sa'eed narrates from his uncle who says, "When we participated in the Battle of Jamal, Hadhrat Ali formed our rows (before engaging in battle) and announced, 'No one should (be the first to) shoot an arrow, or to attack with a spear or to strike with a sword. Do not initiate the hostilities and speak kindly to them (because they are also Muslims). I think that he also said, 'Whoever is successful on this occasion will be successful on the Day of Qiyaamah.' We then stood like this until the day had progressed considerably and the people (of the other army) all started shouting (to each other), 'O the avengers of Uthmaan (prepare yourselves)! Hadhrat Ali then called for Muhammad bin Hanafiyyah who was standing before us and bearing the flag. He asked, 'O Ibn Hanafiyyah! What are they saying?' Muhammad bin Hanafiyyah approached us and said, 'O Ameerul Mu'mineen! They are shouting, 'O the avengers of Uthmaan!' Hadhrat Ali then raised his hands and prayed, 'O Allaah! Let the murderers of Uthmaan fall flat on their faces.'

Hadrat Muhammad bin Umar bin Ali bin Abi Taalib reports that Hadhrat Ali did not engage the opposite army in battle until he had called them (to forsake the weapons) for three days. On the third day, Hadrat Hasan, Hadrat Husayn and Hadrat Abdullaah bin Ja'far came to him and said, "These people have inflicted many casualties on us." "Dear nephew!" Hadrat Ali said, "I am not at all in the dark concerning what is happening to the people." He then asked them to pour out some water for him and when they did, he made wudhu and performed two Rakaahs of salaah. After completing, he raised his hands and made du'aa to Allaah. He then addressed the people saying, "If you are victorious over them, you should not chase after those who flee and should not kill any of the wounded. Take only those weapons of war that are brought to the battlefield and everything else that remains (clothing and other personal possessions) shall remain the property of the heirs of those killed." Imaam Bayhaqi says that the more authentic version of the narration states that Hadrat Ali did not take any booty nor any of the possessions of those killed.

Hadrat Ali bin Husayn reports that when he once went to Marwaan bin Hakam, the latter said to him, "I have never seen anyone so noble in victory as your (grand) father (Hadrat Ali). We had only just started fleeing from the battlefield of the Battle of Jamal (after being defeated by him) when one of his announcers called out, "Do not kill anyone fleeing nor any of the wounded."

The Statement of Hadrat Ali Concerning the People who Fought him in the Battle of Jamal

Hadrat Abd Khayr reports that when Hadrat Ali was questioned about those who fought him in the Battle of Jamal, he said, "They were simply our brothers whom we fought because they rebelled against us. However, they have since repented and we have pardoned them." Hadrat Muhammad bin Umar bin Ali bin Abi Taalib reports that on the day the Battle of Jamal was fought, Hadrat Ali said, "We shall be gracious to them because they testify that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah and we shall allow sons to be the heirs of..."
their father's (by not taking any of their possessions for ourselves)." (1)

Hadrat Abul Bakhtari narrates that Hadrat Ali ﺑ. ﺔ. ﺔ. was once asked whether the people who fought him in the Battle of Jamal were Mushrikeen. He replied, "It is from Shirk that we fled." "Were they then Munaafiqeen?" he was asked further. Hadrat Ali ﻲ. ﺔ. replied, "Munaafiqeen very seldom think of Allaah (whereas these did so very often)." "Then what were they?" came the final question. Hadrat Ali ﻲ. ﺔ. explained, "They were simply our brothers who rebelled against us." (2)

Hadrat Ali ﻲ. ﺔ. Welcomes the Son of Hadrat Talha ﺔ. and his Statements Concerning Hadrat Talha ﺔ. and Hadrat Zubayr ﺔ.

Hadrat Abu Habeebah the freed slave of Hadrat Talha ﺔ. says that it was after the Battle of Jamal that he once went to Hadrat Ali ﻲ. ﺔ. in the company of Hadrat Imraan the son of Hadrat Talha ﺔ. (3). Hadrat Ali ﻲ. ﺔ. welcomed him most warmly and called him close. He then said, "I wish that Allaah would make your father and I amongst those about whom He says:

\text{We shall remove any ill-feelings that may be in their breasts. As brothers they will be seated on couches, facing each other.} \] \text{(Surah Hijr, verse 47)}

Addressing Hadrat Imraan in the most endearing terms, Hadrat Ali ﻲ. ﺔ. then asked him about all the wives and children of Hadrat Talha ﺔ. by name. He further said, "We have taken possession of your lands these past few years only for fear that others may usurp them." Addressing one of his men, Hadrat Ali ﻲ. ﺔ. instructed, "Take him to Ibn Q'ardha and tell him to hand over to this man the revenue due to him for all these years together with his land."

There were two men sitting in the corner, one of whom was Haarith A'war. They remarked, "Allaah is more just than that! How is it that they had been fighting us and still be our brothers in Jannah?" Hadrat Ali ﻲ. ﺔ. said, "Get up you two and get away to the furthest of Allaah's lands. Who else can the verse be referring to if it does not refer to Talha and I? (Hadrat Ali ﻲ. ﺔ. then addressed Hadrat Talha ﺔ. 's son saying,) My dear brother's son! Come to me whenever you need something." (4)

A narration of Hadrat Rib'ee bin Hiraash adds that (when the two men passed their comment), Hadrat Ali ﻲ. ﺔ. screamed so loud that the scream could have brought a palace tumbling down. He said, "Who will such people be if they are not Talha and I?"

Hadhram Ammaar Rebukes those who Spoke Ill of Hadhrat Aa'isha

Hadhram Amr bin Ghaalib reports that when Hadhrat Ammaar bin Yaasir overheard someone speak ill of Ummul Mu'mineen Hadhrat Aa'isha, he said, "Be quiet! May you remain deprived of good and sworn at! I testify that she shall definitely be the wife of Rasulullaah in Jannah." Another narration adds that Hadhrat Ammaar said to the man, "Get away! May you be deprived of all good! Are you insulting the beloved of Rasulullaah?"

Hadhram Ammaar once said, "Our mother Aa'isha had her own opinion. We know for sure that she is the wife of Rasulullaah in this world as well as in the Aakhirah, but Allaah used her to test whether it was He (Allaah) Whom we obeyed or her."

Hadhram Abu Waa'il narrates that when Hadhrat Ali sent Hadhrat Ammaar bin Yaasir and Hadhrat Hasan bin Ali to Kufa to rally people to fight, Hadhrat Ammaar addressed the people saying, "I know well that she (Hadhrat Aa'isha) is the wife of Rasulullaah in this world as well as the next, but Allaah is using her to test whether it was He (Allaah) Whom we obey or her."

He then said, ‘Read it as Umar had read it because I swear by Allaah that his recitation was clearer than that of the people of Saylaheen (a place near Baghdad). Umar was an impregnable fortress of Islaam. Islaam would enter by him but never leave from him. When he was martyred, the fortress was holed and Islaam has come out of the fortress without entering into it.’ (1)

Getting Annoyed for the Sake of One’s Elders

Hadhrat Umar is Annoyed by a Man who Insulted Hadhrat Abu Dardaa

Hadhrat Shurayh bin Ubayd reports that a man once said to Hadhrat Abu Dardaa, "What is the matter with you learned men? You are more cowardly than us, most miserly when asked for something and have the largest morsels when you eat!" Hadhrat Abu Dardaa ignored the man without replying. When the news reached Hadhrat Umar, he asked Hadhrat Abu Dardaa about it. Hadhrat Abu Dardaa said, "I seek Allaah's forgiveness. Should we take them to task for everything we hear them say?" Hadhrat Umar then went to the man who made the remark to Hadhrat Abu Dardaa. Hadhrat Umar grabbed him, throttled him and brought him before Rasulullaah, where the man pleaded, "We were only talking and joking." It was then that Allaah revealed the verse:

Hadhrat Umar Rebukes and Warns a Person who Regarded him to Be Superior to Hadhrat Abu Bakr

Hadhrat Jubayr bin Nufayr reports that a group of people once came to Hadhrat Umar and said, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! We swear by Allaah that we have never seen anyone more just, more outspoken of the truth and more sterner against the Munaafiqeen than yourself. You are certainly the best of people after Rasulullaah." Hadhrat Awf bin Maalik remarked, "You are wrong! By Allaah! We have seen someone better than him after Rasulullaah. "Who is that O Awf?" Hadhrat Umar asked. When Hadhrat Awf replied that the person was Hadhrat Abu Bakr, Hadhrat Umar confirmed, "Awf is telling the truth while you people are false. I swear by Allaah that Abu Bakr was purer than musk while I am in need of more guidance than our family's camel." (1)

Hadrat Hasan reports that Hadrat Umar Ṣ�  had appointed informants amongst the masses who once informed him that a group of people had gathered and claimed that he (Hadrat Umar Ṣ�) was better than Hadrat Abu Bakr Ṣ�. Hadrat Umar Ṣ� became very angry and sent for these people. When they were brought, Hadrat Umar Ṣ� addressed them saying, "O you most wretched of people! You most wretched of your tribes! You corrupters of an impregnable fortress!" Surprised, they enquired, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! Why are you telling us this? What have we done?" After repeating himself three times, Hadrat Umar Ṣ� then said, "Why have you created a division between Abu Bakr Siddeeq Ṣ� and myself? I swear by the Being Who controls my life that I wish I could reach even that position of Jannah from where I can see Abu Bakr Ṣ� at the furthest point of my sight." (2)

Another narration states that Hadrat Umar Ṣ� said, "Abu Bakr Ṣ� is the best of this Ummah after its Nabi Ṣ�. Whoever claims otherwise after this proclamation of mine is a slanderer and shall be punished as slanderers are punished." (3) A narration of Hadrat Ziyaad bin Ilaaqah states that Hadrat Umar Ṣ� once overheard someone saying (about him), "This man is the best of this Ummah after its Nabi Ṣ�." Hadrat Umar Ṣ� started hitting the man with his whip saying, "This wretch is lying! Abu Bakr Ṣ� is definitely better than me, my father, yourself and your father!" (4)

Hadrat Ali Ṣ� Rebukes a Person who Regarded him to Be Superior to Hadrat Abu Bakr Ṣ�

Hadrat Abu Zinaad narrates that someone once asked Hadrat Ali Ṣ�, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! What is the matter with the Muhaajireen and Ansaar? They regard Abu Bakr Ṣ� as being superior to you whereas your virtues are more, you had accepted Islaam before him and have excelled him." Hadrat Ali Ṣ� asked, "If you belong to the Quraysh tribe, I assume that you must be from the Aa'idha family." When the man confirmed that he was, Hadrat Ali Ṣ� said, "Had a Mu'min not been in the protection of Allaah, I would have certainly had you executed. If you were to survive, I would then chastise you in a manner that you would be unable to escape. Shame on you! Abu Bakr Ṣ� excelled me in four matters (especially). He was appointed to the position of being Imaam before me when Rasulullaah Ṣ� put him forward as Imaam. (Secondly,) He made Hijrah before me, (thirdly) he beat me to the cave (to be with Rasulullaah Ṣ� during the Hijrah) and (fourthly) he also proclaimed his Islaam before me.

Shame on you! Whereas Allaah has condemned mankind (for not assisting Rasulullaah ﷺ), Allaah praised Abu Bakr  when He says:

لا تَصِرُّوا فِى نَصَرَةِ اللَّهِ إِذْ أَخْرَجَهُ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا بَعْضُهُمْ بَعْضٍ إِذْ هُمُ فِى الْغَارِ إِذْ يَقُولُ إِلَيْهِمْ لَا تَحْرِقَنَّ إِنَّ اللَّهَ مَعَنَا فَأَخْلُقُ اللَّهُ سَكِينَتَهُ عَلَيْهِمْ وَأَيْدُهُ يَجْنُونَ لَمْ تُرْزَعَ

وَجَعَلَ كِلِيمَةَ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا السَّفَلُ وَكِلِيمَةَ اللَّهِ الْعَالَمُ وَاللَّهُ عَزِيزٌ حَكِيمٌ

(سورة نبوة آية 4)

If you do not assist him (Rasulullaah ﷺ), then indeed Allaah had assisted him when the Kuffaar drove him out him (of Makkah). He was the second of the two (the other being Abu Bakr  when they were (hiding from the Kuffaar) in the cave (outside Makkah) and he (Rasulullaah ﷺ) told his companion (Abu Bakr ) (when the Kuffaar were on the verge of capturing them), "Do not grieve (do not fear for my safety). Verily Allaah is with us (and He will protect us from the Kuffaar)." So Allaah caused His tranquillity (serenity, mercy and peace) to descend on him, assisted him (on various occasions) with an army (of angels and other creation) that you had not seen. And (Allaah) placed the word of the Kuffaar (the call to Shirk) at the very bottom while the word of Allaah (the Kalimah) is right at the top. Allaah is Mighty, The Wise. (Surah Taubah, verse 40)(1)

The Incident Between Hadhrat Abu Bakr and Another Man

Hadrat Mughierah  narrates, "I was with Abu Bakr  when a horse was brought to him. When a man (from the Ansaar) asked for the horse to be given to him, Abu Bakr  said, 'Rather than giving it to you, I prefer giving it to one of the youngsters who will be able to ride it despite his lack of experience.' The man became angry and blurted out, 'By Allaah! I am a better horseman than both you and your father!' When he used these words for the Khalifah of Rasulullaah ﷺ, I became extremely angry and grabbing him by the head, I threw him down on his nose. His nose bled so much that it appeared as if a large water bag had burst open. When the Ansaar decided that they would have retribution from me, the news reached Hadhrat Abu Bakr . He rebuked them saying, 'Do people think that I will allow them to have their retribution from Mughierah bin Shu’bah? I would prefer exiling them from their homes rather than them having retribution from someone who prevents Allaah’s servants from evil."

Hadhrat Umar ﷺ hits Two Men for their Insolence Towards Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood ﷺ

Hadhrat Abu Waa'il narrates that when Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood ﷺ once saw a man's garment hanging below his ankles, he told him to lift it up. The man retorted, "What about you, O Abdullaah bin Mas'ood? You also lift up your garment higher." Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood ﷺ replied, "I am not like you. My calves are extremely thin and I lead people in salaah (therefore if I lift my garment too high, people would be repulsed)." When news of this incident reached Hadhrat Umar ﷺ, he hit the man saying, "Do you backchat Ibn Mas'ood?" (1)

Hadhrat Alaa reports from his teachers that Hadhrat Umar ﷺ was once standing by the home of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood ﷺ in Madinah, watching it being built when a man from the Quraysh remarked, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! Let someone else (like the owner) do this work for you." Hadhrat Umar ﷺ grabbed hold of a brick and hurled it at the man saying, "Do you wish to make me dislike Ibn Mas'ood?" (2)

Hadhrat Umar ﷺ Hits a Man for the Sake of Hadhrat Ummu Salamah ﷺ

Hadhrat Abu Waa'il narrates that because Hadhrat Ummu Salamah ﷺ owed something to a certain man, the man took an oath against her. For this, Hadhrat Umar ﷺ had the man lashed thirty stripes, causing his skin to be cut and to become swollen. (3)

Hadhrat Ali ﷺ Expresses the Intention to Execute Ibn Saba for Regarding him to be Superior to Hadhrat Abu Bakr ﷺ and Hadhrat Umar ﷺ

Hadhrat Ummu Moosa reports that when the news reached Hadhrat Ali ﷺ that Ibn Saba claimed that he (Hadhrat Ali ﷺ) was superior to Hadhrat Abu Bakr ﷺ and Hadhrat Umar ﷺ, Hadhrat Ali ﷺ expressed the wish to have Ibn Saba executed. Someone remarked, "Will you execute a man for merely showing respect to you and for regarding you to be an esteemed person?" Hadhrat Ali ﷺ then said, "Alright then (he need not be executed). However, he should never be allowed to live in the town where I reside." (4)

Hadhrat Ali ـ عليه السلام Rebukes a Man for Regarding him to be Superior to Hadhrat Abu Bakr ـ رضي الله عنه and Hadhrat Umar ـ رضي الله عنه

Hadhrat Katheer narrates that a man once came to Hadhrat Ali ـ عليه السلام saying, "You are the best of people." "Have you seen Rasulullaah ﷺ?" Hadhrat Ali ـ عليه السلام enquired. When the man replied that he had not, Hadhrat Ali ـ عليه السلام asked further, "Have you then seen Abu Bakr ـ رضي الله عنه?" "No," came the reply. Hadhrat Ali ـ عليه السلام then said, "Take note of this! Had you mentioned that you had seen Rasulullaah ﷺ, I would have had you executed and had you mentioned that you had seen Abu Bakr ـ رضي الله عنه and Umar ـ رضي الله عنه, I would have had you lashed (for slander)." (2)

Hadhrat Alqamah reports that Hadhrat Ali ـ عليه السلام once delivered a lecture to them. After duly praising Allaah, he said, "The news has reached me that some people regard me to be superior to Abu Bakr ـ رضي الله عنه and Umar ـ رضي الله عنه. Had I warned against this previously, I would have certainly given punishment for it. However, I dislike meting punishment for something I have not warned against. Now after this proclamation of mine if anyone says anything like this, he will be regarded as a slanderer and shall so be punished as one. The best of all people after Rasulullaah ﷺ is Abu Bakr ـ رضي الله عنه and then Umar ـ رضي الله عنه. Thereafter, when they had departed we started many new things concerning which Allaah shall decide as He pleases (whether they were correct or not)." (3)

A Historic Lecture of Hadhrat Ali ـ عليه السلام Concerning the Superiority of Hadhrat Abu Bakr ـ رضي الله عنه and Hadhrat Umar ـ رضي الله عنه

Hadhrat Suwayd bin Ghafalah narrates that he once passed by a group of people who were degrading the status of Hadhrat Abu Bakr ـ رضي الله عنه and Hadhrat Umar ـ رضي الله عنه. When he reported this to Hadhrat Ali ـ عليه السلام, he said, "May Allaah curse those who harbour anything besides good towards the two illustrious men. They were the brothers and extremely close companions of Rasulullaah ﷺ." Hadhrat Ali ـ عليه السلام then mounted the pulpit and delivered an eloquent lecture in which he said:

"What is the matter with some people who speak about the two leaders of the Quraysh and the two fathers of the Muslims in a manner that I would never. I absolve myself from what they say and shall punish for it. I swear by the Being Who splits the seed and Who creates the soul that it is only the Allaah-fearing Mu'min who loves these two men and only the sinful outcast who dislikes them. They were both true and loyal companions of Rasulullaah who enjoined good, forbade evil, punished criminals and never trespassed the ways of Rasulullaah in any matter. Rasulullaah never valued any opinion as he did theirs and did not love anyone as he loved them. Rasulullaah passed through this world well pleased with them and the people were also just as pleased. Abu Bakr was appointed (by Rasulullaah) to lead the salaah and when Rasulullaah passed away, the Muslims entrusted the task of leading the salaah with him and also handed over their zakaah to him because these two (salaah and zakaah) are always coupled (mentioned together in the Qur'aan). I was the first from amongst the progeny of Abdul Muttalib to nominate him (as Khalifah). He however did not like to assume the post and wanted one of us to rather fill the post for him. By Allaah! He was the best of those left after Rasulullaah, the most compassionate of them, the kindest, the wisest in his piety and the first to accept Islaam. Rasulullaah likened him to Mika'eel in his kindness and mercy and to Ibraheem in his forgiving nature and reputation. He walked the path of Rasulullaah until he passed away. May Allaah shower His mercy on him."

Hadrat Ali continued, "With consultation from the people, Abu Bakr appointed Umar bin Khattaab as his successor. While some people disapproved and others approved, I was amongst those who approved. By Allaah! Before he left this world, Umar won the approval of all those who had disapproved (of his appointment). He managed affairs in the manner that Rasulullaah and his companion (Hadrat Abu Bakr) managed affairs and he followed in their footsteps just as a foal follows in the footsteps of his mother. By Allaah! He was the best of all those who remained (after Hadrat Abu Bakr). He was compassionate and merciful and helped the oppressed against the oppressor. Allaah brought the truth on his tongue to the extent that we actually thought that an angel spoke with his tongue. Allaah strengthened Islaam by his entering its fold and his migration was a bolster for the Deen. While Allaah filled the hearts of the Mu'mineen with love for him, Allaah also filled the hearts of the Munaafiqueen with fear for him. Rasulullaah likened him to Jibw'eel in his sternness and austerity towards enemies and to Nooh in his admonishment and frustration towards the Kuffaar. Which of you can compare to the two of them? Their heights cannot be reached without having love for them and following in their footsteps. Whoever loves them loves me. On the other hand, whoever dislikes them dislikes me and I am absolved of such a person. Had I warned against reviling the two of them previously, I would have certainly given the most severe punishment for it. Now after this proclamation of mine if anyone says anything like this, he will be punished as a slanderer is punished. Take note! The best person of this Ummah after its Nabi is Abu Bakr and then Umar. Allaah knows best where the best person is after them. I have now made myself clear and seek Allaah's pardon.
for myself and on your behalf." (1)

The Incident Between Hadhrat Ali and another Person Concerning Hadhrat Uthmaan

Hadhrat Abu Is'haaq reports that a man once came to Hadhrat Ali and said, "Uthmaan is in Jahannam." "What makes you say this?" Hadhrat Ali enquired. The man replied, "Because he had started many new practices." "Tell me," Hadhrat Ali said to the man, "If you had a daughter, would you marry her without consultation?" When the man said that he would not, Hadhrat Ali continued, "Do you think that there could be an opinion better than the opinion Rasulullaah had concerning (the marriage of) his two daughters? Now tell me this about Rasulullaah. Whenever he intended to do something, would he or would he not ask Allaah for the best course to take?" The man replied, "Of course. Rasulullaah would certainly ask Allaah for the best course to take." Questioning the man further, Hadhrat Ali said, "Would Allaah then choose the best course for Rasulullaah or not?" "Indeed," the man responded, "Allaah would definitely choose the best course for Rasulullaah." Hadhrat Ali then said, "Now tell me this about Rasulullaah. Did Allaah not select Uthmaan to marry the (two) daughters of Rasulullaah? I have thought about having you executed but Allaah has decided otherwise. Remember this well! I swear by Allaah that should you ever say anything else (other than what I have explained to you), I shall have you executed." (2)

The Statement of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar about Someone who Complained about Hadhrat Uthmaan

Hadhrat Saalim reports that his father once met one of the Sahabah who had a problem with his speech and could therefore not express himself clearly. When he complained about Hadhrat Uthmaan, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar said, "By Allaah! I do not know what you are saying. Nevertheless, O assembly of Muhammad's companions, you all know well that during the time of Rasulullaah, we would always be saying, 'Abu Bakr, Umar and Uthmaan' (their names were always taken together because all respected them most highly). However, now that wealth has become a priority, it is only when he gives (someone a share that the person is pleased with him)." (3)

The Du'aa of Hadhrat Sa'd is Accepted Against Someone who Reviled Hadhrat Ali, Hadhrat Talha, and Hadhrat Zubayr

Hadhrat Aamir bin Sa'd narrates that Hadhrat Sa'd was once walking (1) Khaythamah, La'alka'ai, Abu Hasan Baghdaadi, Shiraazi, Ibn Mandah and Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.446).

somewhere when he overheard a person speaking ill of Hadhrat Ali Ṣallallaahu 'alayhi wasallam, Hadhrat Talha Ṣallallaahu 'alayhi wasallam and Hadhrat Zubayr Ṣallallaahu 'alayhi wasallam. Hadhrat Sa'd Ṣallallaahu 'alayhi wasallam said, "You are reviling people who have received tremendous accolades from Allaah. By Allaah! If you do not desist from reviling them, I shall curse you." The man scoffed, "He threatens me as if he were a prophet!" Hadhrat Sa'd Ṣallallaahu 'alayhi wasallam then prayed, "O Allaah! If he is reviling people who have received accolades from You, then teach him his lesson this very day!" A Bactrian camel then came running and the people gave her way until she trampled the man (and killed him)." Hadhrat Aamir says that he then saw the people walking behind Hadhrat Sa'd Ṣallallaahu 'alayhi wasallam saying (in wonderment), "O Abu Is'haaq! Allaah accepted your du'aa. (1) Hadhrat Mus'ab bin Sa'd narrates that when someone reviled Hadhrat Ali Ṣallallaahu 'alayhi wasallam, Hadhrat Sa'd bin Maalik Ṣallallaahu 'alayhi wasallam (Hadhrat Sa'id bin Abi Waqqaas Ṣallallaahu 'alayhi wasallam) cursed him. A camel then ran forward and killed the man. Hadhrat Sa'd Ṣallallaahu 'alayhi wasallam then set a slave free and swore never to curse anyone again. (2) Hadhrat Qais bin Abu Haazim reports that he was once walking about the marketplace in Madinah when he reached a place called Ahjaaruz Zayt. There he saw some people gathered around a horseman who had mounted an animal and was reviling Hadhrat Ali bin Abi Taalib Ṣallallaahu 'alayhi wasallam. The people were just standing there (without saying or doing anything) when Hadhrat Sa'd bin Maalik Ṣallallaahu 'alayhi wasallam arrived. Stopping there, Hadhrat Sa'd Ṣallallaahu 'alayhi wasallam asked, "What is happening here?" When the people informed him that the man was busy reviling Hadhrat Ali Ṣallallaahu 'alayhi wasallam, Hadhrat Sa'd Ṣallallaahu 'alayhi wasallam went forward and the people gave him way until he stood by the man. He then said, "What is this? For what reason are you reviling Ali bin Abi Taalib? Was he not the first to accept Islaam? Was he not the first to perform salaah with Rasulullaah Ṣallallaahu 'alayhi wasallam? Was he not the most abstinent of people? Was he not the most knowledgeable of people?" He then continued mentioning the virtues of Hadhrat Ali Ṣallallaahu 'alayhi wasallam until he said, "Was he not the son-in-law of Rasulullaah Ṣallallaahu 'alayhi wasallam? Was he not Rasulullaah Ṣallallaahu 'alayhi wasallam's flag-bearer in his battles?" Hadhrat Sa'd Ṣallallaahu 'alayhi wasallam then faced the Qibla, raised his hands and prayed, "O Allaah! This man is reviling one of Your friends. Let this gathering not disperse without showing them Your power." Hadhrat Qais says, "By Allaah! We had not yet dispersed when the animal started sinking in the ground and it threw him off. He landed head first on the stones, causing him to die as his head burst open." (3)

Hadhrat Saeed bin Zaid Ṣallallaahu 'alayhi wasallam is Annoyed by a man who Swore Hadhrat Ali Ṣallallaahu 'alayhi wasallam

Hadhrat Rabaaah bin Haarith reports that Hadhrat Mughiera Ṣallallaahu 'alayhi wasallam was sitting in the largest Masjid with the people of Kufa on his right and his left when someone called Saeed bin Zaid Ṣallallaahu 'alayhi wasallam arrived. Hadhrat Mughiera Ṣallallaahu 'alayhi wasallam welcomed him and made him sit near his feet on the same platform. A man from Kufa then arrived and facing Hadhrat Mughiera ﷺ, he started swearing. "Who is he swearing at, O Mughiera?" asked Hadhrat Sa'eed ﷺ. Hadhrat Mughiera ﷺ replied, "He is swearing Ali bin Abi Taalib." "O Mughiera bin Shu'ba! O Mughiera bin Shu'ba! O Mughiera bin Shu'ba!" Hadhrat Sa'eed ﷺ repeated, "Am I not hearing a companion of Rasulullaah ﷺ being sworn at in your presence without you repulsing it or even doing anything to change the situation?!! I testify to what my ears heard Rasulullaah ﷺ say and what my heart memorised from him. I shall never report from him anything false that he will question me about when I meet him. I have heard him say, 'Abu Bakr shall be in Jannah, Umar shall be in Jannah, Uthmaan shall be in Jannah, Ali shall be in Jannah, Talha shall be in Jannah, Zubayr shall be in Jannah, Abdur Rahmaan (bin Auf) shall be in Jannah and Sa'd bin Maalik shall be in Jannah.' The ninth person to accept Islaam shall also be in Jannah and if I wished to, I would also take his name."

The people in the Masjid then started to make a noise asked him in the name of Allaah to tell them who the ninth person to accept Islaam was. Hadhrat Sa'eed ﷺ said, "You have asked me in the name of Allaah and Allaah is Great (I can therefore not refuse). I was the ninth person to accept Islaam and Rasulullaah ﷺ was the tenth (of the ten Muslims we were at the time)." Hadhrat Sa'eed ﷺ then took an oath as he said, "When a man's face get dusty as he stands by Rasulullaah ﷺ (in a battle), this deed of his is better than every deed that any of you could do if he were given the lifespan of Nooh ﷺ."(1)

Hadrath Abdullaah bin Dhaalim Maazini narrates, "When Mu'aawiya ﷺ left Kufa, he appointed Mughiera bin Shu'ba ﷺ as its governor. Mughiera ﷺ then appointed orators to revile Hadhrat Ali ﷺ. I was sitting next to Sa'eed bin Zaid ﷺ when he became extremely angry at this. He then stood up and taking me by the hand said, 'Look at that man who oppresses himself. He is ordering the reviling of someone who is a dweller of Jannah. I am prepared to testify that nine people shall definitely enter Jannah (amongst them is Hadhrat Ali ﷺ) and I would not be sinful for testifying to the tenth one as well (myself)."(2)

Narrating from his father, Hadhrat Abu Burdah narrates that when Hadhrat Umar was stabbed, Hadhrat Suhayb arrived weeping in a loud voice. "Is it over me that you weep?" Hadhrat Umar enquired. When Hadhrat Suhayb replied that it was, Hadhrat Umar said, "Don't you know that Rasulullah said, 'The person over whom people cry (loudly) shall be punished'?"

Hadhrat Miqdaam bin Ma'dikarib narrates that when Hadhrat Umar was wounded, (his daughter) Hadhrat Hafsah entered the room saying, "O companion of Rasulullah! O father-in-law of Rasulullah! O Ameerul Mu'mineen!" Hadhrat Umar said to his son, "O Abdullaah! Help me to sit up because I cannot tolerate what I am hearing." When Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar supported Hadhrat Umar against his chest, Hadhrat Umar said to Hadhrat Hafsah, "By the rights that I have over you, I prohibit you from wailing over me after this. I have of course no control over your eyes (for you are allowed to weep as much as you please). Whenever a deceased person is praised for what was not in him, the angels record this (against him)." Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Zaid and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood Weep at the Death of Hadhrat Umar

Hadhrat Abdul Malik bin Zaid narrates from his father that as he was weeping, someone once asked Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Zaid, "What makes you weep, O Abu A'war?" Hadhrat Sa'eed replied, "I am weeping over the fate of Islaam. It has sustained a void at the death of Umar that shall never be filled until the Day of Qiyaamah."

Hadhrat Abu Waa'il reports, "Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood once came to us and was given the news of Hadhrat Umar's death. I have never seen him weep more than that day and never saw him more depressed. He then said, 'By Allaah! I would have even loved a dog if I knew that Umar loved it. By Allaah! I am certain that even the thorny trees are distressed by the death of Umar."

Hadhrat Yahya bin Sa'eed reports that when Hadhrat Uthmaan ـ was martyred, Hadhrat Abu Humayd Sa'idi ـ who was a veteran of the Battle of Badr vowed never to carry out certain actions and never to laugh until the day he meets Allaah. (3)

The Statement of Hadhrat Abu Talha ﷺ the Day Hadhrat Umar ﷺ Passed away

Hadhrat Anas ﷺ reports that when the consultative assembly (appointed by Hadhrat Umar ﷺ before his death) assembled, Hadhrat Abu Talha ﷺ saw what they were doing (each one wishing the Khilaafah for the next) and said, "More than my fear that you should all be aspiring for the Khilaafah is my fear that you shall all want to pass it on another. By Allaah! Every Muslim home has suffered a deficiency in its religious and worldly affairs by the death of Umar ﷺ."(3)

Honouring the Weak and Poor Muslims

Rasulullaah ﷺ Honours the Poor Muslims

Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi waqqaas ﷺ narrates that they were six Muslims with Rasulullaah ﷺ when the Mushrikeen said (to Rasulullaah ﷺ), "Drive these people away from you." They then went on to belittle these Sahabah ﷺ (indicating that they as wealthy people could not sit with these poor men). The Sahabah ﷺ included Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi waqqaas ﷺ, Hadhrat Abdullah bin Mas'ood ﷺ, a Sahabi form the Banu Hudhayl tribe, Hadhrat Bilaal ﷺ and two other Sahabah whose names the narrator had forgotten. When Rasulullaah ﷺ started to consider the request, Allaah revealed the verse:

(سورة الأنعام: 52)

... Do not drive away those (poor Sahabah ﷺ) who call (worship) their Rabb morning and evening, seeking His pleasure... {Surah An'a'am, verse 52}(4)

Hadhrat Abdullah bin Mas'ood ﷺ reports that a group of the Quraysh once passed by Rasulullaah ﷺ when he was in the company of some poor Muslims such as Hadhrat Suhayb ﷺ, Hadhrat Bilaal ﷺ, Hadhrat Khabbaab ﷺ and Hadhrat Ammaar ﷺ. The Mushrikeen said, "O Muhammad! Are you content with the likes of these men from your people? Should we become followers of these people? do so." It was then that Allah revealed the verse:

```text
وَأَنْذِرْ بِالْدِّينِ يَخَافُونَ أنْ يُحِضُّوا إِلَىٰ رَبِّهِمْ لَسْنَا مِنْ ذُرْوَاهُ وَلَنْ أَضْفِعْنَ
لُعْلِهِمْ يَقُولُونَ لَا تَطْرُدْ الْدِّينِ يَدْعُونَ رَبِّهِمْ بِالْغَفَاءَ وَالْعَفَا وَيَبْدُونَ وَجَهَةُ مَا عَلَّبَكُمْ
مِنْ حَسَابِهِمْ مِنْ شَيْءٍ وَمَا مِنْ حَسَابِكَ عَلَيْهِمْ مِنْ شَيْءٍ قَتَّلْهُمْ قَتَّلَهُمْ تَقْتُلُونَ مِنْ
الظَّالِمِينَ (سُورَةُ الأنْعَام، آيَتَيْنَ) (1)

Use it (the Qur'aan) to warn those who fear that they will be gathered before their Rabb without any helper or intercessor, so that they may grow concerned. Do not drive away those (poor Sahabah) who call (worship) their Rabb morning and evening, seeking His pleasure. You are not accountable at all for them (for their inner condition), nor are they at all accountable (responsible) for you, (there is therefore no reason) that (permits) you (to) drive them away and to (thereby) become of the wrong-doers (by doing this). {Surah An'am, verses 51,52} (1)

Rasulullaah Honours Hadhrat Ibn Umm Maktoom After being Chided

Discussing the verse. (2), Hadhrat Anas says that Hadhrat ibn Umm Maktoom (who was blind) once came to Rasulullaah while Rasulullaah was speaking to Ubay bin Khalaf (he was one of the leaders of the Quraysh and Rasulullaah was inviting him to Islaam). When Rasulullaah ignored Hadhrat Ibn Umm Maktoom (thinking that he could always see to him later), Allah revealed the verses:

(عَبْسَ وَتَوَلَّىَ (أَنْ جَآءْتُ هُمْ الْأَعْمَى) (سُورَةُ عَبْسَ آيَةٌ) (1)

He (Rasulullaah) frowned and turned away because a blind man came to him... {Surah Abas, verses 1,2}

After this, Rasulullaah always honoured Hadhrat Ibn Umm Maktoom. (3)

Hadhrat Aa'isha reports that the Surah (4) was revealed with reference to the blind Sahabi Hadhrat Ibn Umm Maktoom who once came to Rasulullaah saying, "Guide me." Because Rasulullaah was busy speaking (giving Da'wah) to one of the leaders of the Mushriken, he ignored Hadhrat Ibn Umm Maktoom. Devoting his attention to the Mushrik instead, Rasulullaah asked him, "Do you see anything wrong in what I have told you?" The man admitted that he saw nothing wrong with it. It was on this occasion that Allah revealed the Surah:

Allaah Instructs Rasulullaah ﷺ to Remain in the Company of the Poor Muslims

Hadhrat Khabbaab bin Arat ﷺ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ was once in the company of some poor Muslims, amongst whom were Hadhrat Ammaar, Hadhrat Suhayb, Hadhrat Bilaal and Hadhrat Khabbaab bin Arat. Just then Aqra bin Haabis Tameemi and Uyaynah bin Hisn Fazaari arrived. The two of them held these Sahabah in low esteem and took Rasulullaah ﷺ aside saying, "We feel embarrassed that the Arab delegations will be coming to see you and will see us sitting with these slaves. Therefore, when we come to you, you should get them to leave." When Rasulullaah ﷺ agreed to do so, the two men asked to have it in writing. Rasulullaah ﷺ then sent for a paper and called Hadhrat Ali ﷺ to write. The poor Sahabah were still sitting there in a corner when Hadhrat Jibra'eel ﷺ descended with the verses:

وَلَا تَفْرَقُوا الْذِّينَ يَذْكُرُونَ اللَّهَ وَيَنْفَعُونَهُ بِالْعَدْوَةِ وَالْخَيْرَةِ يُرِيدُونَ وَجَهَةَ مَا عَلَيْكُمْ مِنْ جَسَالِبِهِمْ مِنْ شَيْءٍ وَمَا مِنْ جَسَالِبِكَ عَلَيْهِمْ مِنْ شَيْءٍ قَطَّرْدُهُمْ فَتُكْنُونَ مِنْ الْقُلُوبِ وَكَذَلِكَ قَنَّا بِضَعُّهُمْ بِعَضُّهُمْ لَيْقُولُوا أَهْوَاهُمْ مِنْ اللَّهِ عَلَيْهِمْ مِنْ بِنْيَانِ أَنْبَسَ اللَّهُ بِأَغْفَلَ الْمَشْكُورِينَ وَإِذَا جَاءَ لِاذْدِيْنَ يَوْمَنَ بَيْنَنَا فَقُلُّ سَلَمُ عَلَيْكُمْ كَنِبَ رَبُّكُمُ عَلَى نَفْسِهِ الرَّحْمَةُ أَنَّهُ مَنْ عَمِلَ مَنْ كَفَرَ مَنْ عَمِلَ غُفُورًا رَحِيمًا (سُورَةُ الْمُدَّارِسَةِ ٥٥)

Do not drive away those (poor Sahabah) who call (worship) their Rabb morning and evening, seeking His pleasure. You are not accountable at all for them (for their inner condition), nor are they at all accountable (responsible) for you, (there is therefore no reason) that (permits) you (to) drive them away and to (thereby) become of the wrong-doers (by doing this). In this manner (as these people do not wish to associate with those of lower social standing) We use some (people) to test others so that they (the upper class) say, "Are these (lower classes) the ones whom Allaah has blessed from among us (by guiding them to Islaam instead of us)?" Allaah knows well who the grateful ones are (and it is them who Allaah shall guide to the straight path regardless of their social standing). When those who believe in Our Aayaat come to you, then say to them, "Peace be upon you. Your Rabb has made mercy (towards you) compulsory upon Himself. The fact is that whichever one of you sins out of ignorance (1) and then repents and (makes) amends (for his sin), (he should remember that) Allaah is Most Forgiving, Most Merciful (Allaah will therefore forgive him)." (Surah An’aar, verses 52-54)

Hadhrat Khabbaab related further, he says, "Rasulullaah then threw the paper away and called for us. When we came to him, he said, 'Peace be upon you'. We then drew so close to him that our knees touched his. It was the practice of Rasulullaah when he sat with us to stand up and go when he needed to leave. However, Allaah then revealed the verse:

(0 Rasulullaah) Restrain yourself with (in the company of) those who, seeking His pleasure, call to (worship) their Rabb morning and evening and do not shift your attention from them.' (Surah Kahaf, verse 28)

Thereafter, whenever we sat with Rasulullaah and it reached the hour when he would usually get up to leave, we would stand up and leave him. Had we not done this, he would restrain himself as long as we did not stand." (2)

Hadhrat Salmaan narrates that there came to Rasulullaah some people (new Muslims) whose hearts Rasulullaah was still winning over to Islaam. Amongst them was the likes of Uyaynah bin Hisn and Aqra bin Haabis. They said, "O Rasulullaah! Why don't you sit at the front of the Masjid and keep away from us these people and the odour of their cloaks." They were referring to the likes of Hadhrat Abu Dharr, Hadhrat Salmaan and other poor Muslims who wore woollen cloaks because they could afford no better (they could not afford finer material and therefore perspired with the thick wool). "If you do this," they continued, "we could sit with you, discuss with you and learn from you." It was then that Allaah revealed the verses:

(O Rasulullaah) 'Recite (to people) what (revelation) has been revealed to you from the Book of your Rabb (the Qur’aan). There is none who can alter His words (Allaah’s words in the Qur’aan and His promises) and you will certainly not find another place of refuge

(1) All sins are committed out of ignorance because no person will sin if he really knows the punishment for the sin.

Restrain yourself with \textit{(in the company of)} those who, seeking His pleasure, call to \textit{(worship)} their Rabb morning and evening \textit{(even though they are poor and of low social standing)}. \textit{(Even though the wealthy ones insist that you drive these Mu'mineen away so that they can draw close to you,)} Do not shift your attention from them \textit{(from the poor Mu'mineen)} with the intention of acquiring the adornment of this worldly life \textit{(with the intention that if the wealthy Kuffaar accept Islaam, the status and financial strength of Islaam will grow)}. \textit{(Therefore,)} Do not obey him \textit{(the wealthy Kaafir)} whose heart We have made heedless of Our remembrance, who pursues his passions and whose \textit{(every)} affair entails transgressing \textit{(the laws of Allaah)}. These verses threaten people with the fire of Jahannam. Rasulullaah \textit{ﷺ} then stood up to look for the poor Muslims and found them engaged in Dhikr at the back of the Masjid. Rasulullaah \textit{ﷺ} said, "All praises belong to Allaah Who has commanded me before my death to restrain myself in the company of a certain group from myUmmah. With you people shall I live and amongst you shall I die."\textit{(1)}

The Incident Between Ibn Mataatiyyah and Hadhrat Mu'aadh \textit{ﷺ} and the Lecture that Rasulullaah \textit{ﷺ} Delivered in this Regard

Hadrat Abu Salamah bin Abdur Rahmaan reports that Qais bin Mataatiyyah once came to a gathering that included Hadrat Salmaan Faarsi \textit{ﷺ}, Hadrat Suhayb Roomi \textit{ﷺ}, and Hadrat Bilaal Habshi \textit{ﷺ}. He remarked, "Here (in the gathering) are the Aws and the Khazraj tribes who have stood up to assist that man (Rasulullaah \textit{ﷺ}) (this I can understand because they are Arab and people of standing). However, what is the matter with these other people (these poor non-Arabs who have no social standing? Of what use are they)?"

Hadrat Mu'aadh \textit{ﷺ} stood up and grabbing Ibn Mataatiyyah by the collar, brought him to Rasulullaah \textit{ﷺ}. When Hadrat Mu'aadh \textit{ﷺ} reported the statement, Rasulullaah \textit{ﷺ} stood up in anger and pulling his shawl along, he entered the Masjid. The announcement "Gather for salaah" was made (to assemble the people) and after duly praising Allaah, Rasulullaah \textit{ﷺ} said, "O people! Verily your Rabb is but One Rabb, your father (Aadam \textit{ﷺ}) is but one father and your Deen is but one Deen. \textit{Take note that Arabic is neither your father nor your mother. It is merely a language and whoever speaks Arabic is therefore Arab.}\textit{)}\footnote{1 Abu Nu'aym in his \textit{Hilya} (Vol.1 Pg.345).}"
Still holding on to the collar of Ibn Mataatiyyah, Hadhrat Mu'aadh asked, "O Rasulullah! What is your instruction concerning this Munaafi?" "Leave him to the Fire of Jahannam!" replied Rasulullah. Ibn Mataatiyyah was therefore amongst those who left the fold of Islaam and was killed in this condition.\(^{(1)}\)

Rasulullaah seeking permission to fight in Jihad. Rasulullaah asked, "Are your parents alive?" When the man replied in the affirmative, Rasulullaah said, "Then your Jihad is to be with them." (1)

Another narration(2) states that a man came to Rasulullaah saying, "I pledge at your hand my allegiance to migrate and to wage Jihad seeking rewards from Allaah." "Are any of your parents alive?" Rasulullaah enquired. "Yes," the man replied, "In fact, they are both living." "Do you want rewards from Allaah?" Rasulullaah asked. "Yes," the man replied. Rasulullaah then told him, "Then return to your parents and be good to them."

Yet another narration(3) quotes that the man said, "While I have come to you to make a pledge to migrate, I have left my parents in tears." Rasulullaah said to him, "Return to them and make them laugh just as you have made them weep."

Hadrat Abu Sa'eed Khudri reports that when a man from Yemen migrated to Rasulullaah (in Madinah), Rasulullaah asked him, "Do you still have any family in Yemen?" "I have my parents," he replied. "Did they permit you (to come here)?" Rasulullaah enquired further. "No," was the reply. Rasulullaah then said, "Return to them and seek their permission. You may proceed in Jihad only if they permit you, otherwise (remain behind and) be good to them." (4)

Hadrat Anas narrates that a man once said to Rasulullaah, "While I desire to march in Jihad, I do not have the means." Rasulullaah asked, "Are any of your parents still alive?" The man replied that his mother was still living. "Then," said Rasulullaah, "meet Allaah while involved in serving her. If you do this, you will be (rewarded like) one who has performed Hajj, Umrah and waged Jihad." (5)

Rasulullaah Stops Hadrat Abu Hurayrah from Participating in the Battle of Khaybar because of his Mother

Hadrat Abu Umaamah narrates that once Rasulullaah announced, "Prepare to march on the town with oppressive inhabitants because if Allaah wills, He will allow you to conquer it." Rasulullaah was referring to the (Jewish) town of Khaybar. Rasulullaah added, "No one with stubborn or frail animals should march with us." Hadrat Abu Hurayrah then went to his mother and said, "Prepare my journey's provisions because Rasulullaah has just given the instruction to fight in Jihad." His mother said, "You are leaving when you know that I am unable to enter without you by my side?" "But I cannot stay behind Rasulullaah," Hadrat Abu Hurayrah explained. His mother then indicated towards her breasts and pleaded with him to listen to her on account of the milk that she fed him. (He however remained adamant.) She then secretly went to Rasulullaah and stated her case before him. Rasulullaah reassured her saying, "You may go. Your case will be attended to without you having to come." When Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah came to Rasulullaah, Rasulullaah turned away from him. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah said, "O Rasulullaah! Your turning away from me must be on account of some news that had reached you about me." Rasulullaah said, "You are the one whose mother had to indicate towards her breasts and plead with you to listen to her on account of the milk that she fed you (but you still would not accede)! Do you people think that you are not in the path of Allaah when you are with one or both of your parents? You are definitely in the path of Allaah when you treat them well and fulfil their rights." Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah then remained with his mother and was unable to fight any battles for two years until his mother passed away. The narration still continues further. (1)

Rasulullaah Commands Some Sahabah to Forsake Jihaad to Care for their Parents

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas narrates that Rasulullaah was in Siqaayah when a woman came to him with her son. She said, "This son of mine wants to march in Jihaad but I am refusing to allow him." Rasulullaah said (to the son), "Remain with your mother until she permits you or until death claims her life because this will earn you greater rewards." (2)

Another narration states that a man came with his mother to Rasulullaah. While he wanted to proceed in Jihaad, she was averse to the idea. Rasulullaah advised him saying, "Stay glued to your mother and your reward with her shall be the same as what you would receive in Jihaad." (3)

Hadhrat Talha bin Mu'aawiya Sulami reports that he once approached Rasulullaah saying, "O Rasulullaah! I wish to wage Jihaad in the path of Allaah." "Is your mother alive?" Rasulullaah enquired. When informed that she was, Rasulullaah said, "Stay glued to her feet because Jannah lies there." (4)

Hadhrat Jaahimah reports that when he approached Rasulullaah to seek advice about proceeding in Jihaad, Rasulullaah asked him whether his parents were alive. When he informed Rasulullaah that they were, Rasulullaah said, "Stay glued to them because Jannah lies beneath their feet." (5)

Hadhrat Jaahimah says, "I went to Rasulullaah and said, 'O Rasulullaah! I intend fighting in Jihaad and have come to consult with you.'

Hadhrat Nu'aym the freed slave of Hadhrat Ummu Salamah ﷺ reports that when Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ﷺ left for Hajj and was somewhere between Makkah and Madinah, he recognised a particular tree and sat down beneath it. He then said, "I saw Rasulullah ﷺ beneath this tree when a young man from this valley came and stood by him. He said, 'O Rasulullah ﷺ! I have come to wage Jihaad with you in the path of Allaah thereby seeking Allaah’s pleasure and the home of the Aakhirah.' Rasulullah ﷺ asked him, 'Are both your parents alive?' 'Yes,' was his reply. Rasulullah ﷺ said, 'Then return and be good towards them.' The man then returned whence he came from." (2)

The Incident Between Hadhrat Ali ﷺ and his two Sons when Hadhrat Umar ﷺ Proposed for his Daughter

Hadhrat Hasan narrates that when Hadhrat Umar ﷺ proposed for Hadhrat Ummu Kulthoom, (her father) Hadhrat Ali ﷺ said, "She is still too young for marriage." Hadhrat Umar ﷺ said, "I have heard Rasulullah ﷺ say, 'Every kinship by blood or marriage shall be severed on the Day of Qiyaamah except for all my kinship by blood or marriage.' I therefore wish to establish a kinship with Rasulullah ﷺ (by marrying your daughter)." Hadhrat Ali ﷺ said to his sons Hadhrat Hasan ﷺ and Hadhrat Husayn ﷺ, "Get your uncle married (to your sister)." They remarked, "She is a woman of individuality and will choose for herself." This remark made Hadhrat Ali ﷺ furious and when he stood up, Hadhrat Hasan ﷺ grabbed hold of his father's clothes saying, "Dear father! I cannot bear you being detached from us (do forgive us)!" "Then get him married," Hadhrat Ali ﷺ said. (3)

Hadhrat Usaama ﷺ Feeds the Sap of a Date Palm to his Mother

Hadhrat Muhammad bin Seereen reports that the price of a date palm reached a thousand Dirhams during the Khilafah of Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Affaan ﷺ. Hadhrat Usaama ﷺ bored to the centre of a date palm and extracted the sap, which he gave his mother to eat. People asked him, "What makes you do this when you know that a date palm can fetch a price of a thousand Dirhams?" He replied, "My mother asked me for it and if I can get it, I always give her anything she asks me for." (4)

Showing Mercy To Children and Treating them with Equality

Rasulullaah ﷺ Descends the pulpit for Hadhrat Husayn ﷺ

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr ﷺ narrates that he once saw Rasulullaah ﷺ delivering a sermon from the pulpit when Hadhrat Husayn ﷺ came out dragging a cloth around his neck. He then tripped and fell down on his face. Rasulullaah ﷺ got off the pulpit to get to him but seeing what he intended, the Sahabah ﷺ picked up the child and took him to Rasulullaah ﷺ. Rasulullaah ﷺ took the child and carried him saying, "May Allaah destroy Shaytaan! Children are surely a trial. By Allaah! (In the eagerness of helping the child) I had no idea that I had descended from the pulpit until the child was brought to me." (1)

Hadhrat Hasan ﷺ and Hadhrat Husayn ﷺ Climb on Rasulullaah ﷺ's Shoulders During salaah and He Prolongs the Sajdah because of it

Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed ﷺ narrates that Hadhrat Hasan ﷺ once came to Rasulullaah ﷺ while he was in Sajdah and climbed on his back. Rasulullaah ﷺ held him and stood up. When Rasulullaah ﷺ proceeded into Ruku, the child then stood on his back. When he got up, Rasulullaah ﷺ then left the boy and he went away. (2)

Hadhrat Zubayr ﷺ narrates that he once saw Hadhrat Hasan bin Ali ﷺ climb on to Rasulullaah ﷺ's back when he was in Sajdah. Rasulullaah ﷺ did not make the boy get off (and remained in Sajdah) until the child himself decided to get down. Rasulullaah ﷺ sometimes also parted his legs so that boy could go in from one side and out the other side. (3)

Hadhrat Bahiy narrates that he once asked Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr ﷺ who it was that most closely resembled Rasulullaah ﷺ. He replied, "Hasan bin Ali ﷺ most closely resembled Rasulullaah ﷺ and he was the most beloved to Rasulullaah ﷺ. While Rasulullaah ﷺ was performing salaah, he would sometimes come and sit on Rasulullaah ﷺ's back. Rasulullaah ﷺ would then not move from his position until Hasan ﷺ got off. He would then go beneath Rasulullaah ﷺ's abdomen and Rasulullaah ﷺ would separate his legs for the boy to go out again." (4) doing so, Rasulullaah would indicate to them to leave the boys alone. After completing the salaah, Rasulullaah would place them on his lap and say, "Whoever loves me should love these two." (1)

Hadrat Anas narrates that when Rasulullaah was in Sajdah, Hadrat Hasan and Hadrat Husayn would come and climb on his back. Rasulullaah would then prolong the Sajdah. When asked why the Sajdah was prolonged, Rasulullaah would reply, "When my two (grand) children mounted my back, I did not like to get up to quickly." (2)

Rasulullaah Performs Salaah with Hadrat Umaamah on his shoulders

Hadrat Abu Qataadah reports that Rasulullaah once came out of his room with (his granddaughter) Hadrat Umaamah bint Abil Aas on his shoulders. He then proceeded to perform salaah. He put her down whenever he went into Ruku and then picked her up again whenever he stood up (from Sajdah). (3)

Hadhrat Anas \( \text{ﷺ} \) says, "Rasulullaah \( \text{ﷺ} \) was most compassionate towards his family. He had a son (Ibraheem \( \text{ﷺ} \)) who was being suckled by the wife of a blacksmith at one end of Madinah. We would go to see the child at times when the house was filled with smoke from the burning of Idhkhir grass (in the furnace). Rasulullaah \( \text{ﷺ} \) would then kiss the child and smell him." Rasulullaah \( \text{ﷺ} \) Gives Glad Tidings to People who are Compassionate Towards their Children and who Strive to Treat them Equally

Hadhrat Anas \( \text{ﷺ} \) reports that a woman once came to Hadhrat Aa'isha \( \text{ﷺ} \) with her two little daughters. When Hadhrat Aa'isha \( \text{ﷺ} \) gave her three dates, the woman gave one to each child and was about to put the third one into her mouth when the girls looked at her (with craving for her date). The mother then broke the date into two parts, gave half to each girl and then left. When Rasulullaah \( \text{ﷺ} \) arrived and Hadhrat Aa'isha \( \text{ﷺ} \) narrated to him what the woman had done, he said, "Because of her deed, she shall surely enter Jannah." (4)

Hadhrat Hasan bin Ali \( \text{ﷺ} \) reports that a woman once came to Rasulullaah \( \text{ﷺ} \) to beg for food with her two sons. Honouring One's Neighbour

The Rights of Neighbours According to the Ahadeeth

Hadrat Mu'aawiya bin Haydah reports that he once asked Rasulullah what the rights of his neighbours were. Rasulullah replied, "You should visit him when he falls ill, attend his funeral when he passes away, give him a loan if he asks for one and conceal his poverty (and help him in a way that no one else comes to know). You should also congratulate him if some good comes his way and sympathise with him when a calamity befalls him. Furthermore, you should not raise your building higher than his so as to obstruct the ventilation of his house and also not distress him by the aroma of your pot (when he has no food) unless you intend dishing out some of the food for him." (3) Another narration adds, "You should provide clothing for him if he has none." (4)

The Incident of Hadrat Muhammad bin Abdullaah bin Salaam and his Troublesome Neighbour

Hadrat Muhammad bin Abdullaah bin Salaam says that he once complained to Rasulullah that his neighbour was causing him much trouble. Rasulullah encouraged him to exercise patience. When he again returned with the same complaint, Rasulullah gave him the same advice. When he lodged the same complaint for the third time, Rasulullah said, "Take all your belongings out on the street and whenever anyone asks you what the matter is, tell him that your neighbour is giving you trouble. He will then receive the curses of the people. Whoever believes in Allaah and the Last Day should honour his neighbour. Whoever believes in Allaah and the Last Day should honour his guest. Whoever believes in Allaah and the Last Day should either speak what is good or remain silent." (5)

The Amplified Severity of Committing Adultery with one's Neighbour's Wife and of Stealing from him

Hadhrat Miqdaad bin Aswad narrates that Rasulullaah once asked the Sahabah, "What do you think of adultery?" They replied, "It is Haraam. Allaah and His Rasool have forbidden it and it will remain Haraam until the Day of Qiyaamah." Rasulullaah then said to them, "The sin of committing adultery with ten women is less severe than that of committing adultery with the neighbour's wife." Rasulullaah the asked, "What do you think of stealing?" They replied, "Allaah and His Rasool have forbidden it and it is therefore Haraam." Rasulullaah then said to them, "The sin of stealing from ten homes is less severe than that of stealing from the neighbour's house." (2)

The Narration of Hadhrat Abu Dharr

Stating that Allaah Loves Three Persons and Detests Three Persons

Hadhrat Mutarrif bin Abdullaah says, "I had always been hearing a Hadith narrated by Hadhrat Abu Dharr and desired to meet him (to hear the Hadith directly from him). Therefore, when I eventually met Hadhrat Abu Dharr one day, I said to him, 'O Abu Dharr! I have been hearing a Hadith that you narrate and have always wished to meet you.' He exclaimed, 'May Allaah bless your father! You have now met me, so come (tell me which Hadith it is).' I replied, 'The Hadith I heard was that Rasulullaah once told you that Allaah loves three persons and detests three persons.' Hadhrat Abu Dharr remarked, 'It never even occurs to me to lie about what Rasulullaah said.' I asked, 'Who then are the three persons whom Allaah loves?' He replied, 'The man who strives in the path of Allaah with steadfastness, expecting rewards only from Allaah and then fights until he is martyred. You find mention of him in Allaah's Book that is with you.' He then recited the verse:

\text{"Verily Allaah loves those who fight (the enemies of Islaam) in His path (standing) in rows"} \quad (4)

I asked further, 'Who else?' he replied, 'The man whose evil neighbour gives him plenty of trouble but he exercises patience until Allaah suffices for him by either life (by changing the behaviour of the neighbour) or death (by taking either one of them from this world)." The Hadith still continues further. (1) Hadhrat Qaasim narrates that Hadhrat Abu Bakr once passed by his son Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan who was busy arguing with his neighbour. Hadhrat Abu Bakr said to him, "Do not argue with your neighbour because while other people (with whom you argue) will go away, your neighbour will always remain where he is (and you will have to contend with him every day)." (2)

Honouring a Righteous Travel Companion

Rasulullaah Advises Two Sahabah to Honour Hadhrat Rabaah bin Rabee

Hadhrat Rabaah bin Rabee narrates, "We were on a military expedition with Rasulullaah who had given every three of us a camel to ride. In the desert, two persons would ride while the third drove the camel on form behind. However, in the mountains, all would dismount. Rasulullaah once passed by us while I happened to be walking and asked, 'I see you walking, O Rabaah?' I replied, 'I have just dismounted, while my two companions have started to ride.' Rasulullaah then passed by my two companions and made the camel sit down. The two of them dismounted and when I passed by, they said, 'Mount the camel, sit at the front and remain there until we return (to Madinah). We shall take turns to ride with you.' When I asked them why they insisted on this arrangement, they replied, 'Rasulullaah told us that we have a righteous travel companion whom we should treat well.' (3)

Treating People According to their Status

The Action of Hadhrat Aa'isha in this Regard

Hadhrat Amr bin Mikhraaq reports that when a man of prominent appearance passed by Hadhrat Aa'isha as she was having a meal, she invited him (to share the meal with her) and he sat down to eat. When another man passed by, she merely gave him a piece of bread. When someone asked her the reason for this, she replied, "Rasulullaah instructed us to treat people according to their status." (4) someone asked her the reason for this, she replied, "Rasulullah \( \text{ س } \) instructed us to treat people according to their status." (1)

Yet another narration states that Hadhrat Aa'isha \( \text{ س } \) was once on a journey when she had a supper prepared for some people of the Quraysh. When a wealthy man of prominence arrived there, she had him invited. He dismounted, partook of the meal and then left. When a beggar then arrived, she had a piece of bread given to him. Someone asked, "You instructed us to invite the rich man but had a piece of bread given to the beggar?" Hadhrat Aa'isha \( \text{ س } \) replied, "It would have been inappropriate for us to treat the rich man in any manner other than the manner in which we did. When the beggar asked for something, I had someone give him something that would please him. "Rasulullah \( \text{ س } \) instructed us to treat people according to their status." (2)

The narration has already passed in which Hadhrat Ali \( \text{ س } \) gave a man a set of clothing and a hundred gold coins and said, "I have heard Rasulullah \( \text{ س } \) say, 'Treat people according to their status' and this is the status of this man in my regard." (3)

Greeting a Muslim

The Incident of Hadhrat Abu Bakr \( \text{ س } \)

Hadhrat Agharr \( \text{ س } \) from the Muzaynah tribe says, "Rasulullah \( \text{ س } \) once gave instructions for me to have a Jareeb(4) of dates that was with one of the Ansaar. However, when the Ansaari procrastinated, I spoke to Rasulullah \( \text{ س } \) about it. Rasulullah \( \text{ س } \) then instructed Hadhrat Abu Bakr \( \text{ س } \) to accompany me the next morning to get the dates. Hadhrat Abu Bakr \( \text{ س } \) promised to meet me at the Masjid after performing the Fajr salaah. I found him where we had arranged to meet and we left. He then said, 'Do you not see the tremendous virtue that others are gaining over you (by beating you to greeting). Never let anyone beat you to making Salaam.' Thereafter, whenever we saw anyone approach from a distance, we would greet him before he could greet us."(5)

Hadhrat Zuhrah bin Khameesa \( \text{ س } \) narrates, "I was once riding behind Hadhrat Abu Bakr \( \text{ س } \) on the same animal. Whenever we passed by any people and greeted them with Salaam, their reply was longer than our greeting. Hadhrat Abu Bakr \( \text{ س } \) remarked, 'People have been overpowering us today.'"

Hadrat Abu Bakr remarked, "People have surpassed us tremendously today."

The Advice of Hadrat Abu Umaamah in this Regard and the Behaviour of the Sahabah

Hadrat Abu Umaamah was once giving a lecture when he said, "Hold fast to patience because in markets that you like and those that you do not because patience is a most excellent quality. This world has certainly attracted you. It is dragging its skirt before you and has put on its dressing and adornments for you. On the other hand, the companions of Muhammad were so eager to earn the rewards of the Aakhirah that they used to sit in their yards saying, 'We sit to greet with Salaam and to be greeted.'

Hadrat Anas once said, "When we were with Rasulullaah and a tree came between us (causing us to separate), we would greet each other with Salaam as soon as we rejoined."

The Incident of Hadrat Abdullaah bin Umar with Hadrat Tufayl

Hadrat Tufayl bin Ubay bin Ka'b narrates, "I used to accompany Hadrat Abdullaah bin Umar to the marketplace every morning. When we went there, he would not pass by any hawker, trader, poor person or any other person without greeting them with Salaam. When I went to him one day and he requested me to follow him to the marketplace, I asked, 'What do you do at the marketplace when you do not make any purchases, do not enquire about any product, do not ask prices and do not even participate in the gatherings at the market? Why do we not rather sit here and talk.' Hadrat Abdullaah said, 'Dear tubby (Hadrat Tufayl was overweight and the term was one of endearment)! We go there for the sake of Salaam, so that we may greet whoever we meet with Salaam.'

The Practice of Hadrat Abu Umaamah

Hadrat Abu Umaamah Baahili used to greet everyone he met with

(2) Bukhaari in his Adab, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.52).
(3) Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.156).
(4) Tabraani, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.4 Pg.207). Bukhaari has reported a similar narration in his Adab (Pg.148).

Salaam. There was none who ever beat him to making Salaam except a Jew who once hid behind a pillar and then surprised him by coming out to greet him. "Shame on you, O Jew!" Hadhrat Abu Umaamah ٍ ٍ cried out, "What made you do this?" The Jew replied, "I noticed that you are a man who greets very often so I knew that there must be great virtue in it. I therefore wished to have the virtue." Hadhrat Abu Umaamah ٍ ٍ then said to him, "I have heard Rasulullaah ٍ ٍ say, 'Verily Allaah has made the Salaam a greeting for (the Muslims of) my Ummah and a security for the Kuffaar living under our (Muslim) rule." (1)

Hadhrat Muhammad bin Ziyaad reports, "I was holding the hand of Hadhrat Abu Umaamah ٍ ٍ as he proceeded to his house. He did not pass by any Muslim, Christian, youngster or adult without saying 'Salaamun Alaykum', 'Salaamun Alaykum'. When he reached the door of his house, he turned to us and said, 'O son of my brother! Our Nabi ٍ ٍ commanded us to make Salaam common amongst ourselves." (2)

Hadhrat Basheer bin Yasaar says, "None could ever beat Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ٍ ٍ to making Salaam." (3)

Replying to a Greeting

The Incident of Rasulullaah ٍ ٍ with Some of the Sahabah

Hadhrat Salmaan ٍ ٍ reports that someone once came to Rasulullaah ٍ ٍ and greeted with the words: "أُسَالِمُ عَلَيْكَ وَرَحْمَةُ اللَّهِ". Rasulullaah ٍ ٍ replied with the words: "عَلَيْكَ وَرَحْمَةُ اللَّهِ وَبِرَاَتَتِهَا". Thereafter, another Sahabi ٍ ٍ arrived and greeted with the words: "أُسَالِمُ عَلَيْكَ وَرَحْمَةُ اللَّهِ وَبِرَاَتَتِهَا". Rasulullaah ٍ ٍ replied with the words: "عَلَيْكَ وَرَحْمَةُ اللَّهِ وَبِرَاَتَتِهَا". Thereafter, a third Sahabi ٍ ٍ arrived and greeted with the words: "أُسَالِمُ عَلَيْكَ وَرَحْمَةُ اللَّهِ وَبِرَاَتَتِهَا". This time Rasulullaah ٍ ٍ only said, "عَلَيْكَ وَرَحْمَةُ اللَّهِ". The Sahabi ٍ ٍ asked, "O Rasulullaah ٍ ٍ! When those two came, you greeted them with words better than the words you used for me." Rasulullaah ٍ ٍ replied, "You had left nothing for me (to add because you used the full greeting). Allaah says:

وَإِذَا خَيَّمتَ بِجَنَّةٍ فَخَيَّةٍ فَخَيَّهَا وَأَخْسَرْهَا مِنْهَا أُرْدُوهَا \] (Surah Nisaa, verse 86)

'When you are greeted with a greeting, then reply with a better greeting, or (at least) return (the same greeting)'

I therefore returned your greeting (since there was no better reply)." (4)

The Incident of Hadhrat Aa'isha ٍ ٍ with Rasulullaah ٍ ٍ and Hadhrat Jibra'eel ٍ ٍ

Hadhrat Aa'isha ٍ ٍ reports that Rasulullaah ٍ ٍ once said to her, "O (1) Tabraaani. Haythami (Vol.8 Pg.33) has commented on the chain of narrators.
(2) Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.6 Pg.112).
(3) Bukhaari in his Adab (Pg.145).
(4) Tabraaani. Haythami (Vol.8 Pg.33) has commented on the chain of narrators.
Aa'isha! Jibra'eel is here and he conveys Salaams to you." Hadhrat Aa'isha replied by saying, "وعليكم السلام ورحمة الله وبركاته". She was about to add to these words when Rasulullaah said, "The Salaam ends at that." Hadhrat Jibra'eel then said, "May the mercy and blessings of Allaah be on you, O Ahlul Bayt (members of Rasulullaah's household)." (1)

The Incident of Rasulullaah with Hadhrat Sa'd bin Ubaadah

Hadhrat Anas and other Sahabah narrate that when Rasulullaah once requested permission to enter the home of Hadhrat Sa'd bin Ubaadah, Rasulullaah greeted with the words: "السلام عليكم ورحمة الله". Although Hadhrat Sa'd replied by saying, "وعليكم السلام ورحمة الله "", he did so in a voice that was not audible to Rasulullaah. Rasulullaah greeted three times and each time, Hadhrat Sa'd replied in a voice that was inaudible to Rasulullaah. When Rasulullaah turned to leave (thinking that no one was at home), Hadhrat Sa'd ran after him saying, "May my parents be sacrificed for you, O Rasulullaah! Every greeting of yours fell on my ears and I had replied each time in a voice that you could not hear. I did that because I wanted to get more of your Salaams and blessings (because Salaam is a du'aa for peace and blessings)." He then took Rasulullaah into his house and served some olive oil, which Rasulullaah ate. After eating, Rasulullaah made the du'aa:

"أكل طعامكم الأبرز وصلت عليكم الملاك وأطر عندكم الصائمون"

"May the pious eat your food, may the angels pray for you and may fasting people end their fasts with you." (2)

Hadhrat Anas narrates that Rasulullaah used to visit the Ansaar and when he came to the locality of the Ansaar, the children of the Ansaar would gather around him. He would then make du'aa for them, pass his hand over their heads and greet them with Salaam. When Rasulullaah arrived at the door of Hadhrat Sa'd bin Ubaadah's house, he greeted with the words: "السلام عليكم ورحمة الله " . Although Hadhrat Sa'd replied, he did so in a voice that was not audible to Rasulullaah. Rasulullaah greeted three times and it was his practice never to greet more than three times (when seeking permission to enter). He would usually enter when granted permission or leave (if no one replied after three Salaams). Rasulullaah therefore turned to leave (thinking that no one was at home), when Hadhrat Sa'd came running after him. The rest of the narration is the same as the one above. (3)

The Incident of Hadhrat Umar with Hadhrat Uthmaan

Hadhrat Muhammad bin Jubayr reports that Hadhrat Umar once passed

(1) Tabraani in his Awsat, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.8 Pg.33).
(2) Ahmad. Abu Dawood has reported a part of the narration.

by Hadhrat Uthmaan and greeted him. Hadhrat Uthmaan however did not reply to the greeting. Hadhrat Umar proceeded immediately to Hadhrat Abu Bakr and complained to him about this. When Hadhrat Abu Bakr asked Hadhrat Uthmaan why he did not reply to the greeting, Hadhrat Uthmaan explained, "By Allaah! I did not even hear him because I was so deep in thought." "What was it that you were deliberating upon?" enquired Hadhrat Abu Bakr. Hadhrat Uthmaan replied, "About opposing Shaytaan. He was plaguing my mind with thoughts that I do not even wish to express for all the wealth of the world. When he cast these thoughts in my heart, I said to myself, 'If only I had asked Rasulullaah about how we could save ourselves from these thoughts of Shaytaan!'"

Hadhrat Abu Bakr then said, "I expressed the very concern and question to Rasulullaah saying, 'How can we save ourselves from the thoughts that Shaytaan casts within us?' Rasulullaah replied, 'The very same thing that I told my uncle (Abu Taalib) to say on his deathbed will save you if you say the same words. He however, did not say them.'"

"O Khalifah of Rasulullaah! I have some shocking news for you! When I passed by Uthmaan and greeted him, he did not even reply."

In a more lengthy narration, Hadhrat Uthmaan says, "When Umar went to Abu Bakr, he said, 'O Khalifah of Rasulullaah! I have some shocking news for you! When I passed by Uthmaan and greeted him, he did not even reply.' Taking Umar by the hand, Abu Bakr came to me and asked, 'O Uthmaan! Your brother Umar has come to me saying that when he passed you and greeted you, you did not reply. What is the reason for this?' 'But I did no such thing, O Khalifah of Rasulullaah!' I defended. 'You certainly did,' Umar asserted, 'By Allaah! This pride is an old tradition of you Banu Umayyah!' 'By Allaah!' I protested, 'I have no idea that you even passed by me or that you greeted me with Salaam.'

Abu Bakr then bore me out saying, 'You have spoken the truth. It appears to me that something on your mind had distracted you from realising what had happened.' 'That is indeed so,' I confirmed. When Abu Bakr asked me what it was, I replied, 'Rasulullaah passed away without me asking him what it was in which the salvation of this Ummah lay. I was engrossed in this thought, startled at my negligence at this.' Abu Bakr said, 'I have asked Rasulullaah about this and he informed me what it is.' 'What is it?' I begged to know. He replied, I posed the question to him, saying, 'O Rasulullaah! In what does the salvation of this Ummah lay?' Rasulullaah replied, 'Whoever accepts from me the words that I offered to my uncle but which he refused, those words shall be his salvation.' The words that Rasulullaah offered to his uncle was to testify that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah and that Muhammad is the Rasul sent by Allaah (i.e. the Kalimah 'Laa Ilaaha Illallaah Muhammadur Rasulullaah')."
The Incident of Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqas and Hadhrat Uthmaan

Hadrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqas says, "I once passed by Uthmaan bin Affaan in the Masjid and greeted him. Although he could see me clearly, he still did not reply to my greeting. I then approached Ameerul Mu'mineen Umar bin Khattaab and twice asked, 'Has anything new developed in Islaam?' 'What has happened?' he asked. 'Nothing much,' I replied, 'except the fact that when I passed by Uthmaan in the Masjid and greeted him, he did not reply even though he could clearly see me.' Umar then sent for Uthmaan and asked, 'What prevented you from replying to your brother's Salaam?' When Uthmaan denied doing such a thing and I insisted that he did, he swore that he did not while I swore that he did. When the thought struck him, Uthmaan exclaimed, 'I seek Allaah's forgiveness and return to Him! When you passed by me just now, I was engrossed in thinking about something that Rasulullaah once said. By Allaah! Whenever I remember these words, my eyes and heart are engulfed by a veil.'"

Hadrat Uthmaan then said, "Let me tell you what it was. Rasulullaah was about to mention to us how to begin a du'aa when a Bedouin arrived and distracted him so much that he then got up (without completing what he was going to tell us). I then followed Rasulullaah and when I feared that he would enter his room before I reached him, I stamped my feet hard on the ground (as I walked). Turning towards me, Rasulullaah asked, 'Who is that? Is that Abu Is'haaq?Q' 'Yes, it is I, O Rasulullaah,' I replied. 'What is it then?' he asked. I said, 'Nothing much except that you were about to mention to us how to begin a du'aa when that Bedouin arrived and distracted you.' 'O yes,' Rasulullaah said, 'it is the du'aa of the man of the fish (Hadhrat Yunus) when he was in the belly of the fish, (the words are):

‘لَا إِلَإِّahu an-ta's-sabha'tah kina't min al-talibin
'There is no Ilaah but You (O Allaah). You are Pure. I have certainly been from among the wrongdoers.'

Whenever a Muslim makes du'aa to Allaah with these words, Allaah will certainly accept his du'aa."(1)

Conveying Salaams

The Incident of Hadhrat Salmaan with Hadhrat Ash'ath bin Qais and Hadhrat Jarreer bin Abdullaah

Hadrat Abul Bakhtari narrates that Hadhrat Ash'ath bin Qais and

(1) Ahmad Haythami (Vol. 7 Pg. 68) has commented on the chain of narrators. Tirmidhi has reported a portion of the end, while Abu Ya'la and Tabraani have reported a similar narration, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 1 Pg. 298).
Hadrat Jareer bin Abdullah Bajali once went to see Hadrat Salmaan Faarsi. When they came to him in a fortress in a corner of Mada'in, they greeted him with the words "اللَّهُ السُّبِيرُ" and "اللَّهُ السُّبِيرُ يسألكنَّهُ" ("May Allaah keep you alive"). They then asked, "Are you Salmaan Faarsi?" When he replied that he was, they asked further, "Are you the companion of Rasulullaah?" "I am not sure," he replied. This put them in doubt and they said, "Perhaps you are not the person we want." Hadrat Salmaan put them at ease saying, "I am the person you want. I have seen Rasulullaah and have been in his company. (He then said out of humility) As for the companions of Rasulullaah, they are those who have entered Jannah with him (and I am not sure whether I shall be amongst them). What do you two want?"

The two Sahabah explained, "We have come to you from one of your brothers in Shaam." "Who is he?" Hadrat Salmaan enquired. When they informed him that it was Hadrat Abu Dardaa, Hadrat Salmaan asked, "Then where is my gift that he has sent with you?" "He has not sent any gift with us," they averred. Hadrat Salmaan warned them saying, "Fear Allaah and hand over the trust that has been given to you! None has come to me from him without a gift for me." The two reasoned with him saying, "Please do not file a case against us for this. We have much wealth with us and you may choose whatever you want from it." "But I do not want your wealth," Hadrat Salmaan said, "All I want is the gift that he has sent with you."

"By Allaah!" they swore, "He has sent us with nothing but these words: 'Amongst you is a certain man. Whenever Rasulullaah was alone with him, Rasulullaah wanted no one else. When you go to him, do convey my Salaams to him.'" Hadrat Salmaan then said, "This was the only gift that I wanted from you. What gift can be better than Salaam, which is a blessed and pure greeting from Allaah?" (1)

Shaking Hands and Embracing

Narrations of Hadrat Jundub, Hadrat Abu Dharr and Hadrat Abu Hurayrah Concerning the Practice of Rasulullaah With Regard to Shaking Hands

Hadrat Jundub says, "When meeting his companions, Rasulullaah never shook their hands until he had first greeted them with Salaam." (2)

Someone once asked Hadrat Abu Dharr, "I want to ask you about a Hadith of Rasulullaah." Hadrat Abu Dharr said, "I shall then narrate it to you unless it is a secret." The person then asked, "Was Rasulullaah in the habit of shaking your hands when you met him?" Hadrat Abu Dharr replied, "There was never a time that I met him without him shaking my hand."

Hadrat Abu Hurayrah narrates that when Rasulullah once met Hadrat Hudhayfah bin Yamaan and was going to shake his hand, Hadrat Hudhayfah turned away saying, "I am in a state of impurity." Rasulullah said to him, "When a Muslim meets his brother Muslim and shakes his hand, their sins are shed off just as leaves are shed off a tree." (2)

Narrations of Hadrat Anas and Hadrat Aa'isha Concerning the Practice of Rasulullah With Regard to Embracing and his Prohibition from Bowing

Hadrat Anas reports that the Sahabah once asked, "O Rasulullah! Can we bow to each other (when greeting)?" "No," came the reply. They then asked, "Can we then embrace each other?" When Rasulullah again said "No", they asked, "Can we then shake each other's hands?" This time, Rasulullah's reply was "Yes". (3)

Hadrat Anas narrates that someone once asked, "O Rasulullah! When any of us meets his brother or his friend, can he bow to him?" "No," replied Rasulullah. "Can he then embrace him and kiss him?" the Sahabi asked further. Again, Rasulullah said, "No." He then asked, "Can he then take his hand and shake it?" "This he may do," replied Rasulullah. (4)

Another narration adds that when the Sahabi asked, "Can he then embrace him and kiss him?" Rasulullah said, "No, unless he has returned from a journey." (5)

Hadrat Aa'isha narrates, "Rasulullah was in my house when Zaid bin Haaritha arrived in Madinah. When Zaid came to meet Rasulullah and knocked at the door, Rasulullah stood up (in great excitement), dragging his clothing along with him but without wearing anything (over his upper body). By Allaah! I have never before or ever after seen Rasulullah like this. Rasulullah then embraced Zaid and kissed him." (6)

When I enquired who the man kissing was, I was informed that he was Hadhrat Umar bin Khattaab who was kissing the head of Hadhrat Abu Bakr for fighting the renegades who had refused to pay zakaah." Standing Out of Respect for a Muslim

Rasulullaah ﷺ Welcomes his Daughter Hadhrat Faatima ﷺ and She Welcomes him

Hadrath Aa’isha ﷺ narrates that she had not seen anyone who resembled Rasulullaah ﷺ more in his speech and mannerisms than (his daughter) Hadrath Faatima ﷺ. Whenever Rasulullaah ﷺ saw her arrive, he would welcome her, stand up and kiss her. He would then take her by her hand and take her with him to sit where he had been sitting. In a like manner, whenever he went to her, she would also welcome him, stand up and kiss him. When she came to see him during his final illness, he welcomed her and kissed her. He then whispered something to her and she started weeping. Thereafter, he again whispered something to her and she started to laugh.

Hadrath Aa’isha ﷺ narrates further, "I then said to some other women, 'I had always believed that this lady was superior to other women, but it appears that she is just like other women because while weeping, she suddenly started to laugh.' When I asked her what it was that Rasulullaah ﷺ said to her, she replied, '(If I told you) I would then be disclosing a secret.' However, after Rasulullaah ﷺ passed away, she said, 'I started to weep when Rasulullaah ﷺ (1) Abu Nu’aym in his Hilya (Vol.9 Pg.306).

whispered to me that he was going to pass away. I then became happy when he informed me that I would be the first of his family to meet him.

The Sahabah Stand up for Rasulullaah

Hadrat Hilaal (narrates from Hadrat Abu Hurayrah who) says that whenever Rasulullaah left (their gathering), they stood up for him and would not sit until he entered his room.

Rasulullaah Prohibits the Sahabah from Standing up for him

Hadrat Abu Umaamah says, "When Rasulullaah once came out to us taking support from his staff, we stood up for him. He then said, "Do not stand up as the non-Arabs stand up in honour of each other.""

Hadrat Ubaadah bin Saamit narrates that when Rasulullaah once came out to them, Hadrat Abu Bakr (may Allaah shower His mercy upon him) said, "Stand up and seek help from Rasulullaah in your case against the hypocrite." However, Rasulullaah said, "None should stand! Allaah is the only One for Whom people ought to stand up."

The Practice of the Sahabah in this regard

Hadrat Anas says, "There was none whom the Sahabah loved to see more than Rasulullaah. Despite this, they would not stand up for him when they saw him because they knew that he disliked it."

Hadrat Naafi reports from Hadrat Abdullaah bin Umar that Rasulullaah forbade a person from making another stand up from his place and then sitting in the same place. Therefore, whenever someone stood up from his place for Hadrat Abdullaah bin Umar, he would not sit there.

Hadrat Abu Khaalid Waalibi says that when Hadrat Ali once came out to them, they stood waiting for him to go ahead. Hadrat Ali reprimanded them saying, "Why do I see you people standing with your chests out (like soldiers)?"

Hadrat Abu Mijlaz reports that when Hadrat Mu'aawiyah once came out while Hadrat Abdullaah bin Aamir and Hadrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr were seated. Hadrat Abdullaah bin Aamir stood up while Hadrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr who was the larger of the two remained sitting. Hadrat Mu'aawiyah remarked, "I have heard Rasulullaah say that the person who likes Allaah's servants to stand up for him should prepare

Shifting Oneself for Another Muslim

Rasulullaah \(\mathbf{SAW} \) shifts for a Person who Entered the Masjid

Hadhrat Waathila bin Khattaab Qurashi \(\mathbf{RA} \) reports that a person once entered the Masjid when Rasulullaah \(\mathbf{SAW} \) was there by himself. Rasulullaah \(\mathbf{SAW} \) shifted from his place for the man. When someone commented that there was enough space for the man (and Rasulullaah \(\mathbf{SAW} \) did not need to move), Rasulullaah \(\mathbf{SAW} \) said, "It is the right of a Mu'min that his brother should shift from his place when he sees him arrive." (2)

Hadhrat Waathila bin Asqa \(\mathbf{RA} \) narrates that Rasulullaah \(\mathbf{SAW} \) was all alone in the Masjid when a man entered. When Rasulullaah \(\mathbf{SAW} \) shifted for the man, someone asked, "O Rasulullaah \(\mathbf{SAW} \)! But there is plenty of space (for him to sit. Why did you need to move)?" Rasulullaah \(\mathbf{SAW} \) replied, "It is the right of a Muslim." (3)

The narration has already passed\(^4\) in which Hadhrat Abu Bakr \(\mathbf{RA} \) moved from his place for Hadhrat Ali bin Abi Taalib \(\mathbf{RA} \), saying, "Come here, O Abul Hasan." Hadhrat Ali \(\mathbf{RA} \) then sat between Rasulullaah \(\mathbf{SAW} \) and Hadhrat Abu Bakr \(\mathbf{RA} \).

Honouring the Person Sitting with One

Statements of the Sahabah \(\mathbf{RA} \) in this Regard

Hadhrat Katheer bin Murra says, "I once entered the Masjid on a Friday where I found Hadhrat Awf bin Maalik Ashja'ee \(\mathbf{RA} \) sitting in a gathering with his legs stretched out before him. When he saw me arrive, he folded his legs in and said, "Do you know why I had stretched out my legs? I did it so that some pious person should come and sit here." (5)

Hadhrat Muhammad bin Abbaad bin Ja'far narrates that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas \(\mathbf{RA} \) once said, "The person I have the most respect for is the one with whom I am sitting." Hadhrat Ibn Abi Mulaykah reports that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas \(\mathbf{RA} \) said, "The person I have the most respect for is the one with whom I am sitting, even though he steps over people's shoulders to sit with me." The Incident of Hadhrat Ali \(\mathbf{RA} \) with Two Men

Concealing the Secret of a Muslim

Hadhrat Abu Bakr Conceals Rasulullaah’s Secret Concerning Marrying Hadhrat Hafsah

Hadhrat Umar narrates, "My daughter Hafsah was widowed when her husband Khunays bin Hudhaafah Sahmi passed away in Madinah. He was a companion of Rasulullaah who participated in the Battle of Badr. When I met Abu Bakr, I said, 'If you agree, I would like to get you married to Hafsah the daughter of Umar.' He however gave me no reply. It was only a few days later that Rasulullaah proposed for her and I married her to Rasulullaah. Abu Bakr met me thereafter and said, 'You may have been angry with me when you proposed that I marry Hafsah and I gave no reply?' When I confirmed that I was, he explained, 'The only thing that prevented me from giving you a reply was that I had heard Rasulullaah make mention of (proposing for) her and I did not wish to reveal Rasulullaah’s secret. Had he not married her, I certainly would have.'(2)

Hadrath Anas Conceals Rasulullaah’s Secret

Hadrath Anas relates, "I was in Rasulullaah’s service one day and when I had completed, I thought to myself that since Nabi is having his siesta, I may as well leave. I then saw some children playing and stood there watching them play. Rasulullaah then came where the children were, greeted them and then called for me. He then sent me on an errand that remains in my mouth (because it was a secret). By the time I eventually reported back to Rasulullaah (after completing the errand), I was late in returning to my mother. "What kept you up?" she enquired. When I informed her that Rasulullaah had sent me on an errand and she asked what it was, I replied, 'It is Rasulullaah’s secret.' She then said, 'Then conceal the secret of Rasulullaah.' I have therefore not informed a soul about the errand. (Then addressing his student Hadrath Thaabit Banaani, Hadrath Anas said,) If there was anyone I would tell, it would be you." (3)

Hadrat Abu Dardaa  narrates that when a man once complained to Rasulullaah  about his hard heartedness, Rasulullaah  asked, "Do you want your heart to be softened and your needs to be fulfilled? Have mercy on the orphan, pass your hand over his head and feed him from your food. Your heart will then be softened and your needs will be fulfilled." (2)

The Incident of Hadrat Basheer bin Aqrabah with Rasulullaah

Hadrat Basheer bin Aqrabah Juhani relates, "On the day the Battle of Uhud was fought, I asked Rasulullaah  'What has happened to my father?' Rasulullaah  replied, 'He has been martyred. May Allaah shower His mercy on him.' When I started to weep, Rasulullaah  picked me up, passed his hand over my head and put me with him on his animal saying, 'Will you not like me to be your father and Aa’isha to be your mother?"(3)

Honouring The Friends of One's Father

Hadrat Abdullaah bin Umar  Honours a Bedouin whose Father was a Friend of Hadrat Umar

Hadrat Abdullaah bin Umar  had a donkey that he took along with him when travelling to Makkah. He would use the donkey to rest or when the camels grew tired. He also had with him a turban that he tied on his head (on the journey). As he was riding the donkey one day, a Bedouin happened to pass by. "Are you not so-and-so?" Hadrat Abdullaah bin Umar  asked. When the man confirmed that he was the person, Hadrat Abdullaah bin Umar  gave him the donkey saying, "Ride this away." He also handed him the turban saying, "Tie this to your head." One of his companions remarked, "May Allah forgive you! You have given him the donkey you rest upon as well as the turban you tie on your head?" Hadrat Abdullaah bin Umar  replied, "I have heard Rasulullaah  say, 'Indeed the best act of virtue is for a man to maintain good ties with those who were close to his father after his father's death.' This man's father was a close friend of (my father) Umar."(4)

Another narration adds that someone asked Hadrat Abdullaah bin Umar  "Would (giving him) two Dirhams not suffice?" Hadrat Abdullaah bin Umar  replied, "Nabi  said, 'Care for your father's associates and do not

Hadhrat Abu Usayd Saa'idi narrates that someone once asked, "Rasulullaah! Is there any good treatment that I may give to my parents after their demise?" Rasulullaah replied, "Certainly. Make du'aa for them, seek Allah's forgiveness for them, fulfil their promises, maintain the ties you have through them and honour their friends." (2)

Accepting the Invitation of a Muslim

The Incident of Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob Ansaari and Other Soldiers at Sea

Hadhrat Ziyaad bin An'am Afriqi reports that they were once at sea as soldiers during the Khilafah of Hadhrat Mu'awiya when their vessel joined up with that of Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob Ansaari. When their lunch was served, they invited Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob, who said, "You are inviting me when I am fasting. It is however, imperative for me to accept your invitation because I heard Rasulullaah say, 'Six rights are incumbent for a Muslim to fulfil towards his fellow Muslim brother. Should he neglect one of them, he has neglected an compulsory right due to his brother. (These are) He should greet him when he meets him, he should accept his invitation, he should respond to his sneeze (by saying 'Yarhamu Kallaah'), he should visit him when he falls ill, he should attend his funeral and he should give him good advice when he asks for it.'" The narration continues further. (3)

Some Statements of the Sahabah in this Regard

Hadhrat Humayd bin Nu'aym narrates that when Hadhrat Umar bin Khattab and Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Affaan were once invited to a meal, they both accepted the invitation. As they were leaving, Hadhrat Umar said to Hadhrat Uthmaan, "Although I attended the meal, I wish that I had not." "Why is that?" Hadhrat Uthmaan asked. Hadhrat Umar replied, "Because I fear that it was hosted for show." (4)

When he was the Ameerul Mu'mineen, Hadhrat Uthmaan was invited when Hadhrat Mughiera bin Shu'ba got married. When Hadhrat Uthmaan arrived, he said, "Although I am fasting, I wished to accept the invitation and to pray for blessings." (5)

Hadhrat Salmaan Faarsi once said, "When your friend, neighbour or relative who works for the state gives you a gift or invites you for a meal, you should accept (even though you doubt the legality of his earnings). Removing an Obstacle from the Path of a Muslim

The Incident of Hadhrat Ma'qal Muzani and Hadhrat Mu'aawiya bin Qurra

Hadhrat Mu'aawiya bin Qurra says, "I was once with Ma'qal Muzani when he removed an obstacle from the road. When I later saw something else (on the road), I beat him to removing it. 'What made you do that, O son of my brother?' he enquired. I replied, 'I did something that I had seen you do.' He then remarked, 'You have done well, O son of my brother! I have heard Rasulullaah say, 'Whoever removes an obstacle from the path of the Muslims shall have the rewards of a good deed recorded in his favour and whoever has even a single good deed accepted (by Allaah) shall enter Jannah.'" Responding to a Sneeze

The Guidance Rasulullaah gave in this Regard

Hadhrat Abdullah bin Umar narrates that they were once sitting with Rasulullaah when he sneezed. When the Sahabah responded by saying: 'Yar-Hamu Kallaah', Rasulullaah said:

"Yahdiikumullaahi wastsilu yallakum" (3)

"May Allaah guide you and set all your affairs right." (3)

Hadhrat Aa'isha reports that someone once sneezed in the presence of Rasulullaah and then asked, "What should I say, O Rasulullaah?" Rasulullaah answered, "Say 'Alhamdu Lillaah'." The other Sahabah then asked, "What should we then say in response, O Rasulullaah?" "You should say 'Yar-hamu Kallaah'," Rasulullaah replied. The man then enquired further, "How should I then respond to them, O Rasulullaah?" Rasulullaah then told him that he should say:

"Yahdiikumullaahi wastsilu yallakum" (4)

"May Allaah guide you and set all your affairs right." (4)

Hadhrat Abdullah bin Mas'oood says, "Rasulullaah taught us to respond whenever someone sneezed." (5)

Hadhrat Abdullah bin Mas'oood also mentioned, "Rasulullaah taught us that whenever anyone sneezed, he should say: 'Alhamdu Lillaah Rabbil 'alamin'." (Alhamdu

Hadhrat Ummu Salamah reports that a person once sneezed next to Rasulullaah's room and then said, "(Alhamdu Lillaah)" (Alhamdu Lillaah). To this, Rasulullaah said, "(Yar-Hamu Kallaah)" (Yar-Hamu Kallaah). Thereafter, another person also sneezed next to Rasulullaah's room. This person said, "(Alhamdu Lillaah Katheeran Tayyiban Mubaarakan Fee)" (Alhamdu Lillaah Katheeran Tayyiban Mubaarakan Fee). To this, Rasulullaah responded by saying, "This man has superceded the other by nineteen stages." (2)

Rasulullaah Prohibits Replying to the Sneeze of Someone who does not say (Alhamdu Lillaah)"

Hadhrat Anas reports that when two persons sneezed in the presence of Rasulullaah, he replied to the one and not to the other. When he was asked about this, he replied, "Whereas the one said (Alhamdu Lillaah)" (Alhamdu Lillaah), the other did not." (3)

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah narrates that two persons once sneezed in front of Rasulullaah, the one person belonging to a nobler social class than the other. When the nobler person sneezed, he failed to say (Alhamdu Lillaah), because of which Rasulullaah did not reply to his sneeze. When the other person sneezed, he said (Alhamdu Lillaah) and Rasulullaah therefore replied to his sneeze. The nobleman then asked, "You did not reply when I sneezed before you, but replied when he sneezed?" Rasulullaah replied, "He thought of Allaah when he sneezed so I thought of him. On the other hand, you forgot Allaah so I forgot you." (4)

The Incident of Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari with his Son and Wife

Hadhrat Abu Burdah narrates, "I once went to (my father) Abu Moosa when he was at the home of Ummu Fadhl bin Abbaas. (5) When I happened to sneeze, he did not reply to my sneeze but when she sneezed, he replied to her sneeze. I informed my mother about this and when he came to her, she took him to task saying, 'When my son sneezed, you did not reply to his sneeze but when that lady sneezed, you replied to her sneeze?!' Abu Moosa replied, 'I have heard Rasulullaah say, 'When any of you sneezes and Therefore, when my son sneezed and did not say ('Alhamdu Lillaah'), I did not reply to his sneeze. On the other hand, when the lady sneezed, she said ('Alhamdu Lillaah') and replied to her sneeze. 'You have done well,' my mother nodded in approval.

The Practices of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas in this Regard

Hadhrat Makhool Azdi reports that he was once with Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar in the Masjid when someone sneezed in the corner of the Masjid. To this, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar said (Yar-Hamu Kallaah) to you if you have said (Alhamdu Lillaah)." (1)

Hadhrat Naafi narrates that whenever anyone replied to the sneeze of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar by saying (Yar-Hamu Kallaah), he would say:

"May Allaah shower us and you with His mercy and may He forgive us and you." (2)

Hadhrat Naafi also reports that when a man once sneezed in front of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar and said (Alhamdu Lillaah), Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar remarked, "You have acted in a very miserly fashion! Why did you not also sent salutations on Rasulullaah (recite Durood) when you said (Alhamdu Lillaah)?" (3)

Hadhrat Dahhaak bin Qais Yashkari says, "When a man once sneezed in front of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar and said (Alhamdu Lillaah), Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar remarked, 'Why did you not complete it by sending salutations to Rasulullaah (by reciting Durood and Salaam)?" (4)

Hadhrat Abu Jamara narrates that he once heard Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas reply to someone's sneeze by saying:

"May Allaah shower us and you with His mercy and may He forgive us and you." (5)

was suffering from an eye infection." (1)

Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas (r.s) says, "During the year in which the farewell Hajj was performed, Rasulullaah (s.a.w) visited me when I fell extremely ill. I then said to him, 'My illness has become extremely severe and I being a wealthy man have none besides my daughter to inherit from me. (Since a third will be sufficient for her) May I then donate two thirds of my wealth towards Sadaqah?' 'No,' replied Rasulullaah (s.a.w). 'May I then donate half?' I asked. When Rasulullaah (s.a.w) again replied in the negative, I asked, 'Then how much?' Rasulullaah (s.a.w) replied, 'A third. And a third is also plenty. It is better for you to leave your heirs wealthy than to leave them destitute and stretching their arms out to people. Whenever you spend anything for the pleasure of Allaah, you will be rewarded for it, even for that (morsel of food) which you place in your wife's mouth.' I then said, 'O Rasulullaah (s.a.w)! Will I be left behind with my companions (to die here in Makkah while they return to Madinah)?' Rasulullaah (s.a.w) said, 'You will not be left behind. Every good deed you do will increase your status and your honour and while many nations will be greatly benefited by you, there will be others (the enemies of the Muslims) who will suffer at your hands.' (Rasulullaah (s.a.w) then prayed,) O Allaah! Allow the Hijrah of my companions to be completed and never let them turn back on their heels. (This du'aa I am making) especially for Sa'd bin Khowlah (Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas (r.s)).' Rasulullaah (s.a.w) felt pity for me that I should die in Makkah." (2)

Rasulullaah (s.a.w) Visits Hadhrat Jaabir (r.s)

Hadhrat Jaabir bin Abdullaah (r.s) says, "When I once fell ill, Rasulullaah (s.a.w) came with Hadhrat Abu Bakr (r.b) to visit me. They both arrived on foot but found me unconscious. Rasulullaah (s.a.w) then performed wudhu and sprinkled the wudhu water on me. I then recovered consciousness and when I saw Rasulullaah (s.a.w) there, I asked, 'O Rasulullaah (s.a.w)! What should I do with my wealth? How should I wrap up my estate?' Rasulullaah (s.a.w) gave no reply until the verses of inheritance were revealed." (3)

Rasulullaah (s.a.w) Visits Hadhrat Sa'd bin Ubaadah (r.s)

Hadhrat Usaama bin Zaid (r.s) reports that Rasulullaah (s.a.w) once mounted a donkey saddled with a carriage that was covered in shawl made in Fidak. Rasulullaah (s.a.w) then mounted Hadhrat Usaama (r.s) behind him and rode off to visit Hadhrat Sa'd bin Ubaadah (r.s). Rasulullaah (s.a.w) then rode by a gathering in which Abdullah bin Ubay bin Salool was present. Since this was before the Battle of Badr, Abdullah bin Ubay had not yet expressed his (false) conversion to Islaam. The gathering included mostly of Muslims, Mushriikeen, idol-worshippers and Jews. Amongst them was also Hadhrat Abdullah bin

When the dust kicked up by the animal engulfed the gathering, Abdullaah bin Ubay covered his nose with his shawl saying, "Do not kick dust on us!" Rasulullaah ﷺ then greeted, stopped and dismounted. He invited them towards Allaah and also recited the Qur’aan to them. Abdullaah bin Ubay responded by sneering, "Dear man! If what you say is the truth, there can be nothing better than it. However, do not disturb us with it in our gatherings. Rather return to your home and address those of us who come to you."

Hadrat Abdullaah bin Rawaaha ﷺ then said, "Do carry on, O Rasulullaah ﷺ! Continue coming to us in our gatherings because we enjoy it." The Muslims, Mushrikeen and Jews then started hurling abuse at each other until matters reached such a head that they almost came to blows. All the time, Rasulullaah ﷺ continued calming them until they all fell still. Rasulullaah ﷺ then mounted his animal and when he entered the home of Hadrat Sa’d bin Ubaadah ﷺ, he asked, "O Sa’d! Did you hear what Abu Hubaab just said?" Here Rasulullaah ﷺ was referring to Abdullah bin Ubay. Hadrat Sa’d ﷺ said, "Forgive him, Rasulullaah ﷺ, and overlook what he said. Allaah has given you (the status and honour) He has granted you whereas (just before you arrived) the people of this city had unanimously decided to crown him and to make him their chief. This was however put off by the truth that Allaah sent with you and this has stuck in his throat. It is because of this (jealousy for you) that he is doing what you see." (1)

Rasulullaah ﷺ Visits a Bedouin

Hadrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas ﷺ reports that Rasulullaah ﷺ once visited a villager. Whenever Rasulullaah ﷺ visited a sick person, he would say:

لا يَدْعُوُرُ إِن شَاءَ اللَّهُ

"Do not worry, this is a means of cleansing sins if Allaah wills" Rasulullaah ﷺ therefore said this to the villager, who in turn said, "A means of cleansing sins?! Never! This fever has attacked an old man very viciously and will leave him only when he reaches the grave." Rasulullaah ﷺ said, "It will then be as you say." (The man then died of the condition). (2)

Hadrat Abu Bakr ﷺ and Hadrat Bilaal ﷺ Fall Ill Upon Arrival in Madinah

Hadrat Aa'isha ﷺ reports that when Rasulullaah ﷺ arrived in Madinah, both Hadrat Abu Bakr ﷺ and Hadrat Bilaal ﷺ suffered extreme fever. She went to them both and asked, "Dear father! How are you? O Bilaal! How are you?" When Hadrat Abu Bakr ﷺ's fever rose, he recited some couplets which meant:

"Every person is given greetings of good morning to you"

wherewith death is closer than the straps of his shoe"
Whenever Hadhrat Bilaal ﷺ’s fever came down, he would think of Makkah and say the following couplet which meant:
"If only I knew whether a single night I could pass in a valley (in Makkah) surrounded by Idhkhir and Jaleel grass If only the waters of Majinna (1) I could one day attain Or would I ever see Shaama and Tufayl (2) ever again"

Hadhrat Aa’isha ﷺ says that when she reported the condition to Rasulullaah ﷺ, he made the following du’aa: "O Allaah! Make Madinah even more beloved to us than Makkah. O Allaah! Make Madinah a place of good health, bless us in its Mudd and Saa (3) and transfer its epidemic to Juhfa." (4)

A Collection of Good Traits in Hadhrat Abu Bakr Siddeeq ﷺ

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah ﷺ reports that Rasulullaah ﷺ once asked which of them had started the day by fasting. When Hadhrat Abu Bakr ﷺ replied that he had, Rasulullaah ﷺ asked which of them had visited a sick person that day. When Hadhrat Abu Bakr ﷺ again replied that he had done so, Rasulullaah ﷺ asked which of them had followed a funeral procession that day. Again it was Hadhrat Abu Bakr ﷺ who replied that he had done so. Rasulullaah ﷺ then asked who had fed a poor person that day. This time again it was Hadhrat Abu Bakr ﷺ who replied that he had done so. Rasulullaah ﷺ then said that the person who carries out all these deeds on one day will certainly enter Jannah. (5)

Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari ﷺ Visits Hadhrat Hasan bin Ali ﷺ

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Naafi narrates that when Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari ﷺ once visited an ailing Hadhrat Hasan bin Ali ﷺ, Hadhrat Ali ﷺ said, "Take note that when a Muslim visits his ailing Muslim brother in the morning, seventy thousand angels visit with him, all the time praying for his forgiveness until the evening. In addition to this, a garden is prepared for him in Jannah. When a Muslim visits his ailing Muslim brother in the evening, seventy thousand angels accompany him, praying for his forgiveness until the following morning and in addition to this, a garden is prepared for him in Jannah." Another narration states that when Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari ﷺ visited Hadhrat Hasan ﷺ, Hadhrat Ali ﷺ asked, "Have you come to visit him because he is ill or for another reason?" When Hadhrat Abu Moosa \(\text{\textregistered}\) confirmed that it was because he was ill, Hadhrat Ali \(\text{\textregistered}\) said, "Take note that when a Muslim visits his ailing Muslim brother..." The rest of the narration is as it appears above. (1)

Hadhrat Abu Faakhitan narrates that when Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari \(\text{\textregistered}\) visited Hadhrat Hasan \(\text{\textregistered}\), Hadhrat Ali \(\text{\textregistered}\) came in and asked, "Have you come to visit him because he is ill or for another reason?" "O Ameerul Mu'mineen!" Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari \(\text{\textregistered}\) replied, "It is not for another reason. I have come to visit him because he is ill." Hadhrat Ali \(\text{\textregistered}\) then said, "I have heard Rasulullaah \(\text{\textregistered}\) say, 'When a Muslim visits his ailing Muslim brother, seventy thousand angels pray from the morning until the evening for Allaah's mercy to be showered on him. In addition to this, a 'Khareef is prepared for him in Jannah.'" When the narrators asked him what a 'Khareef' was, Hadhrat Ali \(\text{\textregistered}\) replied that it was a stream by which date palms are irrigated. (2)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Yasaar reports that when Hadhrat Amr bin Hurayth \(\text{\textregistered}\) visited an ailing Hadhrat Hasan bin Ali \(\text{\textregistered}\), Hadhrat Ali \(\text{\textregistered}\) asked, "You are visiting (my son) Hasan when your heart harbours what is does (an opinion that opposes mine)?" Hadhrat Amr \(\text{\textregistered}\) replied, "You are not my Rabb to turn my heart in the direction you desire (it is Allaah Who has placed in my heart an opinion that opposes yours)." Hadhrat Ali \(\text{\textregistered}\) then said, "Remember that this (difference of opinion) does not prevent us from telling you what would benefit you. I have heard Rasulullaah \(\text{\textregistered}\) say, 'When a Muslim visits his ailing Muslim brother Allaah deputes seventy thousand angels to pray for Allaah's mercy to be showered on him from whichever hour of the morning it may be until the evening or whichever hour of the evening it may be until the morning.'"(3)

What Hadhrat Salmaan \(\text{\textregistered}\) Said to a Sick Man in Kindah

Hadhrat Sa'eed reports that he was once with Hadhrat Salmaan \(\text{\textregistered}\) when he visited a sick man in the Kindah district (of Kufa). When he entered the house, Hadhrat Salmaan \(\text{\textregistered}\) said to him, "Glad tidings to you because Allaah has made the illness of a Mu'min a means for him to attain Allaah's forgiveness and pleasure. As for the illness of a sinner, it is like a camel whose owner had tied it up and then released it without it knowing why it was tied up nor why it was released." (4)

Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Wahab reports that he once accompanied Hadhrat Salmaan on a visit to a sick friend of his from the Kindah tribe. When they entered the house, Hadhrat Salmaan said to the man, "Allaah sometimes tries His Mu'min servant with illness and then cures him, thereby making the illness a means of forgiveness for his past and a means of attaining His pleasure in future. At the same time, Allaah Whose name is so exalted, also tries His sinful servant with illness and then cures him. In this case however, he is merely like a camel whose owner had tied him up and then released him. When they tie him up, he has no idea why he is being tied up and when they release him, he has no idea why he is being released." (1)

What Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar said to a Sick Person and what Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'oood said to Someone who was with a Sick Person

Hadhrat Naafi reports that whenever Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar came to a sick person, he would ask how the person was and whenever he left, he would say, "May Allaah give you the best." He would say nothing more than this. (2)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abu Hudhayl reports that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'oood once visited a sick person along with several other men. There happened to be a lady in the house and when one of the men started looking at her, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'oood remarked, "It would be better for you if your eye had to burst!" (3)

What Rasulullaah Would Say to a Sick Person and do For him

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas reports that when Rasulullaah visited a sick person, he would sit by the person's head and recite the following du'aa seven times:

\[
	ext{"I implore the Majestic Allaah, Rabb of the Majestic Throne to cure you"}

Thereafter, the person would be cured if it was not yet the time for his death. (4)

Hadhrat Ali narrates that whenever Rasulullaah visited a sick person, he would say:

\[

Another narration adds the words:

"There is no cure like Your cure. Grant a cure that does not leave out any illness."

Hadrat Ali also reports that whenever Rasulullah visited a sick person, he would place his right hand on the person's right cheek and say:

"O Rabb of mankind, remove the difficulty. You grant a cure for only You can cure. There is none but You who can remove ailments."

Hadrat Anas narrates that when Rasulullah visited a sick person, he would say:

"O Rabb of mankind, remove the difficulty. You grant a cure for only You can cure. There is none but You who can remove ailments."

Hadrat Aa'isha reports that when Rasulullah visited a sick person, he would place his hand on the part of the person's body that was in pain and then say:

"May Allaah alleviate your difficulty, forgive your sins and grant you well being in your Deen and your body until the day you die."

Hadrat Aa'isha reports that whenever Rasulullah went to see a sick person or whenever a sick person was brought to him, he would say:

"O Rabb of mankind, remove the difficulty. You grant a cure for only You can cure. There is none but You who can remove ailments."

Hadrat Aa'isha also says that Rasulullah used these words when making du'aa for Allaah's protection. She further narrates that when Rasulullahah

The illness became severe when he was on his deathbed, she took his hand and passed it over his body while reciting these same words to secure Allaah's protection. Rasulullaah ﷺ then pulled his hand away and said:

Requesting Permission to Enter

The Narration of Hadhrat Anas ﷺ About Rasulullaah ﷺ Greeting Thrice

Hadhrat Anas ﷺ reports that when Rasulullaah ﷺ greeted with Salaam (to seek permission to enter a home), he did so thrice(2) and when he spoke (something of great importance), he would repeat it thrice. (3)

The Incident of Rasulullaah ﷺ with Hadhrat Sa'd bin Ubaadah ﷺ

Hadhrat Qais bin Sa'd ﷺ narrates, 'Rasulullaah ﷺ once visited us at our home and greeted with the words: 'السلام عليكم ورحمة الله.' Although my father (Hadhrat Sa'd bin Ubaadah ﷺ) replied by saying, 'وعليكم السلام ورحمة الله,' he did so in a voice that was not audible to Rasulullaah ﷺ. 'Are you not going to allow Rasulullaah ﷺ in?' I asked. My father replied, 'Allow Rasulullaah ﷺ to make Salaam to us many times (so that it may be a prayer for us).'. When Rasulullaah ﷺ again greeted with the words: 'السلام عليكم ورحمة الله,' my father again replied in a voice that was inaudible to Rasulullaah ﷺ. Thereafter, Rasulullaah ﷺ repeated the greeting and then turned to leave (thinking that no one was at home). My father ran after him saying, 'I heard you each time you greeted and I had replied in a voice that you could not hear so that I could get more of your Salaams (because Salaam is a du'aa for peace and blessings).'

Rasulullaah ﷺ then accompanied my father home where he had some water brought for Rasulullaah ﷺ. After Rasulullaah ﷺ had taken a bath, Hadhrat Sa'd ﷺ gave him a shawl to wear that was dyed in saffron or in Waras (a fragrant grass). Rasulullaah ﷺ then raised his hands and made du'aa saying, 'O Allaah! Shower Your special mercy and compassion on the family of Sa'd.' Rasulullaah ﷺ then partook of the food. When Rasulullaah ﷺ intended to leave, Hadhrat Sa'd ﷺ gave him a donkey that was prepared with a fine shawl draped over it. 'O Qais,' Hadhrat Sa'd ﷺ called out, 'Go with Rasulullaah ﷺ.' I then accompanied Rasulullaah ﷺ. When Rasulullaah ﷺ beckoned me to ride with him, I declined the offer (out of respect for him).

(1) Ibn Sa'd (Vol.2 Pg.14).
(2) This could also mean that Rasulullaah ﷺ greeted once when first seeking permission to enter, thereafter a second time when entering and finally a third time when leaving.
(3) Bukhaari (Vol.2 Pg.923).
Rasulullaah ﷺ then said, 'You may either ride with me or go back.' I therefore went back. (1)

The Incident of a man Who Sought Permission to Enter without first Greeting

Hadhrat Rib‘ee bin Hiraash ﷺ narrates from a man from the Banu Aamir tribe who once came to Rasulullaah ﷺ and asked, "May I come in?" Rasulullaah ﷺ said to a slave girl, "Go outside and tell him that he should say, أَسْلَامُ ٱلَّذِيْنَ ٱلْأَمْرُ عَلَيْكَ (As Salaam Al Aykum). May I come in?" he has certainly not done well in his asking permission to enter." The man however overheard this before the girl could come to him and said, أَسْلَامُ ٱلَّذِيْنَ ٱلْأَمْرُ عَلَيْكَ (As Salaam Al Aykum). May I come in?" Rasulullaah ﷺ responded by saying, "وَعَلَيْكُمْ (Wa Alayk). You may now come in." The Hadith continues further. (2)

Hadhrat Umar ﷺ, Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah ﷺ and Hadhrat Ali ﷺ Seek Permission to see Rasulullaah ﷺ

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas ﷺ reports that Hadhrat Umar ﷺ once came to see Rasulullaah ﷺ in his upper storey room saying, أَسْلَامُ الْنَاْبِيَ (As Salaam Al Aykka) O Rasulullaah ﷺ (As Salaam Al Aykum). May Oumar come in? (3)

Another narration(4) from Hadhrat Umar ﷺ states that he said:

أَسْلَامُ ٱلْأَمْرُ عَلَيْكَ أَيُّهَا النَّبِيُّ وَرَحْمَةَاللَّهِ وَبِكَانَهُ

He then continued saying, أَسْلَامُ ٱلْأَمْرُ عَلَيْكَ (As Salaam Al Aykum). Can Oumar come in?" In another narration(5), Hadhrat Umar ﷺ says that Rasulullaah ﷺ granted him permission to enter after he had asked thrice.

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah ﷺ narrates that when they once came to Rasulullaah ﷺ after he had sent for them, they first sought permission to enter. (6)

Hadhrat Safeenah ﷺ narrates that he was once with Rasulullaah ﷺ when Hadhrat Ali ﷺ arrived, wanting to enter the room. As he knocked very lightly at the door, Rasulullaah ﷺ gave the instruction for the door to be opened for him. (7) enter while standing directly in front of the door. Rasulullaah advised him saying, "Never seek permission to enter while standing directly in front of the door." In another narration, Hadhrat Sa'd bin Ubaadah says, "I once came to Rasulullaah while he was in his room. I then sought permission to enter while standing directly in front of the door. Rasulullaah then gestured to me to move to the side. (I then did so and again) I sought permission to enter and (after being granted permission) Rasulullaah said, "Seeking permission to enter is done only for (the purpose of safeguarding) the sight (from seeing what one ought not to see. This objective will therefore be defeated if one stands directly in front of the door in a manner that one can see inside the house)." (1)

Rasulullaah Rebukes a Man who Looked Inside his Room

Hadhrat Anas bin Maalik reports, "A man was once peeping inside one of Rasulullaah's rooms when (seeing him) Rasulullaah stood up and headed towards him with an arrowhead in his hand. I can still picture Rasulullaah appearing as if he was looking for an opportunity to thrust the arrowhead at the man." (2)

Hadhrat Sahl bin Sa'd Saa'idi narrates that a man was once peeping through a hole in the door of Rasulullaah's room while Rasulullaah was scratching his head with a comb. When Rasulullaah saw him, Rasulullaah said, "Had I known that you had been looking at me, I would thrust this comb into your eyes. Seeking permission to enter is done only for (the purpose of safeguarding) the sight (from seeing what one ought not to see. This objective will therefore be defeated by peeping into a person's room)." (3)

The Incident of Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari when Hadhrat Umar did not Granted him Permission to Enter after Thrice Seeking Permission

Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed Khudri reports, "I was once sitting in a gathering of the Ansaar when Abu Moosa came looking extremely flustered. He explained, 'I thrice sought permission to see Umar without being granted permission. When I therefore left, he (called for me and) asked me what prevented me from entering. I said, 'When I received no reply after thrice seeking permission, I left because Rasulullaah said, 'When any of you receives no reply after thrice seeking permission, he should leave.' Umar then demanded, 'By Allaah! You will have to produce a witness to this. Did any of you hear this from Rasulullaah?"'

Hadhrat Ubay bin Ka'b said, "By Allaah! (Because we have all heard it) It shall be the youngest amongst us who will go with you (to attest to this Hadith)."

Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed Khudri ٓ said, "Since I was the youngest, I went with him and informed Umar ٓ that Nabi ٓ had stated these words." (1)

Another narration(2) adds that Hadhrat Umar ٓ then said, "This instruction of Rasulullah ٓ was unknown to me. Trade in the marketplace had distracted me (from spending more time with Rasulullah ٓ to learn more)."

Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari ٓ says, "It once occurred that I thrice sought permission to see Umar ٓ without being granted permission. When I therefore left, he called me back and asked, 'O servant of Allaah! Were you so much in a hurry that you could not stand waiting at my door? Remember that in a like manner, people will also be too much in hurry to remain standing at your door.' I replied, 'But I went away only because you did not grant me permission to enter after I had thrice asked permission to enter.' He then asked, 'Did you or did you not hear this from Rasulullah ٓ? If you do not produce a witness to this, I shall make you an example for others to learn from.'

I then left and approached a group of Ansaar sitting in the Masjid. When I asked them about this Hadith, they asked, 'Can anyone have any doubts about this?' I then informed them about what Hadhrat Umar ٓ had demanded. To this, they said, 'By Allaah! (Because we have all heard it) It shall be the youngest amongst us who will go with you (to attest to this Hadith).' Abu Sa'eed Khudri ٓ or Abu Mas'ood then accompanied me to Hadhrat Umar ٓ and said to him, "We once went with Rasulullah ٓ to see Sa'd bin Ubaadah ٓ. When we reached the house, Rasulullah ٓ greeted but received no reply. He then greeted a second and a third time again without any reply. Rasulullah ٓ then returned saying, 'We have fulfilled our duty.' Sa'd ٓ then (came running behind and) caught up with Rasulullah ٓ saying, 'O Rasulullah ٓ! I swear by the Being Who has sent you with the truth that I heard you each time you greeted and I had replied in a voice that you could not hear because I wished to get more of your Salaams (du'aas for peace) for myself and my family.'"

(Hadhrat Umar ٓ was satisfied with this testimony to which) Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari ٓ asked, "By Allaah! I have been totally trustworthy in my narration of the Ahadeeth of Rasulullah ٓ." "Indeed," confirmed Hadhrat Umar ٓ, "(I did not think that you would be untruthful) however, I only wished to have the matter corroborated." (3)

Some Incidents of the Sahabah ٓ Concerning Seeking Permission

Hadhrat Aamir bin Abdullaah reports that a slave girl of his once accompanied the daughter of Hadhrat Zubayr ٓ to see Hadhrat Umar ٓ. "May I come in?" she asked (at the door). When Hadhrat Umar ٓ refused permission, she went back. Hadhrat Umar ٓ then sent someone after her with the message that she ought to say, "(As Salaamu Alaykum). May I come in?" (1)

Hadrat Aslam reports, "Hadrat Umar \( \text{A.M.} \)'s instructions to me were, 'O Aslam! Stand guard at my door but never accept anything from anyone.' When he one day saw me wearing new clothing, he enquired where I had gotten it from. '(Your son) Ubaydullaah bin Umar \( \text{A.M.} \) gave it to me,' I replied. To this, he said, 'You may take from Ubaydullaah but from no one else.' Standing at the door one day, Hadrat Zubayr \( \text{A.M.} \) came and asked permission to enter. When I told him that the Ameerul Mu'mineen was busy at that moment, he lifted his hand and hit me so hard behind my head that I let out a scream. I then went in to Hadrat Umar \( \text{A.M.} \) who asked me what the matter was. I informed him that Hadrat Zubayr \( \text{A.M.} \) had hit me and narrated the entire episode to him. 'By Allaah!' Hadrat Umar \( \text{A.M.} \) exclaimed, 'I shall see to Zubayr. Send him in.' When I let Hadrat Zubayr \( \text{A.M.} \) in, Hadrat Umar \( \text{A.M.} \) asked, 'Why did you hit the slave?' Hadrat Zubayr \( \text{A.M.} \) replied by saying, 'He was going to prevent us from seeing you.' 'Has he ever before refused you permission to enter my door?' Hadrat Umar \( \text{A.M.} \) enquired. When Hadrat Zubayr \( \text{A.M.} \) replied in the negative, Hadrat Umar \( \text{A.M.} \) said, 'Then when he tells you to be patient because the Ameerul Mu'mineen is busy at the moment, then do so and excuse me. By Allaah! When an animal is mauled (by one), all the other animals eat him up (if you start hitting him, so will others)." (2)

Hadrat Zaid bin Thaabit \( \text{A.M.} \) reports that Hadrat Umar \( \text{A.M.} \) once sought permission to see him at a time when his head happened to be in the hands of his slave girl who was busy combing his hair. He granted Hadrat Umar \( \text{A.M.} \) permission to enter and then quickly pulled his head away from her. Hadrat Umar \( \text{A.M.} \) said, "Leave her to comb your hair." Hadrat Zaid \( \text{A.M.} \) said, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! Had you sent for me, I would have come to you." Hadrat Umar \( \text{A.M.} \) 's reply was, "It was I who is in need (and I shall therefore have to come to you)." (3)

Another narration states that when some people requested permission to see Hadrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood \( \text{A.M.} \) after the Fajr salaah, he allowed them in. He then veiled his wife with a shawl saying, "I did not want to keep you waiting (any longer by taking more time in sending her out)." (4)

Hadrat Moosa bin Talha \( \text{A.M.} \) says, "I once went with my father to my mother. When he entered the room and I followed him in, he struck me so forcefully on the chest that I fell on my buttocks. He then said, 'Do you enter without permission?'" (5)

Hadhrat Suwayd Abdi says, "We once sat at the door of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar, waiting for permission to enter. When he delayed in granting us permission, I went up to the door of one of his rooms and peeped inside. He noticed this and when he did grant us permission to enter and we were seated, he asked, 'Which of you was peeping into my room just now?' When I admitted that it was I, he asked, 'For what reason did you deem it acceptable to peep into my room?' 'When you delayed in calling us,' I explained, 'I happened to look in without the express intention of doing so.' The others then questioned him about several things, after which I asked, 'O Abu Abdur Rahmaan! What do you say about Jihaad?' He replied, 'Whoever wages Jihaad does so for his own benefit.'" (2)

Loving a Muslim for the Pleasure of Allaah

Rasulullaah asks about the Strongest Link of Islaam

Hadhrat Baraa bin Aazib reports that they were once sitting with Rasulullaah when Rasulullaah posed the question, "Which is the strongest link of Islaam?" When the Sahabah replied that it was salaah, Rasulullaah remarked, "Salaah is most excellent, but it is not this." "Then the fasts of Ramadhaan," said the Sahabah. "They are most excellent," replied Rasulullaah, "but it is not this." Jihaad was the next choice of the Sahabah. However, Rasulullaah responded by saying, "Jihaad is most excellent, but it is not this. Indeed the strongest link of Imaan is to love for Allaah and to hate for Allaah." (3)

Another narration from Hadhrat Abu Dharr states that Rasulullaah once came to the Sahabah and asked, "Do you know which deeds Allaah loves most?" Whereas someone mentioned that they were salaah and zakaah, another stated that it must be Jihaad. Rasulullaah however stated, "Verily the deeds that Allaah loves most is to love for Allaah and to hate for Allaah." (4)

Rasulullaah has Love for People of Taqwa and for Hadhrat Ammaar and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood

Hadrat Hasan narrates that Rasulullaah dispatched expeditions of Sahabah under the command of Hadrat Amr bin Al Aas. Someone therefore said to him, "Rasulullaah used to appoint you as commander, kept you close to him and liked you very much." To this, Hadrat Amr bin Al Aas remarked, "Although Rasulullaah used to appoint me as commander, I do not know whether it was because he was merely pacifying my heart or because he really liked me. I can however show you two men whom Rasulullaah liked very much until the day he passed away. They were Abdullaah bin Mas’ood and Ammaar bin Yaasir." (2)

Another narration adds that the people then remarked, "By Allaah! That (Hadrat Ammaar) was the very man whom you people killed during the Battle of Siffeen!"

"True," Hadrat Amr bin Al Aas admitted, "By Allaah! We were responsible for killing him." (3)

Ali and Abbaas are requesting permission to see you.’ ‘Do you know what brings them?’ Rasulullaah asked. When I replied that I did not know, Rasulullaah said, ‘But I know. Let them in.’ The two men then entered and asked, ‘O Rasulullaah! We have come to ask you which of your family members you like best. ’My daughter Faatimah,’ was the reply. ‘But we are not asking you about your immediate family,’ they entreated. Rasulullaah therefore said, ‘Then the one I like most is he one on whom Allaah had bestowed His grace and on whom I had bestowed my grace, Usaamah bin Zaid.’ (4) 'Who then after him?' they enquired further. Rasulullaah replied, 'Then it is Ali bin Abi Taalib.' ‘O Rasulullaah!’ Abbaas exclaimed, ‘You have placed (me) your uncle in the last position.’ To this Rasulullaah remarked, ‘Ali beat you to making Hijrah.’ (5)

Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas reports that Rasulullah was once asked, “O Rasulullah! Whom do you love most?” “Aa’isha,” came the reply. “And from amongst the men?” the question came. Rasulullah said, “Abu Bakr.” “Whom then?” was the next question. “Then it is Abu Ubaydah,” said Rasulullah. (1)

Hadhrat Amr narrates that he once asked, “O Rasulullah! Which person do you love most?” When Rasulullah replied that it was Hadhrat Aa’isha that he loved most, Hadhrat Amr said, “I am asking about men.” “Her father (Hadhrat Abu Bakr),” was the reply. (2)

Rasulullah Tells the Sahabah to Inform the Person they Liked Solely for the Pleasure of Allaah that they Liked him

Hadhrat Anas narrates that a Sahabi was once sitting with Rasulullah when another passed by. "O Rasulullah!" the Sahabi said, "I really like that man." "Have you informed him about it?" Rasulullah enquired. When the Sahabi replied that he had not, Rasulullah told him to do so. The Sahabi then met the man and said to him, "I like you for the pleasure of Allaah." The other responded by saying:

"أَحِبَّكَ الَّذِي أَحْبَبْتُهُ لَهُ "

"May the One (Allaah) for Whose pleasure you like me, also like you." (3)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar says, "I was once sitting with Rasulullah when a man arrived. He greeted Rasulullah and then left. I then said to Rasulullah, ‘O Rasulullah! I really like that man.’ ‘Have you informed him about it?’ Rasulullah enquired. When I replied that I had not, Rasulullah said, ‘Then inform your brother about it.’ I then went up to him, greeted him and holding his shoulder, I said, ‘By Allaah! I like you only for the pleasure of Allaah.’ He responded by echoing, ‘I too like you for the pleasure of Allaah.’ I then said, ‘Had Rasulullah not instructed me to do this, I would never have done so.’” (4)

Miscellaneous Incidents of the Sahabah Concerning their Love for Each Other

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Sarjas reports that he once said to Rasulullah, "O Rasulullah! I really like Abu Dharr." "Have you informed him about it?" Rasulullah enquired. When Hadhrat Abdullaah replied

(1) Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.351).
(2) Ibn Sa’d (Vol.8 Pg.67).
(3) Abu Dawood, as quoted in Jam’ul Fawaa'id (Vol.2 Pg.147). Ibn Asaakir, Ibn Najjaar and Abu Nu’aym have also reported a similar narration.
(4) Tabraani in his Kabeer and Awsat. Haythami (Vol.10 Pg.282) has commented on the chain of narrators.
that he had not, Rasulullaah ﷺ told him to do so. He then met Hadhrat Abu Dharr ﷺ and said to him, "I like you for the pleasure of Allaah." Hadhrat Abu Dharr ﷺ responded by saying:

"أحبك للذى أحبنتي لىّ"

"May the One (Allaah) for Whose pleasure you like me, also like you."

When Hadhrat Abdullaah ﷺ reported back to Rasulullaah ﷺ, Rasulullaah ﷺ said, "Remember that even in mentioning this lies tremendous rewards." (1)

Hadhrat Mujaahid narrates that when a man passed by him, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas ﷺ remarked, "That man likes me a lot." "How do you know that, O Ibn Abbaas ﷺ?" the people enquired. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas ﷺ replied, "Because I like him very much." (2)

Hadhrat Mujaahid also reports that a Sahabi ﷺ once held him by his shoulders from the back and said, "You should know that I like you a lot." To this, Hadhrat Mujaahid replied:

"أحبك للذى أحبنتي لىّ"

"May the One (Allaah) for Whose pleasure you like me, also like you."

The Sahabi ﷺ then continued, "Rasulullaah ﷺ said, 'When someone likes another person, he should inform him about it.' Had Rasulullaah ﷺ not said this, I would have never informed you." He then proceeded to propose a marriage to Hadhrat Mujaahid saying, "I have a daughter (I wish you would marry) She is blessed with the most excellent qualities but I have to make matters plain to you and (inform you that) She is blind in one eye." (3)

Hadhrat Mujaahid reports that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ﷺ once said, "Love for Allaah's pleasure, hate for Allaah's pleasure, make friends for Allaah's pleasure and make enemies for Allaah's pleasure because it is only by this that a person attains Wilaayah (friendship with Allaah). Even though a person may perform salaah in abundance and fast very often, he will never taste true Imaan until he does this. However, (it is sad to note that) bonds between people are now being forged only for worldly motives." (4)

Severing Ties with a Muslim

The Incident of Hadhrat Aa'isha ﷺ and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr ﷺ

Hadhrat Auf who was the son of Hadhrat Aa'isha ﷺ's uterine brother Hadhrat Tufayl reports that Hadhrat Aa'isha ﷺ was once informed that when she gave away or sold something, (her nephew) Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr ﷺ remarked, "By Allaah! Aa'isha ﷺ will have to stop (being so open-handed) or I shall have to restrict her (allowance)." "Did he really say this?"

Hadhrat Aa’ishah ወጲለከካን enquired. When the people confirmed that he did, Hadhrat Aa’ishah ወጲለከካን took an oath saying, "It is to Allaah that I vow never to speak to Ibn Zubayr ever again!"

When the separation became too long for Hadhrat Abdullah bin Zubayr ወጲለከካን, he sent people to intercede on his behalf, but Hadhrat Aa’ishah ወጲለከካን said, "By Allaah! I shall never accept the intercession of anyone on his behalf and I shall never break my vow." When it became too much for Hadhrat Abdullah bin Zubayr ወጲለከካን to bear, he spoke to Hadhrat Miswar bin Makhramah ወጲለከካን and Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Aswad bin Abd Yaghooth ወጲለከካን who both belonged to the Banu Zuhrah tribe. He pleaded with them saying, "I beseech you in the name of Allaah to get me into the house of Aa’ishah ወጲለከካን because it is not permissible for her to take a vow to sever ties with me.

Consequently, Hadhrat Miswar ወጲለከካን and Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan ወጲለከካን hid Hadhrat Abdullah bin Zubayr ወጲለከካን in their shawls and sought permission to enter from Hadhrat Aa’ishah ወጲለከካን saying:

"May we come in." When Hadhrat Aa’ishah ወጲለከካን gave them permission to enter, they asked, "Can we all come in?" "Of course," replied Hadhrat Aa’ishah ወጲለከካን not knowing that Hadhrat Abdullah bin Zubayr ወጲለከካን was with them, "you may all come in." as soon as they entered, Hadhrat Abdullah bin Zubayr ወጲለከካን rushed behind the veil and embracing Hadhrat Aa’ishah ወጲለከካን, he started weeping and pleading with her in the name of Allaah.

Hadhrat Miswar ወጲለከካን and Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan ወጲለከካን also pleaded with her in the name of Allaah that she should speak to Hadhrat Abdullah bin Zubayr ወጲለከካን and accept his apology. They also said to her, "As you know, Rasulullah ወጲለከካን forbade severing of ties and that it is not permissible for a Muslim to severe ties with a Muslim brother for more than three days." When they took pains to remind her and were persistent, she started to weep as she addressed the two men saying, "I have taken and oath and an oath is a serious matter."

They however continued convincing her until she started speaking to Hadhrat Abdullah bin Zubayr ወጲለከካን. As expiation for her broken vow, she then freed forty slaves and whenever she thought about the vow, she wept so much that her tears would wet her scarf. (1)

Hadhrat Urwa bin Zubayr ወጲለከካን narrates that after Rasulullah ወጲለከካን and (her father) Hadhrat Abu Bakr ወጲለከካን, Hadhrat Aa’ishah ወጲለከካን loved Hadhrat Abdullah bin Zubayr ወጲለከካን the most and he always treated her most kindly. Whenever she received anything, she would never keep it with her and always gave it away in charity. Concerning this, Hadhrat Abdullah bin Zubayr ወጲለከካን once remarked, "Her hands ought to be held back." (When she heard about this remark) Hadhrat Aa’ishah ወጲለከካን said, "Should my hands be held back?! It is to Allaah that I vow never to speak to him (Ibn Zubayr) ever again!" Even though men of the Quraysh and particularly the maternal uncles of Rasulullah ወጲለከካን interceded on his behalf, Hadhrat Aa'iasha refused to break her vow.

It was some members of the Banu Zuhra family (Rasulullah's mother's family) including Hadhrat Miswar bin Makhramah and Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Aswad bin Abd Yaghooth who one day said to Hadhrat Abdullah bin Zubayr, "After we have secured permission to enter, you should rush behind the veil (and plead with Hadhrat Aa'iasha)." Hadhrat Abdullah bin Zubayr did as they suggested (as reported in the narration above) and he then sent to Hadhrat Aa'iasha ten slaves to set free (as expiation for breaking the oath). She however continued freeing slave after slave until she had eventually set free forty slaves. She then said, "I wish that I had specified an act to carry out when I took the oath (e.g. saying that I would set two slaves free if I spoke to him) so that I would now be finished (and at ease, knowing for certain that I had fulfilled my duty)." Reconciling Between People

Rasulullahah Resolves The Dispute Between the people of Quba

Hadrat Sahl bin Sa'd narrates that the people of Quba once fell into such a dispute that they started throwing stones at each other. When he heard about the matter, Rasulullahah said to the Sahabah, "Come. Let us go and settle the affair." (2)

Another narration states that when some people from the Banu Amr bin Auf tribe fell into a dispute, Rasulullahah took some of the Sahabah along with him and went to settle the dispute. The Hadith continues further. (3)

Rasulullahah settles a dispute when he went to Visit Abdullaah bin Ubay

Hadrat Anas reports that a request was once made to Rasulullahah to visit Abdullaah bin Ubay (the leader of the Munaafiqeen). Rasulullahah therefore proceeded on his donkey while the Muslims walked along with him on the rocky ground. When Rasulullahah reached him, Abdullaah bin Ubay exclaimed, "Get away from me because the stench of your donkey disgusts me!"

One of the Ansaar responded to this by remarking, "By Allaah! The donkey of Rasulullahah smells better than you!" When a person from Abdullaah bin Ubay's tribe became incensed on his behalf, the two men started insulting each other. Eventually the men from both sides grew angry and they started fighting with sticks, fists and shoes. Hadrat Anas says that they had been informed that it was with reference to this incident that Allaah revealed the verse:

(1) Bukhaari (Vol.1 Pg.497).
(2) Bukhaari (Vol.1 Pg.371).
(3) Bukhaari (Vol.1 Pg.370).
If two groups of Mu'mineen fight each other, then reconcile between them. {Surah Hujuraat, verse 9} (1)

The Hadith of Hadhrat Usamah from Bukhaari has already been quoted in the chapter concerning visiting the ill. The narration mentions that the Muslims, Mushrikeen and Jews then started hurling abuse at each other until matters reached such a head that they almost came to blows. All the time, Rasulullah  continued calming them until they all fell still.

Rasulullaah  Reconciles Between the Aws and the Khazraj Tribes

Hadhrat Anas  says that the Aws and the Khazraj tribes were two tribes of the Ansaar between whom was enmity during the Period of Ignorance. When Rasulullaah  came to them, all enmity disappeared and Allaah created great love between their hearts. However, it once occurred that when they were once sitting in a gathering, someone from the Aws recited a couplet that ridiculed the Khazraj. In response, someone from Khazraj then recited a couplet that ridiculed the Aws. In this manner, the two continued reciting poetry mocking the other until some of them sprang up to attack others. They then grabbed hold of their weapons and were prepared to fight each other. When the news reached Rasulullaah , he had already received revelation to the effect. He hurried to them so quickly that (his lower garment lifted and) even his shins became exposed. When he saw them, Rasulullaah  called out to them:

O you who have Imaan! Fear Allaah as He should be feared (by obeying all His commands) and do not die except as Muslims. Hold fast to the rope of Allaah, all of you together, and do not separate (because Allaah's mercy lies in unity). Recall Allaah's favour to you when you were enemies and He (Allaah) created love between your hearts. Then you became brothers by His grace. You were on the edge of an abyss (pit) of fire (of Jahannam because you were steeped in kufr and disobedience) and He rescued you from it (by making you Muslims). In this way, does Allaah explain His Aayaat to you so that you may be guided. {Surah Aal Imraan, verses 102,103}

The Ansaar then immediately threw down their weapons and embraced each other. (2)

Making True Promises to Muslims

The Parting Words of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr ﷺ About a Man to Whom he had Promised to Marry his Daughter

Hadhrat Haaroon bin Rabaab reports that when Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr ﷺ was on his deathbed, he instructed the people to look for a certain man saying, "I had mentioned to him something of a promise concerning my daughter (that I would marry her to him). Because I would not like to meet Allaah with one of the three traits of a hypocrite (breaking of promises), I make all of you witness to the fact that I am marrying her off to him." (1)

Abstaining from Harbouring Ill thoughts Against a Fellow Muslim

The Incident of Two Sahabah who took their Case before Rasulullaah ﷺ

Hadrat Anas narrates that a man once passed by a gathering during the time of Rasulullaah ﷺ and greeted them. After they had greeted him and he had passed by, one of them remarked, "I do not like him at all!" The others rebuked him saying, "Be quiet! By Allaah! We are certainly going to inform him about this!" They then sent someone to inform the person about what had been said. (After the messenger had informed the Sahabi) The Sahabi went to Rasulullaah ﷺ and informed him about what had happened and about what the person had said. "O Rasulullaah ﷺ!" the Sahabi said, "Send for him and ask him why he dislikes me so." Rasulullaah (sent for the man) and asked, "Why do you dislike him?" The other responded by saying, "O Rasulullaah ﷺ! I am his neighbour and know him well. I have never seen him perform any (Nafl) salaah besides the salaah that the pious and the sinful ones all perform (the Fardh salaah)." The Sahabi defended himself by saying, "O Rasulullaah ﷺ! Ask him whether I have ever made an improper wudhu for my salaah or ever delayed it until after its time had expired?" The other replied in the negative but then continued, "O Rasulullaah ﷺ! I am his neighbour and know him well. I have never seen him feed a single poor person besides giving the zakaah that the pious and the sinful ones all give."

The other said in defence, "O Rasulullaah ﷺ! Ask him whether he has ever seen me refuse anyone asking for charity?" Again the man was forced to say no, but then spoke further saying, "O Rasulullaah ﷺ! I am his neighbour and know him well. I have never seen him observe any (Nafl) fasts besides the fasts of the month in which the pious and the sinful ones all observe (the Fardh fasts during Ramadhaan)." In response to this, the Sahabi said, "O Rasulullaah! Ask him whether he has ever seen me miss a single fast when I was not ill or not in a journey?" When the neighbour was again forced to say no, Rasulullaah said to him, "It seems to me like he is a better man than you." (1)

Praising a Muslim and the Type of Praise that is Detestable

The Incident Between Rasulullaah and a Man from the Banu Layth Tribe

Hadhrat Ubaadah bin Saamit narrates that a man from the Banu Layth tribe thrice asked Rasulullaah permission to recite a poem. Upon the fourth request (Rasulullaah granted permission and) he recited a poem in praise of Rasulullaah. Rasulullaah then said appreciatively, "If any poet had spoken well, it must surely be you." (2)

Hadhrat Usaaamah bin Zaid Praises Hadhrat Khallaad bin Saa'ib

Hadhrat Khallaad bin Saa'ib narrates that he once visited Hadhrat Usaaamah bin Zaid, who praised him on his face. Hadhrat Usaaamah then said, "The only thing that made me praise you on your face is the fact that Rasulullaah said, 'When a Mu'min is praised on his face, the Imaan in his heart grows (far from becoming proud, he develops conviction in his good deeds when people show their appreciation for it)." (3)

What Rasulullaah Said to the Person who Overstated His Words of Praise

The father of Hadhrat Mutarrif says, "I accompanied the delegation from the Banu Aamir tribe that went to Rasulullaah. 'You are our leader,' we said. 'Allaah is the leader,' Rasulullaah responded. We then said, 'You are the highest of us in status and the most magnanimous.' To this Rasulullaah said, 'These common words you may say, but rather state even less than this because Shaytaan should never gain control over you (and urge you to transgress the limits of praise)." (4) Another narration states that Rasulullaah also added, "I do not want you to place me on a pedestal higher than that upon which Allaah has placed me. I am Muhammad the son of Allaah's servant and am myself the servant of Allaah and His Rasul." (5)

Hadhrat Anas reports that someone once addressed Rasulullaah saying, "O the best of us and the son of the best of us! Our leader and the son of our Place me only upon that pedestal upon which Allaah has placed me (and no higher). I am the servant of Allaah and His Rasul." (1)

What Rasulullaah \(\text{SAW}\) Said to a Man who Praised Another in his Face and Rasulullaah \(\text{SAW}\) Guidance in this Regard

Hadrat Abu Bakrah \(\text{RS}\) reports that when a man once praised another in front of Rasulullaah \(\text{SAW}\), Rasulullaah \(\text{SAW}\) remarked, "Shame on you! You have cut off your companion's neck! You have cut off your companion's neck!" Rasulullaah \(\text{SAW}\) repeated this thrice and then added, "When any of you wishes to praise his brother for something he has certain knowledge of, he should say, 'I think that he is like this' because only Allaah knows him for sure and a person cannot declare the righteousness of another before Allaah. If he therefore knows a person to be such, he should merely state, 'I believe that he is like that.'" (2)

Hadrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari \(\text{RS}\) narrates that Rasulullaah \(\text{SAW}\) once overheard a person overstating his praise for another. To this, Rasulullaah \(\text{SAW}\) remarked, "You have broken the man's back (by exaggerating your praise for him)." (3)

The Incident of Hadrat Mihjin Aslami \(\text{RS}\)

Hadrat Rajaa says, "I once accompanied Hadrat Mihjin \(\text{RS}\) to the Masjid of Basrah. There we found Hadrat Buraydah Aslami \(\text{RS}\) sitting at one of the doors while a man called Sabkah was inside the Masjid performing a lengthy salaah. Hadrat Buraydah \(\text{RS}\) was a man who liked making jokes and as Hadrat Mihjin \(\text{RS}\) approached wearing his shawl, Hadrat Buraydah \(\text{RS}\) quipped, 'O Mihjin! Can you perform salaah as Sabkah does?' Hadrat Mihjin \(\text{RS}\) did not reply and went back. He then said, 'Rasulullaah \(\text{SAW}\) once led me by my hand and when we had climbed Mount Uhud, he looked over Madinah and said, 'Woe be the time when the inhabitants of the city will have to forsake it at a time when it will be most populous! When Dajjaal will approach Madinah, he will find an angel at every one of its gates and will be unable to enter it.' Rasulullaah \(\text{SAW}\) then climbed down and when we reached the Masjid, Rasulullaah \(\text{SAW}\) saw a man performing salaah, engrossed in Ruku and Sajdah. 'Who is that?' Rasulullaah \(\text{SAW}\) asked me. I then started heaping praises upon the man as I informed Rasulullaah \(\text{SAW}\) who he was. Rasulullaah \(\text{SAW}\) then bade me, 'Stop! Let him not hear you for you will then be destroying him.' Rasulullaah \(\text{SAW}\) then continued walking and when he reached his room, he dusted off his hands and thrice repeated, 'The best deed of your Deen is that which is easiest. The best deed of your Deen is that which is easiest." (1)

Another narration from Hadhrat Rajaa also states that when he started heaping praises upon the man as he informed Rasulullaah ﷺ who the man was, Rasulullaah ﷺ bade him, "Stop! Let him not hear you for you will then be destroying him." Rasulullaha ﷺ then continued walking and when he reached his room, he let go of Hadhrat Mihjin’s hand and said, "The best deed of your Deen is that which is easiest. The best deed of your Deen is that which is easiest. The best deed of your Deen is that which is easiest." (2)

Yet another narration states that after informing Rasulullaah ﷺ who the man was, Hadhrat Mihjin continued to add that of all the people of Madinah, the man was the best or was the one who performed the most salaah. To this Rasulullaha ﷺ twice or thrice remarked, "Let him not hear you for you will then be destroying him." Rasulullaha ﷺ then added, "You are a nation for whom Allaah wants ease." (3)

Praising a Muslim angers Hadhrat Umar ﷺ

Hadhrat Ibraheem Taymi reports from his father that they were once sitting with Hadhrat Umar ﷺ when a man came to him and greeted with Salaam. Another person then started heaping praises on the man in front of him. To this, Hadhrat Umar ﷺ said, "You have slaughtered him. May Allaah slaughter you! How can you praise a man for his Deen on his face?!" (4)

Hadhrat Hasan narrates that when someone once praised Hadhrat Umar ﷺ, Hadhrat Umar ﷺ exclaimed, "You are destroying me as well as yourself." (5)

The Incident of Hadhrat Umar ﷺ and Hadhrat Jaarood ﷺ

Hadhrat Hasan reports that Hadhrat Umar ﷺ was once sitting in the company of others with a whip in his hand when Hadhrat Jaarood ﷺ arrived. Someone commented, "Here is the leader of the Rabee’ah tribe!" This remark was heard by Hadhrat Umar ﷺ, the people around him and by Hadhrat Jaarood himself. When Hadhrat Jaarood ﷺ came close to Hadhrat Umar ﷺ, the Khalifah struck him with the whip. "What has happened between us, O Ameerul Mu’mineen?" asked a startled Hadhrat Jaarood ﷺ. "What has happened between us?!" Hadhrat Umar ﷺ echoed, "You had definitely heard the comment." Hadhrat Jaarood ﷺ replied, "I heard it, so what about it?" Hadhrat Umar ﷺ explained, "I feared that some of it may penetrate your heart (creating some pride in you) and I therefore wished to remove the effect from you." (6)

Hadrat Miqdaad .running sand in the faces of people who praised him

Hadrat Hammaam bin Haarith reports that when someone started praising Hadrat Uthmaan رضي الله عنه, Hadrat Miqdaad رضي الله عنه, who was a large man, went towards the man and kneeling down, he started throwing pebbles in the man's face. "What is the matter?" Hadrat Uthmaan رضي الله عنه asked. Hadrat Miqdaad رضي الله عنه replied, "Rasulullaah ﷺ said, 'When you see the people who heap praises (for ulterior motives), then throw sand in their faces."(1)(2)

Another narration states that when someone started heaping praises on one of the Khalifahs, Hadrat Miqdaad رضي الله عنه started throwing sand on the man's face saying, "Rasulullaah ﷺ has commanded us to throw sand into the faces of those who heap praises (for ulterior motives)." (3)

The Statement and Practice of Hadrat Abdullaah bin Umar رضي الله عنه in this Regard

Hadrat Ataa bin Abi Rabaah narrates that when someone started heaping praises on another person in the presence of Hadrat Abdullaah bin Umar رضي الله عنه, Hadrat Abdullaah bin Umar رضي الله عنه started throwing sand at the man's mouth saying, "Rasulullaah ﷺ said, 'When you see the people who heap praises (for ulterior motives), then throw sand in their faces." (4)

Hadrat Ataa bin Abi Rabaah narrates that when someone started heaping praises on Hadrat Abdullaah bin Umar رضي الله عنه, Hadrat Abdullaah bin Umar رضي الله عنه started throwing sand at the man's mouth saying, "I heard Rasulullaah ﷺ say, 'When you see the people who heap praises, then throw sand in their faces."(5)

Hadrat Naafi and other reports that a person once addressed Hadrat Abdullaah bin Umar رضي الله عنه saying, "O the best of people!" or he said, "O the son of the best of people!" Hadrat Abdullaah bin Umar رضي الله عنه responded by saying, "I am neither the best of people nor the son of the best of people. I am merely a servant from amongst the servants of Allaah who aspires for His mercy and fears (His punishment). By Allaah! You people keep at a man (keep heaping praise on him) until you eventually destroy him (by creating pride and vanity in him)." (6)

Hadrat Taariq bin Shihaab reports that Hadrat Abdullaah bin Umar رضي الله عنه said, "A man may leave home with his Deen intact and then return without any trace of it. (This because) He would approach a man who can neither harm nor benefit himself nor another and then swear in the name of Allaah that he is so-and-so (heap praises on him). He then returns without having his need fulfilled (because

Fostering and Severing Family Ties

The Incident of Rasulullaah ﷺ and Abu Taalib

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas ﷺ reports that (before Rasulullaah ﷺ proclaimed his Nabuwaat) the Quraysh suffered severe drought. Conditions were so hard that they were forced to eat even dried bones. During those times, there were none in better stead than Rasulullaah ﷺ and (his uncle) Hadhrat Abbaas bin Abdil Muttalib ﷺ. Rasulullaah ﷺ therefore said to Hadhrat Abbaas ﷺ, "Dear uncle! Your brother Abu Taalib has many children and because the Quraysh has been afflicted with the condition as you know, let us go to him and take some of his children in our care."

The two then went to Abu Taalib and said, "O Abu Taalib! Your people have been afflicted with the drought and we know that you are one of them (suffering as much as the rest). We have come to take some of your children in our care." Abu Taalib replied, "Do as you please but please leave Aqeel for me. Rasulullaah ﷺ then took Hadhrat Ali ﷺ in his care while Hadhrat Abbaas ﷺ took Hadhrat Ja'far ﷺ in his care. The two then stayed with their custodians until they became independent. In fact, Hadhrat Sulaymaan bin Dawood states that Hadhrat Ja'far ﷺ remained with Hadhrat Abbaas ﷺ until the time he migrated to Abyssinia. (2)

The Incident of Rasulullaah ﷺ with Hadhrat Juwayriyyah ﷺ and Hadhrat Faatimah ﷺ

Hadhrat Jaabir ﷺ reports that when Hadhrat Juwayriyyah ﷺ informed Rasulullaah ﷺ that she intended setting free one of her slaves, Rasulullaah ﷺ advised her saying, "Rather give the slave to your uncle who lives amongst the Bedouins so that the slave may graze the animals for him. This will earn you a greater reward." (3)

Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed Khudri ﷺ narrates that when Allaah revealed the verse: ""وَلَاتُولِيدَهُ إِلاّ وَالدَّةَ" ("Give the relative his right") (4), Rasulullaah ﷺ said to Hadhrat Faatimah ﷺ, "O Faatimah! You may have my land in Fidak." (5) complaining, "I have relatives who sever ties with me when I foster them, who behave ill towards me when I am good to them and who behave foolishly with me when I behave tolerantly with them." Rasulullaah ﷺ's advice to him was, "If you are as you claim, then it is as if you are filling their mouth with burning ashes (they are harming themselves by behaving as they do). As long as you behave as you are doing, there shall remain with you an assistant (angel) from Allaah." (1)

Hadrat Abdullaah bin Amr ﷺ narrates that a man came to Rasulullaah ﷺ saying, "O Rasulullaah ﷺ! I have relatives who severe ties with me when I attempt to foster them, who oppress me when I forgive them and who are bad to me when I am good to them. Should I do to them as they do to me?" Rasulullaah ﷺ's response was, "In that case, you would all be partners (in evil). You should rather adopt the better stance and continue bonding ties because as long as you behave as you are doing, there shall remain with you an assistant (angel) from Allaah." (2)

The Incident of Hadrat Abu Hurayrah ﷺ with a Man who Severed Family Ties

Hadrat Abu Ayyoob Sulaymaan who was the freed slave of Hadrat Uthmaan bin Affaan ﷺ says, "Hadrat Abu Hurayrah ﷺ once came to us on the night between Thursday and Friday and said, 'I am stating with great emphasis that anyone who severs family ties should leave this gathering.' However, no one left until he had repeated the announcement three times. A youngster then stood up and went to an aunt of his with whom he had severed ties for two years. Surprised, she asked, "Dear nephew! What brings you here?" when he informed her about what Hadrat Abu Hurayrah ﷺ had mentioned, she said, "Go back to him and ask him why he had stated what he did." (When the young man made the enquiry) Hadrat Abu Hurayrah ﷺ said, 'I have heard Rasulullaah ﷺ say, 'The deeds of mankind are presented to Allaah on every night between Thursday and Friday and (while the deeds of all are accepted) the deeds of the one who severs family ties are not accepted.'" (3)

Hadrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood ﷺ Requests people who severe Family ties to leave when he Intended Making Du'aa

Hadrat A'mash narrates that Hadrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood ﷺ was sitting in a gathering after the Fajr salah when he said, "In the name of Allaah do I ask those who severe family ties to leave us because we intend making du'aa to our Rabb and the doors of the heavens are locked to those who sever family ties." Chapter Ten

The Chapter Concerning the Character of the Sahabah and their Noble Traits

This chapter highlights the character and traits of Rasulullaah ﷺ and the Sahabah ﷺ and how they interacted with each other.

The Noble Character of Rasulullaah ﷺ

The Statements of Hadhrat Aa'isha Concerning the Character of Rasulullaah ﷺ

Hadh ratsa'd bin Hishaam reports that he once asked Ummul Mu'mineen Hadhrat Aa'isha ﷺ, "Tell me about the character of Rasulullaah ﷺ." "Have you not read the Qur'aan?" she asked. "Of course, I have," he replied. Hadhrat Aa'isha ﷺ then said, "Rasulullaah ﷺ's character was the Qur'aan (every noble character trait mentioned in the Qur'aan was to be found in the life of Rasulullaah ﷺ)." (1)

Another narration mentions that Hadhrat Qataadah ﷺ said, "Indeed the Qur'aan brought every noble trait of good character." (2)

Hadrath Abu Dardaa reports that when he asked Hadhrat Aa'isha Concerning the Character of Rasulullaah, she replied, "His character was the Qur'aan. He was pleased with what Allaah is pleased and disliked what Allaah dislikes." (3) Another narration from Hadhrat Zaid bin Baabnoos states that Hadhrat Aa'isha ﷺ gave a similar reply when they asked her about the character of Rasulullaah ﷺ. This narration however states that Hadhrat Aa'isha ﷺ asked, "Have you read Surah Mu'minoon?" She then told them to read from the beginning of the Surah (from: ﻮ(790,571),(875,673)) and then ten verses thereafter. Thereafter she said, "Such was the character of Rasulullaah ﷺ." (4)

Hadrath Urwa reports that Hadhrat Aa'isha ﷺ stated, "There was none with better character than Rasulullaah ﷺ. Whenever any of his...

companions or family called for him, he always responded by saying, 'At your service.' It was for this reason that Allaah revealed the verse:

\text{Verily, you (O Rasulullaah) are (firmly stationed) upon an exalted (flawless) character. (Surah Qalam, verse 4)(1)}

Hadrat Qais bin Wahab reports from a man from the Banu Suraat tribe that he once asked Hadrat Aa'isha, "Tell me about the character of Rasulullaah." Hadrat Aa'isha replied, "Have you not read in the Qur'aan where Allaah says:?' She then continued, "Rasulullaah was once with his companions when I and Hafsah both prepared some food for him. When she beat me to sending the food, I sent my slave girl with instructions to overturn the platter. Consequently, when Hafsah was serving the food to Rasulullaah, the slave girl overturned it and the food was all scattered about. Rasulullaah gathered the food that had fallen on the ground and the Sahabah ate it. When I sent my platter, Rasulullaah handed it over to Hafsah saying, 'Take this platter in place of yours and eat whatever is in it.' I did not notice even a hint of displeasure on the face of Rasulullaah."

The statement of Hadrat Zaid bin Thaabit in this Regard

Hadrat Khaarijah bin Zaid narrates that a group of people once came to his father Hadrat Zaid bin Thaabit with the request, "Tell us something about the character of Rasulullaah." Hadrat Zaid bin Thaabit said, "I was Rasulullaah's neighbour. When revelation would come to him, he would send for me and I would come to him to write it down. Whenever we spoke of worldly matters, he also spoke about it, whenever we spoke of the Aakhirah, he also spoke about it and whenever we spoke of food, he also spoke of the same (he was never aloof from us). I am narrating all this to you on behalf of Rasulullaah."

A Narration of Hadrat Safiyya

Hadrat Safiyya bint Huyay (Rasulullaah's wife) says, "I have never seen anyone with better character than Rasulullaah. I was riding on the back of his camel with him as we returned from Khaybar. It was at night and as I began to fall asleep, my head hit the back of the carriage. Rasulullaah touched me gently as he said, 'Take it easy, dear lady. Take it easy, O daughter of Huyay (this is not the place to sleep).'</When we reached a place called Sahbaa, he said to me,

Do excuse me for what I had to do with your people (the Jews of Khaybar). He then explained to me what they had said (and done) to him (because of which he was forced to act against them)." (1)

Narrations of Hadhrat Anas (Vol-2) in this Regard

Hadhrat Anas (Vol-2) says, "Rasulullaah (Vol-2) was one of the most compassionate people. I swear by Allaah that he never refused even a slave or a child who brought water to him on a freezing morning (to wash with it and then give it back to them for blessings). (Despite the intense cold) He would wash his face and arms with the water. Whenever anyone came to him with a request, he would listen attentively to the person and not move away until the person moved away. Whenever anyone took him by the hand, he would give his hand and not pull it away until the person himself let go." (2)

Hadhrat Anas bin Maalik (Vol-2) says, "After Rasulullaah (Vol-2) performed the Fajr salaah, the slaves of Madinah would come to him with their utensils of water. Rasulullaah (Vol-2) would then dip his hands into every utensil brought (so that the people may have the blessings of his blessed limbs). At times, people would come to him on an extremely cold morning, but he would still dip his hands into the water." (3)

Hadhrat Anas (Vol-2) also reports, "Whenever Rasulullaah (Vol-2) shook hands with anyone or whenever anyone shook his hands, he would never pull his hand away until the person pulled his own hand away first. He would also not turn away from a person he was facing (when speaking) until the person himself turned away first. He was also never to be seen stretching out his feet towards a person sitting before him." (4)

Hadhrat Anas (Vol-2) narrates, "I have never seen Rasulullaah (Vol-2) move his head away from anyone whispering into his ear until the person himself moved away. I have also never seen Rasulullaah (Vol-2) pull his hand away from anyone holding his hand until the person himself let go of Rasulullaah (Vol-2)’s hand." (5)

Narrations of Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah (Vol-2) and Hadhrat Anas (Vol-2) Concerning Rasulullaah (Vol-2)’s Shaking Hands with the Sahabah (Vol-2)

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah (Vol-2) says, "Whenever anyone took Rasulullaah (Vol-2)’s hand (to shake it), he never pulled it away until the person himself let go. Rasulullaah (Vol-2)’s feet were also never to be seen stretched out towards a person sitting in front of him. When someone shook his hand, Rasulullaah (Vol-2) always turned his full attention towards the person and would not turn away

Hadrat Anas  says, "Even if it were a child from amongst the common children of Madinah who took Rasulullaah  by the hand, he would not pull his hand away from hers so that she could take him wherever she wanted to." (2)

Another narration states that even the slaves girls of Madinah could take Rasulullaah  by the hand and take him wherever she needed him to go." (3)

Hadrat Anas  reports that a lady who was mentally deranged once came to Rasulullaah  and said, "O Rasulullaah  I need you to do something for me." Addressing her by her title, Rasulullaah  said, "Choose any of the streets (to explain it to me) so that I may address your problem (Rasulullaah  chose to speak to her privately in a place where people could see them so that no suspicions would be aroused). Rasulullaah  then stepped aside with her in one of the streets where she explained her problem to him." (4)

Hadrat Muhammad bin Maslamah  says, "When I once returned from a journey, Rasulullaah  took me by the hand and did not leave if until I let go of his hand." (5)

Rasulullaah  Always Chose the Easier of Two Options and only Took Revenge for the Sake of Allaah

Hadrat Aa'isha  says, "Whenever Rasulullaah  was faced with two options, he always chose the easier of the two (so that it would be easy for the Ummah to emulate) on condition that it did not entail sin. If it entailed sin, he was then the most abstinent of people. He also never took revenge for personal reasons. He had people punished only when anything forbidden by Allaah was violated, in which case he had the punishment meted for the sake of Allaah." (6)

Hadrat Aa'isha  says, "Rasulullaah  never hit any servant or woman. In fact, he never hit anything unless he was fighting in Jihaad in the path of Allaah. Whenever faced with two options, he always chose the easier of the two on condition that it did not entail sin. If it entailed sin, he was then the most abstinent of people. He also never took revenge for anything done against him. He had people punished only when anything forbidden by Allaah was violated, in which case he had the punishment meted for the sake of Allaah." (7)

Hadrat Aa'isha  says, "I never saw Rasulullaah  take revenge for any injustice done to himself. He had people punished only when anything...

forbidden by Allaah was violated, in which case he was amongst the most infuriated of people. Whenever faced with two options, he always chose the easier of the two on condition that it did not entail sin." (1)

Rasulullaah was Never Rude, Noisy, Vulgar or one who Cursed

Hadrat Abu Abdullaah Jadali says that when Hadrat Aa’isha was questioned about the character of Rasulullaah, he heard her reply, "Rasulullaah was never rude and vulgar and never even pretended to be so. He was never noisy in the marketplaces and never fought evil with evil. In fact, he always forgave and overlooked." (2)

Hadrat Saalil narrates that when describing Rasulullaah, Hadrat Abu Hurayrah said, "When he turned towards someone, he turned completely and when he turned away from someone, he also turned completely. May my parents be sacrificed for him! Rasulullaah was never rude and vulgar and never even pretended to be so. He was never noisy in the marketplaces." Another narration states that Hadrat Abu Hurayrah added, "Never have I seen any like him before and never after." (3)

Hadrat Anas says, "Rasulullaah was never vulgar, never cursed people and never rude. The most he would tell someone when scolding him was, "What is the matter with him? May sand fall on his forehead!" (4)

Hadrat Abdullaah bin Amr reports, "Rasulullaah was never rude and vulgar and never even pretended to be so. He always said, 'The best of you is the one with the best character.'" (5)

Rasulullaah's Sterling Character with his Servant Hadrat Anas

Hadrat Anas narrates, "When Rasulullaah arrived in Madinah, Abu Talha led me by my hand to Rasulullaah and said, 'O Rasulullaah! Anas is an intelligent lad. Do let him serve you.' I therefore remained Rasulullaah's servant at home and on journey. I swear by Allaah that for anything I did, he never said, 'Why did you do that in that way?' and when I failed to do something, he never once asked, 'Why did you not do that like this?'" (6)

In another narration, Hadrat Anas reports, "Rasulullaah had the very best of character. He once sent me to do something one day to which I blurted, 'By Allaah! I shall never do it!' In my heart however, I had resolved that I children playing in the marketplace. (As I stood there watching them) Rasulullah suddenly grabbed hold of my neck from behind. As I looked at him, he was laughing as he said, 'Dear little Anas! Have you been to where I sent you?' 'Yes,' I replied, 'I am presently on my way there, O Rasulullah.'

Hadrat Anas reports further. He says, "By Allaah! Although I was in Rasulullah’s service for nine years, he never said to anything I did, 'Why did you do that?' and when I failed to do something, he never once asked, 'Why did you not do that?'"

Another narration states that Hadrat Anas said, "I served Rasulullah for ten years. I swear by Allaah that he never once told me 'Oof!'
(synonymous to "Oh no!" or any other expression of displeasure). Not once did he ever ask me, 'Why did you do that?' or 'Why did you not do that?'" (1) Hadrat Anas also narrates, "Although I served Rasulullah for ten years, he never once scolded me for something that I had delayed in carrying out or that I had bungled. Even when any member of his household scolded me, he would tell them, 'Leave him alone. When something had been destined to happen, it will happen.'" (2)

Hadrat Anas says, "Although I served Rasulullah for ten years, not once did he ever swear at me, hit me, scold me or even frown at me. He never once scolded me for something that I had delayed in carrying out or that I had bungled and when any member of his household scolded me, he would tell them, 'Leave him alone. When something had been destined to happen, it will happen.'" (3)

Hadrat Anas says, "When Rasulullah arrived in Madinah, I was a boy of eight. My mother took me to Rasulullah saying, 'O Rasulullah! Except for me, all the men and women of the Ansar have given you a gift. I have nothing to offer you as a gift save for this son of mine. Please accept him from me to serve you as you see fit.' I then served Rasulullah for ten years, during which time he never once hit me, never insulted me and never even frowned at me." (4)

The Noble Character of the Sahabah

resolute sense of modesty. When they speak to you, they can never be lying and when you speak to them, they will never regard you as a liar. They are Abu Bakr Siddeeq, Uthmaan bin Affaan and Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah.

Another narration states that Hadhrat Abdullah bin Umar said, "There are three men from the Quraysh who are the most handsome, have the best character and have the strongest sense of modesty. They are Abu Bakr, Uthmaan and Abu Ubaydah.

Rasulullaah Testifies to the Excellent Character of Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah

Hadhrat Hasan reports that Rasulullaah once said, "If I chose to do so, I could take each of my companions to task for aspects of their character except for Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah."

Rasulullaah says that the Character of Hadhrat Uthmaan is Closest to his Own

Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Uthmaan Qurashi that Rasulullaah once visited his daughter as she was washing the head of (her husband) Hadhrat Uthmaan. Addressing her, Rasulullaah said, "Beloved daughter! Treat Abu Abdullah (Hadhrat Uthmaan) well because from all my companions, his character is closest to my own." Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah reports that he once happened to go to Hadhrat Ruqayya who was the daughter of Rasulullaah and the wife of Hadhrat Uthmaan. She had a comb in her hand and she said, "Rasulullaah just left me after I had combed his hair. 'How do you find Abu Abdullah (Hadhrat Uthmaan)?' he asked. When I replied that he was an excellent person, Rasulullaah said, 'Look after him well because from all my companions, his character is closest to my own.'"

Rasulullaah's Comments about the Character of Hadhrat Ja'far, Hadhrat Zaid, Hadhrat Ali and Hadhrat Abdullah bin Ja'far

Hadhrat Abdullah who was the son of Rasulullaah's freed slave Aslam reports that Rasulullaah once said to Hadhrat Ja'far, "You resemble me both in looks and in personality."
Hadhrat Ali narrates, "Ja'far, Zaid and I once came to Rasulullaah. Rasulullaah said to Zaid, 'You are our brother and friend.' Zaid skipped with joy. Rasulullaah then said to Ja'far, 'You resemble me both in looks and in personality.' Ja'far then skipped about even more than Zaid. Thereafter, Rasulullaah said to me, 'You are from me and I from you.' I therefore skipped about more than Zaid and Ja'far."

Hadhrat Usaamah bin Zaid reports that Rasulullaah once said to Hadhrat Ja'far, "Your personality is like mine and your physical appearance also resembles my own. You are therefore from me. And you, O Ali. You are also from me and the father of my grandsons." (2)

Hadhrat Abdullaah the son of Hadhrat Ja'far said, "I heard from Rasulullaah such words that I would not trade even for red camels. I heard Rasulullaah say, 'Ja'far most resembles my looks and my personality. As for you, O Abdullaah! From all of Allaah's creation, you most resemble your father (Ja'far)." (3)

The Excellent Character of Hadhrat Umar

Hadhrat Bahriyyah reports, "When my uncle Khidaash saw Rasulullaah eating from a particular plate, he asked Rasulullaah to give it to him. The plate then remained with us afterwards. Whenever Hadhrat Umar used to ask for it to be taken out, we would fill it with Zamzam water and give it to him. He would then drink from it and pour it over his head and face. However, it once occurred that a thief did us a grave injustice when he stole the plate along with other possessions of ours. Hadhrat Umar then came to us one day after the theft and asked us to take the plate out. 'O Ameerul Mu'mineen!' we submitted, 'It was stolen along with some other goods of ours.' Hadhrat Umar exclaimed, 'A pretty clever thief to steal Rasulullaah's plate!' By Allaah! Hadhrat Umar neither swore the thief nor cursed him." (4)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas narrates that when Hadhrat Uyaynah bin Hisn (bin Hudhayfah) bin Badr arrived (in Madinah), he stayed with his nephew Hadhrat Hurr bin Qais who happened to be amongst those that Hadhrat Umar kept close to him. It was only the learned ones whom Hadhrat Umar kept in his company and with whom he consulted, regardless of whether they were young or old. Hadhrat Uyaynah said to his nephew, "Dear nephew! Since you have some status in the eyes of the Ameer, please secure permission for me to see him." When Hadhrat Umar granted permission, Hadhrat Uyaynah called out, "Hey son of Khattaab! By Allaah! Neither do you give us much nor do you rule us with justice!" This outburst made Hadhrat Umar so angry that he was close to assaulting Hadhrat Uyaynah.

(4) Ibn Sa'd (Vol.7 Pg.57). Bushraan has also reported the narration in his Amaali, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.400).
Hadrat Hurr Ḥurr then intervened saying, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! Allaah had mentioned to His Nabi Ṣallallāhu 'alayhi wasallām:

(سورة اعراف آية 199)

خُذ العفوَ وَأَمِّرُ بِالْغُرُوبِ وَأَغْفِرْ عِنْدَ الْجِبَلِينِ

Adopt forgiveness, instruct (others to do) what is right and ignore the ignorant ones (because it is futile to argue with them). {Surah A'raaf, verse 199}

This man is certainly from amongst the ignorant ones."
The narrator says, "By Allaah! When this verse was recited to him, Hadrat Umar Ṣallallāhu 'alayhi wasallām did not do a thing. It was his noble trait to immediately forsake anything for the instruction of the Qur'aan." (1)

Hadrat Abdullaah bin Umar Ṣallallāhu 'alayhi wasallām says, "I have never seen a time when Hadrat Umar Ṣallallāhu 'alayhi wasallām became angry and was not dissuaded from taking action (against the perpetrator) by the mention of Allaah, mention of fear for Allaah or by someone reciting a verse of the Qur'aan to him." (2)

Hadrat Bilaal Ṣallallāhu 'alayhi wasallām once asked Hadrat Aslam, "How do you find Hadrat Umar Ṣallallāhu 'alayhi wasallām?" Hadrat Aslam replied, "He is an excellent man. However, matters are grave when he becomes angry." Hadrat Bilaal Ṣallallāhu 'alayhi wasallām advised him saying, "If you are with him at a time when he becomes angry, just recite the Qur'aan until his anger vanishes."

Hadrat Maalik Daar (one of Hadrat Umar Ṣallallāhu 'alayhi wasallām's slaves) says, "Hadrat Umar Ṣallallāhu 'alayhi wasallām once shouted at me and was about to strike me with his whip when I said, 'I urge you to remember Allaah!' He immediately threw down his whip saying, 'You have reminded me of a Great Being.'"(3)

The Excellent Character of Hadrat Mus'ab Ṣallallāhu 'alayhi wasallām and Hadrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood Ṣallallāhu 'alayhi wasallām

Hadrat Aamir bin Rabee'ah Ṣallallāhu 'alayhi wasallām says, "Hadrat Mus'ab bin Umayr Ṣallallāhu 'alayhi wasallām was a friend of mine from the time he accepted Islaam up to the time that he was martyred at Uhud. May Allaah shower His mercy on him. He accompanied us on both migrations to Abyssinia and was my travelling companion. I must say that I have never seen a person with better character than him nor one who had fewer differences with people than he." (4)

Hadrat Habba bin Juwayn reports that they were once with Hadrat Ali Ṣallallāhu 'alayhi wasallām when they started to mention some of the statements of Hadrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood Ṣallallāhu 'alayhi wasallām. Praising him, someone said (to Hadrat Ali Ṣallallāhu 'alayhi wasallām), "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! We have never seen a man with better character, nor anyone who teaches as compassionately, nor anyone who is better company nor anyone more pious than Abdullaah bin Mas'ood Ṣallallāhu 'alayhi wasallām." Hadrat Ali Ṣallallāhu 'alayhi wasallām asked, "I ask you to say in the name of Allaah whether this is the truth in your hearts." When they expressed that it was, Hadhrat Ali remarked, "O Allaah! I make You the Witness that my opinion of him (Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood) is as these people have expressed or even better." Another narration states that in praise for Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood, the person even added, "He reads the Qur'aan, regarding what it makes lawful as lawful and what it forbids as forbidden. He has a deep understanding of the Deen and has immense knowledge of the Sunnah." (1)

The Noble Character of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar and Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Jabal

Hadhrat Saalim says, "Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar never cursed a single slave save for one whom he then set free (as compensation)." Hadhrat Zuhri says that as he was about to curse a slave, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar said, "O Allaah! May Your curse..." He then did not complete the word (curse) and said, "That is a word that I hate to mention." (2)

The narration has already passed in the chapter entitled "The fervour that Rasulullaah and the Sahabah had to Spend in the Path of Allaah"(3), in which Hadhrat Jaabir says, "Mu'aadh bin Jabal was amongst the most handsome of people, amongst those with the best character and the most open-handed."

Tolerance and Overlooking

The Tolerance of Rasulullaah

Rasulullaah's Tolerance with the Person who Criticised the Manner in which he Distributed the Booty of the Battle of Hunayn

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood reports, "After the Battle of Hunayn Rasulullaah gave extra (booty) to some people. He gave Aqra bin Haabis and Uaynah bin Hisn a hundred camels each and gave a lot to certain other people as well. Someone remarked, 'Allaah's pleasure was certainly not intended in this distribution.' I said, 'I am definitely going to report this to Rasulullaah!' When I reported it to Rasulullaah, he said, 'May Allaah shower His mercy on Moosa. Greater abuse than this was hurled at him but he exercised patience.'"

Another narration states: "Someone said, 'By Allaah! There is no justice in this distribution and Allaah's pleasure was certainly not intended.' I said, 'I am definitely going to report this to Rasulullaah!' When I reported it to Rasulullaah, he said, 'Who will exercise justice when Allaah and Rasool

Rasulullaah is Tolerant towards Dhu Khuwaysarah

Hadrat Abu Sa'eed Khudri narrates that when they were with Rasulullaah while he was distribution the spoils of war, Dhu Khuwaysarah who belonged to the Banu Tameem tribe came to him. Dhu Khuwaysarah said, "O Rasulullaah! Be just!" Rasulullaah said, "Shame on you! Who will be just if I am not? May I be a failure and at a loss (if I do not exercise justice)! Who can possibly be just if I am not?" Hadrat Umar bin Khattaab then asked, "O Rasulullaah! Permit me to behead him!" "Leave him," Rasulullaah replied, "because he has some friends before whose salaah you would look down on your own salaah and before whose fasts you would look down on your own fasts. Although they recite the Qur'aan, it does not pass even their collarbones. They pass through Islaam just as an arrow passes through prey and you find no trace of it on the arrow's head when you examine it closely. Even when you examine the thread (that fixes the head to the shaft), you find no trace (of the prey). Similarly, you find no trace of it even after examining the shaft and the feathers of the arrow although the arrow passed through the gut and blood of the prey. The outstanding feature of these people will be a dark-skinned man whose one arm will be hanging loose and will appear like a woman's breast or like a loose piece of flesh. They will make their appearance at a time when there will be disunity amongst the people."

Hadrat Abu Sa'eed Khudri says further, "I testify that I had certainly heard these words from Rasulullaah and I also testify that I was with Ali bin Abi Taalib when he fought against these people. Upon the instruction of Ali, a search was carried out for this man. When he was brought, I saw him to be exactly as Rasulullaah had described him." (2)

Rasulullaah is Tolerant with Hadrat Umar at the Death of Abdullaah bin Ubay

Hadrat Abdullaah bin Umar says that when Abdullaah bin Ubay died, his son approached Rasulullaah with the request, "Give me your upper garment so that I may shroud my father in it. I also want you to lead the funeral prayer (Janaazah salaah) for my father and to seek Allaah's forgiveness for him." Rasulullaah gave him the garment and told him, "Let me know when I should lead the prayer." When the son called for Rasulullaah and he was about to go, Hadrat Umar pulled Rasulullaah back saying, "Did Allaah not forbid you from praying for the Munaafiqeen?" Rasulullaah replied, "I have two choices because Allaah says:

(1) Bukhaari.
(2) Bukhaari and Muslim, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihayah (Vol.4 Pg.362).
‘Seek forgiveness for them (the Munaafiqeen) or do not seek forgiveness for them.’ {Surah Taubah, verse 80}

Rasulullahsa then proceeded to lead the salaah, after which Allaah revealed the verse:

Do not ever perform (the funeral) salaah for any of them who die.
{Surah Taubah, verse 84}(1)

Hadhrat Umar  says, "When Abdullaah bin Ubay died, Rasulullahsa was called for the Janaazah salaah and he proceeded. When Rasulullahsa stood before the corpse with the intention of leading the salaah, I turned around and stood in front of him saying, 'O Rasulullahsa! Will you perform the salaah for the enemy of Allaah, Abdullaah bin Ubay, the one who made all those (blasphemous) statements?' I then went on to recount the things he had said. Rasulullahsa continued smiling and it was only when I had gone too far that he said, 'Do move away from me, O Umar because I have been given a choice and have made mine. I have been told:

'(O Muhammad ﷺ) Seek forgiveness for them (the Munaafiqeen) or do not seek forgiveness for them. Even if you seek forgiveness for them seventy times, Allaah will never forgive them. This is because they disbelieved in Allaah and His Rasool ﷺ. Allaah does not guide the disobedient ones (because they have no desire to be guided).' {Surah Taubah, verse 80}

If I knew that he would be forgiven if I sought forgiveness for him more than seventy times, I would certainly exceed seventy.' Rasulullahsa then proceeded to lead the salaah and stood by the grave until the funeral was over. I was greatly perplexed by my audaciousness before Rasulullahsa for Allaah and His Rasool know best (what is right and what not). By Allaah! it was hardly much longer afterwards that Allaah revealed the following two verses:

Do not ever perform (the funeral) salaah for any of them who die and do not stand over their graves (to bury them or to visit their graves).

(1) Bukhaari and Muslim.
Undoubtedly they disbelieved in Allaah and His Rasool (as Kuffaar) and died as disobedient people (as Kuffaar). Their wealth and their children should not impress you. Allaah intends to punish them with these in this worldly life and (Allaah intends) that their souls depart (from this world) while they are Kaafiroon. {Surah Taubah, verses 84,85}

After this and up to the day he passed away, Rasulullaah never led the Janaazah salaaah of any Munaaqiq and never stood by any of their graves. (1)

Hadrat Jaabir reports that when Abdullah bin Ubay died, his son came to Rasulullaah saying, "O Rasulullaah! If you do not attend my father's funeral, people will always be insulting us." When Rasulullaah arrived (at the funeral), he found that the body had already been placed into the grave. Rasulullaah said, "Why did you not call me before you lowered him in the grave?" The body was then taken out and Rasulullaah blew on it from head to foot and also shrouded it with his own garment (primarily because Abdullah bin Ubay gave his garment to Rasulullaah's uncle Abbaas after the Battle of Badr). (2)

Another narration states that Rasulullaah came to (the funeral) Abdullah bin Ubay after he had been lowered into his grave. By the command of Rasulullaah, the body was then taken out and placing the body on his knees, Rasulullaah blew on the body and shrouded it with his own garment. (3)

Rasulullaah Shows Tolerance Towards the Jew who Cast a Spell over him

Hadrat Zaid bin Arqam says that because a Jew had cast a spell over Rasulullaah, Rasulullaah was ill for several days. Hadrat Jibra'eel then came to Rasulullaah saying, "One of the Jews has cast a spell over you. He has tied a few knots and placed them in a certain well. Send someone to fetch it." Rasulullaah sent Hadrat Ali, who removed it from the well and brought it to Rasulullaah. When Rasulullaah untied the knots, it appeared as if he had been freed from bondage. Until his death, Rasulullaah never even mentioned this to the Jew and no anger could even be noticed on Rasulullaah's face. (4)

Hadrat Aa'isha narrates that a spell was cast on Rasulullaah because of which he would think that he had been to his wives when in reality he had not. One of the narrators called Sufyaan says that this is the worst effect of witchcraft. Rasulullaah one day said to Hadrat Aa'isha, "O Aa'isha! Allaah has given a reply to the question I posed to Him. Two (angels in the form of) men came to me. The one sat by my head and the other by my feet. The one by my head asked, 'What is the matter with this person?' 'He has been affected by witchcraft,' replied the other. 'Who is responsible for the witchcraft?' the first one asked further. 'Labeed bin A'sam,' came the reply. Labeed was a hypocrite belonging to the Banu Zurayq tribe and was an ally to the Jews. The angel enquired further, 'Upon what did he carry it out?' 'Upon a comb and the hairs it had removed,' the other replied. 'Where is it now?' was the next question. The reply was, 'In the male spathe of a palm beneath a rock in the Dharwaan well.'

Rasulullaah then went to the well and had the thing removed. Rasulullaah also said, "This was the very well I was shown with water appearing like that used to wash a henna-filled container and the palms of which appeared to be the heads of the Shayaateen." Hadhrat Aa'isha asked, 'Why did you not publicise the event?' Rasulullaah replied, "Allaah had cured me from it and I do not wish to start a scandal against someone." (1)

Another narration adds that Hadhrat Aa'isha said, "It was for six months that Rasulullaah would think that he had been to his wives when in reality he had not. Two angels then came to him..." The rest of the Hadith continues (like the one above). (2)

Rasulullaah Shows Tolerance Towards the Jewish Woman who Served him Poisoned Meat

Hadhraat Anas reports that a Jewish woman once gave Rasulullaah a poisoned goat meat, which he ate from. When the woman was later brought before Rasulullaah when he discovered what she had done, he questioned her about it. "I wanted to kill you," she admitted. Rasulullaah responded by saying, "Allaah would never give the power to kill me." "Are you not going to have her executed?" the Sahabah asked. "No," replied Rasulullaah. Hadhrat Anas says, "I could always notice the effect of the poison on Rasulullaah's uvula." (3)

Hadhraat Abu Hurayrah narrates that a Jewish woman once presented some goat meat to Rasulullaah which was poisoned. "Hang on," Rasulullaah cautioned the Sahabah, "this is poisoned." Rasulullaah then questioned the woman, "What made you do this?" Her response was, "I wanted to know that if you really are a Rasul, Allaah would inform you about it and if you are not, people could be rid of you." Rasulullaah did not take any action against her. (4)

Another narration from Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas adds that whenever Rasulullaah felt the effect of the poison, he would have his blood cupped. In fact, when he was on a journey and about to enter the state of Ihraam on one occasion, he sensed its effect and had cupping done. (5) some roasted goat meat and presented it to Rasulullah. Rasulullah took a foreleg of the goat and started eating it while a group of Sahabah also joined him. Rasulullah then said, "Take your hands off (the food)!" Rasulullah then sent for the woman and when she arrived, her asked, "Did you poison this meat?" "Who told you about it?" she asked. Rasulullah replied, "This (foreleg) here in my hand informed me." When she admitted that she did poison the meat, Rasulullah asked her why she did it. She replied, "I said to myself that it would do you no harm if you really are a Rasul and if you are not, we would be rid of you." Rasulullah forgave her and did not punish her.

However, some of the Sahabah who had eaten from the meat passed away and because he had also eaten from it, Rasulullah had blood cupped from his shoulder. Hadhrat Abu Hind who was a freed slave of the Ansar Banu Bayaadha tribe did the cupping using a horn and a blade. Another narration from Hadhrat Abu Salamah states that Hadhrat Bishr bin Baraa bin Ma'roor passed away (from the poisoning). The narration further states that (because of this death) Rasulullah then had the woman executed. (1)

Hadhrat Marwaan bin Uthmaan bin Abu Sa'eed bin Mu'alla narrates that when Rasulullah was on his deathbed, the sister of Hadhrat Bishr bin Baraa bin Ma'roor came to visit him. Rasulullah said to her, "O Ummu Bishr! I can now feel my arteries shredding because of what I ate with your brother in Khaybar." (Because of this) Muslims believe that together with the mantle of Nabuwaat, Allaah also blessed Rasulullah with the mantle of martyrdom. (2)

Rasulullah Expressed Tolerance towards a Man who Wished to Assassinate him

Hadhrat Ja'da bin Khaalid bin Simmah Jushami narrates that Rasulullah once saw a man with a large belly and pointed towards the man's belly. Hadhrat Ja'da then heard Rasulullah say, "It would have been better for you if that had been somewhere else (if you had spent on those without food rather than gorging yourself)." Thereafter, a man was brought and Rasulullah was informed that the man had intended to assassinate Rasulullah. "There is nothing to be feared," Rasulullah said, "Had you tried it, Allaah would have never given you power over me." (3) from Mount Tan'eem with the express purpose of ambushing Rasulullaah and the Sahabah. However, they were captured when Rasulullaah made a du'aa to Allaah. Rasulullaah then forgave them, after which Allaah revealed the verse:

\[
\text{وَهُوَ الَّذِى كَفَّ الْيَدِينَ عَنَّكُمُ وَ أَيْدِيَمُ عَنْهُمْ بِطَيْدِ مَكَّةَ مِنْ بَعْدِ أَنَّ أَفَطَركُمْ}

(سورة الفتح آية 24)

It is Allaah Who restrained their hands from (fighting) you and your hands from (fighting) them right in Makkah (at Hudaybiyyah) after granting you dominance over them. Allaah is always Watchful over what you do. {Surah Fatah, verse 24}(1)

In a lengthy narration, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mughaffal says, "As we remained there, thirty armed men left (Makkah) and attacked us by surprise. Rasulullaah however prayed to Allaah and Allaah made them all deaf. (As they stood dumbstruck) We then got up and captured them. Rasulullaah then asked them, "Have you men come under the protection of any treaty or has anyone granted you any amnesty?" When they replied in the negative, Rasulullaah let them go. It was then that Allaah revealed the verse:

\text{وَهُوَ الَّذِى كَفَّ الْيَدِينَ عَنَّكُمُ وَ أَيْدِيَمُ عَنْهُمْ بِطَيْدِ مَكَّةَ مِنْ بَعْدِ أَنَّ أَفَطَركُمْ}

It is Allaah Who restrained their hands from (fighting) you and your hands from (fighting) them right in Makkah (at Hudaybiyyah) after granting you dominance over them. Allaah is always Watchful over what you do. {Surah Fatah, verse 24}(2)

Rasulullaah’s Tolerance with the Daus Tribe

Hadhurat Abu Hurayrah reports that Hadhrat Tufayl bin Amr of the Daus tribe once came to Rasulullaah and said, "The Daus tribe are disobedient and refuse to accept (Islaam). Please curse them." Rasulullaah then turned to face the Qibla and raised his hands (to pray), to which the Sahabah remarked, "Those people will certainly be destroyed." Rasulullaah then prayed, "O Allaah! Guide the Daus tribe and bring them to us as Muslims. O Allaah! Guide the Daus tribe and bring them. O Allaah! Guide the Daus tribe and bring them." (3)

The Tolerance of the Sahabah

Hadhurat Abu Za’raa reports that Hadhrat Ali bin Abu Taalib used to say, "My pure wives, pious progeny and myself have been the most tolerant people in youth and the most learned as adults. It is us that Allaah uses to eradicate dishonesty, to shatter the teeth of rabid dogs, to deliver you from your

The narration has already passed(2) in which Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas ﷺ said, "I have not seen any person as quick-witted, as intelligent, as knowledgeable and as tolerant as Abdullaah bin Abbaas ﷺ.

Compassion and Mercy

The Compassion of Rasulullaah ﷺ

Rasulullaah ﷺ shortens the Salaah because of a Childs Cries and another Incident of his Compassionate Nature

Hadhrat Anas ﷺ reports that Rasulullaah ﷺ once said, "I sometimes commence the salaaah with the intention of lengthening it when I hear the cries of a child and then shorten the salaaah because I know that the crying would pain the mother." (3)

Hadhrat Anas ﷺ narrates that a man once asked Rasulullaah ﷺ, "Where is my father (who died as a Mushrik)?" "In the fire (of Jahannam)," came the reply. When Rasulullaah ﷺ saw the grief on the man's face, he consoled him by saying, "Both my father(4) as well as yours are in the fire." (5)

The Incident of Rasulullaah ﷺ and a Bedouin who Addressed him Very Harshly

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah ﷺ narrates that a Bedouin once came to Rasulullaah ﷺ to seek assistance in paying some blood money. After giving him a handsome sum, Rasulullaah ﷺ asked "Have I done you justice?" "Not at all," the man replied, "You have not done me any good." This angered some Muslims so much that they wanted to get up and hit the man. Rasulullaah ﷺ however motioned to them to restrain themselves. When Rasulullaah ﷺ later stood up and went to his room, he called the Bedouin to his room saying, "You came to us asking for something and we gave it to you. You then made the remark that you did." Rasulullaah ﷺ then gave him some more and asked, "Have I done you justice?" This time the Bedouin said, "You have indeed. May Allah reward you amply on behalf of all my family and relatives."

Rasulullaah ﷺ then said to him, "You came to us asking for something and we gave it to you. You then made the remark that you did, thus causing hurt to the hearts of my companions. Now when you leave, tell them what you have just said before me so that the hurt may leave their hearts." The man agreed and when he again arrived (in the gathering), Rasulullaah said, "Your friend here came to us asking for something and we gave it to him. He then made the remark that he did. We then called for him and again gave him something. He now believes that he is satisfied. Is that not true, dear Bedouin?" the Bedouin replied, "It certainly is. May Allah reward you amply on behalf of all my family and relatives."

Thereafter, Rasulullaah said, "Indeed the example of this Bedouin and myself is like a person who had a camel. When the camel bolted from him and the people ran after it, all that they achieved was to make it run further away. The owner of the camel then said, "Leave me to my camel because I am more compassionate towards it and know it better. He then headed for the camel taking along with him some dates that had fallen to the ground. He then called for the camel and it responded and came to him. He then comfortably tied his carriage to it. Had I done as you wanted when he made the remark he did, he would certainly have been doomed for Jahannam." (1)

The Compassion of the Sahabah

Hadhrat Asma'ee reports that (when Hadhrat Umar became the Ameerul Mu'mineen) the people requested Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf to speak to Hadhrat Umar to be gentle with the people because even young damsels in their secluded quarters were overawed by him. When Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf had spoken to Hadhrat Umar, the Ameerul Mu'mineen said, "That is the only way I see appropriate to treat the people. By Allaah! If the people knew the gentleness, the mercy and the compassion I have for them, they would actually take the clothes off my back." (2)

Rasulullaah  Dislikes Telling People what would Displease them

Hadhrat Anas  narrates that Rasulullaah  was once displeased when he saw some Sufrah (a fragrance usually worn by women that stains the clothing yellow) on a person. After the person had left, Rasulullaah  said (to the other Sahabah ), "Why do you people not instruct him to wash the Sufrah off?"

Hadhrat Anas  says, "It was never the habit of Rasulullaah  to tell a person on his face something that would displease him." (2)

Hadhrat Aa'isha  says, "Whenever the news reached Rasulullaah  that someone had said something, he would never say, 'What is the matter with that person to say...?' He would rather say, 'What is the matter with some people who say...?'"

The Statement of Hadhrat Aa'isha  Concerning His Modesty with his Wives

Hadhrat Aa'isha  said, "I have never seen the private parts of Rasulullaah ." (3)

The Modesty of the Sahabah

Rasulullaah 's Statement about the Modesty of Hadhrat Uthmaan

Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Al Aas  narrates that Rasulullaah 's wife Hadhrat Aa'isha  and Hadhrat Uthmaan  both reported to him that Hadhrat Abu Bakr  once sought permission to see Rasulullaah  who was lying down on his bed wearing a shawl belonging to Hadhrat Aa'isha . Remaining as he was, Rasulullaah  permitted Hadhrat Abu Bakr  in and he left after completing the work he had with Rasulullaah . Rasulullaah  was still in the same condition when Hadhrat Umar  then asked permission to enter. Rasulullaah  allowed him in and after completing his work with Rasulullaah , Hadhrat Umar  also left. However, when Hadhrat Uthmaan  sought permission to enter, Rasulullaah  sat up and urgently asked Hadhrat Aa'isha  to ensure that her clothes were covering her properly. After Hadhrat Uthmaan  had completed the work he had with Rasulullaah , he then also left.

Hadhrat Aa'isha  then asked, "O Rasulullaah ! Why is it that you became more anxious at the arrival of Uthmaan  than you did at the arrival of both Abu Bakr  and Umar ?" Rasulullaah  replied, "Uthmaan  is extremely bashful and I feared that if I let him under the condition that prevailed, he would have been unable to fulfil the need he had come for." Many narrators reports that Rasulullaah ﷺ also said to Hadhrat Aa'isha ﷺ, "Why should I not be shy in front of that person in front of whom even the angels are shy?" (1)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ﷺ reports that Rasulullaah ﷺ was once sitting with Hadhrat Aa'isha ﷺ behind him when Hadhrat Abu Bakr ﷺ sought permission to enter and then entered (after permission was granted). Thereafter, Hadhrat Umar ﷺ sought permission to enter and he also entered. Next came Hadhrat Sa'd bin Maalik ﷺ who entered after seeking permission to do so. Rasulullaah ﷺ was busy talking to the others with his knees exposed when Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Affaan ﷺ sought permission to enter. Rasulullaah ﷺ then immediately covered his knees and told Hadhrat Aa'isha ﷺ to move away. After speaking for some time, the men left. Hadhrat Aa'isha ﷺ then asked, "0 Nabi of Allaah ﷺ! When my father and his companions entered, you did not place your clothes over your knees neither did you ask me to move away from you (why did you do so when Hadhrat Uthmaan ﷺ came in?)."

Rasulullaah ﷺ replied, "Why should I not be shy in front of that person in front of whom even the angels are shy? I swear by the Being Who controls my life that the angels are shy for Uthmaan bin Affaan just as you are shy before Allaah and His Rasool ﷺ. Had he entered when you were close to me, he would neither speak nor raise his head until he left." (2)

A Narration of Hadhrat Hasan Concerning the Modesty of Hadhrat Uthmaan ﷺ and Hadhrat Abu Bakr ﷺ

Speaking about the extreme modesty of Hadhrat Uthmaan ﷺ, Hadhrat Hasan says, "Even though he was in a room behind a locked door, he would not remove his clothing to pour water over himself (when taking a bath). His modesty would prevent him from standing straight up (when bathing. He would therefore do so while sitting)." (3)

Hadhrat Aa'isha ﷺ narrates that Hadhrat Abu Bakr ﷺ said, "Be modest in front of Allaah. I cover my head out of modesty before Allaah even when I enter the toilet." (4)

The Modesty of Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Madh'oon ﷺ

(3) Ahmad (Vol.1 Pg.74), reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.82). Abu Nu'aym has also reported the narration in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.56).
(4) Sufyaan, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.144).
Rasulullaah said, "O Rasulullaah! I do not like my wife to see my private parts." "Why is that so?" asked Rasulullaah. Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Madh'ooin replied, "Because I feel shy and I dislike it." Rasulullaah said to him, "Allaah has made her your garment and made you hers. At times my wives see my private parts and I see theirs. "You do that, O Rasulullaah!" Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Madh'ooin asked in surprise. When Rasulullaah confirmed that this was indeed so, Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Madh'ooin said, "Who can there be after you (for me to follow)?" After he had left, Rasulullaah said, "Verily Ibn Madh'ooin is extremely bashful and one who always keeps his private area concealed."

The Modesty of Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari

Hadhrat Abu Mijlaz reports that Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari said, "I bath in a dark room and do not stand up straight until I have picked up my clothes. This I do out of shyness for my Rabb." (2)

Hadhrat Abu Qataadah states that when Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari took a bath, he would do so in a dark room (sitting down) and bend over when getting his clothing without standing up straight. (3)

Hadhrat Anas says that Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari always wore some clothing when sleeping for fear of his private area becoming exposed. (4)

Hadhrat Ubaadah bin Nusay reports that Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari once saw some people standing in water without their lower garments. To this, he exclaimed, "I prefer to die and be raised again, then to die and be raised again and again to die and be raised again rather than doing what these people are doing." (5)

The Modesty of Hadhrat Ashaj Abdul Qais

Hadhrat Ashaj Abdul Qais reports that Rasulullaah once said to him, "You have two qualities that Allaah loves." When he asked what they were, Rasulullaah said, "Tolerance and modesty." Hadhrat Ashaj asked further, "Are these natural qualities within me or have they been developed afterwards?" "No," replied Rasulullaah, "They have been naturally instilled within you." Hadhrat Ashaj then said, "All praise is for Allaah Who has instilled within me such qualities that He loves." (6) sitting with Rasulullaah when he looked towards the sky. An angel suddenly descended to which Hadhrat Jibra’eel said, "Since he has been created, this angel has never descended until this moment." When the angel came down, he said, "O Muhammed! Your Rabb has sent me to you. (Allah asks whether) 'Is it a Nabi who is a king that I should make you or a Rasool that is a slave (of Allah)?'" Advising Rasulullaah, Hadhrat Jibra’eel said, "Adopt humility before your Rabb, O Muhammed!" Rasulullaah then replied, "I would rather be a Rasool who is a slave." (1)

Another narration from Hadhrat Aal’isha adds at the end, "After this, Rasulullaah never ate in a reclining position and would say, 'I eat as a slave eats and sit as a slave sits.'"

A similar narration (2) from Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas has already passed.

A Narration of Hadhrat Abu Umaamah Baahili

Hadhrat Abu Ghaalib says that he once asked Hadhrat Abu Umaamah to narrate to them a Hadith that he had heard from Rasulullaah. Hadhrat Abu Umaamah replied, "Everything that Rasulullaah said was (according to) the Qur’aan. He made Dhikr in abundance, kept his lectures brief, lengthened his salaah and was never too stuck up, or proud to go with a poor or unimportant person to personally see to his needs." (3)

A Narration of Hadhrat Anas

Hadhrat Anas says, "Rasulullaah made Dhikr in abundance, never engaged in futilities, rode a camel, wore woollen clothing and even accepted the invitations of slaves. If only you saw him (you would realise the extent of his humility) on the day the Battle of Khaybar was fought, he rode a donkey with reins made from the bark of a date palm." (4) Another narration (5) adds that Rasulullaah also visited the ill and attended funerals.

The Narrations of Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash’ari, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas and Hadhrat Anas in this Regard

Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash’ari says, "Rasulullaah used to ride a donkey, wear woollen clothes, hold down a goat and milk it and personally serve guests." (6)

Hadrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas  says, "Rasulullaah  would sit on the floor, eat on the floor, hold down a goat himself while milking it and even accept the invitation of a slave to partake of barley bread." Another narration states that even in the middle of the night Rasulullaah  would accept the invitation to eat barley bread extended by a person from the upper part of Madinah."

Hadrat Anas  reports that Rasulullaah  would accept an invitation even if it were to eat barley bread and foul-smelling fat. Rasulullaah  also had a suit of armour that he pawned to a Jew and until the day he passed away, he did not have enough money to recover the armour from the man.

A Narration of Hadrat Umar bin Khattaab
Hadrat Umar  says that when a man called for Rasulullaah  three times, Rasulullaah  replied with the word "Labbaik" ('At your service') each time.

The Incident of Rasulullaah  with a Woman
Hadrat Abu Umaamah  narrates that (during the time of Rasulullaah  ) there was an immoral woman who was flirtatious with the men. She once passed by Rasulullaah  when he was busy eating Thareed. She shouted out, "Look at this man, sitting like a slave and eating like a slave!" Rasulullaah  remarked, "Which slave can be more devoted in his servitude (to Allaah) than I?" She then said further, "He eats without giving me anything to eat." "Do eat," Rasulullaah  said. "Give me with your hand," she demanded. When Rasulullaah  gave her, she made a further demand saying, "Give me from what is in your mouth." When Rasulullaah  complied and she ate the food, (its blessings were so profound that) the woman was overcome with modesty and she never flirted with a man for the rest of her life.

The Incident of Rasulullaah  with a Man who was Shivering before him
Hadrat Jareer  reports that when a man once came before Rasulullaah  , he started to shiver. Rasulullaah  put him at ease saying, "Take it easy. I am not a king but merely the son of a woman from the Quraysh who used to eat dried meat."

Another narration states that it was on the day the Muslims conquered Makkah that a man started shivering while talking to Rasulullaah . The rest of the narration is like the one above.

Hadrat Aamir bin Rabee'ah  says, "I was proceeding with Rasulullaah

Rasulullaah ﷺ Dislikes being treated Differently from his Companions

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Jubyr Khuzaa'ee ﷺ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ was once walking with his companions when someone shaded him with a sheet. When he saw the shadow, Rasulullaah ﷺ looked up and saw the sheet that was shading him. "What is this?" Rasulullaah ﷺ exclaimed as he took hold of the sheet and put it down. He then said, "I am merely a human being like you (and therefore do not need preferential treatment)." (2)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas ﷺ reports that Hadhrat Abbaas ﷺ said, "I once said to myself, 'I wonder how long Rasulullaah ﷺ will still remain amongst us. (To ascertain this) I then proceeded to ask, 'O Rasulullaah ﷺ! Why do you not have a platform constructed for you?' Rasulullaah ﷺ replied, 'I prefer to remain amongst you (like one of you) with people trampling my heels and pulling at my shawl until the time when Allaah finally gives me comfort (and takes me away) from the people.'" (3)

In another narration from Hadhrat Ikramah ﷺ, Hadhrat Abbaas ﷺ says, "I shall definitely find out how long Rasulullaah ﷺ will still be staying amongst us. I then asked, 'O Rasulullaah ﷺ! I see that the people and the dust they kick up is causing you harm. Why do you not have a platform built for you from which you may address them? Rasulullaah ﷺ replied, 'I prefer to remain amongst you...' The reply is the same as above. Hadhrat Abbaas ﷺ says further, 'I then knew that Rasulullaah ﷺ would be with us for only a very short while." (4)

Narrations of Hadhrat Aa'isha ﷺ Concerning what Rasulullaah ﷺ did at Home

Hadhrat Aswad reports that he once asked Hadhrat Aa'isha ﷺ, "What would Rasulullaah ﷺ do when he entered the house?" Hadhrat Aa'isha ﷺ replied, "He would engage himself in some domestic chores and would leave to perform salaah when the time for salaah arrived." (5)

Hadhrat Urwa ﷺ narrates that someone once asked Hadhrat Aa'isha ﷺ, "Would Rasulullaah ﷺ carry out domestic chores at home?" "Certainly," she replied, "He would mend his shoes and stitch his clothes just as any of you does at home." (6)

Hadhurat Amrah reports that she once asked Hadhrat Aa'isha, "What would Rasulullah do at home?" Hadhrat Aa'isha replied, "Rasulullah was a human and would remove lice from his clothing, milk his goat and take care of himself." (1)

Narrations of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas and Hadhrat Jaabir concerning the Humility of Rasulullah

Hadhurat Abdullaah bin Abbaas reports that Rasulullah never assigned to anyone the duty of making arrangements for his wudhu and also the duty of handing out the charity he gave. He would personally attend to these duties. (2)

Hadhrat Jaabir says, "When Rasulullah came to visit me, he was neither riding a mule nor a thoroughbred horse." (3)

Hadhrat Anas says, "Rasulullah performed Hajj on an old carriage (atop his camel) which was covered in a sheet that was hardly worth four Dirhams. Despite this, he prayed, 'O Allaah! Make this a Hajj devoid of ostentation and boastfulness.'" (4)

The Humility of Rasulullah when he Victoriously Entered Makkah

Hadhrat Anas reports that when Rasulullah entered Makkah (upon the Conquest of Makkah) and the people were crowding to have a look at him, he placed his head against his carriage out of humility. (5)

Hadhrat Anas says that when Rasulullah entered Makkah on the day Makkah was conquered, he had his chin on his carriage out of humility. (6)

Another narration states that when Rasulullah reached Dhu Tuwa, he stood on his carriage. He wore his reddish, striped Yemeni shawl around his head with its end hanging over his face. When Rasulullah saw the great victory that Allaah had blessed him with, he lowered his head so much in humility to Allaah that his beard touched the centre of the carriage. (7)

The cloth merchants had with them a person who would take measurements. Addressing this person, Rasulullah said, 'Let the benefit be for the buyer when taking measurements (give rather more than less).' Rasulullah then took the trousers and when I attempted to carry them for him, he said 'The owner of an item has a greater right to carrying it unless he is too weak or unable to do so. In that case, his Muslim brother may lend him a hand.' I then said, 'O Rasulullah! Do you wear trousers?' He replied, 'Certainly. I wear them when on journey, when at home, during the night and during the day. I have been commanded to keep my private areas concealed and I find nothing more concealing than trousers.'

Another narration adds that Rasulullah said, "Let the benefit be for the buyer when taking measurements." To this, the person taking measurements said, "I have never heard these words from any person before this." Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah said to him, "It is sufficient evidence of your ignorance and foolishness in Deen that you do not recognise your Nabi!" The man immediately threw aside his scale and leapt up to grab the hand of Rasulullah in an effort to kiss it. However, Rasulullah pulled his hand away from the man saying, "What is this?! It is only the non-Arabs who do this with their kings. I am not a king but a man from amongst you." The man then took the measurements and let the benefit go to Rasulullah. Rasulullah then took the cloth. The rest of the narration is like the one mentioned above. (2)

The humility of the Sahabah

Hadrat Umar rides a camel on his journey to Shaam

Hadrat Aslam reports that when Hadrat Umar arrived in Shaam riding a camel, the people started talking amongst themselves (that he should have rather chosen a good horse for the journey). To this, Hadrat Umar remarked, "Their gazes are on the conveyances of people (the Kuffaar) who have no portion (in the Aakhirah. They had rather look to the conveyances used by Rasulullah and the Muslims)." (3)

Hadrat Umar Teaches Women to make Flour

Hadrat Hishaam narrates that he once saw Hadrat Umar pass by a woman who was busy making Aseedah (a paste made from flour and clarified butter). "That is not how Aseedah is made," said Hadrat Umar. He then took a wooden spoon and showed her how to make it saying, "This is how it is done." (4)

(3) Ibn Asaakir and Ibn Mubaarak, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.417).
(4) Ibn Sa’ed.
Hadrat Hishaam bin Khaalid says that he heard Hadrat Umar bin Khattaab say (as he taught some women to make Aseedah), "You should never add the flour until the water is hot. When the water gets hot, you should then add the flour gradually as you stir with a spoon because it will then mix well without forming lumps." (1)

Hadrat Umar Goes Barefoot to the Masjid and Ridicules Himself in his Sermon

Hadrat Zirr says that he saw Hadrat Umar proceed barefoot for the Eid salaah. (2)

Hadrat Umar Makhzoomi reports that Hadrat Umar bin Khattaab once made an announcement for the people to gather in the Masjid. The people got together and when a large number had gathered, Hadrat Umar mounted the pulpit. After duly praising Allaah and sending salutations on Rasulullaah, he said, "O people! I have seen the time when I used to graze animals for my maternal aunts from the Banu Makhzoom tribe. (As wages) They would then give me a handful of dates and raisins. I would then spend the entire day doing this and what days they were?!

When Hadrat Umar descended from the pulpit, Hadrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf said, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! All you have done is ridicule yourself." "Shame on you, O Ibn Auf!" Hadrat Umar exclaimed, "When I was alone by myself, the thought came to mind that since I am the Ameerul Mu'mineen, there must be none better than me. (By doing what I did) I wanted to teach myself who I really was." (3)

Another narration states that Hadrat Umar added, "O people! I have seen the time when I had no source of livelihood apart from a few handfuls of raisins that my aunts from the Banu Makhzoom tribe would give me for bringing water for them." This narration ends with the words, "I found some pride in myself and therefore wished to humble myself (by telling the people what I did)." (4)

Hadrat Umar Rides Behind a Young Boy on a Donkey

Hadrat Hasan reports that Hadrat Umar bin Khattaab once left home on an extremely hot day with a shawl thrown over his head. When a young boy passed by riding a donkey, Hadrat Umar asked, "Dear boy! Please give me a ride with you on the donkey." The boy immediately jumped off the donkey saying, "You may get on, O Ameerul Mu'mineen!" "No," said Hadrat Umar, "you ride and I will ride behind you. You want me to have a comfortable place to ride when you are on a hard place (this cannot be)!" Hadrat Umar then rode behind the boy. When they entered Madinah, the people stared

Hadhrat Umar Walks with a Boy to Protect him from other boys

Hadhrat Sinaan bin Salamah Hudhali says, "I once went out with some other boys to pick up dates (that had fallen to the ground). Hadhrat Umar suddenly appeared with a lash in his hand and when the boys saw him, they dispersed amongst the date palms. I stood where I was with the dates I had picked up collected in my lower garment. 'O Ameerul Mu'mineen,' I said, 'these are the dates that the wind has blown off.' He looked at what was in my garment but did not hit me. I then said further, 'O Ameerul Mu'mineen! The boys are now ahead of me and they take away all that I have.' 'Never,' Hadhrat Umar assured me, 'Walk ahead.' He then accompanied me to my home." (2)

Hadhrat Umar and Hadhrat Uthmaan allow People to Ride with them on their Animals

The grandfather of Hadhrat Maalik say that he saw Hadhrat Umar and Hadhrat Uthmaan when they arrived from Makkah and camped at a place called Mu'arras (Dhul Hulayfah). When the party rode again to enter Madinah, every one of them took a youngster to ride with him. In this manner, they entered Madinah. Even Hadhrat Umar and Hadhrat Uthmaan had someone riding with them. One of the narrator's students asked, "Did they do this because of humility?" The reply was, "Certainly. In addition to this, they also wished to benefit others (so that the person need not walk) and did not want to be like other rulers (who feel it below their dignity to allow a commoner to ride with them)." The narrator then proceeded to criticise the new trend (of rulers) to make youngsters walk behind them as they rode. (3)

The Humility of Hadhrat Uthmaan

Hadhrat Maymoon bin Mahraan reports from a man from Hamdaan that he saw Hadhrat Uthmaan riding a mule with his slave Naa'il riding behind him on the same animal. This was during the time that Hadhrat Uthmaan was Khalifah. (4)

Hadhrat Abdullaah Roomi says that Hadhrat Uthmaan himself fetched the water he needed for performing wudhu during the night. When someone suggested that he get one of the servants to do it for him, he refused saying, "The night is theirs to have a rest." (5)

The grandmother of Hadhrat Zubayr bin Abdullaah had been a servant of Hadhrat

Hadhrat Hasan says, "I saw Hadhrat Uthmaan ﷺ sleeping in the Masjid covered in a shawl. Although he was then the Ameerul Mu'mineen, there was none around him." (2)

The Humility of Hadhrat Abu Bakr ﷺ

Hadhrat Unaysa says, "The little girls of the locality would take their goats to Hadhrat Abu Bakr ﷺ (for milking). (Not only would he do it for them but) He would also ask, "Would you like me to milk for you like Ibn Afraa (someone from the Ansaar) does?" (3)

The narrations of Hadhrat Aal'isha ﷺ, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ﷺ and Ibn Musayyab have already passed in the chapter entitled "The Lives of the Khulafaa and Leaders". It is stated there(4) that Hadhrat Abu Bakr ﷺ was a businessman by trade and would proceed to the marketplace every morning to buy and sell. He also had a flock of goats that would come to him in the evenings. He sometimes took them out himself for grazing and sometimes had someone else graze them. He used to milk goats for the people of his locality so when he became the Khalifah, a little girl said, "Now there will be none to milk our animals." When he heard her saying this, Hadhrat Abu Bakr ﷺ said, "Why not! I swear by my life that I shall definitely still milk for you. I hope that what I have entered into will never change the personality I always had." He then continued milking for the people and would sometimes say to the little girl of the locality, "Dear girl! Would you like me to make the milk foamy or without foam?" At times she would ask for foamy milk while at times she asked for it to have no foam. He then did exactly as she asked.

Episodes of the Humility of Ameerul Mu'mineen Hadhrat Ali ﷺ

The blanket merchant Hadhrat Saalih reports from his grandfather who says, "I saw (Ameerul Mu'mineen) Hadhrat Ali ﷺ purchase dates for a Dirham and then carry them in his bag. When I or another man offered to carry it for him, he refused the offer saying, 'The father of a family has a greater right to carry their goods.'" (5)

Hadhrat Zaadhaan reports that even as Ameerul Mu'mineen, Hadhrat Ali ﷺ used to walk alone in the marketplace where he would guide lost people.

\[ \text{يَزِيلُ الدَّارَانَ الْأُخْرَى تَجْعلَهَا لِلنَّذِينَ لاَ يَرِيدُونَ عَنْهَا في الأَرْضِ وَلاَ مَسَٰدًا} \]

This \textit{(Jannah)} is the Home of the Aakhirah, which We shall assign to those who do not desire pomp \textit{(glory)} on earth nor corruption. \{Surah Qasas, verse 83\}

He would then say, "This verse was revealed with reference to rulers and people with authority over others who (despite their positions, they) exercise justice and are humble." \(^{(1)}\)

Hadhrat Jurmooz narrates that he saw Hadhrat Ali \(\text{اللَّهُ سَمِعَ} \) emerge from his house wearing two reddish cloths made in Qatar, \textit{a lower garment that reached halfway up his calves} and wrapped in a shawl of about the same size. He also carried a lash and walked with it in the marketplace, instructing people to be wary of Allaah and to trade in an amiable manner. He would also say, "\textit{Weigh and measure in full and do not blow into the meat (to make it appear large).}" \(^{(2)}\)

Hadhrat Abu Matar says, "I was once leaving the Masjid when I suddenly heard someone behind me shouting, 'Lift your lower garment because it shows greater wariness of your Rabb and also keeps the garment cleaner. You should also trim your hair if you are a Muslim.' I then noticed that it was Hadhrat Ali \(\text{اللَّهُ سَمِعَ} \) holding a lash in his hand. He then went to the camel market where he said (to the traders), 'Never take oaths when selling because although oaths sell goods, they destroy blessings.'

When he went to a date seller, he found a servant weeping. When Hadhrat Ali \(\text{اللَّهُ سَمِعَ} \) asked her what the problem was, she informed him that her master refused to accept the dates that the date seller had sold to her for a Dirham. Addressing the seller, Hadhrat Ali \(\text{اللَّهُ سَمِعَ} \) instructed, 'Take back the dates and return her Dirham because she has no choice in the matter.' When it appeared as if the man would refuse, I said, 'Do you not know who this is?' He admitted that he did not. I then told him, 'He is Ameerul Mu'mineen Ali \(\text{اللَّهُ سَمِعَ} \). The man then readily poured out the dates into his own and returned the Dirham. Then he said, 'I want you to be pleased with me, 0 Ameerul Mu'mineen.' Hadhrat Ali \(\text{اللَّهُ سَمِعَ} \) replied, 'I shall be immensely pleased with you if you give people their dues in full.' As he then passed by the other date sellers, Hadhrat Ali \(\text{اللَّهُ سَمِعَ} \) said, 'Feed the poor and your earnings will increase.'

Hadhrat Ali \(\text{اللَّهُ سَمِعَ} \) proceeded further to the fishmongers, whom he instructed with the words, '\textit{Never sell in our markets fish that are found floating in the water (after dying).}' Thereafter, Hadhrat Ali \(\text{اللَّهُ سَمِعَ} \) arrived at the cloth market where all the cloth merchants were found. Addressing one of them, he said, 'Dear old man! Give me a good deal on an upper garment for three Dirhams.' When the man recognised him, Hadhrat Ali  did not buy from him but went to another merchant. However, when he also recognised Hadhrat Ali  the Ameerul Mu'mineen did not buy from him either. Hadhrat Ali then purchased a garment from a youngster (who did not know him) for three Dirhams. When he wore it, the sleeves reached up to his wrists while the rest of it reached his ankles. When the owner of the store arrived, someone told him that his son had sold a garment to the Ameerul Mu'mineen for three Dirhams. Reprimanding the boy, he said, 'Why did you rather not take two Dirhams?' He then took one Dirham and went to Hadhrat Ali  saying, 'Please accept this Dirham.' 'What for?' Hadhrat Ali enquired. 'My son sold you the garment for three Dirhams when it costs only two Dirhams.' Hadhrat Ali refused to accept it saying, 'He sold it with my happiness and I bought it with his happiness.'

The Humility of Hadhrat Faatima  and Hadhrat Ummu Salamah

Hadhrat Ataa reports that when Rasulullaah's daughter Hadhrat Faatima  kneaded dough, her plaits would hit against the bowl. (2) Referring to Hadhrat Ummu Salamah  Hadhrat Mutallib bin Abdullaah says, "It was in the evening that the Arab widow came as the bride of the best of all Muslims (Rasulullaah) and later that night she was grinding flour." Episodes of the Humility of Hadhrat Salmaan Faarsi

Hadhrat Salaamah Ajali says, 'One of my cousins from the countryside whose name was Qudaamah came to me with the request, 'I wish to meet Salmaan Faarsi and greet him. We left to see him and found him in Madaa'in in command of an army of twenty thousand men. When we reached him, he was sitting on a platform, weaving baskets out of palm leaves. We greeted him and I said, 'O Abu Abdullaah! This is my cousin who is visiting me from the countryside. He wishes to greet you.' Hadhrat Salmaan replied to the greeting saying:

"وَعَلَىُّ السَّلَامُ وَرَحْمَةُ اللَّهِ"

I then continued to say, 'He also claims that he has a liking for you.' To this, Hadhrat Salmaan made the du'a:

"أَحْبَبَ الَّهُ"

'May Allaah love him.' (4)

Hadhrat Haarith bin Umayrah reports, "I once went to Hadhrat Salmaan (1) Ibn Raahway, Ahmad in his Zuhd, Abd bin Humayd, Abu Ya'la, Bayhaqi and ibn Asaakir. as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummal (Vol.5 Pg.57).

and found him in his tannery scraping off some hide with his hands. When I greeted him with Salaam, he said, 'Remain where you are until I come out.' 'By Allaah!' I said, 'I do not think that you know who I am.' 'I certainly do,' he responded, 'My soul knew yours before I came to know you because all souls were a collective army (before coming to this world). Those that acquainted themselves for the pleasure of Allaah become friends and those who acquainted themselves for another besides Allaah will have enmity between themselves.'

Hadrat Abu Qilaabah narrates that someone once came to Hadrat Salmaan as he was busy making dough. "What is this?" the man said in surprise. Hadrat Salmaan replied, "I had already sent the servant out on an errand and disliked giving him two jobs (so I decided to do this myself). The person then conveyed to Hadrat Salmaan greetings from another person. "When did you arrive?" Hadrat Salmaan enquired from the man. When the man explained when he came, Hadrat Salmaan said, "Remember well that had you not conveyed the greetings, it would remain an unfulfilled trust." Hadrat Amr the son of Abu Qurra Kindi says that his father once offered his sister in marriage to Hadrat Salmaan. However, Hadrat Salmaan refused the offer and instead married a freed slave woman named Buqayrah (who once belonged to Hadrat Abu Qurra).

When the news reached Hadrat Abu Qurra that there had been an argument between Hadrat Hudhayfah and Hadrat Salmaan, he went to Hadrat Salmaan but was told that Hadrat Salmaan was in his field. There Hadrat Abu Qurra found Hadrat Salmaan with a basket full of greens. He had put his staff through the handle of the basket and carried it over his shoulder. As they walked to Hadrat Salmaan's house, Hadrat Salmaan entered the house and said, "As Salaamu Alaykum." He then allowed Hadrat Abu Qurra in. A bedding was spread out with a few bricks at the head side (as pillows). There were also a few odds and ends lying about. Hadrat Salmaan said to Hadrat Abu Qurra, "You may sit on the bedding that your slave had prepared for herself."

Hadrat Maymoon bin Mahraan reports that a man from the Abdul Qais tribe once saw Hadrat Salmaan riding a donkey as commander of an army. He wore trousers, the legs of which fluttered about (in the wind). "Here comes the commander!" the soldiers called out (in derision). Hadrat Salmaan said, "Good and bad will be known only after today (in the Aakhirah)."

A man from the Abdul Qais tribe says, "I was with Hadrat Salmaan when he was commanding an army. As he passed by two youngsters from the army..."
they laughed as they remarked, 'This is your commander!' 'O Abu Abdullaah!' I protested, 'Do you not see what they are saying?' 'Leave them alone,' he bade me, 'Good and bad are to be seen after today (in the Aakhirah). If you are able to live off the earth, do so rather than being commander over even two persons. Beware of the curse of the oppressed and those left with no options because there is no barrier to their curses (Allaah accepts it immediately).''

Another narration states that when Hadhrat Salmaan ﷺ was the governor of Madaa'ain, he would go out to the people wearing his simple lower garment and shawl. When they saw him, the people would say, "Gurg Aamad! Gurg Aamad!" "What are they saying?" Hadhrat Salmaan ﷺ asked. "They are comparing you to a toy of theirs," the people replied. To this, Hadhrat Salmaan ﷺ remarked, "It does not matter (what they say). Good will be seen only after this day (in the Aakhirah)."

Hadhrat Huraym reports, "I once saw Hadhrat Salmaan ﷺ riding a donkey that was unsaddled. He was wearing a garment made in Sumbulaan which was short for him and was narrow at the bottom. He was a long-legged and hairy man and the garment reached only up to his knees. When I saw some youngsters (mischievously) prodding his donkey on from the back, I rebuked them saying, 'Will you not get away from your Ameer?!' To this, Hadhrat Salmaan ﷺ said, 'Leave them alone because good and evil will only be seen after this day.'"

Hadhrat Thaabit reports that Hadhrat Salmaan ﷺ was the governor of Madaa'ain when a man arrived from Shaam carrying figs. Because Hadhrat Salmaan ﷺ was wearing his simple lower garment and shawl, the man (not recognising Hadhrat Salmaan ﷺ and thinking him to be a common labourer) called to him saying, "Come and carry this!" Hadhrat Salmaan ﷺ obliged and when the people saw him and recognised who he was, they exclaimed, "This is the governor!" When the man pleaded that he did not recognise Hadhrat Salmaan ﷺ (and wished to take the load back), Hadhrat Salmaan ﷺ said to him, "Leave it until I reach your destination."

Another narration states that Hadhrat Salmaan ﷺ added, "I had already formulated an intention (to please Allaah by this service) and I am therefore unable to put this down until I reach your house."

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Buraydah narrates that Hadhrat Salmaan ﷺ used to make things with his hands and when he earned some money by selling them, he would purchase some meat or fish. He would then invite some lepers to share the meal with him.

The Humility of Hadhrat Hudhayfah bin Yamaan ﷺ

Hadhrat Muhammad bin Seereen reports that whenever Hadhrat Umar bin Khattaab appointed a governor, he would write in the letter of appointment (the following instruction to the people of the area), "You should listen to him and obey him as long as he exercises justice." However, when Hadhrat Umar appointed Hadhrat Hudhayfah as governor of Madaa'in, he wrote the following in his letter of appointment: "Listen to him, obey him and give him whatever he asks you for."

Hadhrat Hudhayfah then left Hadhrat Umar with a donkey fitted with a carriage to carry his goods. When Hadhrat Hudhayfah arrived in Madaa'in and was received by the people of the area and the local farmers, he was sitting on the carriage with a piece of bread and a bone with some meat in his hand. After reading out to them the letter of appointment, the people submitted, "You may ask us whatever you want." Hadhrat Hudhayfah said, "All I ask for is some food to eat and fodder for this donkey as long as I am with you."

After staying there for some time, Hadhrat Umar sent for him to return. Upon receiving the news that Hadhrat Hudhayfah was approaching (Madinah), Hadhrat Umar hid himself beside the road at a place where he would not be seen. When he saw Hadhrat Hudhayfah return in exactly the same condition he had left in, Hadhrat Umar came out of his hiding place and embraced Hadhrat Hudhayfah saying, "You are my brother and I am yours."

Hadhrat Ibn Seereen narrates, "When Hadhrat Hudhayfah arrived in Madaa'in, he arrived riding atop a carriage mounted on his donkey. He was eating a piece of bread with a bone with some meat." A narration of Hadhrat Talha bin Musarrif adds that at the time, Hadhrat Hudhayfah's legs were dangling on the side of the donkey.

The Humility of Hadhrat Jareer bin Abdullaah and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Salaam

Hadhrat Sulaym bin Abu Hudhayl says, "I mended clothes by the door of Hadhrat Jareer bin Abdullaah. Whenever he came out of his house and mounted his mule, he would take his slave along with him on the animal." (3)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Salaam was once passing through the marketplace carrying a bundle of wood when someone said to him, "What makes you do this when Allaah has freed you from it (you can always get someone else to do it for you)?" Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Salaam replied, "I wish to ward off pride because I have heard Rasulullaah say, 'The person in whose heart is an iota of pride will not enter Jannah.'" (4)

Hadrat Ali says, "Three Factors form the Core of Humility"

Hadrat Ali once said, "Three factors form the core of humility. (These

The Humour of Rasulullaah ﷺ Despite Always Speaking the Truth

Hadrat Abu Hurayrah ﷺ reports that the Sahabah ﷺ once asked, "O Rasulullaah ﷺ! You manage to joke with us?" Rasulullaah ﷺ replied, "However, I speak only the truth (when I joke)." (2)

Rasulullaah ﷺ's Jokes with his Wife

A man once asked Hadrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas ﷺ whether Rasulullaah ﷺ used to joke. When Hadrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas ﷺ replied that Rasulullaah ﷺ used to joke, the man enquired about the nature of Rasulullaah ﷺ's jokes. Hadrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas ﷺ replied, "Rasulullaah ﷺ once gave one of his wives a large shawl to wear saying, 'Wear it, thank Allaah and drag it along like a bride's train.'" (3)

Rasulullaah ﷺ Jokes with Abu Umayr

Hadrat Anas ﷺ says, "Rasulullaah ﷺ had the best of character. I had a brother called Abu Umayr who was just weaned off milk. Whenever Rasulullaah ﷺ came and saw him, Rasulullaah ﷺ would ask, 'O Abu Umayr! How is Nughayr?(4)' This was the little red-beaked bird that Abu Umayr played with. At times, the time of salaah would arrive while Rasulullaah ﷺ was at our house. He would then have the mat he sat on spread out, swept and water sprinkled over it. Rasulullaah ﷺ would then stand up in salaah and we would stand behind him as he led the salaah. The mat was made of palm leaves." (5)

In another narration, Hadrat Anas ﷺ states, "Rasulullaah ﷺ would associate with us so much that he would even ask my little brother, 'O Abu Umayr! How is Nughayr?'" (6)

Hadrat Anas ﷺ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ once visited Hadrat Abu Talha ﷺ (Hadrat Anas ﷺ's step-father) when he noticed that Hadrat Abu Talha ﷺ's son Abu Umayr was looking depressed. Rasulullaah ﷺ usually joked with him whenever he met him and asked, "Why is Abu Umayr looking so sad?" When Rasulullaah ﷺ was informed that the little bird with which the child played had died, Rasulullaah ﷺ affectionately asked, "O Abu Umayr! How

Rasulullaah Jokes with Someone

Hadhrat Anas reports that a man once came to Rasulullaah to ask for transport. Rasulullaah said to him, "We shall give you the child of a camel to ride." "O Rasulullaah!" the man said in surprise, "What will I do with the child of a camel (it is too small to ride)?" Rasulullaah replied, "Is every camel not the child of another?" (2)

Rasulullaah Jokes with Hadhrat Anas

Hadhrat Anas reports that Rasulullaah once jokingly called Hadhrat Anas saying, "O two-eared one!" (3)

Rasulullaah Jokes with Hadhrat Zaahir

Hadhrat Anas reports that a man from the countryside called Zaahir used to give Rasulullaah things from the countryside and when he left, Rasulullaah would give him things from the city. Rasulullaah used to say, "Zaahir is our countryside and we are his city." Although he was not a good looking person, Rasulullaah liked him a lot. As he was busy selling his wares in the marketplace one day, Rasulullaah grabbed him from the back (and covered his eyes) so that he could not see. "Release me!" Hadhrat Zaahir shouted, but when he turned and recognised Rasulullaah, he started pressing his back closer to Rasulullaah's chest. "Who will buy this slave?" Rasulullaah announced. "O Rasulullaah!" Hadhrat Zaahir said, "By Allaah! If you sell me, you will run at a loss." "Not at all," Rasulullaah corrected, "You are not a loss in the sight of Allaah. In Allaah's sight, you are expensive." (4)

Rasulullaah Jokes with Hadhrat Aa'isha and his Other Wives

Hadhrat Nu'maan bin Basheer narrates that when Hadhrat Abu Bakr was once about to ask permission to enter Rasulullaah's room, he heard (his daughter) Hadhrat Aa'isha raising her voice at Rasulullaah. When he entered, Hadhrat Abu Bakr grabbed her to give her a slap saying, "Are you raising your voice above that of Allaah's Rasool?" However, Rasulullaah stopped him from taking action and Hadhrat Abu Bakr left in anger. After Hadhrat Abu Bakr had left, Rasulullaah said to Hadhrat Aa’isha, "Now what do you think of me after I rescued you from that man?" It was a few days later that Hadhrat Abu Bakr again sought permission to see Rasulullaah. This time he found that the couple had reconciled and said to them, "Now enter me into your peace as you had entered me into your war." "We certainly will," Rasulullaah said, "We certainly will."(1)

Hadhrat Aa’isha reports, "I once accompanied Rasulullaah on one of his journeys when I was still a slim girl who had not put on much weight. Rasulullaah instructed the others to go ahead and when they did, he said to me, "Come! Let’s have a race." I then beat him in the race. Rasulullaah let the matter rest until the time came when I had put on weight and forgotten about the incident. When I then accompanied him on a journey, he again instructed the others to proceed ahead. When they did so, he said to me, "Come! Let’s have a race." This time he beat and he laughed as he said, "This is for that." (2)

Hadhrat Anas bin Maalik narrates that Rasulullaah was once on a journey with his wives riding in front of him. Addressing the person who was reciting some poems to drive the camels on faster, Rasulullaah said, "O Anjasha! Shame on you! Take it easy with the crystals (the women. Do not drive the camels too fast)." (3)

In another narration, Hadhrat Anas says that Hadhrat Ummu Sulaym was with the wives of Rasulullaah (on a journey) when Rasulullaah came to them. (Noticing that the camels were being driven too fast) Rasulullaah said (to the person driving them along), "O Anjasha! Move easily with the crystals." Hadhrat Abu Qilaabah says, "Rasulullaah made a statement that if any of you made, it would be held against him; (the statement was), "Go easy with the crystals." (4)

Rasulullaah Jokes with an Old Woman

Hadhurat Hasan reports that an old woman once came to Rasulullaah with the request, "O Rasulullaah! Pray to Allaah to enter me into Jannah." Addressing her by her title, Rasulullaah said, "Old women will not enter Jannah." When the lady turned away in tears, Rasulullaah sent someone to give her the message that she would not enter Jannah as on old woman because Allaah says:

\text{We have made them all virgins...} \quad \text{(Surah waaqi'Ahmad, verses 35,36)}

The Humour of the Sahabah

Hadrat Awf bin Maalik Ashja'ee Jokes with Rasulullaah

Hadrat Awf bin Maalik Ashja'ee reports, "I went to Rasulullaah during the expedition to Tabook while he was in a (very small) leather tent. I greeted Rasulullaah with Salaam and after he replied, I asked, 'May I enter?' When Rasulullaah permitted me to enter, I asked, 'All of me, O Rasulullaah?' Rasulullaah replied, 'All of you.' I then entered."

Hadrat Waleed bin Uthmaan bin Abu Aaliyah explains that Hadrat Awf bin Maalik joked "All of me" because the tent was very small. (1)

Hadrat Aa'isha and Hadrat Abu Sufyaan Joke with Rasulullaah

Hadrat Ibn Abu Mulaykah narrates that when Hadrat Aa'isha only cracked a few jokes with Rasulullaah, her mother said, "O Rasulullaah! Many of our tribe's jokes come from the Kinaana tribe." "In fact," Rasulullaah remarked, "this tribe is the subject of many of our jokes." (2)

Hadrat Abu Haytham reports from someone that he heard Hadrat Abu Sufyaan bin Harb joking with Rasulullaah in the house of his daughter Hadrat Ummu Habeebah (who was one of Rasulullaah's wives). Hadrat Abu Sufyaan said, "By Allaah! As soon as I left you alone (stopped fighting you), all the Arabs also left you, otherwise the horned ones and hornless ones would all still be fighting because of you." Rasulullaah smiled as he said, "You and what you say, O Abu Handhala." (3)

The Sahabah throw Melons at each other and the Statement of Hadrat Ibn Seereen about their Humour

Hadrat Bakr bin Abdullaah says, "Although the Sahabah of Rasulullaah used to (playfully) throw melons at each other, they were still the most resolute men when matters were serious." (4)

Hadrat Qurra narrates that he once said to Hadrat Ibn Seereen, "Did the Sahabah joke and play?" Hadrat Ibn Seereen replied, "They were just like other people. In fact, Hadrat Abdullaah bin Umar used to say the following couplet in jest:

"He (is so miserly that) loves to drink wine from the money of his companions and dislikes to part with his own money" (5)

Hadhrat Nu'aymaan \( \text{Playing a Trick on} \) Hadhrat Suwaybit

Hadhrat Ummu Salamah narrates that Hadhrat Abu Bakr once went on a trade journey to Busra. Accompanying him were Hadhrat Nu'aymaan and Hadhrat Suwaybit bin Harmala, both of whom were veterans of the Battle of Badr. Because Hadhrat Suwaybit was in charge of the goods, Hadhrat Nu'aymaan asked him for something to eat. Hadhrat Suwaybit refused saying that they would have to wait for Hadhrat Abu Bakr. Hadhrat Nu'aymaan, who was a joker and full of tricks, went to the people (of the locality), with his camel in trail. "Who will buy from me an intelligent Arab slave?" he announced. When some people agreed to the sale, Hadhrat Nu'aymaan warned, "He is however a good talker and may claim to be a free person. If you intend letting him go on this pretext of his, then let me be and do not complicate matters for me (do not make the purchase)." "No!" the people insisted, "We shall buy him from you in exchange for ten young camels." Hadhrat Nu'aymaan then returned, leading the camels (and the buyers) along with him. He then said to them, "There he is. Grab him!" Hadhrat Suwaybit pleaded, "He is lying! I am a free man." "He has already told us about you," the people said as they threw a rope around his neck and took him away. When Hadhrat Abu Bakr returned and was informed about what had happened, he went to the people with his companions, returned the ten camels to them and got Hadhrat Suwaybit back. Rasulullah was also informed about the incident and it kept him and the Sahabah laughing for an entire year afterwards. (1)

Hadhrat Nu'aymaan plays a trick on a Bedouin

Hadhrat Rabee'ah bin Uthmaan narrates that a Bedouin once came to see Rasulullah and put his camel to sit in the courtyard of the Masjid. Some of the Sahabah then suggested to Hadhrat Nu'aymaan bin Amr Ansaari who was referred to as An-Nu'aymaan, "We have a strong desire to eat some meat so why don't you slaughter that camel for us to eat. Rasulullah will then recompense the owner for it."

Hadhrat Nu'aymaan went ahead to slaughter it and when the Bedouin came out of the Masjid and saw his camel slaughtered, he screamed, "Oh dear! My camel has been slaughtered, O Muhammad!" Rasulullah came out and asked, "Who did that?" When the Sahabah informed him that it was Hadhrat Nu'aymaan, Rasulullah searched for him. After making queries about his whereabouts, Rasulullah finally found him in the house of Hadhrat Subaagha bint Zubayr bin Abdul Muttalib. He was hiding in a hole and covered himself with palm leaves and bark. Pointing his finger towards the hole, someone shouted as he said, "I have not seen him, O Rasulullaah!" When Rasulullaah got Hadhrat Nu'aymaan out of the hole, his face was messed with the palm bark that had fallen onto it. "What made you do that?" asked him. "O Rasulullaah!" submitted, "The same people who led you to me were the ones who instructed me to do it." Rasulullaah then smiled as he started wiping Hadhrat Nu'aymaan's face. Thereafter, Rasulullaah recompensed the Bedouin for his camel. (1)

Hadhrat Nu'aymaan Plays a Trick on Hadhrat Makhramah bin Naufal

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mus'ab narrates that Hadhrat Makhramah bin Naufal bin Uhayb Zuhri was an extremely old blind man in Madinah who had already reached the age of a hundred and fifteen. One day he stood in the Masjid ready to urinate when the people started shouting at him. It was then that Hadhrat Nu'aymaan bin Amr bin Rifaa'ah bin Haarith bin Sawaad Najaar came to him and led him to the corner of the Masjid saying, "Sit here." There he made him sit and urinate. As Hadhrat Makhramah urinated, the people started to scream at him. When he had finished, Hadhrat Makhramah asked, "Shame on you people! Who was it that brought me here?" When he was informed that it was Hadhrat Nu'aymaan, Hadhrat Makhramah cursed him saying, "Take note! I swear by Allaah that if I ever get the upper hand over him, I will hit him most severely with this staff of mine."

After some time, Hadhrat Makhramah had forgotten about the incident when Hadhrat Nu'aymaan came to him. At the time, Hadhrat Uthmaan was performing salaah in the corner of the Masjid and it was his habit not to ever pay attention to anything else whilst performing salaah. Hadhrat Nu'aymaan asked Hadhrat Makhramah, "Are you still after Nu'aymaan?" "O yes," Hadhrat Makhramah said, "Where is he? Lead me to him." Hadhrat Nu'aymaan then led Hadhrat Makhramah to Hadhrat Uthmaan saying, "Here he is. Grab him!" Hadhrat Makhramah then took his staff into both hands and hit Hadhrat Uthmaan so hard that his head was severely injured. Someone then told Hadhrat Makhramah, "It was the Ameerul Mu'mineen that you hit!" When (Hadhrat Makhramah's tribe) the Banu Zuhra heard about the incident, they got together (to punish Hadhrat Nu'aymaan) but Hadhrat Uthmaan said, "May Allaah's mercy be far from him. Leave Nu'aymaan alone because he is a veteran of Badr." (2)

Generosity

The Generosity of Rasulullah

Statements of the Sahabah Concerning the Generosity of Rasulullah

Hadrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas says, "Rasulullah was the most generous of people. He was even more generous on Ramadhaan when he met Hadhrat Jibra'eel every night and revised the Qur'aan with him. In fact, Rasulullah was even more generous than the blowing wind (that benefits all and sundry)." (1)

Hadrat Jaabir says, "Rasulullah never said 'No' to anything asked of him." (2)

In a lengthy Hadith from Hadrat Abdullaah bin Abu Bakr, Hadrat Abu Sa'eed says, "Rasulullah never refused anything asked of him." (3)

In another lengthy narration, Hadrat Ali says, "When asked to do something, Rasulullah always said 'Yes' when he intended doing it and would remain silent when he did not intend doing it (when it was not to the benefit of the person asking). However, he never said 'No' to anything asked of him." (4)

Rasulullah's Generosity towards Hadrat Rubayyi bint Mu'awwidh and to Hadrat Ummu Sumbula

Hadrat Rubayyi bint Mu'awwidh bin Afraa says, "(My father) Hadrat Mu'awwidh bin Afraa sent me to Rasulullah with a Saa of fresh dates topped with slices of newly grown cucumbers because Rasulullah loved cucumbers. Rasulullah had then just received some jewels from Bahrain so he scooped up a handful of the jewels and gave them to me." Another narration states that Rasulullah filled her hand with either jewels or gold. Rasulullah then told her, "Adorn yourself with these." (5)

Hadrat Ummu Sumbula narrates that when she once presented a gift to Rasulullah, his wives refused to accept it, saying, "We cannot accept this." They however took it when Rasulullah instructed them to do so. In return, Rasulullah then allotted to her a piece of land between two mountains. It was this piece of land that Hadrat Abdullaah bin Jahash bought from

Other incidents about the generosity of Rasulullaah ﷺ have passed in the chapters concerning spending of wealth in the path of Allaah.

The Generosity of the Sahabah

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ﷺ reports that a woman once came to Rasulullaah ﷺ saying, "I want to give this garment to the most generous of all Arabs." Pointing to Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Al Aas ﷺ who was standing there, Rasulullaah ﷺ said, "Give it to this young man." It is for this reason that such garments are referred to as Sa'eediyyah. (2)

Other incidents about the generosity of the Sahabah ﷺ have passed in the chapters concerning spending of wealth in Jihaad and in the path of Allaah.

Preferring others Above Oneself

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ﷺ says, "There passed a time when (we had so much concern for each other that) none of us (Sahabah ﷺ) thought himself more worthy of a Dinaar or a Dirham than his fellow Muslim brother. Unfortunately, we are now in a time when Dinaars and Dirhams are more beloved to us than our fellow Muslim brothers." The narration still continues further. (3)

Several incidents of preferring others above oneself have passed in the chapter dealing with spending on others despite being in need and other stories about the Ansaar. There, incidents were mentioned how they gave others despite their intense thirst and need for clothing (and other necessities).

Patience and Perseverance

Exercising Patience in Illness

Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed Khudri ﷺ reports that he once visited Rasulullaah ﷺ when Rasulullaah ﷺ was suffering extreme fever and was covered in a blanket. Placing his hand on the blanket, Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed ﷺ said, "What a high fever you have, O Rasulullaah ﷺ!" Rasulullaah ﷺ remarked, "Thus are difficulties intensified for us and likewise are the rewards multiplied." "O Rasulullaah ﷺ!" Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed ﷺ asked, "Who are the people who suffer the most difficulties?" "The Ambiyaa," came the reply. "Who next?" Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed ﷺ asked further. Rasulullaah ﷺ replied, "The Ulema." When Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed ﷺ asked who was next, Rasulullaah ﷺ informed him, "The pious people. Some of them are so troubled by lice that they are killed and others are so impoverished that they own only the garment they wear. Despite all of this, they are as pleased with difficulties as any of you are pleased with bounties." (4)

Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Hudhayfah reports from his aunt Hadhrat Faatimah that she was with a few women who visited Rasulullaah when he was suffering high fever. Because of the intensity of the fever, Rasulullaah had a water bag hung overhead from a branch and lay beneath it so that drops of water fell on to his head. "O Rasulullaah!" she said, "Why don't you pray to Allaah to cure you?" Rasulullaah replied, "Those who suffer the most difficulties are the Ambiyaa, then those closest to them, then those closest to them and then those closest to them." (1)

Hadhrat Aa'isha narrates that when Rasulullaah was once overcome with pain, he was in great suffering and turned from side to side on his bed. Hadhrat Aa'isha asked, "Would you not be angry with any of us if we had to do this?" Rasulullaah replied, "Difficulties will continue harassing a Mu'min but whenever he is pricked by a thorn or suffers any other pain, a sin is forgiven and a stage (in the Aakhirah) is elevated." (2)

The Sahabah Exercise Patience with Illness

The People of Quba and the Ansaar Patiently Bear Fever

Hadhrat Jaabir narrates that fever (in the human form Allaah had granted it) once sought permission to see Rasulullaah. "Who is it?" Rasulullaah asked. "Ummu Mildam(1)," was the reply. Rasulullaah instructed it to go to the people of Quba and (when it did) only Allaah knows how many people were afflicted. When the people of Quba came to complain about it to Rasulullaah, he asked, "You have a choice. If you wish, I shall pray to Allaah to remove it from you or if you prefer, it could (remain amongst you and thereby) be a means of purification for you (from sin)." "Can you really do this?" they asked. When Rasulullaah conformed that he could, they bade him to let it stay. (3)

Hadhrat Salmaan narrates that when fever once sought permission to see Rasulullaah, he asked who it was. It replied, "I am fever. I peel at flesh and suck blood." "Go to the people of Quba," Rasulullaah instructed. It then proceeded there and (after a while) the people of Quba came to Rasulullaah with pale faces. When they complained about the fever to Rasulullaah, he asked them, "You have a choice. If you wish, I shall pray to Allaah and He will remove it from you or if you prefer, you could leave it to remain amongst you and thereby be a means of removing all the sins you may have left." Their reply was, "Why not (why should we not want our sins forgiven)? Leave it, O Rasulullaah!" (4)

Hadrat Abu Hurayrah narrates that fever once came to Rasulullaah with the request, "O Rasulullaah! Send me to those people or those of your companions who are most beloved to you." "Go to the Ansaar," Rasulullaah said. It then went to them and floored them. The Ansaar then came to Rasulullaah pleading, "O Rasulullaah! Fever has afflicted us, so do pray to Allaah to cure us." Rasulullaah then prayed and they were cured. A woman then ran behind Rasulullaah saying, "O Rasulullaah! Pray for me as well because I am from the Ansaar. Pray for me as you have prayed for them." Rasulullaah replied, "What do you prefer? Would you rather have me pray for you and that you be cured or would you rather exercise patience (and remain with the illness) in which case it will be incumbent for you to enter Jannah?" She immediately submitted three times, "No! I swear by Allaah O Rasulullaah that I would rather exercise patience." She then added, "By Allaah! I shall never jeopardise His Jannah for anything." (1)

One of the Sahabah Patiently Bears with his Fever

Hadrat Aa'isha narrates that Rasulullaah once did not notice someone who regularly attended his gatherings. When Rasulullaah asked what the matter was that the person was not to be seen, the Sahabah informed Rasulullaah that the man had been struck down by an intense fever. "Let us go an visit him," Rasulullaah said to them. When Rasulullaah entered the room, the young man started to cry. "do not cry," Rasulullaah consoled him, "because Jibra'eel has just informed me that fever is my Ummah's share of Jahannam (if they suffer it in this world, they will not be subjected to Jahannam in the Aakhirah, Inshaa Allaah)." (2)

The Patience of Hadhrat Abu Bakr and Hadhrat Abu Dardaa

Hadrat Abu Safar reports that when some people came to visit Hadhrat Abu Bakr during his illness, they said, "O Khalifah of Rasulullaah! Should we not summon a physician to see you?" "He has already been to see me," Hadhrat Abu Bakr informed them. "And what did he say to you?" they asked. (Referring to Allaah) Hadhrat Abu Bakr replied, "He said, 'I do as I please'." (3)

Hadrat Mu'aawiya bin Qurra narrates that when Hadhrat Abu Dardaa fell ill, his friends came to visit him. "What is the problem?" they asked. "My sins," he replied. "What do you wish for?" they enquired further. "I wish for Jannah," was his reply. "Should we summon a physician for you?" they asked.

The Patience Hadhrat Mu'aadh and his Family Exercised During the Plague

Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Ghanam reports that when the plague struck Shaam, Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas announced, "This plague is a punishment, so flee from it to the valleys and ravines." When news of this statement reached Hadhrat Shurahbeel bin Hasanah, he became incensed and said, "Amr bin Al Aas is wrong! I was a companion of Rasulullaah at a time when Amr was more astray than the camel his family owns. This plague is the du'aa of your Nabi, the mercy of your Rabb and the way in which many pious people lost their lives in the past."

When this news reached Hadhrat Mu'aadh, he prayed, "O Allaah! Grant the family of Mu'aadh their share in full." His two daughters then passed away in the plague and his son Abdur Rahmaan was also afflicted. Advising his son, Hadhrat Mu'aadh recited the verse:

\text{الَّذِينَ يَأْمُرُونَ بِالْإِنْصَارِ وَلَا يَأْمُرُونَ بِالْبَذْرِ (سُورَةُ الْبَقَارَةُ،
}\]

The truth is from your Rabb so never be among those who doubt. {Surah Baqarah, verse 147}

To this, his son replied with the following verse of the Qur'aan:

\text{يَا أَيِّهَا النَّاسُ إِنَّنَا نُضِيَّكُونَ مِنَ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ (سُورَةُ السَّاَبِعَةُ،

If Allaah wills, you will soon find me to be among the patient ones. {Surah Saaffaat, verse 102}

The plague then struck Hadhrat Mu'aadh himself (and it showed up first) on the back of his hand. "This," Hadhrat Mu'aadh said, "is more beloved to me than red camels." When he saw a man weeping beside him, he asked, "What makes you weep?" The man replied, "I am crying over the knowledge I used to gain from you (which I shall no longer be gaining after your demise)."

"Do not cry," Hadhrat Mu'aadh consoled him, "because although Hadhrat Ibraheem was in a place where there was no knowledge to be learnt, Allaah gave him the knowledge. After I die, seek knowledge from four men (viz.) Abdullaah bin Mas'ood, Abdullaah bin Salaam, Salmaan and Abu Dardaa."

Another narration states that Hadhrat Mu'aadh, Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah, Hadhrat Shurahbeel bin Hasanah and Hadhrat Abu Maalik Ash'ari were all struck by the plague on the same day. Hadhrat

(3) Rasulullaah made du'aa to Allaah to accord the status of a martyr to any person of his Ummah who died in a plague.

(4) Someone who dies in a plague is a martyr in the sight of Allaah.
Mu'aadh said, "This is the mercy of your Rabb, the du'aa of your Nabi and the manner in which the lives of the pious ones before you were taken. O Allaah! Grant the family of Mu'aadh their full share of this mercy."

The night was not yet over when his only son Abdur Rahmaan was struck by the plague. Abdur Rahmaan was the most beloved person to Hadhrat Mu'aadh and it was with his name that Hadhrat Mu'aadh received his title (of Abu Abdur Rahmaan). Returning from the Masjid, Hadhrat Mu'aadh found his son restless and asked, "O Abdur Rahmaan! How are you?" In reply, his son said, "Beloved father, "The truth is from your Rabb so never be among those who doubt." Hadhrat Mu'aadh said to him, "If Allaah wills, you will soon find me to be among the patient ones." Abdur Rahmaan passed away that night and Hadhrat Mu'aadh buried him the following morning.

Hadhrat Mu'aadh was also afflicted with the plague and when the pangs of death struck him, they struck more severely than they did any other person. Each time he regained consciousness from his coma, he opened his eyes and said, "O Rabb! You may strangle as often as you please because I swear by Your honour that You know how much my heart loves You." (1)

Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah and Other Muslims Persevere Through the Plague

Hadhrat Shahr bin Howshab reports from a man from his tribe called Raaba that when the plague started to spread, Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah addressed the people saying, "O people! This plague is the mercy of your Rabb, the du'aa of your Nabi and the manner in which the lives of the pious ones before you were taken. Abu Ubaydah prays that Allaah grant him his full share of it." Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah was then struck with the plague and passed away.

Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Jabal was then appointed commander over the troops and he later addressed the people saying, "O people! This plague is the mercy of your Rabb, the du'aa of your Nabi and the manner in which the lives of the pious ones before you were taken. Mu'aadh prays that Allaah grant his family their full share of it." His son Abdur Rahmaan was then struck by the plague and passed away. Hadhrat Mu'aadh then prayed to Allaah that the plague strike him and it did (the first signs appearing) on his palm. The narrator says, "I saw Hadhrat Mu'aadh looking at his palm and then turning it around saying, 'I swear by Allaah that I would not like to exchange you for anything in this world.'"

After Hadhrat Mu'aadh passed away, Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas was appointed commander. When he stood up to address the people, he said, "O people! When this plague strikes, it spreads like wildfire so seek shelter from it in the mountains." To this, Hadhrat Abu Waathilah Hudhali remarked, "You are wrong! By Allaah! I was in the company of Rasulullaah when you were worse than this donkey of mine!" Hadhrat Amr's response was, "By Almighty Allah! I shall not reply to what you are saying but I swear by Allah that we shall not be staying on here."

The narrator continues, "Hadhrat Amr then left, the people scattered and Allah removed the plague from them. When the opinion of Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas reached (Ameerul Mu'mineen) Hadhrat Umar bin Khattaab, he said "I swear by Allah that he did not condemn it." (1)

The Statement of Hadhrat Mu'aadh Concerning the Plague of Amwaas

Hadhrat Abu Qilaabah narrates that when the plague struck Shaam, Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas said, "This is a scourge that has come so flee from it to the mountains and ravines." When this statement reached Hadhrat Mu'aadh, far from confirming it, he said, "Not at all! It is martyrdom, a mercy and the du'a of your Nabi." Hadhrat Abu Qilaabah narrates further, "While I knew that it was a form of martyrdom and a mercy, I did not know how it was the du'a of Rasulullaah until I was informed that while performing salah one night, Rasulullaah thrice made du'a saying, 'Then let it be fever or a plague.' The following morning, one of his family members asked, 'O Rasulullaah! I overheard you making a du'a last night. 'You heard it?' Rasulullaah asked. 'I certainly did,' came the reply. Rasulullaah then explained, 'I asked my Rabb not to let my Ummah perish through drought and this du'a was accepted. I then prayed to Allah never to allow an enemy to overpower them and annihilate them (this was also granted). I also prayed to Him never to let my Ummah fragment into groups, waging wars against each other. This du'a however was refused. It was then that I thrice said, 'Then let it be fever or a plague.'" (2)

Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah's Joy at the Plague

Hadhrat Urwa bin Zubayr reports that Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah and his family were unaffected by the plague of Amwaas when he prayed to Allah saying, "O Allah! Grant the family of Abu Ubaydah their share." When a sore erupted on his little finger, Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah started looking at (thinking that it was a sign of the plague) but he was assured that it meant nothing. He then said, "I wish that Allah blesses it because when he blesses something little, it becomes a lot." (3)

Hadhrat Haarith bin Abu Umayrah Haarithi narrates that Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Jabal sent him to ask Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah how he was when the plague struck him. Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah showed Hadhrat Haarith a sore

Exercising Patience Upon the Demise of Children, Family and Friends

Rasulullaah ﷺ’s Patience Upon the Demise of his Son Ibraheem

Hadhrat Anas  says, "I saw (Rasulullaah ﷺ's son) Ibraheem ﷺ surrendering his soul in front of Rasulullaah ﷺ. With his eyes filled with tears, Rasulullaah ﷺ said, 'Although the eyes weep and the heart grieves, we shall say only that which pleases Allaah. O Ibraheem! I swear by Allaah that we are deeply saddened by your demise.'"(1)

Hadhrat Makhool narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ was leaning on Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf as he entered the room where (his son) Ibraheem ﷺ was surrendering his soul. When the boy passed away, Rasulullaah ﷺ’s eyes filled with tears. Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf  said, "O Rasulullaah ﷺ! Is this not what you forbade people from doing? When the Muslims see you weep, they will also weep." When his tears stopped, Rasulullaah ﷺ said, "This (these tears) is because of mercy (soft-heartedness) and whoever is not merciful will not have mercy shown to him. What we have been forbidding people from doing is from wailing and from praising attributes of a (deceased) person that he never possessed. Had it not been for Allaah’s promise to gather people together (for reckoning), for the fact that death is a well travelled path and for the fact that the last of us will meet with the first of us, we would have felt grief more severe than this. Because of our sorrow over his death our eyes weep and our hearts grieve but we shall never say anything that will anger our Rabb. The balance of his suckling will be done in Jannah." (2)

Rasulullaah ﷺ’s Patience upon the Death of his Grandson

Hadhrat Usamah bin Zaid  narrates that they were with Rasulullaah ﷺ one day when one of his daughters sent for him with the message that her son was dying. Rasulullaah ﷺ instructed someone saying, "Go and inform her that to Allaah belongs all that He takes and all that He gives and He has decreed a fixed term for everything. Instruct her to exercise patience and to look forward to the rewards (from Allaah for her patience)." The messenger returned to Rasulullaah ﷺ saying, "She is beseeching you to come in the name of Allaah." Rasulullaah ﷺ got up to leave and a few of the Sahabah  went with him. Amongst them were Hadhrat Sa’d bin Ubaadah , Hadhrat Mu’aadh bin Jabal , Hadhrat Ubay bin Ka’b  and Hadhrat Zaid bin Thaabit . Hadhrat Usamah  says, "I also accompanied them and when the child was given to Rasulullaah ﷺ, he was quivering in the throes of death (making a sound) as if the soul was in an old water bag. As Rasulullaah ﷺ’s eyes welled with tears, Sa’d asked, "What is this (tears), O Rasulullah!" Rasulullah replied, "This is the mercy that Allaah has placed in the hearts of His servants and it is only upon His merciful servants that Allaah showers His mercy." (1)

Rasulullah’s Patience Upon the Martyrdom of his Uncle Hadhrat Hamzah

Hadhurat Abu Hurayrah reports that as Rasulullah stood by the body of Hadhrat Hamzah bin Abdul Muttalib when he was martyred, the sight was more painful than any he had ever witnessed because the body had been savagely mutilated. Rasulullah said words similar in effect to: "May Allaah shower His mercy on you. As far as I know, you were one who maintained family ties and always did good works. By Allaah! If it were not for the added grief it would cause your family, I would prefer to leave you in this condition so that Allaah may resurrect you from the bellies of wild animals (that will eat your corpse)." Rasulullah then added, "Take note! I swear by Allaah that to avenge you, I shall have seventy of the Kuffaar mutilated as they have done to you." It was then that Hadhrat Jibra’eel arrived with the following verse:

(Verse 126 of Surah Nahl)

When you claim retribution (for a wrong done to you), then avenge yourself in proportion to the aggression (wrong) done against you (and not any more). But if you exercise patience (without taking revenge), then this is definitely best for the patient ones. (Surah Nahl, verse 126)

Rasulullah then paid the expiation (for not fulfilling the oath) and restrained himself from taking action. (2)

Hadhurat Abdullaah bin Abbaas narrates that when Rasulullah saw what was done to (his uncle) Hadhrat Hamzah, he remarked, "If it were not for the grief it would cause our women, I would not bury him and would leave him in this condition so that Allaah would resurrect him from the bellies of wild animals and birds of prey." When the sight grieved him too deeply, Rasulullah said, "If I get the upper hand over them (the Mushrikeen), I shall mutilate thirty of them," It was then that Allaah revealed the verse:

(Verse 127 of Surah Nahl)

When you claim retribution (for a wrong done to you), then avenge yourself in proportion to the aggression (wrong) done against you (and not any more). But if you exercise patience (without taking revenge), then this is definitely best for the patient ones. Be patient! Your patience is only from Allaah (only Allaah can give you the ability to exercise patience). Do not grieve over them (the Kuffaar when they refuse to accept Islaam) and do not be saddened by their plotting (against you because Allaah will see to them). {Surah Nahl, verses

Rasulullaah then gave instructions for the body of Hadhrat Hamzah

The Sahabah Exercise Patience on the Occasions of Death

Hadrat Ummu Haaritha Exercises Patience upon the Demise of her Son

Hadrat Anas reports that Hadrat Haaritha bin Suraaqa was killed during the Battle of Badr. Although he was a non-combatant, he was killed by a stray arrow. His mother came there asking, "O Rasulullaah! Tell me what has become of Haaritha. If he is in Jannah, I shall exercise patience. If not, I shall show Allaah what I will do." She was referring to wailing, which had not yet been forbidden at the time. "Shame on you!" Rasulullaah exclaimed, "Are you mad? There are eight levels of Jannah and your son had reached Firdous which is the highest of them all." (1)

Another narration states that she said, "I shall exercise patience if he is Jannah. If not, I shall exert myself in crying." "O Ummu Haaritha!" Rasulullaah consoled her, "There are many levels of Jannah and your son had reached Firdous which is the highest of them all." Yet another narration states that Rasulullaah said, "O Ummu Haaritha! There is not only one Jannah. There are many levels of Jannah and he is in Firdous which is the highest of them all." She then said, "I shall then exercise patience." (3)

Another narration from Hadrat Anas states that Hadrat Ummu Haaritha said, "O Rasulullaah! If he is in Jannah, I shall not weep and will not be grieved. However, if he is in Jahannam, I shall continue weeping as long as I live." "O Ummu Haaritha!" Rasulullaah consoled her, "There is not only one Jannah. There are many levels of Jannah and Haarith is in Firdous which is the highest of them all." She then returned laughing as she said, "Well done, Haarith! Well done!" (4)

Hadrat Ummu Khallaad Exercises Patience upon the Demise of her Son

Hadrat Muhammad bin Thaabit bin Qais bin Shammaas narrates that when the Muslims fought the (Jewish) Banu Qurayzah tribe, a man from the Ansaar called Khallaad was martyred. When someone went to inform her that he had been martyred, she went (to receive his body) while wearing her veil. Someone remarked, "Khallaad has been killed and you are wearing a veil?" She replied, "I may have lost Khallaad but I have not lost my modesty." When Rasulullaah was informed of this, he said, "Take note that he (Hadrat Khallaad) shall receive the rewards of two martyrs." When someone

Hadhrat Abu Talha ﷺ and Hadhrat Ummu Sulaym ﷺ Exercise Patience upon the Demise of their Son

Hadhrat Anas ﷺ reports that (his mother) Hadhrat Ummu Sulaym ﷺ once came to his father Abu Anas saying, "Today I have come with news that you will dislike." His response was: "You are always coming with news from that Bedouin that I dislike." She said, "He is a Bedouin whom Allaah has selected and made a Nabi." "What is the news you have brought?" he asked. "Wine has been forbidden," she replied. To this he said, "Then this is where we separate." He then died as a Mushrik.

When Hadhrat Abu Talha ﷺ approached Hadhrat Ummu Sulaym ﷺ (with a marriage proposal), she said, "I cannot marry you when you are a Mushrik." "No," exclaimed Hadhrat Abu Talha ﷺ, "By Allaah! That is not your motive." "Then what is my motive?" asked Hadhrat Ummu Sulaym ﷺ. "Your motive is gold and silver," he replied. "In that case," retorted Hadhrat Ummu Sulaym ﷺ, "I make you and the Nabi of Allaah ﷺ witness to the fact that if you accept Islaam, I shall be content with you giving me only your acceptance of Islaam (as dowry. I want nothing else)." "Who will stand guarantee for me to this agreement?" Hadhrat Abu Talha ﷺ asked. Hadhrat Ummu Sulaym ﷺ then said, "O Anas! Get up and go with your uncle." Hadhrat Anas ﷺ got up and with Hadhrat Abu Talha ﷺ's hand on his shoulder, they proceeded. When they got close to where Rasulullah ﷺ was and he heard their voices, he remarked, "Here is Abu Talha with the radiance of Islaam sparkling between his eyes." Hadhrat Abu Talha ﷺ greeted Rasulullah ﷺ and then professed:

Ash-hadu an la Ilaha illaullaah wa ash-hadu anna Muhammadan rasuullullaah.
```

I testify that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah and that Muhammad ﷺ is the Rasul of Allaah.

Rasulullah ﷺ then married him (to Hadhrat Ummu Sulaym ﷺ) on the condition of his accepting Islaam. Hadhrat Abu Talha ﷺ later fathered a son who was the apple of his father's eye. However, when the child started to walk, Allaah decided to take the child away.

(Still unaware that the child had passed away) Hadhrat Abu Talha ﷺ came to Hadhrat Ummu Sulaym ﷺ asking, "How is my son, O Ummu Sulaym?" "Better then he had been (because death has relieved him of his illness)," she replied. She then said further, "Why don't you have your supper because it is already late." After serving him his supper, she asked, "O Abu Talha! When a trust is given to some people for safekeeping and the owners of the trust send a message after some time that they require it back, can those who have it in trust refuse to return it?" "Not at all," replied Hadhrat Abu Talha. Hadhrat Ummu Sulaym then said, "Your son has left this world." "Where is he now?" Hadhrat Abu Talha asked. When she informed him that the child was in the inner room, Hadhrat Abu Talha went there, opened the face and recited:

(1) Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.83). Abu Nu'ayrn has also reported the narration; as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.157), as has Abu Ya'la, as quoted in Isaabah (Vol.1 Pg.454).

"Ibni la iyya nabi yuwa arma mu sa"n"

"To Allaah we belong and to Him shall we return"

He then went to inform Rasulullaah about the statement of Hadhrat Ummu Sulaym, to which Rasulullaah said, "I swear by the Being Who has sent me with the truth that because of her patience at the demise of her child, Allaah has already placed another son in her womb."

After Hadhrat Ummu Sulaym had delivered the child, Rasulullaah said, "O Anas! Go and tell your mother that after cutting the umbilical cord, she should not feed anything to the baby without first sending for me." Hadhrat Anas says, "She then gave the baby in my arms and I took it to Rasulullaah. When I placed the baby before Rasulullaah, he asked for three Ajwa dates. When I brought them, he removed the stones, chewed on them and then opened the child's mouth to place it inside. The child immediately started turning it about in his mouth, to which Rasulullaah remarked, 'The Ansaar certainly love dates.' Thereafter, Rasulullaah said to me, 'Go and tell your mother, 'May Allaah bless you in this child and make him obedient and pious.'"(1)

Hadhrat Anas narrates that Hadhrat Abu Talha's son was ill and passed away one day when he was out. When he returned, Hadhrat Abu Talha asked, "How is my son?" Hadhrat Ummu Sulaym replied, "He is calmer than he had been." She then served him supper and after he had completed, the couple engaged in sexual relations. It was only afterwards that she told him to bury the child. The next morning when Hadhrat Abu Talha informed Rasulullaah about what had happened, Rasulullaah asked, "Did you have relations with your wife last night?" After receiving a positive reply, Rasulullaah prayed, "O Allaah! Bless them." Hadhrat Ummu Sulaym then gave birth to a son.

Hadhrat Abu Talha then instructed Hadhrat Anas to carefully take this child to Rasulullaah. Ummu Sulaym also sent some dates with the baby and when Rasulullaah took the child, he asked, "Has something come with him?" When the Sahabah informed him that some dates had also come, Rasulullaah asked for them. After chewing them, Rasulullaah took it from his mouth, placed it in the child's mouth and rubbed it on the child's palate (called Tahneek). Rasulullaah then named the child

Another narration states that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, "Allaah shall bless them in their night." Hadhrat Sufyaan reports that a man from the Ansar mentioned, "I saw nine of their (Hadhrat Ummu Sulaym and Hadhrat Abu Talha’s) children all of whom were proficient scholars of the Qur'aan." \(^{(2)}\)

Hadhrat Abu Bakr ﷺ Exercises Patience upon the Demise of his son Abdullaah

Hadhrat Qaasim bin Muhammad narrates that Hadhrat Abdullaah the son of Hadhrat Abu Bakr ﷺ was struck by an arrow in the battle for Ta'if. (After healing) His wound reopened forty days after the demise of Rasulullaah ﷺ, causing him to pass away. When he went to (his daughter) Hadhrat Aa'isha ﷺ, Hadhrat Abu Bakr ﷺ said, "Dear daughter! By Allaah! It seems as if a goat was pulled by the ear and removed from our house." She said, "All praise belongs to Allaah who has strengthened your heart and kept you firm on what is right." After leaving, he again came to her saying, "Dear daughter! Are you not afraid that Abdullaah may have been buried while he was still alive?" Hadhrat Aa'isha ﷺ declared, "Dear father!

إِنَّ لِلَّهِ وَإِنَّا إِلَيْهِ راجِعُونَ

Hadhrat Abu Bakr ﷺ then said, "I seek protection from Allaah the All Hearing and All Knowing from the accursed Shaytaan! Dear daughter! Each and every person has influences. One comes from an angel and the other from Shaytaan."

When a delegation from the Thaqeef tribe (the people of Ta'if) came to Hadhrat Abu Bakr ﷺ, he still had with him the arrow (that killed his son). Taking it out, he asked them, "Does any of you recognise this arrow?" Hadhrat Sa'd bin Ubayd ﷺ of the Banu Ajlaan tribe replied, "It is I who made that arrow, who attached its feathers and head and who shot it." Hadhrat Abu Bakr ﷺ said, "It was this arrow that killed my son Abdullaah. All praise belongs to that Allaah Who honoured him (with martyrdom) at your hand and Who did not disgrace you (with death as a Kaafir) at his hand. Allaah is indeed the greatest Protector." \(^{(3)}\) Another narration \(^{(4)}\) states that Hadhrat Abu Bakr ﷺ said, "The good that Allaah grants is indeed vast to both of you."

The patience of Hadhrat Umar  upon the Demise of his Brother Hadhrat Zaid

Hadhrat Umar bin Abdur Rahmaan bin Zaid bin Khattaab narrates that whenever a calamity befell Hadhrat Umar , he would console himself saying, "When I was struck with the calamity of the death of (my brother) Zaid bin Khattaab, I managed to exercise patience (why should I not do so now?)." When Hadhrat Umar one day saw the person who killed his brother Hadhrat Zaid , he said to him, "It is a pity that you killed my brother. I think of him every time the wind blows." (3)

The Patience of Hadhrat Safiyyah  upon the Death of her Brother Hadhrat Hamzah

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas reports that when Hadhrat Hamzah was martyred, (his sister) Hadhrat Safiyyah, unaware of what had happened, came looking for him. When she met (her nephew) Hadhrat Ali and (her son) Hadhrat Zubayr, Hadhrat Ali said to Hadhrat Zubayr, "Tell your mother (that her brother has been martyred)." "No," replied Hadhrat Zubayr, "You go ahead and tell your aunt." "How is Hamzah?" Hadhrat Safiyyah asked. The two men made it seem to her that they knew nothing. She then approached (her nephew) Rasulullaah who said, "I fear for her sanity (if she knew the truth)." Rasulullaah placed his hand on her chest and made du'aa. (Then when he informed her) She wept as she said:

"أَنَاُلِلٍلِلْ وَأَنَاُإِلَهٍ رَحْمَٰتُ اللَّهِ"

To Allaah we belong and to Him shall we return.

Rasulullaah then stood by the mutilated body and said, "If it were not for the grief it would cause our women, I would not bury him and would leave him in this condition so that Allaah would resurrect him from the bellies of wild animals and birds of prey." Thereafter Rasulullaah gave instructions for all the martyrs to be brought forward and he started performing the Janaazah salaah for them. Nine bodies were brought and laid beside that of Hadhrat Hamzah . Rasulullaah performed the salaah with seven Takbeers. The bodies were then taken away while that of Hadhrat Hamzah was left. Thereafter, another nine bodies were brought and Rasulullaah performed the Janaazah salaah for them with seven Takbeers. These bodies were then carried away while that of Hadhrat Hamzah was left behind. Yet again, another nine bodies were brought and Rasulullaah performed the Janaazah salaah for them also with seven Takbeers. These bodies were then carried away while that of Hadhrat Hamzah was left behind. This continued until Rasulullaah had performed the Janaazah salaah for them all. (1)

Hadhrat Zubayr bin Awaam narrates, "A woman came running during the Battle of Uhud and would have seen the dead bodies when Rasulullaah called out, '(Stop) The woman! (Stop) The woman!' Rasulullaah disliked that women should see the bodies. When I guessed that she was my mother Safiyya, I ran to her and reached her before she could reach the dead. She was a strong woman and struck me in the chest saying, 'Get away from me. The ground does not belong to YOU!' I said, 'Rasulullaah has emphatically prohibited you form going there.' She then halted in her tracks and took out two sheets saying, 'I have brought these two sheets for my brother Hamzah. The news of his death has already reached me and I want you to bury him in these.' We then took the sheets to enshroud Hamzah in but found next to him someone from the Ansaar who was also killed and mutilated as Hamzah was. Because we felt difficult to enshroud Hamzah in two sheets while the Ansaari had none, we decided that one sheet would be used for Hamzah and the other for the Ansaari. After measuring the two sheets, we found the one to be larger than the other. (To decide who would have which sheet) We then drew lots between the two and enshrouded each one in the sheet that fell to his lot." (2)

Discussing the martyrdom of Hadhrat Hamzah, it is reported that when Hadhrat Safiyyah bint Abdul MuttaUb came to see her brother, Hadhrat Zubayr met her saying, "Dear mother! It is the instruction of Rasulullaah that you return." She said, "Why should I? I have already heard that my brother's body has been mutilated. This has taken place for the sake of Allaah and we are pleased with it (with Allaah's decree). I shall definitely exercise patience and look forward to the rewards from Allaah." When Hadhrat Zubayr reported her words to Rasulullaah, Rasulullaah said, "Let her go." She then went to the body of Hadhrat Hamzah and prayed for his forgiveness. Rasulullaah then gave instructions for him to be buried. (3)

The Patience of Hadhrat Ummu Salamah upon the Demise of her Husband

Hadhrat Ummu Salamah says, "(My husband) Abu Salamah once came to me from Rasulullullaah saying, 'I have heard from Rasulullullaah something that gives me great pleasure. Rasulullullaah said that whenever a Muslim is afflicted with any calamity, he will be rewarded and granted something better in return if he recites:

"أَنَّا لِلَّهِ وَإِنَا إِلَيْهِ رَاجِعُونَ"
'To Allaah we belong and to Him shall we return'
followed by the du'aa:

"اللَّهُمَّ أَجْرِنِي فِي مُصْبِبِي وَأَخْلِفْ لِي خَيرًا مِّنْهَا"
'O Allaah! Reward me in my calamity and replace me with something better'
I learnt the du'aa from him and when Abu Salamah passed away, I recited:

"أَنَّا لِلَّهِ وَإِنَا إِلَيْهِ رَاجِعُونَ"
'To Allaah we belong and to Him shall we return.'

"اللَّهُمَّ أَجْرِنِي فِي مُصْبِبِي وَأَخْلِفْ لِي خَيرًا مِّنْهَا"
'O Allaah! Reward me in my calamity and replace me with something better'
I then thought to myself, 'Where will I get someone better than Abu Salamah?' However, after completing my Iddah, I was one day dying a piece of leather when Rasulullullaah sought permission to see me. After washing the Qaridh leaves (used for dying) from my hands, I permitted him in and placed for him a leather cushion stuffed with the bark of a palm. Rasulullullaah sat on it and then proposed for my hand in marriage. After Rasulullullaah had spoken, I said, 'O Rasulullullaah! I have no reason for not wanting to marry you. However, I am a woman who is extremely possessive and I fear that you may see something in me (because of my possessiveness) that would cause Allaah to punish me. In addition to this, I am not young anymore and I have children.' Rasulullullaah replied, 'As for your possessiveness, Allaah will soon dispel it. As for your age, I am affected by advanced age just as you are. As for your children, they shall be my children as well.' I then accepted, saying, 'I shall then hand myself over to the Rasool of Allaah.' Allaah really did replace Abu Salamah for me with someone better, with Rasulullullaah.

their families. When the people met Hadhrat Usayd bin Hudhayr and gave him the news of his wife's death, he covered his face and started to weep. "May Allaah forgive you," Hadhrat Aa'isha said to him, "You are a companion of Rasulullaah and are one of the first people to enter the fold of Islaam. Why would you be weeping over a woman?" Hadhrat Usayd uncovered his face and said, "You are right. I swear by my life that after the death of Sa'd bin Mu'aadh, I have no right to weep over anyone else especially after what Rasulullaah said about him." "What did Rasulullaah say about him?" Hadhrat Aa'isha asked. Hadhrat Usayd then informed her that Rasulullaah said, "The Arsh (Throne of Allaah) actually shook at the death of Sa'd bin Mu'aadh." Hadhrat Aa'isha says, "At that time, Usayd bin Hudhayr was walking between Rasulullaah and I." (1)

Another narration states that Hadhrat Usayd bin Hudhayr said, "Have I no right to weep when I heard Rasulullaah say, 'The pillars of the Arsh shook with the death of Sa'd bin Mu'aadh.'" (2) Yet another narration states that he said, "Why should I not weep when I heard Rasulullaah say..." The rest of the narration is the same as the one above. (3)

The Patience of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood upon the death of his Brother Hadhrat Utba

Hadhrat Awn reports that when Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood heard about the death of his brother Hadhrat Utba, he started to weep. When asked what made him weep, he replied, "He was my real brother and my companion with Rasulullaah. However, despite this, I would not have liked to die before him because for him to pass away and for me to anticipate the rewards for (my patience at) losing him is dearer to me than for me to pass away and for him to anticipate the rewards for (his patience at) losing me." (4)

Hadhrat Khaythama narrates that when Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood received the news of the death of his brother Hadhrat Utba, his eyes welled with tears as he said, "This (weeping) is because of the mercy that Allaah has placed (in the heart) that man has no control of." (5)

The Patience of the Muslims upon the death of Hadhrat Umar

Hadhrat Ahnaf bin Qais ﷺ says, 'I once heard Hadhrat Umar ﷺ say, 'The Quraysh are leaders and when any of them enter a door, an entire group of people enter with them.' I however did not fully understand what he meant until he was stabbed. On his deathbed, he instructed Suhayb ﷺ to lead the salaat for three days and also gave instructions for food to be served to the people until his successor was appointed. When the people returned from the funeral, the food was served and the tablecloths laid out. However, because of their grief, the people refrained from eating. Hadhrat Abbaas bin Abdul Muttalib ﷺ then said, 'O people! We ate and drank after the demise of Rasulullaah ﷺ and we also ate and drank after the demise of Hadhrat Abu Bakr ﷺ. Now it is also necessary for us to eat this food.' He then stretched out his hand and ate. The people followed suit. I then understood what Hadhrat Umar ﷺ said about the Quraysh being leaders.' (2)

Hadrath Abu Bakr ﷺ and Hadrath Ali ﷺ Advise People to Exercise Patience upon the Deaths of Close Relatives

Hadhrat Abu Uyaynah reports that when Hadhrat Abu Bakr ﷺ consoled a person, he said, 'There is no calamity when there is patience and no benefit when there is impatience. What precedes death is simple while that which follows it is difficult. If you think of the loss of Rasulullaah ﷺ, your tragedy will seem light and Allaah will inflate your reward.' (3)

Hadrath Sufyaan reports that when consoling Hadhrat Ash'ath bin Qais ﷺ upon the death of his son, Hadhrat Ali ﷺ said, 'It is the right of your family relationship that you should grieve but if you exercise patience, Allaah shall replace the loss of your son. If you are patient, fate will take its course and you will be rewarded. However, if you are irritated, fate will still take its course and you will be sinful.' (4)

Rasulullaah said to her, "If you persevere with this problem, you will appear on the Day of Qiyaamah without any sins and will have no reckoning to give." She replied, "I swear by the Being Who has sent you with the truth, I prefer to persevere until I meet Allaah." She then added, "However, I fear that the wretch would strip me naked." Rasulullaah then prayed for her and whenever she feared that the spirit was approaching, she would cling on to the shroud of the Kabah and say to it, "Get away!" It would then leave her. (1)

Hadhrat Ataa reports that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas once said to him, "Should I not show you a woman who shall be amongst the inhabitants of Jannah?" "Please do," Hadhrat Ataa responded. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas then said, "There was this black woman who once approached Rasulullaah with the request, 'Please pray for me because I suffer from epilepsy and (in the fit my clothing opens up and) my body becomes exposed.' Rasulullaah said to her, 'If you want, you can persevere and earn yourself Jannah, otherwise I can pray to Allaah to cure you.' 'Not at all,' she replied, 'I shall rather persevere (and be assured of Jannah), but do pray to Allaah that my body does not become exposed.' Rasulullaah then made du'aa for her. The Incident of a Man with a Woman who had been a Prostitute during the Period of Ignorance

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mughaffal narrates that a woman who had been a prostitute during the Period of Ignorance once passed by a man who stretched out his hand towards her. "Stop!" she cautioned, "Allaah has obliterated Shirk and brought Islaam (I am therefore no longer a prostitute)." He then left her and turned away. However, as he continued looking at her, he struck his face on a wall (and was injured). He then went to Rasulullaah and reported the incident to him. Rasulullaah said, "You are a person for whom Allaah intends good. When Allaah had good intentions for a person, He hastens the punishment for his sins in this world (so that he suffers no punishment in the Aakhirah). On the other hand, when Allaah does not intend good for a person, He holds back the punishment (in this world) until the person receives his punishment in full on the Day of Qiyaamah (when the punishment will be much worse)." Gratitude

The Gratitude of Rasulullaah

Rasulullaah Prolongs his Sajdah in Gratitude to Allaah

Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf reports, "Rasulullaah once left the Masjid and headed for his room on the upper storey. After entering, he faced towards the Qiblah and fell into Sajdah. He prolonged his Sajdah so much that I thought his soul had been taken. I therefore went close to him and sat down. Raising his head from the ground, he asked, 'Who is there?' When I told him that I was Abdur Rahmaan, he asked further, 'What is the matter?' 'O Rasulullaah! I explained, 'You Sajdah was so long that I feared Allaah may have taken your soul in it.' Rasulullaah said, 'Jibra'eel just came to me saying that Allaah says, 'Whoever invokes My mercy on you (recites Durood), I shall shower My mercies on him and whoever invoked peace on you (sends Salaams), I shall bless him with peace.' I therefore made Sajdah to Allaah in gratitude."

Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Jabal says, "I once approached Rasulullaah and found him standing and performing salaah. He continued standing until dawn broke and made such a long Sajdah that I thought his life had been taken. Afterwards he asked, 'Do you know what that (long Sajdah) was for?' 'Allaah and His Rasool know best,' I submitted. After repeating the question three or four times, Rasulullaah explained, 'I performed as much salaah as my Rabb had ordained for me when my Rabb appeared and addressed me. At the end of the conversation, he asked me, 'What shall I do with your Ummah?' 'O my Rabb,' I declared, 'you know best what You shall do with them.' After repeating the question three or four times, Allaah again asked, 'What shall I do with your Ummah?' When I again submitted that He knew best, Allaah said, 'I shall never make you grieve over your Ummah.' I then fell into Sajdah because my Rabb is appreciative and loves those who show gratitude."

Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan Abu Bakr narrates that when he once went to visit Rasulullaah, Rasulullaah was busy receiving revelation. When the revelation stopped, Rasulullaah asked Hadhrat Aa'isha to pass him his shawl. He then left the house and entered the Masjid where he found some people besides whom there was no one else there. Rasulullaah sat on one side until the person addressing them had completed his talk. Thereafter.

Rasulullaah recited Surah Tanzeel Sajdah (Surah) and made such a long Sajdah that people living as far as two miles away arrived there as people started telling each other about the Sajdah. Hadhrat Aa'isha sent a message to her family telling them to come because she was seeing Rasulullaah do something she had never seen him do before.

After Rasulullaah had lifted his head (from Sajdah), Hadhrat Abu Bakr asked, "O Rasulullaah! You prolonged your Sajdah so much?" Rasulullaah replied, "I prostrated to my Rabb out of gratitude for the Ummah He has granted me. There shall be seventy thousand of them who shall enter Jannah without reckoning." Hadhrat Abu Bakr then said, "O Rasulullaah! You have an Ummah that is large and extremely pure. You should have asked for more for them." This he repeated two or three times when Hadhrat Umar added, "May my parents be sacrificed for you, O Rasulullaah! You have asked a great gift for your Ummah." (1)

The Gratitude Rasulullaah showed when he saw a man Suffering from a Terminal Disease

Hadhurat Abdullaah bin Umar narrates that when Rasulullaah once passed by a man suffering from a terminal disease, he dismounted from his animal and made Sajdah. When Hadhrat Abu Bakr passed by the man, he also dismounted and made Sajdah and Hadhrat Umar followed suit when he passed by. (2)

Rasulullaah Thanks Allaah for Returning his Family Members Safely from an Expedition

Hadhurat Ali reports that when Rasulullaah once dispatched an expedition comprising of his family members, he prayed, "O Allaah! If You return them to me safely, I owe it to You to thank You as You ought to be thanked." It was not long afterwards that they came back safely and Rasulullaah said, "All praise belongs to Allaah for all the bounties of Allaah." "O Rasulullaah!" Hadhrat Ali asked, "Did you not say that if Allaah returned them safely, you owed it to Him to thank Him as He ought to be thanked?" "Did I not just do that?" Rasulullaah replied. (3)

The Gratitude of the Sahabah

The Gratitude of a man To Whom Rasulullaah gave a Single Date

Hadhrat Anas reports that when a beggar once came to Rasulullaah, he gave instructions for a date to be given to the man. The beggar however (thinking it to be too little) threw it away. Another beggar then arrived and again

Rasulullaah ﷺ gave instructions for a date to be given to him. The man exclaimed (in joy), "Subhaanallaah! A date from Rasulullaah ﷺ!" Rasulullaah ﷺ then said to one of the servants, "Go to Ummu Salamah and instruct her to give this man the forty Dirhams she has with her."

Hadrat Hasan narrates that when a beggar once came to Rasulullaah ﷺ and he gave him a date, the beggar exclaimed (in derision), "Subhaanallaah! A Nabi from the Ambiyaa giving a mere date as Sadaqah!" Rasulullaah ﷺ said to him, "Don't you know that there are multitudes of atoms in that(1)?" Thereafter, another man came to beg. When Rasulullaah ﷺ gave him a date as well, he exclaimed (in joy), "A date from a Nabi from the Ambiya! I shall never part with this date as long as I live and shall always anticipate its blessings." Rasulullaah ﷺ then instructed the people to be good to the man and he soon became a wealthy man. (2)

The Gratitude Hadrat Umar ﷺ Showed to Allaah for Elevating his Status and his Words Concerning Patience and gratitude

Hadrat Sulaymaan bin Yasaar narrates that when Hadrat Umar ﷺ once passed by a place called Dajnaan, he said, "I once saw myself grazing animals in this place for (my father) Khattaab. By Allaah! As far as I know, he was a stern and harsh man. (By the grace of Allaah) I then became the guide of the Ummah of Muhammad ﷺ." He then recited the following couplets (which mean):

"There is nothing in the things you see besides superficial enjoyment While wealth and children are temporary, all that shall remain is Allaah"
He then spurred his camel on saying, "Howb!" (3)

Hadrat Umar ﷺ once said, "When I come to the conveyance of gratitude and the conveyance of patience, I care not which of the two I ride." (4)

The Statement of Hadrat Umar ﷺ Concerning a Leper and Another Man

Hadrat Ikramah ﷺ reports that Hadrat Umar ﷺ once passed by a leper who was also blind, deaf and dumb. Addressing the people with him, Hadrat Umar ﷺ asked, "Do you see any of Allaah's bounties in this man?" When the people replied that they saw none, Hadrat Umar ﷺ said, "Why not? Do you not see that he is able to urinate with ease without the urine holding back or coming out with difficulty? This is an extremely great bounty from Allaah." (5)

What Hadhrat Umar  said to a man Who Greeted him, His Letter to Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari  and his Statement Concerning People who are Grateful

Hadhraat Anas  reports that after a man greeted Hadhrat Umar  and he had replied to the greeting, Hadhrat Umar  asked him, "How are you?" "I only have the praises of Allaah to sing before you," the man replied. "That is exactly what I wanted from you," said Hadhrat Umar. (2)

Hadhraat Hasan Basri narrates that Hadhrat Umar  wrote the following letter to Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari  : "Be content with the sustenance Allaah provides for you in this world because Allaah gives more sustenance to some of His servants and less to others to test all of them. He tests those whom He has given plenty to see whether they are grateful. His gratitude to Allaah fulfils the duty he owes to Allaah for the sustenance and bounties Allaah has blessed him with." (3)

Hadhraat Umar  once said, "The grateful ones always received more from Allaah so seek more from Allaah. This is because Allaah says:

{Surah Ibraheem, verse 7}(4)

If you show gratitude (for the favours I grant you), then I will definitely grant you (many) more." {Surah Ibraheem, verse 7}(4)

Hadhraat Uthmaan  shows Gratitude for not Encountering some people who Were Involved in Evil

Hadhraat Sulaymaan bin Moosa narrates that Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Affaan  was once called to deal with some people who were involved in some evil activity. However, when Hadhrat Uthmaan  went to them, he found that they had already dispersed even though the effects of their evil was still visible. Hadhrat Uthmaan  praised Allaah for not encountering them and (as a token of gratitude) he freed a slave. (5) gratitude is followed by an increase (in the bounty). Gratitude and an increase in bounties are directly proportional to each other. Therefore, Allaah will never stop increasing the bounties on His servant until the servant stops being grateful (in which case they stop).”

Hadhrat Muhammad bin Ka'b Qurazi narrates that Hadhrat Ali bin Abi Taalib ~~~ once said, "It never occurs that Allaah opens the door of gratitude and closes the door of increasing bounties. It also never occurs that Allaah opens the door of du'aa and closes the door of acceptance. Similarly, it never occurs that Allaah opens the door of Taubah and closes the door of forgiveness. I shall recite this from Allaah's Book. Allaah says:

\[\text{"Supplicate (make du'aa) to Me and I shall respond."} \quad \text{\{Surah Al Mumin, verse 60\}}\]

Allaah also says:

\[\text{"If you show gratitude (for the favours I grant you), then I will definitely grant you (many) more."} \quad \text{\{Surah Ibraheem, verse 7\}}\]

Allaah says further:

Allaah also says:

\[\text{"Whoever commits a (minor) sin or wrongs himself (by committing a major sin) and then seeks Allaah's forgiveness, he will surely find that Allaah is Most Forgiving, Most Merciful."} \quad \text{\{Surah Nisaa, verse 110\}}\]

When (her son) Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr  was martyred, Hadhrat Asmaa bint Abu Bakr  happened to lose something that Rasulullaah  gave her and which she kept in a bag. When she finally found it after some searching, she fell into Sajdah (in gratitude to Allaah). (2)

Fervour for Earning Rewards

The Fervour of Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood  narrates that when the Muslims went for the Battle of Badr, every three of them had to share a camel (to ride in turns because of a shortage of transport). Hadhrat Abu Lubaabah  and Hadhrat Ali  shared a camel with Rasulullaah  and when it was Rasulullaah 's turn to walk, they both offered to walk instead. However, Rasulullaah  refused saying, "Neither are you two stronger than I nor am I less in need of rewards than you." (3)

The Fervour of the Sahabah to earn Rewards

The Sahabah Exert themselves to Stand in Salaah to earn rewards

Hadhrat Muttalib bin Abu Wadaa'ah  reports that when Rasulullaah  once saw a person performing salaah while sitting down, he said, "The salaah of a sitting person is half (in reward) of the salaah of a standing person." Thereafter the Sahabah  exerted themselves greatly to perform salaah while standing (despite suffering extreme hunger and weakness at times). (4)

Hadhrat Anas  reports that when Rasulullaah  arrived in Madinah, he was suffering with high fever and the other Muslims were also suffering of the same. When Rasulullaah  entered the Masjid one day and found the people sitting and performing salaah (because of their illness), he said, "The salaah of a sitting person is half (in reward) of the salaah of a standing person." (5)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr bin Al Aas  narrates that when Rasulullaah  and his companions (from Makkah) arrived in Madinah, they were so afflicted by the fever in Madinah that they became extremely ill. Eventually they were able to perform salaah only while sitting down. Allaah however, cured Rasulullaah  from the condition. When Rasulullaah  left his room one day and found the Sahabah  sitting and performing salaah, he said, "Take

The Incident of Hadhrat Rabaa'ah bin Ka'b with Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Rabaa'ah bin Ka'b says, "I was Rasulullaah's servant and served him all day until he performed the Isha salaah. I would then sit by his door when he entered his room saying to myself, 'Perhaps Rasulullaah will need something.' I would then remain sitting there hearing Rasulullaah say, 'Subhaanallaahi wa Bi-hamdihi,' until I would get tired or until my eyes overwhelmed me and I would fall asleep right there. Seeing my fervour to serve him and feeling that he owed something to me, Rasulullaah one day asked me, 'O Rabaa'ah bin Ka'b! Ask from me and I shall give you.' O Rasulullaah! I submitted, 'Allow me to think about it and then I shall inform you.' I then addressed myself saying, 'The things of this world are temporary and will soon come to an end. In any case, I have my (preordained) sustenance in this world which is sufficient for me and will come to me (it is therefore futile to ask Rasulullaah for some worldly thing). I shall therefore ask Rasulullaah for something of benefit for my life in the Aakhirah because he enjoys an exalted status with Allaah.' I then approached Rasulullaah and he asked, 'What have you decided, O Rabee'ah?' I said, 'My request to you is to intercede on my behalf that Allaah frees me from Jahannam.' Rasulullaah asked, 'Who told you to say this, O Rabee'ah?' I explained to him saying, 'O Rasulullaah! I swear by the Being Who has sent you with the truth that no one told me what to say. You asked me to ask from you and because you enjoy a high status in Allaah's sight, I though the matter over. Realising that the things of this world are temporary and will soon come to an end and that I have my (preordained) sustenance in this world which will come to me I decided to ask you for something of benefit for my life in the Aakhirah.' Rasulullaah remained silent for a long while after which he said, 'I shall do that but do assist me against your carnal self by making Sajdah in abundance.'(2)

In another narration, Hadhrat Rabee'ah says, "I used to spend the night in the service of Rasulullaah, bringing him his water for wudhu and seeing to his other needs. When he once asked me to make a request, I said, 'I request your company in Jannah.' 'Anything else?' he asked. When I insisted that this was all, he said, 'Then assist me against your carnal self by making Sajdah in abundance.'(3)

Hadhrat Abdul Jabbaar bin Haarith ~ Seeks rewards for his Companionship with Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Abdul Jabbaar bin Haarith bin Maalik Hadasi Manaari narrates, "I was part of a delegation to Rasulullaah from the land of Saraat. When I came to Rasulullaah, I greeted him with the traditional Arab greeting saying, 'May you have a good morning!' Rasulullaah said, 'Allaah has given Muhammad and his Ummah another greeting. They greet each other with the words of Salaam.' I then said: 'ّللّ رَحْمَاتَ ١٠٠١ اللَّهِ َّنَبِيَّ وَسَلَّمَ عليهِ.', Rasulullaah replied by saying, 'ّللّ رَحْمَاتَ ١٠٠١ اللَّهِ َّنَبِيَّ وَسَلَّمَ عليهِ.' When he asked what my name was, I informed him that I was Jabbaar bin Haarith. I then accepted Islaam and pledge my allegiance to Rasulullaah. After I had pledge my allegiance someone said to Rasulullaah, 'This Manaari is one of the accomplished horsemen of his tribe.' Rasulullaah then gave me a horse and I remained fighting by his side. When Rasulullaah one day missed the neighing of the horse he had given me, he asked, 'Why do I not hear the neighing of the Hadasi's horse?' 'O Rasulullaah!' I explained, 'I was told that its neighing was disturbing you so I had it castrated (to quieten it).' It was then that Rasulullaah forbade castrating horses. Someone once suggested to me to request Rasulullaah for a note (of guaranteeing for something) as my cousin Tameem Daari had done. 'Did he ask for something of this world or for something of the Aakhirah?' I asked. When I was told that it was for something of this world, I said, 'It was from this world that I have turned away. I shall rather ask Rasulullaah to assist me tomorrow when I appear before Allaah.'

The Statement of Rasulullaah Concerning Hadhrat Amr bin Taghlib and Hadhrat Amr's Response

Hadhrat Amr bin Taghlib reports that when Rasulullaah gave something to some people and not to others, it appeared as if they were upset. Rasulullaah then said, "I give to some people only for fear of their impatience and agitation. Then there are those whom I hand over to the goodness and independence Allaah has placed in their hearts. Amongst these people is Amr bin Taghlib." Hadhrat Amr bin Taghlib said, "I would not trade these words of Rasulullaah even for red camels."

He then called out, "Addressing Hadhrat Umar ۚۚۚ. Hadhrat Ali ۚۚۚ said, "O Abu Hafs! Let us go back to perform Tawaf so that the mercy descending (on the Bedouin) may encompass us as well." They then started performing Tawaf as the Bedouin repeated:

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ۚۚۚ Looks forward to the Rewards for his Stolen Camel and for Freeing Its Shepherd and Marries to Earn rewards

Hadrat Maymoon bin Mahraan reports that people from Haroora who were associated with Najdah (one of the leaders of the Khawaarij) once passed by a camel belonging to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ۚۚۚ and took it along with them. The shepherd tending to it went to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ۚۚۚ saying, "O Abu Abdur Rahmaan! Look forward to the rewards for your camel." "What has happened to her?" asked Hadhrat Abdullaah ۚۚۚ. The shepherd replied, "The people from Haroora who are associated with Najdah passed by and took her along with them." "But how," Hadhrat Abdullaah ۚۚۚ asked, "did they take the camel away and leave you alone?" "They took me along as well but I managed to escape from them," the shepherd replied.

Hadrat Abdullaah ۚۚۚ asked him further, "What made you leave them and come to me (when you would no longer be a slave if you escaped)?" "Because I love you more than them," the man replied. Hadrat Abdullaah ۚۚۚ then enquired, "Will you swear by the Being besides Whom there is no god that you love me more than them?" When the shepherd swore on oath, Hadrat Abdullaah ۚۚۚ said, "Then I look forward to the reward for (freeing) you together with that of the camel." By so saying, he set the slave free.

It was a while later when someone came to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ۚۚۚ saying, "Do you still want that camel of yours." The person even took the name of the camel and continued, "She is now being sold in the marketplace." "Give me my shawl," Hadrat Abdullaah ۚۚۚ said and he stood up as he placed the shawl over his shoulders. He then sat down again and removed the shawl saying, "I had been looking forward to the rewards for (losing) her and will therefore not go out and get her back." (1)

Hadrat Amr bin Dinar narrates that when Hadrat Abdullah bin Umar made up his mind not to marry, (his sister) Hadrat Hafsah said to him, "Get married because if your children pass away, you will be rewarded (for your patience) and if they live, they will make du'a for you." (2)

The Words of Hadrat Ammaar on the Way to the Battle of Siffeen

Hadrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Abza reports that en route to Siffeen when he was on the bank of the Euphrates River, Hadrat Ammaar bin Yaaser said, "O Allaah! If I knew that you would be pleased with me for throwing myself off a mountain and rolling down as I fall, I would certainly do so. O Allaah! If I knew that you would be pleased with me for kindling a large fire and throwing myself into it, I would certainly do so. O Allaah! If I knew that you would be pleased with me for throwing myself into the water and drowning, I would certainly do so. O Allaah! I am fighting only to please You and I am certain that you will never make me unsuccessful as long as I do things to please You." (3)

The Statement of Hadrat Abdullah bin Amr Concerning his Actions after the Demise of Rasulullah

Hadrat Abdullah bin Amr bin Al Aas once said, "For me to do a good deed today is more beloved to me than two liked deeds done during the time of Rasulullah because when we were with Rasulullah, our only concern was the Aakhirah and not this world. Today, however, the world has fallen for us." (4)

Exertion in Worship

The Exertion of Our Guide Rasulullah

The Exertion of the Sahabah

The exertion of Hadhrat Uthmaan and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr

Hadhrat Zubayr bin Abdullaah reports from his grandmother whose name was Zuhaymah that Hadhrat Uthmaan fasted perpetually and stood in salaah throughout the night save for a portion at the beginning of the night when he slept. (2)

Hadhrat Mujaahid narrates that the level of worship Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr reached was unmatched. In fact, when a flood prevented people from performing Tawaaf, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr performed several circuits swimming. (3)

Hadhrat Qatan bin Abdullaah narrates that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr would fast for seven days continuously to the extent that his intestines dried up. Another narration from Hadhrat Hishaam bin Urwa states that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr would fast for seven days continuously and it was only when he became extremely old that he reduced it to three days. (4)

Incidents about these two great men and others will soon appear in the chapter concerning salaah, Inshaa Allaah.

Bravery

The Bravery of Our Guide Rasulullaah

Statements of Hadhrat Anas and Hadhrat Ali Concerning the Bravery of Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Anas says, "Rasulullaah was the most handsome of people, the most generous and the bravest. When a frightening sound scared the people of Madinah one night, they ventured towards the sound. However, Rasulullaah beat them to it and was already returning from the place when he met them. He was riding Hadhrat Abu Talha's bare-backed horse with a sword dangling from his neck. He assured the people saying, "There is nothing to be alarmed about. There is nothing to be alarmed about." Although the horse was known to be a lazy one, Rasulullaah commented, "He was like an ocean (moving speedily and fluidly. This happened by the blessings of Rasulullah (1).

Another narration states that when an alarm was raised in Madinah, Rasulullah borrowed Hadhrat Abu Talha's horse whose name was Mandoob. Rasulullah mounted the horse (and after investigating) he reassured the people saying, "We have seen nothing alarming but have found this horse to be like an ocean." Hadhrat Anas also said, "Whenever the battle grew furious, we always sought refuge with Rasulullah (2).

Hadhrat Ali says, "During the Battle of Badr, we sought refuge from the Mushrikeen by the side of Rasulullah because he was the most furious of fighters." (3)

Rasulullah's Bravery During the Battle of Hunayn and the Statement of Hadhrat Baraa in this Regard

Hadhurat Abu Is'haaq reports that a man from the Qais tribe once asked Hadhrat Baraa bin Aazib, "Did you people desert Rasulullah during the Battle of Hunayn?" Hadhrat Abu Is'haaq then heard Hadhrat Baraa reply, "However, Rasulullah did not desert. The Hawaazin tribe were ace archers. When we attacked them, they were defeated but when we occupied ourselves with collecting the booty, they intercepted us with a torrent of arrows. I then saw Rasulullah still on his white mule with Abu Sufyaan holding its reins. Rasulullah was saying, 'I am a Nabi without a lie'."

Another narration states that Rasulullah said:

"I am a Nabi without a lie. I am the son of Abdul Muttalib"

Yet another narration states that Rasulullah then dismounted the mule. (4)

Hadhurat Baraa also narrates, "Rasulullah then descended from his mule and prayed for assistance saying:

"I am a Nabi without a lie. I am the son of Abdul Muttalib. O Allaah! Send down Your assistance"

Hadhurat Baraa says further, "When the battle grew furious, we took refuge with Rasulullah and it was only the bravest ones who could fight by his side." (5)

In the chapter concerning the bravery of the Sahabah in Jihadaad, the incidents have already passed about the bravery of Hadhrat Abu Bakr, Umar, Ali, Talha, Zubayr, Sa'd, Hamzah, Abbaas, Mu'aadh, Ibn Umar, Mu'aadh bin Afraa, Abu

Piety and Scrupulousness

The Piety and Scrupulousness of Our Guide Rasulullaah

Hadrat Abdullaah bin Amr bin Al Aas reports that one night Rasulullaah found a date lying by his side and ate it. When he was unable to sleep that night, one of his wives asked, "O Rasulullaah! You stayed awake all night?" Rasulullaah replied, "I ate a date that I found at my side and because we had the Sadaqah dates with us, I feared that this could be one of those." (1)

The Piety and Scrupulousness of the Sahabah

The Piety and Scrupulousness of Hadhrat Abu Bakr

Hadrat Muhammad bin Seereen says that besides Hadhrat Abu Bakr, he knows of no one who forcibly vomited out the food he had just eaten. Once after eating some food he had been served, someone informed him that the food had been provided by Hadhrat Ibn Nu'aymaan. Hadhrat Abu Bakr exclaimed, "Were you feeding me the incantation fares of Ibn Nu'aymaan?!" He then forced himself to vomit. (2)

Hadrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Abu Layla reports that Hadhrat Ibn Nu'aymaan was an extremely handsome Sahabi. "Oh yes, I do," he replied. When they asked him what it was, he recited to them an incantation (which means):

"O disobedient womb!
Be still and stop spoiling blood
You are depriving her of bearing many children
If only these many children were in the disobedient womb
Because then she would bear them and recover"

In exchange for this, the people gave him a goat and some butter (after he had already become a Muslim). He then brought some of the meat to Hadhrat Abu Bakr, who ate. However, (after being informed of the incident) Hadhrat Abu Bakr stood up and forced himself to vomit. He then reprimanded, "Why do you people bring me food without informing me where it has come from?!" (3)

(2) Ahmad in his Zuhd.
(3) Baghawi, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.360).
Hadhrat Zaid bin Arqam reports that Hadhrat Abu Bakr had a slave who earned an income for him. When the slave brought some food one night and Hadhrat Abu Bakr ate a morsel, the slave asked, "What has happened to you that you have not questioned me tonight (about the source of the food) when you usually do so every night?" Hadhrat Abu Bakr replied, "It was extreme hunger that made me do it. Where did you get it from?" The slave explained, "During the Period of Ignorance, I passed by some people and (to assist them out of some difficulty, I) recited some incantations for them. They had promised to pay me and it was only today that I happened to pass by them as they were celebrating a wedding. They then gave me this food." "You would have killed me!" Hadhrat Abu Bakr exclaimed as her thrust his fingers in his mouth to vomit out the food. However, the food would not come out (because he had eaten it when he was very hungry). When someone suggested that it would come out only with water, Hadhrat Abu Bakr asked for a bowl of water and he continued vomiting out the water until the food also came out. "May Allaah have mercy on you," someone remarked, "All this trouble merely for that morsel?" Hadhrat Abu Bakr said, "I would have taken it out even if it cost me my life because I heard Rasulullaah say, 'The fire of Jahannam is most deserving of a body nourished by that which is unlawful.' I therefore feared that any part of my body should receive nourishment from that morsel." (1)

The Piety and Scrupulousness of Hadhrat Umar and Hadhrat Ali

Hadhrat Zaid bin Aslam reports that Hadhrat Umar once drank some milk and finding the taste queer, he asked the person who brought it, "Where did you get this milk from?" The person explained, "We were passing by a watering place where some zakaah camels were being watered. The herders then milked the camels for us and I put some in this water bag of mine (from which you just drank)." Hadhrat Umar then thrust his fingers into his throat and vomited the milk out. (2)

Hadhrat Miswar bin Makhrama says, "We stuck close to Hadhrat Umar to learn piety and scrupulousness from him." (3)

Hadhrat Sha'bi narrates that Hadhrat Ali was once out in Kufa when he stopped by a house and asked for water. When a little girl came out with a jug and a napkin, Hadhrat Ali asked, "Dear girl! Whose house is this?" When she informed him the person's name and that he was a coin evaluator, Hadhrat Ali said, "I have heard Rasulullaah say that one should never drink from the well of a coin evaluator and never take shade under anything

The Piety and Scrupulousness of Hadhrat Mu'aadh and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas

Hadhrat Yahya bin Sa'eed narrates that Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Jabal had two wives. (He was so particular about treating them equally that) When it was the turn of the one (to be with him), he would not even make wudhu in the house of the other. It so happened that both of them passed away on the same day from the plague that struck in Shaam. Because the people were extremely busy that day, both ladies had to be buried in one grave. Hadhrat Mu'aadh (still scrupulous about being just between them) then drew lots to decide which of the two would be placed first in the grave.

Another narration states that Hadhrat Mu'aadh had two wives and would not even drink water from the house of one of them if it was the turn of the other to be with him. (2)

Hadhrat Tawoos says, "I testify that I heard Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas say, 'I testify that I heard Hadhrat Umar recite the Talbiya.' We were standing on Arafaat when a man asked, 'Tell me when Hadhrat Umar left Arafaat.' Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas (because of his cautiousness) replied, 'I do not know.' The people were very surprised by this cautiousness of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas. (4)

Tawakkul (Trust in Allaah)

The Tawakkul of Our Guide Muhammad Rasulullaah

The Incident of a Bedouin who Wanted to Kill Rasulullaah as he Slept Beneath a Tree

Hadhrat Jaabir narrates that he accompanied Rasulullaah on an expedition to Najd. On the way back, it was the time for their siesta when they came to a valley filled with thorny trees. As the Sahabah dispersed to take shade beneath the trees, Rasulullaah also found some shade beneath a tree and hung his sword on it. Hadhrat Jaabir narrates further, "We had slept only a short while when Rasulullaah called for us. When we responded to his call, we found a Bedouin sitting with him. Rasulullaah said, 'This person drew my sword while I was asleep. When I awake, it was already drawn and in his hand as he said, 'Who will save you from me?' 'Allaah!' I replied. When he again asked, 'Who will save you from me?' I again replied, 'Allaah!' He then sheathed the sword and sat down. Rasulullaah did not punish the man.

despite what he had done. (1) Hadhrat Jaabir narrates that Rasulullaah had been fighting the Muhaarib and Ghatfaan tribes in Nakhlah (in Najd). It was at a time when the enemy found the Muslims in negligence when a man from them named Ghowrath bin Haarith approached Rasulullaah with a sword. Standing over Rasulullaah's head, he asked, "Who will save you from me?" "Allaah!" Rasulullaah replied. The sword fell from the man's hand and Rasulullaah took hold of it saying, "Now who will save you from me?" Rasulullaah asked. Ghowrath begged, "Do be a good captor." "Do you testify that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah?" Rasulullaah asked. "No," Ghowrath replied, "But I pledge that I shall never fight against you and neither join forces with anyone who fights against you." Rasulullaah then let him go. When he returned to his comrades, he said to them, "I have come to you from the best of people." The narration then continues to explain the Salaatul Khowf. (2)

The Tawakkul of the Sahabah

The Tawakkul of Ameerul Mu'mineen

Hadhrat Ali

Hadhrat Yahya bin Murrah narrates, "When Hadhrat Ali used to go to the Masjid at night to perform Nafl salah, we would also go with to guard him. After completing his salah, he would ask us, 'What are you sitting here for?' When we informed him that we were there to guard him, he asked, 'Is it against the inhabitants of the heavens that you are guarding me or against the inhabitants of the earth?' 'Only from the inhabitants of the earth,' we submitted. He then said, 'Nothing happens on earth until it is decided in the heavens. There are two angels assigned to every person who protect and guard him. However, when a predestined matter arrives, they leave him to it. I therefore have a fortified shield from Allaah which will leave me only when death arrives. No person can taste the sweetness of Imaan until he is convinced that whatever (difficulty) afflicts him would never have passed him by and whatever (good) passes him by would never have come to him in the first place.'"

Hadrat Qataadah reports that Hadhrat Ali was extremely restless throughout the last night he spent in this world. This made his family very concerned and after secretly convening, they arrived at a decision and asked him in the name of Allaah (not to leave the house). However, he said to them, "Two angels are assigned to each and every person to protect him from that which is not destined for him (and this happens as long as what is predestined does not come to him). However, when something predestined comes his way, the two angels leave him to it." Hadhrat Ali then proceeded to the Masjid and he was assassinated. (4)

Hadrat Abu Mijlaz narrates that a man from the Muraad tribe once came to see Hadrat Ali when he was busy performing salaah in the Masjid. (After Hadrat Ali completed the salaah) The man said to him, "Appoint some guards because the people of the Muraad tribe are planning to assassinate you." However, he said to them, "Two angels are assigned to each and every person to protect him from that which is not destined for him. However, when something predestined comes his way, the two angels leave him to it. One's appointed term is a fortified shield (because nothing can violate it)." (1)

Hadrat Yahya bin Katheer and others report that when people offered to guard Hadrat Ali, he said, "A person's appointed term guards him." (2)

Hadrat Muhammad Baqir reports that two men presented their dispute to Hadrat Ali for judgement. When he sat at the base of a wall, one of the men cautioned, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! That wall is going to fall." Hadrat Ali reassured him saying, "Continue. Allaah suffices as a protector." When Hadrat Ali had passed judgment and stood up, the wall fell down. (3)

The Tawakkul of Hadrat Abdullaah bin Mas'oood

Hadrat Abu Dhabiyya reports that when Hadrat Abdullaah bin Mas'oood was on his deathbed, Hadrat Uthmaan bin Affaan visited him. "What is the problem?" Hadrat Uthmaan asked. "My problem is my sins," Hadrat Abdullaah bin Mas'oood replied. Hadrat Uthmaan asked further, "What do you wish for?" Hadrat Abdullaah bin Mas'oood replied, "For the mercy of my Rabb." Hadrat Uthmaan then asked, "Should I not have a physician see you?" (Referring to the fact that Allaah is the greatest of curers,) Hadrat Abdullaah bin Mas'oood said, "It was the physician (Allaah) Who gave me the illness."

Hadrat Uthmaan further asked, "Should I then not have an allowance fixed." "I have no need for an allowance," Hadrat Abdullaah bin Mas'oood assured him. "But it would belong to your daughters after your demise," Hadrat Uthmaan explained. "Do you fear that my daughters would suffer poverty after my death?" Hadrat Abdullaah bin Mas'oood asked in surprise. He then continued, "I have instructed my daughters to recite Surah Waaqi'ah every night because I have heard Rasulullaah say that poverty shall never ever afflict the person who recites Surah Waaqi'ah every night." (4)

Incidents similar to this concerning Hadrat Abu Bakr and Hadrat Abu Dardaa have passed in the chapter concerning exercising patience during illness.

Being Content with Allaah's Decision

The Statements of Hadhrat Umar ﷺ, Hadhrat Abu Dharr ﷺ, Hadhrat Ali ﷺ and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood ﷺ in this Regard

Hadhrat Umar ﷺ once said, "I care not how my morning goes, whether it be in a manner that I like or in a manner that I dislike because I know not whether goodness is in what I like or in what I dislike." (1)

Hadhrat Hasan reports that someone once said to Hadhrat Ali ﷺ, "Abu Dharr ﷺ says that he prefers poverty to riches and illness to good health." To this, Hadhrat Ali ﷺ remarked, "May Allaah have mercy on Abu Dharr. My opinion is that the person who relies on Allaah's good choice for him will never wish to be in a condition other than that which Allaah has chosen for him. This is the highest level of contentment with the decision of Allaah." (2)

It was also Hadhrat Ali ﷺ who said, "Whoever is happy with what Allaah decides will have Allaah's decision pass over him together with being rewarded. On the other hand, whoever is unhappy with what Allaah decides will still have Allaah's decision pass over him but his deeds will be laid to waste." (3)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood ﷺ once said, "On the Day of Qiyaamah, each and every person will wish that in this world he had only that much of food which he could subsist on. The conditions a person experiences each morning and evening in this world will be detrimental to him only if his heart is filled with anger and discontentment. Furthermore, it is better for any on you to bite on a coal and burn himself rather than say about anything that Allaah had decreed, 'If only that had not happened.'" (4)

Hadhrat Ali ﷺ Addresses the People in a Graveyard and His Statement Concerning Taqwa

Hadhrat Kumayl bin Ziyaad says that he was once with Hadhrat Ali ﷺ when they reached a graveyard. Turning towards the graves, Hadhrat Ali ﷺ said, "O inhabitants of the grave! O inhabitants of the place of decay! O inhabitants of the place of loneliness! What news have you! The news from us is that your wealth has already been distributed, your children have become orphans and your wives have remarried. That is the news that we have. What news have you?"

Hadhrat Ali ﷺ then turned and said, "O Kumayl! Had they been permitted to

Hadrat Qais bin Abu Haazim reports that Hadrat Ali said, "Give more importance to having your deeds accepted than to Taqwa because while a deed with Taqwa can never be undermined, how can one that is accepted ever be undermined?" (2) Another narration states that Hadrat Ali said, "When a deed with Taqwa can never be undermined, how can one that is accepted ever be undermined?" (3)

The Statements of Hadrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood, Hadrat Abu Dardaa and Hadrat Ubay bin Ka'b Concerning Taqwa

Hadrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood said, "The knowledge that Allaah has accepted even a single deed of mine is more beloved to me than the earth full of gold." (4)

Hadrat Abu Dardaa said, "How grand is the sleep of the intelligent ones (who prepare for the Aakhirah) and their days without fasting! How won't they object to the waking nights and fasts of the foolish ones (who have no concern for the Aakhirah). An atom's weight of good that a person with Taqwa and conviction carries out is greater, more rewarding and more likely to be accepted than a mountain's weight of worship carried out by the negligent ones." (5)

Hadrat Abu Dardaa also said, "For me to know with certainty that Allaah has accepted even one salaah of mine is more beloved to me than the entire world and its contents because Allaah says:

\[
\text{إِنَّمَا يَتَقَلَّبُ الَّذِينَ مِنَ الْمُتَقِينِ} \\ \text{(سُورَةُ مَائِدَةَ،} \\ \text{آيَةٌ ۱۷)}

Allaah accepts only from those with Taqwa. {Surah Maa'idah, verse 27} (6)

Hadrat Ubay bin Ka'b said, "Whenever a person leaves out something for the pleasure of Allaah, Allaah grants him something much better from sources he does not expect. However, when someone is careless and takes things without knowledge (of the legality of sources), Allaah afflicts him with difficulties from sources he does not expect." (7)

Another narration states that when Hadhrat Umar commented that Rasulullaah was getting white hairs very early, Rasulullaah said, "Surah Hood and its companions, namely Waaqi'ah, Amma Yatasa'a'aloon and Idhash Shamsu Kuwwirat have given me these white hairs." (2)

Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed Khudri narrates that Rasulullaah said, "How can I possibly enjoy life when the one with the horn (the angel Hadhrat Israafeel) already has it between his lips with his head bent forward and straining his ears in anticipation of the command (to blow the horn to announce the Day of Qiyaamah)." "O Rasulullaah" the Sahabah asked, "What should we say?" Rasulullaah replied, "You should recite:

'Allaah is Sufficient for us and He is the best of all Guardians. It is solely in Allaah that we trust'. (3)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar narrates that Rasulullaah fell unconscious when he heard someone recite the verse:

The Fear of the Sahabah

An Incident of a Young Ansaari

Hadhrat Sahl bin Sa'd narrates that when the fear for Allaah gripped a young Ansaari, he wept so much every time he heard mention of Jahannam that this kept him indoors. When this was mentioned to Rasulullaah, he went to the house. As Rasulullaah entered, he embraced the Ansaari, who then expired (in Rasulullaah's arms). Rasulullaah then said, "Enshroud your companion because fear has ruptured his liver." (5)

Hadhrat Hudhayfah has reported a similar narration with the addition that when the youngster saw Rasulullaah, he stood up, embraced Rasulullaah and then fell down dead. Rasulullaah then said, "Enshroud your companion because fear for Jahannam has ruptured his liver. I swear by the Being Who controls my life that Allaah has saved him from it. Whoever aspires for something shall seek it and whoever fears something shall run away from it." (6)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas narrates that after it was revealed to

O you who have Imaan! Save yourselves and your families from the Fire (of Jahannam), the fuel of which is people and stones. (Surah Taheer, verse 6)

A young Sahabi  then fell unconscious. When Rasulullaah ﷺ placed his hand on the Sahabi's heart, it was racing. Rasulullaah ﷺ said to him, "Dear boy! Recite 'Laa Ilaaha Illallaah.'" When he recited it, Rasulullaah ﷺ gave him the glad tidings of Jannah. The other Sahabah then asked, "Does this apply to all of us (or is it exclusively for him)." Rasulullaah ﷺ replied, "Have you not read the verse:

This (promise) is for him who fears standing before Me (on the Day of Qiyaamah) and who fears My warning (of punishment). (Surah Ibraheem, verse 12)

The Statements of Hadhrat Umar ﷺ and Hadhrat Abu Bakr ﷺ Concerning Fear and Hope

Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Musayyib reports that when Hadhrat Umar ﷺ once fell ill, Rasulullaah ﷺ went to visit him. "How are you feeling, O Umar?" Rasulullaah ﷺ asked. "I have hope (in Allaah's mercy) as well as fear (for Allaah's punishment)." Rasulullaah ﷺ then said, "Whenever fear and hope are coupled in the heart of a Mu'min, Allaah grants him his hope and saves him from his fear." (2)

Hadhrat Hasan narrates that Hadhrat Abu Bakr ﷺ once said, "Do you not see that Allaah mentions the verses of ease together with those of hardship and the verses of difficulty together with those of ease so that a Mu'min may be hopeful (in Allaah's mercy) as well as fearful (for Allaah's punishment)? In this manner, he will never have such hopes in Allaah that are unfounded and will also not throw himself into destruction." (3)

Other incidents concerning the fear that Hadhrat Abu Bakr ﷺ and Hadhrat Umar ﷺ had for Allaah have passed in the chapter entitled "The Fear that the Khulafaa had for Allaah".

Hadhrat Qataadah narrates that Hadhrat Imraan bin Husayn也算过说，“我愿我是一个山顶上的沙粒，被风吹走。”

Hadhrat Qataadah also narrates that Hadhrat Imraan bin Husayn也算过说，“我愿我是一个被风吹走的沙粒。”

The Fear of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood

Hadrat Ameer bin Masrooq narrates that someone once mentioned in the presence of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood也算过说，“我不要成为'As'haabul Yameen'，我愿成为'Muqarrabeen'。”

To this, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood也算过说，“然而，我就是你自己，我希望不重新生后才决定选择哪一方，更不用说想成为某一群的人。”

Another narration from Hadhrat Hasan states that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood也算过说，“如果我处于天堂和地狱之间，然后被告诉，‘选择进入其中的一个，或者变成尘土’，我宁愿变成尘土。”（因为他的谦逊感，他觉得自己不配进入天堂）

The Fear of Hadhrat Abu Dharr

Hadhrat Abu Dardaa和Hadrat Abdullaah bin Umar也算过说，“如果某人知道你我都知道的东西，他不会接近你的妻子，也不会在你床上休息。如果某人知道我所知道的东西，他会让造物主把我变成一棵被砍倒的树，它的果实被吃掉。”

Hadhrat Hizaam bin Hakeem reports that Hadhrat Abu Dardaa也算过说，“如果你知道你死后会看到什么，你不会从吃喝中得到乐趣，你不会回到家中寻求荫凉，你会在平原上哭泣，亲吻自己，然后在尘土中死去。”

The Fear of Hadhrat Mu'aadhd and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar

Hadhrat Tawoos reports, "When Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Jabal came to our land, our scholars said to him, 'If you just give the word, we shall take these rocks and trees and build a Masjid for you.' Hadhrat Mu'aadh replied, 'I fear that I may be made to carry it on my back on the Day of Qiyaamah.'" (4) Hadhrat Naafi says, "When Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar entered the Kabah, I heard him say the following when he was in Sajdah: 'O Allaah! You know that it is only my fear for You that prevents me from opposing the Quraysh for their position in this world.'" (5) Hadhrat Abu Haazim narrates that when Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar passed by a man from Iraq who had fallen down (unconscious), he asked, "What is the matter with him?" The people said, "This happens to him every time the Qur'aan is recited to him." Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar remarked, "Although we also fear Allaah, we never fall down." (6)

The Fear of Hadhrat Shaddaad bin Aws Ansaari

It is reported that whenever Hadhrat Shaddaad bin Aws Ansaari lay on the bed, he would turn from side to side without being able to fall asleep. He would then say, "O Allaah! The fire of Jahannam has dispelled my sleep." Thereafter, he would stand up and perform salaah until the morning. (7)

The Fear of Ummul Mu'mineen Hadhrat Aa'isha

Hadhrat Amr bin Salamah narrates that Hadhrat Aa'isha said, "By Allaah! I wish that I were a tree. By Allaah! I wish that I were sand. By Allaah! I wish that Allaah had not created me at all."

Another narration states when Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas came to Hadhrat Aa'isha before her death, he praised her saying, "Glad tidings for you, O wife of Rasulullaah. Weeping

The Weeping of Our Guide Muhammad Rasulullaah

Hadhurat Abduallah bin Mas‘ood reports, "Rasulullaah once said to me, 'Recite (the Qur‘aan) to me.' I replied, 'How can I recite to you when it was to you that the Qur‘aan was revealed?' Rasulullaah said, 'I would like to hear the Qur‘aan recited by someone else.' I then recited Surah Nisaa until I reached the verse:

\[
\text{(سورة النساء آية 41)}
\]

How will it be (the condition of the Kuffaar on the Day of Qiyaamah) when We shall bring forth a witness from every nation (the Ambiyaa of every community who will testify against the Kuffaar) and call you (O Muhammad) to be a witness over all of them? {Surah Nisaa, verse 41}

Rasulullaah then said, 'That's enough.' When I then looked up, I saw that tears were flowing from his eyes." (2)

Some other narration shall appear in the chapter concerning salaah, Inshaa Allaah.

The Weeping of the Sahabah

The Men of Suffa Weep when a Verse is Revealed

Hadhurat Abu Hurayrah narrates that the men of Suffa wept excessively when Allaah revealed the verse:

\text{(سورة النجم} آية 59)

Are you astonished about this speech (the Qur‘aan) and do you laugh (at it out of ridicule) instead of crying (out of fear for the warnings it sounds)? {Surah Najm, verses 59,60}

They wept so much that tears flowed on their cheeks. Hearing them, Rasulullaah also started weeping and seeing him weep, the other Sahabah also wept. Rasulullaah then said, "The person who weeps out of fear for Allaah shall never enter Jahannam and the person who sins persistently shall never enter Jannah. However, if you never sin, Allaah shall create a nation that does sin and He will then forgive them (when they repent sincerely because He loves to forgive)." (3)

An Abyssinian Weeps In front of Rasulullaah when he Recited a verse of the Qur'aan

Hadhrat Anas narrates that Rasulullaah once recited the verse:

\[ \text{وَقُودُوا النَّاسَ وَالْحَجَارَةُ} \]

...(The fire of Jahannam) the fuel of which is people and stones...

\{Surah Tahreem, verse 6\}

Rasulullaah then said, "The Fire of Jahannam was stoked for a thousand years until it became red. It was then stoked for another thousand years until it became white. Thereafter, it was again stoked for a thousand years until it became black. It is now pitch black and dark and its flames cannot be extinguished." In front of Rasulullaah was an Abyssinian man who then started to weep very loudly. Hadhrat Jibra'eel then descended and asked (Rasulullaah), "Who is this man weeping in front of you?" Rasulullaah informed Hadhrat Jibra'eel that the man was from Abyssinia and also praised the man. Hadhrat Jibra'eel then told Rasulullaah that Allaah said, "I swear by My honour, by My power and by My exaltedness over My throne that whenever the eye of My servant weeps in this world out of fear for Me, I shall definitely increase his laughter in Jannah." (1)

The Weeping of Hadhrat Abu Bakr and Hadhrat Umar

Hadhrat Qais bin Abu Haazim says, "I once went to see Rasulullaah and found that Hadhrat Abu Bakr had already taken his place (had become the Khalifah). (In his address to the people) Hadhrat Abu Bakr praised Allaah tremendously and wept excessively." (2)

Hadhrat Hasan bin Muhammad bin Ali bin Abi Taalib states that during the Friday sermon, Hadhrat Umar used to recite the Surah until he reached the verse:

\[ \text{عَلِيمُ الْأَخْبَارِ} \]

On that day every soul will know what (actions) it had presented.

\{Surah Takweer, verse 14\}

At this point, his voice would stop (because of his excessive weeping). (3)

Hadhrat Hasan narrates that Hadhrat Umar once recited the verse:

\[ \text{إِنَّ عَذَابَ رَبِّكَ لَوَاقِعٌ مَّا لَكُمْ مِنْ ڈَافِعِ} \]

Indeed, the punishment of your Rabb shall take place and there shall be none to avert it. \{Surah Toor, verses 7,8\}

After reciting it, his voice ballooned (because of the emotion. This caused him to fall ill and) because of it, people were visiting him for twenty days. (1) Hadhrat Ubayd bin Umayr reports that Hadhrat Umar once led them in the Fajr salaah and started reciting Surah Yusuf. However, he started weeping and had to stop when he reached the verse:

(Referring to Hadhrat Ya’qoob, Allaah says) His eyes had turned white (blind) with sorrow (because of excessive crying) and he was suppressing it (his sorrow) all the time. {Surah Yusuf, verse 84}

Hadrhat Umar then went into Ruku. (2)

Hadrhat Abdullaah bin Shaddaad bin Haad narrates that even while standing in the last rows of the congregation, he could hear the sobbing of Hadrhat Umar during the Fajr salaah. Hadrhat Umar was reciting Surah Yusuf and (because of his excessive weeping, he had to stop when he) reached the verse:

I complain of my sorrow and my grief only to Allaah. {Surah Yusuf, verse 86}(3)

Hadrhat Hishaam bin Hasan narrates that Hadrhat Umar would sometimes recite a verse of the Qur’aan that would choke him (with emotion). He would then weep so much that he would fall down. (Because of weakness) He would then have to stay indoors and people would visit him thinking him to be ill. (4)

The Weeping of Hadrhat Uthmaan

Hadrhat Haani who was the freed slave of Hadrhat Uthmaan bin Affaan says that whenever Hadrhat Uthmaan stopped at a graveyard, he would weep so much that his beard would get wet. Someone once asked him, "You do not weep when you think of Jannah and Jahannam but weep when you think of the grave?" He replied, "I have heard Rasulullaah say, 'The grave is the first stage from amongst the many stages of the Aakhirah. If one is successful there, the later stages are easier. However, if one is unsuccessful there, the later stages will be extremely difficult.'" Hadrhat Uthmaan also added, "I have also heard Rasulullaah say that he had never seen a sight more frightening than that of the grave." In his narration, Hadrhat Haani adds that he heard Hadrhat Uthmaan recite the following couplet by a grave (which means):

If you are saved from this (the punishment in the grave), then you are saved from something enormous

If not, then I do not think that you will be saved (from future torment)" (5)

The Weeping of Hadhrat Mu'aadh

Hadrat Abdullaah bin Umar narrates that Hadrat Umar once passed by Hadrat Mu'aadh bin Jabal who was weeping. "What makes you weep?" Hadrat Umar enquired. Hadrat Mu'aadh replied, "A Hadith that I heard from Rasulullah (which states that); 'Indeed the tiniest amount of ostentation is tantamount to Shirk and the people most beloved to Allaah are those with Taqwa who are anonymous. They are those who will not be missed if they are not there and will not be recognised when they are present. These people are the torchbearers of guidance and the beacons of knowledge."(1)

The Weeping of Hadrat Abdullaah bin Umar

Hadrat Abdullaah bin Umar was once reciting the Surah (Surah Mutaffifeen). However, he started weeping when he reached the verse:

...the day when all of mankind will stand before the Rabb of the universe (to account for their actions and words)? {Surah Mutaffifeen, verse 6}

He wept so much that he fell down and was unable to recite further. (2)

Hadrat Naafi reports that there was not a single occasion when Hadrat Abdullaah bin Umar did not weep when reciting the following verses of Surah Baqarah:

Whether you make known what is in your hearts or hide it, Allaah will bring you to account for it (will remind you of it on the Day of Qiyaamah). He forgives whoever He wills and punishes whoever He wills. Allaah has control over all things. {Surah Baqarah, verse 284}

He would then say, "Verily, this accountability is a grave matter." (3)

Hadrat Naafi also reports that Hadrat Abdullaah bin Umar would cry uncontrollably whenever he recited the verse:

Has the time not come for the hearts of the Mu'mineen to submit to Allaah's remembrance? {Surah Hadeed, verse 16}(4)

Hadrat Yusuf bin Maahak says, "I walked with Hadrat Abdullaah bin Umar to Hadrat Ubayd bin Umayr who was busy lecturing to some of Hadhrat Ubayd bin Umayr once recited the verse:

\[
فَكُفْفُ إِذًا جَنَّةَ مِنْ كُلِّ أَمْوَةٍ مَّيْتِينَ وَجَنَّابَكَ عَلَى هَؤُلَاءِ مَنِيدًا

(سورة نساء آية 41)

How will it be (the condition of the Kuffaar on the Day of Qiyaamah) when We shall bring forth a witness from every nation (the Ambiyaah of every community who will testify against the Kuffaar) and call you (O Muhammad) to be a witness over all of them? {Surah Nisaa, verse 41}

(Upon hearing this verse) Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar started weeping so profusely that his beard and collar became wet with tears. Hadhrat Abdullaah says, "The man sitting beside Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar said to me, 'I actually contemplated getting up and telling Hadhrat Ubayd bin Umayr to curtail his talk because of the difficulty he was causing the elderly man (Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar)."

The Weeping of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas and Hadhrat Ubaadah bin Saamit

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abu Mulaykah says, "I accompanied Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas from Makkah to Madinah and wherever he set up camp, he stood in salaah for half the night." When Hadhrat Ayyoob asked him what Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas's recitation of the Qur'aan was like, he replied, "He once cried painfully as he continuously recited the following verse with slow intonation:

\[
وَجَاقَتْ سَكْرَةُ الْمَوْتِ بِالْحَقِّ ذِلْكَ مَا كَانَتْ مِنِّهَا تَحَدَّثُ (سورة قاف آية 19)

Hadrat Abu Rajaa says, "The lines on the face of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas where his tears ran resembled two old shoe straps." (4)

Hadrat Uthmaan bin Abu Saudah says that he once saw Hadhrat Ubaadah bin Saamit on the wall of the Masjid that (Allaah showed Rasulullah a vantage point that) overlooked a valley of Jannah. His chest was upon the wall and he was weeping. "O Abu Waleed!" Hadrat Uthmaan asked, "What makes you weep so?" Hadhrat Ubaadah replied, "Rasulullah informed us that it

The Weeping of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr ﺑﻰ ﺪت ﺿ and Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah ﺑﻰ ﺪت ﺿ

Hadhrat Ya'la bin Ataa reports from his mother who made kohl for Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr ﺑﻰ ﺪت ﺿ that he wept excessively. In fact, he would lock his door and weep so much that he developed a condition that caused his eyes to secrete a white fluid all the time. Hadhrat Ya'la says that it was for this reason that his mother prepared the kohl for Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr ﺑﻰ ﺪت ﺿ.(2)

Hadhrat Muslim bin Bishr reports that when Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah ﺑﻰ ﺶ ﺿ was weeping during his illness (before his death), someone asked him what it was that made him weep. He replied, "Take note that it is not for this world of yours that I am weeping. I am weeping because of the long journey ahead and the deficiency of my provisions. I have now climbed a rise that leads down either to Jannah or to Jahannam and I know not towards which of the two I shall be heading." (3)

Contemplation and Meditation

The Contemplation and Meditation of the Sahabah ﺑﻰ ﺪت ﺿ

The Deep Meditation of Hadhrat Abu Rayhaanah ﺑﻰ ﺶ ﺿ

Hadhrat Dhamrah bin Habeeb reports from a freed slave of the Sahabi Hadhrat Abu Rayhaanah ﺑﻰ ﺶ ﺿ that when Hadhrat Abu Rayhaanah ﺑﻰ ﺶ ﺿ once returned from a military expedition, he ate supper, made wudhu and then stood (to perform salaah) at the place where he performed salaah. He started reciting a Surah of the Qur'aan and stood rooted to the spot until the Mu'adhin called out the Adhaan (for the Fajr salaah). "O Abu Rayhaanah!" his wife said, "You have just marched on an expedition that was extremely exhausting. Thereafter, you returned (and engrossed yourself in salaah without a thought for me). Is there no share for us (in your time)︖" Hadhrat Abu Rayhaanah ﺑﻰ ﺶ ﺿ replied, "By Allaah! Of course there is a share for you in my time, if I had only thought of you." "Then what was it that preoccupied you (from thinking of me)︖" she asked. He replied, "Deep meditation about the descriptions Allaah has given about Jannah and its pleasures had engrossed my mind until I heard the Muadhin." (4)

The Meditation of Hadhrat Abu Dharr ﺑﻰ ﺶ ﺿ

Hadhrat Muhammad bin Waasi narrates that a man rode from Basrah to see Hadhrat Ummu Dharr ﺑﻰ ﺶ ﺿ after the demise of (her husband) Hadhrat Abu Dharr ﺑﻰ ﺶ ﺿ to ask her about the Ibaadah of Hadhrat Abu Dharr ﺑﻰ ﺶ ﺿ. When

The Meditation of Hadhrat Abu Dardaa 💫

Hadhrat Aun bin Abdullaah bin Utba reports that he once asked Hadhrat Ummu states that when she was asked about the deed that Hadhrat Abu Dardaa 💫 did most frequently, she replied, "Heeding to lessons." Yet another narration states that her reply was, "Meditation." (2)

Hadhrat Abu Dardaa 💫 once said, "Meditation for a moment is better than Hadhrat Abu Dardaa 💫 also said, "Amongst people there are those who are then also those who are the keys to evil and locks of good. They will be terribly punished. Meditation for a moment is better than standing in salaah an entire Hadhrat Habeeb bin Abdullaah narrates that a man intending to march in Jihaad came to Hadhrat Abu Dardaa 💫 for advice. Hadhrat Abu Dardaa 💫 said, "Think of Allaah in prosperity and He will think of you when you are in Hadhurat Anas reports, "I was one day with Hadhurat Umar bin Khattaab when he went into an orchard. There was a wall between us and he was standing in the middle of the orchard when I heard him say (to himself), 'O Ameerul Mu'mineen! By Allaah! You should fear Allaah or He will definitely punish you.'" ^2

Remaining silent and Guarding the Tongue

The Silence of our Guide Rasulullaah

In a lengthy narration, Hadhrat Smaak says that he once asked Hadhrat Jaabir bin Samurah, "Did you associate often with Nabi?" Hadhrat Jaabir replied, "Yes. He was a person who often remained silent." ^3

Hadhurat Abu Maalik Ashja'ee reports that his father said, "We were little boys when we used to sit in the company of Rasulullaah and have never seen anyone remain silent as much as Rasulullaah did. Whenever his companions would talk too much, he merely smiled." ^4

Hadhurat Ubaadah bin Saamit narrates that Rasulullaah was once out with his companions. As he rode, one of them stepped out ahead of him. Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Jabal said, "O Rasulullaah! I pray that Allaah takes our lives before yours. May Allaah never show us the day (of your demise), but should we see it, what deeds should we carry out after you? May my parents be sacrificed for you, O Rasulullaah! Should it be Jihaad in the path of Allaah?" Rasulullaah replied, "Jihaad in the path of Allaah is an excellent deed, but people have become accustomed to it. (What you should be doing is) Something that exercises greater restraint (on the carnal self)." "Then fasting and Sadaqah?" Hadhrat Mu'aadh asked. "Fasting and Sadaqah are an excellent deeds," Rasulullaah commented, "but people have become accustomed to it. (What you should be doing is) Something that exercises greater restraint (on the carnal self)."

Hadhurat Mu'aadh then went on to mention every type of good deed, but each time Rasulullaah's reply was, "But people have become accustomed to it. (What you should be doing is) Something that exercises greater restraint (on the carnal self)." Hadhrat Mu'aadh eventually asked, "If people have become accustomed to these deeds, what is that thing that exercises greater restraint (on the carnal self)?" Pointing to his mouth, Rasulullaah said, "Remaining silent at all times save when speaking what is good." "Will we be taken to task for what our tongues speak?" Hadhrat Mu'aadh asked in surprise. Striking his hand on Hadhrat Mu'aadh's thigh, Rasulullaah said something like, "Your mother ought to have lost you!" He then added, "It is because of what the tongue speaks that people will be thrown headlong into Jahannam. Whoever believes in Allah and the Last Day should speak only what is good or remain silent about evil. Speak what is good and you will reap the rewards. Remain silent about evil and you will be safe." (1)

The Silence of the Sahabah

Rasulullaah says about a Martyr, "He may have mentioned something that was futile"

Hadrath Abu Hurayrah narrates that when someone was martyred, a lady was weeping over him saying, "Oh dear martyr!" Addressing her, Rasulullaah said, "Stop saying that. How do you know that he is a martyr (and is guaranteed immediate access into Jannah)? He may have mentioned something that was futile or was miserly with something that would not have cost him anything." (2)

In another narration, Hadrath Anas states that when one of the Sahabah was martyred during the Battle of Uhud, a rock was found tied to his belly (which he had tied) because of hunger. Wiping the dust off his face, his mother said, "Glad tidings for you, O beloved son of Jannah." Addressing her, Rasulullaah said, "How do you know that he is a martyr (and is guaranteed immediate access into Jannah)? He may have mentioned something that was futile or refused something that would not have harmed him (to part with)." (3)

The silence of Hadrath Ammaar, Hadrath Mu'aadh and the statement of Hadrath Abu Bakr

Hadrath Khaalid bin Numayr says, "Hadrath Ammaar bin Yaasir often remained silent for prolonged periods of time and always seemed depressed. (When he did speak, he was mostly seeking Allaah's protection from trials)." (4)

Hadrath Abu Idress Khowlani says, "I once entered the Masjid of Damascus when my eyes caught sight of a man with sparkling front teeth. He was a very quiet man and whenever the people with him disagreed on some issue, they referred it to him and readily accepted his verdict. When I enquired who he was, I was

Hadhrat Aslam narrates that when Hadhrat Umar (2) once found Hadhrat Abu Bakr (3) pulling at his tongue, he asked, "What are you doing, O Khalifah of Rasulullaah?" Hadhrat Abu Bakr replied, "There is not a part of the body that does not complain of the sharpness of the tongue." (2)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood (4) and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas (5) rebuke their Tongues

Hadhrat Abu Waa'il narrates that when Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood (6) once climbed Mount Safa, he caught hold of his tongue saying, "O tongue! Speak what is good and reap the rewards. Shun speaking evil and you will remain safe before having to regret." He then narrated, "I have heard Rasulullaah say, 'Most of man's sins stem from the tongue.' (3)

Hadhrat Sa'eed Jararee reports from a man who said, "I once saw Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas (7) holding the point of his tongue as he said, 'Shame on you! Speak what is good and reap the rewards. Shun speaking evil and you will remain safe.' Someone then asked, 'O Ibn Abbaas! Why do I see you holding your tongue and saying that?' Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas (8) replied, 'The news has reached me that on the Day of Qiyaamah a person will be more angry with his tongue than with anything else.' (4)

The Silence of Hadhrat Shaddaad bin Aws (9) after he pledged allegiance at the hand of Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Thaabit Bunaani narrates that Hadhrat Shaddaad bin Aws (10) once said to one of his companions, "Lay the tablecloth so that we may dig in to it!" Another of his companions said in surprise, "I have never heard you speak like that since I have come to know you." Hadhrat Shaddaad (11) said, "Since I separated from Rasulullaah (12), every statement I have made was a harnessed one (said with much thought). By Allaah! Another like this shall never again escape." (5)

Hadhrat Sulaymaan bin Moosa reports that Hadhrat Shaddaad bin Aws (13) once said, "Lay the tablecloth so that we may frolic with it." The people with him immediately picked at his words saying, "Look at Abu Ya'la (Hadhrat Shaddaad (14)'s title)! What a statement has come from him!" Hadhrat Shaddaad then said, "Dear son of my brother! Since the time I pledged allegiance at Rasulullaah (15)'s hand, every statement I have made had been a harnessed one, except for this one. Come, forget this and let me tell you something better

We also beseech You for the good You are aware of and for protection from the evil You know about.' Learn this from me and forget the other words (I said without thinking)." (1)

Another narration states that Hadhrat Shaddaad added, "Do not learn these words from me, but rather learn what I shall narrate to you that I heard Rasulullaah say, 'When people started hoarding treasures of gold and silver, fill your treasures with the words: 'O Allaah! We seek steadfastness in our affairs and the resolve to do good.'" Hadhrat Shaddaad then mentioned words like the narration above before adding, "(O Allaah) I seek forgiveness from You from the sins You know I have committed, for You are the One who knows well all that is hidden." (2)

The statement of Hadhrat Abdullah bin Mas'oood About the Dangers of the tongue

Hadrat Isa bin Uqba narrates that Hadhrat Abdullah bin Mas'oood once said, "I swear by the Being besides Whom there is none worthy of worship that nothing on earth is more deserving of a long prison sentence than the tongue." (3)

Hadrat Abdullah bin Mas'oood once said, "Beware of futile speech. All you need to say it that which would get your needs fulfilled." (4) Another narration states that Hadhrat Abdullah bin Mas'oood said, "The people guilty of the most sins on the Day of Qiyaamah shall be those who most engaged in idle talk." (5)

Hadrat Ali and Hadhrat Abu Dardaa encourage Silence

Hadrat Ali said, "The tongue is the basis of the body's well-being. When the tongue is upright, the other limbs are all upright. However, as soon as the tongue is out of control, no other limb stays under control." Another narration states that he once said, "Keep a low profile and you will not be talked about (thus saving you from pride). Remain silent and you will remain safe." Another narration states that he said, "Silence invites towards Jannah." It was also Hadhrat Ali who mentioned the following couplets (which mean):

Hadhrat Abu Dardaa ١١٨٨٠ once said, "Learn to remain silent just as you learn to speak because silence is a great source of self-control. You ought to be more interested in listening than speaking and should never speak about things that do not concern you. You should also not laugh when there is nothing to laugh about or go somewhere you do not have to go." (2)

Hadhrat Abu Dardaa ١١٨٨٠ also said, "There is no limb of a Mu'min that Allaah loves more than his tongue because it is by means of this that he will enter Jannah. At the same time, there is no limb of a Kaafir that Allaah hates more than his tongue because it is by means of this that he will enter Jahannam." (3)

The Statements of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ١١٨٠ and Hadhrat Anas ١١٨٠ about Guarding the Tongue

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ١١٨٠ said, "The limb that a person most needs to purify is his tongue." (4)

Hadhrat Anas ١١٨٠ said, "A person can never have Taqwa until he controls his tongue." (5)

Speech

The Speech of Rasulullaah ١١٦٩

The Sahabah Describe the Speech of Rasulullaah ١١٦٩

Hadhrat Aa'isha ١١٩٠ says, "Rasulullaah ١١٦٩'s speech was such (so clear) that if anyone wished to count the words, they could have easily done so." She also mentioned, "Shall I not surprise you? A certain person actually came and spoke to Rasulullaah ١١٦٩ beside my room so loudly that I could hear him talk as I was busy with my salaah. He then left before I could complete my salaah. Had I been able to find him before that, I would have certainly given him a piece of my mind." She then added, "Rasulullaah ١١٦٩ never spoke continuously and quickly as you people do." (6)

In another narration, Hadhrat Aa'isha ١١٩٠ says, "Rasulullaah ١١٦٩'s speech was so clear that everyone could understand it. He would never speak continuously and quickly." (7)

It was Hadhrat Jaabir ١١٩٠ or Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ١١٨٠ who said,

"Rasulullaah’s speech was crisp, with every letter distinctly pronounced." (1)

Hadhrat Anas reports, "When Rasulullaah spoke anything (of marked importance), he would repeat it thrice and whenever he approached a gathering, he would greet thrice." (2)

Hadhrat Thumamah bin Anas narrates that whenever Hadhrat Anas spoke (something of importance), he repeated himself thrice and would say that when Rasulullaah greeted with Salaam (to seek permission to enter a home), he did so thrice (3) and when he spoke (something of great importance), he would repeat it thrice. (4) Hadhrat Anas also reported that when Rasulullaah spoke, he would repeat himself thrice so that people could understand what he was saying." (5)

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah narrates that Rasulullaah once said, "I have been sent with concise yet comprehensive speech and have been assisted with awe. When I was sleeping once, the keys to the treasures of the heavens and the earth were brought to me and placed in my hand." (6)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Salaam reports, "When Rasulullaah sat down to talk, he would often look towards the sky (in anticipation of revelation)." (7)

Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas Regrets the Many Questions he Posed to Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas says, "Even when speaking to the worst of people, Rasulullaah would turn his full attention to the person so that (they would feel special and) their hearts would be won over. When speaking to me, Rasulullaah also turned his full attention towards me until I eventually felt that I was the best of all the Sahabah. 'O Rasulullaah!' I once asked, 'Am I better or Abu Bakr?' 'Abu Bakr,' came the reply. 'O Rasulullaah!' I asked further, 'Am I better or Umar?' When Rasulullaah replied that Umar was better, I pursued the enquiry saying, 'O Rasulullaah! Am I better or Uthmaan?' 'Uthmaan,' he replied. After asking Rasulullaah and after he had been truthful to me, I wished that I had never asked him these questions." (8)

Hadhrat Abdullah bin Haarith bin Jaz says, "I have never seen anyone smile as much as Rasulullaah." In another narration, he says, "Rasulullaah never laughed but only smiled." (2)

Hadhrat Simaak bin Harb reports that he once asked Hadhrat Jaabir bin Samurah, "Were you frequently in the company of Rasulullaah?" Hadhrat Jaabir replied, "Yes, I was often in his company. He never stood up from his place of performing the Fajr salaah until the sun rose. He would then get up while the Sahabah were sometimes discussing events that occurred during the Period of Ignorance. As they laughed, Rasulullaah would merely smile." (3)

In another narration, Hadhrat Simaak bin Harb reports that he once asked Hadhrat Jaabir bin Samurah, "Were you frequently in the company of Rasulullaah?" Hadhrat Jaabir replied, "Yes. He often remained silent and would laugh very little. The Sahabah would often recite poetry to him and when he said something that made them laugh, he would merely smile." (4)

Hadhrat Husayn bin Yazeed Kalbi says, "I have never seen Rasulullaah laugh. He would only smile. There were also times when he would have to tie a rock to his belly because of extreme hunger." (5)

Hadhraat Amrah questions Hadhrat Aa'isha about Rasulullaah's Domestic Life

Hadhraat Amrah reports that she once asked Hadhrat Aa'isha about Rasulullaah's behaviour when he was alone with his wives. Hadhrat Aa'isha replied, "He was like any other man except for the fact that he was the noblest of them all and the most compassionate. He also laughed and smiled very often." (6)

Rasulullaah's Laughing

Hadhraat Jaabir says, "When revelation would come to Rasulullaah or when he was delivering a lecture, he would appear like a person warning his people of an approaching punishment. However, when this was not happening, you would see that he had the most smiley face, was the most jovial of people and the handsomest of all men." (7)

Rasulullaah ﷺ Laughs during the Battle of Khandaq

Hadrat Aamir bin Sa'd reports that Hadrat Sa'd ﷺ said to him, "I saw Rasulullaah ﷺ smile so broadly during the Battle of Khandaq that his molar teeth actually became visible." When Hadrat Aamir asked what the reason for Rasulullaah ﷺ's laughter was, Hadrat Sa'd ﷺ explained that a man from the enemy was waving his shield to and fro to protect his forehead (thereby teasing the Muslim archers to get him). Being a crack archer, Hadrat Sa'd ﷺ took out an arrow (placed it on the bow and waited for the chance). As soon as the man raised his head, Hadrat Sa'd ﷺ shot the arrow, which struck the man squarely on the forehead. The man fell to the ground while his leg remained extended into the air. It was then that Rasulullaah ﷺ smiled so broadly that his molars became visible. "What made Rasulullaah ﷺ laugh so?" someone asked. The narrator replied, "It was the astuteness with which Hadrat Sa'd dealt with the man." (2)

Rasulullaah ﷺ Laughs at what a Poor man did During Ramadhaan

Hadrat Abu Hurayrah ﷺ reports that a man once came to Rasulullaah ﷺ saying, "I am destroyed! I have engaged in sexual relations with my wife during Ramadhaan." "Then free a slave," Rasulullaah ﷺ advised. When he declared that he was unable to afford it, Rasulullaah ﷺ advised further saying, "Then fast for two consecutive months." When he said that he would be unable to do that as well, Rasulullaah ﷺ said, "Then feed sixty poor people." "I cannot afford that either," the man said. When someone later presented a basket of dates to Rasulullaah ﷺ, he summoned the man and instructed him to give the dates away as Sadaqah. "Should I give it to someone more in need than I? By Allaah! There is no family between the rocky plains of Madinah more in need of it than my family." Rasulullaah ﷺ then smiled so widely that his molars became visible as he said, "Then let it be spent on your family." (3)

The Narrations of Hadrat Abu Dharr ﷺ and Hadrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood ﷺ

Hadrat Abu Dharr ﷺ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ once said, "I know the first person to enter Jannah and the last to emerge from Jahannam. A man will be summoned on the Day of Qiyaamah and his minor sins will be presented before him while his major sins will be concealed. Given the precise dates and times, he will be asked whether he committed certain evil acts. Unable to deny anything, he will admit to it all, fearing the major sins (still to be accounted for). It will then be said, 'Grant him a good deed in place of every sin he committed.' He will then quickly say, "But I have committed other sins that I do not see here." Hadhrat Abu Dharr says, "I then saw Rasulullaah smile so widely that his molars were visible." (1)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood reports that Rasulullaah said, "I know who the last person to emerge from Jahannam will be. He will come out of Jahannam crawling (unable to stand up straight because of the intensity of the punishment) and will be told to enter Jannah. As he starts proceeding towards Jannah, he will see that other people have already occupied its levels. He will then return to Allaah saying, "O my Rabb! People have already occupied the various levels (leaving no place for me)." He will then be asked, "Do you remember the times you had (in the world)?" "I certainly do," he will reply. "Then wish (for all you would like to have)," he will be told. After wishing for everything he can think of, he will be told, "You shall have everything you have wished together with ten times more of what the world had to offer." He will say in disbelief, "Are You joking with me when You are the King of the worlds?" Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood says, "I then Rasulullaah smile so widely that his molars were visible." (2)

Dignity

The Dignified Behaviour of Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Khaarijah bin Zaid says, "Rasulullaah was the most dignified person in his gatherings and (as he sat) none of his limbs extended (towards the people)." (3)

The Dignified Behaviour of Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Jabal

Hadhrat Shahr bin Howshab says that whenever the Sahabah spoke in the presence of Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Jabal, they kept looking at him out of awe for him.

In another narration, Hadhrat Abu Muslim Khowlaani narrates, "I once entered the Masjid of Hims where I came across close to thirty middle-aged Sahabah of Rasulullaah. Amongst them was a youthful man with kohl around his eyes and sparkling front teeth. He spoke not a word and remained silent. When the others disagreed about anything, they turned to him and asked him. When I asked the person beside me who the man was, he informed me that he was Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Jabal. I immediately took a liking to him and remained with the group until they dispersed."

Hadhrat Abu Muslim also narrates, "I once entered the Masjid with some Sahabah during the early years of Hadhrat Umar's Khilaafah. There were more of them present that day than any other and the gathering I sat in included over thirty Sahabah, all narrating Ahadeeth from Rasulullaah. Also sitting in the gathering was a youthful man who was brown in complexion, who spoke extremely well and who was exceptionally good looking. Although he was the youngest of the group, they referred to him whenever they doubted anyone’s narration. He would then (correctly) narrate the Hadith (they doubted) to them. Unless they asked him, he did not narrate anything else to them. ‘Who are you, 0 servant of Allaah?’ I asked him. ‘I am Mu’adh bin Jabal,’ came the reply.” (1)

Suppressing One's Anger

Hadhrat Abu Barzah narrates, "When a man spoke harshly to Hadhrat Abu Bakr, I said, 'Should I not execute him?' Hadhrat Abu Bakr rebuked me saying, 'Such punishment is not warranted for anyone (speaking harshly to anyone) after Rasulullaah.'" (2)

Hadhrat Umar once said, "No person cannot sip any milk or honey that is better than a sip of his anger." (3)

Possessiveness

The Possessiveness of Hadhrat Ubay bin ka’b

Hadhrat Ubay bin Ka’b narrates that a man once reported to Rasulullaah that a certain person frequently went to see his father’s wife (with apparently sinister intentions). Hadhrat Ubay bin Ka’b exclaimed, "Had it been me, I would have killed him.” Rasulullaah laughed as he said, "How possessive are you, 0 Ubay! However, I am more possessive than you and Allaah is more possessive than I." (4)

The possessiveness of Hadhrat Sa’d bin Ubaadah

Hadhrat Mughierah narrates that Hadhrat Sa’d bin Ubaadah once said, "If I found any man with my wife, I would strike him with the sharp edge of my sword.” When this was reported to Rasulullaah he said, "Are you surprised with Sa’d’s possessiveness? By Allaah! I am more possessive than him and Allaah is more possessive than I. It is because of Allaah’s possessiveness that He has forbidden all types of indecency, be it apparent or hidden. There is also none who loves to be absolved of blame more than Allaah and it is because of this that He has sent warners and givers of glad tidings (the Ambiyaa so that people cannot say that they did not know). There is also none who loves praise more than Allaah and it is because of this that he created Jannah.” (5)

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah reports that Hadhrat Sa'd bin Ubaadah once asked, "If I found a man with my wife, am I not allowed to touch him until I present four witnesses?" "That's right," Rasulullaah replied. Hadhrat Sa'd then said, "That cannot be! I swear by the Being Who has sent you with the truth that before that I would speed up his journey with my sword." "Listen to what your leader has to say," Rasulullaah said to the Sahabah, "He is extremely possessive, but I am more possessive than him and Allaah is more possessive than I." (1)

A lengthy narration from Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas adds that the Sahabah said, "O Rasulullaah! Do not rebuke him because he is an extremely possessive person. By Allaah! He has only married virgins and because of his possessiveness, none of us has ever dared to marry any woman he has divorced." Hadhrat Sa'd then said, "O Rasulullaah! I know that the injunction (of presenting four witnesses to prove adultery) is true and is from Allaah but I find it strange that when I find a man rubbing his thighs against those of an immoral woman, I am unable to move him until I bring four witnesses. By Allaah! By the time I come with them, he would have fulfilled his desire (and left)." (2)

The Possessiveness of Hadhrat Aa'isha

Hadhrat Aa'isha reports that when Rasulullaah left her one night, she became extremely jealous. Rasulullaah then returned to see what she was doing and commented, "What is the matter, O Aa'isha? Have you been overcome with possessiveness?" Hadhrat Aa'isha replied, "Why should someone like myself not be possessive over someone like yourself?" "Your Shaytaan must have come to you," Rasulullaah remarked. "O Rasulullaah!" Hadhrat Aa'isha asked, "Is there a Shaytaan with me?" "Certainly," Rasulullaah replied. "And with you, O Rasulullaah?" Hadhrat Aa'isha enquired. "Yes," Rasulullaah replied, "but Allaah has assisted me and he has become a Muslim (and therefore does not influence me to do evil)." (3)

Hadhrat Aa'isha narrates, "When Rasulullaah married Ummu Salamah, I became extremely depressed because people always told us about her beauty. When I managed to secretly steal a glance at her, I found her to be much more beautiful than people had described. I then mentioned this to Hafsah (Hadhrat Aa'isha and Hadhrat Hafsah were extremely close). She said, 'By Allaah! This is only because of your extreme possessiveness. She cannot be as beautiful as you people say.' When Hafsah also managed to steal a glance at her, she said, 'I have seen her and I swear by Allaah that she is not as beautiful as you say. In fact, she is not even close to what you have described, although I do admit that she is pretty.'"

Hadhrat Ali  Rebukes People Bereft of any Possessiveness

Hadhrat Ali  once addressed the people saying, "The news has reached me that your women crowd the marketplaces with Kuffaar men. Have you people no sense of possessiveness? There can be no good in a person who is bereft of all possessiveness." Another narration states that Hadhrat Ali  said, "There are two types of possessiveness. The first is commendable and a means by which a person keeps his family in check. The other is the type that leads a person to Jahannam." (2)

Enjoining what is Good and Forbidding what is Evil

Rasulullaah  narrates the Incident of People of the past who were Tortured for Enjoining what is Good and Forbidding what is Evil

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood  narrates that Rasulullaah  came indoors one day and said, "O Ibn Mas'ood!" "At your service, O Rasulullaah !" Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood  repeated thrice. Rasulullaah  then asked, "Do you know who are the best of people?" "Allaah and His Rasool  know best," Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood  submitted. Rasulullaah  said, "Indeed the best of people are those who do the best deeds when they have acquired a deep understanding of Deen."

"O Ibn Mas'ood!" Rasulullaah  said again. "At your service, O Rasulullaah !" Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood  replied. "Do you know who are the most learned people?" Again Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood  submitted, "Allaah and His Rasool  know best." Rasulullaah  explained, "Indeed the most learned of people are those with the deepest insight into the truth when people are in disagreement even though they fall short in deeds and are dragging themselves along on their buttocks. Those before me were divided into seventy two groups, amongst which all besides three were destroyed. One of these groups opposed the kings and fought them for the sake of their Deen which was the Deen of Isa bin Maryam . They were captured and killed when their bodies were cut up with saws. Another group amongst them neither had the power to fight the kings nor to live amongst the masses and invite them to Allaah and to the Deen of Isa bin Maryam . They therefore dispersed in the land."

and adopted monasticism. It is with regard to these people that Allaah says:

{Quran 66:4}

They invented monasticism (involving isolation from society and forsaking marriage and pleasures) which We did not ordain for them but they did it in search of Allaah's pleasure (to preserve their Deen from the corruption that society introduced to it). However, they did not observe it (its demands) as it ought to have been observed (because its demands were against human nature). (However, after the coming of Rasulullaah ﷺ, We granted their reward to those of them who had Imaan (who believed in Rasulullaah ﷺ and accepted Islaam) while many of them were sinners (choosing to stay away from Islaam). (Surah Hadeed, verse 27)

Rasulullaah ﷺ then added, "Those (of them) who believe in me and follow me have observed its demands as it ought to be observed. As for those who do not follow me, they shall be destroyed."

Another narration states that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, "A group from them remained with the kings and tyrants to invite them towards the Deen of Isla. However, they were captured and killed (after being cut into pieces) with saws and then burnt. Nevertheless, they were steadfast until they met Allaah." The rest of the narration is the same as the one above. (2)

Rasulullaah ﷺ Warns those who do not Enjoin what is good and do not forbid what is evil

Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Jabal ﷺ narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, "You people shall remain on the clear path of your Rabb as long as two intoxicants do not become manifest amongst you; the intoxicant of ignorance and the intoxicant of love for this world. Even though you may be enjoining what is good, forbidding what is evil and waging Jihaad in the path of Allaah, as soon as the intoxicant of love for this world manifests itself amongst you, you will stop enjoining what is good, forbidding what is evil and waging Jihaad in the path of Allaah. Those who speak by the Qur'aan and the Sunnah during such times will be like the very first to accept Islaam from the Muhaajireen and the Ansaar." (1)

The Rank on the Day of Qiyaamah of those who enjoin what is good and forbid what is evil

Hadhrat Yazeed Raqaashi reports from Hadhrat Anas ﷺ that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, "Should I not inform you about a group of people who although not belonging to the Ambiyaa and the Shuhadaa (martyrs), will be the envy of the Ambiyaa and Shuhadaa on the Day of Qiyaamah because of their closeness to Allaah. They will be recognised by the pulpets of light upon which they will be seated." "Who are they, O Rasulullaah ﷺ?" the Sahabah ﷺ begged to know. Rasulullaah ﷺ replied, "They are those who travel the world advising people so that Allaah's servants become beloved to Him and so that He becomes beloved to them." Hadhrat Anas ﷺ asked, "I can understand how they can make Allaah beloved to His servants, but how do they make Allaah's servants beloved to Him?" Rasulullaah ﷺ explained, "They enjoin them to do what Allaah likes and forbid them from doing what Allaah dislikes. When the people follow this advice of theirs, they become beloved to Allaah." (1)

When will this Ummah Forsake enjoining what is good and forbidding what is evil?

Hadhrat Hudhayfah ﷺ narrates that he once asked Nabi ﷺ, "O Rasulullaah ﷺ! When will people forsake enjoining what is good and forbidding what is evil, whilst these two deeds are the chief actions of righteous people?" Rasulullaah ﷺ replied, "When that which afflicted the Bani Israa'eel afflicts you as well." "O Rasulullaah ﷺ! What was it that afflicted the Bani Israa'eel?" Hadhrat Hudhayfah ﷺ asked. Rasulullaah ﷺ replied, "When (for worldly gain) the good amongst you become lenient towards the sinners, when the knowledge of Deen goes to the worst amongst you and when leadership goes to the youngsters. When this happens, you will suffer adversities that will keep coming your way and towards which you will keep going." (2)

Hadhrat Abu Bakr ﷺ Explains the verse: "Take Care of your Own Selves"

Hadhrat Qais bin Abu Haazim narrates that when Hadhrat Abu Bakr ﷺ had become Khalifah, he mounted the pulpit and after duly praising Allaah, he said, "O people! You recite the verse:

\[
	ext{"} \text{O you who have Imaan, take care of your own selves. He who has strayed cannot harm you when you are rightly guided.} \text{"}
\]

	ext{(Surah Maa'idah, verse 105)}

However, you people have been misinterpreting the verse. I have heard Rasulullaah ﷺ say, "Whenever people see evil and fail to change it, the time is close when Allaah shall engulf them all in great punishment (the evil-doers for the evil and the others for failing to prevent them)." (3)
Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas narrates that on the day he was named Khalifah, Hadhrat Abu Bakr sat on Rasulullaah’s pulpit. After duly praising Allaah and sending salutations to Rasulullaah, he stretched out his hands and placed them on the spot of the pulpit where Rasulullaah used to sit. He then said, "As he was sitting on this very same spot, I heard my beloved friend (Rasulullaah) explain the meaning of the verse:

(O you who have Imaan, take care of your own selves. He who has strayed cannot harm you when you are rightly guided. {Surah Maa’idah, verse 105}

In his explanation to us, Rasulullaah said, 'Yes. When evil is perpetrated in a community and they are being corrupted with vices without them making an attempt to change matters or to even oppose it, it becomes binding on Allaah to engulf them all in great punishment. Thereafter even their du’aas will not be accepted." Hadhrat Abu Bakr then placed his fingers into his ears saying, "May both these ears become deaf if I had not heard this from my beloved friend (Rasulullaah)." (1)

Hadhrat Abu Bakr said, "When people perpetrate evil in the midst of others who are more powerful than them but who do not prevent them, Allaah shall engulf them all in a great calamity that will not be alleviated." (2)

Hadhrat Umar and Hadhrat Uthmaan Instruct People to Enjoin what is good and forbid what is evil

(Addressing the people) Hadhrat Umar once said, "When you people see a fool dishonouring people, what prevents you from opposing him?" When the people admitted that they feared abuse from the person, Hadhrat Umar said, "In that case, you will be unable to be witnesses (for the Ambiyaa on the Day of Qiyaamah)." (3)

Hadhrat Uthmaan once said, "Enjoin what is good and forbid what is evil before the worst amongst you are given authority over you and then when even the best of you make du’aa against them, their du’aas will not be accepted." (4)

is evil and defend the Deen of Allaah, otherwise Allaah shall place in authority over you such people who will punish you, after which Allaah will punish them as well. Another narration states that Hadhrat Ali ﷺ said, "You people must enjoin what is good and forbid what is evil otherwise Allaah shall place the worst amongst you in authority over you and then when even the best of you make du'aa; their du'aaas will not be accepted." (1)

In one of his sermons, Hadhrat Ali ﷺ said, "O people! Those who were destroyed before you were destroyed because when they perpetrated sin, their Rabbis and religious scholars did not prohibit them. Each time they transgressed all limits of sin and their Rabbis and religious scholars did not prevent them, punishment overtook them. You should therefore enjoin what is good and forbid what is evil before you suffer a like fate. Remember that enjoining what is good and forbidding what is evil can neither deprive you of your sustenance nor hasten your death." (2)

Hadhrat Ali ﷺ once said, "Jihaad is of three categories; Jihaad with the hand, Jihaad with the tongue and Jihaad with the heart. The first of these to disappear will be the Jihaad of the hand, followed by Jihaad of the tongue and then Jihaad of the heart. Eventually when the heart fails to recognise what is good and does not reject evil, it will be turned completely upside down." (3)

Hadhrat Ali ﷺ once said, "The first Jihaad to disappear will be the Jihaad of your hands, followed by Jihaad of your tongue and then Jihaad of your heart. The heart that fails to recognise what is good and does not reject evil will be turned completely upside down just as a water bag is turned upside down to empty out everything inside." (4)

The Statements of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood ﷺ concerning enjoining what is good and forbidding what is evil

When Idrees bin Uroob Shaybaani once came to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood ﷺ and said, "Destroyed is the person who does not enjoin good and forbid evil." Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood ﷺ responded by saying, "(That stage comes afterwards) In fact, the person whose heart does not recognise good and does not reject evil is already destroyed." (5)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood ﷺ once said, "People are of three types. There is no good in anyone who does not fall into one of these three categories. The first is the person who sees a group fighting in the path of Allaah and then himself fights using his own wealth. The second is the person who wages Jihaad with his tongue (in the defence of Deen) and enjoins good and forbids evil. The

Hadhraat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood (r.a.) said, "Wage Jihaad against the Munaafiqeen with your tongues and if you can do nothing else besides frowning at them (to express your displeasure with them), then go ahead and frown at them." (2)

Hadhraat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood (r.a.) also said, "When you see an evil and are unable to change it, it will suffice for Allaah to know that you hate it within your heart." Another narration quotes that he said, "When a person witnesses an evil being perpetrated in his presence and he dislikes it, he is like one who had not witnessed it at all. However, when a person approves of an evil that is carried out in his absence, he is like one who has witnessed it." (3)

It was also Hadhraat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood (r.a.) who said, "Many evils will take place in the future. Those who approve of them are like those witnessing them even though they may not be present. On the other hand, those who actually witness them but despise them are like those who have not witnessed them at all." (4)

In another narration, Hadhraat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood (r.a.) said, "The righteous ones shall leave this world first, leaving behind only doubtful people who will be unable to recognise good or reject evil." (5)

concerning enjoining what is good and forbidding what is evil

Hadhraat Abur Ruqaad says, "I was a youngster when I went out with my master one day. We were somehow led to (a gathering addressed by) Hadhraat Hudhayfah (r.a.) who was saying, "In a single sitting, I hear some of you four times making a statement that if spoken during the time of Rasulullaah (s.a.w.), would render a person a hypocrite. You people must enjoin good, forbid evil and encourage each other to do good otherwise Allaah shall uproot you people with punishment. Alternatively, Allaah shall grant the worst of you authority over you, after which the du'aas of even the best of you will not be answered." (6)

Hadhraat Hudhayfah (r.a.) once said, "Allaah's curse is on those who are not amongst us. By Allaah! You people must enjoin good and forbid evil otherwise there shall be fighting amongst you and the evil ones will overpower the righteous ones. They shall then kill them all until there is none left alive to enjoin good and forbid evil. Thereafter, Allaah will be so annoyed with you that he will not even accept your du'aas." (7)

The Statements of Hadhrat Adi بن حاتم and Hadhrat Abu Dardaa

Hadhrat Adi bin Haatim رضي الله عنه once said, "The good you do today was considered an evil in times gone by and the evil of today will be considered something good in times to come. You will always remain on the right as long as you do not regard good as evil and evil as good and as long as your scholars continue speaking the truth without meaning it." (2)

Hadhrat Abu Dardaa رضي الله عنه once said, "I enjoin on you to do something that I do not do in the hope that Allaah will grant me the reward for it." (3)

Hadhrat Umar ﷺ Forbids his Family from Something he Forbade the People from Doing and his Comment about Hishaam bin Hakeem

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ﷺ says that whenever Hadhrat Umar ﷺ intended forbidding the people from anything, he first approached his family saying, "Should I come to know of any of you perpetrating what I am forbidding the people from, I shall mete out double the punishment to him." (4)

Hadhrat Ibn Shihaab reports that Hadhrat Hishaam bin Hakeem bin Hizaam رضي الله عنه and few men with him together engaged in enjoining good and forbidding evil. Hadhrat Umar ﷺ used to say, "Evil shall not take place as long as Hishaam and I are alive." (5)

The Advice Hadhrat Umayr bin Habeeb ﷺ gave his Son

Hadhrat Abu Ja'far Khatmi reports that his grandfather Hadhrat Umayr bin Habeeb bin Khumaasha ﷺ was a Sahabi who had been in the company of Rasulullaah ﷺ since the time he came of age. He once advised his son saying, "Dear son! Beware of the company of the foolish ones because keeping their company is a disease. The person who tolerates the foolish ones (without responding to their foolish statements) shall remain happy while the one who responds to them has regrets. Whoever cannot tolerate the little bother he gets from such people shall soon have to tolerate a whole lot more. The person who intends enjoining good and forbidding evil will have to get himself in the habit of exercising patience in the face of harm and will have to be convinced about the Hadhrat Abu Bakrah ﷺ Fears Living in a Time when there is no enjining good and forbidding evil

Hadhrat Abdul Azeez bin Abu Bakrah narrates that Hadhrat Abu Bakrah ﷺ married a woman from the Banu Ghudaanah who later passed away. As he carried her to the graveyard, her brothers prevented him from leading the Janaazah salaah. He however said to them, "Do not stand in my way because I am more worthy of leading the salaah than you are." "The companion of Rasulullaah ﷺ is right," they finally agreed. After he had performed the salaah and was going to enter the grave, some people pushed him so hard that he fell down and collapsed. When he was taken home, all twenty of his sons and daughters started screaming. Hadhrat Abdul Azeez says that he was one of the youngest children that day. When Hadhrat Abu Bakrah ﷺ regained consciousness, he said, "Do not scream and cry over me because I would not like the death of anyone more than that of Abu Bakrah." When the children had settled, they asked, "Why is that, dear father?" Hadhrat Abu Bakrah ﷺ replied, "I fear living in a time when I will be unable to enjoin good and forbid evil. There shall be no good in such a time." (2)

Hadhrat Anas ﷺ and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ﷺ shun Preventing Hajjaaj from Evil Out of Fear for being Harmed

Hadhrat Ali bin Zaid reports that he was once with Hajjaaj in a castle as Hajjaaj was busy interrogating people about their links with Ibnul Ash'ath. Hadhrat Anas ﷺ arrived there and when he drew close, Hajjaaj called out to him, "Come here, you wretch, you anarchist! You are sometimes siding with Ali bin Abi Taalib, sometimes with Ibn Zubayr and sometimes with Ibnul Ash'ath. I swear by the Being Who controls my life! I shall peel you just as glue is peeled off and skin you just as a lid is skinned!" Hadhrat Anas ﷺ remarked, "Who is the Ameer referring to? May Allaah rectify him." "It is you I am referring to," Hajjaaj snapped, "may Allaah make you deaf!" Hadhrat Anas ﷺ simply recited, "Innaa Lillaahi wa Innaa Ilayhi Raaji'oon" and then left. Thereafter, he said, "Had I not thought of my children and feared what Hajjaaj would do to them, I would have told him such things on the spot for which he would have no reply." (3)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ﷺ said, "I once heard Hajjaaj say something in his lecture that I did not like. However, when I intended objecting to it, I recalled the words of Rasulullaah ﷺ who said, 'It is not appropriate for a Mu'min to humiliate himself.' When I asked Rasulullaah ﷺ how it was possible for a

Keeping to Oneself

The Statement of Hadhrat Umar Concerning Keeping to Oneself

Hadrath Umar once said, "In keeping to oneself, one finds an escape from mixing with bad company."(2) In another narration, Hadrath Umar stated, "Take your full share of keeping to yourself."(3) Hadrath Mu'aaafaa bin Imraan reports that Hadrath Umar once passed by some people who were following a man who had been arrested for committing a crime. Hadrath Umar said, "There is no welcome for faces that are seen only on occasions of evil."(4)

The Statement of Hadrath Abdullaah bin Mas'ood About keeping to oneself and his Advice to his Son and to another Person

Hadrath Adasah Taa'ee reports, "I was in Sarif when Hadrath Abdullaah (bin Mas'ood) arrived there and my family sent me to him with a few things (as gifts). It so happened that a few of our slaves who tended to the camels brought a bird from a place to which it took four days to travel. When they sent the bird to Hadrath Abdullaah, he asked from where it had been brought. I replied, 'A few of our slaves who tend to the camels brought the bird from a place which lies four days away.' He then remarked, 'I wish that I was at that place where I need not speak to anyone about anything and no one would speak to me either until the day I meet Allaah.'"(5)

Hadrath Qaasim narrates that a man once came to Hadrath Abdullaah bin Mas'ood asking for advice. Hadrath Abdullaah bin Mas'ood advised him saying, "Let your home accommodate you (stay indoors), restrain your tongue and weep at the though of your sins."(6)

Hadrath Ismaa'eel bin Abu Khaalid narrates that Hadrath Abdullaah bin Mas'ood gave three advices to his son Abu Ubaydah, when he said, "Dear son! I advise you to adopt Taqwa, to have your house accommodate you (stay indoors) and to weep over your sins."(7)

Hadhrat Hudhayfah Ḥ, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas Ḥ, Hadhrat Abu Jahm Ḥ and Hadhrat Abu Dardaa Ḥ all Encourage Keeping to Oneself

Hadhrat Hudhayfah Ḥ once said, "I wish I had someone to manage my finances so that I could lock my door and neither have anyone come to meet me nor go out to meet anyone until the day I meet Allaah." (1)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas Ḥ said, "Had it not been for the evil whisperings (of Shaytaan), I would go to a place where I have no friends (so that I could spend my time in solitude). It is only people who corrupt people." (2)

Hadhrat Yahya bin Sa'eed says that Hadhrat Abu Jahm bin Haarith bin Simma Ḥ was a person who did not associate with his fellow Ansaar. When this solitude was mentioned to him, he remarked, "People are worse than solitude." (3)

Hadhrat Abu Dardaa Ḥ said, "The best monastery for a Muslim is his home where he is able to keep his carnal self, his eyes and his private organs under control. Beware of the gatherings in the marketplaces because they involve a person in negligence and futile activities." (4)

The Solitude of Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Jabal Ḥ

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr Ḥ once passed by Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Jabal Ḥ who was standing by his door and pointing with his fingers as if speaking to himself. "What is the matter, O Abu Abdur Rahmaan?" Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr Ḥ asked, "Why are talking to yourself?" Hadhrat Mu'aadh Ḥ replied, "What else can I do? That enemy of Allaah (Shaytaan) is trying to divert me from what I heard Rasulullaah Ḥ say. He (Shaytaan) says, 'Why do you distress yourself by remaining at home all the time? Why do you rather not join the gatherings of people? I have heard Rasulullaah Ḥ say that the person who goes out in the path of Allaah is in the guardianship of Allaah, the person who visits the ill is in the guardianship of Allaah, the person who goes morning or evening to the Masjid is in the guardianship of Allaah, the person who goes out to assist the (just) Muslim ruler is in the guardianship of Allaah and the person who stays at home without backbiting about anyone is in the guardianship of Allaah.' This enemy of Allaah wishes to take me out of my house to sit in the various gatherings of people." (5)

Contentment

Hadhrat Umar Encourages Contentment

Hadhraat Abdullaah bin Ubayy narrates that when Hadhrat Umar once saw Hadhrat Ahnaf wearing a (new) upper garment, he asked, "O Ahnaf! What did you pay for this garment?" "I bought it for twelve Dirhams," Hadhrat Ahnaf replied. "Shame on you!" Hadhrat Umar exclaimed, "Couldn't you buy one for six Dirhams and use the balance in something (some good cause) that you know of?" (1)

Hadhrat Hasan Basri reports that in a letter to Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari, Hadhrat Umar wrote, "Be content with whatever sustenance you receive in this world because the simple fact is that Ar Rahmaan gives some people more sustenance than others. In fact, each person is tested in this manner. Allaah tests those whom He gives in abundance to see whether they are grateful. Their gratitude to Allaah is expressed by their fulfilling the binding duties connected to the wealth Allaah has blessed them with." (2)

The Contentment of Hadhrat Ali and the Advice that he and Hadhrat Sa'd gave in this Regard Hadhraat Abu Ja'far narrates that Hadhrat Ali once ate some dry dates, drank some water and then placed his hand on his belly saying, "May Allaah distance (from His mercy) the person whose stomach gets him admitted into Jahannam." He then recited a couplet (which means):

"Whenever you give your stomach and genitals whatever they ask for
They will both attain only the heights of regret" (3)

Hadhraat Sha'bi narrates that Hadhrat Ali bin Abi Taalib once said, "O son of Aadam! Never bring the worry of the approaching day before the worry of the present day (by worrying about what you are to eat the following day) because if you are not destined to die (tomorrow), your sustenance will definitely be coming to you. You should also remember that when you accumulate wealth that is more than your basic necessities, you are actually acting as treasurer for someone else (who will soon be taking possession of it)." (4)

Hadhraat Sa'd (bin Abi Waqqaas) once advised, "Dear son! When you seek to be independent, do so with contentment because when a person is not content, his wealth will never make him independent (because he will never have enough)." (5)

The Marriages of Rasulullaah ﷺ and the Sahabah ﷺ

Rasulullaah ﷺ's Marriage to Hadhrat Khadeeja ﷺ

It was Hadhrat Jaabir bin Samurah ﷺ or another Sahabi who reported that (as a youngster before announcing his Nabuwaat) Nabi ﷺ grazed goats but later gave it up when he and a partner of his started (a rental business) with camels. They once rented some camels to the sister of Hadhrat Khadeeja ﷺ and when the journey had been completed, she still owed them some money. When Rasulullaah ﷺ's partner started going to her to collect the money, he asked Rasulullaah ﷺ to accompany him. "You go ahead," Rasulullaah ﷺ would tell him, "because I feel too shy." When the partner one day went to her, she asked, "Where is Muhammad?" the partner explained that whenever he asked Rasulullaah ﷺ to accompany him, Rasulullaah ﷺ would say that he is too shy. She remarked, "I have never seen a man more modest than he, more chaste than him..." She then continued to enumerate the excellent qualities of Rasulullaah ﷺ, causing (her sister) Hadhrat Khadeeja ﷺ to fall in love with Rasulullaah ﷺ.

Hadhrat Khadeeja ﷺ communicated a message to Rasulullaah ﷺ saying, "Go to my father and propose my hand in marriage." Rasulullaah ﷺ communicated a message back saying, "Your father is a very wealthy man and will not accept (a proposal from a poor man such as I)." She however persisted saying, "Go meet him and speak to him. I shall arrange matters further. Go see him when he is drunk." Rasulullaah ﷺ did as she directed and when he approached her father, the father got him married. The following morning when her father attended a gathering, someone remarked, "You have done well to get Muhammad married (to your daughter)." "I did such a thing?" he asked in surprise. When the people confirmed that he did, he got up and went to Hadhrat Khadeeja ﷺ. "The people tell me that I got Muhammad married (to you)," he said. "Indeed," she replied, "you need never regret your decision because Muhammad is..." she then started enumerating the great virtues of Rasulullaah ﷺ so much that he was happy (with the marriage).

Hadhrat Khadeeja ﷺ later sent two Awqya of silver or gold to Rasulullaah ﷺ, telling him to use it to purchase a set of clothing to give her as a gift as well as a sheep and some other items (with which to host a meal). Rasulullaah ﷺ did as she told." (1) Another narration substitutes the words "Go see him when he is drunk" with the words "Go see him (my father) without duress (on either party)". The narration states that Hadhrat Khadeeja ﷺ told Rasulullaah ﷺ to buy the clothing and give it as a gift to her father. (2)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas reports that Rasulullaah once mentioned how the father of Hadhrat Khadeeja was reluctant to marry her to Rasulullaah. She however prepared a meal and invited her father along with several members of the Quraysh who ate and drank until they were drunk. It was then that she said to him, "Muhammad bin Abdullaah has proposed to marry me. Do marry me to him." When he got her married, she applied Kholooq (a type of fragrance) to him and gave him a set of clothing to wear, in keeping with the custom of their forefathers. When he became sober and noticed the Kholooq and clothing, he exclaimed, "What has happened to me? What is this?" When Hadhrat Khadeeja informed him that he had married her to Muhammad bin Abdullaah, he cried out, "Did I get Abu Taalib's orphan married?! By my life! This can never be!" Hadhrat Khadeeja remarked, "Do you wish to make yourself look like a fool in front of the Quraysh who will inform the people that you were drunk?" She then continued convincing him until he was happy (with the marriage).

Hadhrat Nafeesah reports, "Hadhrat Khadeeja bint Khuwaylid was an extremely wise, strong and noble woman. She was all of this together with the honour and good that Allaah had in store for her. During her time, she was noted as a woman of highest birth who was the most respected and also the wealthiest amongst the Quraysh. Every man of her people desired to marry her if he got the opportunity to do so. In fact, many had asked for her hand in marriage and had spent large sums of money in their quest. When Muhammad one day returned with her caravan from a journey to Shaam, Hadhrat Khadeeja sent me to him to extract some information. '0 Muhammad! I said, 'What prevents you from getting married?' 'I have no money at hand with which to marry,' he replied. I went further and asked, 'What if your expenses were taken care of and you were asked to marry a beautiful, wealthy and respectable woman who was perfectly suited to you? Would you accept the offer?' 'Who is she?' he enquired. When I told him that she was Khadeeja, he remarked, 'How is it possible for me (whensheissowealthyand la pauper)?' 'That is my responsibility,' I assured him. 'Then I am prepared,' he confirmed.

When I reported back to her, she sent him a message informing him exactly when to arrive (for the ceremony). She then sent for her uncle Amr bin Asad to get her married. Just after Amr had arrived, Rasulullaah also arrived with several of his uncles and it was one of them who conducted the marriage ceremony. Amr bin Asad remarked, 'He is a partner that can never be turned down.' At the time of this marriage, Rasulullaah was twenty-five years old while Khadeeja was forty. She was born fifteen years before the Year of the Elephant."

Rasulullaah's Marriage to Hadhrat Aa'isha and Hadhrat Sauda

Hadhrat Aa'isha reports that when Hadhrat Khadeeja passed away, Rasulullah was still living in Makkah. It was then that Hadhrat Khowla bint Hakeem bin Awqas the wife of Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Madh'oon suggested, "O Rasulullah! Are you not interested in getting married?" "To whom?" Rasulullah asked. She replied, "A virgin if you wish or a previously married woman if you wish." "Who is the virgin?" Rasulullah asked. Hadhrat Khowlah replied, "She is the daughter of the person you like best, Aa'isha the daughter of Abu Bakr." "And who is the previously married woman?" Rasulullah asked. "She is Saudah bint Zam'ah," came the reply, "she has believed in you (as Allaah's Rasul) and follows you in your Deen." Rasulullah then said to her, "Go and mention my name to them."

Hadhrat Khowlah went to Hadhrat Abu Bakr's house where she found Hadhrat Ummu Roomaan who was the mother of Hadhrat Aa'isha. "O Ummu Roomaan," she said, "What tremendous goodness and blessings is Allaah about to shower on your family! Rasulullah has sent me to propose for Aa'isha's hand in marriage." Hadhrat Ummu Roomaan said, "I would love it, but let us wait for Abu Bakr who is soon to arrive." When he came, Hadhrat Khowlah said to him, "What tremendous goodness and blessings is Allaah about to shower on your family! Rasulullah has sent me to propose for Aa'isha's hand in marriage." Hadhrat Abu Bakr asked, "Is she suitable for him? She is the daughter of his brother."

Hadhrat Khowlah reported back to Rasulullah the doubt that Hadhrat Abu Bakr expressed. Rasulullah said, "Go back and tell him that he is my brother in Islaam and that I am his brother in Islaam (not by blood). His daughter is therefore suitable for me." When she conveyed the message to Hadhrat Abu Bakr, he said, "Call Rasulullah here." Rasulullah then came and Hadhrat Abu Bakr got Hadhrat Aa'isha married to him. (1)

Another narration states at the end that Rasulullah told Hadhrat Khowlah, "Go back and tell him that I am his brother in Islaam (not by blood) and that he is my brother in Islaam. His daughter is therefore suitable for me." When Hadhrat Khowlah returned with the message, Hadhrat Abu Bakr told her to wait and then left the house. Hadhrat Ummu Roomaan says that Mut'im bin Adi had requested the hand of Hadhrat Aa'isha for his son Jubayr and Hadhrat Abu Bakr had promised it to him. Because Hadhrat Abu Bakr never broke a promise, he went to see Mut'im. With Mut'im at the time was his wife who was the mother of the boy in question (Jubayr). She however spoke to Hadhrat Abu Bakr in such harsh terms that the desire to fulfill his promise to Mut'im was forced out of Hadhrat Abu Bakr's heart.

Hadhrat Abu Bakr asked Mut'im, "What have you to say about this girl (my daughter? Are you still interested in getting your son married to her)?"

(1) Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.225) has commented on the chain of narrators.
Mut'im however turned to his wife saying, "What have you to say?" She turned to Hadhrat Abu Bakr and said, "It seems that if we marry the boy to her, you will make him irreligious and enter him into the religion you follow." Hadhrat Abu Bakr again turned to Mut'im and asked, "What have you to say?" Mut'im replied, "You have heard what she has to say (I stand by that)." Hadhrat Abu Bakr then left them. Allaah had removed from his heart the worry for the promise he had made. He then said to Hadhrat Khowla, "Call Rasulullaah here." She then called Rasulullaah and when he arrived, Hadhrat Abu Bakr got Hadhrat Aa'isha married to him. Hadhrat Aa'isha was then six years old.

Hadhrat Khowla then left them and went to Hadhrat Sauda bint Zam'ah. She said to Hadhrat Sauda, "What tremendous goodness and blessings is Allaah about to shower on you!" "What is it?" Hadhrat Sauda asked. "Rasulullaah has sent me to propose for your hand in marriage." "I would love to marry him. Go and tell my father about it." Her father was an extremely old man who was unable to even perform Hajj. Hadhrat Khowla went to him and greeted him with the greeting of the Period of Ignorance. "Who is there?" he asked. "Khowla bint Hakeem," she replied. When he asked her why she had come, she replied, "Muhammad bin Abdullaah has sent me to propose for Sauda's hand in marriage." "What has she to say?" the old man asked. "She would very much like to marry him," Hadhrat Khowla replied. The old man then asked her to call for Rasulullaah and when he arrived, he married her to Rasulullaah.

When Hadhrat Sauda's brother Abd bin Zam'ah returned from Hajj, he started throwing sand on his head (out of remorse). However, after he had accepted Islaam, he remarked, "By my life! I was a real fool the day I threw sand on my head because Rasulullaah married Sauda bint Zam'ah."

Hadhrat Aa'isha relates further, "When we arrived in Madinah, we stayed in Sunh with the Banu Haarith bin Khazraj tribe. When Rasulullaah came to our house one day, my mother came to me as I was swinging on a swing suspended between two palm branches. She took me off the swing and neatened my hair which was very short. She then wiped my face with some water and led me to the door. I was out of breath by then and stood there until my breathing had returned to normal.

My mother then took me into the room where Rasulullaah was sitting on a seat with several men and women of the Ansaar. My mother closed the door behind me and said, 'This is now your family. May Allaah bless you with them and bless them with you.' All the men and women then stood up and left. It was then in our house that the marriage was consummated. Neither was any camel nor any goat slaughtered for my marriage until Sa'd bin Ubaadah sent a platter of food which he usually sent to Rasulullaah whenever he was with any of his wives. I was then seven years old (however, several more authentic narrations confirm that Hadhrat Aa'isha was then nine years old)." (1)

(1) Ahmad. Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.227) has commented on the chain of narrators.
Rasulullaah ﷺ's Marriage to Hadhrat Hafsah ﷺ

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ﷺ narrates that Hadhrat Hafsah ﷺ became a widow when her husband Hadhrat Khunays bin Hudhaafah Sahmi ﷺ, who was a veteran of the Battle of Badr, passed away in Madinah. When this happened, Hadhrat Umar ﷺ met Hadhrat Uthmaan ﷺ and asked, "if you agree, I can get you married to (my daughter) Hafsah." "I shall think about it," Hadhrat Uthmaan ﷺ replied. After a few days, Hadhrat Uthmaan ﷺ said (to Hadhrat Umar ﷺ), "I have decided not to marry.

Hadhrat Umar ﷺ himself narrates further. He says, "I then approached Abu Bakr ﷺ saying, 'If you agree, I can get you married to (my daughter) Hafsah.' He however remained silent. This made me angrier than I had been with Uthmaan ﷺ but it was only a few days later that Rasulullaah ﷺ proposed for her hand in marriage. After I had married her to Rasulullaah ﷺ, Abu Bakr ﷺ met me and said, 'You were perhaps very angry with me when I failed to give you a reply the day you proposed that I marry Hafsah?' 'I certainly was,' I replied. He then explained, 'The only thing that prevented me from getting back to you was that I knew Rasulullaah ﷺ had spoken about (proposing for) her and I could not divulge Rasulullaah ﷺ's secret. I would have accepted the proposal had Rasulullaah ﷺ left her.'" (1)

Another narration states that when Hadhrat Umar ﷺ complained to Rasulullaah ﷺ about Hadhrat Uthmaan ﷺ (not accepting the proposal), Rasulullaah ﷺ remarked, "Hafsah shall be married to someone better than Uthmaan and Uthmaan shall be married to someone better than Hafsah." Rasulullaah ﷺ later got Hadhrat Uthmaan ﷺ married to his daughter (and himself married Hadhrat Hafsah ﷺ). (2)

Rasulullaah ﷺ's Marriage to Hadhrat Ummu Salamah bint Abu Umayyah ﷺ

Hadhrat Ummu Salamah ﷺ reports that when her Iddah had expired, Hadhrat Abu Bakr ﷺ proposed for her hand in marriage but she did not marry him. When Rasulullaah ﷺ sent someone to extend his proposal of marriage, she said, "Do inform Rasulullaah ﷺ that I am a woman who is extremely possessive, that I have children and that none of my guardians are present." (When the message reached him) Rasulullaah ﷺ said, "Tell her, 'As for your statement that you are extremely possessive, I shall pray to Allaah to dispel it. As for your statement that you have children, they shall be well taken care of and as for your statement that you have no guardians present, none of them who are either present or absent shall object to this.'" (When the message reached her) Hadhrat Ummu Salamah ﷺ instructed her son Umar ﷺ saying, "Get up and get Rasulullah married." He then got Rasulullah married (to his mother). (1)

When Hadhrat Ummu Salamah arrived in Madinah and told the people that she was the daughter of Abu Umayyah bin Mughiera, they refused to believe her. When some of them were leaving for Hajj, they asked her if she wanted to write to her family (in Makkah). She sent a letter with them (by which they managed to confirm who she was) and when they returned, they believed her. This then increased her status amongst them. After she had given birth to her daughter Zaynab (signalling the expiry of her iddah), Rasulullah proposed for her hand in marriage. She said, "Can a woman such as I be married? I am unable to bear children (because of my age), am extremely possessive and have children of my own." Rasulullah replied, "I am elder than you, Allaah shall remove your extreme possessiveness and your children shall be the responsibility of Allaah and His Rasool."

Rasulullah then married her and whenever he came to her, he would affectionately ask, "Where is Zaynab?" This continued until one day Hadhrat Ammaar (bin Yaasir) took the child away saying, "She (her presence) is preventing Rasulullah from his needs (with his new bride)." During that period, Hadhrat Ummu Salamah was still breast feeding the child. When Rasulullah came afterwards and asked "Where is Zaynab?", Hadhrat Qareenah bint Abu Umayyah (Hadhrat Ummu Salamah's sister) who happened to be there, informed him that Hadhrat Ammaar had taken her away (so that Rasulullah could have some privacy). Rasulullah then told Hadhrat Ummu Salamah that he would see her that night.

Hadhrat Ummu Salamah then put down her leather spread (beneath her grindstone for the dirt to fall upon) and took out some barley grains from her earthen pot. (After grinding the barley) She then mixed the barley with some fat to make a type of porridge for Rasulullah to eat. After Rasulullah had spent the night with her, he said, "You certainly deserve the respect of your family. If you wish, I could spend seven nights with you, but then I would have to do the same for all my other wives." (2)

Rasulullah's Marriage to Hadhrat Ummu Habeebah the Daughter of Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan

Hadhrat Ismaa'eeel bin Amr reports that Hadhrat Ummu Habeebah bint Abu Sufyaan said, "What I remember well about the time I was in Abyssinia was the arrival of Najaashi's (the king's) messenger. She was a lady called Abraha and was in charge of the king's clothing and oils. She sought permission to enter and when I allowed her in, she said, 'The king says, 'Rasulullah has written to me to get you married to him.' I replied by saying, 'You have given me most excellent news (I accept).' She then said, 'The king asks you to appoint someone to hand you over in marriage.' I sent for Khaalid bin Sa'eed bin Al Aas and appointed him for the task. Thereafter, out of joy for the news she had brought me, I gave Abraha two silver bangles, two silver anklets and every silver toe ring I was wearing."

That evening, Najaashi invited Ja'far bin Abi Taalib and all the other Muslims who were there. Najaashi then delivered a lecture saying, "All praise is due to Allaah The Supreme King, The Most Pure, The Giver of Peace, The Mighty and Most Powerful. I testify that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah and that Muhammad is His Rasul, His Rasul and the one about whose arrival Isa bin Maryam had given the glad tidings. I wish to tell you that Rasulullaah has asked me to marry him to Ummu Habeebah the daughter of Abu Sufyaan. I have complied with his wish and am giving her a dowry of four hundred gold coins." He then poured out the coins in front of the people. Thereafter, Hadhrat Khaalid bin Sa'eed spoke. He said, "All praise belongs to Allaah. It is He that I praise and from Him do I seek forgiveness. I testify that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah and that Muhammad is the servant and Rasul of Allaah whom Allaah has sent with guidance and the true Deen that shall overcome all other religions even though the Mushrikeen detest it. I wish to say that I also comply with the wish of Rasulullaah and hand over Ummu Habeebah bint Abu Sufyaan to him in marriage. May Allaah bless Rasulullaah."

Najaashi then handed over the coins to Hadhrat Khaalid, who accepted it (on behalf of Hadhrat Ummu Habeebah). When the Muslims then started to leave, Najaashi said to them, "Do remain seated. It has been the practice of the Ambiya to host a meal on the occasion of a marriage. He then sent for the food and the Muslims ate before leaving. (1)

Hadrat Ismaeel bin Amr bin Saa'eed bin Al Aas reports that Hadrat Ummu Habeebah bint Abu Sufyaan said, 'I saw my husband Ubaydullaah bin Jahash in a dream looking most horrible and hideous. I awoke with a fright and said, 'By Allaah! His condition must have changed.' That morning he surprised me by saying, 'O Ummu Habeebah! I have thought about religion and see no religion better than Christianity. I had been a Christian before entering the religion of Muhammad. I have now reverted to Christianity.' 'By Allaah!' I exclaimed, 'There is no good for you in this.' When I informed him about my dream, he simply ignored it and then got hooked on wine until he died.'

Continuing her narration, Hadrat Ummu Habeebah says, 'I then saw someone in a dream addressing me with the title of 'Ummul Mu'mineen'. I awoke with a start and interpreted the dream to mean that Rasulullaah would soon marry me. As soon as my Iddah had expired, I well recall when the messenger of Najaashi came to me..." The rest of the narration is like the one above.

(1) Zubayr bin Bakkaar, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.4 Pg.143).
The narration however adds at the end that Hadhrat Ummu Habeebah said, "After the Muslims had eaten and left and the money came to me, I sent for Abraha who had brought me the good news. I said to her, 'I gave you what I did that day only because I had no money then. Here are fifty gold coins. Please take it and use it for yourself.' She however produced a box containing everything I had given her. Returning it to me, she said, 'The king made me promise that I shall not take anything from you as long as I am in charge of his clothing and oils. I am also a follower of the Deen of Rasulullaah and have submitted to Allaah. The king has already instructed his wives to send to you all the perfumes they have in their possession.' The next morning, she brought me plenty of fragrances such as Ood, Waras, Amber and Zabaad. I brought back all of this to Rasulullaah and although he saw it with me and saw me wearing it, he never objected.

Abraha then said to me, 'My only request to you is that you convey my Salaams to Rasulullaah and that you inform him that I have become a follower of his Deen. She treated me very kindly and even helped me prepare for the journey. Whenever she came to me, she would say, 'Do not forget my request.' When I got to Rasulullaah and informed him about the proposal and the behaviour of Abraha, he merely smiled and when I conveyed her Salaams to him, he replied by saying:

‘وَعَلِّيُهَا السَّلَامُ وَرَحْمَةُ اللَّهِ وَبَرَکَانَا’

'May Allaah's peace, mercy and blessings be on her.'(1)

Rasulullaah’s Marriage to Hadhrat Zaynab bint Jahash

Hadhrat Anas reports that when the Iddah of Hadhrat Zaynab bint Jahash had expired, Rasulullaah told Hadhrat Zaid to ask her if she would marry him. When Hadhrat Zaid saw her as she was kneading dough, her status soared so much in his heart because Rasulullaah wanted to marry her and that he was unable to even look at her. He therefore turned on his heels and facing his back to her, he said, "O Zaynab! Glad tidings to you! Rasulullaah has sent me to propose for your hand in marriage." Hadhrat Zaynab replied by saying, "I am unable to do anything until I consult with my Rabb." She then stood at the place where she performed her salaah (and engaged in salaah). It was then that Allaah revealed some verses of the Qur’aan (in which Allaah says, "We married her (Zaynab) to you (O Rasulullaah)..."(2)). (Because Allaah had conducted the marriage) Rasulullaah then went to Hadhrat Zaynab without needing to seek permission.

Hadhrat Anas says further, "I was also there when Rasulullaah went to Hadhrat Zaynab and fed us bread and meat to celebrate the occasion. While some people (ate and) left, others remained behind in the room to talk after eating. Rasulullaah ﷺ left the room and I followed him. He then visited the rooms of all his wives to greet them and they all asked him how he found his new bride. I cannot remember if it was I or someone else who informed Rasulullaah ﷺ that the guests had all left, upon which he went back (to Hadhrat Zaynab ﷺ's room). As I was about to enter with Rasulullaah ﷺ, he drew a curtain between himself and I because the verses of Hijaab had just been revealed. Also revealed was the verse teaching etiquette to the people, which states:

هَنَاكَ فَأَلْفُحُواَ لَا تَفْكَرُوا بِالنَّبِيِّ إِلَّا أَنْ تَفْكَرُوا لِكَمْ إِلَى طَعَامٍ عِبَادَاتٌ

O you who have Imaan! Enter the rooms of the Nabi ﷺ only when you are permitted to do so (invited) to partake of a meal. Then too, do not wait for it (the meal) to be prepared (by arriving too early or without invitation), but enter when (the meal is done and) you are called (to eat) and disperse (depart) once you have eaten without (remaining behind and) enjoying a (lengthy) conversation. Indeed this (arriving too early and remaining behind afterwards) hurts the Nabi ﷺ, but he is shy for you (he does not tell you lest you feel offended). (However,) Allaah does not shy away from the truth (and makes it clear to all without exception). When you ask them (Rasulullaah ﷺ's wives) for anything, then ask them from behind a curtain (without seeing them). This is purer for your hearts and for their hearts (for it safeguards you from evil thoughts and desires). It is not (permissible) for you (Mu'mineen) to hurt the Nabi ﷺ (in any way), nor to ever marry his wives after him (after he passes away). Verily this (hurting Rasulullaah ﷺ and marrying his wives after his demise) is grave in the sight of your Rabb. (Surah Ahzaab, verse 53) (1)

In another narration, Hadhrat Anas ﷺ states, "To celebrate his marriage to Hadhrat Zaynab bint Jahash ﷺ, Rasulullaah ﷺ hosted a meal of bread and meat. I was sent to invite the people to the meal and as they arrived, they ate and then left. When I could find no one more to invite, I submitted, 'O Nabi of Allaah ﷺ! I cannot find anyone else to invite.' Rasulullaah ﷺ then gave the instruction for the food to be taken away but there were still three people who stayed behind to talk. Rasulullaah ﷺ therefore left the room and went to the

she replied by saying:

وعَلیکمُ السَّلَامُ وَرَحْمَةُ اللَّهِ وَبِکَارَتَهُ

She then asked, 'How did you find your wife? May Allah bless you.' Rasulullah then went to each of his wives' rooms in turn. As he greeting them as he greeted Hadhrat Aa'isha, they said to him what Hadhrat Aa'isha had said. When Rasulullah returned to the room (of Hadhrat Zaynab), he found the three men still sitting there and talking. Because Rasulullah was extremely bashful, (rather than telling them to leave) he again walked off towards the room of Hadhrat Aa'isha. I cannot recall whether it was someone else or I who informed him that the men had left. He then returned and his one foot was still on the threshold and the other outside when he dropped the curtain between himself and I and the verse of Hijaab was revealed." (1)

Hadhrat Anas also reports that after Rasulullah had consummated his marriage to one of his wives, Hadhrat Ummu Sulaym (Hadhrat Anas's mother) cooked some Hais(2), placed it in a dish and instructed (Hadhrat Anas) saying, "Take this to Rasulullah and inform him that it is a little something from us." This occurred during times when the Sahabah were suffering great poverty and hardship. When Hadhrat Anas took it to Rasulullah, he said, "O Rasulullah! Ummu Sulaym has sent this to you. She conveys Salaams to you with the message that this is a little something from us."

Rasulullah looked at the food and instructed Hadhrat Anas to place it in the corner of the room. Thereafter, he named a large number of people and told Hadhrat Anas to invite them all. In addition to those people, Rasulullah also told Hadhrat Anas to invite every other Muslim he met. Hadhrat Anas proceeded to invite the named persons as well as everyone else he met. When he returned, the room, the platform and the courtyard was full of people. When one of the narrators asked Hadhrat Anas how many people there were, he said that they were approximately three hundred.

Rasulullah then asked Hadhrat Anas to bring the food and when he did, Rasulullah placed his hand on it, made du'a and said a few other things. Thereafter, Rasulullah said, "Let them sit in circles of ten, recite 'Bismillaah' and then every person should eat what is in front of him." The people then started by reciting 'Bismillaah' and ate (in turns) until all of them had eaten (to their fill). Hadhrat Anas says, "Rasulullah then told me to pick up the dish and when I did so and looked at it, I could not tell whether it was more when I put it down or when I picked it up."

However, some of the men remained sitting and talking in Rasulullah's room while Rasulullah's wife had to sit with her face turned towards the wall. When they prolonged their discussion, it became very inconvenient for Rasulullah but he was an extremely bashful person (and could not tell them to leave). Had they known about this (the inconvenience they were causing), it would have been difficult for them (to continue) sitting. Rasulullah got up and went to greet all his other wives. When the men saw him return, it was only then that it occurred to them that they were causing him inconvenience. They then hastened to the door and left. Rasulullah entered the room and drew the curtain closed, leaving Hadhrat Aas in the courtyard. In the little while that Rasulullah was in the room, Allaah revealed some verses of the Qur'aan and as he emerged from the room, he was reciting the verses:

أيما أنت الذين أمنوا لا تدخلوا بيوت النبي إلا أن يؤدك إلى طعام غياب نظرين
إنه لا ولكن إذا دعتم فلادخلوا فإذا تعتممت قالت ما لا مستمرين يكتبون إن ذلكرم كان يؤدى النبي قضائسي مسكتم لوالله لا يستختفي من الحكيم وإذا سالتموه من رؤا جهاب ذلكرم أظهر للمولى كولويبين وما كان تكرم أن تؤدوا رسول الله ولا أن تتكحو أزواجه من بعده أبدا إن ذلكرم كان

Verily this (hurting Rasulullah and marrying his wives after his demise) is grave in the sight of your Rabb. If you make something (such as an intention to marry of Rasulullah's wives after him) public or keep it secret, then (remember that) Allaah certainly has knowledge of everything (and will take you to task for it). {Surah Ahzaab, verses 53,54}

Hadhurat Anas says, "Rasulullaah recited these verses to me before anyone else, making me the first person to have the honour of hearing them." (1)

Rasulullaah's Marriage to Hadhrat Safiyya bint Huyay bin Akhtab

Hadhrat Anas reports that when the prisoners captured after the Battle of Khaybar were mustered together, Hadhrat Dihya approached Rasulullaah with a request. "0 Rasulullaah!" he said, "Give me a slave woman from the captives." "Go and take one," Rasulullaah said. Hadhrat Dihya proceeded to take Safiyya bint Huyay. Someone then came to Rasulullaah saying, "0 Nabi of Allaah! You have given to Dihya Safiyya bint Huyay who is the leader of the Banu Qurayzah and Banu Nadheer tribes! She is suitable only for you." Rasulullaah then sent for her and when he saw her, he instructed Hadhrat Dihya to take another woman. Rasulullaah then set her free and married her. (2)

Hadhrat Anas narrates that they marched to Khaybar and after conquering the fortress there, Rasulullaah was informed about Safiyya bint Huyay bin Akhtab. She was an extremely beautiful lady whose husband had been killed while she was still a new bride. Rasulullaah chose (to marry) her and (after leaving Khaybar) it was only when they reached the boundary of Sahbaa that she stopped menstruating. It was therefore only there that Rasulullaah was able to consummate the marriage. Rasulullaah then had some Hais prepared and served on a leather tablecloth. Hadhrat Anas was then instructed to invite whoever was in the area (to partake of the food). This was the Waleemah meal for Rasulullaah's marriage to Hadhrat Safiyya bint Huyay. Hadhrat Anas reports further that on the way back to Madinah, he saw Rasulullaah use a shawl to make a screen for her behind him. He would then kneel beside his camel and place his knee upright for her to step on as she mounted the camel. (4)

Hadhrat Anas states, "Rasulullaah camped at a place between Khaybar and Madinah for three days. It was here that he consummated his marriage to Safiyya, after which I invited the Muslims present there to a Waleemah meal that featured neither bread nor meat. All that it consisted of was Rasulullaah's instruction to Bilaal to spread out a leather tablecloth. He then scattered some dates, cheese and butter onto it (which the people ate). Some of the Muslims asked, 'Is she one of the Ummahatul Mu'mineen (wives of Rasulullaah) or his slave woman?' Others replied, 'If Rasulullaah veils

Hadrat Jaabir\(^{(1)}\) reports, 'When Safiyya bint Huyay bin Akhtab entered Rasulullaah's tent (as his wife), many people including myself presented ourselves there to have a share (of the Waleemah food). When he emerged from the tent, Rasulullaah said, 'Leave your mother (my wife) alone' (they all therefore left). When we gathered at the time of Isha, Rasulullaah came out to us carrying in the edge of his shawl close to one and a half Mudd\(^{(2)}\) of Ajwah dates. (Handing them over to us) Rasulullaah said, 'Eat from the Waleemah of your mother.'\(^{(3)}\)

Hadrat Abdullaah bin Umar\(^{(1)}\) narrates that because there were bluish marks around the eyes of Hadrat Safiyya bint Huyay, Rasulullaah asked her the reason for it. She replied, 'When I told my husband that in a dream I had seen the moon falling in my lap, he slapped me saying, 'Do you desire the king of Yathrib (Madinah)?'\(^{(4)}\)

Hadrat Safiyya bint Huyay\(^{(5)}\) narrates, 'There was no one more loathsome in my eyes than Rasulullaah who had killed both my father and husband. However, this feeling disappeared from my heart when Rasulullaah repeatedly clarified his position to me by telling me that my father had been responsible for instigating the Arabs against him and for numerous other felonies.'\(^{(4)}\)

Hadrat Abu Hurayrah\(^{(5)}\) narrates that when Rasulullaah entered (his tent) with Hadrat Safiyya, Hadrat Abu Ayyoob spent the night guarding the entrance. When he saw Rasulullaah the next morning, he was (still) carrying his sword and exclaimed, "Allahu Akbar! O Rasulullaah! Because she was only recently married and you had her father, brother and husband killed, I did not trust her with you (it is for this reason that I have stood guard here all night)." Rasulullaah laughed and praised Hadrat Abu Ayyoob.\(^{(6)}\) Another narration states that Hadrat Abu Ayyoob added, "Had she made any movement (to harm you), I would have been close by (to defend you)."\(^{(6)}\)

Hadrat Ataa bin Yasaar narrates that when Hadrat Safiyya bint Huyay arrived in Madinah, she stayed in a house belonging to Hadrat Haaritha bin Nu\'maan. When the women of the Ansaar heard about her, they came to see her celebrated beauty. Wearing her veil, Hadrat Aa'isha also went to see her and as she was leaving, Rasulullaah followed her out and asked,

Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Musayyib narrates that when Hadhrat Safiyya bint Huyay arrived (in Madinah), she was wearing gold earrings in the shape of palm leaves. She however gave these as a gift to (Rasulullaah's daughter) Hadhrat Faatima and some other ladies who were with her. (2)

Rasulullaah's Marriage to Hadhrat Juwayriyya Bint Haarith Khuzaa'ee

Hadhrat A'isha narrates that when the captives of the Banu Mustaliq tribe were distributed (amongst the Muslim army), Hadhrat Juwayriyyah bint Haarith happened to fall in the lot of Hadhrat Thaabit bin Qais bin Shammaas or one of his nephews. (Rather than being a conventional slave) Hadhrat Juwayriyyah entered into a contract of Kitaabah (3) with him. She was an extremely pleasant and beautiful woman who attracted anyone who saw her. Hadhrat A'isha says, "She one day came to Rasulullaah to seek assistance with paying off her Kitaabah. By Allaah! I disliked her as soon as I saw her standing at the door of my room because I knew that Rasulullaah would also see in her what I saw. When she entered the room, she said, 'O Rasulullaah! I am Juwayriyyah the daughter of Haarith bin Abu Diraar the leader of his tribe. As you well know, a calamity has befallen me (when I was captured and taken as a slave). I fell to the lot of Thaabit bin Qais bin Shammaas and entered into a contract of Kitaabah with him. I have now come to seek your assistance to pay of the Kitaabah."

"Do you not want something better?" Rasulullaah asked. "What is that, O Rasulullaah?" she wanted to know. Rasulullaah said, "That I should pay off your Kitaabah and then marry you." "Certainly, O Rasulullaah!" she replied, "I am most willing."

When the news reached the Sahabah that Rasulullaah had married Hadhrat Juwayriyyah, they said, "They (the tribe of Hadhrat Juwayriyyah) are now the in-laws of Rasulullaah so free those of them whom you own (as your slaves)." Hadhrat A'isha says, "It was therefore as a result of Rasulullaah's marriage to Juwayriyyah that a hundred families of the Banu Mustaliq tribe were set free. I do not know of any woman who was a greater blessing for her tribe than Juwayriyyah." (4) from Yathrib and fell into my lap. I however did not want to tell anyone about this until Rasulullaah ﷺ actually arrived. When we were taken captive, the dream gave me hope and Rasulullaah ﷺ eventually set me free and married me. By Allaah! I never spoke to Rasulullaah ﷺ about (freeing) the people of my tribe until the Muslims freed them by themselves. In fact, I only found out about it when one of my cousins informed me about it. I then praised Allaah for it.” (1)

Rasulullaah ﷺ's Marriage to Hadhrat Maymoonah bint Haarith Hilaaliyyah ﷺ

Hadhrat Ibn Shihaab narrates that it was the year after signing the Treaty of Hudaybiyyah that Rasulullaah ﷺ left to perform Umrah. This occurred seven years after the Hijrah during the month of Dhul Qa'dah, which was the same month in which the Mushrikeen had prevented Rasulullaah ﷺ from entering the Masjidul Haraam (the previous year). When he reached a place called Yajjji, Rasulullaah ﷺ sent Hadhrat Ja'far bin Abu Taalib ﷺ to propose on his behalf for the hand of Hadhrat Maymoonah bint Haarith bin Hazan Aamiriyyah ﷺ in marriage. Hadhrat Maymoonah ﷺ handed over her affairs to Hadhrat Abbaas bin Abdul Muttalib ﷺ who was married to her sister Ummu Fadhl ﷺ. Hadhrat Abbaas ﷺ then handed her over in marriage to Rasulullaah ﷺ. Rasulullaah ﷺ stayed over in Sarif for a while until Hadhrat Maymoonah ﷺ arrived there and the marriage was consummated. Allaah had decreed that Hadhrat Maymoonah ﷺ should pass away at the same place where her marriage to Rasulullaah ﷺ was consummated. (2)

Another narration states that after marrying Hadhrat Maymoonah bint Haarith ﷺ, Rasulullaah ﷺ stayed in Makkah for three days. On the third day, Huwaytib bin Abdul Uzza came to Rasulullaah ﷺ with a few men of the Quraysh and said, "Your stay has expired, so leave us." Rasulullaah ﷺ said to them, "What harm will it do to you if you leave me to consummate my marriage in your midst, after which I shall host a meal which you all can attend?" "We have no need for you food," they snapped, "do leave us." Rasulullaah ﷺ therefore left for Madinah with Hadhrat Maymoonah ﷺ and consummated his marriage at Sarif. (3)

Rasulullaah ﷺ Marries his Daughter Hadhrat Faatima ﷺ to Hadhrat Ali bin Abi Taalib ﷺ

Hadhrat Ali ﷺ narrates, "When a marriage proposal for Faatima ﷺ was sent to Rasulullaah ﷺ, a slave of mine asked, 'Do you know that a marriage proposal for Faatima ﷺ has been sent to Rasulullaah ﷺ?' When I declared that I did not know, she said, 'Well! She has already received a proposal.

What stops you from approaching Rasulullah ﷺ (and requesting him) to marry her to you?' 'Do I have anything with which to marry her?' I said. She said, You only have to approach Rasulullah ﷺ and he will marry her to you.' By Allaah! She then continued giving me hope until I went to see Rasulullah ﷺ. However, when I sat before Rasulullah ﷺ, I was unable to utter a word out of respect and awe for him. Rasulullah ﷺ asked, 'What brings you here? Is there something you need?' When I remained silent, Rasulullah ﷺ said, 'Have you perhaps come to propose for Faatima?' 'Yes,' I managed to reply. 'Have you got anything to give as dowry?' Rasulullah ﷺ asked. 'By Allaah!' I replied, 'I have nothing.' 'What has happened to the suit of armour I gave you?' he asked. I swear by the Being Who controls the life of Ali that the armour was the type made by the Hatma bin Muhairib tribe and was barely worth four (hundred) Dirhams. When I informed Rasulullah ﷺ that I still had it with me, he said, 'Then I have handed her over in marriage to you so send it to her as dowry.' This was therefore the dowry of Faatima ﷺ, the daughter of Rasulullah ﷺ.

Hadrat Buraydah narrates that a group of the Ansaar once suggested to Hadrat Ali ﷺ that he propose for Hadrat Faatima ﷺ's hand in marriage. (When he approached Rasulullah ﷺ) Rasulullah ﷺ asked, 'What does the son of Abu Taalib need?' 'O Rasulullah ﷺ,' Hadrat Ali ﷺ replied, 'I wish to propose for the hand of Faatima the daughter of Rasulullah ﷺ.' All Rasulullah ﷺ said was, 'Marhaban wa Ahlan.' Hadrat Ali ﷺ then left and met with the group of Ansaar who had been waiting for him. When they asked him what had happened, he replied, 'All I know is that Rasulullah ﷺ said, 'Marhaban wa Ahlan.' They said, 'Even one of two things Rasulullah ﷺ gave you are sufficient. He gave you both Ahl (a family) as well as Marhab (a comfortable home).

After handing Hadrat Faatima ﷺ over in marriage, Rasulullah ﷺ said, 'O Ali! It is necessary for a Waleemah to be hosted after consummation.' Hadrat Sa'd offered a sheep he owned (for the meat) and the Ansaar collected a few Saa of wheat (for the bread). When the night of the consummation arrived, Rasulullah ﷺ gave the couple instructions to do nothing until he arrived. (When he got there) Rasulullah ﷺ asked for some water, performed wudhu and then sprinkled some of the water on to Hadrat Ali ﷺ, saying:

"O Allaah! Bless the two of them and bless them in their consummation." (2)

Another narration similar to the above, states that the du'aa Rasulullah ﷺ made was:

"O Allaah! Bless the two of them and bless them in their two lion like sons." (3)

A third narration quotes the du‘aa of Rasulullah ﷺ as:

"O Allaah! Bless the two of them, shower Your blessings on them, bless them in their consummation and bless them in their progeny." (1)

Yet another narration states that Rasulullah ﷺ added:

"...and bless their communion." (2)

Hadrat Asmaa bint Umays ﷺ narrates that after Hadrat Faatima ﷺ was married to Hadrat Ali ﷺ, all that they saw in her house was a straw mat spread out on the ground, a pillow stuffed with the bark of a palm tree, an earthen jug and an earthen mug. (On the night of the marriage) Rasulullah ﷺ sent a message saying, "Do nothing" or "Do not get close to your wife until I come." When Rasulullah ﷺ arrived, he asked, "Is my brother here?" When Rasulullah ﷺ forged bonds of brotherhood between the Sahabah ﷺ, he forged his brotherhood with Hadrat Ali ﷺ. Hadrat Ummu Ayman ﷺ, a pious woman who was an Abyssinian and the mother of Hadrat Usaama bin Zaid ﷺ asked in surprise, "O Rasulullah ﷺ! He is your brother and you have married your daughter to him?" Rasulullah ﷺ replied, "This (marriage) can take place (despite this type of brotherhood), O Ummu Ayman."

Rasulullah ﷺ then sent for a container of water, uttered some words and then passed his hands over the chest and face of Hadrat Ali ﷺ. He then called Hadrat Faatima ﷺ who stood by him shivering in her shawl out of modesty. Rasulullah ﷺ sprinkled some of the water on her and also uttered some words. He then said to her, "I have not failed you in my duty to get you married to the family member I love most." Hadrat Asmaa ﷺ narrates further. She says, "Rasulullah ﷺ then noticed a figure behind the curtain or behind the door and asked, 'Who is that?' 'Asmaa,' I replied. 'Asmaa bint Umays?' Rasulullah ﷺ asked. 'Yes, O Rasulullah ﷺ,' I confirmed. He then asked, 'Have you come to be of service to Rasulullah ﷺ (and his family)?' 'Yes,' I replied, 'because a young girl must have a family woman with her on her first night to take care of anything she might need.' Rasulullah ﷺ then made such a wonderful du‘aa for me that it is the one deed that I have most hope in (to deliver me to salvation in the Aakhirah). Rasulullah ﷺ then said to Ali ﷺ, 'Look after you wife' and as he left, he continued making du‘aa for them until he disappeared in his rooms." (3)

In another narration, Hadrat Asmaa bint Umays ﷺ says, "I was present the night Rasulullah ﷺ's daughter Faatima ﷺ became a new bride. That morning, Rasulullah ﷺ arrived and knocked at the door. When Ummu Ayman got up and opened the door, Rasulullaah asked, 'O Ummu Ayman! Call my brother for me.' She said, 'He is your brother and you got him married to your daughter?' 'O Ummu Ayman!' Rasulullaah continued, 'Do call him for me.' When the other women heard Rasulullaah's voice, they dispersed and he took a seat in the corner. Ali then arrived and after making du'aa for him, Rasulullaah sprinkled some water on him as well. Thereafter, Rasulullaah sent for Faatima. She arrived all covered in perspiration and taking short steps out of her extreme modesty. 'Relax,' Rasulullaah reassured her, 'I have married you to the family member I love the most.' The rest of the narration is like the one quoted above. (1)

Hadhurat Ali narrates that when Rasulullaah got him married to Hadhrat Faatima, Rasulullaah sent for some water and then gargled with it. Rasulullaah then took Hadhrat Ali into the room where he sprinkled the water on his chest and between his shoulders and then sought Allaah's protection for him by reciting Surah Ikhlaas (Surah 112) and the Mu'awwadhatayn (Surah Falaq and Surah Naas). (2)

Hadhurat Albaa bin Ahmar reports from Hadhrat Ali that when he proposed for Rasulullaah's daughter Hadhrat Faatima, he sold a suit of armour he owned as well as some of his other possessions for a sum of four hundred and eighty Dirhams. Rasulullaah instructed him to use two-thirds for perfume and the remaining third for clothing. Rasulullaah then gargled in a utensil of water and told the couple to bath with it. Rasulullaah also instructed Hadhrat Faatima not to feed any of her children before he got to the child, but she started feeding Hadhrat Husayn before Rasulullaah could arrive. As for Hadhrat Hasan, Rasulullaah put some unknown thing in his mouth because of which he was more knowledgeable than his brother. (3)

Hadhurat Jaabir narrates, "We attended the marriage of Ali and Faatima and have not witnessed a better marriage. The matting (on which we sat) was stuffed with the bark of a date palm and we were served raisins and dates to eat. Her bedding on her first night was a sheepskin." (4)

Hadhurat Ali reports that when Hadhrat Faatima got married, Rasulullaah gave her a blanket, a water bag and a leather pillow stuffed with Idhkhir grass. (5)

Hadhurat Abdullaah bin Amr reports that when Rasulullaah sent Hadhrat Faatima to (her husband) Hadhrat Ali, Rasulullaah gave her a blanket, a water bag and a leather pillow stuffed with the bark of a date palm and Idhkhir grass. The couple slept on (half of) the blanket and used

The Marriage of Hadhrat Rabee'ah Aslami

Hadhrat Rabee'ah says, "I was Rasulullah's servant. One day he asked, 'O Rabee'ah! Are you not interested in getting married?' I replied, 'I have no intention of marrying. While I have nothing with which to support a wife, I also do not want anything to preoccupy me from (serving) you.' When Rasulullah turned away from me, I said to myself, 'By Allaah! Rasulullah definitely knows better than me what is best for me in this world and in the Aakhirah. By Allaah! Should he ever again ask me whether I am interested in getting married, I shall reply, 'Certainly, O Rasululllah! Instruct me as you please.' When Rasulullah did ask me whether I was interested in getting married, I replied, 'Certainly, O Rasululllah! Instruct me as you please.' Rasulullah then instructed me to go to a particular tribe of the Ansaar who did not frequently meet with Rasulullah. He told me to tell them that he had sent me to them with instructions to get me married to a certain girl from amongst them. I therefore went to them and informed them that Rasulullah had sent me with instructions that they get me married. 'Welcome to Rasulullah and the messenger of Rasulullah!' they cried out, 'By Allaah! the messenger of Rasulullah shall never return without having his need fulfilled. They then got me married and treated me exceptionally well without even asking for a witness.

I returned depressed to Rasulullah saying, 'O Rasulullah! I have been to people who are extremely generous. They got me married and treated me exceptionally well without even asking for a witness. However, I have no dowry to give. Rasulullah then called for Buraydah Aslami (the leader of my tribe) and instructed him to collect some gold for me equivalent to the weight of a date stone. When I took possession of what the people collected for me, I brought it to Rasulullah who said, 'Take this to them and tell them that this is her dowry.' When I did so and told them that this was her dowry, they accepted it with great happiness and said, 'This is excellent and so much!'

When I again returned depressed to Rasulullah, he asked, 'Why so gloomy, O Rabee'ah?' 'O Rasulullah!' I began, 'I have never met people as wonderful as them. They were happy with what I gave them and treated me extremely well. They even told me that the dowry was excellent and so much.' However, I have nothing with which to host a Waleemah. 'O Buraydah!' Rasulullah called out, 'Collect (money) for a goat for him.' After the people (of my tribe) had collected (enough to buy) a large and fat sheep, Rasulullah instructed me to go to Aa'ishah and tell her to give me the basket containing the grains. I did as I was ordered and she said, 'Here is the basket containing seven Saa of barley. By Allaah! By Allaah! we have no other food besides this. You may have it.' I took the basket to Rasulullah and informed him about what Aa'ishah had said. Rasulullah said, 'Take this to them (your in-laws) and tell them to bake this (the barley) into bread and to cook that (the sheep).' (When I took it to them) They said, 'While we can take care of the bread for you, you will have to see to the sheep for us.' Some men of the Aslam tribe and I took the sheep, slaughtered it, skinned it and then cooked it. We then had bread and meat with us and I hosted the Waleemah. I also invited Rasulullaah ﷺ.

Thereafter, Rasulullaah ﷺ gave me a piece of land and gave a piece to Abu Bakr ﷺ as well. The world had finally come to me. It however occurred that Abu Bakr ﷺ and I fell into a dispute regarding a date palm which I claimed was on my property and he claimed was on his. When an argument ensued, Abu Bakr ﷺ told me something that I disliked. He however regretted what he did and said to me, 'O Rabee'ah! Please repeat the words to me so that justice is done.' 'I shall never do so,' I replied. He said, 'If you do not repeat the words, I shall complain about you to Rasulullaah ﷺ.' When I adamantly refused, he forsook the land issue and went to Rasulullaah ﷺ. I went behind him. Some men of the Aslam tribe came and said, 'May Allaah have mercy on Abu Bakr! What will he complain to Rasulullaah ﷺ about when it was he who said those words?' 'Do you people know who that is?' I asked. 'That is Abu Bakr Siddeeq!' I emphasised, 'He was the second of the two (in the cave) and the oldest Muslim. Beware that he should not turn and see you assisting me against him and then become angry. When he then goes to Rasulullaah ﷺ, Rasulullaah ﷺ should not become angry because of his anger and then Allaah should not become angry because the two of them are angry. If that happens, Rabee'ah shall be doomed.' 'What do you want us to do?' they asked. I then told them to return. As Abu Bakr ﷺ proceeded to Rasulullaah ﷺ and I followed him by myself. After he had narrated the incident as it had occurred, Rasulullaah ﷺ looked up to me and said, 'O Rabee'ah! What is the problem between you and Siddee?Q' I explained the situation to Rasulullaah ﷺ, adding that when he told me something I disliked, he said, 'Please repeat the words to me so that justice is done.' I then refused to do so. Rasulullaah ﷺ said, 'That was right. You should not repeat the words. However, you could have at least said, 'May Allaah forgive you, O Abu Bakr.' Hadhrat Abu Bakr ﷺ then turned around weeping. (1)

The Marriage of Hadhrat Julaybeeb ﷺ

Hadhrat Abu Barzah ﷺ reports that Hadhrat Julaybeeb ﷺ was a man who frequently visited women and joked with them. Hadhrat Abu Barzah ﷺ himself instructed his wife never to allow Hadhrat Julaybeeb ﷺ to see her and threatened to do many things if she ever did so. It was a practice amongst the Ansaar never to get any of their widows married until they were sure that Rasulullaah ﷺ was not interested in marrying her. Rasulullaah ﷺ once said to one of the Ansaar, "Will you allow me to marry your daughter?" "Of course,"

(1) Ahmad and Tabraani, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.4 Pg.257). Abu Ya'la has reported a similar narration, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol5. Pg.336). While Haakim and others have reported the incident of the marriage, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.36), Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.44) has reported the incident with Hadhrat Abu Bakr ﷺ.
the man obliged, "it will be a great honour and pleasure." "I do not wish to marry her to myself (but to someone else)," Rasulullaah ~ pointed out. "Then for whom?" the Ansaari asked. "For Julaybeeb," Rasulullaah ~ replied. The Ansaars said, "I shall consult with her mother."

He then asked (his wife), "Rasulullaah has proposed for your daughter." "Of course," she agreed, "it will be a great pleasure." "However," the Ansaari explained, "he is not proposing for himself, but on behalf of Julaybeeb." The lady burst out, "To Julaybeeb! Never! To Julaybeeb! Never! I swear by life that we shall never marry him (to our daughter)!

As the Ansaari was about to get up to inform Rasulullaah ~ about what the mother said when the daughter asked, "Who was it that brought to you a proposal for me?" When the mother informed her (that it was Rasulullaah ~ who brought the proposal), the girl asked, "Are you then rejecting the command of Rasulullaah ~? Hand me over in marriage to him for he shall never destroy me (since the marriage is with Rasulullaah ~'s approval)."

Her father then went to Rasulullaah ~ and reported the incident to him, saying, "My daughter places her affairs in your hands. You may marry her to whomever you please." Rasulullaah ~ then proceeded to get her married to Hadhrat Julaybeeb ~.

It then occurred that Rasulullaah ~ once went out to a battle. After Allaah had given Rasulullaah ~ a large booty, he asked, "Is someone missing?" When the Sahabah ~ said that they found no one missing, Rasulullaah ~ said, "But I notice that Julaybeeb is missing. Look for him." When the Sahabah ~ went out in search of him, they found him beside the bodies of seven men of the enemy whom he had killed before the enemy managed to kill him. They then reported back saying, "O Rasulullaah ~! He is there beside the bodies of seven men of the enemy whom he had killed before the enemy managed to kill him."

Rasulullaah ~ went to the body of Hadhrat Julaybeeb ~ and said, "He killed seven before they managed to kill him. He is from me and I from him." Rasulullaah ~ repeated this two or three times and then took him in his arms. A grave was then dug for him and there was no bier besides the arms of Rasulullaah ~. Rasulullaah ~ himself lay the body in the grave. The Hadith does not state whether the body was bathed or not.

When Hadhrat Thaabit noted that there was no widow from the Ansaar who was more charitable than the widow of Hadhrat Julaybeeb ~, Hadhrat Is'haaq bin Abdullaah bin Abu Talha said to him, "Do you know what du'a Rasulullaah ~ made for her? He said, 'O Allaah! Pour down good on her in abundance and never give her a life of hardship.' It is for this reason that there was never a widow amongst the Ansaar more charitable than her." (1)

The Marriage of Hadhrat Salmaan Faarsi ~

Hadhrat Salmaan Faarsi ~ reports that he once married a woman from the Kindah tribe and consummated the marriage in her house. On the night of the marriage, his friends walked with him to her house and when they reached it, he said to them, "You may return now. May Allaah reward you." He did not allow them to enter the house as foolish people generally do. When he looked at the house which had been decorated (with drapes on all sides), he remarked, "Is your house feverish (because of which you had to bandage it) or has the Kabah been moved to the Kindah tribe?" The people replied, "Neither is the house feverish nor has the Kabah been moved to the Kindah tribe." Hadhrat Salmaan then refused to enter the house until all the drapes were removed except for the drape covering the entrance.

When Hadhrat Salmaan finally entered the house, he saw a large amount of goods there. "Whose goods are these?" he asked. "Yours and your wife's," the people replied. Hadhrat Salmaan said, "This does not conform with the advice my beloved friend (Rasulullaah) gave me. My beloved friend advised me to have only that much of worldly goods that a traveller has as provisions." When he saw a few (female) servants, he asked, "Whose servants are these?" When he was informed that the servants also belonged to him and his wife, he said, "This also does not conform with the advice my beloved friend gave me. He advised me to keep only those (female) servants whom I can marry or who I can get married (to others). If I do keep them and they fornicate (because they have none to satisfy their needs), their sins will be on me without any reduction to the sin they will be guilty of."

Hadhra Salmaan then turned to the women around his wife and said, "Will you ladies leave me to be alone with my wife?" They readily agreed and left. Hadhrat Salmaan then went to the door, shut it and drew the drape over it. Thereafter, he sat with his wife, held her forelock and made du'a for blessings. He then asked her, "Will you obey any instructions I give you?" Her reply was, "You are sitting in the position of a person who has to be obeyed." He continued to say, "My beloved friend advised me that when I meet with my wife (for the first time), I should meet with her in the obedience of Allaah." He then got up and proceeded to the place of salaah with her following him. After performing salaah for some time, they left the place of salaah and he then fulfilled with her the need a man has with his wife.

Early next morning his friends came to him asking, "How did you find your wife?" When he ignored them, they repeated the question. Again he ignored them but again they repeated themselves. When they repeated the question a third time, he ignored them yet again but then finally said, "Allaah has made drapes, curtains and doors to conceal what lies behind them. It is sufficient to ask about things that are apparent but one should never ask about things that are hidden. I heard Rasulullaah say that those person who narrate such (private) things are like donkeys having intercourse on the street." (1) met him and remarked, "You are a most beloved servant of Allaah." Hadhrat Salmaan ¦‖ said, "Then get me married (to one of your daughters)." Hadhrat Umar ¦‖ remained silent. Hadhrat Salmaan ¦‖ further said, "You consider me a beloved servant of Allaah but are not happy to have me as your son-in-law?"

The next morning, some of Hadhrat Umar ¦‖'s family members approached Hadhrat Salmaan ¦‖. "Do you people need something?" he asked. When they admitted that they did, he said, "What is it? It shall gladly be fulfilled." They said, "We request that you abandon the matter i.e., your proposal to Hadhrat Umar ¦―. "By Allaah!" Hadhrat Salmaan ¦‖ emphasised, "You should remember well that I did not make the proposal because of his being the Khalifah and ruler. The truth is that I thought to myself that because he is a pious man, perhaps Allaah will produce pious offspring from his progeny and mine." Hadhrat Salmaan ¦‖ then got married to a woman from the Kindah tribe. The rest of the narration is like the one above. (1)

The Marriage of Hadhrat Abu Dardaa ﷺ

Hadrat Thaabit Bunaani reports that Hadhrat Abu Dardaa ﷺ once went with Hadhrat Salmaan Faarsi ¦‖ to extend a proposal on his behalf for a woman of the Banu Layth tribe. Hadhrat Abu Dardaa ﷺ went in to see the family and told them in detail that Hadhrat Salmaan ¦‖ was one of the early Muslims and also recounted his acceptance of Islaam. He then proceeded to mention to them that Hadhrat Salmaan ¦‖ wished to marry a particular girl of their family. Their reply was, "While we do not wish to get Salmaan ¦‖ married (to our daughter), we wouldn't mind getting you married (to her)." They then handed her over in marriage to him and he left.

(When he met Hadhrat Salmaan ¦‖) Hadhrat Abu Dardaa ﷺ said, "Something has happened that I am too embarrassed to tell you about." "What is it?" Hadhrat Salmaan ¦‖ asked. When Hadhrat Abu Dardaa ﷺ related the incident to him, Hadhrat Salmaan ¦‖ said, "I should be the one embarrassed since I proposed for a woman whom Allaah had destined for you." (2)

Hadhrat Abu Dardaa ﷺ gets his Daughter Dardaa Married to One of the Poor and Simple Muslims

Hadrat Thaabit Bunaani narrates that when Yazeed bin Mu'aawiyah sent to Hadhrat Abu Dardaa ﷺ a proposal for his daughter Dardaa, he rejected the proposal. One of Yazeed's companions said, "May Allaah mend your affairs. Will you allow me to marry her?" The man persisted, "Then allow me? Allaah will mend your affairs." "Alright," Yazeed said. The man proceeded to propose and Hadhrat Abu Dardaa got him married (to his daughter). The news spread that while Hadhrat Abu Dardaa rejected Yazeed's proposal, he accepted the proposal of a poor and simple Muslim and then married his daughter to him. Hadhrat Abu Dardaa's comment was, "I did it in the best interests of Dardaa. What do you think would be her condition when (in Yazeed's wealthy household) she has castrated slaves standing over her all the time and when her eyes are dazzled when she sees the (opulent) house? Where will her Deen be then (when she becomes obsessed with worldly wealth)?" (1)

Kulthoom to Hadhrat Umar bin Khattaab

Hadhrat Abu Ja'far reports that Hadhrat Umar once sent a proposal to Hadhrat Ali for his daughter Ummu Kulthoom's hand in marriage. When Hadhrat Ali sent a message stating that she was still too young, someone told Hadhrat Umar that the statement meant that Hadhrat Ali was refusing. When Hadhrat Umar explained to Hadhrat Ali (his reason for wanting to marry her), Hadhrat Ali (agreed to get her married to him and) said, "(Consider the marriage done, so) I am sending her to you and she is your wife if you are pleased with her." Hadhrat Ali then sent her to Hadhrat Umar, who (knowing that she was his wife) ventured to lift the garment from her legs. (Not realising that the marriage was already concluded) She however exclaimed, "Leave it! Had you not been the Ameerul Mu'mineen, I would have slapped you across the face!" (2)

Hadhrat Muhammad narrates that when Hadhrat Umar proposed to Hadhrat Ali for his daughter Ummu Kulthoom's hand in marriage, Hadhrat Ali said, "I am reserving my daughters for the sons of (my brother) Ja'far." Hadhrat Umar pleaded, "Please marry her to me because I swear by Allaah that no man on earth will ensure that she is honoured as I will." Hadhrat Ali agreed and married her to Hadhrat Umar. Hadhrat Umar then went to the Muhaajireen and said, "Congratulate me on my new marriage!" They all congratulated him and then asked, "Who did you marry, O Ameerul Mu'mineen?" "The daughter of Ali bin Abi Taalib," he replied. He then started to explain, "Indeed Rasulullaah said, 'Every connection and relation shall be severed on the day of Qiyaamah except my connections and my relations.' I had been a father-in-law of Rasulullaah and now I wish this as well (to become his relative by marrying his granddaughter)." Another narration from Hadhrat Ataa Khuraasaani states that Hadhrat Umar gave her a dowry of forty thousand Dirhams. (3)

Hadhrat Adi bin Haatim ﷺ Marries his Daughter to Hadhrat Amr bin Hurayth ﷺ

Hadhrat Sha'bi narrates that Hadhrat Amr bin Hurayth ﷺ once proposed for the daughter of Hadhrat Adi bin Haatim ﷺ. Hadhrat Adi ﷺ said, "I shall marry her (to you) only if you fulfil my condition." "What is it?" Hadhrat Amr ﷺ asked. Hadhrat Adi ﷺ explained, "There was indeed a sterling example for you in Rasulullaah ﷺ. Therefore instruct you to pay the dowry Rasulullaah ﷺ gave for Aa'isha ﷺ, which is a sum of four hundred and eighty Dirhams."

Another narration states that Hadhrat Amr bin Hurayth ﷺ sent a proposal for the daughter of Hadhrat Adi bin Haatim ﷺ with an appended message to Hadhrat Adi ﷺ stating, "Let me know what you decide about me." Hadhrat Adi ﷺ sent a message stating, "I have decided that you should pay (a dowry of) four hundred and eighty Dirhams, which is the Sunnah of Rasulullaah ﷺ."

The Marriages of Hadhrat Bilaal ﷺ and his Brother

Hadhrat Sha'bi narrates that when Hadhrat Bilaal ﷺ and his brother extended marriage proposals to family from Yemen, Hadhrat Bilaal ﷺ said, "I am Bilaal and this is my brother. We were both slaves from Abyssinia. When we were misguided, Allaah guided us and when we were slaves, Allaah set us free. If you marry us (to your daughters), then all praise is due to Allaah (we shall be grateful) and if you refuse, (we will not mind because) Allaah is still the Greatest (and He will open other avenues for us). (The family agreed and got them married).

Hadhrat Maymoon reports that one of Hadhrat Bilaal ﷺ's brothers claimed that he was of Arab descent and considered himself an Arab. When he once proposed for an Arab woman, the family said, "We will marry you only if Bilaal ﷺ is present." Hadhrat Bilaal ﷺ presented himself and after reciting the words of the Khutbah, he said, "I am Bilaal bin Rabaah and this is my brother. He is a man who is poor in his character and religious practices. You may get him married if you please and if you chose to refuse him, you are at liberty to do so." The family said, "We shall certainly marry anyone who is a brother of yours." They then got him married.

Condemning Those whose Marriages Resemble The Kuffaar

Hadhrat Urwa bin Ruwaym reports that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Qurt Thumaali ﷺ who was a companion of Rasulullaah ﷺ was appointed governor by Hadhrat Umar ﷺ. He was patrolling the streets of Hims one night when he

(2) Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.237).
passed by a bride in front of whom people were lighting several fires. Hadhrat Abdullaah \(\text{\textregistered}\) started hitting the people with his whip until they all dispersed. The next morning he sat on his pulpit and after duly praising Allaah, he said, "When Abu Jandalah \(\text{\textregistered}\) married Umaamah \(\text{\textregistered}\), he prepared some handfuls of food (as a Waleemah) for (his marriage to) her. May Allaah shower His compassion on Abu Jandalah \(\text{\textregistered}\) and may He shower His special mercies on Umaamah \(\text{\textregistered}\). May Allaah however curse your wedding of last night! The people were lighting fires and imitating the Kuffaar whereas Allaah has extinguished their light!" (1)

Dowry

The Dowry of Rasulullaah \(\text{\textregistered}\)

Hadhrat Aa'isha \(\text{\textregistered}\) reports that that the dowry Rasulullaah \(\text{\textregistered}\) gave (her) was twelve \textit{Awqiyaa} and a \textit{Nash}, which totalled an amount of five hundred Dirhams. She then went on to specify that an \textit{Awqiya} amounted to forty Dirhams and a \textit{Nash} amounted to twenty Dirhams. (2)

Hadhrat Umar \(\text{\textregistered}\) Forbids Exorbitant Dowries and a Woman's Objection to this Hadhrat Masrooq narrates that Hadhrat Umar \(\text{\textregistered}\) once mounted the pulpit and said, "I do not know who increased dowries above four hundred Dirhams because the dowry that Rasulullaah \(\text{\textregistered}\) and the Sahabah \(\text{\textregistered}\) gave was always four hundred Dirhams or less. Had larger dowries been an act of Taqwa or honour, people would have never beat Rasulullaah \(\text{\textregistered}\) and the Sahabah \(\text{\textregistered}\) to it." After Hadhrat Umar \(\text{\textregistered}\) had alighted from the pulpit, a woman from the Quraysh objected. "O Ameerul Mu'mineen!" she said, "Are you forbidding the people from paying dowries in excess of four hundred Dirhams?" When Hadhrat Umar \(\text{\textregistered}\) confirmed it, she said, "Have you then not heard Allaah say in the Qur'aan:

\text{(Surah Nisaa, verse 20)}

'...when you have given one of them (your wives) a fortune (as dowry)...' (3)

Hadhrat Umar \(\text{\textregistered}\) then said, "Allaah forgive me! Everyone has more understanding than Umar." He then returned to the pulpit and said, "O people! I had forbidden you from paying dowries in excess of four hundred Dirhams (the prohibition no longer stands). Therefore whoever wishes to give whatever he pleases from his wealth, he may do so." (4)

Hadhrat Sha'bi reports that Hadhrat Umar bin Khattaab \(\text{\textregistered}\) once delivered a

After duly praising Allaah, he said, "Take note that you people should not make your dowries exorbitant. If the news ever reaches me that any of you has paid more that what Rasulullaah paid or what was paid to him (as dowry for his daughters), I shall deposit the excess into the public treasury."

After Hadhrat Umar had alighted from the pulpit, a woman from the Quraysh objected. "O Ameerul Mu'mineen!" she said, "Is the Book of Allaah more worthy of following or your words?" "The Book of Allaah of course," Hadhrat Umar replied, "what do you mean by this?" She explained, "You just forbade the people from paying dowries in excess of four hundred Dirhams whereas Allaah says in His Book:

\text{...when you have given one of them (your wives) a fortune (as dowry) then do not take anything from it...} \]^{(1)}

Hadhrat Umar twice or thrice repeated, "Everyone has more understanding than Umar." He then returned to the pulpit and said, "O people! I had forbidden you from paying dowries in excess of four hundred Dirhams (the prohibition no longer stands). A man is at liberty to give whatever he pleases from his wealth." \(^{(2)}\)

Hadhrat Umar once said, "Had (exorbitant) dowries been a source of status and elevation in the Aakhirah, the daughters and wives of Rasulullaah would have been most deserving of it." \(^{(3)}\)

Hadhrat Ibn Seereen reports that Hadhrat Umar allowed dowries of two thousand Dirhams while Hadhrat Uthmaan allowed dowries of four thousand. \(^{(4)}\)

Hadhrat Naafi reports that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar married Hadhrat Safiyya for a dowry of four hundred Dirhams. She however returned it saying that it was insufficient. He then added another two hundred Dirhams without Hadhrat Umar knowing about it. \(^{(5)}\)

Hadhrat Ibn Seereen narrates that when Hadhrat Hasan bin Ali married a woman, he sent a hundred slave women to her, each one of them carrying a thousand Dirhams. \(^{(6)}\)

Relationships between Men, Women and Children

The Relationship between Hadhrat Aa'isha and Hadhrat Sauda

Hadhrat Aa'isha reports, "I once brought Rasulullah some Hareerah that I had cooked. Sauda was sitting between between Rasulullah and I, so I told her to have some as well. When she refused, I said, 'If you do not eat, I shall smear it on your face.' She however still refused so I put my hand in the Hareerah and plastered it on her face. Rasulullah laughed as he put his hand in it saying, 'Now you smear her face.' Sauda then smeared it on my face and again Rasulullah laughed. Just then Umar passed by calling out for (someone called) Abdullaah. Thinking that he would soon enter, Rasulullah said, 'Get up and wash your faces!' Thereafter, I always stood in awe of Hadhrat Umar because of the respect Rasulullah had for him."

Another narration adds that Hadhrat Abu Bakr said, "Rasulullah lowered his knee for Sauda (to step on) so that she could get even with me. She then took some (Hareerah) from the dish and spread it on my face as Rasulullah laughed." (1)

The Relationship Between Hadhrat Aa'isha and Hadhrat Hafsah with Hadhrat Sauda Yamaaniyyah

Hadhrat Razeenah who was a freed slave of Rasulullah reports that Hadhrat Sauda Yamaaniyyah once visited Hadhrat Aa'isha at a time when Hadhrat Hafsah was with her. Hadhrat Sauda arrived looking stunning and well-dressed with a Yemeni shawl and matching scarf. She also wore two spots of aloe and saffron on their places (near her eyes) which resembled two pimples. A narrator called Ulayla says that she found women beautifying themselves with aloe and saffron.

Hadhrat Hafsah said to Hadhrat Aa'isha, "O Ummul Mu'mineen! Rasulullah is due to arrive when this woman is gleaming here between us." "Fear Allaah, O Hafsah!" Hadhrat Aa'isha warned. However, Hadhrat Hafsah said, "I am going to ruin her adornment for her." Hadhrat Sauda who was hard of hearing asked, "What are you two saying?" "O Sauda! Hadhrat Hafsah said, "The one-eyed (Dajjaal) has appeared!" "Really?" Hadhrat Sauda cried out. She was extremely shocked and started to shiver. "Where shall I hide?" she asked. "You will have to go to the tent," Hadhrat

(1) Abu Ya'la Haythami (Vol 4 Pg.316) has commented on the chain of narrators. Ibn Asaakir has reported a similar narration, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.393), as has Ibn Najjaar, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.302).
Hafsah told her. The tent was made of palm leaves and was a hiding place for the people. It was however filled with dirt and spider webs. Hadhrat Sauda went to hide there as Rasulullaah arrived. Seeing the two women laughing so much that they were unable to talk, Rasulullaah asked, "What is all the laughter about?" Rasulullaah had to repeat the question thrice before they pointed towards the tent. Rasulullaah went to the tent where he found Hadhrat Sauda shivering (with fear). "What is the matter, O Sauda?" Rasulullaah asked. "O Rasulullaah!" she said, "The one-eyed one has appeared." "He has not appeared," Rasulullaah clarified, "but he is still to appear. He has not appeared but is still to appear." Rasulullaah then helped her out and dusted the dirt and spider webs off her. (1)

Another narration adds that Hadhrat Hafsah said to Hadhrat Aa'isha, "Rasulullaah is coming to see us and we are looking so unkempt while she is gleaming between us." (2)

Rasulullaah’s Relationship with Hadhrat Aa'isha

Hadhrat Aa'isha narrates, "Rasulullaah was sitting down when he heard the people and children making a lot of noise. (When he looked out) He saw some Abyssinians dancing with the people around them. 'O Aa'isha!' Rasulullaah called out, 'Come and have a look.' Placing my cheek against his shoulder, I started looking from between his shoulders and head. 'O Aa'isha,' Rasulullaah kept saying (as I kept looking for a long time), 'have you not had your fill?' To assess my status with Rasulullaah, I kept saying that I had not. I saw Rasulullaah taking support on one leg and then the other (as he grew tired of standing so long). When Umar appeared, the people and children all dispersed and Rasulullaah remarked, 'I see the human and Jinn devils all flee from Umar.'" The narration still continues further. (3)

In another narration, Hadhrat Aa'isha says, "By Allaah! I saw Rasulullaah standing at the door of my room as some Abyssinians amused the people with their spears in the (courtyard of the) Masjid. Rasulullaah screened me with his shawl as I watched their feats from between his ear and shoulder. Rasulullaah then remained standing because of me until I (grew tired and) turned away. You can well imagine how eager a young girl (as I) is for amusement (and for how long I stood watching)." (4)

The Relationship between Rasulullaah and his Wives and Between the Wives themselves

Hadhrat Aa'isha reports, "Rasulullaah used to spend time at Zaynab bint Jahash’s place drinking honey. Hafsah and I therefore collaborated and that whichever of us Rasulullah came to would tell him, 'I get the smell of Maghaafeer.' Have you eaten Maghaafeer (suggesting that the bees that made the honey ate Maghaafeer). Consequently, when Rasulullah came to one of us, she said the piece. Rasulullah replied, 'Not at all. But I did have honey by Zaynab bint Jahash. I shall however never do so again.' It was then that Allaah revealed the verses:

```
(1) Maghaafeer is the odorous resin of a particular type of palm tree called the Urfut palm.
(2) Bukhaari and Muslim.
I then said to Sauda bint Zam'ah, 'Rasulullah will soon be coming to you. When he gets close to you, ask him whether he ate Maghaafeer. When he tells you that he has not eaten any, ask him what it is then that you can smell. He will then tell you that Hafsah gave him a drink of honey, to which you should say, 'The bee must have sucked nectar from the Urut palm (the palm containing Maghaafeer).' I will also say the same thing and you O Safiyya should also do likewise.'

Hadhurat Sauda later reported (to Hadhurat Aa'isha), "By Allaah! Because of my fear for you, I almost called out what you told while Rasulullah was still standing at the door. (Controlling myself however) When he drew closer, I said, 'O Rasulullah! Have you eaten Maghaafeer?' 'No,' he replied. 'Then what is that I smell on you?' I asked. He replied, 'Hafsah gave me a drink of honey.' I then said, 'The bee must have sucked nectar from the Urut palm.'"

When Rasulullah went to Hadhurat Aa'isha, she also said the same thing and Hadhurat Safiyya also followed suit. When Rasulullah again went to Hadhurat Hafsah and she offered him some honey to drink, he declined saying, "I do not need any." "By Allaah!" Hadhurat Sauda said to Hadhurat Aa'isha, "We have stopped Rasulullah from honey." "Be quiet!" Hadhurat Aa'isha told her. (1)

The Incident of Rasulullah when he Intended Divorcing his Wives

Hadhurat Abdullaah bin Abbaas reports, "I had always been eager to ask Umar about the two wives of Rasulullah concerning whom Allaah says (in the Qur'aan):

\[
\text{'If the two of you repent to Allaah, then your hearts have surely turned (turned back towards the best course after straying for a while).'} \quad \text{(Surah Tahreem, verse 4)}
\]

This (thought) lingered on until the time when Umar performed Hajj and I performed Hajj with him. We were still travelling when Umar went off the road (to answer the call the nature). I also veered off taking a jug (of water) along with me. After he had completed, Umar came to me and I started pouring water into his hands as he made wudhu. 'O Ameerul Mu'mineen!' I said, 'Who were the two wives of Rasulullah concerning whom Allaah says:

\[
\text{'If the two of you repent to Allaah, then your hearts have surely turned (turned back towards the best course after straying for a while).'} \quad \text{(Surah Tahreem, verse 4)}

Hadhrat Umar said, "I am surprised at you, O Ibn Abbaas! (That despite your vast knowledge, you are still unaware of this incident)." Hadhrat Zuhri comments that although Hadhrat Umar was surprised at the question, he still proceeded to relate it in detail without concealing anything. "They were Hafsah and Aa'isha," Hadhrat Umar began. He then started narrating the incident. He said, "We members of the Quraysh always had the upper hand over our wives. When we arrived in Madinah, we encountered people (the Ansar) whose women had the upper hand over them. Our women then started learning from their women. My house was located in the vicinity of the Banu Umayyah bin Zaid, which was in the upper reaches of Madinah. When I became angry with my wife one day (and told her something), she surprised me by backchatting. When I objected to her backchatting, she said, 'What are you objecting about my backchatting when I can swear by Allaah that the wives of Rasulullaah backchat to him? In fact some of them (when angry) shun him morning to evening.'

I then left the house and went to (my daughter) Hafsah. 'Do you backchat Rasulullaah? When she replied in the affirmative, I asked further, 'Does any of you (when angry) shun Rasulullaah morning to evening?' When she again replied in the affirmative, I said, 'Whichever of you does that is at a loss and destroyed! Does any of you not fear that Allaah would be angry with her because His Rasool is angry with her? She will then most certainly be destroyed. You should never backchat Rasulullaah and never ask him for anything. Rather ask from me whatever you please and never be deceived by the fact that your companion (Hadhrat Aa'isha) is prettier than you and more beloved to Rasulullaah (do not emulate everything she does).'

I had a friend from amongst the Ansar who took turns with me in attending Rasulullaah's gatherings. He would go one day and I the next so that he brought me the news of revelation one day and I brought it to him the next day. It was during the time when there was a lot of talk about the Ghassaan tribe preparing themselves to attack us when my friend came to me at night. Knocking at my door, he called for me until I came out. 'Something serious has taken place,' he said. 'What is it?' I asked, 'Have the Ghassaan tribe come?' 'No,' he replied, 'it is more serious than that and with longer lasting implications. Rasulullaah has divorced his wives! 'Hafsah is at a loss and destroyed!' I cried, 'I had a feeling that this would happen.' After performing the Fajr salaah, I dressed and went down (to Madinah) where I went to see Hafsah. She was in tears. 'Has Rasulullaah divorced you?' I queried. 'I do not know,' she replied, 'but he is now there in the upper story room.'

I went to Rasulullaah's Abyssinian slave and asked him to seek permission from Rasulullaah for me to enter. The slave went in and then emerged saying, 'I mentioned your name to him but Rasulullaah merely remained silent.' I then left and went towards the pulpit where I saw a group sitting, some of them in tears. I sat for awhile, but then my anxiety got the better of me and I went back to the slave saying, 'Seek permission for Umar.' Again the slave went in and then emerged saying, 'I mentioned your name to him but Rasulullaah merely remained silent.' I again left to sit near the pulpit but again my anxiety got the better of me and I returned to request the slave to seek permission for me to enter. Yet again the slave went in and emerged saying, 'I mentioned your name to him but he merely remained silent.' As I turned to leave, the slave suddenly called for me saying, 'You may enter, for Rasulullaah has granted you permission.' When I entered, I found Rasulullaah reclining against a straw mat that had left imprints on his side. 'Have you divorced your wives, O Rasulullaah?' I asked. Raising his head, he replied, 'No.' 'Allaahu Akbar!' I cried out. I then said, 'O Rasulullaah! You have seen that we the members of the Quraysh always had the upper hand over our wives. When we arrived in Madinah, we encountered people (the Ansaar) whose women had the upper hand over them. Our women then started learning from their women. When I became angry with my wife one day (and told her something), she surprised me by back chatting. When I objected to her back chatting, she said, 'What are you objecting about my back chatting when I can swear by Allaah that the wives of Rasulullaah backchat to him? In fact some of them (when angry) shun him morning to evening. I said, 'Whichsoever of them does that is at a loss and destroyed! Does any of them not fear that Allaah would be angry with her because His Rasool is angry with her? She will then most certainly be destroyed.' This made Rasulullaah smile.

'O Rasulullaah! I continued, 'I then went to Hafsah and told her, 'Never be deceived by the fact that your companion (Hadhrat Aa'isha) is prettier than you and more beloved to Rasulullaah.' Rasulullaah smiled again. Then I asked, 'Should I continue with this light-hearted talk?' 'By all means,' Rasulullaah said. I then sat down and I swear by Allaah that when I looked about the room, all I saw was three pieces of undyed leather. 'O Rasulullaah!' I said, 'Pray to Allaah to grant an abundance of wealth to your Ummah. Allaah has given abundance to the Romans and Persians even though they do not worship Him (so he will readily give us as well).'

Rasulullaah then sat up straight and said, 'Are you also in doubt, O son of Khattaab? They are people whose rewards (for their good deeds) have been brought forward to this world (without any share left for the Aakhirah). I then quickly said, 'Do seek forgiveness for me, O Rasulullaah.' Because he was so angry with them at the time, Rasulullaah had vowed not to go to his wives for an entire month until Allaah directed him otherwise." (1)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas reports that Hadhrat Umar said, "When Rasulullaah separated from his wives, I entered the Masjid where I saw the people fondling pebbles as they said, 'Rasulullaah has divorced his wives!' This incident took place before the injunction of Hijaab was ordained. I said to myself, 'I am going to find out properly what is happening (whether Rasulullaah had divorced them or not)." The Hadith continues to mention how Hadhrat Umar went to both Hadhrat Hafsah as well as Hadhrat Aa'isha to admonish them.

Thereafter, the narration quotes Hadhrat Umar who says, "When I then went to Rasulullahah ﷺ, I found him on the doorstep of the room on the upper storey. I called out saying, 'O Rabaah! Secure permission for me to see Rasulullahah ﷺ.' The rest of the narration is like the one above until the part where Hadhrat Umar ﷺ said, "O Rasulullahah ﷺ! Do not let the matter of your wives disturb you. If you have divorced them, then Allaah is with you as well as His angels, Jibreel ﷺ, Mikaal, myself, Abu Bakr and all the Mu'mineen. I praise Allaah for the fact that whenever I spoke, I had firm hope that Allaah would confirm what I said. It was therefore with reference to this that Allaah revealed the following verse:

(1) Ahmad, Bukhaari, Muslim, Tirmidhi and Nasa'ee.

If the two of you (Hafsa and Aa'isha, two wives of Rasulullahah ﷺ) repent to Allaah, then your hearts have surely turned (turned back towards the best course after straying for a while). However, if you two assist each other against him (Rasulullahah ﷺ), then his protecting friends are Allaah, Jibreel ﷺ and the pious Mu'mineen. Besides these, the angels are also his assistants. If he (Rasulullahah ﷺ) has to divorce all of you (wives), then his Rabb shall certainly replace you with wives better than yourselves who will be Muslims, Mu'minaat, obedient, repentant, worshippers, women who fast, previously married women and virgins. {Surah Tahreem, verses 4,5}

'Have you divorced them?' I asked. 'No,' Rasulullahah ﷺ replied. I then stood at the door of the Masjid and called out in my loudest voice, "Rasulullahah ﷺ's wives have not been divorced!" It was with reference to this that Allaah revealed the verse:

When (news of) any matter of peace or fear comes to them, they (immediately) broadcast it (thereby causing harm to the Muslims). If they had (first) referred the matter to the Rasulullahah ﷺ and to those of them who have understanding (to the learned Muslims with insight), it would surely be known to those who research (verify) the matter. {Surah Nisaa, verse 83}

Hadhrat Umar ﷺ continues, "It was I who researched this matter." (1)

Hadhrat Jaabir ﷺ reports that Rasulullahah ﷺ was sitting in his house

(1) Muslim, as quoted in Tafseer of Ibn Katheer (Vol.4 Pg.389). Abdur Razzaaq, Ibn Sa'd, Ibn Hibbaan, Bayhaqi, Ibn Jarreer, Ibn Mundhir, Ibn Mardway and other have reported a similar narration, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.1 Pg.269).
while the Sahabah were sitting by his door. When Hadhrat Abu Bakr arrived and sought permission to enter, Rasulullaah did not grant him permission. Hadhrat Umar then arrived and Rasulullaah did not grant him permission to enter either. Rasulullaah later granted permission to both Hadhrat Abu Bakr and Hadhrat Umar and they both entered the room where Rasulullaah was sitting in silence with his wives around him. Hadhrat Umar said to himself, "I am going to say something to make Rasulullaah laugh." He then proceeded to say, "O Rasulullaah! If only you had seen (my wife) the daughter of Zaid just now when I slapped her across the neck when she asked me for (an increase in her) allowance!" Rasulullaah smiled so broadly that his molars became visible. He said, "Here are my wives around me also asking me for (an increase in) their allowances."

Hadhrt Abu Bakr then stood up to hit (his daughter) Hadhrat Aa'isha and Hadhrat Umar also got up to hit (his daughter) Hadhrat Hafsah. Both men were rebuking their daughters saying, "How can you ask Rasulullaah for something he does not have?!" Rasulullaah however stopped the two men and the women said, "By Allaah! After this, we shall never again ask Rasulullaah for something he does not have."

It was on this occasion that Allaah revealed the verse offering a choice (to Rasulullaah's wives). Rasulullaah first approached Hadhrat Aa'isha saying, "I am about to present to you an offer that I do not want you to be hasty in deciding until you have consulted with your parents." "What is it?" she asked. Rasulullaah then recited for her the verse:

```
النَّبِيُّ سُأْلَ عَنْكُمْ أَنَّ ذَٰلِكَ لَمَّا تُسْلِمُونَ فَأَمَّا أَنْ تُسْلِمُونَ فَأُعْمَلُنَّ أَمَامَهُ وَأَنْ تُسْلِمُونَ فَأُعْمَلُنَّ وَأَنْ تُسْلِمُونَ فَأُعْمَلُنَّ

(سورة النور، الآية 28-29)

O Nabi Say to your wives, "If you desire the life of this world and its adornments, then come forward. I shall grant you a generous provision and separate from you (divorce you) in a cordial manner. However, if you desire Allaah, His Rasool and the home of the Aakhirah, then (you may continue enjoying the status of being his wives and living with the allowance he provides because) Allaah has certainly prepared a grand reward for those of you who do good deeds (Allaah will reward you tremendously for your sacrifice)." (Surah Ahzaab, verses 28,29)

Hadhrt Aa'isha immediately said, "Should I consult my parents about (having) you?! I definitely choose Allaah and His Rasool. Please do not inform any of your other wives what I have decided." Rasulullaah told her, "Allaah has sent me to make matters easy for people and not to make them difficult. Therefore, if any of them asks me about your decision, I will certainly inform her." (1)

Hadrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas reports that Hadrat Aa'isha said, "When the verses giving (us) the choice were revealed, Rasulullaah began with me before any of his other wives. He said, 'I am about to present to you a choice about which you are in no hurry to decide until you have consulted with your parents.' Rasulullaah said this despite knowing well that my parents would never tell me to separate from Rasulullaah. Rasulullaah then continued, 'Allaah says:

O Nabi! Say to your wives, "If you desire the life of this world and its adornments, then come forward. I shall grant you a generous provision and separate from you (divorce you) in a cordial manner. However, if you desire Allaah, His Rasool and the home of the Aakhirah, then (you may continue enjoying the status of being his wives and living with the allowance he provides because) Allaah has certainly prepared a grand reward for those of you who do good deeds (Allaah will reward you tremendously for your sacrifice)." (Surah Ahzaab, verses 28,29)

Hadrat Aa'isha says, "I immediately said, "Is there anything to consult my parents about? I certainly want Allaah, His Rasool and the home of the Aakhirah.' Rasulullaah then presented the choice to all his wives and the reply each of them gave was similar to that of Hadrat Aa'isha. (2)

Another narration quotes that Hadrat Aa'isha said, "When Rasulullaah gave us a choice and we chose (to remain with) him, he did not count this (choice as a divorce) against us." (3)

Rasulullaah's Relationship with Hadrat Aa'isha and Hadrat Maymoonah

Hadrat Aa'isha reports that Rasulullaah once said to her, "I know exactly when you are happy with me and when you are angry." When she asked Rasulullaah how he knew that, he replied, "When you are happy with me, you say, 'No, by the Rabb of Muhammad' and when you are angry with me, you say, 'No, by the Rabb of Ibraheem.' " "That's true," Hadrat Aa'isha said, "but it is only your name that I leave out (while the love for you in my heart remains just as strong)." (4)

Hadrat Aa'isha narrates, "I was once on a journey with Rasulullaah..."

when I ran a race with him and beat him. After I had put on some weight, I again ran a race with him, but this time he beat me. He then said, 'This is in lieu of the last race.'

Hadhrat Abdullaah bir. Abbaas relates, "(As a young boy) I was once the guest of (my maternal aunt) Maymoona on a night when she was not performing salaah. She brought one shawl and then another, which she lay it down by the head-side of the bedding. She then lay down, pulled the shawl over her and made a bed for me beside her. I shared her pillow with her. Rasulullaah arrived after performing the Isha salaah and when he reached the bed, he took the shawl lying by the head-side of the bed and tied it as a lower garment. Thereafter, he removed the two garments he was wearing, hung them up and got in to the bed with his wife.

Towards the final hours of the night, he got up and took a water bag that was hanging there. He opened it and started making wudhu. I was about to get up to pour the water for him when it occurred to me that I would not like him to know that I had been awake. He then came to the bed, got dressed in his two garments and removed the shawl. Thereafter, he stood at the place where he performed salah and started performing salah. I also got up, made wudhu and stood on his left. Rasulullaah held me from his back and made me stand on his right. With me following him, he then proceeded to perform thirteen Rakaahs of salah. Rasulullaah then sat down and as I sat beside him, his cheek leaned towards mine (as he fell asleep) and I could hear him breathing like a sleeping person. Bilaal then arrived and called out, 'Salaah, O Rasulullaah.' Rasulullaah then stood up in the place where he performed salah and started performing two Rakaahs salah as Bilaal started calling out the Iqaamah."

Rasulullaah's Kind Treatment of an Old Woman

Hadhrat Aa'isha reports that when an old woman once came to Rasulullaah, he asked her who she was. When she informed him that her name was Jathaamah Muzaniyyah. Rasulullaah said, "You are now Hasaanah Muzaniyyah." He then proceeded to ask her how they were, how was their life and how they had been since he last met them. "May my parents be sacrificed for you," she said, "We have been well." After she had left, Hadhrat Aa'isha asked, "O Rasulullaah! You gave such an excellent reception to the old lady?" "Dear Aa'isha," Rasulullaah explained, "She used to visit us when Khadeeja was alive. Maintaining old acquantances is a part of Imaan." (3)

Hadhrat Aa'isha says, "When a particular old woman used to visit Nabi, he always became very happy and would honour her greatly. 'May my parents be sacrificed for you!' I said, 'You treat this woman better than you treat..."
anyone else.' Rasulullaah explained, 'She used to visit us when Khadeeja was alive. Do you not know that honouring bonds of affection is a part of Imaan?''

Hadhrat Abu Tufayl relates, "I saw Rasulullaah distributing meat in Ji'irraanah when I was a young boy who could carry only the limb of a camel. When a particular lady came to him, he spread out his shawl for her (to sit on). When I asked someone who she was, I was informed that she was the woman who suckled him as a baby." (1)

Rasulullaah Relationship with an Abyssinian Slave and With Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood

Hadhrat Umar reports that when he once went to see Rasulullaah, Rasulullaah's short Abyssinian slave was busy rubbing his back. "O Rasulullaah!" Hadhrat Umar asked, "Did you hurt yourself?" Rasulullaah replied, "The camel dropped me down last night." (2)

Hadhrat Qaasim bin Abdur Rahmaan reports that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood used to put on Rasulullaah's shoes for him. He would then walk ahead with Rasulullaah's staff in his hand. When Rasulullaah reached the gathering, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood would remove Rasulullaah's shoes, place it under his arms and hand the staff over. As soon as Rasulullaah decided to get up, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood would give him his shoes and again walk ahead with the staff until he entered the room before Rasulullaah.

Another narration state that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood used to screen Rasulullaah when he bathed, would wake him up when he slept and would walk about with him when there was no one else. (3)

Rasulullaah's Relationship with Hadhrat Anas

Hadhrat Anas says, "When Rasulullaah arrived in Madinah, I was a young boy of ten and when he passed away, I was only twenty. It was my mother and aunts who encouraged me to serve Rasulullaah." (4)

Hadhrat Thumaamah narrates that when someone asked Hadhrat Anas whether he was present during the Battle of Badr, he replied, "Shame on you! How could I ever absent myself?" Hadhrat Muhammad bin Abdullaah Ansaari reports that Hadhrat Anas accompanied Rasulullaah to Badr to serve him while he was still a young boy. (5)

The Services that the Ansaar Youth and the Sahabah Rendered to Rasulullaah

Hadrat Anas narrates that there were twenty youngsters from the Ansaar who always stuck close to Rasulullaah. Rasulullaah would always dispatch them whenever he needed something done. (1) Hadrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf reports that there were always four or five Sahabah who never parted from Rasulullaah (when on journey) or from Rasulullaah's door (when at home). (2) Hadrat Abu Sa'eed Khudri relates, "We used to take turns (to be at Rasulullaah's service) so that we could fulfill any need he had or he could dispatch us for any errand. Eventually, the people anticipating rewards (for this service) increased and there were plenty of people taking turns. As we were one day discussing Dajjaal, Rasulullaah came out to ask, 'What are these whispered discussions all about? Have I not forbidden you from whispered discussion?" (3) Hadrat Assim bin Sufyaan says that it was either Hadrat Abu Dardaa or Hadrat Abu Dharr whom he heard say, "I once sought permission from Rasulullaah to spend the night at his door so that he could awaken me for any need he may have. Rasulullaah granted permission and I spent the night there." (4) Hadrat Hudhayfah reports, "I once performed salaah with Rasulullaah during the month of Ramadhaan. He then got up to take a bath and I screened him. When some water was left over in the container, he said, 'If you wish, you may use it to bath, otherwise, you may add some more water to it.' 'O Rasulullaah!' I replied, 'This left-over water of yours is more beloved to me than anything more I may add.' When I then started to bath, Rasulullaah screened me. 'You need not screen me,' I said. He replied, 'Why not? I must screen you just as you screened me.'" (5)

Rasulullaah's Relationship with his Son Ibraheem and other Children of his Family

Hadrat Anas says, "I have never seen anyone more compassionate towards his family than Rasulullaah. His son Ibraheem was given to a woman in the upper reaches of Madinah for suckling. With us in his company, Rasulullaah used to go to the house, which would be filled with smoke because the nursing mother's husband was a blacksmith. Rasulullaah would always pick up the child and kiss him before leaving." Hadrat Amr reports that when Ibraheem passed away, Rasulullaah said, "Ibraheem was my son and..." has passed away while still suckling. Verily he shall have two nursing mothers in Jannah who will complete his period of suckling." (1)

Hadhurat Abdullaah bin Haarith narrates that Rasulullaah used to place Abdullaah, Ubaydullaah and Katheer, all the children of Hadhrat Abbaas in a line and would then promise a prize to whichever of them beat the others to him. They would then race towards him and jump on to his back and chest as he hugged and kissed them. (2)

Hadhurat Abdullaah bin Ja'far reports, "Whenever Rasulullaah returned from a journey, the children of his family were brought to receive him. When he once returned from a journey, I was brought first to him so he placed me in front of him (on the animal). Thereafter, one of Faatima's children either Hasan or Husayn was brought to him and he placed him behind him. When we entered Madinah, we were therefore three people on the animal." (3)

Hadhurat Abdullaah bin Ja'far also narrates, "Rasulullaah once passed by me as I was playing with some children. He then picked me up together with one of Abbaas's children and placed us on his animal. We were therefore three on the animal." (4)

In another narration, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Ja'far says, "You should have seen the time when we were children and I would be playing with Ubaydullaah and Quthm, both the sons of Abbaas. Passing by, Rasulullaah would say, 'Pick that child up and give him to me.' (I was then passed to him and) He would then put me in front of him. Thereafter, Rasulullaah would say, 'Pick that child up and give him to me.' He would then put the other child behind him. Although Abbaas liked Ubaydullaah more than Quthm, Rasulullaah would not be embarrassed in front of his uncle (Abbaas) to take Quthm on the animal and leave Ubaydullaah. Rasulullaah would then pass his hand over my head thrice and say each time, 'O Allaah! You be Ja'far's successor for his children.'" (5)

Hadhurat Umar bin Khattaab says, "When I saw Hasan and Husayn riding on Rasulullaah's shoulders, I remarked, 'What a fine horse you two are riding!' Rasulullaah then said, 'And what fine horsemen are they?'" (6)

Hadhurat Abdullaah bin Abbaas narrates that Rasulullaah once came out of the house carrying Hadhrat Hasan on his shoulders when someone commented, "Dear child! What a fine conveyance you have!" To this Rasulullaah said, "And he is a mighty fine rider too." (7)

Hadhurat Baraa bin Aazib reports that Rasulullaah was once performing salaah when Hadhrat Hasan and Hadhrat Husayn or one of them (the narrator is unsure) arrived and climbed upon his back. When Rasulullaah got up, he held the child or the two children with his hand and (after completing the salaah) said, "What an excellent mount you had mounted."(1)

Hadhrat Jaabir says that he once went to Rasulullaah as he was on all fours with Hadhrat Hasan and Hadhrat Husayn on his back. Rasulullaah was saying, "You two have an excellent camel and are both excellent loads." (2)

The Incident of Rasulullaah with Hadhrat Hasan and Hadhrat Husayn when they Got Lost

Hadhrat Salmaan reports that it was midday when they were sitting around Rasulullaah and Hadhrat Ummu Ayman arrived saying, "O Rasulullaah! Hasan and Husayn are lost!" Rasulullaah said to the Sahabah, "Get up and look for my sons!" Every person went in the direction he was facing and Hadhrat Salmaan went in the direction Rasulullaah went. Rasulullaah kept searching until he was at the foot of a mountain when he saw the two boys clinging on to each other. In front of them was a snake standing on its tail with flames flashing from its mouth (Allaah had perhaps sent it to ensure that the boys ventured no further). As Rasulullaah darted towards it, it turned to look at him and then slid away into a hole. Rasulullaah then went to the boys and as he separated them, he wiped their faces saying, "May my parents be sacrificed for you! How honourable you two are in the sight of Allaah!" When he then carried one of them on his right shoulder and the other on his left shoulder, Hadhrat Salmaan remarked, "Glad tidings to you two. What an excellent mount you have!" To this, Rasulullaah said, "What excellent riders are they and their father is even better than them." (3)

Hadhrat Jaabir says, "We were with Rasulullaah when we were invited for a meal. When we came across Husayn playing with other children in the street, Rasulullaah ran ahead of the others and stretched out his hands (to grab the boy). Husayn started running to and fro as Rasulullaah made him laugh in front of everyone there. Rasulullaah then stretched out his arms and held the boy with one hand on his chin and the other between his head and ears. Thereafter, Rasulullaah hugged and kissed him saying, 'Husayn is from me and I am from him. May Allaah love those who love him. Hasan and Husayn are two (distinguished) grandsons from amongst grandsons." (4)

Mutual Relationships between the Sahabah

Rasulullaah ﷺ Tells Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Madh'oon ﷺ to Treat his Wife Better

Hadhrat Ibn Is'haaq Sabee'ee reports that the wife of Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Madh'oon ﷺ once came to the wives of Rasulullaah ﷺ dressed in unattractive and old clothes. When they asked her what the problem was, she informed them that her husband stood in salaah all night and fasted all day (and therefore had no time for her, because of which she felt no need to look attractive). When Rasulullaah ﷺ was informed of what she said, he met Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Madh'oon ﷺ, rebuked him and said, "Do you not have an excellent example in me?" Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Madh'oon ﷺ replied, "Certainly. May my parents be sacrificed for you!" Thereafter, his wife was always looking attractive and wearing enchanting scents. On his deathbed, his wife recited some couplets (which meant):

"Dear eyes! Be generous with your tears and never let them stop
Over the demise of Uthmaan bin Madh'oon
Over a man who spent the entire night pleasing his Creator
Over the loss of someone who will be buried. Glad tidings of Jannah to him!
Baqee' (1) and its Charqad trees are graced to be his home
And after being troubled (by having Kuffaar buried there), the ground shall be illuminated
All that the heart shall inherit will be grief that knows no end Until death comes, my tear ducts shall never dry" (2)

Another narration names the wife of Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Madh'oon ﷺ as Hadhrat Khowla bint Hakeem and that it was Hadhrat Aa'isha whom she visited. The narration also states that Rasulullaah ﷺ said to Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Madh'oon ﷺ, "O Uthmaan! Monasticism has not been ordained or us. Am I not a perfect example for you? By Allaah! It is I who fears Allaah most and who is most mindful of the limits He has set." (3)

Rasulullaah ﷺ Tells Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr bin Al Aas ﷺ to Treat his Wife Better

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr bin Al Aas ﷺ reports, "My father got me married to a woman from the Quraysh. However, when she first came to me, I paid no attention to her because of my overriding enthusiasm for acts of Ibaadah such as salaah and fasting. (My father) Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas ﷺ once came to his daughter-in-law (my wife) and asked, 'How do you find your husband?' She replied, 'He is the best of husbands but has not yet ventured to expose any part of my body and has not even come near our bed.' My father then came to me and rebuked me most severely. Biting into me with his tongue, he said, 'I got you married to an honourable lady of the Quraysh and you have left her dangling in suspension?!' After enumerating more of the things I was doing, he then went to complain about me to Rasulullaah ﷺ.

Rasulullaah ﷺ sent for me and when I arrived, he verified, 'Do you fast every day?' 'Yes,' I replied. He then asked further, 'And do you stand in salaah all night?' When I again replied in the affirmative, Rasulullaah ﷺ said, 'But while I fast regularly, there are also days when I do not fast. While I perform salaah (at night) I also sleep and I also touch my wives. Whoever turns away from my way of life cannot be my follower.' Rasulullaah ﷺ then proceeded to say, 'Complete a recitation of the Qur'aan once a month.' 'But I can do more than that,' I said. 'Then complete it once every ten days,' Rasulullaah ﷺ permitted. When I insisted that I could do more than that as well, Rasulullaah ﷺ told me that I could then complete a recitation in three days.

Thereafter, Rasulullaah ﷺ said, 'Fast only three days a month.' When I informed Rasulullaah ﷺ that I was capable of much more, he continued increasing the number of days until he finally said, 'Then fast one day and skip the next. This is the best type of fast and was the manner in which my brother Dawood used to fast.'

In his narration, Hadhrat Husayn states that Rasulullaah ﷺ added, "Every keen worshipper has a period of great enthusiasm but every such period comes with a waning phase. When this phase comes, the person either resorts to the Sunnah or towards Bid'ah. Whoever during this phase resorts towards the Sunnah has been rightly guided and whoever turns towards Bid'ah has been destroyed."

Hadhrat Mujaahid says that when Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr bin Al Aas grew old and weak, he would fast several days consecutively and then skip several days to regain his strength. When reciting the Qur'aan he would also sometimes recite more and sometimes less. Nevertheless, he would ensure that he completed a recitation within a period of either seven days or three days. Thereafter (when he grew even weaker), he would say, "Had I accepted the concession Rasulullaah ﷺ offered me, I would have liked it more than what (extra Ibaadah) he had to send my way (because of my insistence). However, (I shall now not reduce it because) I would not like to do anything other than what I was doing at the time I separated from Rasulullaah ﷺ (when he passed away)."(1)

The Incident Between Hadhrat Salmaan ﷺ and Hadhrat Abu Dardaa ﷺ in this Regard Hadhrat Abu Juhayfah ﷺ reports that Rasulullaah ﷺ had made a bond of brotherhood between Hadhrat Salmaan ﷺ and Hadhrat Abu Dardaa ﷺ. When Hadhrat Salmaan ﷺ once came to visit, Hadhrat Abu Dardaa ﷺ, he found (his wife) Hadhrat Ummu Dardaa ﷺ in a dishevelled condition. When he enquired what the matter was, she replied, "Your brother Abu Dardaa has no need for this world." Hadhrat Abu Dardaa ﷺ then arrived and when he got a meal prepared for Hadhrat Salmaan ﷺ, he said, "You eat because I am fasting." Hadhrat Salmaan ﷺ refused saying, "I shall not eat until you eat." Hadhrat Abu Dardaa ﷺ was then forced to (terminate the fast and) join in the meal.

That night when Hadhrat Abu Dardaa ﷺ started to perform salaah, Hadhrat Salmaan ﷺ instructed him to sleep. Hadhrat Abu Dardaa ﷺ slept awhile and was again about to get up when Hadhrat Salmaan ﷺ again told him to go back to sleep. It was only when the night was drawing to an end that Hadhrat Salmaan ﷺ said to Hadhrat Abu Dardaa ﷺ, "You may now get up." The two men then performed (Tahajjud) salaah. Hadhrat Salmaan ﷺ then advised Hadhrat Abu Dardaa ﷺ saying, "You have rights owing to your Rabb as well as rights owing to your body and rights owing to your wife. You should therefore give every recipient their due rights." When Hadhrat Abu Dardaa ﷺ reported the matter to Rasulullaah ﷺ, Rasulullaah ﷺ said, "Salmaan is right." (1)

Hadhrat Zubayr bin Awwaam ﷺ's possessiveness over his Wife Hadhrat Asmaa ﷺ

Hadhrat Asmaa ﷺ, the daughter of Hadhrat Abu Bakr ﷺ relates, "When Zubayr ﷺ married me, he possessed neither any property, money, slaves nor anything else apart from his horse. I used to feed his horse for him, tend to it and care for it. I also used to crush the date stones to feed his camel that drew water from the well and fed it myself. In addition to this, I would give it water to drink, sew the water bags (that the camel used to draw water) and knead dough. However, because I was not good at making the bread, my Ansaar neighbours would do it for me. They were extremely sincere and true friends.

I used to carry the date stones on my head from the property Rasulullaah ﷺ gave to Zubayr ﷺ, which lay two-thirds of a Farsakh (approximately two miles) from Madinah. As I was coming one day with the date stones on my head, I met with Rasulullaah ﷺ and some Sahabah ﷺ. Rasulullaah ﷺ called for me as he instructed his camel to sit so that I may ride on it behind him. I was however too shy to travel with men and also thought of Zubayr ﷺ's possessiveness. He was one of the most possessive people to be found. When Rasulullaah ﷺ realised that I was too shy, he carried on.

When I met Zubayr ﷺ, I said to him, 'Rasulullaah ﷺ and a few Sahabah met me while I was carrying the date stones on my head. When he made his camel sit down for me to ride on, I felt too shy and also thought of your possessiveness.' He said, 'By Allaah! Your carrying the date stones is more difficult for me to bear than your riding with Rasulullaah (SAW). This continued until my father) Abu Bakr (R) sent me a servant who relieved me of tending to the horse and it seemed like he had set me free." (1)

Another narration states that Hadhrat Asmaa (RA), the daughter of Hadhrat Abu Bakr (R), was married to Hadhrat Zubayr bin Awwaam (RA). When she complained to her father about her husband's strict nature, Hadhrat Abu Bakr (R) said, "Dear daughter! Be patient because when a woman has a pious husband and she does not remarry after he dies, Allaah will reunite them in Jannah." (2)

The Incident of a Woman who Complained to Hadhrat Umar (RA) about her Husband

Hadrat Kahmas Hilaali reports that they were once sitting with Hadhrat Umar (RA) when a lady arrived. She sat down and said, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! While the evil nature of my husband has increased, his good nature has dwindled." "Who is your husband?" Hadhrat Umar (RA) asked. When she informed him that her husband was a man called Abu Salamah, Hadhrat Umar (RA) said, "He was a companion of Rasulullaah (SAW) and is a righteous man." He then asked the men around him, "Is he not so?" "O Ameerul Mu'mineen!" they replied, "We know him to be just as you say." Hadhrat Umar (RA) then instructed someone sitting there to call for the husband. When her husband was sent for, the lady got up and sat behind Hadhrat Umar (RA).

It was not long before the two men arrived together and the husband sat in front of Hadhrat Umar (RA). "What has this woman sitting behind me have to say?" Hadhrat Umar (RA) asked. "Who is she, O Ameerul Mu'mineen?" the man asked. "She is your wife," Hadhrat Umar (RA) replied. "And what has she to say?" he asked. Hadhrat Umar (RA) replied, "She claims that while your evil nature has increased, your good nature has dwindled." The husband said, "A terrible thing she has said, O Ameerul Mu'mineen! She is amongst the most righteous women of her tribe. In addition to this, she also has the most clothing and the most comfortable home. However, her husband is an old man."

Addressing the wife, Hadhrat Umar (RA) asked, "And what have you to say?" "He has spoken the truth," she replied. Hadhrat Umar (RA) got up with his whip and struck her with it saying, "O enemy of yourself! You have eaten his wealth and finished his youth and then go even further to make false allegations against him!" "O Ameerul Mu'mineen!" she pleaded, "Do not be hasty. I swear by Allaah that I shall never sit in this position (as complainant against my husband) ever again."

(1) Ibn Sa'd (Vol.8 Pg.250).
(2) Ibn Sa'd (Vol.8 Pg.251).
Hadhrat Umar then instructed that she be given three garments and said, "Take this in lieu of what I have done to you (when I hit you). However, I am warning you never to complain about this old man again." The narrator says, "(I remember the incident so vividly that) It is as if I can actually see her standing up with those garments." Hadhrat Umar then turned to her husband and said, "Let not what you have seen me do to her ever provoke you to treat her badly." The husband promised that he would not and they both left. Hadhrat Umar then said, "I have heard Rasulullaah say, 'The best period of my Ummah is that in which I am (the first period), followed by the second period and then the third. Thereafter, such people shall come who will take oaths before testifying and who will testify before being asked to do so. They will also be people whose marketplaces will be very noisy."(1)

The Incident of Another Woman and her Husband with Hadhrat Umar

Hadhrat Sha'bin narrates that a woman once came to Hadhrat Umar saying, "I have come to complain to you about a man who is the best of all men apart from a man whose deeds are superior or whose deeds match his. He stands in salaah all night until dawn and fasts all day until evening." She was then overcome with bashfulness and said, "Excuse me, O Ameerul Mu'mineen." "May Allaah reward you tremendously," Hadhrat Umar said, "You have certainly praised him well. You are excused." When she left, Hadhrat Ka'b bin Soor remarked, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! She has certainly been eloquent in her complaint to you." "What was her complaint?" Hadhrat Umar asked. "Her husband," Hadhrat Ka'b replied.

Hadhrat Umar then sent for the couple and (when they arrived) said to Hadhrat Ka'b, "Now you pass judgement between them." Hadhrat Ka'b said, "How can I pass judgement when you are present?" Hadhrat Umar insisted saying, "It was you who understood what I did not." Hadhrat Umar remarked, "This decision I find more astounding than your first statement." Hadhrat Umar then appointed him as judge of Basrah. (2) with me and do not shy away from the truth." She then said, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! I am a woman who desires what all women desire." (1)

Hadrat Qataadah narrates that a woman once said to Hadrat Umar, "My husband stands in salaah all night and fasts all day." Hadrat Umar said to her, "Are you instructing me to stop him from performing salaah at night and from fasting during the day?" She then went away, but returned some time later with the same complaint. Hadrat Umar again repeated what he had said the first time. However, Hadrat Ka'b bin Soor pointed out, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! She has a right." "What is her right?" Hadrat Umar asked. Hadrat Ka'b replied, "Allaah has permitted four wives for him, so count her as one of the four. She is therefore entitled to one night in every four nights and one day in every four days." Hadrat Umar then summoned the husband and instructed him to spend one of every four nights with her and to skip a fast in every four fasts. (2)

The Incident of Hadrat Abu Gharzah and Hadrat Umar

Hadrat Abu Gharzah once led Hadrat Ibn Arqam by the hand to his wife and asked her, "Do you hate me." "Yes I do," she replied. "What made you do this?" Hadrat Ibn Arqam asked. Hadrat Abu Gharzah explained, "People have been saying too many things about me." When Hadrat Ibn Arqam reported the matter to Hadrat Umar, the Ameerul Mu'mineen called for Hadrat Abu Gharzah and asked, "What made you do that?" Again Hadrat Abu Gharzah replied, "People have been saying too many things about me." Hadrat Umar then sent for the wife. She arrived with the shrewd aunt of hers who told her, "When he questions you (about your curt statement), say, 'Because he made me say it on oath, I did not like to tell a lie.'" (When she came before him) Hadrat Umar asked, "What made you say what you did?" She replied, "Because he made me say it on oath, I did not like to tell a lie." Hadrat Umar said, "Why not? One of you ought to lie and say something nice because every home is not built on love. Many homes are built on polite interaction stemming from social status and Islaam." (3)

The Incident of Hadrat Aatika the Daughter of Hadrat Zaid bin Amr

Hadrat Abu Salamah bin Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf narrates that Hadrat Aatika the daughter of Hadrat Zaid bin Amr bin Nufayl was married to Hadrat Abdullaah, the son of Hadrat Abu Bakr. He loved her very much and even gave her an orchard on condition that she does not remarry after his death. He was struck by an arrow during the battle at Ta'if.

and it was forty days after the demise of Rasulullaah ﷺ that the wound ruptured and he passed away. In his memory, Hadhrat Aatika ﷺ recited the following couplets (which meant):

"I swear that my eye shall always remain hot (with tears)
over you and that my skin shall always be covered in dust (because I shall never adorn myself for anyone else)
(This I shall do) Forever, as long as the doves of the dense forest coo and as long as the night issues forth the bright morning"

When Hadhrat Umar ﷺ proposed for her afterwards, she informed him that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas ﷺ had given her an orchard with the condition that she should not remarry after him. Hadhrat Umar ﷺ advised her to acquire a verdict from someone. She then enquired from Hadhrat Ali bin Abi Taalib ﷺ whose verdict was that she was free to remarry after returning the orchard to the family of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas ﷺ. Hadhrat Umar ﷺ then married her and invited a few Sahabah ﷺ for the Waleemah meal. Amongst the guests was Hadhrat Ali ﷺ, who also happened to be the person with whom Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas ﷺ had made a bond of brotherhood. "Permit me to have a word with her (with your new bride)," Hadhrat Ali ﷺ asked Hadhrat Umar ﷺ. With Hadhrat Umar ﷺ's permission, Hadhrat Ali ﷺ said, "O Aatika!

'I swear that my eye shall always remain hot (with tears) over you and that my skin shall always be covered in dust" (Upon hearing this) Hadhrat Aatika ﷺ started weeping very loudly. Hadhrat Umar ﷺ said (to Hadhrat Ali ﷺ), "May Allaah forgive you! Do not upset my wife's mood for me." (1)

The Incident of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas ﷺ with his Wife and what His Aunt Hadhrat Maymoonah ﷺ Said to Him

Hadrhat Nadbah the freed slave of Hadhrat Maymoonah ﷺ reports that her mistress (Hadhrat Maymoonah ﷺ) once sent her to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas ﷺ. When she entered the house, she found that there were two beds. When she returned to Hadhrat Maymoonah ﷺ, she said, "It appears to me that Ibn Abbaas has separated from his wife." Hadhrat Maymoonah ﷺ then sent for Ibn Abbaas ﷺ's wife who was the daughter of Sarj Kindi. When she asked her about it, the wife replied, "There is nothing between us. I am only menstruating." Hadhrat Maymoonah ﷺ then sent a message to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas ﷺ reprimanding him, "Are you averse to the Sunnah of Rasulullaah ﷺ? Rasulullaah ﷺ used to touch his wives while they were menstruating and wearing a cloth that reached up to the knees or halfway down the thighs." (2)

The Incident of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas  and a Cousin of his with a Slave Woman

Hadhrat Ikrama says that he is not sure whether it was Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas  who invited his cousin for a meal or whether it was his cousin who invited him. Nevertheless, while a slave woman was working in front of them (as they were eating), one of them called her an adulteress. "Stop that!" Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas  cautioned, "Even though you will not be lashed for that (slander) in this world, you will certainly be punished in the Aakhirah." The cousin said, "But what if she is as I have said?" Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas  replied, "Verily Allaah does not like people who are vulgar and who adopt offensive language (it is therefore inappropriate for you to make such a statement)." (1)

The Incident of A Slave Woman with the Wife of Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas

Hadhrat Abu Imraan of Palestine reports that while the wife of Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas  was busy cleaning his hair of lice, she called for her slave woman. When the slave delayed in arriving, Hadhrat Amr's wife called her an adulteress. "Have you seen her commit adultery?" Hadhrat Amr asked. When his wife replied that she had not, Hadhrat Amr said, "By Allaah! On the Day of Qiyaamah, you will certainly be lashed eighty times (as punishment for slander)." His wife then spoke to the slave and asked her for forgiveness. When the slave forgave her, Hadhrat Amr remarked, "She has no option but to forgive you because she is in your control. You had rather set her free." "Will that compensate for it?" his wife asked. "Perhaps," Hadhrat Amr replied. (2)

Some Incidents About the Mutual Relations Between the Sahabah

Hadhrat Abul Mutawakkil narrates that Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah  had a Negro slave who had caused grief to the entire household because of something she had done. Raising his whip over her one day, Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah said, "Had it not been for Qisaas (on the Day of Qiyaamah), I would have beat you unconscious. However, I shall sell you to someone who pay your price in full. Go (free)! You are Allaah's." (3) Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Qais or Ibn Abul Qais says that he was with the delegation of Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah  that received Hadhrat Umar  when he arrived in Shaam. As Hadhrat Umar was travelling, he was met by some entertainers from Adhri'aat who were carrying their swords (to entertain Hadhrat Umar as he entered their town). "Hold on!" Hadhrat Umar said, "Stop them and send them back." "O Ameerul Mu'mineen!" Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah said, "This is the custom of the non-Arabs. If you stop them, they will think that you wish to annul the pact with them (that you wish to prevent them from freely practising their customs)." Hadhrat Umar said, "Then leave them. Umar and his family are all under the command of Abu Ubaydah." (1)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar reports that when Hadhrat Umar and Hadhrat Zubayr once had a race, Hadhrat Zubayr beat Hadhrat Umar and cried out, "I beat you! By the Rabb of the Kabah!" When they raced a second time, Hadhrat Umar beat Hadhrat Zubayr. Hadhrat Umar then called out, "I beat you! By the Rabb of the Kabah!" (2)

Hadhrat Saleem bin Handhalah reports, "We once went to Hadhrat Ubay bin Ka'b to listen to Ahaadeeth from him. (When he had completed) He stood up and we also stood up and walked with him. Hadhrat Umar then met him and said, "Don't you think that this (walking with people following you) is a danger (source of pride) for the one being followed and a source of dishonour for the ones following?" (3)

Hadhrat Abul Bakhtari narrates that a man once came to Hadhrat Salmaan and said, "How pleasant was the behaviour of people today! I had been travelling and I swear by Allaah that every person I stayed with seemed to be the son of my own father. Each one of them treated me exceptionally well and was extremely kind towards me." Hadhrat Salmaan said, "My dear brother's son! That is a sign of Imaan being fresh and superb. Don't you see that when an animal is just loaded, it carries the load quickly (because it is fresh) but when the journey is prolonged, it walks in a staggered motion?" (Therefore when Imaan is continually refreshed, it is capable of doing much.) (4)

Hadhrat Hayya bint Abu Hayya reports, "It was midday when a man came to my house. 'What is it you want, O servant of Allaah?' I asked. He explained, 'My friend and I have been searching for our camel and while he is still out looking, I have come here to take some shade and to have something to drink.' I got up and gave him some yoghurt to drink. I then looked at him closely and asked, 'Who are you, O servant of Allaah?' When he told me that his name was Abu Bakr, I asked, 'The same Abu Bakr who was the companion of Rasulullaah and about whom I heard so much?' 'Yes,' he replied.

I then started mentioning to him the battles that my tribe had fought with the Banu Khath'am and all the fights we (Arabs) had been having with each other during the Period of Ignorance. I then spoke of the love that Allaah had created between us (because of Islaam) and asked, 'O servant of Allaah! Until when will this status quo (of mutual love) last? 'As long as the leaders are upright,' he replied. 'Who are the leaders?' I enquired. He said, 'Do you not see that every tribe has a leader whom they follow and whom they obey? It shall last as long

Hadhrat Haarith bin Mu'aawiya narrates that when he came to Hadhrat Umar ﷺ, Hadhrat Umar ﷺ asked, "In what condition did you leave the people of Shaam?" After he had informed Hadhrat Umar ﷺ about the condition of the people there, Hadhrat Umar ﷺ praised Allaah and said, "Are you people perhaps socializing with the Mushrikeen?" When Hadhrat Haarith assured Hadhrat Umar ﷺ that they were not, Hadhrat Umar ﷺ said, "When you start socialising with them, you will start eating and drinking with them and your situation will remain good only when you do not do that." (2)

Hadhrat Ayaadh narrates that Hadhrat Umar ﷺ once instructed Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari ﷺ to present to him all his earnings and expenditure (as governor) on a single piece of leather. Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari ﷺ had a Christian accounts keeper and when he presented it, Hadhrat Umar ﷺ was impressed and said, "He has an excellent memory. Will you read out a letter that has come from Shaam in the Masjid?" "He will be unable to do so," Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari ﷺ said. "Why not?" Hadhrat Umar ﷺ asked, "Is he impure?" "No," Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari ﷺ replied, "he is a Christian." Hadhrat Umar ﷺ then reprimanded Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari ﷺ and hit him on the thigh saying, "Dismiss him!" He then recited the verse:

\text{بِأَيِّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا لَا تَتَّخِذُوا الْيَهُودَ وَالْمُنْفَرِّقِينَرَأْيًا بَعْضُهُمْ حَيْبًا بَعْضُهُمْبَعْضُهُمْ مُّكَامًا}

(Surah Ma'yardah, verse 51) (3)

O you who have Imaan! Do not take the Jews and Christians as friends (confidantes). They (all Kuffaar) are only the friends of each other (and cannot be your friends). Whoever of you befriends them, then he is surely from among them. Verily Allaah does not guide a nation of wrong-doers (who befriend the Kufrar). (Surah Ma'yardah, verse 51) (3)

The Practices of Rasulullaah ﷺ and the Sahabah ﷺ with Food and Drink

The Practices of Rasulullaah ﷺ

Hadrat Abu Hurayrah ﷺ narrates, "Rasulullaah ﷺ never found fault with food ever. If he liked it, he ate and if he did not, he would leave it (without comment)." (4)

Hadrat Ali ﷺ reports that the portion Rasulullaah ﷺ liked most of a goat was the foreleg. (5)

Hadhrat Jaabir \(\text{ذالق} \text{ذالق} \text{ذالق} \text{ذالق} \text{ذالق} \text{ذالق}\) narrates that when Rasulullaah \(\text{ذالق} \text{ذالق} \text{ذالق} \text{ذالق} \text{ذالق} \text{ذالق}\) came to visit them in their house, they slaughtered a goat in his honour. Rasulullaah \(\text{ذالق} \text{ذالق} \text{ذالق} \text{ذالق} \text{ذالق} \text{ذالق}\) said, "It seems like they knew we like meat." There is a more detailed story attached to this incident. \(^{(2)}\)

Hadhrat Anas \(\text{ذالق} \text{ذالق} \text{ذالق} \text{ذالق} \text{ذالق} \text{ذالق}\) says, "Rasulullaah \(\text{ذالق} \text{ذالق} \text{ذالق} \text{ذالق} \text{ذالق} \text{ذالق}\) loved bottle gourd\(^{(3)}\) so when some food was served, I started searching for it (in the plate) and placing them in front of him because I knew that he loved it." \(^{(4)}\)

Hadhrat Anas \(\text{ذالق} \text{ذالق} \text{ذالق} \text{ذالق} \text{ذالق} \text{ذالق}\) also narrates that whenever Rasulullaah \(\text{ذالق} \text{ذالق} \text{ذالق} \text{ذالق} \text{ذالق} \text{ذالق}\) ate food, he licked his three fingers \(\text{ذالق} \text{ذالق} \text{ذالق} \text{ذالق} \text{ذالق} \text{ذالق}\) (with which he ate). \(^{(5)}\)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas \(\text{ذالق} \text{ذالق} \text{ذالق} \text{ذالق} \text{ذالق} \text{ذالق}\) says, "Rasulullaah \(\text{ذالق} \text{ذالق} \text{ذالق} \text{ذالق} \text{ذالق} \text{ذالق}\) (was so humble that he) ate on the floor, tied the feet of goats when they were to be milked and even accepted the invitation of slaves to eat (plain) barley bread." \(^{(6)}\)

Hadrat Umar bin Abu Salamah ﷺ reports, "I was once eating with Rasulullaah ﷺ when I started taking meat from all over the plate. Rasulullaah ﷺ said to me, 'Eat from that which is in front of you.' " (2)

Hadrat Ummayyah bin Makhshi ﷺ reports that Rasulullaah ﷺ once saw a man eating without first reciting Bismillaah. When there was only a single morsel left, he lifted it to his mouth and (before eating it, he) recited:

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ أَوْلَدًا وَأَخَرَجَهُ

Rasulullaah ﷺ then laughed and said, "By Allaah! Shaytaan continued eating with you until you took Allaah's name. He then vomited out everything that was in his belly." Another narration states that Rasulullaah ﷺ said, "...until when you took Allaah's name, he forcefully vomited out everything in his belly." (3)

Hadrat Hudhayfah ﷺ narrates that they were once with Rasulullaah ﷺ when a platter (of food) was brought and placed before them. When Rasulullaah ﷺ held back his hand, the Sahabah ﷺ did the same because they never ate until Rasulullaah ﷺ did. A Bedouin then came appearing as if he was being shoved along. As he was about to grab at the platter to eat from the food, Rasulullaah ﷺ caught hold of his hand. Just then, a little girl came also appearing as if she was being pushed along. When she also attempted to get her hand into the food, Rasulullaah ﷺ grabbed her hand as well. Rasulullaah ﷺ then said, "Verily people's food becomes lawful for Shaytaan when they do not take Allaah's name. When Shaytaan saw that we were holding our hands back, he brought the girl so that the food could become lawful for him (when she eats without saying Bismillaah). I however, grabbed her hand. He had also brought the Bedouin to make the food lawful for himself, but I had grabbed his hand as well. I swear by the Being besides Whom there is none worthy of worship! His hand is now in my hands together with the hands of the two of them." (4)

Hadrat Aa'isha ﷺ narrates (5) that Rasulullaah ﷺ was eating with six others when a Bedouin came and ate all the food in two morsels. Rasulullaah ﷺ remarked, "Had he recited Bismillaah, the food would have sufficed for them all. When any of you eats, he should take the name of Allaah and if he forgets, he should recite:

Rasulullaah is Entertained by the Sahabah

Hadrat Abdullaah bin Busr relates, "Nabi once stopped over by my father, who served him a meal of Saweeq (1) and Hais (2). After Rasulullaah had eaten, my father brought something to drink. After drinking, Rasulullaah passed the cup on to the person on his right. When eating dates, Rasulullaah threw the stones like this." Hadrat Abdullaah bin Busr then pointed with his finger towards his back (to indicate that Rasulullaah threw the stones behind him). Narrating further, he says that when Rasulullaah got on his mule, his father held the reins and said, "Do make du'a for us, O Rasulullaah!" Rasulullaah then made the following du'aa:

"O Allaah! Bless them in the sustenance You give them, forgive them and have mercy on them." (3)

In another narration, Hadrat Abdullaah bin Busr says, "When my father once asked my mother to prepare some food for Rasulullaah, she prepared some Thareed. My father then proceeded to invite Rasulullaah for the meal and (when he arrived) Rasulullaah placed his hand on the top of the dish saying (to the Sahabah), 'Dish out taking the name of Allaah.' They then dished out from the sides. After everyone had eaten, Rasulullaah made the following du'aa:

"O Allaah! Forgive them, have mercy on them and bless them in the sustenance You give them." (4)

The Practices of Hadhrat Ali and Hadhrat Umar with Food and Drink

Hadrat Ibn A'bad reports that Hadhrat Ali once asked, "O Ibn A'bad! Do you know what is the right of food?" "What is the right of food?" Ibn A'bad asked. Hadhrat Ali replied, "That you recite:

'I begin with the name of Allaah. O Allaah! bless us in the sustenance You give us" Thereafter, Hadhrat Ali asked, "And do you know how to express gratitude after you have finished?" "How do you express gratitude?" Ibn A'bad asked. Hadhrat Ali replied, "By saying:

(1) A type of porridge prepared from barley.
(2) A sweet dish prepared with dates, butter and flour.
(3) Ibn Abi Shaybah and Abu Nu'aym.
(4) Haakim, as quoted in Kanzul Ummal (Vol. 8 Pg. 47).
'All praise is for Allaah Who has given us food and drink.\(^{(1)}\)

Hadhrat Umar 也曾 said, "Beware of excessive eating and drinking because it harms the body, is the cause of many diseases and leads to lethargy in salaat. Rather be moderate in your eating and drinking because it is healthier for the body and further from extravagance. Allaah detests the obese scholar (whose makes eating a priority) and a person shall never be destroyed until he gives precedence to his desires over his Deen."\(^{(2)}\)

Hadhrat Abu Mah'dhoora 也曾 reports that he was once sitting with Hadhrat Umar 也曾 when Hadhrat Safwaan bin Umayyah 也曾 brought a platter (of food) and placed it in front of Hadhrat Umar 也曾. Hadhrat Umar 也曾 summoned some poor people and slaves in the vicinity and they all shared the food with him. Thereafter, Hadhrat Umar 也曾 remarked, "May Allaah curse the people who are averse to their slaves eating with them." To this, Hadhrat Safwaan 也曾 said, "We are not averse to them eating with us. We eat by ourselves only because we do not find sufficient good food to feed both us and them."\(^{(3)}\)

The Practices of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar 也曾 and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas 也曾 with Food and Drink

Hadhrat Maalik bin Anas reports that when Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar 也曾 stopped over in Juhfah, Ibn Aamir bin Kurayz instructed his baker to take food to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar 也曾. When he brought one plate of food, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar 也曾 told him to put it down. When the baker returned with another plate of food and was going to take the first plate away, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar 也曾 asked, "What are you doing?" "I am taking the plate away," the baker replied. "No," said Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar 也曾, "just pour the food into this other food." Thereafter, every time a different dish was served, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar 也曾 made the man pour it into the other food. When the baker eventually returned to Hadhrat Ibn Aamir, he remarked, "That man must be an uncultured Bedouin!" Hadhrat Ibn Aamir corrected the baker saying, "That man is your leader. He is Ibn Umar 也曾."\(^{(4)}\)

Hadhrat Ja'farnarrates that because Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas 也曾 always ate the seeds of the pomegranate, someone asked, "O Ibn Abbaas! Why do you do that?" He explained, "I have heard that every pomegranate on earth grows from a seed from amongst the seeds from Jannah. This seed is perhaps the one."\(^{(5)}\)

The Practices of Hadhrat Salmaan ﷺ, Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah ﷺ and Hadhrat Ali ﷺ with Food and Drink

Hadhrat Saalim says, "I was with my master Zaid bin Sowhaan when Hadhrat Salmaan Faarsi ﷺ passed by us after purchasing a Wasaq of grain. 'O Abu Abdullaah!' Zaid called out, 'You are doing this (buying so much) when you are the companion of Rasulullaah ﷺ?' Hadhrat Salmaan ﷺ replied, 'The soul is at ease when it has secured its sustenance. It can then free itself for Ibaadah and waswaas (the devil that whispers evil into the heart) loses hope in (adversely influencing) it.'" (1)

Hadhrat Abu Uthmaan Nahdi narrates that Hadhrat Salmaan Faarsi ﷺ said, "I love to eat from the efforts of my own hands." (2)

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah ﷺ once said, "I had fifteen dates so I broke my fast with five, ate Sehri with five and kept the other five to break my fast with." (3)

Hadhrat Muslim who was the freed slave of Hadhrat Ali bin Abi Taalib ﷺ says, "When Hadhrat Ali ﷺ once asked for a drink, I brought him a cup of water and blew into it. He refused to drink it and returned it to me saying, 'You drink it.'" (4)

The Practices of Nabi ﷺ and the Sahabah ﷺ with Regard to Clothing

The Practices of Rasulullaah ﷺ

Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Abu Layla says that he was once with Hadhrat Umar ﷺ when he said, "I saw Abu Qaasim (Rasulullaah) ﷺ wearing a narrow-sleeved cloak made in Shaam." (5)

Hadhrat Jundub bin Makeeth ﷺ says, "Rasulullaah ﷺ wore his best clothing whenever he received a delegation and would instruct the senior Sahabah to do the same. On the day a delegation arrived from Kindah tribe, I saw Rasulullaah ﷺ wearing clothing made in Yemen and both Abu Bakr ﷺ and Umar ﷺ were wearing the same." (6)

Hadhrat Salamah bin Akwa ﷺ says that Hadhrat Uthmaan ﷺ's loincloth always reached halfway up his calves and he would say, "Such was the garment of my beloved (Nabi) ﷺ." (7)

Hadhrat Ash'ath bin Sulaym reports from his aunt that her uncle said, "I was walking in Madinah one day when someone behind me said, 'Lift up your loincloth because it keeps it cleaner and makes it last longer.' When I turned

The Sahabah Describe the Attire of Rasulullaah ﷺ

Hadhraat Abu Burdah narrates that Hadhraat Aa'isha ﷺ once took out and showed them a patched shawl and a loincloth made of coarse cloth. She then said, "It was in these two garments that the soul of Rasulullaah ﷺ was taken away." (2)

Hadhraat Ummu Salamah ﷺ says, "The garment Rasulullaah ﷺ loved most was his Qamees. (3) (4)

Hadhraat Asmaa bint Yazeed ﷺ reports that the sleeve of Rasulullaah ﷺ's Qamees reached his wrists.

Hadhraat Jaabir narrates that Rasulullaah ﷺ was wearing a black turban when he entered Makkah the day he conquered it.

Hadhraat Amr bin Hurayth ﷺ reports that Rasulullaah ﷺ once delivered a sermon wearing a black turban.

Hadhraat Abdullaah bin Abbaas ﷺ says that once (during his illness) Rasulullaah ﷺ delivered a sermon while wearing an oily bandage.

Hadhraat Naafi reports from Hadhraat Abdullaah bin Umar ﷺ that when Rasulullaah ﷺ tied his turban, he would let the tails hang between his shoulders. Hadhraat Abdullaah bin Umar ﷺ also tied his turban in the same manner and a narrator called Abdullaah says that he saw Hadhraat Qaasim bin Muhammad and Hadhraat Saalim also do the same. (5)

Rasulullaah ﷺ's Bedding

When Hadhraat Aa'isha ﷺ was once asked about Rasulullaah ﷺ's bedding, she replied, "It was made of leather and stuffed with the bark of a date palm." (6)

Hadhraat Aa'isha ﷺ relates, "A lady from the Ansaar once visited me and saw that Rasulullaah ﷺ's bedding comprised of cloak that was double-folded. She then left and later sent a bedding stuffed with wool. When Rasulullaah ﷺ came to me, he asked, 'What is this, O Aa'isha?' I then informed him about the lady from the Ansaar who had seen his bedding and then sent this. Rasulullaah ﷺ told me to return it. Because I liked to have it in my room, I did not return it until Rasulullaah ﷺ repeated the instruction three times. He finally said, 'Return it, O Aa'isha. I swear by Allaah that if I willed, Allaah would have made mountains of Hadhrat Muhammad narrates that he once asked Hadhrat Aa'isha ﷺ, "What was Rasulullah ﷺ's bedding like in your home?" She replied, "It was made of leather and stuffed with the bark of a date palm." When he then posed the same question to Hadhrat Hafsah ﷺ, she replied, "Rasulullah ﷺ used to sleep on a coarse sheet that we double-folded. One night I thought to myself that it would be more comfortable if I four-folded it (so I did that). The following morning, Rasulullah ﷺ asked, 'What did you spread down for me last night?' 'It was the same bedding,' I explained, 'all that I did was to four-fold it so that it would be more comfortable for you.' Rasulullah ﷺ said, 'Leave it as it was because its softness prevented me from performing salaah last night.'" (2)

What Rasulullah ﷺ Recited when Wearing New Clothing

Hadhrat Umar ﷺ reports that he saw Rasulullah ﷺ send for some new clothing. When it reached his collar-bone as he was putting it on, he recited:

```
الحمد لله الذي كسباني ما أواني به غردي وأجعلني في حياني

"All praise is for Allaah Who has given me clothing to conceal my private areas and with which I can look beautiful in this life."

Rasulullah ﷺ then said, "I swear by the Being Who controls my life! When a Muslim wears new clothing, recites these words and then purely for Allaah's pleasure gives the old clothes that he is removing to a poor person, he will remain in the care, the security and the protection of Allaah as long as there remains even a single thread of the garment left (on the poor person). This applies whether he is alive or dead. This applies whether he is alive or dead." (3)

Rasulullah ﷺ Praises the Trousers

Hadhrat Ali ﷺ reports that he was sitting with Rasulullah ﷺ near (the graveyard of) Bagee on a rainy day when a woman passed by on her donkey, carrying a heavy load. As she passed through a depression in the ground, she fell off the donkey. Rasulullah ﷺ turned his face away (so as not to see her body as it became exposed because of the fall). When someone informed Rasulullah ﷺ that the lady was wearing trousers (because of which her body did not become exposed), Rasulullah ﷺ said, "O Allaah! Forgive all the women of my Ummah who wear trousers." Addressing the Sahabah ﷺ, Rasulullah ﷺ then said, "O people! Always wear trousers because it is amongst the most concealing of clothing. Ensure that you protect your women with it whenever they go out." (4)

The ident of Rasulullaah ﷺ with Hadhrat Dihya and Hadhrat Usaamah ﷺ

Hadrat Dihya bin Khalifah Kalbi reports that Rasulullaah ﷺ once sent him as envoy to Heraclius (the Byzantine Emperor). Upon his return, Rasulullaah ﷺ gave Hadhrat Dihya a delicate white Egyptian cloth saying, "Use a part of it to make a Qamees for you and give your wife the other portion to use as a scarf." As Hadhrat Dihya was leaving, Rasulullaah ﷺ called him back saying, "Tell her to wear something underneath (the scarf) so that it is not revealing." (1)

Hadrat Usaamah bin Zaid relates, "Rasulullaah ﷺ gave me some of the thick but delicate white Egyptian cloth that he had given Dihya ﷺ. I subsequently gave it to my wife to (make something out of it to) wear. Rasulullaah ﷺ later asked me, 'What is the matter? Why are you not wearing the white Egyptian cloth?' When I informed Rasulullaah ﷺ that I had given it to my wife to wear, he said, 'Tell her to wear something underneath because I fear that it would reveal the shape of her bones.' (2)

The Incident of Hadrat Aa'isha ﷺ and her Father when she Wore Clothing that Appealed to her

Hadrat Aa'isha ﷺ reports that when she once wore some clothing, she kept looking down at it as she walked about in the room, turning about as she did so. (Her father) Hadrat Abu Bakr ﷺ then entered and said to her, "Don't you know that Allaah is presently not looking at you (with affection)." (3)

In another narration, Hadrat Aa'isha ﷺ says, "I once wore a new upper garment of mine and was very taken aback by it as I looked at it. Hadrat Abu Bakr ﷺ said to me, 'What are you looking at? Allaah is not looking at you (with affection).' 'Why not?' I asked. He replied, 'Don't you know that when self-adoration enters a servant because of worldly beauty, Allaah detests the person until the beauty is lost (and the self-adoration with it).'

I then took off the garment and gave it away as Sadaqah. Hadrat Abu Bakr ﷺ then said, 'That shall perhaps atone for you.'" (4)

The Practices of Hadrat Umar ﷺ and Hadrat Anas ﷺ With Regard to Clothing

Hadrat Abdl Azeez bin Abu Jameelah Ansaari reports that the sleeves of Hadrat Umar ﷺ's Qamees never extended past his wrists. (5)

Hadrat Badeel bin Maysara reports that Hadrat Umar _once went for the Jumu'ah salaah wearing a cloak made in Sumbulaan. Apologising to the people (for coming late), he said, "It was this cloak that delayed me." He pulled his sleeves forward and as he let go of them, they returned to the ends of his fingers.\(^1\)

Hadrat Hishaam bin Khaalid reports that he saw Hadrat Umar  tie his loincloth above his navel.

Hadrat Aamir bin Ubaydah Baahili narrates that when he once asked Hadrat Anas  about Khazz (a material in which there is a small element of silk), Hadrat Anas  replied, "I wish that Allaah had never created it. Apart from Umar  and his son, all the Sahabah  wore it." (Hadrat Anas  disliked it because it was a fabric worn by affluent non-Muslims) \(^2\)

Hadrat Masrooq narrates that Hadrat Umar  once came out to them wearing cotton clothing. When the people stared at him, he recited a couplet (which meant):

The beauty of everything you see will never last Allaah will last when all wealth and children will be destroyed
He then remarked, "By Allaah! compared to the Aakhirah, this world is just a leap of a rabbit." \(^3\)

The Practices of Hadrat Uthmaan  With Regard to Clothing

Hadrat Abu Abdullaah who was the freed slave of Hadrat Shaddaad bin Haad says, "It was on a Friday that I once saw Hadrat Uthmaan bin Affaan  standing on the pulpit wearing a shawl made in Kufa and a coarse loincloth made in Aden that was worth a mere four or five Dirhams. He was a thin, handsome man with a long beard." \(^4\)

Hadrat Moosa bin Talha says, "Hadrat Uthmaan  used to lean on a staff (as he came to the Masjid) on Fridays. He was one of the most handsome men wearing his cream-coloured loincloth and shawl as he came to the pulpit and sat on it." \(^5\)

Hadrat SulaymAbuAamirsays,"I saw Hadrat Uthmaan bin Affaan  wearing a Yemeni shawl worth a hundred Dirhams." \(^6\)

Hadrat Muhammad bin Rabee'ah bin Haarith says, "The Sahabah  used to spend generously on such clothing for their wives that was both beautiful as well as concealing. I once saw Hadrat Uthmaan  wearing a shawl edged with silk that was worth two hundred Dirhams. He said, 'This belongs to (my wife) Naa'ilah. I had given it to her to wear and am wearing it now only to" make her happy." (1)

The Practices of Hadhrat Ali ﷺ With Regard to Clothing

Hadhrat Zaid bin Wahab narrates that a delegation from Basrah once came to see Hadhrat Ali ﷺ. Amongst them was a man belonging to the Khawaarij whose name was Ja'd bin Na'ja. When he started criticising Hadhrat Ali ﷺ's clothing, Hadhrat Ali ﷺ said, "What problem have you got with my clothing when it is far away from pride and a most appropriate example for the people to follow."(2)

Hadhrat Amr bin Qais reports that when someone asked Hadhrat Ali ﷺ why he patched his Qamees, he replied, "The heart humbles with it and the Mu'min is able to follow the example."(3)

Hadhrat Ataa Abu Muhammed says, "I once saw Hadhrat Ali ﷺ wearing an unwashed Qamees made of extremely coarse cloth." (4)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abu Hudhayl reports, "I once saw on Hadhrat Ali bin Abi Taalib ﷺ a Qamees made in Ray which was such that when he stretched out his arms, the sleeves reached the ends of his fingers and when he retracted them, they reached close to halfway up his forearms." (5)

Whenever Hadhrat Ali ﷺ wore a Qamees, he would pull the sleeve until it reached his fingers. He would then cut off what was extra (extending further than the fingers) saying, "The sleeves should never extend further than the hands." (6)

Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed Azdi who was one of the Imaams of the Azd tribe reports that he once saw Hadhrat Ali ﷺ come to the marketplace and say, "Who has a good Qamees for three Dirhams?" When one of the traders said that he had one, Hadhrat Ali ﷺ went to him and liked the Qamees very much. "This must be worth more (than three Dirhams)!" Hadhrat Ali ﷺ remarked (thinking that the man was reducing the price because Hadhrat Ali ﷺ was the Ameerul Mu'mineen). "Not at all," the man replied, "that is really the price." Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed says that he then saw Hadhrat Ali ﷺ untie a knot in his clothing containing some Dirhams and giving it to the trader. Hadhrat Ali ﷺ then wore the Qamees, which happened extend past the ends of his fingers. By his instruction, the excess that extended past his fingers was then cut off. (7)

A freed slave of Hadhrat Abu Udhayn reports that he once saw Hadhrat Ali ﷺ come out of his house and approach cloth merchant saying, "Do you have a Qamees made in Sumbulaan?" The man took out one and when Hadhrat Ali ﷺ

"Four Dirhams, O Ameerul Mu'mineen," the man replied. Hadhrat Ali then untied the money from his loincloth, handed it over to the man and then left. (1)

The Practices of Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas

With Regard to Clothing

Hadhrat Sa'd bin Ibraheem says, "I saw Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf wearing a shawl or a suit of clothing worth four or five hundred Dirhams." (2) Hadhrat Qur'ah relates that when he saw Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar wearing coarse and stiff clothing, he approached him saying, "O Abu Abdur Rahmaan! I have brought you soft clothing made in Khurasaan and it would give me great pleasure to see you wearing them because your clothing is extremely coarse and stiff." "Show it to me so that I may see it for myself," Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar said. Feeling it with his hand, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar asked, "Is this silk?" "No, it is cotton," Hadhrat Qur'ah assured him. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar however said, "I fear wearing this because I fear becoming a boastful snob. Verily Allaah detests the boastful snob." (3) Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Hubaysh relates that he saw Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar wearing two cloths made by the Ma'aafir (a tribe in Yemen), which reached halfway down his calves. (4) Hadhrat Waqdaan reports that he once heard a person asking Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar, "What clothing should I wear?" Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar replied, "Clothing that will neither cause foolish people to ridicule you nor cause intelligent people to criticise you (for being extravagant)." "What type of clothing is that?" the man asked. "What costs between five and ten Dirhams," came the reply. (5) Hadhrat Abu Is'haaq reports that he saw Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar wear his loincloth halfway down his calves. In another narration, he mentions that he saw several Sahabah such as Hadhrat Usaamah bin Zaid, Hadhrat Zaid bin Arqam, Hadhrat Baraa bin Aazib and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar all wearing their loincloths halfway down their calves. The Practices of Hadhrat Aa'isha ﷺ and Hadhrat Asmaa ﷺ With Regard to Clothing

Hadrat Katheer bin Ubayd narrates that when he once went to Ummul Mu'mineen Hadrat Aa'isha ﷺ, she told him to wait until she completed stitching her old garment. As he waited, he remarked, "O Ummul Mu'mineen! If I went out and informed the people about this, they would regard it as miserliness from your side (thinking that you are too miserly to buy new clothes)." Hadrat Aa'isha ﷺ said, "Do as you see fit. The person who does not wear old clothes does not deserve new clothes (and may not have them in the Aakhirah)." (2)

Hadrat Abu Sa'eed reports that when someone entered Hadrat Aa'isha ﷺ's room as she was stitching her old garment, he remarked, "O Ummul Mu'mineen! Has Allaah not granted an abundance of wealth (to buy new clothing rather than patch old clothing)?" Hadrat Aa'isha ﷺ replied, "Leave us alone! The person who does not wear old clothes does not deserve new clothes." (3)

When Hadrat Mundhir bin Zubayr ﷺ arrived from Iraq, (his mother) Hadrat Asmaa bint Abu Bakr ﷺ had already become blind. He sent for her delicate and exquisite garments made in Marw and Quw and when she felt it, she exclaimed, "Alas! Send this clothing back to him." Hadrat Mundhir ﷺ felt hurt about it and said, "Dear mother! The garments are not transparent." She replied, "Even though they are not transparent, they are revealing." When he then bought for her common garments made in Marw and Quw, she accepted them saying, "It is these types of garments that you should give me to wear." (4)

The Practice of Hadhrat Umar ﷺ with Clothing

Hadrat Anas ﷺ reports that a woman once came to Hadrat Umar ﷺ saying, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! My upper garment is all tattered." "Have I not given you anything to wear?" Hadrat Umar ﷺ asked. "You have given me," she replied, "but it has torn." Hadrat Umar ﷺ immediately sent for an exquisite upper garment and some thread to be given to her. He then said to her, "Wear that (old clothing) when you are making bread and cooking and then wear this (new garment) once you have finished. Those not wearing old clothing do not deserve new clothes." (5)

Hadrat Kharasha bin Hurr reports that he was once looking at Hadrat Umar ﷺ as a youngster passed by, wearing his loincloth below his ankles and dragging it along as he walked. Hadrat Umar ﷺ called for him and asked,

Hadhrat Umar replied, "Then what is the matter with you hanging your garment below your ankles?" Hadhrat Umar then sent for a knife, gathered the end of the loincloth and cut off whatever hung beneath the ankles." Hadhrat Kharasha says, "It is as if I can still see the threads dangling over his heels." (1)

Hadrat Abu Uthmaan Nahdi reports that they were in Azerbaijan under the command of Hadrat Utba bin Farqad when a letter from Hadrat Umar arrived. The letter read: "Ensure that you wear your loincloths, shawls and shoes and throw away your socks and trousers. Make sure that you adopt the attire of your forefather Ismaa'eel and stay away from lives of luxury and the attire of the non-Arabs. Remain in the sun because it is the bath of the Arab. Dress simply like Ma'd bin Adnaan, live tough lives, wear old clothes, mount your animals without stirrups, do target practice and jump directly onto your horses (from the ground). Remember that Rasulullaah forbade (men from) wearing silk unless it be only this much. Rasulullaah then indicated with his middle finger." (2)

The Homes of Rasulullaah's Wives

Hadrat Mu'aadh bin Muhammad Ansaari says that they were sitting in a gathering between the pulpit and the grave of Rasulullaah. In the gathering was Hadrat Imraan bin Abu Anas and Hadrat Ataa Khuraasaani was saying, "I saw that the rooms of Rasulullaah's wives were made from the trunks of palm trees and their doors were simply veils made from black (animal) hairs. I was also present when the letter of (the king) Waleed bin Abdil Malik was read out, giving instructions for the rooms of Rasulullaah's wives to be included within the Masjid. I have never seen more people weeping than I did that day. On that day, I heard Sa'eed bin Musayyib say, 'By Allaah! I wish that they would leave the rooms as they are so that future generations of Madinah's people and people coming from other lands could see with how little Rasulullaah sufficed in his life. This would then cause people to abstain from amassing wealth and from boasting about worldly commodities."

Hadrat Mu'aadh relates further that when Hadrat Ataa Khuraasaani had completed his narration, Hadrat Imraan bin Abu Anas said, "There were four rooms made from unbaked bricks with courtyards of palm trunks while the other five were made of plastered palm trunks with no courtyards at all. Their doors were simple veils made from black (animal) hair. When I measured the veils, I found that they were three arm's lengths in height and more than an arm's length in width. As for the weeping that you mentioned, I can recall myself sitting in a gathering with a group of the Sahabah's children. Amongst them was Abu Salamah bin Abdur Rahmaan, Abu Umaamah bin Sahl bin Hunayf and Khaarijah bin Zaid. They wept so much that their beards were wet. Abu Umaamah was the
